SAINTE CLARE WILL BE SCENE OF SENIOR NIGHT

Great Delight at the Little Theater in St. Claire on Friday, June 16

Most of the senior night affairs of the season will be staged in the Little Theatre in the San Jose Senior High School on the evening of Friday, June 16. The students will be encouraged to attend the all-school function, which will be sponsored by the entire student body.

Pella Boys

All graduates must wear special finery attendances they be the Kenton City Hall and at the 11:30 a.m. on Skaurday, June 17, 1933. The order of the ceremonies will be as follows:

1. Invocation. Rev. S. Hunter
2. President T. W. MacQuarrie and Dean Charles B. Goddard
3. Morris W. Williams
4. Neil Thomas, controller
5. Nicholas C. Breeden
6. Junior Class (to announce winner of Masonic March"
7. Student body president
8. Senior Class (to announce winner of the competition"

For the Senior Night will be held at the Supper Room and Pella Boys on the evening of Friday, June 16.

SAINTE CLAIRE WILL BE SCENE OF SENIOR NIGHT

Great Delight at the Little Theater in St. Claire on Friday, June 16

Most of the senior night affairs of the season will be staged in the Little Theatre in the San Jose Senior High School on the evening of Friday, June 16. The students will be encouraged to attend the all-school function, which will be sponsored by the entire student body.

Pella Boys

All graduates must wear special finery attendances they be the Kenton City Hall and at the 11:30 a.m. on Skaurday, June 17, 1933. The order of the ceremonies will be as follows:

1. Invocation. Rev. S. Hunter
2. President T. W. MacQuarrie and Dean Charles B. Goddard
3. Morris W. Williams
4. Neil Thomas, controller
5. Nicholas C. Breeden
6. Junior Class (to announce winner of Masonic March"
7. Student body president
8. Senior Class (to announce winner of the competition"

For the Senior Night will be held at the Supper Room and Pella Boys on the evening of Friday, June 16.
Verse Speaking Choir To Be Featured In Recital Tonight

Legler's Orchestra Will Play at Dance on Saturday Night

As a prelude to the grand finale of Senior Week and the Student Body dance of the year, the Legler's Orchestra will play at the dance sponsored by the Little Theatre and began at 9 o'clock on Saturday night. Miss Elizabeth Jewks headed the music for the evening, and the choice of the orchestra.--

Otterbein To be Featured at Musical Half-hour

Music Hall Hotel will give a most pleasant and complete musical program. Mrs. Irr. (Mrs. H. D. H. Borden) will attend the evening and her concert will be featuring in this way. The orchestra which is under the leadership of Miss Borden, will consist of forty musicians.

In celebration of this event, the orchestra will present a selection of music from operas and other musical forms, including the latest and most popular songs of the day. The program will be conducted by Mrs. Borden, and will feature solos, duets, and choruses as well as the orchestra itself. The audience is invited to enjoy this wonderful display of musical talent.

Social and Sorority Section

Mary L. Anway Announces Graduation Exercises

Rehearsal for graduation services on Saturday, June 13th. The services will be held in the Little Theatre at 2:30 p.m. Mary L. Anway will preside, and the order of service will include the presentation of diplomas to the graduating seniors, the giving of addresses by various members of the faculty, and the singing of songs by the Glee Club and the collegiate quartette.

Mary L. Anway will deliver the address of welcome, and the Reverend Dr. Carl Holliday will give the address of remembrance. The choir will present a selection of songs under the direction of Mrs. H. D. H. Borden.

The ceremony will conclude with the presentation of diplomas to the seniors by the President of the College. The graduates will then proceed to the auditorium for a reception in the Great Hall.

Siais Thorp, the new registrar, will be in charge of the ceremony. The Senior class officers will be present to receive their diplomas, and the alumni association will be represented by a delegation of members.

In addition, the Senior class will present a gift to the College in recognition of its support.

Mary L. Anway Announces Special Banquet

Another party of the week will be a special banquet given Thursday evening, June 16th, at the Hotel De Anza. Miss Melissa Markham will preside and the program will include addresses by various members of the faculty and the alumni association. The banquet will be held in the Grand Ballroom of the Hotel De Anza.

The destination will consist of a three-course dinner and speeches by the President of the College and other members of the faculty. Following the dinner, there will be a social hour and dancing. The program will be concluded with the presentation of gifts to Miss Markham in appreciation of her service to the College.

Mary L. Anway Announces Graduation Banquet

Another party of the week will be a special banquet given Thursday evening, June 16th, at the Hotel De Anza. Miss Melissa Markham will preside and the program will include addresses by various members of the faculty and the alumni association. The banquet will be held in the Grand Ballroom of the Hotel De Anza.

The destination will consist of a three-course dinner and speeches by the President of the College and other members of the faculty. Following the dinner, there will be a social hour and dancing. The program will be concluded with the presentation of gifts to Miss Markham in appreciation of her service to the College.

Social and Sorority Section

Mary L. Anway Announces Graduation Exercises

Rehearsal for graduation services on Saturday, June 13th. The services will be held in the Little Theatre at 2:30 p.m. Mary L. Anway will preside, and the order of service will include the presentation of diplomas to the graduating seniors, the giving of addresses by various members of the faculty, and the singing of songs by the Glee Club and the collegiate quartette.

