State Loan Fund Will Get Returns From Big Dance

Dario Simoni Is Leading Committee in Charge of Loan Dance

With a wide variety of prizes awarded, and the certainty that at least two of the most prominent football notables on the campus will be present, the arrangements for the Student Loan Fund dance, to be given Saturday night, April 15th, in the Men's Gymnasium, are being brought to a rapid and successful termination by Dario Simoni, chairman of student affairs, assisted by Coach Dud DeLoach and Bill Hubbard.

Prizes on Display

The special events at the loan dance will be postponed until later in the evening in order to give those who attend the Sororities' Preference night to be present at the dance and to have equal opportunity in competing for the prizes, according to Dario Simoni, chairman. The prizes will be on display this afternoon near the library.

It will become necessary sometime in the not so very far off future, to borrow quite a bit more money than a mere 25 cents from the loan in order to tide them over the trying period of financial disarray.

Prizes Offered

Merchants from San Jose have offered a wide variety of prizes, among them a tennis racket, a skin sweater, a golfing outfit, and other prizes which are unannounced as yet.

Spardi Gras Committees Ready for Big Carnival

Last Sunday the construction committee for Spardi Gras spent ten hours of hard labor in preparation for the forthcoming event. Bob Stubbe and his committee members arrived on the campus at 9:30 Sunday morning, and proceeded to construct some eighteen booths between then and 7:00 o'clock that evening.

The construction gang still have about twenty booths to build between now and a week from Friday, but at the rate they have been progressing, and the splendid co-operation which has been shown for the past few weeks, things will be in good shape for the opening day.

The committee members who were present at school Sunday were: Bob Stubbe, general chairman; Paul Becker and Warren Torney, assistant chairmen; Tom Gifford, Ambrose Nichols, Hugh Staffelbach, Leon Warmke, and Jack Murdock. Other committee members are Jim Dunlap and Frank Yearian.

San Jose is in a crisis. The drive for economy at Sacramento has gone far beyond any reasonable adjustment and now threatens our very existence. Our budget has been cut 36%, actually 40% under our estimate of the amount necessary. If that stands, it will mean the dismissal of faculty members, and a serious salary slash for those who remain.

From a financial standpoint, San Jose is a cheap college now. We must not permit any action which will force us to become cheap in our social relations. Students and faculty are all citizens of this great state, and are entitled as such to intelligent consideration.

Now is the time to rally. Write your legislators today. Have your parents and friends write. The legislators will not object. (Continued on Page Two)

Students Must Contact Representatives To Halt Raising Of Tuition Here

The budget appropriated for San Jose last biennium was $789,088. Budget presented to Finance Department for coming biennium $789,030. The State Director of Finance made an arbitrary cut of 17 per cent in this figure, reducing it to $675,670. Assembly Committee on Ways and Means applied another cut, making it $506,752, a reduction from the original amount of 36 per cent.

Nine per cent of the San Jose budget is salaries. The other 10 per cent covers light, heat, water, etc., general support. The state salary scale for teachers colleges is very low, but provides for annual increases. No increases have been permitted during the present biennium, and they are not suggested in the new budget.

CO-OP BILL IS NEARER SUCCESSFUL COMPLETION AS IT PASSES SENATE

The Jones Co-Op bill was one step nearer adoption today as a result of its passage in the Senate on Monday of this week. The bill, which is fostered by Senator Jones of Santa Clara County, provides that the Co-Ops may sell all kinds of necessary school equipment. Under the provisions of the bill the articles to be sold by the Co-Ops must be approved by the State Director of Education after holding public hearings in the cities affected by the bill. All of the opposition to the bill in the Senate was furnished by private merchants in the college cities, who contended that the Co-Operative stores were in direct competition to the business men who paid state taxes for the privilege of selling their merchandise. The Jones bill is expected to pass the Assembly some time this week, after which it will go to the Governor for his signature.

We cannot save on heat, light, and water. The only possible cut is in library books and magazines, and that would amount to very little.

The present bill, if passed by the Assembly, would mean an average cut in salaries of 40 per cent, far below any contemplated cut of state salaries in general.

