N. C. I. SWIM MEET SATURDAY

PAUL JUNGERMAN IS ELECTED PRESIDENT OF FRESHMAN CLASS AT YESTERDAY'S MEETING

Bowert Chosen Vice-Pres.; Healy Re-Elected Sec.

Paul Jungerman was elected President of the Freshman Class at its first meeting of the quarter Thursday, defeating Clay Morgan, Leroy Morgan and Burton Abbott.

For the office of Vice-president, Emile Bowert was chosen. Programs for the weekly orientation are arranged by the vice-president, making it a very important office. Others nominated were Jack Hanley and Bill Zeigler.

Patricia Healy was re-elected secretary over Lela May O'Connell. Catherine Nell Smith was re-elected A.W.S. representative. Alice Smith ran against her.

The afternoon dance Friday and the Boat Ride, which are being planned for a future date, were announced. Mr. Mendenhall said that freshmen were eligible for tryouts for membership in the Dramatic Club. Tryout will be held Monday noon for the ten plays to be cast. Good Medicine, which is cast entirely with Freshmen players is to be repeated Friday afternoon April 13 at Franklin school. Actors are also needed for the class in Play Production, and tryouts will be held today, Friday between four and five o'clock.

Dr. MacQuarrie spoke on his interest in seeing each year who could come to the top in the Freshman Class. He also commented on Spardi Gras, its origin on the campus, and how it was cleverly applied to the event given each spring. It was presented originally on February 29 with the idea that it would be repeated each leap year, but it proved so successful that it has become an annual event on the college calendar. Dr. MacQuarrie spoke on the proposed change of the "Times" and asked the class to give it careful consideration because they would be the ones most affected. He mentioned several names that have been given to our college in the past.

MacQuarrie To Speak At Phi Delta Meeting

Dr. MacQuarrie will speak on "The Program of Teacher Training for The New School" at a Phi Delta Kappa, national educational honor society meeting Saturday, April 7. After his talk and one by David MacKaye, director of adult education in San Jose, on "Adult Education", the meeting will be turned into a forum to discuss points of interest concerning these topics.

After a tour of the departments of Roosevelt Junior High School, a dinner will be given in the school cafeteria at which Superintendent of Schools Walter Bachrodt will be toastmaster.

Afternoon Dance First Of Series Planned By Stoll

McDonald's Orchestra Will Furnish The Music Today

With the inauguration of a new policy, the student affairs committee announces the first of a series of free afternoon dances from 4 to 6 o'clock in the women's gym, according to Elmer Stoll, chairman of student affairs.

Mel McDonald's popular campus melody makers will furnish the music.

The new policy which offers as many free afternoon dances as possible, necessitates the giving of an extra evening dance.

This dance will be given Apr. 20 in the men's gym. Admission will be twenty-five cents a person. Jack Fidanque and his music men will play.

Junior High Majors To Hold First Meet Of Term April 12

New ideas will plan an important part in the planning of the next Junior High School meeting, according to Mrs. Cecile B. Hall, advisor of the group, and Richard Hughes, president.

Thursday, April 12, has been chosen as the date of the initial gathering of the quarter, and the majors will gather in room 1 of the Home-Making building at seven o'clock.

Here-to-fore, the policy of the group has been to obtain an outstanding educator to address the meeting, and although this feature has been retained, another plan will be put into effect at the next gathering.

The majors have long felt the desirability of establishing firmer bonds of friendship between the prospective teachers and the junior high school children of the Peter Burnett Junior High School and the Herbert Hoover Junior High, who will contribute the greater part of the program at next Thursday's meeting.

SPARTAN SENATE GIVES SYMPOSIUM DINNER IN S. J. TEA ROOM TONIGHT

With plans nearly complete, Spartan Senate is ready for its Symposium Dinner to be given tonight, Friday, April 6 in the College Tea Room.

