Tomorrow Is Last Day to Get Boat Ride Tickets

S. J. Boat Ride Will Duplicate Success of Previous Year

"DUTCH TREAT" PROPOSED FOR ALL WHO ATTEND

Boat Is Best Available

TICKETS OBTAINABLE AT CONTROLLERS AND CO-OP

There has been much comment about the securing of tickets for the Second Annual San Jose State Boat Ride. Anyone may buy a ticket upon presentation of their student body card, and they may also buy as many additional tickets as they will be responsible for. In other words, if you have a friend or friends who are not going to State, you may bring them along providing you will be responsible for them. This method of issuing tickets is the only way in which it is possible to limit the outsiders who may wish to attend this gala event.

Tickets on Sale
Tickets are on sale in the Controller's Office, Information Office, and the Co-op Store.

Concerning the Fare
This year the total transportation charge is only $1.80. This price includes train fare from San Jose State College to Oakland via Palo Alto, boat transportation, and train fare back to San Jose via Palo Alto. The above statement must be emphasized because of the fact that the train fare to the city and back is $1.90 ordinarily, and many students thought the price of $1.80 included.

Sophomore Class Program For Student Fund Under Way

With the assured appearance of several favorite campus entertainers, plans for a sophomore class program to be given on May 17th, for the benefit of the Student Loan Fund, are well under way, according to Al Lopes, chairman of the program.

The musical feature of the affair will be Max Lenz's orchestra, which has gained favor on the campus for former appearances. The orchestra may be re-bered by its good music at many school affairs.

San Jose Players have also said they will give their support to the class program. Joy Erps, who is well known for her ability as an actress, is in charge of the skit to be given. Others who will probably appear in this skit, who are also well known and liked as entertainers are Edith Boasso and Dick Glycer.

Barney Pritchard, whose bass voice has been heard in many delightful numbers in campus affairs will also lend his support to the sophomore class program, as will Berman Mendelowitz, who is also popular for his playing of modern music.

The project is having the full support of sophomore class officers and members, and as the Student Loan Fund is badly in need of money, it is felt the excellence of the program should bring in a good attendance.

Admission is fifteen cents.

Verse Choir Appears In Farewell Recital On Friday, May 13

RUTH ADELE ROBERTS TO BE FEATURED IN NOVEL DANCES

Friday, the thirteenth of May, is the date which has been set for the appearance of the Verse Speaking Choir in a concert, which will be given in the Little Theater at 8:00 o'clock. This program will afford an opportunity for students and members of the faculty to see and hear the group before it leaves on its southern tour in three weeks. This year the choir has given many programs, but most of them have been out of town, therefore it is hoped that a large number of campus people are present on Friday night.

Ruth Adele Roberts Assisting Artist

A novel combination of two different forms of art will be featured—the combination of dancing and speech. In addition to the poetry which will be recited by the choir, Miss Ruth Adele Roberts will dance. Miss Roberts has won recognition through her unusual dancing ability and has been seen by a few on our campus who are very enthusiastic about her.

Unique Lighting Effects

Work on the use of lights has already begun with Miss Elizabeth Jenks and members of the choir. The possibility of using lights with their interpretations has been anticipated by the group because unusual effects can be procured. An excellent program is being arranged for the appearance of the choir with a new group of numbers.

Dr. Henry Meade Bland Is Paid Tribute by Dr. Bonner

A poetic tribute to the late Dr. Henry Meade Bland, poet-laureate of California, was written on the first anniversary of the poet's death, last Friday, by his friend and admirer, Dr. Arthur Bonner. Following is the tribute to Dr. Bland:

THE SEARCH ETERNAL
(In memory of Dr. Henry Meade Bland, "Laurel-Crowned Poet of California," died April 29, 1931.)

A year in death! Dear Searcher for life's best

In lands rich-laden, or desert regions far!

As sailors course the strangest seas in quest

Of El Dorados, or Alpine lads scale scar

And cliff to glimpse more glorious mount or mere,

So Beauty lured you, Laurel-Crowned Seer,

Until the search eternal raptured you.

Once love of God and light bore Dante through

The circling fire, unconscious of the pain,

To heaven; thus Beauty you did hard pursue

Through doors of death into her own domain.

ENVOY.

And now, with Keats and Spenser, you renew

The search in her fair realm.

