ARMY AND NAVY TAKE OVER CAMPUS WEDNESDAY IN ALL-OUT SPARTAN WAR CHEST INVASION

It's All Hands On College Deck For Tokyo, Berlin Competition

It will be all hands on the Spartan deck Wednesday when Navy and Army selectees of San Jose State college compete for an all-out victory in the college's own War Chest invasion.

Preliminary maneuvers will take place during the assembly at 10 o'clock in Morris Dailey auditorium, with Chaplain E. Richard Barnes, Lieutenant (s.g.) of the U. S. Navy as main speaker. Commander-in-Chief Ken Coleman will explain commando tactics, to commence after the ASB assembly and continue thereafter for 10 minutes at the end of each class period.

Departments in the college have been divided equally into the Army and Navy branch of the Spartan service, and will compete on these departmental fronts to reach their respective destinations of $1300 each. In this competition, State Navy men are headed for the invasion of Tokyo to obtain their quota, while the Army will attempt to invade Berlin before the success of their allied enemies in blue.

Students are urged to choose their branch of the service and to stick to it, in order to get to the capital of their enemy first. Progress of the respective sides will be posted in the Spartan Daily Thursday under direction of Wilma Sabelman, head of the Office of War Fund Information.

Under General Marjorie Howell of the Army and Admiral Jo Harrison of the Navy, the student body will combine efforts for its $2600 share of the second national war fund budget of $250,000,000. This will be accomplished by the successful coordination of the officers and enlisted men participating in the invasion.

Divided into corps, the Army will operate under the colonels of the respective departments in the college. The Navy, formed into divisions, will have at its head capable students in the various departments who are appointed to act as captains.

Under these officers of both Army and Navy are the lieutenants, who will act as solicitors, explaining the War Chest, giving out contribution slips, and urging students.

Mixer Points Given Frosh, Sophs For Red Cross Work

Close competition in the Red Cross room will be afforded freshmen and sophomores in the approaching lower division mixer contest.

Since the object of the mixer lies in scoring the highest number of points in a series of Frosh-Soph contests, Student Chairman Roberta Ramsay has announced that points can be gained by girls of both classes who work in the Red Cross room.

Records will be kept of the hours of sewing done by the co-eds beginning today. The winning total will be judged according to the percentage of women in each class.

Issuing a warning to the women, Miss Ramsay stated that "You'd better get there early, or your competing class will have the Red Cross room filled up, and will earn all the points." When the limit of people that the room will hold has been reached the door will be locked.

LA TORRE SPACE MUST BE RESERVED BY ORGANIZATIONS

All organizations desiring page space in the 1944 yearbook are requested to make reservations within the next two weeks with La Torre Business Manager Jean Petrino.

Miss Petrino will be at her desk in the Publications office from 11 to 12 o'clock Monday, Wednesday and Friday, and from 9 to 10 o'clock Tuesday and Thursday.

Prices of pages are as follows: 30 or more members, double-page spread, $25; 15-29 members, single-page spread, $15; 14 or less members, half-page, $7.50; group photographs, page, $7.50.

"All space must be reserved immediately," states Miss Petrino, "in order that we may know just how much money we will have available for producing this year's book."

Spartans May Make Appointments For La Torre Photographs In Publications Office From 9 To 3 Starting Today

In a concentrated effort to put out the 1944 yearbook early in spring quarter, the La Torre staff will begin taking appointments for photographs today in the Publications office.

Photographs are being done by Bushnell's Studio, 34 North First street, from 9:45 to 4:30 o'clock daily. Appointments will be made 15 minutes apart. Those made today will be for sittings on Tuesday.

Students are requested to know exactly how many pictures they will have in the yearbook so that all may be taken in the same sitting to eliminate the necessity of making additional appointments.

Duplicate cards will be filled out by each student, one of which must be presented at the studio before a picture will be taken, and one which will be on file in the La Torre office.

SORORITY SIGN-UP

Appointment cards will be given to sororities so that members may sign up for pictures at their Wednesday meetings. A special day will be allotted to each sorority when all its members may have their sittings, which will be convenient both for the members and the studio. Anyone who cannot have her picture taken on that particular day may make an individual appointment later.