Teachers Colleges, which provide a most economical education to thousands of students, will be the objects of arbitrary and unfair discrimination.

The faculty of San Jose expect to have a salary cut, and are not objecting. That cut, however, should be reasonable, and should be the same for all state employees.

The bill, as it stands now, permits a charge for tuition up to $50 a year, the amount received to be added to the College budget. A questionnaire among San Jose students indicates that 63 per cent of them could not remain in College if the $50 tuition were charged. That would mean a reduction in student body of more than half, and many hundreds of fine, young citizens of California will be out on the streets, unemployed.

THE COLLEGE CANNOT INCREASE TUITION. The small amount now charged is almost an unbearable burden to several hundreds of the present student body.

THERE IS JUST ONE ANSWER. WE MUST ACQUAINT OUR LEGISLATORS WITH THE FACTS, AND URGE THEM TO GIVE FULL CONSIDERATION TO THE NEEDS OF THIS LARGE BODY OF CALIFORNIA CITIZENS.

Most of our legislators are anxious to do what is best for all concerned. In the drive of vari-

It's Now, or Too Late

This is a crisis in the history of San Jose State. Every one who has the welfare of this College at heart must make an effort. It is either now, or too late.

All societies, sororities, fraternities, professional groups, classes, athletic groups, alumni, every possible organization in the College, should immediately take steps to see that all members write to Assemblymen and Senators today, and have friends and acquaintances do the same. It is just as serious as that.

Each organization should report to President Leon Warmke by Friday noon the number of letters that have been written and mailed. The Times will print a complete list next Tuesday. Compare your results with the number of your members and figure your per cent. It might well run into the thousands.

Drop everything else this week. This is one job which must be done.

State College Debaters Go on Record as Opposed To All Wars

At its first day-break meeting the Spartan Senate went on record as opposing war of any kind as its part of the campaign at San Jose State in accordance with the movement throughout the colleges of the world.

The resolutions passed by the Senate last Friday morning at 6:30 o'clock, are as follows: Whereas: We condemn government policy and practice which permit dangerous reductions of our educational and public welfare budgets at any time, but particularly at a time when armament expenditures continue to be the highest in history.

Recognizing the fact that all wars are essentially economic, we warn international industrialists and their governments that, in our opinion, that unless they devise methods other than blood and warfare to settle their economic quarrels, our present economic system will have to be abolished.

Realizing that violence was never permanently suppressed by force and violence; we condemn ALL wars. Oxford Is Originator The movement against war was started at Oxford University a few weeks ago when the debate society at the college went on record with a resolution to the effect that the members would not go to war for either king or country.

In the investigation that followed the college as a whole went on record with a resolution to the same effect. Represented at Stanford Delegates from San Jose State were present at the recent Economic conference at Stanford University, which started the movement on the Pacific Coast.

WRITE AS A CITIZEN WHO IS ENTITLED TO BE HEARD. BUT DO IT IN THE MOST COURTEOUS MANNER. AS YOU WOULD LIKE TO HAVE ANY ONE WRITE TO YOU. Our legislators appreciate courtesy. Most of them are doing their best, but they need our united support.

If they answer that the state hasn't the money, suggest that we stop building boulevards for a time and care for the education of our young people. Highways can be built later, but education once denied is lost forever. There is plenty of money in the gas tax to care for all off California's legitimate needs, and ALL of the people of the State, and not simply one group, pay that tax.

Cooper and Kersey Give Closing Addresses at Economic Conference

The high standard of California education, women's place in the world, courses that should be taught in schools, changing conditions in both economics and education, and many other subjects were discussed by Dr. William John Cooper, United States Commissioner of Education, and Vierling Kersey, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, in addresses given at the close of the California Conference on Home-Making Education, April 7, in the Hotel Sainte Claire.

In speaking of the changing ideals in education, Dr. Cooper said that the education of yesterday and today is planned to fit the students for the leadership professions, whereas not more than 8 per cent of them can be absorbed in those professions. In the future education in home-making will be required of boys as well as of girls. Women will play a prominent part in the future era.