And does the view

Enchant, elude, then ravish you again?

And with ideal love does she imbue

Beyond death's doors in her own bright domain?

ARTHUR BONNER.

FIELD POINTS WILL BE FEW WITH EXCEPTION OF DIEU, LESLIE AND WOOL

By PAUL CONROY

Coach Blesh's San Jose State Spartans will score a lot of points in the Far Western Conference track and field meet in Sacramento this coming Saturday afternoon, but if the team had to rely on the field events to do the heavy scoring, the points would no doubt be few and far between.

All those entered in the field events have been training diligently, but with the exception of Dieu, Leslie, and "Red" Wool the entries are not as strong as the rival teams.

"Red" Wool and Talbot of Fresno State will vie for first honors in the pole vault. "Red" has been doing excellent vaulting in the last few workouts, climbing to 12 feet 4 or 5 inches on numerous occasions. This fellow Talbot is very good in this particular event—He will have to do his best to cop a first. At any rate State is assured of a second place.

Fresno is certain of a first place in the high jump, as Marty, Far Western Conference champion, is capable of going up about six feet six inches, which betters any other conference performer by 3 inches. Leslie, Blesh's best bet in the high jump, should be good for a second place. Leslie has been getting better with every meet and will be at his best Saturday. No other San Jose man has much chance of placing.

San Jose's best chance for a first place comes in the discus throw. Joe Dien looks to be the cream of the platter tossers, and unless some unknown rises to great heights, he should take first

Cambridge Physicists Split the Atom; One of Greatest Goals of Scientists

Lord Rutherford, one of the world's foremost scientists, disclosed today that two young Cambridge physicists had achieved one of the greatest and highest goals of all scientific research. Splitting the atom.

The successful young scientists, according to Lord Rutherford, were Drs. J. D. Cockroft and E. T. S. Walton, both of whom have been working on their problem for several years.

Optimistic scientists long have hoped for the split atom, some contending that when this feat was accomplished a boundless source of energy would be made available to the world.

On the other hand some timor-ous extremists feared man's accomplishment of splitting an atom would mean the hurling of the world to destruction.

"Up to the present the experiments have not yielded anything which will be of immediate commercial value," Dr. Rutherford said, "I have seen it stated that this discovery means we shall be able to produce an immense accumulation of added electrical energy for commercial purposes.

"But we can not claim that up to the present our experiments have accomplished this, for the simple reason that for every particle of energy we get it requires millions of particles to make it effective."

Dr. Freeland Visits the Students Practice Teaching

Dr. George W. Freeland has been visiting schools and giving education extension lectures for the past week. Accompanying him on his trip to Salinas, Miss Frances Hitchborn, children's librarian of San Jose, also gave a talk on her work.

The talks given by Dr. Freeland and Miss Hitchborn were to teachers and principals of Salinas and outlying districts.

Miss Toles has also been visiting students in Contra Costa County, and Mrs. Hall and Miss Wylie have been visiting in Watsonville.

This week, further visits will be made by Mrs. Hall, Miss Wylie, Miss Crumby, and Mrs. Walsh.

Orchasis Society Will Present Annual Dance Drama In Little Theatre This Evening

Dance Drama will be presented tonight at 8:15 in the Morris Dailey auditorium. Nineteen original numbers, both solo and group work, will compose the program. Tickets, for reserved seats or for general admission, may be secured at the door or from members of Orchasis.

Orchasis appears publicly only once a year after months of reorganizing and perfecting. Elaborate costuming and lighting accentuate the exquisiteness of the program.

Even the music for the production is original, having been composed for the production by Jean Stirling, accomplished State musician.

Proceeds from Dance Drama are to be used in the State College Student Loan Fund for members of Orchasis.

Just Among Ourselves

Note—This column is personal between the president and the college. Outsiders are requested not to make use of the material.

I'd be glad to know if outsiders are keeping students off the tennis courts. We made a survey last Sunday, and while the courts were full not one was a student. If students are not using the courts, I see no reason why strangers should not enjoy them. Tennis is good for anyone. If our own students are kept off our own courts, however, by outsiders, that's another matter.

Because of our location, we shall always have a problem to meet here in holding the college equipment and property for the use of college students. Can't blame outsiders for looking with longing at the advantages they see. Just the same, outsiders have either had their chance, or can get it, or are not entitled to it. The student's day is short enough, and then he will go on to other work and interests. In the meantime he's entitled to his birthright.

