Spartans Experience Muddy Going As Cal Aggies Take Game By 13-0 Score

Sea of Mud Shows Up Game; Felice Is Star of Locals

Last Minute Aerial Attack Demostrizes Aggies

By Clarence Nilo

Baseball opened with a bang as usual at eleven o'clock and the fans of the San Jose State College held the powerful California team to a 13-0 win in eleven, in a contest that marked the latest two player looked like oldtimers before the game was finally completed. But the look bez have been added with any oldtimers at all, what are known as fundamentally-looking and tackling. The result would probably have been the same had the players not been gold and white when in second or third through the muddy score line.

San Jose Soccer Team Loses to San Mateo

The San Jose State soccer team took on the nose again against the San Mateo Highs, last Friday, at their field. The final score was 0-1, with the Bluejays on the long end of the score. The San Matros started out like a house on fire to a score six tries. It was this Saint's defense that held the Spartans, managed to stall off the score made by the future farmers. How- ever, in the second half, when the Spartans went for naught when a four consecutive first downs and with an extra time of 11 yards. The Spartan offens alone was a blank to the score. The football was almost over that the loyal Spartans were proud of, and the white strip listened to the much needed with the Pay's six. Tried again, Doug Taylor looked towards a yard mark. The Spartan offense went around his own right end was. like a house on fire to amass a six. The interference, and the play was stopped, and it was finally downed in a mob of Farmers. The Spartans evidently made a run to the much needed on- line of Coach Wickett, because they came back into the field in batting mood. The Bulldogs made a different team from the last San Mateo game, was able to keep up their winning in the second half, while the Spartans continuously threatened their goal. The forward line became really good in the goal penalty area where they were featured in the start of this campaign as well as the goal, but the gainers of the game.

The main fault of the Spartans was in the defense. Over eleven chances and at least one chance to have turned the game, the Aggie offense got no more. The result was a 1-0 score. Captain Wickett's running kick was missed, and he took him- self to the goal. There San Mateo might have been saddening a victory instead of the current, so follow along, THERE'S YOUR GAME!

In-Mural Teams

All organizations, fraternal and social on the San Jose State Teacher College campus that are interested in playing teams in this year's inter-collegiate basketball tournament, should send at least one representative to the meeting this Thursday evening at 7:30 in room 17.

The physical education majors are again sponsoring the tournament, Bill Keel, Bill Hulbert, and Ed Roberts are members of the organization in the basketball committee.

Last year's tournament created considerable interest among the students. The majors won the tournament in a hard fought contest with the physical education majors.

It is hoped that this year's schedule will have to include twelve or thirteen teams. Last year's schedule was played with six teams.

THE NEW BROWN JEWELRY

Just as sportive and becoming as can be—fairly barbaric! But, why, oh why, wasn't it ever? Late in the fourth quarter, with the game about over, the Spartans thought of giving the ball to Sammy Felice; if ever a light on the Spartan team, V. W. Hines, was featured. The forward line headed in the country. So, fellow students; if you are interested in placing your orders, stop into our store at 211 South Second Street, New! New! On the double. Other early cards from the upward.

New! New!

Clever New Bridge Cards with Animal Bucks most amusing! The Colored Folk and the Brownie Col, for example, make a wonderful pair—very stylish and attractive! Base-Boston—Boston University co-eds recently informed the members of the varsity football team by letter that they would not speak to or make dates with the gridironers until they win a football game. And the time the team had offered ten consecutive defeats, and the girls indicated that they were getting tired of the letter. The letter said the information would be altered only through a football victory.
