COACH DE GROOT CONFIDENT THAT SAN JOSE HAS FIGHTING CHANCE

A snarling, snapping Bulldog comes to town today in an effort to knock Coach Dud DeGroot's Spartans off the peak to which they have risen by virtue of wins over Pacific and Sacramento. Today's battle is a "croocial" struggle for both teams concerned. If San Jose comes out on top, they will have surmounted one of the greatest obstacles in their path to Western Conference championship. On the other hand, if Fresno wins they will be very much back in the conference race whereas, if they lose, they will be quite definitely out of it.

Smarting from their 3-0 defeat at the hands of the Cal Aggies two weeks ago, Coach Stan Borleske's charges are out for blood today. ## for Pacific Debates

Upon the instigation of Mr. Eckert, a symposium has been arranged with the College of Pacific to be held November 7th, the night before election.

The discussion will have as its theme the plafforms and candidates comprising the main issues in the imminent election.

The symposium is a more liberal and modern form of the debate, introduced into San Jose State by Mr. Eckert, who recently assumed the duties as debate coach in this school, which is undoubtedly destined to replace the verbal old viciously combat which rarely contributed to any thing but ill will. In addition to this effective trend, Mr. Eckert has also contrived to interest the sex who have been rather noted for their argumentative ability, but have rarely exhibited it pub-

Dr. MacQuarrie stated to the

"Instructions have been given to the architect to complete specifications for the earth embankment and to get costs, and to secure bids.

"I think this a most favorable time for building as prices are low. We have enough funds to finance the earth embankment.

Injuries May Slow Up Spartan Attack in Today's Contest

SNARLING, SNAPPING DOG PACK WILL ATTEMPT TO WIN

A powerful mass of charging beef averaging 200 pounds from tackle to tackle flanked by a pair of last ends, followed by a backfield considered as being one of the best in the Far Western Conference, will test the strength of Dud DeGroot's Spartan gridiron aspirants this afternoon on Spartan field at 3:00 o'clock.

On paper, Fresno looks like a world-beater, but the question is whether or not they can live up to their reputation when put to the acid test. They have a last all-conference man and boast several more for this year's team. I have my doubts as to how these men will show up this afternoon. They are given an even break with San Jose, and what a game this is going to be.

Captain Walt Glenn and Coach Borleske have fired the Bulldog team to a point of great fighting spirit. They realize their ship is practically sunk if they don't take the Spartans into camp, and this they certainly intend to do.

They will probably have the advantage in the kicking as they have Mathiesen, who is considered as being one of the best punters on the Pacific Coast, and in addition to this he is a great ball packer and blocker. Captain Glenn, although the lightest man on the squad, is a crafty field general and a dangerous left-handed

Smiling Jack Horner, fullback, is the powerhouse type of a crashing back and is touted as quite a threat to any team. The fourth man to bolster the Bulldog backfield will be Jiggs Payne. He is a new man in the raisin institution, and though injured early in the season is now ready to show the fans why he has been named the fastest man on the

Winslow Wickstrom and Frank Schleibaum are both fast, heavy ends, whose specialty is dumping the opponent's safety man. They have a great chance to do this as the punts are high and they have time to get under the ball about the time it comes down. They are also dependable pass receivers and are being talked up as allconference ends, and what they do in this game will have a lot to with the outcome

The nucleus of the line is made o of Niswander, center, and Feichtmeir and Shimmen, guards. Feichtmeir, all-conference guard last year, and is in line to retain the distinction again. At tackle we find Kaufman and Lewis, Both are veterans and spend a great deal of their time in the opponents backfield, but they are liable to have their minds changed this afternoon if I know anything about the system which DeGroot is planning to use.

No matter who wins, this is going to be a great game, one which you can't afford to miss. It will have a definite bearing on the outcome of the Far Western con-

George Embury, the best field general on the squad and who ranks second only to Wool as a ball-packer and punter, sustained a leg injury in scrimmage Wednesday night which will be likely to keep him on the sidelines for the major part of the contest. RAISIN CITY BOYS BOAST OF HEAVIEST LINE IN CONFERENCE

Coach Sam Borleske and his contingent of 39 Fresno Staters, including two assistant coaches and manager, arrived in town yes terday at noon.

After lunch at their hotel, the squad, a very husky looking bunch, took a short rest and then donned their moleskins and went through a long heavy workout at Phelan field.

With three men out of the game with injuries Borleske refuses to comment on the outcome of the game. Les Steinhauer, one of the best pass receiving ends on the squad, wasn't able to make the trip, while Bob Parr, flashy half-back, will not see action. Borleske feels that his Bulldog

Coach Blesh Hopes to Defeat Fresno for Fourth Victory

FRESHMEN SHOW POWERFUL ATTACK IN WORK-OUTS WITH VARSITY

With the ambition of making it four in a row, Erwin Blesh's football proteges will tackle the Fresno State College Frosh Saturday evening in what promises to be a hectic affair. The Fresno team have a record closely rivaling that of the local Babes, and are pushovers for no one. Although defeated by both the Stanford and Santa Clara Frosh they have won from all other opposition. It must be remembered that the Cardinals have the strongest freshman team on the coast, while Santa Clara always puts out a formidable aggregation. Coached by Leo Harris, former tackle on the Stanford teams of '25 and '26, the Bulldog Pups have a bunch of former all-

The local Frosh will be playing their second night game of the season, and unless conditions are slightly different than those en countered at Baxter stadium, the Babes will be somewhat at a loss under the glow of the arcs.
