Student Body Dance Saturday Night In Gym To Have Hallowe'en Theme

Initial social event of the quarter will be the big ASB Hallowe'en Dance scheduled for Saturday evening in the Men's gym from 8-12 p.m.

The Social Affairs committee, in charge of dance plans, announces that the dance will be a sport affair, and students may come stag or date.

According to the committee, decorations for the dance will be something really special. In the center of the floor will be a cemetery with appropriate inscriptions on the tombstones. The walls will be lined with bats, witches, skeletons and other Hallowe'en symbols.

In order to enter the dance floor, those who attend will have to crawl through a spider's web that is being spun over the inner door of the gym. At the outer door a surprise entrance will be set up, seen only by those who have the courage to enter, says Shirley Forbes, chairman of the decorations committee.

Sub-chairmen for the decoration committee are Pat Rhodes, Eleane Chadborne and Betty Eubanks. Pat Keating, Phil Edwards, Bonnie Gartshore, Betty Doyle, Virginia Sherwood.

Jim Howie, Carol Lantz, Dorothy Nybro, Elda Beth Payne, Jean Palmer, Midge Doyld, Pat Steffins, Ellen Mattison, Ruth Kendall, Jackie Popp, Virginia Proctor, Julie Alger, Carmel Libonati, Kathie Landis, Mary Said, and Virginia Miller.

RALLY MONDAY IN INNER QUAD TO PREVIEW 'CORRAL CAPERS'

With the AWA "Corral Capers" plans well under way now, Mary Hooten, chairman of the affair, announces that there will be a rally at 12:30 Monday in the inner quad to show the co-eds what a good time they're in for Wednesday evening.

"Although the 'Corral Capers' is for women students only, the rally entertainment will be equally appealing to both men and women students," states Ernestine De Ford, chairman of the Jinx rally committee. Miss De Ford is keeping the program of the rally a secret, but she promises good music and hearty laughs.

Tickets for the "Corral Capers" will go on sale in a booth in the Quad starting today for fourteen cents. Jackie Popp is in charge of the sale of the tickets. Also, at the ticket booth, there will be the heart-shaped box for co-eds to drop their love problems on a slip of paper for the mysterious "Madam ????" to answer at the Jinx.

All women students are urged to attend both the rally and the "Corral Capers" in order to have a wonderful time and to gain a wider acquaintance with their fellow students, according to Chairman Hooten.

MEN'S ART CLUB

Plans to inaugurate a new men's art organization were made yesterday at a meeting of men art majors and minors under the supervision of Milton Lanyon.

Record Group Of Women Students Attend Associated Women's Activities Meeting; Mrs. Pritchard Introduced As New Adviser

Welcoming new women students to the Associated Women's Activities meeting yesterday afternoon, AWA President Audrey Backenstoe conducted the weekly meeting of the organization, with another record group in attendance.

Mrs. Izetta Pritchard, assistant dean of women, was introduced to the group as the new AWA adviser, replacing Mrs. Sarah Dowdle, home economics faculty member now on leave of absence, who formerly served as adviser.

DSG Again Active ...Eleven Pledged

Delta Sigma Gamma, social fraternity, became active this quarter, pledging eleven new members at their meeting Sunday night.

New pledges are Wesley Nunes, Angelo Bova, Jack Costello, Bud Hooten, Dick Bartlein, Dick Groulich, pledge captain; Dwight Mathiesen, Frank Hearne, Paul Hurmuses, Robert Huck and James Rambo.

The candlelight ceremonies were held at the home of Dr. Campbell, who is the adviser of the group.

Officers for the fraternity will be elected the beginning of winter quarter. Until that time Stan Black will act as president, and Vern Parrish as vice president and treasurer.

WATERPOLO RALLY HELD TOMORROW

Ken McGill and Jerry Evans performing in a surprise skit will be featured in the water polo rally tomorrow in the Quad, states Shirley Forbes, chairman of the Rally committee.

