SOCIETY OF AMERICAN ARCHIVISTS STUDENT CHAPTER

ANNUAL REPORT
2021-2022

Prepared and submitted by:
Barbara Alvarado Gonzalez
SJSU SAASC Chair
May 31, 2022

INTRODUCTION

The Society of American Archivists Student Chapter (SAASC) at San José State University (SJSU) is pleased to submit to the Society of American Archivists (SAA) Executive Council the 2021-2022 SJSU SAASC Annual Report. This document outlines the chapter's activities as well as the accomplishments that took place during the academic year.

LEADERSHIP TEAM

With minimal changes to the leadership team, the 2021-2022 SJSU SAASC Executive Board successfully fulfilled its mission to promote and engage with interested students about the archival profession. Throughout the academic year various events, resources, and interactive networking opportunities were offered to current and prospective members. The addition of a new Membership Director enabled the chapter to expand its student engagement efforts in new and creative ways. Furthermore, through the thoughtful efforts of our Social Media Coordinators our online presence was elevated. Lastly, several members will be participating in this year's SAA Annual Meeting.

MEMBERSHIP

Student membership for the SJSU SAASC continued to grow steadily. At the start of the Fall 2021 semester, the chapter had over 250 members registered on Canvas, the SJSU School of Information (SJSU iSchool) online learning portal. As of May 2022, student membership grew by 17.6% with 294 registered members. This growth can be attributed to the new engagement and community building initiatives that were launched this year.

The following is a list of the 90 SAASC full members for the 2021-2022 academic year. Full members are those students who are affiliated with the Society of American Archivists in addition to the student chapter. This number continues to be a significant increase from the 20 full members from the 2019-2020 academic year. Additionally, 92 names were found in the SAA directory with an SJSU affiliation listed (i.e., email address or organization). This is information that can potentially help future outreach initiatives - if these are students they can be encouraged to join the Canvas group and participate in SAASC activities. The ratio of student chapter members also belonging to SAA is currently at 30%.

NEWSLETTER

Initiated by the new Membership Director, the monthly digital newsletter was established to help expand the chapter's promotional reach and visibility. Specifically, the newsletter is meant to help the chapter connect with students who may not be receiving SAASC updates from the groups Canvas page or social media channels. In addition to promoting SAASC events, the newsletter also aims to highlight the SAA and its membership benefits. Finally, the “Meet a Member” column, which spotlights a new chapter member every month, provides an opportunity to engage directly with our comrades - fostering a sense of inclusivity and community. Not only does this recurring column help us celebrate our members, it also offers our readers a chance to learn about the diverse archival interests and professional aspirations of our members. This information may inspire non-members to join the SJSU SAASC!

The inaugural issue was released on August 30, 2021 and garnered 50 subscribers. As of May 2022, the SAASC has released a total of 10 newsletters and has over 100 subscribers.

EVENTS

Although the COVID-19 restrictions continued to prevent in-person visits to archival institutions and repositories, the SJSU SAASC was able to successfully develop a robust schedule of virtual presentations and events. Throughout the 2021-2022 academic year, students were given a variety of opportunities to learn about different archival professions, repositories, and organizations. From discovering the largest LGBTQ archival repository in the world to becoming a citizen archivist, SJSU iSchool students were able to expand their archival knowledge, access career advice from professionals in the field, while also engaging with one another in innovative and exciting ways.

FALL SEMESTER

iSchool Student Group Meet & Greet

September 1, 2021

The Fall 2021 iSchool Student Group Meet & Greet event was an opportunity for current and new students to learn about the various student organizations at the San José State University School of Information. Every student group had the chance to discuss and promote their chapter's mission, upcoming events, resources, and the numerous ways that interested students could get involved.

SAASC Virtual Scavenger Hunt Kickoff Meeting

October 4, 2021

In honor of American Archives Month, the SAASC organizes its first ever Virtual Scavenger Hunt. This interactive event provided students with the opportunity to have fun, learn about American archives, and meet other SAASC members. Participants worked in teams to solve archival related trivia each week and earn points. At the end of the event, each group's points were tallied and the winner was announced at a wrap up meeting. During that meeting, the participants were able to share their experiences with one another.

Transcription Competition

March 1, 2022

During the Spring semester the SAASC organized a new team competition where students worked together to transcribe records for the National Archives. The event started in March and concluded in April where the team with the most transcriptions was announced. To participate students had to be a member of the chapter and register to become a citizen archivist with the National Archives and Records Administration (NARA). To help boost engagement and morale a mid-event check-in was provided where students had the opportunity to speak with other teams about their progress and experiences. A discussion board was also created within the chapter's Canvas page so participants could ask questions, get some tips on transcribing, and continue to connect with other participants. In addition to promoting the profession and fostering a healthy sense of competition, the primary aim of the event was to engage with our members while also fostering a sense of community amongst students.

Hilary Swett, Librarian and Archivist, at the Writers Guild Foundation

March 15, 2022

In this presentation Librarian and Archivist for the Writers Guild Foundation Library and Archives, Hilary Swett, provides an exciting behind-the-scenes look at what it is like to help preserve and share the “stories behind your favorite stories”. The Writers Guild Foundation Library and Archives preserves and promotes the art, craft, and history of screenwriting, and records the vital memory of the entertainment industry’s first talent labor union, the Writers Guild of America. The rare and unique collections include historical materials, produced and unproduced scripts, letters, photographs, production notes, memorabilia, oral histories, and personal items of film, television and radio writers.

