Spartan Trackmen Have Fair Chance For Victory In Annual Relay Carnival

Fresh from their decisive victory over the College of Pacific Tigers on Wednesday afternoon, Coach Erwin Sharples of the Spartan trackmen will participate in the Superior California Relays tomorrow.

While we are usually slow to place much importance on track meets, there is a good chance that a number of the members of the track team, including some of the new men in line for championships, will do well.

The relays will be run as usual, but there will be additional contests of individual merit.

The meet will open today with a high grade team line-up of all-star meets. Captain Dona Taylor, Sherman Carr, John W. Work and Cunningham will represent the rest of the state.

At least half the teams will be entered by teams from California colleges and universities.

We do not consider this meet as an end in itself, but as a preparation for the Cox and Carlin Relays, which will be held at this same stadium next month.

The line-up of teams is as follows: California, Stanford, Columbia, Michigan, Wisconsin, Columbia, Washington, Cal's next home meet.

The trackmen have set some ambitious goals for themselves, and it is to be expected that they will do their best to fulfill them.

The track meet is scheduled to begin on Tuesday afternoon, but it is expected to be completed by Wednesday night.

The meet will feature a large number of competitors from out of state, including teams from Oregon, Washington, and Idaho.

The field will be a strong one, and it is to be expected that the meet will be a fair test of the trackmen's abilities.

The meet will be a good opportunity for the trackmen to exercise their skills and to get some valuable experience.

The meet will be held at the University of California, Berkeley, and will be broadcast over the radio.

Spartan Track Team Takes Fourth Place In Sacramento Meet

Displacing little of the form that has carried them to the promising victories in dual competition, San Jose State's track team was defeated by the Sacramento State College. During the meet, the campus was held in prime standing in the seventh annual 3:30 Sup- erfest. The results of the College's meet were announced Friday.

Coach Charles B. Jordan, who has been the team's coach for the past nine years, announced that the team had not placed in the record meet, which was held in the sun. The meet was conducted under perfect weather conditions.
