Mr. Harold Miller, Popular Faculty Member, Gives Interesting Readings to Speech Majors at Tea Tuesday

Miss Florence Lutz Contributes To Program With Reading of "A Kiss for Cinderella"

Noting that the poetry, as well as the music, is that which we know best, Mr. Miller, editor of the English department, read out of the Remembrance of the book given by his own mother, Mrs. Miller, the students present were delighted. Miss Florence Lutz contributed with her reading of "A Kiss for Cinderella".

COMMUNITY CHEST IS OVER THE TOP AT S. J. STATE

San Jose State reached the 560,000 mark in the Community Chest drive. This was an increase of $12,000 over last year's total.

San Jose State is getting bigger and better. The students are beginning to feel at home in the new and improved facilities. The administration is working hard to make the school a success. The students are doing their part, and the faculty is doing theirs. The school is on the rise, and we can expect great things in the future.

PLENTY OF TURKEY

The Thanksgiving Day menu at San Jose State will include turkey, stuffing, cranberry sauce, and all the trimmings.

S. J. DANCE TONIGHT

Following the football game, a special dance will be held in the Student Union. The music will be provided by the San Jose State Band, and the dance will be open to all students. There will be a charge of 50 cents for admission.

STATE NIGHT AT CAL. TONIGHT

Junior Class To Take Over California Theater Tonight in Community Chest Benefit Show Starting at 6:45 P. M.

College Talent To Be Starred in Stage Performance: El Lundy, Dick Lynden, Directors

The show is on! Everything is ready for the big night. Probably the most ambitious undertaking of the California Theatre is planned. The show will be held in the main auditorium of the theatre, and will feature a variety of talent, including local students, faculty members, and professional performers. The proceeds will go to the benefit of the California Theatre Foundation, which is working to improve the theatre and make it a more attractive place for audiences. The show is not to be missed, so don't forget to come out and enjoy the performance!
Politics and the Colleger

There is no way of estimating the number of citizens in everyday life who ignored, "No, I didn't vote. One man's vote is as good as another's in the interest of the common people. The majority rules. Of course I know if everyone did the same as I do, it would make a difference. But I just feel that my money is in my pocket whatever the election goes. Of course it doesn't really matter because the popular will is always victorious in the end. We don't expect such a result. But it's lamentable that such a philosophy exists in this country. It makes me sick to the heart to think of the actions of the common people. It's the most

The "Times" Seminar has been dismissed, the instruction and ambitions and threats have been given out and the eager young reporters have their assignments, the headline is printed on the bulletin board, and the copy editor drawn for some news. The flappers pour out through the door. They are in full cry, the whole pack of them, kites, half-breeds, boarders, even dogs, stopping for speech and singing. The more you can show off the more you are admired. They are being the best of newspaper people.

"Politics is not a professed profession. It presents a chance for more learning and a better chance to be a real politician and a real human being."

The War is Over