Dr. and Mrs. MacQuarrie and Dr. and Mrs. Poytress will act as patrons at the dinner and the debate which is to follow.

Guests of the Spartan Senate will include two members each from the University of California and Stanford. The two debaters who will represent State are Richard Frank and William D. Jones.

The topic over which these carefully selected debaters will argue is interesting and varied. There are many different phases which will be handled by the various representatives.

The topic under discussion will be "The Effect of Social Planning Upon: (1) Production and Distribution—Richard Frank, San Jose; (2) International Trade—California; (3) Government and Finance—Spencer Thompson, Stanford; (4) The Family—California; (5) Education—Jack Nelson, Stanford; (6) The Arts—William Jones—San Jose.

Officers of the Spartan Senate have been working in co-operation with Mr. Ralph Eckert, faculty adviser, to make this dinner a big success.

Juniors Urged To Buy Bids For Dinner Dance To Be Held At DeAnza

For special group reservations to the big Junior semi-formal dance to be given at the Hotel De Anza Friday, April 13, see Louise Hocum or drop a note in her co-op box before next Wednesday.

As an extra inducement will be offered the regular $1.40 dinner for $1.25, with the dance added. This is the first affair of this type the Juniors have attempted, and the dinner, with free dancing, should prove attractive. There will be no corsages.

Carmon Dragon's orchestra will furnish the music for the affair. There are only 100 bids available, and the juniors have their last opportunity to purchase them this Friday, before they are offered to the general public next week. The dinner will start at 7:30 and dancing will continue from 9 until 1 o'clock.

Louise Hocum is general chairman, and has the following committee heads to assist her: Ambrose Nichols, tickets; Elmer Stoll, publicity; Ruth Whidden, patrons and patronesses.

Bids may be obtained at the controller's office. They are $1.25 and cover the cost of dinner and dancing.

Buster Olds To Offer Competition For Card Star

Spartan Diver Is Given Chance To Take First Honors

By AL RHINES

The Northern California Intercollegiate Swimming Championships, featuring the attempt of Captain Bob Clark of Stanford to set a new National Intercollegiate medley swim record, will be held in Spartan pool tomorrow afternoon and evening.

Clark, present holder of the record for short course pools, will be trying for a new record for long course pools. Although he is good enough to attempt a new record, Clark will by no means have a cinch walkaway with the race, as Buster Olds, another Stanford medley swimmer will be pressing all the way, and will undoubtedly make an interesting race of the event.

The favorites for the sprint races are rather hard to pick because of the large number of entrants. Godman and Van Saltza of Stanford, Park of Golden Gate, and Ambrose of San Jose will, however be the outstanding contenders in the 50 yard event, with Godman listed as the probable medal winner.

Among the favorites in the 100 yard free style should be included Ambrose and Fitzgerald of San Jose, Gardner, Graves, Godman, Van Saltza of Stanford, and Park of Golden Gate with another Stanford man, Gardner, posted as the likely receiver of the medal in this event.

In the breast stroke races, the favorites include Houser of San Jose, Clark Livingston, and Foster of Stanford. Although Clark is one of the outstanding men on the coast in this event, he may not swim it Saturday in order to save his strength for his assault on the 300 yard medley swim record. With Clark (Continued on Page Three)

STUDENTBODY INVITED TO "GET SEA-MINED" OVER POSSIBILITY OF BOAT RIDE ON APRIL 21

Election To Determine Fate Of Proposed Bay Event

Ship ahoy, Staters! Get sea-minded, 'cause we're taking to the sea.

And keep sea-minded! Study with a book in one hand and a sailor's cap in the other. The opportunity of enjoying a real honest-to-goodness sea voyage has come to the student for the third time in the history of "our good ol' alma mater."

Originated by the sophomore class in the spring of 1931, hundreds of buoyant college students stepped aboard the bay-bound steamer to decks-full of merriment.