White blouses will be the mode of dress for sorority members, while all other women's organizations will wear the traditional dark jacket or coat and white blouse with a collar.

Men's organizations will be dressed in dark suits or coats and

AWA Sets Date For Annual Jinx Party, November 10

Featuring informality to the point of questionable taste in dress and mysterious "jinx" food, the annual AWA Jinx party will be held Wednesday evening, November 10.

At a meeting of the Associated Women's Activities group held last week, further plans for the women student body members' affair were formulated.

A plea for more Student Union hostesses was also made by President Bobbie Jones, who stated that hostesses are still needed to fill vacancies in the schedule. One hour a week is spent in the lounge by each hostess. Freshmen and new students are especially invited to use this as a means of service to the college.

ORGANIZATIONS WARNED TO FILL OUT FORMS IN CO-OP BOXES TODAY

Student Body President Jane Graham urges all campus organizations to look in their co-op boxes immediately, and to pick up the forms there.

These forms are to be filled out according to instructions given, with the names and student body card numbers of all members of the organization.

When completed, the forms should be returned to the boxes before 5 o'clock today, states President Graham.

If these instructions are not carried out, the organizations will be subject to fines or some other penalty, to be decided by the Student Court.

President Graham warns the students that it is not only social sororities that are affected by this ruling, but all campus organizations, social, scholastic, and otherwise.

Purpose of these forms is to show members of the Student Council how many students in organizations own student body cards.

Engineers Compete With Ghosts, Goblins At 'Spook Stomp'

With witches, ghosts, goblins and all of the weird characters romping around the Men's gym, the "Spook Stomp" will be held in celebration of Halloween, October 30.

Besides the haunting characters of Halloween as decorations there will be black and orange crepe paper masks, pumpkins and even maybe your favorite skeleton, to carry out the theme of the dance. In charge of the decorations will be Jackie Harper.

The entertainment for the dance is being planned by Carmendale Fernandes with the idea of having something to make "shivvers run up your spine, or give you those ghostly nightmares."

Three hundred engineers from the University of Santa Clara have been invited to attend the dance, by the social affairs chairman, Beverly Greer. All men students are requested to bring their own dates, and women students may bring their own escorts if they wish, although it will be a stag affair for those who choose to entertain the engineers.

RALLY COMMITTEE

Rally committee meeting 12:30 in the Student Union today. Members will be chosen from this meeting. —Chairman Margie Gullick.

Only Three Days Left To Purchase That ASB Card

Three days only remain in which students may purchase their student body card and obtain immediate and complete health privileges.

Beginning Wednesday, students will be requested to have a physical check-up at the Health office before they will be eligible to purchase an ASB card. Health facilities will be available to them two weeks from date of purchase.

Under the health program which the student will be entitled to are included: 30-day hospitalization for accident or illness; services of a graduate nurse and college physician; emergency care during the weekends when the Health office is closed; and X-ray tests and special immunizations whenever offered.

Social, recreational, library, and political privileges are also offered to the student who has an ASB card.

Limited students who are not interested in the health protection provisions of ASB membership may secure cards giving all other privileges for only $6. Cards may be purchased in the Business office.

Proportionate refunds will be available for any student who withdraws before the end of the year.

-- Corn From The Campus Crib --

By Mr. C.

The reception accorded this "column" last Monday was not at all flattering, judging by the hundreds of written commentaries which the writers forgot to mail. However, there was one—evidently from a fellow bard—who lamented: "No Prof. would care to claim he taught such dubs as you and I, our rhymes." Well, now! What do you know!

Ain't it the truth!
But it's only the half-of-it!
Bear with me youth,
While I cacklingly laff-a-bit!
Life has small ruth
For the chap it can't chaff-a-bit!
Profs, too, forsooth,
Must abide by the gaff-of-it!
That's cow's uncouth,
That'd deny—the POOR caff-of-it!

