Welcome to the nineteenth annual meeting of the National Association for Chicano Studies. I extend this greeting on behalf of NACS, the Mexican American Studies & Research Center at the University of Arizona, and our co-sponsors from both Mexico and the United States.

This year marks the first time in the association's history that the conference is being hosted in Mexico. It is especially fitting that this should be so, as the conference theme, arrived at before the location was certain, is Los Dos Méxicos. Despite the lack of a Martin Luther King holiday in Arizona, a fact which the members of NACS deeply regret, it is a stroke of good fortune that we are meeting here in the capital of Sonora, because it will strengthen the study of the common heritage of Mexicanos and Chicanos. Indeed, among the subjects to be covered during this year's conference are a great many which those of us on both sides of the border share a common interest and passion.

This interest, however, is more than simply a result of our shared history; it comes from a desire on the part of Chicanos and Mexicanos to grow in knowledge, to explore the many facets of our rich cultures, and to increase the current opportunities for the members of our communities.

In addition to the numerous panel presentations, we have scheduled several major sessions that will address the areas of health, economics, immigration, and the future of Los Dos Méxicos. The individuals who will speak during these sessions are sure to provide us with valuable new insights. Those presenting in the panel discussions — faculty members, students and others — will likewise inform and enlighten.

Felicidades to Arturo Madrid and Jorge Bustamante, who will be receiving awards for their distinguished scholarship and service.

Mil gracias to the individuals and institutions, too numerous to name here, that have made this year's conference a reality.

I wish you all an enjoyable and successful stay in Hermosillo.

Macario Saldade IV
NACS 19 Conference Coordinator

Bienvenidos a la XIX Convención Anual de la Asociación Nacional de Estudios Chicanos. Los saludo a nombre de NACS, del Centro de Estudios e investigación Mexico Americanos de la Universidad de Arizona y también de parte de nuestros patrocinadores de ambos países, México y los Estados Unidos.

Esta es la primera ocasión en la que esta conferencia es ofrecida en México y por lo tanto el título, "Los Dos Méxicos" es muy apropiado. El estado de Arizona no reconoce oficialmente la conmemoración del día de Martin Luther King y por este motivo los dirigentes de NACS acordaron celebrar nuestra convención en la ciudad de Hermosillo, Sonora, decisión muy afortunada, ya que hoy estamos aquí reunidos en la capital de Sonora, representando a ambos lados de nuestras fronteras, con un gran interés de fortalecer nuestros lazos de amistad y cordial entendimiento. Este interés es más que un simple interés en nuestra historia común, este interés proviene de un deseo por parte de los Chicanos y Mexicanos de adquirir conocimientos, de explorar las múltiples facetas de nuestras grandes culturas y a su vez aumentar el intercambio de ideas y proyectos para el mejoramiento de nuestras comunidades.

Además de las numerosas presentaciones, hemos programado varias sesiones referentes a las áreas de salud, economía, emigración y el futuro de Los Dos Mexicos. Los participantes en estos foros, miembros de facultades universitarias así como miembros profesionales y estudiantes, nos brindaran nuevas perspectivas, nueva información y mayor entendimiento.

Felicitemos a Arturo Madrid y Jorge Bustamente, quienes serán reconocidos por su distinguidos servicios a la comunidad.

Reiteramos nuestro agradecimiento a las personas e instituciones de ambos países por su ayuda y labor desinteresada, ya que gracias a ellos nos ha sido posible realizar esta reunión.

Les deseo a todos ustedes una estancia provechosa y agradable en esta bella ciudad de Hermosillo.

Macario Saldate IV
Coordinador de NACS XIX