Dancing, deck games, sight-seeing, tumbling, eats, card games, boxing, track and field events, deck tennis, motion pictures, and SEA SICKNESS all rolled into six hours of cruising.

We can picture a silver moon hanging low over the bay, soft, tantalizing strains from a low hung lanterned ballroom.

Watch the corridors, class rooms, quad, and even the trees for the hottest two weeks of advertising that State has ever witnessed.

APRIL 21, TENTATIVE

The tentative date is set for April 21, and tickets sell for one dollar and eighty cents, approximately twenty cents for an hour filled to capacity of ripping fun on board the S. S. State. You can't afford to miss State's day on the water.

The reasonable charge of twenty cents an hour includes a trip to Oakland on the train, in addition to the six hour cruise. The excursion will last from noon until midnight.

Truly, this trip contains all the joys of a trans-oceanic voyage crowded into six hours of premier frolic.

"To be or not to be." This is the question that rests upon the students of San Jose State College.

ELECTION TO BE HELD

"An election will be held to determine the number of students who would go if we had one," Frank Covello, president of the A.S.S.J.S.C. declared.

Approximately 400 must signify their intentions of going, to insure the voyage, he said.

Triangular Playday To Be Held April 13, 14

SPORTS SHOTS

Under the leadership of the hard-riding Eric Pedley the Medwick team of Los Angeles won the Pacific Coast open polo championship before 6,000 fans at Beresford Field, San Mateo, defeating the San Mateo riders 8 to 7.

Scoring their fourth straight victory over Stanford, 3 to 1, University of Southern California strengthened its hold on second place in the California Intercollegiate Baseball League.

Four errors contributed to the Cards defeat with Ray Forsythe the chief offender. Bobby Grayson was charged with two miscues.

Julius Besos of Trojan football and basketball fame led the hitters with a triple and single in three times at the plate.

Coach Tiny Thornhill of Stanford has issued the spring training for his grid-iron warriors. Until the last of May Thornhill and his assistants will content themselves with getting the men in strong physical condition and instructing them in fundamentals. Much of last year's success of the Indian team was due to the stressing of fundamentals.

Most of the men who contributed to U.S.C.'s downfall last year will be out with the exception of All-American Bill Corbus, Al Norzard, and Bob Maentz, who graduated, and Bobby Grayson, "Bones" Hamilton, and "Monk" Moscrip, who are playing baseball.

Frank N. Shields, Lester Stofen, Sidney B. Wood, Jr., Wilmer Allison, and George M. Lott were asked by Captain R. Morris Williams to report May 14 at the Merian Cricket Club and try-out for the 1934 Davis Cup Tennis team.

All except Stofen have been on previous Davis team. Lott having been on every team but one since 1928. Others may be added to the list to try out because Captain Williams isn't overlooking any bets to bring the cup back to the United States this year.

Bernard "Babe" Dobbas was recently elected to captain the Cal Aztec basketball team through the 1933-34 campaign. Dobbas plays center and was the outstanding basketballer in the Far Western Conference this past season. He was unanimous choice for the pivot position by all those attempting to pick a F.W.C. mythical five.

On the shoulders of Dobbas rested the entire burden of the Mustangs hard-wood battles, the other four members of the team being comparatively weak. Turning in many brilliant performances, Dobbas, practically unassisted, gave the Spartans, as well as Nevada, Pacific and Chico, some strenuous court competition, losing only by a 3 and 4 point margin.

Babe Dobbas replaces Captain Carl Feck, who completes his four years of competition at the Davis school this June.

Golden Gate J. C. Withdraws From Triangular Meet

By Dick Higgins

The Spartan Babes will have an easier time in their track meet scheduled for this Saturday than was first expected. Due to unfortunate circumstances, Golden Gate Junior College will be unable to make the trip, so that leaves only the Salinas Junior College outfit to offer what they can in the way of competition.

For those interested in track thought, a meet between San Jose High School and Salinas High will be run off at the same time so there should be enough action to keep the most critical spectators satisfied.

