La Torre Committee Urges Immediate Action

1932 La Torre To Furnish Permanent College Memories

ARTISTIC WORKMANSHIP IS

LA TORRE

Book Goes on Press Soon

BOOK WILL BECOME MORE VALUABLE AS YEARS PASS BY

Memories! Who is there who doesn't cherish memories? We all do, of course. Which is all the more reason why your 1932 La Torre deserves your consideration and support. After all other considerations have been eliminated the paramount purpose of a year book is to furnish you with memories of your college life, and the atmosphere that has been about you during your short stay at San Jose State.

San Jose has been fortunate in late years in having La Torre staffs that have been so efficient in binding within the covers of each year's La Torre a complete story and graphic description of our activities and organizations. In comparison with other college yearbooks our La Torre has really been the product of experts. This year's La Torre will be the result of many years of experience and efficient achievement. Howard Nelson and staff have almost completed a year of earnest endeavor to give you a book complete and interesting. Adele Melone and her business staff have seen to it that every organization is to be represented with pictures and articles. Nothing has been left

MISS MURIEL IRWIN

Muriel Irwin has been elected president of the Y. W. C. A. Ray Dobbins is the new vice president; Mary Oldham, secretary; and Marian Freuhling, treasurer. The cabinet will be elected later. These new officers and the new cabinet will go through a quarter of training under the out-going staff, which will strengthen their capabilities for next year's work.

Mr. Mendenhall's One-Act Play Department of San Jose Players will make what may be considered its first professional appearance when "Fourteen" will be presented before the To Kalon Club on Thursday afternoon.

State of California Increases Fees for College Registration To Ten Dollars Yearly

In order to meet the 10 per cent cut the state has ordered for the local college, an addition of $3.35 has been added to the quarterly enrollment cost. It was previously stated an additional fee of $4.35 would be necessary to cover the slash as far as enrollment was concerned, but as $1.00 of the previous fee was used for student purposes, $3.35 will be all that is necessary.

As the salaries of the local college professors are about as high as those of high school teachers, the State Director of Finance has asked that there be no cut in salaries. However, a portion of the cut can be covered here, as there are a number of leaves of absences and resignations; so new teachers will be hired at a lower salary than those leaving.

As a result of the budget slash, no improvements will be made, no additional members other than those who will fill in leave of absences, or resignations, will be hired, and no increases will be made in salaries. Also, the college library's new book budget planning for 7000 new volumes, had been dropped, and the construction of a $2200 electric wiring system has been postponed, as

Bill Hubbard, Stellar State Athlete, Joins Phy. Ed. Instructors

Wilbur ("Bill") Hubbard, one of the most promising young coaches on the Coast, and one of the few truly great athletes of the history of San Jose State, will return to the college from which he graduated as a member of the P. E. instruction staff.

Hubbard will in all probability assist Dudley De Groot in coaching football, according to H. C. McDonald, head of the Physical Education Department here.

Hubbard and DeGroot, who was appointed head football coach two months ago will report at the start of the next quarter in September.

Dr. T. W. MacQuarrie, president of the local school, said that Hubbard was sent his contract yesterday. He hasn't had a chance to sign yet, but intends to.

"Hubbard will be a welcome addition to our department," said McDonald. "I can't say just yet what his duties will be, but will in all probability assist with the football coaching duties."

While at San Jose State, Hubbard was a star in football, basketball and track. He holds the Far Western conference quarter-mile record of 49.5. In his last year at the local school he captained the football, track and basketball teams.

Hubbard graduated three years ago. He entered Stanford University after graduation and at the same time secured a position of coach at Menlo High School which he will resign.

Hubbard is a San Jose boy and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Al Hubbard of this city. A younger son, "Bud" Hubbard, is an athlete at San Jose State.

Ex-Student Is Arrested for Socialistic Activities

Thurman Frick, former notorious State College student, was arrested in San Francisco last week for selling socialist literature in Golden Gate Park.

San Francisco labor leaders rallied to his defense at the subsequent trial, but Mr. Frick was prevented from undergoing a Mooney martyrdom when the case was thrown out of court for lack of evidence.

"It's tough," said Frick, "when a guy can't even go to jail for a good cause like this."

