'OUR TOWN' TRIALS ARE TOMORROW

By MARGARET MOORE

Lack of staging for the San Jose Players production of "Our Town" promises an interesting experience for students who are cast in it as a result of tomorrow's tryouts.

Aided by a few sound effects and some tables and chairs, aspiring actors will have an illusion to create, an atmosphere to develop. There will be no sets at all and only the most necessary properties will be used.

DR. GIBBS

It is a touching scene as Dr. Gibbs, arriving home early in the morning, after presenting a brand new pair of twins to their mother for the first time, pats the milkman's horse. But there isn't any horse.

Little Emily and George, the neighbor boy, lean out of their upstairs windows every evening, doing their homework together. The fact that they're really perched rather precariously on stepladders only adds to the interest.

PANTOMIME

It is easily seen that pantomime is given added importance in such a play as "Our Town." Besides the experience in acting technique gained from a play of this type, (Continued on Page 2)

SJS PROFESSORS TOUR EASTERN COLLEGES AND TECHNICAL SCHOOLS

Dr. P. Victor Peterson, Science department head, and Ralph J. Smith, mathematics instructor, will leave Saturday on a trip east, to return about the seventh of November, after an extended tour of investigation of a number of colleges and technical schools in mid-western and eastern states.

The trip is to be an investigation of the facilities of the departments of engineering and of the schools for bakers and morticians, the object of this study being the development of these departments here at San Jose State after the war. Commons buildings, which correspond to the Student Union, and dormitories will also be of special interest to the two faculty members.

Dr. Peterson says the trip ought to prove valuable, because they will get a lot of ideas which will at least help the new departments to keep out of the pitfalls they might otherwise strike.

Iowa State college at Ames, Iowa, will be the first stop; then they will go on to Chicago, where Smith will visit Illinois Tech, while Dr. Peterson will visit Michigan State Teachers college in Kalamazoo. In Detroit they will visit Wayne university, then either Chrysler, General Motors or Ford to see the technical training programs in operation there. From Detroit Dr. Peterson will go to Buffalo, where he will attend a week's session of the National Council of the YMCA. Smith will go to Rochester to see the Athenaeum and Mechanics Institute, to the General Electric laboratory in Schenectady, to the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, to Stevens Institute and Columbia university in New York City, where he will spend two days.

On the return trip the professors will visit Drakes Mechanical Institute in Philadelphia, Carnegie Institute in Pittsburgh, and the University of Pittsburgh. Smith will also visit the University of Cincinnati, Texas A & M, and the University of Texas. Dr. Peterson will investigate the National Bakers Institute in Chicago, the morticians division of the University of Minnesota in Minneapolis, and Purdue university in Indiana, and before the return home UCLA in Los Angeles will receive a visit.

Voting Will Take Place Tomorrow; Frosh Re-Nominate

Elections for class officers have been postponed until tomorrow, when the list of candidates have been checked by Student Council members for their eligibility.

The election will be for senior, junior, and sophomore officers; the freshman re-nominations will be held Tuesday, October 17.

Nomination assemblies were held yesterday. Senior nominees are Sylvia Ronning and Marilyn Wilson to compete for the post of president; Rae Klasson and Barbara Keaton for vice president; and Barbara Lee Rico and Bea Ballard for the position of secretary-treasurer.

Junior class candidates include

Mary Hooten, Jewell Haddock, June Storni, and Olga Popovich for president; Deanne Gardner, Phyllis Forward, Marge Hopper, and Milo Badger for vice-president; and Betty Regan, Betty Goode, Eleanor Budiseltch, Beverlee Greer, and Joan Ross for secretary.

The sophomores selected Jerry Evans and June Robertson to vie for the president's chair, while Pat Keating, George Milias, and Floyd Hobbs will run for vice-president. Secretarial nominees for the sophomores are Dadie McNeil, Joanne O'Brien, Virginia Miller, and Betty Kline; and Edith Anne Gates, Betty Davis, Kathy Landis, and Bobbie Jo Field for treasurer.

Freshman nominations will have to be re-held because the majority of the students selected yesterday were ineligible to hold office because of scholastic standing. The policy of the school has long required that all school officials be on clear standing, so freshman students should check on their status between now and Tuesday, the day of their re-nomination assembly.

First Social Affairs Meet Is Successful

A turnout of eighty students attended the first meeting of the Social Affairs Committee yesterday afternoon at four o'clock in the Student Union.

Twenty new members will be chosen by Pat Rhodes, the chairman and assistant chairman Pat Keating from a list of student body card holders who are interested in the work. The new members will be announced later.

The duties of the Social Affairs Committee were explained by Miss Rhodes, as that of taking care of all campus activities.

USO COMMITTEE PLANS FORMAL FOR OCTOBER 26

Plans are underway for the formal USO dance to be held October 26 in the Student Union. The USO girls committee met Monday, October 9, with Mrs. Izzetta Pritchard to make plans for this and future Thursday night dances.