If George Stallman the ace of the frosh pole vaulters can overcome a kink in his leg by meet time he should sail to new heights in his favorite event. If Souza can hit his stride he may sneak in for a place.

In the shot put Carpenter and Bordorsky seem to have the edge over their team mates Walker and Pouyet. At the first of the season it looked as if the heaving of the iron pellet was going to be one of the weak events, but as it has turned out it is one of the strongest points. McClenahan looks good in the discus for a place in about all the meets but the remainder of this department is not too strong.

Coach Harry Stoddard is having a tough time picking a combination to run the relay. Since the surprise of Taylor running a 33.2 second quarter in practice it is about a toss-up which four will get the call among LeCroy, Pimental, Taylor, White, and Gerhardt. The local youngster probably has one of the fastest mile relay teams in this area.

Olmstead and Seiried are the class of the local broad jumpers. Olmstead also doubles in the high jump and is State's most consistent performer in the leaping event.

The loss of Bob True to the squad will shift the burden to Hanley, Hill, and Taylor in the sprints. Cammack and Brown still hold forth as the only hurdlers, both running the hi-low events. Stoddard is entering all men possible to give each fellow a break for the work and determination shown during the season.

There will be a meeting of the Dramatic Organization on Monday, April 9, in the Little Theatre at 12:00.

Dr. Stafflebach Will Address Industrial Council Saturday

Choosing as his subject "The Crisis in Education and What Should be Done About it", Dr. Stafflebach will be the main speaker at the meeting of the California Industrial Council meeting to be held in the Little Theater Saturday.

Over half of the 315 vocational instructors in the bay district are expected here tomorrow, according to President of the Council A. R. Nichols, principal of the San Jose Technical High School.

A trip to the United States naval air-base at Sunnyvale will be the feature of the afternoon program. The trip under the auspices of the San Jose Chamber of Commerce will introduce the air-base, as well as surrounding Santa Clara County, to visitors who have not had the opportunity to do so in the past. The trip will start at 2:30 o'clock.

Dr. Stafflebach's speech, the feature of the program, during the morning session, and will be given at 10:30, following the business meeting that is scheduled for an hour earlier.

Luncheon will follow at the Hotel De Anza with City Superintendent of Schools Walter Bachrod as toastmaster. State Senator Herbert C. Jones will be one of the luncheon's speakers.

Men's Verse Choir Plans to Reorganize

With reorganization not yet complete, the Men's Verse Speaking Choir will have to meet again before final plans are made. Miss Jenks who is in charge of the Choir announced yesterday, "The final selections have not been made yet because of the unusual voices which were tried out. I am undecided as to whether I will have two groups, or just one."

It was recently decided necessary to reorganize the group, but a previous attempt made it necessary to meet again. It is an important step and requires great thought and deliberation.

Swimming Meet To Be Held Tomorrow Night

not in the races, of which there are two, a 200 yard and a 100 yard—Houser will reign as heavy favorite to cop the 100 yard event and will make a strong bid for honors in the 200 yard race.

Park and Walker of Golden Gate, and Fitting and Clark of Stanford reign heavy favorites in both the 100 and 150 yard backstroke events, with Park the cream of the outfit and a probable double winner.

The distance events are rather an unknown quantity with Sexton of Menlo, Tufo and Walker of Golden Gate, and Peterson of the Stanford Frosh as the outstanding performers.

Bob Kinsley reigns as the pre-meet favorite in fancy diving, but he will receive plenty of competition from such men as Boothie and Friedman of Stanford, Kubus and Higuchi of California, and his teammate, York.

The relay races will be difficult to pick until the teams take their marks for the preliminaries; except for the Stanford medley relay outfit, who are heavy favorites to cop this event, since they have the fastest collegiate medley team in this section.

The competition in this meet is individual, with no team score or team trophy. The winner of each event, including all men on a winning relay team, will receive a medal appropriately inscribed, while second, third, and fourth place will receive ribbons.

