Dopesters Choose Student Body Candidates

Warmke and Moore May Be Nominees for S. B. President

VAGTS AND COVELLO TO BE CONTESTANTS FOR THE VICE-PRESIDENCY

Pre-election sages prophecy the results of the coming election of student body officers, doping out the winners from a list of strong nominees. President Horning and his executive board finish their year of student administration, leaving the field to those successful in their coming campaigns.

Aspirants for the presidency will be Leon Warmke, present vice president of the student body and leader in college affairs, and Rodger Lee Moore, Men's athletic representative, prominent football star, and president of men physical education majors.

Hale Vagts, twice editor of the College Times, successful journalist, and leader in college affairs, vies for the vice presidency with Frankie Covello, head varsity yell leader, president of the French Honor Society, and also active on the campus.

For secretary, candidates are Helen Freeland, leader in the Y. W. C. A. and Inter-Society, and Ruth Montgomery, president of San Jose Players.

Carl Welz, present music representative, Junior Wilson, president of the Junior class, and Carl Palmer, chairman of student affairs, are campaigning for the office of chairman of finance.

For student affairs, nominees will be Arnold (Bud) Applegarth, prominent worker of the Junior class, and chairman of the student body identification card committee, and Dick Sanders, San Jose (Continued on Page Three)

Nine p. m., at a rambling Spanish Inn, near the old Mission town of San Luis Obispo—twelve San Jose State students playing bridge—writing letters—listening to music—and talking—talking of that perfect buffet luncheon at the home of Miss Jenks—of that "on-the-dot" start from San Jose in a soft drizzling rain.

—Of that downpour at Gilroy that threatened luggage and safety, but could not affect the spirits that were traveling 300 miles to win another bit of glory for San Jose State.

—Of snatches of songs and poems that made the hours fly by.

—Of those windy, sleepy stretches through King City where speed and silence ruled.

—And of that sight of a mission tower, a group of rambling Spanish cottages and gardens that meant rest in the exquisite moonlit patio.

Stanford Seniors Are Disagreeing on Ideals

Once again the two sexes clash! This time the principals are Stanford men and women seniors.

As usual the results have been gathered from a questionnaire which the obliging seniors have answered.

And we have the clashing points in a nutshell: The fair co-eds believe in Love-at-first-sight, they also believe in socialism and in careers for women while the "roughs" think love-at-first-sight is a lot of "hokey," also that socialism is one of those things, and that careers for women are futile because a college education can't help a housewife keep toast from burning and water from boiling over.

Jim Fitzgerald Will Edit 'College Times' During Fall Quarter

IS NOW VICE-PRESIDENT OF THE SAN JOSE PLAYERS

Faithful service and efficient executive ability were recognized last Friday when James Fitzgerald, present Managing Editor of the Times, was elected to edit the student publication next quarter by the Publication Board.

Fitzgerald is remembered for his excellent directing on the Spardi Gras Food Committee, which served one of the largest crowds in State history.

As vice-president of San Jose Players, Fitzgerald is recognized as one of the most efficient executives in the organization.

During his term as Managing Editor of the Times Jim has contributed much time and effort that the publication might appear on the campus each day on time. Fitzgerald is at present the treasurer of the Junior class.

A high sense of duty characterizes the newly elected editor, who is popular both for his rigid personal standards and his likeable Irish grin.

Fitzgerald, as editor, will succeed Hale Vagts, during whose administration publication of the Times has been increased to four issues per week. Jim intends to pursue the liberal policies of the present administration.

Band Is Feature Over Station KQW

The concert band of San Jose State was the featured entertainment on the sixth San Jose State College radio program broadcast last Wednesday over Radio Station KQW.

Under the direction of Forrest J. Baird, the band concert was presented from the Gold Room of the Hotel Sainte Claire.

With Leon Warmke as announcer, these programs are presented every Wednesday evening, between 8:30 and 9:00 o'clock. Sponsored by the San Jose Chamber of Commerce and a number of business institutions, the broadcasts feature talent from the music and speech arts departments.

All Eleven o'Clock Classes Excused for the Meeting

ALL STUDENT OFFICERS TO BE NOMINATED AT MEETING

A general assembly of the Associated Students, for which all classes have been excused, has been arranged for Wednesday, May 25th at 11 a. m., in the Morris Dailey Auditorium.

At this assembly nominations for all student body officers for the fall quarter and next year will be in order.