Members of the Rally committee will wear white shirts, and the girls will wear blue skirts. The group will meet in the Student Union Friday at 12:15 o'clock.

"We want a really big turnout at the water polo game Friday afternoon in the Men's gym," states Miss Forbes, adding that those who wish to sit in the rooting section must wear white shirts.

The committee is working on the possibility of securing a band for the rally and is tentatively planning to make pom-poms to

Veterans Boost War Chest Total To $1546 As Drive Nears End; $953 Needed

Boosted by the all-out campaign of the Spartan Veterans yesterday, the War Chest total jumped to $1546.26, and San Jose State college students have two days in which to contribute the remaining $953.74.

The Vets' German band, parading over the campus yesterday, added sufficient stimulus to bring forth campus-wide contributions, ranging from small change to larger bills. The spirit of their stunt gave the lagging campaign a needed impetus.

Friday's combined War Chest-Navy Day assembly will mark the close of the campaign. Chaplain Richard E. Barnes of Moffett Field will be the guest speaker, and contribution envelopes will be distributed after the meeting.

NAVY DAY ASSEMBLY HELD AT 10 TOMORROW

Navy Day on Washington Square will be observed Friday at 10 o'clock in the Morris Dailey auditorium, when Chaplain Richard E. Barnes of Moffett Field will address San Jose State college students.

Chairman for the meeting will be Hugh Johnston, who has announced that Chaplain Barnes will show a movie entitled, "The Actual Invasion of Guadalcanal," and will highlight the showing of the film with comments of his own. "A speaker as well known as Chaplain Barnes, talking on such a topic as this, should prove to be of great interest to the students," Johnston said.

Three Marines from Moffett Field will accompany Chaplain Barnes to act as color bearer and color guards. The chaplain has made a special concession to appear at this assembly, as he will be on leave at the time.

Dr. T. W. MacQuarrie, president of the college, will give a talk on the stars in the service flags, and a summary of the War Chest drive will be reviewed by a member of the campaign. Howard Riddle, president of the student body, will introduce Dr. MacQuarrie, who will in turn introduce Chaplain Barnes.

Military music before and after the assembly will be provided by the school band under the direction of Mr. Thomas Eagan of the Music department.

Nurses' Aids

All women students interested in the proposed formation of a Nurses' Aid course here will meet in the Red Cross room at noon today, announces Phyllis Edwards.

If 15 women students sign up, a new class will be formed.

DELTA BETA SIGMA TAKES TOP HONORS IN COMPETITION

Delta Beta Sigma carried away top honors as winners of the Inter-Society Red Cross contest, announced Rae Klasson, Inter-Society president, at a meeting of all sororities in the Student Union last night.

First place was won by Delta Beta Sigma with a total of 656 points. Prize for first place was a box of candy.

Zeta Chi and Beta Gamma Chi, with scores of 386 and 360, respectively, took second and third places, and were presented with ribbons.

Coming in closely behind the winning teams were:

| | | |
|-------------------|--------|-----|
| Phi Kappa Pi | 60 1/2 | 274 |
| Sappho | 44 | 244 |
| Ero Sophian | 67 1/4 | 226 |
| Kappa Kappa Sigma | 54 1/4 | 175 |
| Allenian | 47 1/4 | 143 |

Following the announcements, entertainment was presented. Each sorority participated in the entertainment with songs, piano solos, recitations, and skits.

School Spirit

Why is it that so many of San Jose State owe so much spirit to so few? The spirit we have is excellent, but it is employed by a select few, it seems.

This year's Rally committee has an abundance of pep, and it spreads it gladly. The Veterans have that same school spirit, but think how much better it would be if the whole school were in there pitching, too.

When the school song is sung, let's not whisper it, let's sing it as it should be sung. The same goes for the school yells. When your yell-leaders are before you, they aren't giving a yell; they are leading YOU in a yell.

When a rally is held in the Quad it is for you; why not attend and contribute something to it?

Friday noon there will be a big rally in the Quad for the water-polo game to be held that night in the Men's gym. Let's see you all at both of these school functions. This is our school; let's give it the spirit a good college like ours needs. —Sherwood.

