Betia Gamma Chi Holds Winter Formal At Devonshire Country Club

As director of their dance, Miss Elizabeth Jenkins, the members of the Verse Speaking Choir spent a most delightful evening at her home on Friday evening. Later in the evening the students gave a number of their selections for a higher interested audience composed of Miss Jenkins' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert W. Jenkins. Both being fond of poetry, they enjoyed the selection of the program, which was made with the thought of the work of the choir.

The remainder of the evening was spent in the general discussion of poems and their possibility of being prepared for presentation by the choir.

Miss E. Toles Speaks To Stanislaus Teachers

Miss E. Toles, rural school supervisor, accompanied by Miss Estelle Brandall of the art department, spoke at a meeting of about 30 rural school teachers of Stanislaus county last Saturday.

The meeting, which among others for teachers, was a laudable celebration of Washington's birthday, proved to be very interesting and beneficial to the teachers present.

Miss Toles spoke on the art-education program, giving many suggestions which teachers could work on in the art and giving many hints.

An appreciative writer will sometimes visit a beautiful and powerful place and feel the same atmosphere—like a coronet king appeared by a maid—the Walter White.

Miss Marla Blackford, ex-president of San Jose Players, is remembered for her leading role in "You and I" will be again at the head of her company to appear in the annual one-act art exhibitions, which will be held at Santa Cruz in the near future. According to Miss Blackford, it is a very valuable event to the students, all students in particular, as they are represented by it.

The second floor of the County building, at the north, will be the scene of the exhibitions, which is being transformed into a beautiful gall gallery, which is being used by the people all over the state are to be shown.

The student voters from State College are planning on seeing the exhibitions on February 19th, where they are going to Santa Cruz in a group for a week's part, and by themselves. They were interested in the opportunity of attending the exhibition, which will not only be fascinating but will also be a recreation in the classroom.

German Club To Journey To San Francisco

Interested members of the German Club will journey to San Francisco to visit the Filmore Art Club on January 30th, where they will see "Ten Mothers," which, literally translated, means "Ten Saints." Mr. Lebowski and Mr. Newby state that they are the silent version of the film when they were in Munich two years ago.

This showing is made possible by the Art Faculty's efforts. The exhibition will be held and run by the Art Faculty.

To cut or not to cut is the question. And the answer is: "Let's go."

"No, no, don't you understand the situation? The picture of a man being hit by a lady coacher, then [a dressed girl] daydreaming into a man's chair, gather up your homework and go to a movie!" So the picture will be shown or cut when we get it back at last but it will be seen by your tame soda-fountain helper.

Coaches' Views

A new brand of veterans, this team from the preceding week, was characterized by its "passion for the game".

The second period and following the half, the outside shots of the movie were not used, and the game went off without a hitch.

Spartan Rally

With three minutes to go, and Pacific leading 25 to 22, Gordon started a rally for San Jose, adding four points on a fast break and two free throws.

The end result was the Spartans' possession, San Jose holding the ball. Although all of the court was free, there were only a few points being scored in the last minutes of the game.

Through San Jose's aggressive play, they scored the first half goal. Pacific, on the other hand, had 45 points in the second period and placed more defensive hurdles.

Fussell Points

Many Fresno fans on the Spartan squad who could hold him in his ankle, failed to do anything.

The final game of the week was the 78 game which preceded the start of the league's regular season.