The preliminaries, to be run off at 7 p.m. in the afternoon, will eliminate all but five men in each event except diving, in which there will be six qualifiers. These qualifiers will race in the finals to be held at eight p.m.

MISINTERPRETS CITY'S CARNEGIE FOUNDATION REQUEST FOR LIBRARY

Misinterpreting San Jose's request for permission to move its city library from Washington Square to the old post office building, the Carnegie Foundation of New York thinks that San Jose is begging for a donation from the corporation. In view of the fact that the Carnegie corporation gave San Jose $50,000 in 1901 with which to build the present library structure, a month ago the city sent a request to the foundation. Since there are not any restrictions in the Carnegie deed except that the city is to pay at least $5000 annually to support the library.

In reply to a letter received Monday by City Manager Goodwin from James Bertram, secretary of the foundation, Mr. Goodwin is repeating the former request and explaining that the library site which it had been proposed be sold to the state because of the need for expansion of San Jose State College be appraised as worth $55,000 for public purposes.

State Finance Director Rolland Vandegrift speaking at a conference here indicated that he could force no difficulty in securing approval for a $55,000 item on the next state budget for the purpose of the library site.

Wisconsin President On Speaking Tour To Stop Here April 12

Dr. Glenn Frank, president of the University of Wisconsin, and one of the outstanding educators in the United States will speak in the Morris Dalley auditorium Thursday afternoon, April 12, at 1 o'clock.

Now on a speaking tour of the west, Dr. Frank will come here under the auspices of the San Jose High School, according to Principal Forrest Murdock. His subject has not been announced but it is expected to deal with economic conditions.

Dr. Frank, President of the University of Wisconsin since 1925, has lectured in the United States and Canada since 1912, and at one time was editor in chief of the Century Magazine. He was a member of the group headed by former president of the United States Taft, that drafted a covenant for the League of Nations, which was considered by the peace conference at Paris in 1918-19.

Dr. Frank is also the author of several books, among which are "The Politics of Industry", and "An American Looks at the World". He is past author of "The Stakes in the War", and "The League of Nations—The Principle and the Practice."

Pomona College Men To Sing in San Jose

The Men's Glee Club of Pomona College, recent winner of the national intercollegiate glee club championship, will appear in concert in San Jose on Sunday, April 8. The singers will have charge of the 11 o'clock morning service in First Congregational Church, presenting a program from the choral writings of the great masters, ancient and modern.

The 32 voices are directed by Ralph H. Lyman, George Nelson, baritone soloist, is president. Coburn Palmer of Palo Alto is business manager.

The club has devoted many years to the furtherance of music appreciation in the west. The public is invited to hear it.

NOTICE

A special meeting of the commercial students will be held at 11 o'clock Tuesday on room 139.

All students are urged to be present, according to Florence Moore, press correspondent, as plans will be laid for their coming party.

INTRAMURAL

The deadline for signing up for the forthcoming intramural track meet has been set for May fourth. The various events for the meet are as follows: 50, 100, 200, and 440 yard runs; the 70 yard high hurdles; the 120 yard low hurdles; 800 and broad jump, shot put, football throw for distance, and the 880 yard eight man relay.

There are many delightful and helpful courses which you might pass up if you try to "meet requirements" and attend only regular sessions. Why not attend summer sessions and treat yourself to something you really want. Regular college with a few extra courses in summer might add values to your education which will be lasting.

"IN SPRING" By Michael Angelo

Screen Shots

By Marge Petsch

After having amused myself ever since Sunday with the problem of trying to discover what some women see in Rudy Vallee, I can at last have a few moments of concentration in an opposite direction. In other words, will anyone volunteer to prove to me what, precisely, is the source of Miss Barbara Stanwyck's success with members of the opposite sex? I have gone to picture after picture, resolved to see the woman with an open mind, and although I must admit I leave the theatre with a profound respect for the woman's ability as an actress, I can't work up any real enthusiasm over her general appearance.