Going to the boatride? They had a good time last year. Don't have to have it, shouldn't have it if it's to be a burden. Do some good, clear thinking on it, then decide, and let the Juniors know whether you're going or not. The most hopeless individual in the world is the one who doesn't know, or can't decide. Aimless? Worthless? Well, anyhow, careless. Make a decision one way or another and let the committee know. If you've never seen San Francisco Bay you'll have the same thrill as Portola when he discovered it. If you've never had a whole day to spend on a fine boat, with a wonderful lot of young people, perfectly safe and protected from pests, the boat ride will prove worth while. And if you have seen that wonderful bay, have had many boat trips, have been on many picnics, you'll like this one too. Saturday, May 14. Go if you can.

Visited Centerville High School last week. Lunched with the faculty. Nice people. Clear-eyed, alert, intelligent, witty, up-to-date. Had a good time. There's

Do You Travel?

Romance, Gang!
Do you want romance and lots of it? Do you like the smell of the salt sea air? Do you like the bustle and hurry of ships sailing and docking? Do you thrill at the sight of a tramp steamer and her motley crew? If so, spend a day on the Embarcadero.

You'll get a bit of old Japan. Perhaps you'll see one of the huge floating palaces dock and discharge its city of people. An old tramp freighter, due twenty-eight days north, may be putting out to sea.

You'll find officers in snappy uniforms with plenty of gold braid. There will be other officers less handsomely dressed. There will be old salts and young salts. There will be people from every port.

So remember, folks, if you can't as yet see the rest of the world, you can bring the rest of the world to you by just having an insatiable curiosity and spending a day on the Embarcadero.

Half a dozen university presidents, including two railroad presidents, it was recently revealed have constructed for themselves in an exclusive office in New York a complete toy railroad system.

a friendly atmosphere in spite of the really wonderful buildings and equipment.

Certainly would be wonderful if we could have that stadium this fall. Takes time to do things like that. Lots of troubles yet, but we may have a stadium. It's sometimes more fun to be getting something than to get it. A stadium could probably finance more of the athletic expenses. That would relieve student body funds.

Star Dust

Buddy Rogers, Lupe Velez, and June Knight are appearing in Ziegfeld's new show "Hot Cha."

Douglas Fairbanks is in the South Seas doing a modern version on the type of Robinson Crusoe.

Tallulah Bankhead's new film, "Thunder Below," has a Mexican actress, Augustine Lopez, who is 90 years of age, in the cast.

The Photoplay Magazine gives five out of the ten best performances of the month to five members of the cast of "Grand Hotel." Garbo, the Barymores, Crawford, and Beery are those honored.

Alice White, who failed to click in the movies is now making a hit in vaudeville.

Two more exotics have been added to the list of Hollywood women. Sari Maritza, who is at Paramount, and Tala Berill at Universal.

Be sure to see "Bridge Wives", an excellent short inspired by the recent Culbertson-Lenz tourney.

Sylvia Sidney has cut her long hair. She'll be seen next in "Jerry and Joan."

Five years ago the best films were Dolores Del Rio in "Resurrection," Gloria Swanson in "Love of Sunya", and Sally O'Neill and Bill Haines in "Slide, Kelly, Slide."

Casanova

Dear Casanova:
I want to work. I don't mean school work; I am carrying enough units right now, but I would like to get into some activity. What will it be?
F. J.

Dear F. J.:
That would be hard to say without more information. In what are you interested? Have you a good voice? Are you a musician? Do you like dramatics? Do you think you would like newspaper work?

Go home tonight, F. J., take stock of yourself. See what you would like to tackle. Then come back to school. Dig up some one in that particular work that you wish, and, oh, dear me, before very long you will wish you had stayed with your studying, for there is plenty of work to be done around this school, and if you're interested and turn out to be the right person you'll have work a-plenty.

Sincerely,
CASANOVA.

P. S.—Drop into the office sometime. If you can't decide, we'll talk it over.

Hamilton, N. Y.—Plans are being made at Colgate University to extend the newly instituted preceptorial plan of study for freshmen because of the success it has attained this far.

Under the new plan there are, in addition to class work, informal discussions between faculty members and students on the reading of books and the writing of essays. According to President George Barton Cullen, it is an attempt to develop each student "intellectually as a whole."

