COUNCIL ANNOUNCES NEW APPOINTMENTS FOR STUDENT EXECUTIVE POSTS

Lorraine Glos, senior journalism major, and Anna Mae Diffin, senior, were appointed editors of Spartan Daily and La Torre by the Student Council at the regular meeting yesterday afternoon.

Business manager for the Spartan Daily next quarter will be Rae Klasson. Jeane Petrinovich was appointed to that position on the staff of La Torre. Next year's representative for the Health Cottage will be filled by Roberta Ramsay, junior physical education major.

RALLY COMMITTEE

The chairmanship of the Rally committee will be held by Shirley Forbes. Patty Moore was appointed as her assistant.

Lee Ross was appointed as the junior justice on the Student Court and Ken McGill as assistant yell leader.

OFFICERS

Officers who will conduct the meetings this year are Howard Riddle, president; Marge Howell, vice president; Barbara Bressani, treasurer; and Pat Cavanagh, secretary.

Council meetings are held every Monday at 4 o'clock. All students are invited to attend the meetings in the Student Union.

Beta Gamma Chi Works To Alleviate Labor Shortage

Aiding in the labor shortage at the Barron-Gray Canning company this week are the members of Beta Gamma Chi.

With 100 per cent sign-up of members, the organization will give up two nights this week to work on the victory shift.

Wednesday evening members will go in a group to the cannery instead of holding their regular weekly meeting. The other evening for the victory shift will be determined at the members' convenience.

Hawaiian Students Meet To Organize

Former residents of the Hawaiian Islands now students at State are invited to meet at the Green Lantern Chinese restaurant on Santa Clara street Tuesday evening at 5:30. Sixteen signatures on the Kamailana sign-up indicate good possibilities for the formation of a Hawaiian club.

CONTRIBUTION BOX

If it's a place to deposit notices, publicity stories, or Thrust and Parries you're looking for, the Spartan Daily has it.

The Daily contributions box, located inside the door of the Publications office, is utilized for this purpose. All incoming information for specific editions must be turned in before the deadline—one p. m. of the day before the edition is issued.

Dwight Bentel Earns Feature By-Lines In Editors' Magazine

A by-line in every issue. That seems to be the record of Dwight Bentel, head of the Journalism department who has been on leave in New York the past two years and who recently joined the staff of Editor and Publisher.

Writing features for the weekly publication of the editing and advertising professions, Mr. Bentel has authored such recent articles as "So You Just Sit and Look at Ernie Pyle," an interview with the famed war correspondent, in the September 23 issue; "No More Kisses for War Correspondents," telling how "Michael Kicked the Nazis from Romania," September 16 issue; "Pegler Parts Company with Scripps-Howard," telling the story of Westbrook Pegler's break with that concern and his affiliation with King Features Syndicate, August 26 issue; and "Newsmen Riding High with the Liberation Army," describing the adventures of war correspondents in Normandy, August 12 issue.

Mr. Bentel has been working on his doctor's degree at Columbia University, and this year will finish his dissertation while serving on Editor and Publisher's editorial staff. His wife, Edna, and son, David, are in New York with him.

"IN STRICTEST MEASURE," VERSES BY FORMER SPARTAN, IS PUBLISHED

"In Strictest Measure," a book of verses by the late Albert E. Johansson, 1934 graduate and winner of numerous Phelan contest awards, has just been published by Bruce Humphries of Boston.

An attractive blue-bound book, "In Strictest Measure" includes 50 sonnets by the young poet, whose wife, Rosemary, is a resident of Redwood City. The volume is dedicated to her.

Johansson was born in America of Scandinavian parents, and had inherited his father's love of the sea. He was already a seasoned voyager upon entering San Jose State college, and soon distinguished himself as the winner of nearly all the poetry awards in the annual Phelan contest.

At the beginning of this year

WHISPERING SPARTANS

Laryngitis will soon be the characteristic feature of San Jose State college students, if some big-hearted individual who loves to do good deeds and is not adverse to picking up a little cash on the side does not snap up the post of official in charge of running the school public address system.