Poetry's near dead!
They are sounding the knell-of-it,
Who use not head,
AND HEART, when they tell-of-it!
Souls must have bled,
Who'd teach others the spell-of-it:
Profs are well fed,
(And I env-onaly yell-of-it)—
Their blood's NOT shed,
And it's THAT IS THE HELL-OF-IT!!!

Voice of Experience:

A young fellow's nuts, who let's cigaret butts,
Make him pant with his mouth agape;
It's a crime to expend, in advance of the end
The wind he will need at the tape.
It's brutish and sinful, to flood his young skin full
Of liquor that passes him out:
It's foolish to borrow the strength of tomorrow,
To win today's gin-guzzling bout!

Anomaly:

In St. Clare's Vale the Canneries run
And do their stuff. . .
Likewise some cannerymen think it fun
To do it rough. . .
But when they put good fruit in "pie,"
They get "put on the pan."
And what a strange anomaly—
The cannerymen "GET THE CAN."...

Challenge:

Render this in "Basic English":

"It is of no avail to expect Solution of All to come to us with an intellectual photograph of vitality. We admit the 'without which not' simple, deep, virile, strong sense of generativeness. We throw ourselves into the arms of indisputableness. WITH BEAUTIFULLY WELCOME SUFFOCATION OF ALL ELSE IN THE CONSCIOUSNESS WE DROP INTO THE VORTEX OF GENERATION." (Maybe Mrs. Eagan can play it on her oboe.)

Miss Edna Pearce Tells College Women Of Opportunities In Social Service

Miss Edna Pearce of the YWCA spoke Wednesday afternoon to San Jose State college women interested in social service work. She said that there is an opportunity for service in the day nursery, with Mexican groups, junior high school groups and high school activities. In the nursery, the staff is overcrowded, especially in the afternoon, when elementary schools let out. Helpers with club groups such as Campfire or Girl Scouts are needed to work with the Mexicans. Junior high school groups need leaders for after school activities. Plans for a high school hang-out are being considered and when completed will be needed there. A number of the girls signed up to help with the projects and any others who wish to do so may sign up in the SCA office in the Student Union.

JUST AMONG OURSELVES

By DR. T. W. MacQUARRIE
President San Jose State College

Governor Warren—he's a human being all right, deeply concerned for our welfare and happiness. From the nursery schools in war areas to pensions for the old folks, he takes a personal, intelligent interest in all of the activities of our great state. He attended the conference on youth delinquency last week and made a cracking good speech. He knew what he was talking about. Nobody wrote that speech for him. It came straight out of a full and understanding heart.

The governor has a habit of going around the state buildings all alone, walking into this office and that, taking an informal part in this and that conference. One of the Sacramento papers had a note: "That man you see going into the various offices in the Capitol, the one who looks like Governor Warren, is Governor Warren."

And now he's interested in the Community and War Chest. We had a letter from him last week expressing the hope that all state employees would help. I doubt if we have ever had a letter from Sacramento that was so inspiring.

If I had no other reason for backing the Chest than Governor Warren's interest in it, I'd consider that sufficient. He has a big family himself, six children, and he knows families. He was district attorney in Alameda county for many years and he knows people. He's worked with all of them, from street waifs to racketeers. I'd back his judgment against a wide field.

Really that's about the only way we have of determining the worth of a cause. Who are the people behind it? If they are good people in whom we have confidence, we may well accept their judgment for most of us have no way of getting at the facts.

I was quite embarrassed this morning when I read in the Daily about the wonderful campaign you have organized. I am afraid I was speaking a little out of turn when I suggested that one per cent for the students as well as the faculty. It looks to me as if you might get more. I hope you will forget what I said. I don't want to hamper you.

Oh, yes, and one thing more. Many of you come from communities where there is no Chest, and you and your people don't have a chance to contribute. Put it in here. Tell the folks that they can put theirs in also. You can be sure the money will be well spent, will take care of babies and war prisoners the world over.

DONDA HANLEY CHOSEN PRESIDENT OF COLLEGE CSTA

Donda Hanley was elected president of the SJS unit of the California Student Teachers' association replacing Elma Pierini, past president, at a meeting held last week.

Other officers elected were Barbara Leam as vice-president, and Lucille Rose as secretary-treasurer.