The Writers Guild Foundation, a non-profit organization in Los Angeles that is affiliated with the Writers Guild of America labor union, was founded to educate and inspire the next generation of screenwriters as well as preserve the long history of the screenwriting profession in the U.S.A.

Alex Soto (Tohono O’odham), Director of the Labriola National American Indian Data Center, at Arizona State University Library

April 20, 2022

Alexander Soto (Tohono O’odham), the Director of the Labriola National American Indian Data Center, at the Arizona State University (ASU) Library offers an informative presentation where he discusses the important work that is being done at the Labriola Center to build a strong collection that preserves and promotes Indigenous history. Additionally, Mr. Soto shares his personal and professional experiences working in Indigenous librarianship, community-driven archives, and Indigenous data sovereignty.

The Labriola National American Indian Data Center, part of the ASU Library, is a research collection international in scope that brings together in one location current and historic information on government, culture, religion and worldview, social life and customs, tribal history, and information on individuals from the United States, Canada, Sonora, and Chihuahua, Mexico. The Center aims to have the most complete collection possible of language and linguistic materials, including dictionaries, grammars, workbooks, readers, and literature on all Native American/Alaska Native groups.

Executive Board Elections Q&A

April 26, 2022

To help boost recruitment and student nominations for the 2022-2023 Executive Board elections, the SAASC held a live Q&A event where students who were interested in applying could ask questions about the election process, requirements, and workload. In addition to answering questions, the current leadership team also shared their individual experiences and encouraged all attendees to apply.

Number of attendees at live event: 16

ARCHEOTA

Archeota is a semiannual publication produced by the SJSU Society of American Archivists Student Chapter. The publication is a platform for students to contribute to the archival conversation, and is written by students, for students. Archeota is published on SJSU ScholarWorks, the open source digital repository of San José State University. In the academic year of 2021-2022, SAASC produced two issues of Archeota: Volume 7, Issue 2, in February 2022, and Volume 8, Issue 1 (expected publication date: June, 2022).

WEBSITE

The SJSU SAASC website continues to function as our central communication hub. Following last year's redesign project, the website has maintained its professional aesthetic while also providing user-friendly navigation features. Additional website improvements include:

- ❖ Addition of a newsletter plugin
- ❖ Events calendar includes more external archive-related events

Furthermore, we increased activity on our blog, hosted on the website, to include SAASC event recaps, chapter updates, posts about interesting archive-related events, and we published our first guest blog post from an iSchool student.

SOCIAL MEDIA PRESENCE

Beginning in Fall 2021, Social Media Coordinators Erin Castillo and Heather Reinold began a content development and engagement strategy across all of SJSU SAASC social media accounts. While Facebook, LinkedIn, and Twitter had been established by prior executive boards, this year's coordinators launched and grew the chapter's Instagram account. Shareable content was created and posted across our social media platforms to introduce iSchool students to the variety of archival organizations and repositories that exist within the field. Significant efforts were made to promote chapter events as well as other relevant iSchool and SAA activities in new and interactive ways. During the Fall semester, social media played a key role in the chapter's National Archives Month Virtual Scavenger Hunt by requiring participants to post and tag our various social media accounts as part of the challenge. As such, our highest levels of engagement and most impressions recorded during the Fall semester coincided with the dates of the Scavenger Hunt.

In Spring 2022, the team began sharing content with the goal of encouraging students to engage with online collections. Making scholarships and internships opportunities widely available to our followers was also prioritized. This led to the creation of the chapter's Student Opportunities Canvas page, which summarized all archival-related scholarship and internship opportunities available for MLIS students. As a result, the most liked post was an internship opportunity at Pixar from January. Social media also played an integral role in the chapter's February presentation with Craig Simpson, Director of Special Collections & Archives at SJSU Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Library. Two weeks prior to Craig's talk, the social media team shared images from SJSU's Civil Rights and Campus Protest Special Collection to help boost interest and celebrate African American History Month. Students were challenged with trivia questions and encouraged to use the special collection for further research. The timely topic made February our most engaged month on Instagram - reaching audiences beyond SJSU and SAASC who were curious about the presentation.

Overall, the social media team grew the chapter's following across all accounts: by 5% on Facebook and Twitter (respectively), 88% on LinkedIn, and to 147 followers on Instagram.

SAA ARCHIVES*RECORDS 2021 CONFERENCE

In August 2021, the SJSU iSchool sponsored the attendance of twelve members of the SAASC leadership team to attend the SAA 2021 conference. In addition to each student submitting a recap of their conference experience, Sereen Suleiman, Blog Editor, wrote a post for their experience for the SJSU SAASC website:

<https://ischoolgroups.sjsu.edu/saasc/2021/08/21/my-experience-at-the-society-of-american-archivists-saa-archives-records-2021-conference/>

Additionally, former SAASC Executive Board Members Alison Quirion, Sabrina Holecko, and Samantha Hamilton presented their student poster, “True or False? The Pandemic had No Impact on a Student Chapter Comprised of Distant Learners,” at the SAA 2021 Annual Conference.

2022-2023 SAASC ELECTION RESULTS

In April 2022, the nomination process opened for the 2022-2023 leadership team, with elections held later in the month and results announced on May 14, 2022.