Any students who feel the spirit move them toward the execution of this noble work can give their all for dear old Sparta by applying in the Business office or by contacting Pat Rhodes. The PA system is essential to all school functions, including dances, rallies, and assemblies; so come on, Spartans, to the rescue!

PLAY TRYOUTS FOR "OUR TOWN" OPEN TO STUDENTS

Past dramatic experience is an advantage but is not necessary for the student who wishes to try out this Thursday for the coming San Jose Players' production of "Our Town," according to Speech Department Head Hugh Gillis.

"Our Town" tells the simple story of a boy and girl who grow up together in the same small town. They go to school together, fall in love and marry. The story of their life and of their many friends and acquaintances gives "Our Town" a wealth of characters of all types. There are many small parts, as well as the leads, which Mr. Gillis feels will give any beginning actor an excellent opportunity for experience.

San Jose Players especially wish to invite all students interested in dramatics or play production to come to the tryouts.

Johansson went to sea again on a Norwegian merchant ship; on his way home from Panama he became ill with pneumonia and died. Much of the work of assembling his sonnets into the newly published volume was done by Mrs. Johansson, who also attended San Jose State. She is employed at Stanford's Hoover library.

In reviewing "Sappho's Isle," a lyric by Johansson, Westward Magazine described him as a genius. The lyric was printed in that magazine the year it won top honors in the Phelan contest.

A complimentary copy of "In Strictest Measure" was sent to the Spartan Daily from the publisher. The volume has been turned over to the college library, where interested persons may see it.

CLASSES WILL MEET AT 12:30 P. M. WITH COUNCIL MEMBERS

Nomination assemblies for the purpose of selecting candidates for class officers will be held at 12:30 p. m. today.

Special instructions have been released, advising the students concerning the location and chairmen of their meetings. Freshman students, who were organized into groups by a system of colored cards on registration day, will meet according to that classification. The white-card unit will convene in room S112, with faculty advisers Ralph Smith and Miss Florence Flanagan, and council member Pat Cavanagh present.

FRESHMEN

"Oranges" will meet in room 124 with Mr. Mel Wright, Mrs. Dolores Spurgeon, and Marge Howell; "tans" in room 116 with Dr. Harold Miller, Mrs. Sarah Wilson or Miss Norma Gillespie, and Nancy Duncan; and the "blues" in room 139 with Mrs. Charlotte Rideout, Dr. James Wood, and Hugh Johnston.

The "reds" will go to room S110 to meet with Mr. Thomas Eagan and Miss Alice Hansen and Howard Riddle, while the "buffs" have been assigned to room 24, with Miss Viola Palmer, Dr. Harry Jensen, and Pat Dunlevy, representing the faculty and council.

OTHER CLASSES

Sophomores have been assigned to room 117, with Barbara Bressani in charge; the juniors will meet in the Morris Dailey auditorium under the co-chairmanship of Betty Doyle and Bruce Duke; and the seniors in the Little Theater with Jeane Petrinovich.

All classes except the frosh will elect their officers on Wednesday; and the preferential voting will be handled by the Student Court, with LaVerne DeSmet in charge. The freshman election date will be announced later.

Vets May Obtain Information On G. I. Bill Of Rights Now

Returning war veterans who have been in the service 90 days or more and who wish information regarding the G. I. Bill of Rights may see either Registrar Joe West or Dean J. C. DeVoss.

Education is one feature of the G. I. bill; a service man or woman who has been in the service for 90 days, exclusive of time in army or navy college training programs, is entitled to college training at government expense. The maximum amount of training is one year, plus the actual time spent in active service.

OFFICERS ELECTED AT VETS' MEETING; SMOKER PLANNED

At a recent meeting of the Veterans of World War II, the service organization elected new officers, selecting Dwight Mathieson as president.

Bob Eldridge will take over the vice president's post, while Harold Hyman will serve as secretary of the group. Shung Fong was elected treasurer and Earl Motta, sergeant-at-arms.