The group also held an election for chairman and committee members for the fall quarter. Ruth Palmer was chosen as new chairman, with Millicent Tillman assisting her. Betty Schneegas and Betty Jones were designated as secretary and corresponding secretary.

Gene Stratton was selected as decoration committee chairman; Marialice Foster and Virginia Jackson, refreshments and Coca-Cola; Laura Tower, music; Adela Jean Aceda, checking; Audrey Fisher, entertainment and mixers; Eleanor Frates, publicity.

Home Ec Faculty Adds New Member

Miss Joyce Bolton is replacing Miss Winifred Ruth Reynolds, formerly in charge of Child Development and the Child Training laboratory, who is now teaching at the State College for Women at Denton, Texas.

Miss Bolton is expected to take up her duties this week. She comes from Colorado State college at Fort Collins, Colorado.

DR. POYTRESS ACCEPTS LEAD OF COMMITTEE

Dr. William Poytress, Social Science department head and expert on economic and labor problems, recently accepted the chairmanship of the Santa Clara County Citizens' Committee Against Proposition 12.

In releasing his seven-point program denouncing Proposition 12 to the press, he states, "It is a dastardly trick perpetrated behind the backs of our fighting men overseas, and would change the basic factors in employer-employee relationship."

The proposition, if passed, will place a handicap on the student and returning veterans and their right to work in the future, according to Dr. Poytress.

The Low Down

By JIM BEACOCK

When I took over the job of sports editor for the Spartan Daily it was with the idea that, perhaps, I could help to develop interest in sports along new lines. I know that San Jose State students are real lovers of sports. I also realize that due to the war sports are greatly curbed at our college.

In the past, football has always had the largest following of sports, not only from the college but from all San Joseans as well. It was football that put San Jose State in the national sport's limelight.

True, we've had outstanding teams in other sports activities, but the fact remains that football has given our college national recognition as far as sports are concerned. Many of our ex-football players and some of our ex-coaches have gone far in the football picture after leaving State; some as coaches, others as professional players.

It is impossible for State to have its own team at present. We all realize this. However, there is a professional football team that calls San Jose its home town and uses our college field, Spartan Stadium, for their home games.

When I first heard of this I had the idea that as long as State could not field its own team, perhaps they could adopt this professional team. I contacted Frank Sobrero, who is business manager of the San Jose Mustangs, about getting a special rate for college students with student body cards.

Mr. Sobrero liked the idea, but at the time was busy helping drill the team, so our interview was cut short. I didn't get to see him later as other business took me elsewhere. The plans were dropped for the time being. However, early last week, during a discussion in the Pub office, the original idea was "kicked around" again, only this time it was enlarged. In return for a special study body card rate for State students (we agreed that fifty cents was a good admission price) we planned to give the Mustangs an organized rooting section, and perhaps a marching band.

A letter was sent to Mr. Sobrero stating our desires and also to the effect that we thought such an arrangement would also aid his team financially. Further developments were curtailed pending a reply to our offer. Well, we're still waiting. Perhaps Mr. Sobrero didn't receive the letter or perhaps he didn't agree.

As I understand it, on a fifty-cent admission ticket thirty cents of the original would go out for taxes and other miscellaneous items leaving only a twenty-cent profit on each student body ticket. At present our student body rate is one dollar and twenty cents per person.

Without knowing the true figures, I'd say between seventy-five and ninety cents of this is profit. While it is true that it would take at least four tickets at our proposed rate to equal one ticket at our present rate.

In regard to profit, it is also true that at least ten students would attend the games at the proposed rate for every one that would attend at the present rate.

Not only is this true, but with a rooting section, color would be added to the game and in its wake interest and following interest would come a much larger crowd.

To me it sounds like a good deal for all parties concerned; perhaps I'm prejudiced, I don't know.

Professional football, as almost everything else, is operated for profit. As far as the Mustangs are concerned they cannot make much headway in the terms of financial success playing before the small crowds that turn out.

From all reports the Mustangs have a good team, not a great one, but a crowd pleaser (did I say crowd?). So far they've played two games losing a close one, 14-7, to the heavily favored San Francisco Packers and winning, 14-3, from the Los Angeles Bulldogs. With a good following they could have a very successful season.

At present it looks like our plans will have to be scrapped. We'll let you know if anything should develop.

No, Geronimo, I've never seen the Mustangs play. A buck-twenty is too much for me to bounce out.

"OUR TOWN"

there are many parts which will present an opportunity for what Director William Melton terms "mature characterization." Among these are Mr. and Mrs. Webb, Dr. and Mrs. Gibbs, Mrs. Soames and the stage manager. Really an important person, it is the stage manager who has most to do with giving the illusion of reality and setting the mood of the play.

Books of the play are on reserve in the reserve book room for use of all students who wish to become acquainted with "Our Town."