The nutritive values of foods, investment of income, and the biological facts of reproduction are some of the important subjects which could be taught in the schools according to Dr. Cooper. Psychology, which is today, in its practical application, confined largely to high-pressure salesmen, should be taught, for if men and women who have to live together understood the subject there would not be one divorce for every six marriages in the country as there is today.

Dr. Cooper spoke of the high standard of education built up by California, and said that California and Rhode Island are the only states in the union which require teachers to be college graduates. "Visions in education have come out of the advancing educational maturity which the American people demand for their children," stated Vierling Kersey, the other speaker of the evening. "I have heard everything in the curriculum of the State of California called a fad in the legislature this year."

In addition to the talks given by Dr. Cooper and Vierling Kersey, a violin solo was played by Doris Kinne, and a trio from San Jose State composed of Emily Schwartz, Doris Kinne and Maurine Cornell, furnished music during the dinner. Miss Gladys M. Nevenzel, president of the California Home Economics Association, presided at the dinner.

Yearly Alumni Souvenir Issue Will Be Ready

The Souvenir issue, a yearly alumni magazine, will be ready for distribution the first week in May, according to Mr. James Torney, alumni head and editor of this issue. Not more than a few copies will be available over the number for paid members, which will be sold at thirty-five cents a copy.

A Vogue type, sometimes termed as Futura, is being attempted, with the entire makeup to match. The heads to all articles will be lower case with no punctuation. The cuts are off-set and are to be placed at the extreme of the page. Over seventeen hundred 5 by 7 enlarged mounted photographs of the old and new campuses, which will be run off in our own laboratories, will be hand tabbed. A history of the old college, as it was when the Normal School was in existence, will be on the back side of the pictures of the old buildings as they stood before destroyed by the earthquake in 1906. This picture proves to be the only one of its kind in existence.

On the reverse side of the picture of the college today will be a story of the newer campus activities and buildings. The size of the magazine is being increased from 20 to 24 pages, containing advertisements confined to the college campus, such as the Co-Operative store, Summer School, and the Western Nature School Series.

Formal Opening of Tea Room Scheduled April 18

The new tea room management class announces that the formal opening of the College tea room will take place April 18. From that day on, it will be open for luncheon every Tuesday and Thursday from 11:50 to 12:45 o'clock. Featuring the same attractive decorations and table service, with the addition of a new corner cupboard, the tea room is certain to be as popular as ever, offering special twenty-five and thirty-five cent luncheons.

The same plan as last quarter will be in effect, one student acting as manager and hostess each week. The class will rotate duties as waitress, cook, and counter girl. Reservations for tables are not necessary, but to insure having one, students may see Mrs. Sarah Dawdle beforehand and make arrangements.

Sophomores and Juniors Will Hold a Joint Meeting Thurs.

Thursday, at the regular orientation period the Sophomore and Junior classes will hold a joint meeting in Room 1 of the Home-Making building. Carl Palmer, Herman Mendelowitz, Althea Harper, of the Junior class; and Jack Murdock, Corrine Kibler, and Owen Ulph, of the Sophomore class, are making arrangements for the forthcoming meeting.

There will be entertainment by some of the best known talent in school, in addition to eats and dancing. All Sophs and Juniors who are interested in having a good time should be there and see who your classmates are. The admission is absolutely free, so we'll be seein' ya Thursday at eleven in the Home-Making building.

A Capella Choir Sings at Principal's Convention

The San Jose State Teacher's College A Capella choir, under the direction of William Erlendson, prominent member of the music faculty, gave a short concert at 9 o'clock this morning to the members of the Principal's convention in Morris Dailey auditorium. Immediately after, the choir left by motor bus for Oakland, where they were the guests of the State Music Supervisor's convention at the Scottish Rite auditorium. The choir sang many of the songs which they presented over the N. B. C. radio network a few weeks ago.

[The annual A Capella concert will be given April 19, in Morris Dailey auditorium. Frank Triana, eminent local violinist, will be soloist. The entire concert will be free.

Otterstein Elected To National Fraternity Post

Mr. Adolph Otterstein, head of the Music Department, has been honored by being appointed Western Province Governor for the Phi Mu Alpha, honorary men's music fraternity, and in this capacity he will visit chapters of the fraternity at the College of the Pacific, University of Southern California, Arizona, and Fresno State Teachers' Colleges.

