Meeting Is Called Today for Tennis Candidates

There will be a meeting of all candidates for the tennis team at 3 p.m. today between the second and third floors. Those who are interested in tennis are urged to be present.

FRISH HOOPSVERS HAVE GREAT RECORD

By Bill Ribble

Coach Richard Bernhard brought the second group of Freshman basketball teams to the campus last night and engaged in a game of basketball. The score was 39-19. The boys were led by the captain, Will Wood, who was also one of the stars of the game. The other team was made up of men from other fraternities and was led by the captain, Bob Miller. The score was 33-19. The boys were led by the captain, Will Wood, who was also one of the stars of the game. The other team was made up of men from other fraternities and was led by the captain, Bob Miller.

The men are looking forward to the upcoming game against the University of California. The team is currently ranked #5 in the nation and is expected to win the championship.

ECONOMIC PARLEY, Led By Poynter, Ends With Dinner

By Steve Murdock

Last night at the Phi Delta Theta house, Mr. Poynter, the leader of the economic parley, presented the final report of the meetings. The parley was formed to discuss the economic situation and to come up with solutions to the problems faced by the country. The meetings were attended by representatives from various organizations and institutions, including the University of California, Stanford University, and the California State University.

The parley ended with a dinner at the Phi Delta Theta house, where the participants were able to relax and discuss the outcomes of the meetings.

ANNUAL PRIOR TO BE HELD ON MARCH 3

By Bill Ribble

The annual prior will be held on March 3 at 7 p.m. in the auditorium. The event is open to all members of the university community and is expected to be a great success. The prior will feature speeches, entertainment, and a special guest speaker. The tickets will be sold at the door for $5 each. The event is sponsored by the student council and is expected to raise funds for various campus organizations.

STATE COLLEGE TIMES

No. 75

Tickets On Sale For Last Concert On February 28

By Steve Murdock

Tickets for the last concert of the season are now on sale. The concert will be held on February 28 at 8 p.m. in the auditorium. The guest performers will be announced soon. The ticket price is $5 for adults and $3 for students. The concert is expected to be a great event for all music lovers.

Two Unique Dances Planned by Simonetti For This Week-End

By Steve Murdock

Two unique dances are planned by Simonetti for this week-end. The first dance will be held on Friday night at 9 p.m. in the auditorium. The second dance will be held on Saturday night at 9 p.m. in the same location. The events are expected to be popular among the students.

Nominations For Student Affairs Slaten Tuesday

By Steve Murdock

Nominations for student affairs are due on Tuesday. The candidates will be interviewed by the faculty and the results will be announced soon. The positions include president, vice president, and secretary.

Date of German Play Is Changed to March 2

By Steve Murdock

The date of the German play has been changed to March 2. The play was originally scheduled for February 25. The new date is expected to be a better time for the performance. The play is directed by Mr. Simonetti and is expected to be a great event for the students.

STATE COLLEGE TIMES

No. 75

ANNUAL PRIOR TO BE HELD ON MARCH 3

By Bill Ribble

The annual prior will be held on March 3 at 7 p.m. in the auditorium. The event is open to all members of the university community and is expected to be a great success. The prior will feature speeches, entertainment, and a special guest speaker. The tickets will be sold at the door for $5 each. The event is sponsored by the student council and is expected to raise funds for various campus organizations.

ECONOMIC PARLEY, Led By Poynter, Ends With Dinner

By Steve Murdock

Last night at the Phi Delta Theta house, Mr. Poynter, the leader of the economic parley, presented the final report of the meetings. The parley was formed to discuss the economic situation and to come up with solutions to the problems faced by the country. The meetings were attended by representatives from various organizations and institutions, including the University of California, Stanford University, and the California State University.

The parley ended with a dinner at the Phi Delta Theta house, where the participants were able to relax and discuss the outcomes of the meetings.

ANNUAL PRIOR TO BE HELD ON MARCH 3

By Bill Ribble

The annual prior will be held on March 3 at 7 p.m. in the auditorium. The event is open to all members of the university community and is expected to be a great success. The prior will feature speeches, entertainment, and a special guest speaker. The tickets will be sold at the door for $5 each. The event is sponsored by the student council and is expected to raise funds for various campus organizations.