A report on the bay section meeting of the California Teachers' association held in San Francisco was given by Miss Pierini. Dr. H. A. Sotzin of the Industrial Arts department also discussed the necessity of organization in the teaching profession at the meeting.

Campus Personalities

By KEN COLEMAN

One of the best known—best liked "figures" on Washington Square is today's campus personality—Sebastian Frank "Scrappy" Squatrito!

"Scrappy's" beginning goes back to August 31, 1920, in Lawrence, Mass., where he was born into a family of six. Three times in his early childhood, little Sebastian cheated fate.

When four and one-half years old he fell three stories to the ground (he beat Wilma by one "story"). Many claim he hasn't recovered yet!

The next time, he was seven years old. He had an emergency operation for appendicitis. And if the "little dickens" didn't get up to get a drink of water soon after he came out of the ether. Well, it took a month to recover from that collapse.

"Scrappy" was about ten when he fooled fate again. This time his brother had to drag him out of the ocean. He had drunk so much water it was coming out of his ears!

In 1930, the Squatrito family moved to San Jose. Here Sebastian attended Washington Grammar school, Woodrow Wilson Junior High school, and San Jose High school before coming to State in 1939.

"Scrappy" has had several interests which have carried with him all through his schooling. One of these "loves" has been dramatics. In grammar school, "Scrap" was in every play from the fourth grade on—in high school, he was president of Drama Craft and a member of Mask and Scroll, honorary dramatic society. Here at State, "Scrappy" has appeared in many special shows as well as in Rev-elries.

Journalism, too, caught "Scrappy's" fancy early. He wrote for all his school's papers. At San Jose High he was sports editor of the Herald. On the Spartan Daily he has risen from scribe to sports editor . . . to feature editor—and this year to associate editor. His "famous" column, "Scraps," has gained him "fame and fortune"—especially with the females!

Soon after coming to State, "Scrappy" took up his colorful career as manager of State's football and basketball teams. As manager for each sport for three years, "Scrappy" received a life-time pass (Continued on page 4)

Dean Paul Pitman Elected President Of New College Religious Group

Members of San Jose's newly organized College Religious conference, established to extend and develop programs of religious work for college students, elected officers last week, according to Robert James, executive secretary of the entire conference.

Dean of Men Paul Pitman now fills the position of president, with Mrs. Bruce Bacon serving as vice-president. A second student assistant will be elected at the next group meeting to be held November 18.

Mrs. J. A. Burger is the new secretary, while H. Ziegler Bare assumes the duties of treasurer. Three of the four members to be elected from the members at large, to complete the executive committee are: Eugene Newberry, Rev. Rector Johnson and student Marjorie Hauerken.

The executive committee will appoint several committees at the next meeting, among which will be the finance, membership, fellowship and constitution committees, James declared.

James, also the executive secretary of the Student Christian association at the college, came to San Jose State this fall from the University of New Hampshire, where he was director of Christian work. The SCA is an agency of the Community and War Chest fund.

The College Religious conference consists of eight denominations: the Church of God, Baptist, Christian, Congregational, Episcopal, Lutheran, Methodist, and Presbyterian churches. In addition, the SCA, YWCA, YMCA, and the State college are represented.

To alleviate the problem of coordinating efforts of the various church groups and SCA, concerned residents of San Jose this summer decided to form the College Religious conference. Its constitution was adopted in September, forming one of the pioneering efforts of the country in this respect, particularly since the conference centers around the college campus.

This experiment is being watched by national church representatives and other national leaders in student religious fields, the executive secretary stated.

"It is our hope that, through this effort, significant cooperation can be worked out," James added, "and if this can be done well at San Jose it will undoubtedly be the pattern for many similar undertakings throughout the country."

Dr. Frank D. Slutz To Lead Training Conference Here

Dr. Frank D. Slutz, author, educator and publicist, of Dayton, Ohio, will lead a leadership training conference tonight, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings.