What Price Education?

Students! How much are you worth? .. What price program! Do you know that for every hour of class you attend you cost the state thirty-five cents? Are you getting your money's worth of education? .. Are you aware of the fact that every time you cut a class you lose thirty-five cents worth of knowledge? If you are attending a class of thirty members, each minute is worth seventeen and three quarters cents. . . . For every idle moment thou shalt pay . . . (in this case the State pays.)

You see, it is up to you, students, to attend every class and make use of every moment while in attendance.

Comparatively, you are not as expensive to the State as students in other colleges. The cost per enrollment hour at Humboldt is sixty cents for every student. Another feather in our cap!—San Jose State is the only college that just hits the average line of total expenditures. Chico and Fresno are a little above average in expenditures, and San Diego and Santa Barbara are a little below average.

The average of totals for support of state colleges takes in: administration, teaching salaries, maintenance and operation of school plant, and instructions other than teaching salaries.

Election Returns

Returns on the state-wide elections gave John Garner a lead of 45,000 over Franklin D. Roosevelt, and of 77,000 over Al Smith. The results compiled from returns by 9900 precincts out of 10,271 are as follows:

Garner, 214,650.
Roosevelt, 169,219.
Smith, 137,420.

Hoover will of course be the Republican nominee of California. A "confidence" vote of 630,100 was cast for the present chief executive.

The Sharkey oil control bill was snowed under by a vote of 1,071,000 to 293,000, while the tidelands act, which will prohibit leasing of state-owned property for oil productions, was passed, 773,400 to 520,000, due to strong southern support.

Results from Santa Clara County were:

Hoover, 24,152.
Smith, 4532.
Roosevelt, 3482.
Garner, 2401.
Needham, 45.

Prop. 1, Sharkey Bill:
Yes, 8759.
No, 26,584.

Prop. 2, Tidelands Leasing:
Yes, 16,703.
No, 16,523.

COMMUNICATIONS

From time to time the "power that be" on the "Times" staff fit to run a criticism of some pus activity. Most of the comment is favorable; the make pleasing remarks about some mediocre project. And it is not altogether impossible to the fault with some of the things that are done here. In fact, many times, pleasing things are said when it is rankly amiss. But—

Sometimes an adverse criticism is run. Then—do we hear from everyone in general. The faculty, the students, friends of offending persons, if such there be, and a few outsiders seem to feel themselves justified in telling us that we don't know how to run a paper, or, that we don't know how to write a criticism, or that we don't know anything about reporting. We do admit that we are merely students of journalism; not experienced scribes. But we feel that we are probably just as capable of running a paper as writing a criticism as anyone else on the campus. This course is open to anyone; there is no partiality shown. Come and take a look at the staff and you will know that I'm telling the truth. But if anyone does feel that he could write better stuff than we turn out, he is certainly welcome to join our ranks.

But why does everyone immediately go up in the air when adverse criticism is run? Certainly there is no one who is above reproach. This school is composed of a group of little tin gods than can do nothing that isn't perfect. And this goes for the few outsiders who insinuate themselves into our affairs occasionally.

This school seems to be made up of the most self-centered, self-sufficient group of young people that has probably ever been brought together under one name. When they are told that something they have done is an excellent piece of work, they thank you for being polite enough to mention it, but let you know that it is only what they expected of you. "We're good, we know we're good, and we'll tell the world about it," seems to be our motto. That is all very well. It is a good idea to advertise the fact if it be a fact. But one shouldn't take it as a personal insult if one is disagreed with.

Certain groups in Germany felt the best way to restore the monarchy was to elect Hindenburg president. They did so. They forgot his sense of duty, however. When he took oath to defend the constitution he meant it, and he has kept his word. It is fortunate for Germany, and for the world, that Germany has a Hindenburg. Germans mistrust most of their politicians, but they trust him. This faith in a man has helped Germany weather the most trying time in her national existence. But Hindenburg is old.

