MCom 70, Visual Communication Assignment
“Coronavirus Chronicles”

The long-term assignment: Find something positive about how life has changed since the coronavirus pandemic began. Illustrate that story of resilience in a 2:30 video. Interviews cannot be more than 50% of the story. Use video and natural sound to show, not tell. The whole team should meet to decide on the topic and jobs.

Videos may be shown at the "Pandemic Pandemonium Promenade" conducted by the College of Humanities and Arts. The criteria for successful entries are originality, creativity and depth of analysis.

For this plan, complete a table listing each team member’s responsibility with deadlines.