Whether the fog has anything to do with it is not known, but Frick is reported to be wearing all his clothes this season.

Baseball Award Announced

SENIORS WILL BE SEATED
IN AUDITORIUM
BALCONY

To honor this fighting team of Spartans, captained by Don Harder, an assembly at 11 a. m. Thursday in Morris Dailey auditorium has been arranged by Frankie Covello, head yell leader.

San Jose State's varsity track team leaves Friday for Sacramento to fight for the championship of the Far Western Conference May 7.

Plans released today with the cooperation and sanction of Dr. T. W. MacQuarrie and the Freshman class officers call for the entire Freshman orientation class to be seated in their regular assigned seats downstairs. Roll will be taken by Miss Hayes, with a "cut" being given for absences. The Senior orientation group as guests of the Freshmen will sit in the balcony with the regular roll system in order by Miss Robinson.

Miss Hayes states that the last four rows on the lower floor—T, U, V, W—will be open for faculty—visitors and members of the Sophomore and Junior classes after the Freshmen are seated. The Spartan Knights are to conduct the seating of the guests.

Coach Erwin Blesh will introduce the members of the track team. The program will be enlivened by the college band and

Second Student Dance Will Be Presented This Friday Night

The second student body dance of the quarter will be held this coming Friday, May 6, in the Men's Gymnasium. Zeigler-Macdonald and their 10-piece orchestra have been secured for this evening's entertainment and it will be featured in the very novel "Blues Idea."

Although there has been a decrease in the budget available for the dance, Student Affairs Chairman Carl Palmer, assures the student body of the highest type of entertainment.

Bathing the dance hall in a blue light, and decorating in blue drapes, the "Rhapsody in Blue" will be given a fitting environment.

Because the Men's gym is a great deal larger than the Women's gym, a large crowd can be managed very nicely.

S. J. C. T. Rifle Club Awaits Gun Assignment

The first active shooting of the quarter was started yesterday by the San Jose State Rifle Club.

Affiliations with the National Rifle Association have finally been made and the rifle team is anxiously awaiting the arrival of rifles and ammunition from Washington.

"Anna Christie" and "Hotel Universe"

Included in Players 1932-33 Season

Meeting last evening to choose a portion of their 1932-33 season, San Jose Players voted to open the coming season with Eugene O'Neill's "Anna Christie."

"Hotel Universe" is also scheduled for presentation. Being San Jose Players first step in the realms of fanciful two hour "one-act" plays, the production will prove to be interesting for all lovers of dramatics.

If permission can be obtained from the author, "Smiling Thru" will be presented for the Christmas play. "Michael and Mary" is to be used as an alternative, and possibly may be incorporated into some other place on the season.

Sheridan's "School for Scandal" with two unchosen plays will complete the season.

Children's Theatre

To supply a demand for a children's theatre in the bay region, Players are organizing a group which will present children's plays to the Oakland schools who have requested them.

"Peter Pan" will probably be the first production.

Peter Pouts

You know, one learns a great deal going to college, and that being one of my chief objectives in attending this institution, I have made a special effort to observe carefully my surroundings, my friends, and my studies, in the hopes of learning. I make it a habit of mine to learn at least one thing every day. Like the Boy Scouts, who do a good turn daily, I have adopted the motto of "Learn a good thing daily."

Anyway, I have learned much to my horror and very much to my surprise that the personnel of this student body has an astounding lack of sense of humor. Why only yesterday, during the heavy rainfall between ten and eleven, a poor, unsuspecting male attempted to run from the main entrance to the Co-op, and in doing so very much dampened his shoes and stockings. . . . socks, excuse me . . . as well as his enthusiasm. I thought that was very funny, but no one else seemed to think so. The point of this discussion is, though, that either from natural carelessness, or acquired indifference many people here have not learned the fine distinction between sincerity and veiled humor. I feel the same sympathy for those people that I do for the misguided soul who scoffs at a symphony orchestra. True, it is an art to appreciate good humor, but that is one of the many arts that we should learn, both for our own good and for the benefit of our friends. I admit, as I have often said before, that there are many things about this school which I heartily frown upon, but a sense of humor is one thing and holding hands in the quad, or wasting time in the "Times" office (no puns intended) is another. Adopt my policy of learning a new thing every day, and make your first study on humor. Not only will it benefit you, but it may possibly amuse you. You laugh and say that I am just criticising for the fun of doing so. That may or may not be true, but I am not the one to inform you of the fact. Laugh and the world laughs with you, cry and the world cries with you, but snicker quietly and the world condemns you. . . . My fingers lie idle on the keys while I indulge in a healthy laugh . . . indulge in a healthy laugh

Communication

To the Editor of the Times:

As a Player I object.
As a member of the Student Body I object.