The sessions will be held in the Little Theatre at 7:30. A fee of 50 cents will be charged for the series. The purpose of the conference is three-fold:

1. To provide inspiration, guidance, and assistance for the present leaders of youth in San Jose.
2. To enlist the cooperation of all other adults who have a special interest or responsibility in connection with the youth of San Jose.
3. To train new leaders for the service of youth in San Jose.

Dr. Slutz is nationally known in youth leadership, and has had experience as a public school administrator, and directs his own summer camp for boys.

The conference is sponsored by the group work section of the Council of Social Agencies, including the San Jose State college, Student Christian association, and Red Cross.

Numerous other community organizations are also sponsoring it. Anyone interested in leading groups and knowing more about the work, may register at the school or at the conference itself.

Alumni Planning Membership Drive

At the monthly meeting of the Alumni executive board last Thursday it was voted to send the second follow-up notice to the some 9000 alumni who are not now active members of the association, in an effort to increase the membership this year, stated Miss Doris K. Robinson of the Placement office.

"To date there are some 11,000 alumni and the association has 1236 paid members at present."

The practice of the association in the past is to send one follow-up notice to the whole alumni group early in the autumn quarter and another notice in May for the "home-coming" issue, but in an effort to increase the membership this year, a second notice will be sent early.

There has been an increase in association membership for several years, 910 members in 1936 and 1400 in 1943, Miss Robinson advised.

Council Discusses Library Schedule At Meeting Today

Changing of the present library schedule will be under discussion at the Student Council meeting today at 4 o'clock in the Student Union.

Council members Elsa Anderson and Wilma Sabelman were appointed at the last meeting to investigate possibilities of changing the nights on which the library remains open, since it was felt that Wednesday is undesirable for many students because of conflicting sorority meetings.

Attending the meeting today will be Jane Reed Graham, president; Jeanette Owen, vice-president; Mary Lou Montgomery, secretary; Elsa Anderson, Wilma Sabelman, Ken Coleman, "Scrappy" Squatrito, Ruth Lindstrom, Sylvia Ronning, and Betty Regan.

Dr. Henry Meade Bland, the late poet who served as poet laureate for the State of California, was a member of the college faculty in its early years.

SPARTANS IN THE SERVICE

By ED WAITE

Flying all the way from the east coast, newly commissioned Ensign Leon Fletcher, class of '43, arrived at San Jose State college on October 20, first of 21 Spartans to return from Columbia university's naval unit.

Ensign Leon Fletcher majored in speech and radio here at the college. He is a veteran of many Little Theatre productions.

The other Spartans, who were graduated with the commission of ensign are John Breslin, Richard Brewer, William Bristol, William Collins, Charles Cook, Donald De Voss, David Farley, John Howe, Frederick Joyce, Robert Justis, John Kain, Owen Keena, Donald Larson, Bruce Leper, Jack Long, Elden Mahoney, George Olsen, Joe Talbot, Ray Vidler and Stanley Smith.

In the graduating class of naval trainees at the University of Redlands this week are four Spartans, James Martin, Bill Kenney, Jake Kelly and Jack Gottchang.

Apprentice Seaman James Martin left the university at the close of his junior year to join the Coast Guard, where he was stationed along the Northern California coast for several months following his boot training. A History major while attending San Jose State college, he has been studying math in preparation for deck officer rating in the U. S. Navy.

Both Kenney and Kelly, having finished their chemistry major requirements, are awaiting further assignments in their pre-officers' training course. Jack Gottchang, active in student affairs while in college here at San Jose State college, is completing his Biological Science major and expects to be called with the others for further training.

All four trainees are eligible for midshipmen's school on the basis of their scholastic rating and although their future orders are uncertain it is expected that they will leave for midshipmen's school shortly before the last of this month.

In a letter to Dr. Robert Rhodes of the Science department, Barbara "Babs" Granite, only Spartan in the SPARs, wrote:

"First let me get the important news off. On Saturday, September 4, there was a special SPAR broadcast. It was the regular Coast Guard show that you get at 8 o'clock (NBC), but this time it will be all about us. Cadet Adams and I wrote a song for the SPARs and it was presented at that time. She wrote the music, I the words. Many songs have been written for the SPARs but ours fits in with Semper Paratus like counterpart.