The Music Department has been very prominent in the activities here the past week, and this coming week the extensive program will be continued. Saturday evening a home-making banquet was held at the Hotel Sainte Claire, and the entertainment was furnished by the State College trio with Doris Kinne as soloist.

Monday noon, the band, under the direction of Mr. Miller, played in the quad. Monday evening Miss Maurice Thompson arranged music for the banquets given by alumni of Stanford University, University of California and University of Southern California. Tuesday Joel Carter sang for the wives of the principals at Roosevelt Junior High School. Wednesday morning the A Capella Choir sang in Oakland for the Music Supervisors' conference.

SPRING PRACTICE REVEALS SPARTAN "BEEF TRUST" TEAM

De Groot Has 11 Men Over
200 Pound Mark and
25 Over 180

With the football roster of eighty-six men complete, Coach Dud De Groot has a corner on what is commonly called a "Beef Trust". He has eleven men, all of whom tip the beam past the two hundred pound mark, and, in addition, has twenty-five gridders ranging between 180 and 200 pounds. Last year's team average of 171 is destined to rise by at least twenty pounds, which will give State the heaviest team in the conference.

New Offense Planned

"The addition of this weight and power will make possible types of offense that a light team, such as we had here last year, cannot use," said Dud at Wednesday's practice, "and next fall, with these new additions, we shall be able to add much to the variability of our attack. There will be a light, fast line which will employ one kind of offense, and a heavy, powerful line that will use another. Thus we shall be able to add power without sacrificing the speed that was used to such good advantage last fall."

The "Beef Trust"

The "Beef Trust" is composed of Leo, who weighs a mere 245; Wisdom, of P. A. L. fame, at 234; Azevedo, a three letter man from Oakland High, at 216; Gilliland, who was with the Frosh last season, at 215; Buehler, the man many of our opposing conference tackles will remember, at 210; Davidson, from Upper Lake High, at 210; Lanphear, who earned two letters at Los Gatos High, at 210; Biddle, our six foot four "play-boy", at 205; Scofield, who played tackle three years at San Jose High, at 205; Hardiman, another luminary on last year's championship team, at 200; and Margalotti, the star guard from the Frosh, is the lightweight, at 200.

Carnival Preparation

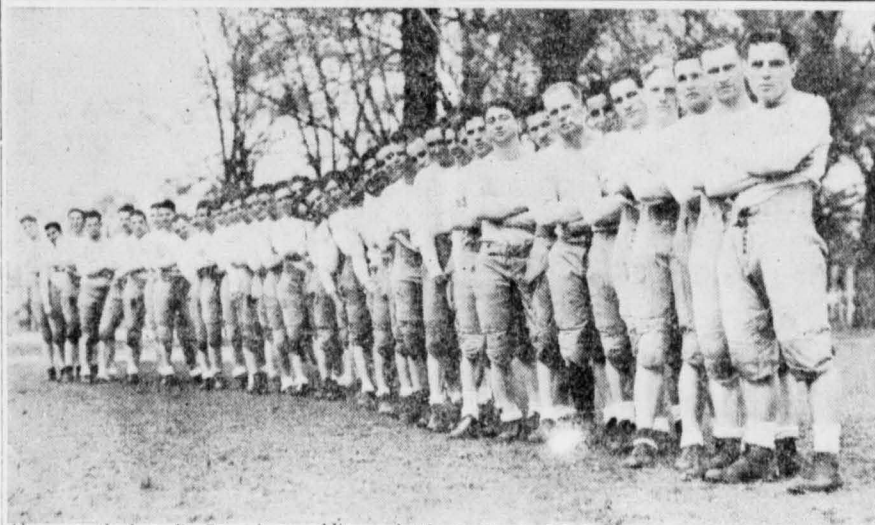

Coach De Groot is already preparing his men for the Pacific Coast Football Carnival to be held at Stockton on April 29, by drills on fundamentals. He is giving the boys ideas about throwing and catching passes, punting and the receiving of punts, centering the ball, charging positions on offense, tackling, and one block. It is no secret that Dud intends to walk off with top honors at this carnival if it is possible.