On general principles I object.
What basis do your dramatic critics judge amateur productions? By what rule do you edit criticisms? And why do you always have to "Pan" things done on the campus? Is it to satisfy your pseudo-ego upon being promoted to a daily, or just natural cussedness?

It is bad enough to have to put up with "Upstairs to the Right," when he starts in on a dramatic production, but there is some justification there in the fact that James Clancy does know something about dramatics.

Why was it necessary to knock "The Silver Cord?"

It was quite evident that your critic (?) knows nothing about amateur dramatics.

In the first place a column is no place to air personal spite. In the second place adverse statements are not in order when speaking about people whose only pay for hours of work is public credit in such papers as yours.

It would have been much better to have foregone writing up "The Silver Cord" rather than offer such trash as you have printed.

And anyway it is the custom to sign criticisms. Who is your Coward?

O. S.

University professors occasionally step out of their role and make good in other activities. Dr. Thomas Masaryk, president of Czechoslovakia, is one of them. He is related to former President Woodrow Wilson, who was also a university teacher.

Ferris Wheel

We could quibble columns more about Mooney, but the poor fellow would stay in jail anyhow, so quits it is. But please, please don't call Sinclair with his crude carpenterish style America's Zola. Zola gave liberty back to an innocent man; Sinclair spends his time on Sacco and Vanzetti—too dead to do anything for—now. I wish I could give the Rolph propagandist a nice nasty little jibe like the rehabilitated Man on the Campus hands Upstairs . . . or the ones Upstairs gave the Women's Club . . . or the snappy little cracks Small Beer pans for one and all. Such subtlety! Even "Among Ourselves" had a jolly barb for our managing editor.

Is there no peace? No . . . while the tripe writers are tripping venomously away, the intelligentia perches aloft the copy and harangues hatefully over Religion or something else it knows very little about. Indeed we show signs of developing into real professors.

I must say that I agree with Peter Pouts. We should all be ladise—always. Off-stagg or on. Despite differences—uh, gender. I'm sure Peter is always a lady. But I'm afraid even he made a slight faux pas in mentioning that (well, you remember what he mentioned) to the mixed group of people who read the Times, and some of them probably are tender in years, too. It is also pure young folks like Peter who keep our moral standard high. Now don't question my sincerity like you did Peter's. It was shocking how many students asked if Peter Pouts column is supposed to be (Continued on Page Three)

Communication

Editor The Times:

Sir:

Anent The Ferris Wheel contribution to the Mooney controversy. . . .

The inspired writer of that column casts serious reflection on the people of California in stating that they would elect four "chicken-livered" men in a row to the highest position in the state . . . and in inferring that our supreme court is composed of men of the same breed.

"This much is undeniable," says the columnist, going on to tell us that Rolph promised to pardon Mooney were he elected. That much is certainly undeniable, for Rolph stated that he was for a "humane government," mentioned Mooney never. How could he, without all the facts of the case in his hands, possibly promise to pardon any man?

And, says the Ferris Wheel, "all the living jurors of the Mooney-Billings trial have asked for a retrial." Does the author know that five of those self-same jurors have since declared that they were coerced into making this appeal for a new trial?

So it appears that the "undeniable" is deniable. And as for having a Zola to come to Mooney's defense, America does have Upton Sinclair . . . who, so far has done nothing in a big way about this case although he championed a similar one (in which the men were innocent) very ably in a two-volume novel.