Quoting directly from Article II, Section 1, of the Constitution of the Associated Students, the following offices are open for nominations:

1. President.
2. Vice President.
3. Secretary.
4. Representative of the Health Cottage.
5. Chairman of Finance Board.
6. Representative of Forensics.
7. Representative of Music.
8. Chairman of Student Affairs.

President, vice president, secretary, chairman of finance board, representative of health cottage, hold office for one year. The other elected officers are quarterly.

Numerous candidates have already signified their intention of running for offices, and general interest is being shown towards the election which will be held Wednesday, June 1st.

I urge every member of the Associated Students to be present for these nominations. A general participation in "politics" is necessary for the strength of any organization. Be there and back your candidate!

Carl Welz, music representative, has also arranged a special program of music from the Music department.

Remember the date and hour!
JOHN L. HORNING,
President of the Associated Students.

New Editor

Jim Fitzgerald, Vice-President of San Jose Players, was chosen by the Publication Board to edit the Times for the fall quarter.

Chapel Services Will Be Held Thursday

College Y. M. chapel services in the Little Theatre, Thursday noons, 12:40-12:55. General theme "The Value of Life." A short service led by a well known preacher or business man. All students invited.

"Thank You, Seniors, for Your Kind and Courteous Treatment," say Juniors

To the Seniors:

It is during the rigors of a time such as the past week has been that sportsmanship is tested. It is to the honor and credit of the fourth year students that they came through 100 per cent.

Candidly, we have never known another bunch of people by which we would prefer to be checked and drowned.

But, personally, we feel injured—in fact, hurt sorely,—by the slight we received, in being overlooked when the "rides" were being handed out.

Oh well, we may get our chance next year.

LEON WARMKE.

Diffused knowledge immortalizes itself.—James Mackintosh.

Senior Sneak Day Proves To Be Most Successful in History of the School

Now that Sneak Day has passed over the crux of three of the most interesting days at San Jose State—three days which culminated in one of the most successful Sneak Days ever held—it seems only fair that those people who made that memorable day possible should receive some recognition. Lillian O'Hanlon, Gerry Prindiville, Harold Corrigan, and Helen Smith deserve a paean of praise and congratulations for their careful planning and execution of final arrangements.

The traditional Senior-Junior fracas proved that both classes had entered into the spirit of "Sneak," and, though skinned and ducked bodies were prevalent among the Juniors, the underclassmen, as a body, accepted the defeat with a fine spirit of sportsmanship.

Just Among Ourselves

Note—This column is personal between the president and the college. Outsiders are requested not to make use of the material.

Three weeks now, and then the finals. If you've been slipping, "following wandering fires," there's still time for an effort. Most of you have been doing real fine work, some haven't tried. Make that effort now, or clutter up some other community next fall.

Thirteen full weeks of vacation. Going to get a job? Good luck!

The basic principle in getting a job is to let people know you want one. Employers won't come to you these days. Convince yourself that it doesn't do any harm to ask. Just the asking is an education, especially if you're a bit sensitive. Take a rebuff philosophically. Employers are short. Recognize that, and add, "Thank you, if you hear of a job I hope you'll let me know."

You're living when you contact people. Every experience makes for growth. If you come back next fall not having had a job all summer, just write a story, "A Thousand Tries for a Job." I'll agree to read it.

I look back to my own vacation jobs with a good deal of pleasure. One summer as an office boy, one summer in a grocery store, one summer in a sawmill, three summers as a carpenter, one as a painter, and two on a newspaper. Quite a spread of experience.

Most of the jobs came easily, accident or relatives. For the sawmill job I had to put up a campaign. Many experienced men waiting around. I waited, too, and asked. The boss had only one eye, and it flashed like a pistol when he roared, "No." I stuck around. It made him mad every time he saw me. One day the big chain to the burner broke, and stopped the mill. "Here, you," One-eye yelled at me, "get a pike pole, and keep those logs away."

The Ferris Wheel

You tell me college students do not
Give a such and such for verse;
But here's some more, say what you will,
And hang the luck, it's even worse.

We still hear echoes echoing Philosophies so pessimistic,—
I can't say anything without you getting quite antagonistic.
Let's can the issue, end the fight,
For, Friend E. P., you may be right.
Long be your days and loud your praise,
N. C., for your most kind defense.
It does me good to read of one
At least, who has such rare horse sense.

In praise of folly let me say
With 'Rasmus, sage of yesterday,
All fruits are sweeter, more desired

When "syrup-titiously" acquired,
And happiest are hours that pass

So I was hired. Ten cents an hour, ten hours.

