Estella Habal's Book Presentation and Reception

San Francisco's International Hotel is part history and part memoir. In telling this compelling story, Estella Habal features her own memories of the Anti-Eviction Movement, focusing on the roles of Filipino Americans and their participation in both the anti-eviction protests and the nascent Asian American movement. She rounds out the narrative with a variety of sources, including interviews with other participants, the notes of insiders, and official reports.

“The legacy of the I-Hotel needs to be remembered. Children should know of the struggle and the ‘Rise of Manilatown’.” — Estella Habal

Estella Habal is an Assistant Professor of Asian American Studies, Department of Social Science, San Jose State University, and a member of the Board of Directors, Manilatown Heritage Foundation. Professor Habal's book will be available for sale by the Spartan bookstore.
