FIRST FROSH MIXER OF YEAR TONIGHT FROM 8:30-12:00 IN MEN'S GYM

Freshmen will gather in the Men's gym tonight from 8:30 to 12:00 for the first frosh mixer of the year.

Newly-elected freshman group officers have made plans for a special fun session with dancing and entertainment. ASB President Howard Riddle will serve as master of ceremonies.

Each freshman group will contribute something to the entertainment program presented during the evening. Admission to the dance is by student body card only.

Sponsors for the evening will be Mr. and Mrs. Donald Sevens, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Lanyon, Mrs. Izetta Pritchard, Dean Helen Dimmick, and Dr. and Mrs. Robert Rhodes.

In charge of the dance arrangements are Pat Rhodes, Social Affairs chairman, assisted by Bonnie Gartshore, Bud Hooton, Walter Fletcher and Bud Lozer.

Leaders of the freshman color groups will be introduced during the evening.

Orchësis Elect Officers At Meet

Georgene Raab was elected president of Orchësis at the regular meeting of the women's dance group Tuesday afternoon.

Other officers chosen were Shirley Stuart, vice president; Georgene Bihlman, secretary; Lillian Lombardo, AWA representative; and Betty Bunker, publicity.

Member of Orchësis will dance at the Patron's dinner in the Women's gym November 9. The annual Orchësis program is scheduled for February 1.

The group will hold its next meeting Tuesday afternoon from 4 until 6 o'clock in the Women's gym.

Chaplain Barnes To Speak Oct. 27

Chaplain Richard Barnes will be the guest speaker at the Navy Day assembly to be held in the Morris Dailey auditorium on October 27 at 10 a. m.

Announcements of the War Chest campaign will be made. Chaplain Barnes is well known at State for his previous speeches of other years.

Since future speakers depend on the response of the students, a good attendance is desired by the Navy Day committee.

MARTEL TO SPEAK AT VET MEET

Fred Martel of the Veterans Administration will speak at a meeting of the Spartan Veterans on the effect of the "G. I. Bill of Rights" and the Vocational Rehabilitation Act for discharged servicemen returning to college at a meeting at 7:30 next Tuesday, October 24, in the Student Union.

Martel's participation in this work after the last war brings the benefit of a wealth of experience to bear on each case under discussion, states Dr. William Meyers, adviser to the group.

Martel spoke to the group of veterans on campus during summer quarter, with the result that many of them are now being paid as much as $90 per month, plus books and tuition, as they attend college.

Although there are between 50 and 100 agencies in California, the Veterans Administration is responsible for its execution should lend additional

HALLOWE'EN DRAG SCHEDULED OCT. 28 IS QUARTER'S FIRST

Social Affairs committee started plans for the first all-school dance when they met yesterday in the Student Union at 4 o'clock.

The date of the dance is set for October 28, and will be a stag or date affair. It will be a Halloween dance with the theme "Broomstick Bounce," and the dance slogan is, "Come to the Hag's Drag and drag your bag, or come stag."

Chairman of the dance committee is Pat Rhodes, with Pat Keating as assistant chairman.

Eldabeth Payne and Betty Ubanks will head the decoration committee, while Betty Doyle will head the committee to see about music.

Servicemen may be invited to the dance. There will be mixers to get the new students acquainted.

The dance will be a sports affair, but with plenty of decorations, according to the word of the Social Affairs committee.

Veterans To Receive Guidance For Educational Centers; San Jose State College Chosen As Branch Office

San Jose State college has been chosen as a branch office set up by Vocational, Rehabilitation, and Education division of the Veterans Administration where returning veterans may receive guidance for "Education Centers."

The Veterans Administration in San Francisco intends to set up

"Education Centers" where returning servicemen may go for rehabilitation and educational guidance.

Returning servicemen living in San Mateo, Santa Clara, Santa Cruz, Monterey, and San Benito counties will be sent here after they have been passed at the San Francisco headquarters for the educational courses.

At San Jose State college the ex-servicemen will be tested, interviewed, and counselled as to what course they should follow at the education centers.