WATERPOLO TEAM MEETS BURLINGAME HI FRIDAY; BASKETBALL IN SWING

Basketball

Basketball practice was in full swing last night with four separate combinations working on set-up and follow through shots. Tuesday coach Bill Hubbard was giving the men a chalk talk. He claimed he was having trouble breaking the players of techniques they had developed while playing high school ball.

Some new prospects, in addition to the ones already mentioned earlier this week are: Angelo Arredondo, who played light weight basketball at San Jose High, Rod Richards who saw a good deal of action while at Mountain View, Bud Hooton, played ball this winter with the Food Machinery outfit, Bill Brown, Lincoln, high basketball, Bob Hamilton, who was on the squad here at State last year. All of these boys were working out last night against a clicking combination that included Maggitti, McCaslin, Holmes, Melhoff, and Marcipian.

An interesting highlight in the daily routine of practice is the fact that coach Hubbard has the players shoot at least 50 free throws every night. It is hoped that the men won't have the trouble of finding the basket on their free throw attempts as was the case last year.

Water Polo

The water polo team worked out lightly last night in preparation for their game tomorrow night in the college pool with Burlingame high school.

Coach Everett Olsen may start his second team composed of Ken O'Brien, and "Sonny" Altshur at forwards, Don Simmons and either Frank Wallace or Darrell Simmons at the guard positions, Art Bond at the center back, and "Happy" Hyman at goalie. Hyman wasn't out for practice last night because of a severe case of athlete's foot. Meyers, regular goalie, may be called upon to carry the load if "Hap" doesn't recover.

If the going gets too tough the high scoring combination of Reiserer, Meihe, and Domballion will be called upon to strengthen the team.

A pre-game rally will be held tomorrow noon in the quad. Yells will be led by Freida Hinke, head yell leader, assisted by Ken McGill and Virginia Sherwood. A large turnout is expected.

Already the ball club is rounding into a fairly smooth working bunch, and with a few more weeks of extensive drilling their timing and coordination ought to be sharp.

ON WASHINGTON SQUARE

By LORRAINE GLOS

Congratulations to the Spartan War Veterans for their splendid turnout at yesterday's War Chest drive.

Not only did they get into the spirit of the occasion, but they put everyone else in the spirit of giving. Spartans gave willingly to the veterans, although some students had given already what they considered the maximum they could afford. But yesterday they donated their pennies, nickles and dimes at the rally the veterans sponsored during the noon hour.

In order to put a drive over, those who are participating need to get into the fight twice as much as those who will be contributing.

Some of you may have been a little irked while passing by the Library arch, where an arm reached out at you and an ex-serviceman asked while pulling you toward the booth, "Have you given to the War Chest?" But why should you have been irked? Did you give?

The veterans weren't asking you to donate another $1.50; they were just asking you to drop your extra change into the box, or straw hat.

We only have two more days to top our quota. If you can't afford a dollar or more, you can each afford to give an extra dime. Maybe you can go without the coke you get EVERY day, or maybe you will have to walk 10 blocks home, but the men in the fighting forces have gone without cokes for more than one day, and have to walk more than 10 blocks one day out of the year. If this sounds exaggerated—ask the San Jose State college veterans—they know.

Again we want to congratulate the Spartan Veterans—you did a swell job yesterday!

Missionary To Be CCF Speaker

Miss Irene Webster-Smith, who recently returned from Japan where she spent twenty-five years as a missionary, will be the guest speaker at the Collegiate Christian Fellowship meeting to be held today at 12 o'clock in room 222 of the Science building.

All students are cordially invited to attend. It has been suggested that students bring lunches and eat at the meeting.

'Gypsy Caravan' Dance Tonight

Student Union will be the setting for the "Gypsy Caravan," a formal USO dance for college women tonight from 7:30 to 11:00 o'clock.

According to Mrs. Izetta Pritchard, chairman of the Thursday night dances, there will be fortune tellers and a special gypsy dancer.