Lots of people apparently can, however, because "Gambling Lady" which came to the Mission theatre yesterday, has been one of the most widely discussed pictures recently. It is a part in which I consider Miss Stanwyck to be at her best, in that it gave her opportunity to show off the various versatile sides to her clever acting. She has fair support in Joel McCrea, who is really improving in acting ability. The part which he plays, that of the Park avenue aristocrat, suits him well, and he portrays it convincingly.

The story is a sort of funny one. Not comical, but peculiarly worked out. When you come right down to facts, the plot is not new. In fact, most of us have considered it unmercifully overworked. But in "Gambling Lady" Miss Stanwyck, (I'm sure she's responsible,) seems to give it a new impetus. You see, it's about the girl who drinks the evil potions of both the underworld and of high society, and when she gets to the last drop of the two different realms of society, she decides that, after all, they are fundamentally the same. Not a new line, but if you see it, you'll have to admit that it is given a new touch. Other characters in the cast are Claire Dodd and Pat O'Brien.

At the California, "Lazy River" just got tired of running (no pun) even though people still seemed to like it. It was the kind of picture some people see twice. But in direct contrast to the story of the south has come "Wharf Angel", starring Victor McGlagon, Dorothy Hill (a feeble Mae West), Preston Foster, and Allison Shipworth. The story is one of law life along the murky

S.J. Verse Choir Scores At Burnett Junior High

On Tuesday, April 3, the Verse Speaking Choir appeared before the students of the Peter Burnett Jr. High. The program was given at eleven o'clock in the auditorium. The selections were mostly children's poems and it was afterwards reported that no audience in the school had ever been as quiet and attentive as that one.

wharves of San Francisco's Embarcadero, and if you like the Embarcadero, you'll like the picture probably. Two husky boiler stokers (I hope that's what you call them), unintentional rivals for the love of the same girl, ship for China on a tramp steamer and develop a friendship which makes things even more difficult to work out when they return to San Francisco.

I thought, and you probably will also, that Allison Shipworth was the most colorful figure in the picture, playing the part of a drab "Mother" of the unfortunate people who frequented her dive. The story isn't exactly pleasant, but it is apparently historically correct, and fast moving.

The second bill at the Cal is "Registered Nurse" with Bebe Daniels, Lyle Talbot and Minna Gombel. If you're not tired of hospital pictures, this pic-

Educators Can't Play Bridge, Care For Child In Successful Manner

Educators remind me of a lot of club-women whose children run the streets. They are all so involved in committee meetings and the proposing and discussing of theories, that the children are actually neglected. Educators find attending conference more picturesque than prosaic teaching; hence their eagerness to invent new problems for discussion. They have felt a lack of something in our system of education and have tried (and are still trying) to make up for that lack by adding more complicated devices to the machine of education. As there is always someone who can wax eloquent over a new substantive ending in "ion" whose meaning is always vague and whose connotations would baffle the combined efforts of Webster and Funk and Wagnalls, the paraphernalia increases daily. The result is a general ping-ponging of words by educators, all in an unceasing effort to avoid thinking and the every-day job of teaching. They invent new tests that any intelligent student can consider only as a farce. I am willing to wager that I could take a "personality test" and pass it to indicate that I am a confirmed extravert, normal, or introvert as I chose.

If I could address an appeal to educators (with the naive confidence of a child addressing Santa Claus,) it would read as follows: Deflate your idea of your own importance; you are only stones beneath our feet. Put your feet under your own desks for a change and leave conferences for diplomats. Above all things, give us facts, hard fundamental facts; drill them into us until we would hang for them; and keep your theories for yourselves and your autobiographies, which we shall never read. If we are intelligent, we shall generate our own ideas from the facts you have given us; if not, at least we shall be supplied with a useful store of factual material of which we are certain, rather than the factual smattering which constitutes American education today.

ture will be good entertainment, and if you're tired of hospital pictures, I don't think you will be too bored with this one. Minna Gombel always seems to do something for a picture.