The Veterans Administration will start by sending out a vocational adviser, training supervisor, and stenographer-clerk, who will interview each prospective student on his qualifications.

The college will be furnished facilities for testing, counselling, interviewing, and medical advice, so that each veteran may know what course will best suit him.

James Multhead, chief of the Vocational Rehabilitation and Education Division of the Veterans Administration, has made most of the arrangements for the "Education Center."

JUNIOR CLASS HOLDS OFFICER RUN-OFF VOTE

Run-off elections for the positions of vice president and secretary were held at yesterday's junior class meeting. Marge Hopper was elected vice president and Betty Regan, secretary. Ruth Peaslee, a transfer from Sacramento Junior College, was nominated and elected to the position of treasurer.

President Mary Hooton appointed Jackie George and Milo Badger to be co-chairmen of the junior-senior mixer, which will be held sometime in November.

The first council meeting of the quarter is scheduled for next Tuesday, October 24. The following juniors, and others interested, are requested to attend: Carmendale Fernandes, Eleanor McConnell, Pat Cavanagh, Jewie Haddock, Georgene Bihlman, Connie Booher, Jackie George, Winnie Berticevich, June Storni, Vivi Xeroeaneas, Valda Cardoza, Bob Eldridge.

Berlin Unit Collects $51.70 As Campus Drive Enters Fifth Day Of Campaign

Four days of campaigning for the War Chest drive have resulted in a total of $865.25 being raised, leaving $1634.75 yet to be collected after yesterday's sum of $51.70 taken in by the Berlin Brigade was added to the previous day's amount, $811.35.

The on-campus drive will close October 27 with a combined War Chest-Navy Day assembly in the Morris Dailey Auditorium, featuring Chaplain E. Richard Barnes as guest speaker. Chaplain Barnes is from Moffett Field and has appeared before San Jose State college audiences several times in the past.

FUNDS

In describing the work of the War Chest, Chairman Barbara Bressani stated the approximate breakdowns of funds which go to 19 national war-related organizations. The total armed forces receive 57 per cent, of which 49 per cent goes to the USO, 4 per cent goes to United Seamen's Service, and 4 per cent to War Prisoners' Aid.

United Nations and Refugee Relief are awarded 37 per cent, Emergency Fund receives 5 per cent and Administrative and Campaign Expense is allowed 1 per cent. The services of these National War Fund agencies extend over six continents into 91 countries and major geographical areas.

YOUR WAR

"This is your war and you can fight on the home front!" Miss Bressani added, recalling the point that this is a three-front, 19-agency approach. One campaign is efficient, time-saving and economical. "This is a triple gift for a triple need, for our boys, for our allies, for our own at home. Victory starts in the heart, so come on, Spartans, and go over the top in this drive. Make those dollars pile up to that $2500 goal by October 27!" she urged.

RED CROSS CONTEST TO BE HELD

Inter-Society Red Cross contest will begin Monday morning, October 23, and will last until Wednesday afternoon, October 25.

The Red Cross room will be open Monday through Wednesday from 9:00 a. m. until 5:00 p. m. during the contest.

All sorority members are to participate in the contest. Women are to go to the Red Cross room whenever they have time and sew. Time spent in the Red Cross room will go on their sorority record as well as their personal records. The girls must be sure to sign both books in the Red Cross room after each period spent sewing, announces Rae Klason, Inter-Society president.

At the end of each day the points earned by each sorority will be counted and posted.

Wednesday evening at 8:00 o'clock the winners will be announced at a get-together of all sororities in the Student Union. After the announcements are made, each sorority will present its share of the entertainment.

LIFE CAN BE BEAUTIFUL!

The average freshman at San Jose State (pre-war type) entered the school with a dual purpose. One part of it, and in most cases the most important part, was to prepare himself for a career and to widen his scope of knowledge through the medium of classes. The other part of his purpose was to have as much fun as possible through extra-curricular activities, such as sports—either by participating directly in them or by coming out and supporting the teams at every opportunity.