New Spanish Honorary Society, "El Circulo Cervantes," Pledges New Members With Banquet at Hotel Sainte Claire

ESPINOSA SPEAKS AT CLOSE OF THE BANQUET

Initiation of pledges for the new Spanish honor society, "El Circulo Cervantes," was held at the impressive formal initiation banquet at the Hotel Sainte Claire, Thursday, April 28th. The society was fortunate enough to have Dr. Espinosa of Stanford University as speaker of the evening, and a very fascinating program was enjoyed by the group. Newby, head of the Modern Language Department of San Jose State College, also spoke, and presented a mascot to the society, which was a tiny "Cervantes," which is one of the very original characters created in his famous work, "Don Quixote."

The banquet was typically Spanish in every respect. The table was attractively decorated with flowers of Spanish colors, and orange candles. The Misses Emma Goldsmith, Mannina, and others contributed to the atmosphere of sunny Spain by wearing Spanish shawls.

The honorary members who were present were: Dr. and Mrs. Clinton Newby, Mrs. Lindemann, and Miss Meta Goldsmith, faculty advisor of the society.

The officers and charter members of the organization: Minnie Sarno, president; Arthur Wagner, vice-president; Frances Mannina, secretary; and Pauline Smith, treasurer, sponsored the initiation, together with the adviser, Miss Goldsmith. Those who were initiated were: Jean Deas, Beatrice Comalli, Hercules Fraza, Javen Hall, Muriel Bul-

Mr. William Moellering, popular student of Stanford University, was present as guest of the society.

After the banquet, the group assembled at the lovely home of Dr. and Mrs. Newby, on Crest Drive, where a most interesting evening was experienced by all present.

College Sorority Fete "Rushees" at an Informal Party

REFRESHMENTS SERVED AT CLOSE OF EVENING'S ENTERTAINMENT

The oldest society on San Jose State College campus, Allenian, entertained their "rushees" at an informal bridge in the home of Miss Phyllis Walsh on the Alameda, Thursday evening.

Bridge was the main diversion of the evening Miss Barbara Perren played several piano selections.

Refreshments were served at the close of the evening upon daintily appointed tables which were decorated with small French floral pieces. Each guest's place was indicated by a corsage bouquet of Spring flowers.

The chaperones for the occasion were: Mrs. Robert Templeton, Mrs. Lillian Scott, Mrs. Buchanan, Mrs. William Walsh, Mrs. Walsh, and Miss Meta Goldsmith.

Members of the society include the Misses Evelyn Pritchard, Elizabeth Ryan, Barbara Perren, Jane Elliott, Claire Schuden, Betty McAlister, Alice Palmer, Phyllis Walsh, Marion Noonan, Alta Miller, Eleanor Larmon, Blanche Miller, Rachel Spradling, Ruth Raymond, Mary Doran, Lorna Baker, Margenette Meldrin, and Janice McKenzie.

Allenian entertained twenty-five girls Sunday, April 10, at a delightfully appointed breakfast at the Colonial House.

The long dining room of the Colonial House was a symphony of Spring flowers in pastel shades. Iris and tulips were tastefully arranged in colorful centerpiece. Carrying out the floral scheme, corsages of pansies decorated the places of the honored guests.

Chaperones for the occasion were: Mrs. Lillian Scott, Mrs. Robert Templeton, Dean Helen Dimmick, Mrs. L. C. Newby, and Miss Martha Thomas.

The Allenian preference dinner was in the form of a pajama supper at the home of Janice McKenzie.

The Japanese idea was carried out by the girls wearing gayly colored pajamas, flowers, and table appointments.

After supper was served, pledging of the new girls took place. The new pledges are: Marie Dur-

By WILNA GRAVES

On Saturday, April 30, Miss Dorothy Dudfield, popular president of Phi Kappa Pi, entertained in honor of Miss Lorraine Dudfield. The beautiful estate of the Dudfields was the setting for this charming event. The attractive tables of bridge were cleverly adorned with flowers carrying out an orchid color scheme.

At the conclusion of bridge Miss Porter was presented with a magnificent set of china. Refreshments of cake, ice cream and coffee cleverly served from a uniquely decorated table, above which hung an immense bell and from the bell a heart with the names of the guests was suspended.

The hostesses were as follows: Mrs. Dudfield, Miss Dorothy Dudfield. The guest of the society Miss Olive Bishop.

The active members who assisted Miss Dudfield were: Beatrice Konrad, Ruth Montgomery, Adele Malone, Virginia Shreve, Ion-Lokrop, Clarabel Pomeroy, Mildred Geore, Ruth Sandkuble, Betty Mather, Grace Pew, Dorothy Cockrell, Marjorie Johns, Beth Pierson, Gertrude Kenney.