The Soroptimist club is sponsoring the affair and is furnishing the refreshments. The dance is open to 50 college women only. Sign-up sheets will be posted in the Dean of Women's office until four o'clock today.

SIGMA DELTA PI

Sigma Delta Pi, Spanish honor society, will meet at 8 o'clock tonight at the home of Miss Ruth McCue, 575 South 14th street.

It is requested that those wishing to come sign the notice on the bulletin board near room 25A.

JUST AMONG OURSELVES

By DR. T. W. MacQUARRIE

Listen, young folks, those of you who have not yet done your part in the Community and War Chest, let me make a suggestion: You go right into the auditorium and sit down in front of those stars. Note especially those gold, gold stars. Try to visualize the sacrifice those men, former student from this campus, have made.

You will come to a conclusion: "It is rather for us to be here dedicated to the great task remaining before us—that from these honored dead we take increased devotion to that cause for which they gave the last full measure of devotion."

As soon as you can, get up off your knees, wipe the tears from your eyes, go out and make your contribution.

It's got to be done, young folks. I hate to see a group of college men and women fail in a cause like this. My goodness, how on earth can we expect other people to support the welfare efforts of a community if we don't.

"That last full measure of devotion!"

(Make it ten dollars if you can, or even a dollar and one-half.)

Students On Opera Stage

Students who saw Lily Pons at the performance of "Lucia de Lammermoor" Monday night at the Civic Auditorium also saw thirteen of their fellow classmates on the stage.

Six acted as bridesmaids in the wedding scene, while six others were the pages. Miss Pon's train was held by Roberta Ramsay and Muriel Helliwell.

The group was amused at the back stage antics and enjoyed seeing a massive production such as this presented, according to Roberta Ramsay.

Party Candidate Will Speak Today

Democratic candidate for Congress Arthur Johnson will speak from 12:15 to 1 p. m. today at the Student Center, which is located on San Antonio street one half block west from the campus.

Mr. Johnson's speech is being sponsored by the Student Christian Association as the third in a series of political addresses on political issues. Republican Jack Anderson spoke recently, and students are now invited to come and hear the Democratic point of view.

Republicans as well as Democrats are urged to come. Food for thought will be provided for any unbiased and conscientious citizen, according to Bob James, secretary of the SCA. A question and answer period will follow the address.

DR. YATES OPENS SEMINAR SERIES AT STANFORD

First speaker for the series of seminars sponsored by Stanford's Psychology department this quarter was Dr. Dorothy Hazeltine Yates, associate professor of psychology.

Dr. Yates read a paper on her famous relaxation method, titled "Relaxation as a Psychological Technique," and sketched her recent trip to Washington and other points in the east for development of her work with the Army and Navy.

The seminar talk was given Monday night at the home of Dr. Paul Farnsworth, acting head of Stanford's Psychology department, with staff members and graduate students in psychology in attendance.

Dr. Yates teaches general psychology and child psychology here, and has taught a unique course in psychology for aviators and athletes. She became well known to the sports world a few years ago when her psychological guidance aided a comparatively green boxing team to tie for the Pacific coast championship.

Water Polo Rally

lend color and spirit to the occasion. Chairman Forbes said that the committee is ordering emblems and rooters' caps, to distinguish the members at school functions.

In addition to the surprise act to be put on by McGill and Evans, songs and yells will be included in the program. "Make this rally a big one and spur our team on to victory Friday!" urged Miss Forbes.

LA Chapter Alums Elect New Officers

Los Angeles chapter of the San Jose State College Alumni Association announces the election of Reginald Knight, '33, as their new president.

Knight, principal of the Bellflower school, succeeds Frank Robinson, '34. The election was held at a "bean bust" for Los Angeles Spartans.

New vice president is Grace Cover-Moorman, '42, teacher at Temple City; secretary-treasurer is Mildred Nediver Hall, '14, teacher at Willowbrook; and publicity chairman is Abbie Dilse Stowe, '10, of Hollywood.