The lack of beef in last year's Spartan line will not be much of a bother to De Groot this year. With man-mountains like Azevedo, Leo, Buehler, Davidson, and Biddle well over the 200 mark, and others seriously crowding the tenth-ton number, the San Jose beef trust will probably be in action when the fall season rolls around.

LOCAL TRACKSTERS GET TEST AGAINST FRESNO SATURDAY

Dual Meet in Raisin City
Will Probably Decide
Conference Crown

This week-end will provide the acid test for Coach Erwin Blesh's San Jose State track team. The locals, who, when apparently possessed of exceptional strength, fell down badly in the Sacramento Relays last Saturday, will go up against Coach Flint Hanner's State Bulldogs at Fresno in a meet that will probably decide the Conference winner for 1933.

The Fresnans, who are defending Conference champions, cannot be installed as anything but favorites on the comparative basis of performances at Sacramento. Relay carnivals, and dual meets are, however, quite different things, and the locals stand more than an even chance of upsetting the champs.

San Jose and Fresno are admittedly the class of the Conference, and consequently with the settlement of their individual superiority will probably go the Conference crown which is officially awarded to the winner of the Conference meet in May.

Coach Blesh is taking a full squad to Fresno in an effort to stem the Bulldog tide which consists of such stellar performers as Walter Marty in the high jump, Captain Herb Denham in the hurdles, Floyd Wilson in the broad jump and hurdles, Lee Ayers in the sprints, and Talbot in the pole vault.

The locals are determined to avenge their poor showing in the Relays, and their firmness of purpose bodes ill for Flint Hanner's charges.

Left: Jimmy Francis, one of the few three sport men at San Jose. A member of both football and basketball teams, he is a star half miler on the Spartan track team which meets Fresno Saturday.

One of the feature races in the dual meet between Fresno State and San Jose at Fresno this week will be the mile duel between Harper of the locals and Hotchkiss of the Bulldogs. Harper withstood his challenge in the final lap of the medley at Sacramento Saturday, but may not be able to do so again. Hotchkiss is a transfer from Compton Junior College, who has run better than 4:34 already this season. Harper's best mark is 4:30.

Dario "Si" Simoni, Spartan's enterprising Student Affairs Chairman, and All-Conference football tackle at his spare time, has gone after sports celebrities for his Loan Fund dance this Saturday night. Among those present will be Ernie Nevers, immortal Stanford All-American and present assistant coach up at the "farm," and Maurice J. "Clipper" Smith, head coach at Santa Clara University.

As a prize at this same dance, will be a football autographed by the members of San Jose State's Far Western Conference Championship Football team.

Working out with the Spartan track team this week is a San Jose boy named Ferrari who is making good as a sprinter for the University of San Francisco. Last Saturday he ran a corking second lap in the victorious Dur sprint relay team. This is vacation week for the San Francisco boys, and the former San Jose High star is availing himself of the opportunity of keeping in shape by working with the local squad.

Spring football seems to have become an exceedingly popular pastime in the Far Western Conference. As Dud De Groot sends some eighty odd candidates through their paces three times a week, drills are also under way, or have just been completed at four of the five remaining Conference schools. Up at Pacific, Coach Amos Alonzo Stagg is rapidly grounding his men in the fundamentals of his system. Down at Fresno State Coach Leo Harris is drilling another squad of huskies. Up at Nevada "Brick" Mitchell has just completed an arduous spring session. And topping off the list is Art Acker of Chico State, who has no intention of being caught napping. His workouts started the third of this month and will last for some time.

We understand that Coach Stagg is making no bones about the conditioning of his Pacific huskies. Some of the lads have taken off as much as ten pounds since the work-outs began.

We never before fully appreciated the ability of Coach Charlie Walker to turn out a swimming team in short order. However, a glance at the S. F. State-San Jose swimming race Friday night gives us the impression that Charlie has certainly done a fine job in his two years here. The S. F. team was apparently new in the swimming field and the Spartans swamped the Gators with ease.