And don't forget "Rip Tide," the long awaited Norma Shearer-Robert Montgomery picture, coming to the Mission on Sunday. Let's hope it will be as good as "Private Lives".

A CITY OF SILVER AND JEWELS

There's a road that is broad and straight
And it leads to a glittering town.
Where the silver is wrought into turrets and gates
And the gardens with jewels are sown.
It's the strong and noble who follow
the road,
It's the man who is seeking success,
For the highway is cruel with never a turn,
And with rest and with shade is not blessed.

But I'll follow the trail that leads down to the sea,
Through the moss and the whispering trees
Where the bypaths turn off into gay growing nooks,
And the song of the waves is sung by the breeze
Here our smiles and our dreams are the gold,
And we live and we walk without rules.
For I never was noble or brave in the least,
And I'd die in a city of silver and jewels.

—Beryl Hoskin.

—GOD BLESS YOU—

God bless you! Why, it means so much,
I almost whisper as I say it
I dream that unseen fingers touch
My hands in answer as I pray it,
May all it means to all mankind
In all its wonder possess you,
Through sun and cloud and calm and wind.
God bless you!

—DEFENSE—

You say my soul toward hell does lurch
Because I will not go to church?
Does God sit with his book on high
To make a note each time I lie?
To say, "If this keeps up, my dear,
You will not get your harp, I fear."
You call be sacriligious, too—
I do not pray for what is due
To me, but try by common sense
To get the most at least expense.
"Selfish? Perhaps—at least I know
I would not give a friend a blow
My creed? It's honest, fair play
The Lord may save my soul, you say,
If I but worship in your way—
I am not worried—day by day
I do my humble best to please
The ones I love—My soul's at ease—
And even it toward hell I lurch
I simply will not go to church!!

Another Friday, another Big Ten program from KPO at 9, and another chance to prove your ability in picking best-liked popular songs. Week before last, you'll remember, "You Ought To Be in Pictures" rated number one position. Last week this song dropped one place to make room for "Over Somebody Else's Shoulder", a comparative newcomer to the race.

Dial this feature this eve and try your hand at the game, and also enjoy a good dance band with a minimum of bally-hoo.

WEEK-END PROGRAMS

Saturday and Sunday seem to be the zenith of the week so far as ace b'casts go. Each Sat. eve finds Donald (tenor) Novis exercising the old vocal works via KGO at 6, and what is better yet he is assisted by one of the best celebrity impersonators ever heard on any air. This comedian's take-offs on Joe Penner, Ed Wynn, Jack Benny, and tens of others are startling as well as amusing.

KPO's latest offering to be flung eastward on Saturday is the much discussed Carefree Carnival, which comes to you at 9 with such favorites as Meredith Wilson, The Hill Nannies, and Senator Frankenstein Fishface.

JOE "DUCKY" PENNER

Sunday finds KGO etherizing two solid hours of varied entertainment. This begins at 4:00 with the Real Silk half hour acting as a fitting prelude to the greatest duck salesman in the world, Joseph Penner, who flies the banner for the Bakers' Broadcast aided by the youthful Ozzie Nelson and Harriet Hilliard.

Following Joe comes the full hour of Eddie Cantor, the wall-eyed comedian whose motto concerning new eggs is "humor with a mission", hence the somewhat tiring episodes of would-be suicides, etc.

Other programs b'cast by this station later in the evening are Manhattan Merry-go-round and Album of Familiar Music following Eddie Cantor. Walter Winchell begins his mouthings at 8:15 to prove his own statement that "the only advantage of being a columnist is that you get paid for being a louse."

TO ONE WHO ALWAYS HUNTS FOR TROUBLE

Here lies the body of a fellow named Jones.
In life he always picked the bones!