Angelo Bova was appointed chairman in charge of a smoker being planned to welcome the new veterans into the organization. The affair will be held in the Student Union tomorrow night.

RALLY WILL END XMAS SHIP DRIVE

A rally with a surprise ending will be held tomorrow at 12:10 in the Quad by the Ero Sophians, concluding the current Christmas gift campaign.

Phyllis MacDonald will act as emcee for the program, which will be over in time for all freshmen to attend their orientation classes.

Over 230 students have signed up to bring gifts, which must be wrapped and ready for mailing by Thursday noon at the latest. Gifts are to be taken to room 2, across from the Information office, where a member of the Ero's will receive them. The room will be open all day Wednesday and until noon Thursday. Every student who has signed up to bring a gift must do so.

"We have appreciated the almost one hundred per cent aid of the other organizations," stated Betty Doyle, campaign chairman.

Red Cross Quota Set For Initial Sewing Of Fall Quarter

Red Cross captains are prepared for SJS women to begin work on the first Red Cross quota for fall quarter set at 200 pairs of pajamas for military hospitals, under the direction of student co-chairmen June Storni and Joanne O'Brien.

With the Red Cross workroom open daily from 9 until 4 p. m. to all women students, the executive board of the SJS Red Cross workers expects to top last year's record of 10 out of 12 on the Honor Roll, as well as the many hours over the required number spent in the workroom.

Plans for the year were formulated at a meeting of the faculty executive board held Monday noon. Faculty women will sew from 4 until 5 p. m. on Wednesdays, while organizations are to sign from 4 until 5 o'clock during the week.

Further plans will be made when the Red Cross Council meets today.

ASB CARD SALES-UP

Student body card sales have now reached the figure of 1610, and will continue in the Business office for the remainder of the year.

The purchase price is $11, and privileges afforded student body card holders include health service, attendance at all school functions, and the right to hold office, in addition to other benefits.

BAND NEEDS MUSICIANS

Do you play the cornet or trumpet? Mr. Thomas Eagen of the Music department has announced that there is an acute shortage of cornet players for the symphonic band. If you have any ability as a trumpeter or cornetist, opportunity awaits you as a band member, according to Mr. Eagen. One unit of credit will be given.

Cello classes are now open for the first time in several quarters under the skilled tutelage of Betty Barbour Dexter, graduate of Juilliard Institute of Music, and well known concert artist.

Dr. George Matthews, Music department head, states that anyone interested in playing the cello has his golden opportunity now, while classes are still open. Beginning, intermediate and advanced students are all eligible.

FORMER GRID STAR REPORTED KILLED FEB. 24

First Lt. George P. Klinger Jr., a former Spartan football player, has been reported killed in a bombing raid over Gotha, Germany.

At first, Lt. Klinger was declared missing, but the German government, through the International Red Cross, later reported him dead, giving the date of the raid as February 24.

Lt. Klinger was the son of Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Klinger Sr., of San Rafael, Calif., and was engaged to Miss Marian Smith of San Jose, also a former State student.

He attended San Jose State until April, 1942, when he joined the U. S. army air forces.

FIVE YEARS AGO TODAY

BY WARREN BRADY

State boxers Conrad Lacey, Bill Sellers, Charles Kerwin, Don Taylor, and James Kincaid make plans for their forthcoming trip to Japan.

Five years ago today San Jose State college had one of the most active and capable boxing teams on the coast. There were such notables as Jim Kincaid, Pacific Coast Collegiate champion, boxing in the 135-lb. bracket; Conrad Lacey, undefeated Spartan pugilist during the season of 1939, and Chuck Kerwin, another Pacific Coast Collegiate champion representing San Jose State in the 145-lb. division.

These "fighting Spartans" did all right in the Orient, too. More about their bouts will be heard in forthcoming articles. We would like to mention, however, that the sportsmanship displayed by the National Champs of Nippon was typical of the tactics used by our number one enemy in the present world conflict.

HOME EC TEA

All home economics majors and minors are invited to attend a tea given by the department tomorrow from 3:30 to 5:30 p. m. in room H22.