Current Comment

Although the Sino-Jap war supposed to have stopped, the countries keep "picking" on another in such a way that hardly seems they can go on with the armistice. Last Monday Chinese snipers had killed Japanese sentries. It looks as though somebody will have to step in and lock up the peoples of these two countries so the armistice conference can proceed unhindered. And of course the "somebody" will be a foreign power. Ah me.

Every now and then we hear some state or city having a law, made back in the last century, which the liberal forces are trying to have repealed. This time it is Baltimore which has come to its senses. The law in question was the forbidding of a man to kiss his wife on the Sabbath. We wonder how many men in the modern age adhered to that law.

However, along with this in the inhabitants of Baltimore also repealed the other 200-year-old Sunday observance laws. Strange things about it, though, was the fact that the laws were repealed by the largest vote ever given a question or candidate in Baltimore—a majority of more than 83,000 votes having given sanction to the act. Naturally what kissing law couldn't have had anything to do with it (!).

Polish authorities were "against it" the other day when an Egyptian mummy, destined for a Warsaw museum, came to the hands of customs officials, who were to cite duty on said object. And since the Polish customs tariff contains no provision for the importation of mummies, the officials pondered long and hard.

Nevertheless, a solution came about when one bright fellow reasoned that, since the mummy was dried flesh, it might enter as "dried fish." Well, it might just as well be dried fish as anything else, the mummy will never know the difference.

Often are the times when one does not envy the governor of a state. And one of these times would be when he has to write his name 2600 times within three days. Beginning yesterday Governor Rolph started signing 2600 University of California diplomas, and the job is to be completed by tomorrow. More power to you, Sunny Jim.

This Vulgar Boat Ride

Immediately following the announcement that the campus sororities are willing to go on the Junior Boat Ride on a Dutch Treat basis comes the announcement that a certain prominent sorority is planning to hold its informal initiation on the same night as the Boat Ride. (No wonder their illustrious president is willing to sign a Dutch Treat statement.)

It has not been the custom in the past for campus organizations to plan their activities for the same date that a major affair of the student body is being held. While casting about on the campus for the reasons behind such an unprecedented action, we find that we are able to quote a pledge who said—

"The only way that the sorority could possibly gain any publicity from such a common thing as a boat ride would be for some member to fall in the bay or jump overboard, and as such things are not in our line, Boat Rides are beneath our dignity. . . . On the other hand we feel that an initiation in the mountains will draw the publicity that we deserve."

And that seems to cover the case.

The justification for the existence of college sororities, in fact the only justification that we have yet been able to find, is their cooperation in student body activities. If the case quoted is an example of the present trend, State College sororities are foregoing their justification.

Incidentally there are about forty members who are prominent on the campus in this sorority. This means that about forty boys will in all probability remain at home because of their pseudo-loyalty to these misguided girls.

That means eighty tickets that the Juniors might have sold will lie idle in their coffers.

Something ought to be done.

Almost coincident with Dr. MacQuarrie's recent suggestion in his column in regard to conferences and discussions between colleges and universities relative to crime, national and international problems, we find the Executive Board of the Associated Students sanctioning and adopting the motion of one of its members. This motion in brief provides for a conference between the College of Pacific and San Jose State to be held on our campus as a gesture of appreciation for the hospitality shown towards our delegates at the recent Disarmament Conference held by the College of Pacific.

A Capella Choir Presents Concert in Patterson Friday Afternoon; Mr. Erlendson Leads Radio Concert Tonight

LEADER COMES FROM ST. OLAF'S FAMOUS CHOIR

Fifty members of the A Capella Choir, under the direction of William Erlendson, made a trip to Patterson to appear in a recital last Friday afternoon.

This is only one of the programs that the choir has given its organization at the beginning of the school year. At this time Mr. Erlendson, with his experience in the St. Olaf's Choir, is able to do much more progress than would otherwise have been possible.

The choir has appeared on the campus last quarter in a public recital, and is to appear tomorrow at San Jose State's fourth radio broadcast over Station KQW.

The first that the choir presented was:

"Rejoice Ye Christians Loudly" — Bach

"Send Thy Light Forth" — Balakireff

"In Heaven Above" — Christiansen

"Nimrod" — Gretchaninoff

The second group of the evening will be:

"Salvation Is Creative" — Tschernokoff

"Hosanna" —

"Beautiful Savior", Crusader's hymn arranged by director.