Finally went on the night shift. Don't know of anything so awe-inspiring as a big sawmill at night. Fire, steam, noise, great logs pumped here and there, flop of the new boards, crash of the carriage exhaust. Shrill crescendo of the flashing bands as they tore through the logs, chug of the gangs, snarl of the slashers. My work was outside on the conveyors. Sometimes it rained, stormed, thunder and lightning. If I could only have expressed it in poetry! Worth while? Every experience is worth while. How could I help Hale fill his old paper if I hadn't worked that summer?

Sport Editor:

It seems that an injustice has been inflicted on the members of the varsity baseball squad. The injustice is in the form of their being barred from competing in the proposed playground baseball league. I am writing this letter in the hopes that something may be done so as to allow the members of the baseball team to play. Could you print it in your column?

Why shouldn't they be allowed to play? As I see it there is a world of difference in playground baseball, which is played with a soft ball, and the great national pastime which the varsity plays.

I hope those behind this league don't think that the members of the varsity are too good to play in their league. The members of the school baseball team are good in their own game, but when it comes to this soft-ball game they may not be so "hot." Their fielding would be a little better, but they shouldn't be such powerful hitters. The ordinary player should be able to hit better than

The Correct Way

(Note: This column is for the use of students. Leave your questions in the Times box in the Co-op.)

Q.—Is it permissible for a man to walk between two ladies on the street?

A.—It is not. Unless both ladies need actual support, the gentleman walks on the outside of the sidewalk. In crossing a street the man may walk between the ladies in order to guide them safely.

Q.—Does the hostess precede her gentleman caller in entering or leaving a room or her house?

A.—The lady always precedes the gentleman save in descending a staircase. Then the gentleman leads the way.

Q.—Should one leave one's gloves on at a tea?

A.—Yes. Hostesses, however, never wear gloves.

Q.—Is it permissible to put one's elbows on the table?

A.—It is, that is, before the food has arrived and after it has been removed.

Q.—Is it permissible for a lady to take her escort's arm on the street?

A.—In a crowd or in crossing a street, the gentleman should take the lady's elbow or present his own for her to take. Otherwise this is incorrect.

Q.—How should olives be eaten?

A.—Olives are eaten with the fingers unless in some cooked dish. Then they are eaten with the fork. Never put the whole the varsity players, this difference would be due to size of hat and ball and difference in pitching style. I don't think the sponsors of the league need worry about them being too fast for intramural.

A Communication

Having talked to a number of fellows about the campus I find that the only persons in favor of keeping the varsity ball players from playing in the coming tournament are a few members of the Reserve basketball squad. A greater majority of men about the campus would like to see the members of the varsity in action during the league.

Of the reserve basketball squad it is just a few of the "thick skulled", self-centered "dubs" that are gloating over the fact that the varsity ball team are being kept out of the league. They feel the ball players should be barred for the same reason that they were barred from intra-mural basketball. I wonder if these so-called basketball players realize that there is a great difference in the playing of soft and hard ball while there is no earthly difference in reserve and intra-mural basketball.

In a recent edition of the Times an article stated that the ball players were being barred from

THE MOVING FINGER

Well, the Seniors are the first thing the Class of '33 ever tackled on which the Class didn't display the customary '33 success. I think that speaks rather highly for the Seniors.

My suggestion is that if next year is the same as this, all upper division classes should be excused ahead of time in order to save poor teachers from hopeless waiting.

The secret as to the date of Sneak Day was so well kept that five freshmen and a jantor didn't know it. Even so, two Seniors showed up for Orientation.

I have just finished reading the latest issue of El Portal, and I am satisfied. Not, of course, in the same way that a Cabell novel would have given satisfaction. But satisfied to feel that there is a bode of literary expression for those who desire it, and that the offering were of such a high standard.

Of course, I start disagreeing right from Page Two—Page One is the index. I have respect for the imagination that can write such a poem as the one on William Blake, but I confess my inability to shake myself free of the tremendous simplicities of life in order to go off on a mental spree.

Mysticism is a Will o' the Wisp. Those individuals who find actual existence too real and hard to face can butterfly off into a Never-Never land of their own—or some other mystic's—creation. In the meantime poverty, superstition, cruelty, and disease continue.

The mystic either shuts his eyes and denies their presence, or else firmly announces a Promised Land where all the Good People will find happiness.

