Spartans Upset Pacific's Apple Cart

By the Staff

SAN JOSE, CALIF., FRIDAY, OCTOBER 7, 1932.

The California Golden Bears in their first appearance as the West Coast Conference champs, played Saturday, October 7th, against the Pacific Tigers of Stockton. The Pacific Tigers were at the field in San Jose, California, in the Pacific Athletic League and West Coast Conference, and were facing the San Jose State College Spartans. The Pacific Tigers had won 13 games and lost 3, while the San Jose State College Spartans had won 5 games and lost 8.

The game was played in front of a large crowd, and the Spartans came out with a score of 17-0. The Pacific Tigers had a chance to score in the second quarter, but their punt was intercepted by a Spartan player. The Spartans were led by Coach Jack DeGroot, who had been a star quarterback for the Spartans in the 1920s. The game was played at the Spartan Stadium, which had a capacity of 35,000.

The Pacific Tigers had been favored to win the game, but the Spartans were able to hold them scoreless. The Spartans' defense was led by Captain Watson and Jennings, tackles. The backfield was led by Captain Watson and Jennings, tackles, with Wicker and White, guards. The Pacific Tigers were led by Coach Harry Krytzer, who had been a star player for the Tigers in the 1920s.

The Answser to that Old Question

Never before in the history of San Jose State College have two football teams so readily turned over to win any game as they did last Friday night at Stockton, and the result of that game tells the story.

Coach Dudley DeGrace in his mouth of San Jose State has established themselves as a fighting, brawling, rough and tumble bunch of Spartans from a hundred of recruits and has made the people of San Jose convince that their hundred of students, go out to win the Fair Western Conference.

Next week this same team will go out to defeat Sacramento J. C. at Spartan Field, and this victory, which can be locked up merely through your support, will mean much toward elevating the San Jose State College from a mere college of the west to a formidable football team.

The Answer to that Old Question

I am sorry I must begin today’s column by passing on the news of two language books that have been making the rounds of the world. It seems strange to think of anything that has been published in the world, and one must be prepared for even stranger ideas, such as the idea that one of the books on the list of the world’s most impressive books is a book on the history of the world’s most impressive book.

And so it is, this book, the Book of Scandina-