State Dancers Present Dance Drama Tonight

Tomorrow evening in the Morris Dailey auditorium, Orchesis, honorary national dancing society of San Jose State will give their annual performance.

Ballet numbers, a polka and an Oriental fantasy, with terpsichore of finer classification are on the program.

Magical arrangements are being directed by Miss Jean Stirling.

Orchesis is well known for their splendid work, and their performances are worth while attending. All campus students are urged to witness the fine work being done by this organization, Thursday evening in the auditorium.

It is not enough that women should know only what men know.—Lady Astor.

In a crowded courtroom last Monday night Leon Warnke was brought to answer charges brought against him by his fellow members of the International Relations Club. The defendant was accused of missing two consecutive meetings of the club for no plausible reason and of spending his time in securing straight "A" records, thus excluding other students from participating in that high grade. Warnke pleaded "not guilty" to these charges.

As the accused was unable financially to provide counsel for his defense, Judge George Brereton appointed Harold Caldwell to defend him.

A jury was chosen after a good many peremptory challenges had been exercised on both sides. The prosecution, which was ably represented by Walter Rocksieck, challenged the right of Dr. Fred Graham to sit on the jury bench. He revealed that defense attorney Caldwell is in the employ of the professor. Dr. Graham was thus dismissed on grounds of prejudice.

In opening the case the prosecution produced Miss Lesta Jambert as witness, that the defendant had telephoned to her on the night of April 27th, when a meeting of the International Club was in session from a Market Street Pool Hall where he was passing his time. The prosecution also produced evidence that the defendant was a hardened criminal, with a police record. Police pictures of Warnke were passed to the jury for inspection. Despite the fact that at the time the pictures were taken Warnke had a black mustache, heavy sideburns and a small goatee, the criminal was identified as one and the same as the defendant in the case.

Defense Attorney Caldwell then took the floor and offered the plea of insanity. He called to the witness stand Mr. Bernard Weber and Dr. Fred Graham, both of whom testified to having read papers and articles written by Warnke in which he displayed at times ability amounting to genius, then lapsing into almost immediate imbecility.

All during the trial the accused noisily cracked nuts with his teeth and munched the kernels.

The jury were only out ten minutes before they returned with a verdict of guilty. Warnke made a desperate plea for leniency but the full penalty was imposed upon him.

Judge Brereton sentenced him to making a five minute talk on the female attractions of the College of Pacific Disarmament Conference, also to the object task of collecting five cents from each member to be used in buying refreshments for the next meeting, and to telling in detail to the club members, the secret of his popularity.

The Kangaroo Court idea provided a great deal of merriment for the members. At the close of the evening ice cream and cake were served. At the next meeting the club expects to return to its discussion of foreign affairs.

honors. Blesh is not looking for any of his other men to come through in this event, yet there is a possibility.

Dieu will also place in the broad jump, probably a third place. Wilson and Marty, both of Fresno, will place first and second. Taylor and Bennett have a fair chance of slipping into a fourth.

Unless Acquistapace, freshman shot putter, has an extremely good afternoon, the Spartans will not take any place in the shot, not even a fourth. Fresno State is doped for a first in this event.

Pete Dragon, who has been tossing the javelin the furthest in recent trials, hasn't much chance of taking more than a fourth place, if that. Again Fresno is slated for a first, and a possible second.

With but one first place and two second places in view in the field events, Blesh's hopes for a first place in the meet are rather slim. The way things look Fresno is going to walk off with a good number of first positions, and probably the Far Western Conference Championship.

Swimming Team In First Intercollegiate Meet

The swimming team will probably be augmented by two new members next Tuesday, when Coach Walker and his men travel to Menlo J. C. for State's first intercollegiate swimming meet. Richard Draper and Granville Scofield are the men who have signified their intentions to join the squad.

Draper is a former Palo Alto star, and specializes in the 220-yard free-style, breast-stroke, and the back-stroke. Scofield was San Jose High's ace breast-stroke winner. The addition of these two men greatly increases the squad's strength, according to Coach Walker.

State's point winners most probably will be Lynn, Platt, Draper, Stromquist, and Rankin. Although untried in college competition, these men have looked strong in practice.