Why not be a Pessimist? The creed is simple. I believe in myself, in other people, in the world, and in Science. My purpose is to enjoy life as much as possible, and I can best be happy by making others happy. Simple, isn't it?

In his "Frontier of Education" Alfred Chandler mars an excellent article by his apparent belief in the myth that "all men are born equal."

Of all the writings the Korean Lyrics are undoubtedly gems, particularly the Fifth and the Sixth. Oriental poetry has a tenderness and a simplicity of imagery that sink deeply in spite of its quietude. Its gentility of expression flows from a culture that was old before ours was born—that may live on in contemplative when ours dies and dissolves.

Y.W.C.A. Cabinets Hold Joint Retreat on Last Week-End

GATHERING WAS HELD AT SARATOGA FOR DISCUSSION

Members of the old and the new cabinet of the Y. W. C. A. held their annual Cabinet Retreat at Farwell Cottage in Saratoga last week-end. On Saturday evening Miss Grace Stockwell, the "Y" secretary of World Education at University of California, gave a brief, comprehensive sketch of the history and development of the Y. W. C. A. and fundamental reasons for its existence, for its purpose to keep pace with the needs of women; to consider the problems of their lives and put their conclusions into action.

It was defined as an inter-age, inter-racial, inter-group, international fellowship in which an ever enlarging, more inclusive group of women are working toward ever receding goals.

Mrs. De Voss, who led the Sunday morning devotion, discussed the finding of fresh, valid interpretations of the Christian faith and the aesthetic appreciation of

"Olympics" Stamps To Be at Post Offices on June 1

On June 1st two stamps will be issued in honor of the Olympic Games in Los Angeles. There will be a two cent and a five cent variety. These stamps are scheduled to go on sale at the post office in San Jose on the day issued (June 1st). At present nothing is known about the design.

Those who wish to obtain First Day Covers may do so in the following manner: Send a letter to the postmaster at Los Angeles, enclosing a self-addressed envelope. Tell him that you wish the letter held for a First Day cancellation. The deadline for receipt of letters is May 26, so all envelopes should be mailed from here not later than the 24th.

Collectors of Cachets will be interested to know that a cachet bearing the cancellation of the U. S. S. Patoka was issued in commemorating the mooring of the Akron to the Patoka. Another cachet was issued at Sunnyvale for the Akron welcome. These covers can very likely be obtained at any postage stamp dealer's for about 25c.

A very interesting exhibit of First Flight Covers, both U. S. and Foreign, is to be seen at Lindsay's book store on Santa Clara Street, just off First.

After devotion the next year's plans were considered, and the girls explored the Blaney estate. During the afternoon the various Cabinet members met in their respective groups to outline and discuss the next year's possibilities.

Ex-Board Holds Regular Meeting Last Wednesday

JERRY PRINDIVILLE CHOSEN HEAD OF ELECTION BOARD

May 17.

The regular meeting of the Ex-Board was called to order by President John Horning. Roll was called and the minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.

Clues as to the whereabouts of Mr. Horning's car were then discussed, but the matter was given up in despair.

Under new business, it was moved, seconded and carried that June 4 be the date of the Ex-Board picnic.

President Horning announced that Student Body nominations would be held on May 25th. Nominations were then opened for Chairman of the Election Board. Mr. Gerald Prindiville was nominated. It was moved, seconded, and carried that the nominations be closed. A white ballot was cast for Gerald Prindiville as Chairman of the Election Board.

Recognition Day was then discussed. Mr. Govello reported that it would take place in the Men's Gym on June 10 from 10 to 12. He suggested that Ex-Board members turn in names of possible candidates for Recognition Day rewards.

Mr. Welz announced that a down-town drive to sell season tickets for next year's concert series was already under way. Tau Mu Delta and Phi Mu Alpha are cooperating heartily in the drive.

Mr. Nelson announced that La Torre was due to appear on June 10.

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned.

Education Department Is Supervising Student Teachers

Members of the Education department have been busy visiting student teachers during the past week. Dr. Freeland, head of the department, has been visiting Lodi and Tracy, where he met many alumni who are teaching there. In Modesto and Sacramento, he gave education extension lectures, and also did supervising work.

Others who have been visiting practice teachers are Miss Toles, who has been visiting Velda Lux and Ruth Buckman in Oakland; and Miss Wiley, who has been visiting those teaching in Los Gatos and Mayfield. Miss De Vore has been visiting those teaching in San Jose, and the later part of the week, teachers in Sacramento, who are Margaret Roberts and Mabel Hopkins. Miss Crumby has been to see those student teaching in Marin County.