STATE COLLEGE TIMES

No. 75

Tickets On Sale For Last Concert On February 28

By Steve Murdock

Tickets for the last concert of the season are now on sale. The concert will be held on February 28 at 8 p.m. in the auditorium. The guest performers will be announced soon. The ticket price is $5 for adults and $3 for students. The concert is expected to be a great event for all music lovers.

Two Unique Dances Planned by Simonetti For This Week-End

By Steve Murdock

Two unique dances are planned by Simonetti for this week-end. The first dance will be held on Friday night at 9 p.m. in the auditorium. The second dance will be held on Saturday night at 9 p.m. in the same location. The events are expected to be popular among the students.

Nominations For Student Affairs Slaten Tuesday

By Steve Murdock

Nominations for student affairs are due on Tuesday. The candidates will be interviewed by the faculty and the results will be announced soon. The positions include president, vice president, and secretary.

Date of German Play Is Changed to March 2

By Steve Murdock

The date of the German play has been changed to March 2. The play was originally scheduled for February 25. The new date is expected to be a better time for the performance. The play is directed by Mr. Simonetti and is expected to be a great event for the students.
Page 3

Social Calendar

The remainder of the winter quarter. The following events will mark the winter:

Friday, February 20

Florida State gives its annual banquet in Kappa Sigma chapter, which will be followed by a formal dance. The Florida State chapter is expected to be large and impressive, with many guests from other universities. The dance will feature live music and a variety of performances, including speeches and poetry readings.

Monday, February 23

The Phantom Cargo

A Serial Novel by Owen Ulrich—Lois Nolan—and Frances Arnez

Chapter 1: The Purple Peals

What Has Gone Before

Pauline Flow, a halls of the American Tobacco Company, has been assigned to Paula's young man. She has always been interested in the company's work and has decided to help in any way she can. She is determined to do her best to protect the company's reputation and ensure its success.

"I trust this will not weary you," said the young man. "I have been thinking about it a great deal and feel that it is important for the company's welfare. I have spoken to many of our employees and they all feel the same way. We must work together to protect our company and its reputation."

"I understand," replied Pauline Flow. "I will do my best to help in any way I can."

"Thank you," said the young man. "I am sure we can count on your support."

Pauline Flow promised to do her best to help the company and its employees.

Social Calendar

Friday, February 20

Florida State gives its annual banquet in Kappa Sigma chapter, which will be followed by a formal dance. The Florida State chapter is expected to be large and impressive, with many guests from other universities. The dance will feature live music and a variety of performances, including speeches and poetry readings.

Monday, February 23

The Phantom Cargo

A Serial Novel by Owen Ulrich—Lois Nolan—and Frances Arnez

Chapter 1: The Purple Peals

What Has Gone Before

Pauline Flow, a halls of the American Tobacco Company, has been assigned to Paula's young man. She has always been interested in the company's work and has decided to help in any way she can. She is determined to do her best to protect the company's reputation and ensure its success.

"I trust this will not weary you," said the young man. "I have been thinking about it a great deal and feel that it is important for the company's welfare. I have spoken to many of our employees and they all feel the same way. We must work together to protect our company and its reputation."

"I understand," replied Pauline Flow. "I will do my best to help in any way I can."

"Thank you," said the young man. "I am sure we can count on your support."

Pauline Flow promised to do her best to help the company and its employees.

Social Calendar

Friday, February 20

Florida State gives its annual banquet in Kappa Sigma chapter, which will be followed by a formal dance. The Florida State chapter is expected to be large and impressive, with many guests from other universities. The dance will feature live music and a variety of performances, including speeches and poetry readings.

Monday, February 23

The Phantom Cargo

A Serial Novel by Owen Ulrich—Lois Nolan—and Frances Arnez

Chapter 1: The Purple Peals

What Has Gone Before

Pauline Flow, a halls of the American Tobacco Company, has been assigned to Paula's young man. She has always been interested in the company's work and has decided to help in any way she can. She is determined to do her best to protect the company's reputation and ensure its success.