Sports are just as important to the men who are participating in them—are they less important to us whose privilege it is to sit on the sidelines and cheer? Moving picture executives tell us that the public craves "escape" from the speeded up life of today. What better way to "escape" than to yell your lungs out at a water polo, basketball, or baseball game.

Here's another thought—last year State teams got little support from the fans, and lost most of their games. This first game this year has shown what State teams can do with support. It may be coincidence, but it's something to think about.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

San Jose State
San Jose, Calif.

The Spartan Daily
Dear Staff:

The following is a letter written to a group of college women after much discussion about whether or not a Mexican boy should continue dating one of the women. Take it for what it is worth.

Dear Co-eds,

When I heard the message that was to be given to me I could not believe my ears. If at any time I have done anything to hurt or bring shame upon you, I am very sorry. Yes, I am a Mexican by nationality, but a true American. My people were here before your people. They didn't have to cross oceans to this continent.

And to have to explain to your boy friends what a Mexican is doing in your house? They are, for the most, service men, and they wear a uniform. It is too bad that they don't know what they are fighting for, or what the uni-

JUST AMONG OURSELVES

By Dr. T. W. MACQUARRIE
President, San Jose State College

Will all of you who have the money but who are not planning to give generously to the Chest, please read this. I know it's an imposition, but you weren't at the meeting Tuesday and I don't know how to reach you otherwise.

Noblesse oblige, and don't let that scare you. It simply means that college students must take the lead in all community efforts. If you don't put a good, generous contribution into this Community and War Chest, my goodness, how can you expect anyone else to give? It's got to be done, hasn't it? There is a great need for such a service. Well, come on.

If the State of California is willing to spend $500 on you this year, you should be willing to rustle up a measly five (one per cent) for such a grand, nationwide effort. Now don't start talking about taxes. I'll bet you've never paid a cent of taxes for the support of this college. It's the other people who have made your education possible.

But let's not quarrel. I've been in this Chest business for eighteen years now and I've seen it from the outside and from the inside. I was president of the thing once, or manager, or something like that. Anyway, I saw its internal workings, and I'm here to tell you it's all right—honest, efficient, worthy. You'll get more for that ten of yours by putting it into the Chest than you would in any other way.

But I want to stress this college stuff. College students must take the lead in quality. If they don't the State has wasted its money, and society is in danger. College people must be leaders in all sorts of worthy enterprises, particularly community affairs. They must give their time and effort for the common good. If a college education means anything, it means just that.

It's a learning process, too, this giving. That's the reason I am so interested. People must be taught to give. It's not a natural trait. One doesn't inherit it, especially if he is my nationality.

Some of the best givers I know are people who have been giving all their lives. The churches, charity, children, Chest, relief, Red Cross, playgrounds, and a lot of things. I know people in San Jose who give away a tenth of their total income every year, and most of them give more. I don't give a tenth, my Scotch parents couldn't go quite that far. But I do find myself giving more and more—as I grow in grace.

So come on, folks. College is the place where you learn to give. Come on with that twenty, it will do you good. You'll have a warm feeling around your heart that will pep you up all year.

NOTICE

The executive officers of the Inter-Society council will meet in Miss Dimmick's office at 12:30 today. Please bring all sorority information.

THRUST AND PARRY

To whom it may concern:

Or should I bluntly say—

To Mr. Brady:

Dear Sir:

In order to get an A. B. degree, one usually plans to spend just four years at college. Such is the case of most of the Spartans on our campus.

Now, the question is: "Of what importance or interest is news of five years ago to students who are now here?" Even the seniors now have just been around since 1941!

I look back upon my freshman year in 1941-42 with much pleasure. There were football games, dances and much school spirit even that year, and I believe news that took place in the not-too-distant past.

Why resurrect ancient history? It means nothing to the majority of Spartans now on campus.

Reminisce about something closer to us, and I'm your faithful follower forever.

"Five Years Ago Today" was started at the beginning of the quarter as one of my assignments. At that time sports were practically non-existent. When soccer, basketball, and water polo come into full swing, more attention will be given them.