Y.W.C.A. To Hold Its Annual June Breakfast

In honor of all the Senior women graduates, the College Y. W. C. A. is giving the annual farewell June breakfast Sunday, June 5th, in the Rose Court on the campus. Florence Jewell, outgoing president of the "Y", will be toastmistress.

The theme of the occasion is to be "Pyramids," whose firm foundation and lofty heights are chosen to express the ideals of the Y. W. C. A. The motif will be carried out in the invitations and programs.

At this time the new officers and cabinet will be installed in an impressive but simple ceremony. All those wishing to attend church after the breakfast will go en masse.

Is Seventh Annual Concert Presented by College Group

MISS WILLIAMS DIRECTS GROUP IN ANNUAL RECITAL

Bel Canto Club will present its seventh annual concert this evening at 8:15 o'clock, under the direction of Alma Lowry Williams, who is also the founder of the organization. Elda Frederickson is the accompanist, and the club will be assisted by Doris Kinne, violinist, and Stephen Merrill, tenor.

This concert is honoring the bicentennial of George Washington, "Father of His Country," and Franz Joseph Haydn, "Father of the Symphony."

The program will consist of compositions of the old masters, modern classical composers and folk songs of the English, Russian, Swedish, and Irish.

One of the features of the concert will be Haydn's Toy Symphony.

Iota Delta Phi Has Formal Initiation

Iota Delta Phi, French honor society, held its formal initiation Friday, May 20, at the Hotel Sainte Claire. Mrs. Andre Ferrier of San Francisco, was the guest of honor and speaker of the evening. Those initiated were Jules Bouret, Leona Spitzer, Lucille MacKeown, Jean Hoekabout, and Mrs. Anna Kriesfeld.

The initiation was in the form of a candle light ceremony, after which dinner was served. The entire group then motored to the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Newby, where an informal social evening was spent.

Election Dope

Player, associate editor of the Times, treasurer of the Sophomore class, and member of La Torre staff.

So far there is only one candidate for the office of music representative: Fred Steen, member of the Spartan Band.

Harry Jennings, remembered for last year's close competition with Ronald Linn, is sole candidate for forensics manager.

No name has yet been put up for Health Cottage representative.

There will be no meeting of 11 o'clock classes this Wednesday; as an assembly will be held for nominations to be presented to the student body.

State Golfers Petition for Golf Team Foundation

ORGANIZERS ASK FOR AID
FROM ATHLETIC BOARD IN WORK

In an effort to promote golf activities at San Jose State, a group of fellows under the leadership of Mr. Walker, organized themselves in order to get up a petition to form the foundation for a golf team. They met recently and formed a petition which reads as follows:

A number of young men, students of the San Jose State College, are desirous of organizing a golf team, to be sponsored by the Board of Athletic Control.

The purpose of such an organization would be to promote social and athletic relations with other schools and to give members of the team competitive experience.

The expenses incurred by the team are to be met by the players themselves. Mr. Walker has stated his willingness to supervise the team's activities.

We feel that such a team will be representative of our Physical Education department and of the school as a whole. We therefore respectfully petition for permission to continue plans for a San Jose State Golf Team.

Winston Chappell,
Acting Manager.

Al Lopes,
Anthony Maffey,
James Lyons,
Delos Wolfe,
Charles Tonkin,
Stewart Thompson
Webster Robertson,
Morris Nussenbaum.

This promises to be another step towards widening the athletic activities of State. As other colleges have their golf teams and clubs and enter into competition of this kind. Of course, State is just starting on this sport, but with such recognized stars as Winston Chappell and Delos Wolfe among the members, the team should meet with considerable success.

Delos Wolfe Wins First In Golf Tournament

Delos Wolfe won the qualifying round for the golf tournaments at a thirty-six hole match with Winston Chappell coming in second, Anthony Maffey third, Clair Chappell fourth, and Wesley Klemm fifth.

Matches with San Mateo Junior College, Menlo Junior College, Sacramento Junior College, and Hillview Golf Club are being negotiated, which will be played this spring.

Intercollegiate Track and Field Meet Held at Berkeley

Pacific Coast track enthusiasts were treated to another brilliant meet Saturday, when the California Intercollegiate track and field championships were held at Edwards Field in Berkeley. This time some 10,000 fans attended the events, and went home after the show satisfied that they had received their money's worth.