Miss Maurine Thompson, accompanied by Jean Stirling at the piano, will sing:

"Southern Song" — Ronald

"Retreat" — La Farge

"Far Away" — La Farge

"Love Went a Riding" — Bridge

Mr. Adolph Otterstein, head of the music department, will play several violin selections.

State Radio Program To Be Given Tonight

The fourth of a series of radio presentations, known as the San Jose Civic Radio Programs, goes on the air over KQW Wednesday evening at 8:30 to 9 p. m.

Asilomar Offers Opportunities for Student Leaders

BEAUTIFUL GROUNDS ARE VACATIONALLY PERFECT

Do you feel over-organized, yourself and on your campus? Is it true that "in student life, as well as in the work-a-day world, co-educational groups afford women but little training in leadership and self-determination?" What keeps you unadjusted to your family? Is revolution the only way out of the economic debacle? What are your steps for change? These and other questions of the utmost importance to thinking young people will be discussed with the leadership of noted people of the country at the Asilomar conference this June, from the sixteenth to the twenty-seventh—(between the Spring and Summer sessions at State).

For those most interested on every campus, whether students or leaders, who wish to give more than usual thought to the major questions before the beginning of this conference discussion groups will be held in the Y. W. C. A. room 14, to which everyone is invited. The first of these will meet at four o'clock next Thursday.

The conference is open to all, not only members of the Y. W. C. A., who are interested in training in leadership and in adjustments to the situations which confront us today. To those who know Asilomar with its young pines and quiet sand dunes, the conference will have great appeal. To others the invitation is extended to become acquainted with Asilomar, beautiful conference grounds.

The University of Chicago has announced that all students who wish to take the examinations in June will have to supply photographs of themselves in advance. George E. However, some students advanced the opinion that the photographic idea was intended to prevent any of them from "taking the exams by proxy."

Spartan Trackmen Prepare for Far Western Meet

HARDER AND BENNETT IN EXCELLENT SHAPE FOR CONFLICT

By PAUL CONROY

With the final strenuous workout held last night and but one more night limbering up session scheduled, Captain Don Harder and his Spartan tracksters are waiting anxiously for Friday noon when they entrain for Sacramento and the Far Western Conference meet, to be held Saturday afternoon.

Harder and Bennett, who have both suffered injuries during the past season, are in excellent condition for the coming meet.

Coach Blesh has been devoting quit a bit of time on all the track men, realizing that the biggest chances for point scoring is in these events.

San Jose has a good chance of scoring first and second places in the hundred and 220 yard dashes, with Salvato and Harder entered in both of them. Robinson has been doing good running in workouts—he may place. Scott of Nevada recently defeated the speedy Montague of S. F. U., in the quite fast time of 9.7. Whether he can do it again is rather hard to say.

One of the most interesting events of the day will be the mile and half mile runs. In this event rivalry will be renewed between Harper of San Jose and Hatch of College of the Pacific. It will be remembered that in the recent dual meet held between the two schools, these two fellows ran neck and neck through both races, Hatch winning the 880 by a half a yard, Harper turning around and nosing him out in the mile run by about the same margin. Salisbury, Nevada's middle distance ace, and winner of the mile in last year's conference meet, is entered in this event and should be up battling for a place. Beatty of Fresno is worthy of consideration.

Ray Brack, distance runner, has been showing up good in the past week. He and Stoddard should battle for a first place in this event. Fresno has Champion entered in the two mile. He is good—has possibility of taking a second place.

State's chances of scoring points in the hurdles are very slim. Silva is the only hope in the highs and he is only good for a fourth place, with an outside chance of doing a little better. Coach Blesh doesn't figure on any points in the low hurdles.

Taylor and Hubbard are in good shape and should go good in the 440 yard run. This event is bound to be close as practically every team in the conference has a good performer entered in this event. Fresno State has three good men entered, including Walter Marty, their "iron man".

According to past performances the relay is being conceded to Fresno. Blesh is figuring on a second place, with a slim chance of coping first.

A summary of the Spartan's chances in the field events will be found in tomorrow's paper.