The interest and enjoyment of the fellows overseas is one of the main purposes of the column. As you probably know the "Daily" was sent to over 500 former students last year and the circulation will probably be even greater this year. Undoubtedly they enjoy seeing their names, and their friends' names in print. Reminiscing does them a lot of good and helps boost their low, "forgotten feeling." Let's give them a little consideration!

From what we've heard from fellows around campus they like reading the column, as long as the sports now being played at State are not neglected. That is not being done as you can see by yesterday's paper.

As long as enough people enjoy the column and the sports editor and editor-in-chief see fit to have it run, I will continue to fulfill my assignment.

P. S: Are you sure it "means nothing" to students here at State now that in 1939 San Jose State had an undefeated season, winning twelve consecutive games, and scoring more points than any other college or university in the nation?"

SPARTANS IN THE SERVICE

By ED MARION

ON CAMPUS

Pvt. A. E. Shepperd, former Gamma Phi, is here on a two-week furlough while awaiting reassignment to Parris Island Marine base.

Former DSG's Pvt. Richard Calvella and Cpl. Bob Col were also here this week. Cpl. Col is stationed at Tonopah, Nevada, where "nothing ever happens," and Pvt. Calvella is on furlough from Ft. Warren, Cheyenne, Wyoming, where he is on duty with the Army Service Forces.

Electrician's mate 3/c Richard Knox, former Stater, is in town on a 30-day leave, awaiting reassignment to Camp Parks. Dick was a DSG at State, and found time to become vice president of his class and a member of the greatest track team ever assembled on these grounds, all in the same year—'42. Whataman!

"Dear Daily Editor, Dolores, et al: After waiting all summer for the return of the Spartan Daily to the 'mail-ways' I find I have let two weeks go by since the opening of school without submitting my name and address for addition to the mailing list.

"Gross neglect on my part and I am quite disgusted for I have anticipated receiving the Daily again for so long. I hope it shall not be many more weeks before the mail clerk tosses me a copy or two. Please notify me at once if there is a charge this year. It would be worth any price to get an issue of the old sheet once in a while. (There isn't. — Ed.)

"The cyclonic days of Johnny Howe, Pat Loomis, Charlie Cooke, Wally Trabling, Tommy Marshall, Bill Mitchell, Gerry Reynolds, Bob Nerell and company have long since blown past the Daily office and have no doubt left in their wake another crew just as "screwballish" and just as capable.

"At any rate I wonder who has stepped into Bee Laurence's shoes, (That's what he wrote, so help me!), if there is anyone at all to take 'Scrappy's' place, and whether another 'Marshall' has come along or not. It is still the same Daily, I'm sure.

"My extended stay at Stanford ended abruptly last July and I have since been located back here on the east coast at a Signal Corps camp. I might say that the 10-1 ration of women to males here in Washington is no myth; in fact, it is the sweetest truth. (One more interruption — the ratio's about the same at Washington Square. — Ed.)

"I have run across several former Spartans in my travels back here and perhaps you might be interested. Met Ed Kincald and Milt Brietzke in a theater here last July. Took a ride down the Potomac with them and came across two other former Staters at Mt. Vernon—Ellsworth Finlay and his wife, the former Betty Jones. And then several weeks ago I came face to face with Floyd Rezewalle in Washington.

"After a 6-month stretch on the Daily as reporters during 1942-43, we went into the Army together with the ERC detachment from State—the famed '95'. I hadn't seen him since he left the Monterey Presidio for Camp Warren, Wyoming, and I for Fresno, Calif. He has probably already written for his Daily so you know that he is located at Camp Ritchie, Maryland.

"A familiar face in WAC uniform appeared here at this camp about a month ago and a little reconnaissance proved it to be that of Lois Bohnett—class of '44. A pleasant meeting.

"Seeing all these former Staters has meant a great deal and I'm looking forward to reading about others in the Daily.

"It's back to work so will close with my best wishes to all for a successful year with the paper—with or without Mr. Broyles."

