The affirmative side of the motion was put up by San Jose State with Ferdinand Amblers here.

Tickets For One
Act Plays Now On Sale In Quad

Students Deciding Choice

The sale of tickets for the three one-act plays to be presented in the State College's annual Play Festival will begin tomorrow afternoon. Two performances of each play will be shown on Thursday and Friday evenings, the 9th and 10th, and a single performance will be given on Saturday afternoon, the 11th.

The plays, which vary in plot and theme, have been in排练 for the last few weeks, and all three of the plays will benefit a different effort to make their characters more accessible. Lawrence Mendenhall, director, has selected plays to appeal to young people of different age levels and to be suitable for a wide range of audiences.

The first play, "The Professor," presented by the Players, is a farcical play about a group of students who are trying to make a profit on a student newspaper. It is a light-hearted comedy that should appeal to a wide audience.

The second play, "The Man Who Invented Music," presented by the Players, is a musical play with a serious message about the power of music to bring people together. It is a lively and entertaining production that should appeal to a diverse audience.

The third play, "The Man Who Invented Music," presented by the Players, is a musical play with a serious message about the power of music to bring people together. It is a lively and entertaining production that should appeal to a diverse audience.

The players, who are all members of the Players, have been working hard to prepare these plays for the audience. They have been rehearsing every day and have put a lot of effort into making sure that the plays are as good as possible.

The sale of tickets for these three plays will begin tomorrow afternoon and continue through Saturday evening. The price of the tickets is $1.00 for adults and $0.50 for students. The tickets can be purchased at the box office located in the Student Union Building.

The players are looking forward to the audience's reaction to their hard work and are excited to share their productions with the audience. They hope that the audience will enjoy the plays and appreciate the effort that has gone into their creation.

For more information about the plays, please contact the Players at the box office in the Student Union Building.