College of the Pacific, member of the Far Western Conference, began their Spring football practice list night under the guiding hand of Coach "Swede" Righter.

The fifty men who turned out are fairly well divided between the three classes, so they are being divided accordingly. The men chosen to lead their respective classes are: Carl Brown, freshman; "Abe" Easterbrook, sophomore; "Buddy" Gold, juniors.

Practice is scheduled for four times a week—Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday. A rumor has been circulated that Righter is planning on having some of his practice sessions behind locked gates. It will be something new in Spring practice if he does.

Filipino Club Has First Win in the 1932 Tournament

ENGINEERS ARE SUCCESSFUL IN FIRST ATTEMPT AT TROPHY

The first series of games of the volleyball tournament were run off last Thursday. Due to the interference of 4:00 o'clock classes, the time for the start of the games has been changed from 4:30 to 5:00 o'clock. The teams are requested to be as prompt as possible.

The Faculty, Filipinos, P. E. Majors and Print Shop were victorious. The Faculty took a long time to loosen up their stiff joints, but they finally beat the Engineers, but they are biting off more than they can chew when they take on the fast P. E. Majors team today. The Filipinos looked impressive in their win over the I. D. K's.

Engineers Club vs. Faculty—15-7, 13-15, 11-15.

Filipinos vs. I. D. K.—(Filipinos won, but score not turned in.)

Baseball Squad Ends Successful Season Fri.

The Spartan baseball team ended their successful season by easily defeating the strong Centerville High School on Friday, and taking a double-header from Mission High of San Francisco on the following day. The score for the Friday game was San Jose State 9, Centerville 0. The scores of Saturday's games were as follows: First game: State 3, Mission High 2; second game: 6 to 3.

Simoni continued his winning streak by holding Jess Regli's Centerville High team to five hits and no runs. The contest was close until the sixth inning when the Spartan sluggers went on a rampage and secured six runs on four hits, one a homer by Simoni, and another a triple by Casaleggio.

Faria for the visitors hit a long triple after being robbed of a sure homer in his first time at bat by a sensational running catch by Pura, Spartan left fielder. Katsushima, starting chucker for the high school pitched a good game—the sixth being his only bad inning.

Casaleggio, Langtagne and Simoni were the outstanding hitters for the Spartans.

State Baseball Nine Wins Game from Mission High School

Saturday the Spartan baseball team defeated the strong Mission High team of San Francisco in both games of the double-header. Score of the first game: State 3, Mission High, 2; second game: State 6, Mission 3.

The victories were doubly sweet as the visitors held one victory over the Spartans, having emerged on the long end of the score in the first of the three-game series. Lee Russell, whose heady chucking was largely responsible for the win in the first game Saturday, had received credit for the loss in the first of the series.

well as the construction of a fence around the athletic field.

There is a possibility that plans for the stadium, which was to be ready for the coming football season, will have to be dropped. The local building and loan has the money for this project, but Dr. MacQuarrie states they are unwilling to let the college have the money for the erecting of the stadium. However, work is still in progress for this latest college development, and it is hoped the college may be granted the right to withdraw the money.

San Jose State is next to the most economical college in the state. The reason the other is lower is that it offers no industrial art or laboratory courses, and as both of these are quite expensive, State ranks second economically.

It is hoped student expenses can be cut down in order to bring enrollment down further still, as enrollment will increase greatly for the coming year.

Summer school fees will be $20, whereas they were $17 before.

Walt Crawford Is Guest at Banquet Given by Ball Team

HOTEL D'ITALIA IS HOST OF THE BASEBALL STARS

Coach Walter Crawford, the guest of honor at a surprise banquet held by the baseball team at the Hotel Italia, late last week. The entire matter was kept secret so that when Coach Crawford was "lured" to the scene, the hotel banquet room, he was pleasantly surprised at the preparations made in his honor.

Toastmaster Simoni introduced the various speakers, which included the whole squad and Walter Crawford.

To climax the evening's entertainment he was presented with his own watch to which a new wrist band had been attached without his knowledge.

With the assistance of Charles Walker of the Physical Education department, the team managed to secure Crawford's watch and had a jeweler attach a band to it.

It may readily be surmised that Crawford was "shocked" to see his watch where he least expected it.