"I trust this will not weary you," said the young man. "I have been thinking about it a great deal and feel that it is important for the company's welfare. I have spoken to many of our employees and they all feel the same way. We must work together to protect our company and its reputation."

"I understand," replied Pauline Flow. "I will do my best to help in any way I can."

"Thank you," said the young man. "I am sure we can count on your support."

Pauline Flow promised to do her best to help the company and its employees.

Social Calendar

Friday, February 20

Florida State gives its annual banquet in Kappa Sigma chapter, which will be followed by a formal dance. The Florida State chapter is expected to be large and impressive, with many guests from other universities. The dance will feature live music and a variety of performances, including speeches and poetry readings.

Monday, February 23

The Phantom Cargo

A Serial Novel by Owen Ulrich—Lois Nolan—and Frances Arnez

Chapter 1: The Purple Peals

What Has Gone Before

Pauline Flow, a halls of the American Tobacco Company, has been assigned to Paula's young man. She has always been interested in the company's work and has decided to help in any way she can. She is determined to do her best to protect the company's reputation and ensure its success.

"I trust this will not weary you," said the young man. "I have been thinking about it a great deal and feel that it is important for the company's welfare. I have spoken to many of our employees and they all feel the same way. We must work together to protect our company and its reputation."

"I understand," replied Pauline Flow. "I will do my best to help in any way I can."

"Thank you," said the young man. "I am sure we can count on your support."

Pauline Flow promised to do her best to help the company and its employees.

Social Calendar

Friday, February 20

Florida State gives its annual banquet in Kappa Sigma chapter, which will be followed by a formal dance. The Florida State chapter is expected to be large and impressive, with many guests from other universities. The dance will feature live music and a variety of performances, including speeches and poetry readings.

Monday, February 23

The Phantom Cargo

A Serial Novel by Owen Ulrich—Lois Nolan—and Frances Arnez

Chapter 1: The Purple Peals

What Has Gone Before

Pauline Flow, a halls of the American Tobacco Company, has been assigned to Paula's young man. She has always been interested in the company's work and has decided to help in any way she can. She is determined to do her best to protect the company's reputation and ensure its success.

"I trust this will not weary you," said the young man. "I have been thinking about it a great deal and feel that it is important for the company's welfare. I have spoken to many of our employees and they all feel the same way. We must work together to protect our company and its reputation."

"I understand," replied Pauline Flow. "I will do my best to help in any way I can."

"Thank you," said the young man. "I am sure we can count on your support."

Pauline Flow promised to do her best to help the company and its employees.

Social Calendar

Friday, February 20

Florida State gives its annual banquet in Kappa Sigma chapter, which will be followed by a formal dance. The Florida State chapter is expected to be large and impressive, with many guests from other universities. The dance will feature live music and a variety of performances, including speeches and poetry readings.

Monday, February 23

The Phantom Cargo

A Serial Novel by Owen Ulrich—Lois Nolan—and Frances Arnez

Chapter 1: The Purple Peals

What Has Gone Before

Pauline Flow, a halls of the American Tobacco Company, has been assigned to Paula's young man. She has always been interested in the company's work and has decided to help in any way she can. She is determined to do her best to protect the company's reputation and ensure its success.

"I trust this will not weary you," said the young man. "I have been thinking about it a great deal and feel that it is important for the company's welfare. I have spoken to many of our employees and they all feel the same way. We must work together to protect our company and its reputation."

"I understand," replied Pauline Flow. "I will do my best to help in any way I can."

"Thank you," said the young man. "I am sure we can count on your support."

Pauline Flow promised to do her best to help the company and its employees.

Social Calendar

Friday, February 20

Florida State gives its annual banquet in Kappa Sigma chapter, which will be followed by a formal dance. The Florida State chapter is expected to be large and impressive, with many guests from other universities. The dance will feature live music and a variety of performances, including speeches and poetry readings.

Monday, February 23

The Phantom Cargo

A Serial Novel by Owen Ulrich—Lois Nolan—and Frances Arnez

Chapter 1: The Purple Peals

What Has Gone Before

Pauline Flow, a halls of the American Tobacco Company, has been assigned to Paula's young man. She has always been interested in the company's work and has decided to help in any way she can. She is determined to do her best to protect the company's reputation and ensure its success.

