Comparative Philosophy is a peer-reviewed international journal of philosophy, with emphasis on the constructive engagement of distinct approaches to philosophical issues, problems, themes from various philosophical traditions/styles/orientations of doing philosophy for the sake of their joint contribution to the common philosophical enterprise, and/or on general theory and methodology of comparative philosophy. [For further information about the emphasis, coverage and orientation of the journal, see the homepage of its website.]

Taking the open-access approach, Comparative Philosophy is published in English on the World Wide Web without subscription cost. The journal is published by the following non-profit university institutions: Center for Comparative Philosophy and University Library, San Jose State University, San Jose, California 95192, USA.

Comparative Philosophy is to primarily publish original articles of high-quality. Submissions of articles to Comparative Philosophy are judged through a blind refereeing process and selected for publication on the basis of their academic quality, relevance to constructive engagement, and significance to comparative philosophy. The editorial team is free to publish as few articles as are judged to meet a high standard of quality. Depending on need, the Journal might include a special column of essays on a specific theme, a “Constructive-Engagement Dialogue” section, or a “Recent Work” section. [For “Authors Guidelines”, see the “Submissions” part at the website of the Journal.]

Comparative Philosophy is currently a biannual journal (January/February and July/August of each year). The Journal is published in a typeset format that can be read on-screen or printed by the reader. Besides the ISSN of the Journal, the physical appearance and Universal Resource Locator (URLs) are permanently fixed to allow for reliable citations.

The copyright of an article published by Comparative Philosophy remains with its author(s); the Journal does not manage rights and permissions for other uses of the article (such as its translation or reprint) but have them at the discretion of its author(s), provided that full reference is made to Comparative Philosophy as the original (English) medium of publication.