OMA STRAIN JOINS CITY ICE BOWL SAN JOSE FACULTY OPENS WINTER SEASON TONIGHT

San Jose State welcomes to its faculty Mrs. Oma Strain, who is replacing Miss Estella Holsholt in the Art department.

Mrs. Strain studied painting under Grant Wood and sculpture under Alexander Archipenko. While visiting in Europe, she gave particular attention to cathedrals and oil painting. Her travels have taken her to England, Scotland, and France. In 1938, just before the war broke out, she left Europe.

Art history, water color, flower arrangement, demonstrating drawing and elementary art education are the courses that she will instruct.

Mrs. Strain graduated from the State University of Iowa.

San Jose State college students are showing considerable interest in tonight's opening of the 1944-45 skating season at the San Jose Ice Bowl on Alum Rock avenue. Indications are that Sparta will be well-represented on the glassy surface of the Pacific coast's largest ice rink, not only on opening night but every evening as the season progresses.

Manager Bill Mounts has announced that the operators of the Ice Bowl have purchased five hundred pairs of skates for rental purposes and these will be available for those who do not have their own. In the past, one of the principal shortcomings of the Ice Bowl has been the lack of good rental skates. Ladies' figure skates are included among the new supply.

The Ice Bowl evening sessions will run from 8:15 to 10:45 with afternoon matinees on Wednesday and Friday from 3:45 to 5:45 and Saturday and Sunday matinees from 2:15 to 4:45.

Theta Mu Sigma Begins Fall Quarter With Seven Pledges

Theta Mu Sigma has started its fall quarter pledging with those being congratulated as new pledges including Bill Leffland, Art Bond, Bob Gustafson, Ken Black, Norm Healey, Harold "Happy" Hyman, and Cecil Domballan.

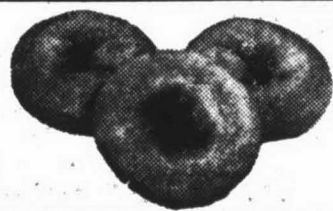

Pledging officially started last Friday at a smoker given in the Student Union. A discussion of past activities of the fraternity was led by Prexy Phil Clark. Clark pointed out that Theta Mu, although a comparatively new organization, was quite active last year, using as an example the contest among organizations in which Theta Mu was awarded a trophy for the organization showing the most school spirit at basketball games.

In referring to sports, said Clark, "Theta Mu was well represented in the starting line-ups of water polo, basketball, and baseball; also the fraternity entered a team in the intra-mural softball league and went through the schedule undefeated, winning the championship."

As for social activities, it was pointed out by Vice President Bob Gallison, Theta Mu Sigma was active in Spardi Gras last year. Gallison stated that the candidate sponsored by the organization was elected Queen and a Theta Mu was chosen to reign as King. The discussion was followed by the planning of this year's activities.

Entertainment for the smoker was furnished by Ken Black, John Coray, Norm Healey, and Jerry Evans.

Members and guests present were: Phil Clark, John Coray, Rex Maddy, Bob Gallison, Jerry Evans, Howard Riddle, Bob Mitchell and Milt Lanyon.

IN SOCIETY

By PHIL GINN

Miss Beverly Bloom announced her engagement to First Lieut. Walter W. Moreland at a Zeta Chi business meeting Wednesday, by passing the traditional box of candy.

Miss Bloom is a senior home economics major. Her home is in Lyndon, Washington.

Lt. Moreland is a navigator in the Army Air Forces and is presently stationed in England. He attended the University of Missouri. His home is in Smithville, Missouri.

Alpha Chi Epsilon

Alpha Chi Epsilon will hold its first social activity in the Student Union on Monday evening, October 23, from 7:30 to 10:00.

The occasion will be a reception for all new kindergarten-primary majors. Committee members for the occasion are Marie Guresa, general chairman; Mildred McConnachie, invitations; Eldora Warren, refreshments. There will be entertainment.