Mary L. Anway will deliver the address of welcome, and the Reverend Dr. Carl Holliday will give the address of remembrance. The choir will present a selection of songs under the direction of Mrs. H. D. H. Borden.

The ceremony will conclude with the presentation of diplomas to the seniors by the President of the College. The graduates will then proceed to the auditorium for a reception in the Great Hall.

In addition, the Senior class will present a gift to the College in recognition of its support.

Mary L. Anway Announces Special Banquet

Another party of the week will be a special banquet given Thursday evening, June 16th, at the Hotel De Anza. Miss Melissa Markham will preside and the program will include addresses by various members of the faculty and the alumni association. The banquet will be held in the Grand Ballroom of the Hotel De Anza.

The destination will consist of a three-course dinner and speeches by the President of the College and other members of the faculty. Following the dinner, there will be a social hour and dancing. The program will be concluded with the presentation of gifts to Miss Markham in appreciation of her service to the College.

Mary L. Anway Announces Graduation Banquet

Another party of the week will be a special banquet given Thursday evening, June 16th, at the Hotel De Anza. Miss Melissa Markham will preside and the program will include addresses by various members of the faculty and the alumni association. The banquet will be held in the Grand Ballroom of the Hotel De Anza.

The destination will consist of a three-course dinner and speeches by the President of the College and other members of the faculty. Following the dinner, there will be a social hour and dancing. The program will be concluded with the presentation of gifts to Miss Markham in appreciation of her service to the College.

Social and Sorority Section

Mary L. Anway Announces Graduation Exercises

Rehearsal for graduation services on Saturday, June 13th. The services will be held in the Little Theatre at 2:30 p.m. Mary L. Anway will preside, and the order of service will include the presentation of diplomas to the graduating seniors, the giving of addresses by various members of the faculty, and the singing of songs by the Glee Club and the collegiate quartette.

Mary L. Anway will deliver the address of welcome, and the Reverend Dr. Carl Holliday will give the address of remembrance. The choir will present a selection of songs under the direction of Mrs. H. D. H. Borden.

The ceremony will conclude with the presentation of diplomas to the seniors by the President of the College. The graduates will then proceed to the auditorium for a reception in the Great Hall.

In addition, the Senior class will present a gift to the College in recognition of its support.

Mary L. Anway Announces Special Banquet

Another party of the week will be a special banquet given Thursday evening, June 16th, at the Hotel De Anza. Miss Melissa Markham will preside and the program will include addresses by various members of the faculty and the alumni association. The banquet will be held in the Grand Ballroom of the Hotel De Anza.

The destination will consist of a three-course dinner and speeches by the President of the College and other members of the faculty. Following the dinner, there will be a social hour and dancing. The program will be concluded with the presentation of gifts to Miss Markham in appreciation of her service to the College.

Mary L. Anway Announces Graduation Banquet

Another party of the week will be a special banquet given Thursday evening, June 16th, at the Hotel De Anza. Miss Melissa Markham will preside and the program will include addresses by various members of the faculty and the alumni association. The banquet will be held in the Grand Ballroom of the Hotel De Anza.

The destination will consist of a three-course dinner and speeches by the President of the College and other members of the faculty. Following the dinner, there will be a social hour and dancing. The program will be concluded with the presentation of gifts to Miss Markham in appreciation of her service to the College.
Spartan Sports

Student To Be Featured at Services

Barry Keppler will be the center of attention at the College Y. M. C. A. chapel service this afternoon when he will speak on the theme, "The Human Spirit in Crisis." "Spencer, the Spenserian Poet," will also be featured in the service.

Photography Classes Will Pay Visit to S. J. Campus

Barberia Adds Informality to San Jose State's Annual Affair

Grads of Class of '33, '35, and '36 Will Be Honored at Annual Affair

Senior Intramural Teams Gain Points in Battle for Title

Amick, De Praga, Mathewson win with small margin, placing in second place. This was the second time that the two teams have played against each other, and this time the Intramural Board placed them in the same bracket.

The second quarter was the deciding factor in the match, as the intramural board decided to give the two teams extra points in the first and second quarters. The third quarter was played for time, and the fourth quarter was played for time.

The final score of the match was 13-12 in favor of the Intramural Board.

Full Length Grid Game To Climax First Spring Practice; Hostilities Will Start At Four O’Clock On San Carlos Gridiron

Watson, Kellogg, Maggiori Show Great Promise in Spring Workouts

This afternoon at four o’clock, De Praga and Hubbard will put their football teams through their paces in the first game of the season. Each team is expected to play a full and exciting game, with the result depending on the efforts of both. However, it is expected that the green team will be the stronger of the two.

Wattey, Maggiori, Kellogg to Show Promise

The green team is expected to show great promise in the game. It is expected that the team will be able to put up a good fight against the blue team.

It is expected that the game will be a close one, with the final result depending on the efforts of both teams. It is expected that the game will be a good one for those who enjoy watching football games.