As expected, the Trojans experienced no difficulty in winning with a total of 851-6 points, and Stanford followed with 425-6. Third place went to California, who gathered 272-3, and U. C. L. A. took the remaining 91-3 points.

After much speculation as to whether he would run or not, Frank Wykoff did just what every one deep down in his heart thought Frank would do—he competed against Kiesel in the 100-yard dash, and lost. Wykoff deserves a hand, for apparently he is not in the best of shape, as he acted against both Coach Cromwell's and U. S. C.'s medical supervisor's advice. And he was the first to congratulate Kiesel after the race.

Ben Eastman again thrilled the crowd in the 440-yard run and in the relay. Hopelessly behind in the latter, Eastman made up 18 of the 22 yards lead the Trojans held in the last 440 yards of the mile relay. What would a team of Eastman's do to the relay mark?

This year's crop of stars held no respect for meet records, and proceeded to crack six and equal one.

Halstead, Trojan miler, began the day's assaults by lowering the mile time to 4:19.9.

Three pole vaulters—Poole of California, Graber of U. S. C., and Miller of Stanford—climbed to new heights when they cleared 13 feet, 10 inches, to a triple tie for first honors.

Ben Eastman's 46.5 seconds for the 440 yards smashed his own meet record of 47.4 seconds.

In the 120-yard high hurdles, Bills of U. S. C., clipped one-tenth of a second from the old

A. L. Shafer Will Address Annual Red Cross Meeting Fri.

SPEAKS ON LIFE SAVING,
FIRST AID AND SOCIAL WELFARE

The annual meeting of the San Jose Chapter of the American Red Cross will be held at the Hotel Sainte Claire next Friday, May 27. The principal speaker will be Mr. A. L. Shafer, Pacific Director of the American Red Cross, who will speak on various phases of life-saving, first aid, and social welfare work.

Miss Plum and Mr. Walker of the State's physical education faculty will also address the meeting. Miss Plum will speak on her methods of teaching first-aid in college, and Mr. Walker's topic will cover phases of life-saving instruction he presents to State men.

Dinner at $1.00 a plate, will be served at 6:30 o'clock for all who desire. However, the business meeting does not begin until approximately 7:45 o'clock, and thus obligates no one to attend the dinner.

All Senior Red Cross members, whether they have already passed the tests, or are preparing to pass them, along with any one at all interested in Red Cross or community welfare work, are urged to be present. For further particulars see Miss Plum or Mr. Walker.

time, and set up a new mark of 14.9.
Kiesel, in a brilliant 100-yard run, equaled the meet record of Wykoff when he ran the dash in 9.5 seconds, only one-tenth of a second slower than Wykoff's 9.4 seconds, recommended for the world's record.

A new high jump mark was set when McNaughton of U. S. C. leaped to 6 feet, 4 1/2 inches, to better the old record by one inch.

Gray of Stanford actually bettered Rother's heave of 51 feet, 5 inches in the shotput with a throw of 51 feet, 9 1/2 inches, but competition had ended; so Gray's best mark in competition, 51 feet, 2 1/2 inches stands as the winning performance of the day.

So the mighty Trojan warriors returned home again victorious, carrying with them the trophies of another well-earned victory. Did the crowd care? Evidently not. To them the events of the day were: Kiesel vs. Wykoff, and Eastman's running. Those events satisfied the north; the south won the meet, and all's well that ends that way.

Swimming Squad To Hold Revenge Meet at Menlo College

COACH WALKER OPTIMISTIC
OVER PROSPECTS OF SUCCESS

A wrathful band of Spartans tomorrow at 1 o'clock will invade the peninsula school in an effort to cancel defeat they received last week at the hands of the strong Menlo swimming squad.

Coach Walker is enthusiastic over the showing of his men in practice, and comments that they have bettered the winning time of the last meet. Strong especially has shown improvement, and he is expected to feature the 100-yard breast stroke from Bixbee of Menlo.

Dave Lynn should prove faster than ever in the medley, as it is but cut to 75 yards. Dave was in the best of condition last week but he is expected to be with leaders tomorrow.

State's strongest point tomorrow will probably be the 100-yard freestyle of Platt, Lynn, Scofield, Ran Bonnickson, and Higuchi. The one-meter board may cause some divers a little difficulty, Laughlin or Olson may represent Linn.

The meet, as a whole, should prove more exciting, as the experienced men who swam their first intercollegiate meet last week can now be classed as veterans.

2—Print Shop vs. Minors
Championship games will be played on Thursday, June 9.