"I trust this will not weary you," said the young man. "I have been thinking about it a great deal and feel that it is important for the company's welfare. I have spoken to many of our employees and they all feel the same way. We must work together to protect our company and its reputation."

"I understand," replied Pauline Flow. "I will do my best to help in any way I can."

"Thank you," said the young man. "I am sure we can count on your support."

Pauline Flow promised to do her best to help the company and its employees.

Social Calendar

Friday, February 20

Florida State gives its annual banquet in Kappa Sigma chapter, which will be followed by a formal dance. The Florida State chapter is expected to be large and impressive, with many guests from other universities. The dance will feature live music and a variety of performances, including speeches and poetry readings.

Monday, February 23

The Phantom Cargo

A Serial Novel by Owen Ulrich—Lois Nolan—and Frances Arnez

Chapter 1: The Purple Peals

What Has Gone Before

Pauline Flow, a halls of the American Tobacco Company, has been assigned to Paula's young man. She has always been interested in the company's work and has decided to help in any way she can. She is determined to do her best to protect the company's reputation and ensure its success.

"I trust this will not weary you," said the young man. "I have been thinking about it a great deal and feel that it is important for the company's welfare. I have spoken to many of our employees and they all feel the same way. We must work together to protect our company and its reputation."

"I understand," replied Pauline Flow. "I will do my best to help in any way I can."

"Thank you," said the young man. "I am sure we can count on your support."

Pauline Flow promised to do her best to help the company and its employees.
San Jose State College Times

Capers Close Season Against Chico Here

Intra-Mural

The baseball team will be

CATCH BLESCH'S TRACKSTERS HOLD
INTERCLASS MEET THIS AFTERNOON AND TONIGHT, JUNIORS FAVOR

In the matter.

Jenks, guard.

pie Club. Acker will bring al to the starters fall to season into much i.e a success.

werv init. ding for the lop spot be:knit,. with another 5 in re-

Loe

rate here tonight and tomorrow

Eneouraiaal by their brilliant

.%. group titled. -The

A good deal of interest has the first year class took first place I for Ilt.• other. Illactiw and Hord - will be etie otr in...pity on the  "Ilti AIIIS' for relief 110Y. The

the Local Rugby team

men.  tir one of each, The elimi-

to those used in the present intro

rules for playing will be similar

11..1 week.  This league will be

B. F. TEAcHERs

op to play host after those used in the trial,

the wah around theo val. I i:20 lint }aril dash.

11:22) 221) yard dash.

Will

cow readh to step ill 1:rances

for the fellows

mateo piled up three run. in the againal any school in the Far

up hin bunch of pole limiters

State gridiron greats. inattin.r

2:15.  The local Legion outfit

ruby team will OW ita  second

Weed muscle.

high jump,  and

unaltli•  to partici

lie, who will an,

help the Senior caus,

lion, the local boys obi;

Obie Smith, and art. Paul Steve

Baker, and last, hut not least.

but they can be depended  oil 1,1

Paul Steve

I:20 lint }aril dash.

11:22) 221) yard dash.

will be etie otr in...pity on the  "Ilti AIIIS' for relief 110Y. The

the Local Rugby team

men.  tir one of each, The elimi-

to those used in the present intro

rules for playing will be similar

11..1 week.  This league will be

B. F. TEAcHERs

op to play host after those used in the trial,

the wah around theo val. I

i:20 lint }aril dash.

11:22) 221) yard dash.

Will

cow readh to step ill 1:rances

for the fellows

mateo piled up three run. in the

againal any school in the Far

up hin bunch of pole limiters

State gridiron greats. inattin.r

2:15.  The local Legion outfit

ruby team will OW ita  second

Weed muscle.

high jump,  and

unaltli•  to partici

lie, who will an,

help the Senior caus,

lion, the local boys obi;

Obie Smith, and art. Paul Steve

Baker, and last, hut not least.

but they can be depended  oil 1,1