"We have sung it before every brass hat in the place and officials from NBC.

"It is quite a thrill to have the experts approve of our brain child. They have not changed one note or word.

"The song was written in an hour, here and there, in between classes, mess and drill.

"Never have I studied so hard. Navigation, personnel, law, ships, communications, history, etc. In between times we wash clothes, shine shoes, and occasionally write a letter."

"Babs" Granite graduated from State college in '42, taught school for a year, before entering the service. While at San Jose State she was active in drama, majoring in G.E.

Home Ec Class Dehydrates Fruit

Miss Helen Mignon, professor of Home Economics, announced last week that her dehydrating laboratory has been commissioned to dehydrate bananas for the dietary department of the county hospital. The bananas are expected to arrive today.

Bananas are one of the most important foods to be used in the celiac cases of children. Due to the import situation they cannot depend upon fresh bananas so it is hoped that the dehydrated product will tide the cases over their difficulties.

to all Spartan games. During these three years, "Scrap" has flown, sailed, railed, and bussed with the teams to places north, south, east, and west.

The one trip he'll never forget is the one he made with the football team to Hawaii in 1941. "Scrap" was team manager, publicity man and trainer. On the way over, "Scrap" fed the team sea-sick pills (one night there were only five at dinner). The boys arrived in Hawaii December 3 and on December 7 the Japs struck Pearl Harbor, only a few miles from their hotel. The things that "Scrap" did and saw on police duty the next few weeks would fill a book. Enough to say—it was plenty exciting.

This fall, "Scrap" is on the Student Council—and also working as manager of the Varsity theatre in Palo Alto. Getting into the theatre business almost by accident (as doorman of the Mission), "Scrap" has about decided to make it his life work.

But whatever he does, "Scrap" will long be remembered at San Jose State for his friendly disposition and his cheery "hello."

Do without, so HE doesn't have to. Buy stamps and bonds.

books can do a great deal to eliminate prejudice and create a positive interest, stated Miss Maude Coleman, librarian.

Some of the books chosen for the display are "Blood, Sweat and Tears," by Winston Churchill; "Where Stands a Winged Sentry," a narrative from Margaret Kennedy's diary; and "This Is England Today," a short objective study by Allen Nevins.

Included in the exhibit also is "Combined Operations—the Official Story of the Commandos," by Hilary St. George Aunders, the anonymous reader for the British government, which is a report of the achievements of soldiers, sailors and airmen organized into special forces known as "Commandos."

There are two books by David Low, the British cartoonist whose pencil for 20 years has made pictorial commentaries, projected with irresistible power and irony—"On the War," and "A Cartoon of History." Also Priestly's "Blackout in Gretley," a study of the undercurrent of British fascism.

Not all the books chosen for display are about soldiers and war, for there are children's books, "Peter Rabbit"; "The Three Bears"; "Alice in Wonderland"; "Wind in the Willows"; "Mary Poppins" and Phyllis Bottom's "London Pride," an application of the name of the little flower that springs up perennially in the cracks of the London pavement, to a simple moving evocation of slum children in the peril of the blitz.

The display will remain in the showcases for the week, Miss Coleman advised.

Spartan Daily Sports

ON THE SPORTS FRONT

By WALTER GEDRYN

Playing the first of three games this week, the Spartan water polo squad tangles with the Sequoia High school Cherokees in the local pool at 4 o'clock this afternoon.

Tomorrow, the next-door high school Bulldogs, tutored by Spartan Sam Della Maggiore, will offer the opposition at 4 o'clock, followed by a game with the San Francisco Olympic club at 8 o'clock Wednesday night.

Although the caliber of the local sextet is not up to that of the past years, it is favored to down the high schools; however, the Winged-O is another story.

Expected to pace Coach-Player Ed Loudon's men is a freshmen enrollee from Sequoia, Tudor Bogart. He has been the main scoring threat developed in practice and with a little help from his teammates might be able to down the favored San Franciscans on Wednesday.

Regulars on the team with Loudon and Tudor are Frank Goulette, Bill Byers, Jack Reiserer, Wayne Fontes, and Malcolm Sinclair.