By mutual consent, the coaches of both schools will follow no previously arranged program, but instead, hold the meet in accordance with the wishes of the home coach.

The volleyball tournament is now at its height, the second round was played last Tuesday. The I. D. K.'s, Phy. Ed. Majors, Filipinos, and Print Shop were all victorious.

The Tau Delta Phi organization have not showed up for any of their games so far. It seems too bad that an outstanding organization like that should back out in helping to support something which the Physical Education department is trying to sponsor. If the Tau Delta Phi's still want to play off the games that they have forfeited, they can do so by making arrangements with Mr. Walker.

The best game last Tuesday was the Faculty-Phy. Ed. Major game. The Faculty took the first game because of their superior skill and experience, but the P. E. Majors by dint of hard fighting took the second game. The third game went to 20 to 22 before the Faculty cracked under the strain.

Following is a summary of the games:

Engineers vs. I. D. K.—4-15, 7-15, 9-15.

Faculty vs. Phy. Ed. Majors—15-11, 15-17, 20-22.

Filipino vs. Tau Delta Phi—Filipinos by forfeiture.

Science vs. Print Shop—12-15, 15-11, 7-15.

Professional Match To Be Witnessed by Wrestling Class

WILL TAKE POINTERS ON MANLY ART OF "BONECRUSHING"

An innovation in Physical Education teaching will be the journey which the wrestling class will take Friday night to Forman's arena, where the members of the class will witness a professional wrestling match and take pointers therefrom for their own use in class.

The wrestling bouts this Friday night are being sponsored by the Memory Post No. 399 American Legion, and those in charge have kindly issued free passes to all the members of the wrestling class so that they might see an exhibition of genuine wrestling.

Four bouts are scheduled for the evening, all of which will be given by gentlemen well over the 200 lb. limit, which fact in itself promises to make the evening interesting. The main event will be two out of three falls in a two hour limit; the second, one fall in a one hour limit; the third, a one fall in a 30 minute limit; and the last, one fall in a 15 minute limit. All of the contestants are well known in wrestling circles and promise to give the class a fine demonstration of wrestling technique.

State College Tournament Is Begun for the Campus Golfers

The golfers of San Jose State have received permission to organize a golfing team to represent State. Any one who wishes to, can join this team or club. This organization is to be in the form of a club and there will be competitive tournaments to decide who will compose the team.

There will be a team of eight men who will be subject to removal the same as the competitors on the tennis ladder. The golfers are to pay all of their own expenses and they are to receive no help from the school. Mr. Walker is to be the faculty advisor, and Winston Chappell, a golfer of prominence, is to be the manager.

The following men have signed up for the club: W. Chappell, W. Cox, F. Covello, C. Chappell, W. Burt, A. Lopes, A. Maffey, J. Lyons, D. Wolf, C. Tompkins, L. Thompson, W. Robertson, and M. Neissenbaum.

Soccer Team Will Be the Strongest in History Next Year

SIXTEEN LETTER MEN RETURN THIS FALL FOR SERVICE

With 16 letter men returning the squad next season, Coach Walker's soccer prospects somewhat brighter than last when he was forced to lead the first game with less than a dozen players.

The letter men: J. Stratton, Clemo, Graf, P. Stratton, P. Leslie, Rhines, Baughn, Hayes Wood, Ichisaga, Mengel, Har Chappelle, Russel, and Jan should prove good material for a smooth, hard-working team will hold its own with the colleges. Cameron, Hag Claypool, Applegarth, and dells, recommended for play may prove of some value. Coach Walker, Earle Kenney, of last year's outstanding formers, is now teaching in ward, and probably teaching pupils the finer points of soccer.

In an effort to bolster the squad Coach Walker has been the advanced activities club play soccer instead of in baseball. Several men look promising, and may develop into valuable players. It looks as the State must develop her own soccer men, for the valley schools, for some reason, do not teach the game. On the other hand, the bay high school teams can give any college serious competition. Also, eight stars generally attend a college. Thus, State is handicapped from the very beginning.

Nevertheless, Coach Walker systematically building a foundation for future squads. Next season he will form the first freshman team, which will hold regular scrimmages weekly with varsity squad. The manager also seeking several players with high schools.

Johnnie Stratton, elected captain for next season, will be seen to see anybody at all interest turning out for the quad.