Alpha Chi Epsilon is a newly-organized club. Officers are Dortha Drago, president; Mildred McConnachie, vice president; Eba Rae Benfou, secretary; Doris Elsner, treasurer; Shirley Everett, historian-reporter.

SAPPHO

Members of Sappho society enjoyed many activities together this summer when plans were also discussed for their fall program.

Summer activities began with a barbecue at the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Marchisio, Sappho adviser. In July, Sappho members attended a theater party. The summer social activities were brought to a close with an Italian dinner at the home of Miss Bernice Tompkins, Sappho adviser, in the foothills.

Members also worked in the local defense plants and attended State college summer session.

The following officers will lead Sappho activities on campus for the coming year: Barbara Bresnani, president; Marge Kluge, vice president; Jean Palmer, recording secretary; Anne Carruthers, reporter; Phillis Edwards, Inter-Society; Virginia Miller, AWA; and Marsha Blase, archivist.

Two members of Sappho society were married during the summer. Dolores Fischer, honorary member and Social Science department secretary, exchanged vows with Master Sgt. Berton Laney at Long Beach, and Denise Bradley became Mrs. Thomas Doyle.

CHANGES IN 'OUR TOWN' CASTING

Changes and adjustments were in order for member of the cast of "Our Town" in this, their first week of rehearsal for the first dramatic production to be produced at State in two years.

Shifts in the cast were announced yesterday by Director William Melton. Duane Heath and John Caulderwood exchanged the parts of Mr. Webb and Dr. Gibbs. Another change occurred when Bill Strobel took over the part of choirmaster Simon Stimson.

"Already the cast is overcoming some of the problems of 'Our Town,'" Melton claims. "The excessive amount of pantomime is still giving some trouble — did you ever think of the complications of trying to string beans that aren't there. We'll rehearse with a few beans for a while until it becomes more natural."

Pegasus meeting tonight, Friday, October 20, at the home of Mrs. Edith Schlosser on Hollywood avenue at 7:30.

form stands for, but if they will think for a moment they will know. Germany and Japan are learning a bitter lesson for which our sons, brothers, and sweethearts are giving their lives. They are fighting the Germans and Japanese because they think they are a superior race. The American people must learn this lesson too. All my life I have associated with people of all nationalities, and I have found that they are not better than I, or that I am better than they.

I have never met the situation before where I was told I could not associate socially with people of your race. It was a great shock, believe me it was. To put the blame on society is a great shame.

You should profit by your education by becoming more discriminate as to what is right or wrong, and to have the courage to stand up for what you believe. Women students, if I had to buy my way into society, and if this is what you call society, I wouldn't want to do it. I'm a Mexican by nationality, but as I said, a true American. As a great Frenchman said when his country was overrun by Germany, and I quote, "I'd rather die standing up than and brothers are. And I pray to live on my knees."

Sometime ago I signed up for the Navy, and now I'm waiting to be called. I'm only seventeen, born July 11, 1927, and still have many months to remain at home if I choose. But you see, I thought I had something worth fighting for. Yes, I'm to give my life for you, for my friends, my sisters, and brothers. I can fight for you. I can give my life for my country. I love life as much as you do, and I have just as much right to live as you do. I don't want to give my life up in vain, so that when the fellows return they'll find the prejudices, hatreds, and misunderstandings still existing among our American peoples. And when I'm on the battlefield and I meet a German or Japanese I'd like to proudly say, "This is worth fighting for." A great deal depends upon you and people who think the way you do.

Girls, I want you to think for a moment why I'm giving my life up for you, just as your friends God that you will understand.

Please do not hold any contempt for me, but I'm proud to be a Mexican, and I do not wish girls or anybody to take that pride away from me.

Phi Kap Founders Day

Phi Kappa Pi will hold their annual Founder's Day tea in the Student Union on December 3, with special entertainment planned for the occasion.

Members are now in the process of making scrapbooks filled with cartoons, stories, and jokes for the servicemen in hospitals.

A rummage sale is also planned by the sorority for November 16, 17, and 18 on South 2nd street.
