ASB DANCE TONIGHT NOVEL EFFECTS TO HIGHLIGHT DANCE TONIGHT IN GYM

Spartans will climb through a black spider web in order to enter the ASB Hallowe'en dance tonight in the Men's gym from 8 to 12 p. m. Decorations will be novel, and the entrance is a big surprise, according to the Social Affairs committee.

The dance will be a sport affair, and students may come stag or date. Servicemen will also be admitted for 40 cents.

Decorations for the affair include a complete crepe paper ceiling, and the walls will be lined with bats, witches, skeletons, and other Hallowe'en symbols. In the center of the floor will be a cemetery with appropriate inscriptions on the tombstones.

Cokes will be sold at the dance, and the coke stand will be camouflaged with Hallowe'en finery.

Sponsors for the evening will be Dr. and Mrs. Robert Rhodes, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Lanyon, Dean Helen Dimmick, and Mrs. Izetta Pritchard.

Those decorating the gym Saturday morning will be Pat Rhodes, Elaine Chadborne, Betty Eubanks, Pat Keating, Phil Edwards, Bonnie Gartshore, Betty Doyle, Virginia Sherwood.

MUSIC RECITAL NOVEMBER 11

Maurine Thompson, contralto, and Lydia Boothby, harpist, will hold their recital on Saturday evening, November 11, instead of on November 18, as previously announced.

The program will be given in the college Little Theater at 8:15 p. m. and is open to the public free of charge. Jean Long will be the accompanist of the evening.

AWA Sells Tickets To "Corral Capers," Jinx Party Set For Wednesday Evening

Tickets for the AWA fall quarter Jinx party, "Corral Capers," scheduled for Wednesday night in the Women's gym, are now on sale for fourteen cents in the Inner Quad, according to Jackie Popp, head of the ticket committee.

A rally will be held at 12:30 Monday noon in the Inner Quad to give women students a preview of the hilarious entertainment in store for them at the Jinx, according to Ernestine DeFord, chairman of the Jinx rally committee.

States Mary Hooten, chairman of "Corral Capers," "No one can afford to miss all this swell entertainment, fun and food, all to be had in one evening for only fourteen cents."

The two main attractions for the all-women students' wild west revue will be the advice to the lovelorn given by "Madam ????" and introduction of the Kobra Woman and her Klan.

Plus the two mystery features, the singing of Nancy Lynn, of Revelries fame, and Jewgie Hadcock, favorite alto, will be featured on the Jinx program.

According to Betty Jean Jurras, program committee head, several other numbers will be presented.

SENIOR SWEATERS MUST BE ORDERED BY WEDNESDAY

Seniors are reminded that Wednesday will be the last day on which deposits may be placed for the 1945 class sweater.

Fourth-year students are urged by President Marilyn Wilson to be measured in the Co-op anytime between now and November 1. Sweater and emblem will cost $9.00.

It should be remembered that even though the student has been measured, the order does not become active until the deposit is made. Therefore, it is imperative that $4.50 be paid to the Spartan Shop by next Wednesday, states Miss Wilson.

As yet, the definite design for the emblem has not been revealed, but will probably be made of leather and include a Spartan head in the background. If ordered by next Wednesday, the sweaters will arrive here the first part of winter quarter.

Navy Day-War Chest Meet At 10 Today; $822 Required To Reach Total

Navy Day and the War Chest drive will be featured at the assembly today at 10 o'clock in the Morris Dailey auditorium, when Chaplain Richard E. Barnes of Moffett Field will address San Jose State college students, and a report on the results of the campaign will be given.

Yesterday's total in the drive was $1677.51, leaving $822.49 to be raised today. Contribution envelopes will be distributed after the meeting, and Barbara Bressani, chairman of the campaign, has announced that the drive is expected to go over the top with donations made at this time. "So, don't let us down. Maintain the Spartan tradition of always coming through!"

Junior-Senior Mixer To Be Held In Union Tuesday, Nov. 21

Biggest event of the quarter for upper classmen is the Junior-Senior mixer, to be held Tuesday, November 21, in the Student Union.

Chairmen for the affair are Elsie Schreiber and Barbara Keaton for the seniors, and Milo Badger and Jackie George for the junior class.

Rugged games, unusual entertainment and plenty of refreshments are promised for the party, which will be just before Thanksgiving vacation. "Be sure and save the date," says Barbara Keaton.

Patrons for the party are Dr. James C. DeVoss, Dr. G. A. McCallum and Dr. Robert Rhodes, senior and junior advisers, respectively, with more to be announced later.

FRESHMAN CANDIDATES SELECTED

Yesterday at the noon freshman orientation meeting the Student Council conducted nominations for the offices of president, vice president, treasurer, and secretary of the freshman class.

Those nominated for president were Ben Pettis, Louise Lacace, Frances Boban, Emerson Arends, Ken O'Brien. Nominees for vice president are Chuck Pettis, Jean Minnehan, Janet McIntosh, Ken McGill, and Don McCaslin.

Lois Haveter, Ruth Galya, Wilma Ward, Jean Lester, Penny Mercadier, Alma Simonetti, Chuck Lazer, and Jim Barlemuni have been nominated for the office of class secretary.

Nominated for treasurer are Mary Katherine Kelly, Jean Louise Baltz, Mary Collins, Rick Bartleim, Joyce McGonnigal, Eileen Hansen, Frank Dinapoli.

MEETING

Chairman for the meeting will be Hugh Johnston, who has announced that Chaplain Barnes will show a movie entitled "The Actual Invasion of Guadalcanal," and will highlight the showing of the film with comments of his own. "A speaker as well known as Chaplain Barnes, talking on such a topic as this, should prove to be of great interest to the students," Johnston said.

Three Marines from Moffett Field will accompany Chaplain Barnes to act as color bearer and color guards. The chaplain has made a special concession to appear at this assembly, as he will be on leave at the time.

BACHRODT

Mr. Walter Bachrodt, county superintendent of schools, will give a talk on the service flags and on the War Chest. Dr. T. W. MacQuarrie, president of the school, will be present on the platform and will introduce the speakers. Howard Riddle, president of the student body, will officiate at the meeting and will introduce Dr. MacQuarrie.

Military music before and after the assembly will be provided by the school band under the direction of Mr. Thomas Eagan of the Music department.

In urging the students to put over the War Chest drive at this time, Miss Bressani said, "This is a triple gift for a triple need; for our boys, for our allies, for our own at home. Victory starts in the heart, so make those dollars pile up to that $2500 today!"

LT. WEINBERG KILLED IN ACTION

Lt. Jerome (Jerry) Weinberg, former San Jose State college student previously reported missing, was killed in action August 30, 1943, in the Naples campaign, the War Department has notified his parents.

Lt. Weinberg received the Purple Heart certificate, which has been sent to Mr. and Mrs. Hyman Weinberg, former San Jose residents now living in Vallejo.

It's About That Time

Does your professor sound different lately?

He does if he's anything like mine—there's a new note of deep, macabre glee in his lectures as he gazes over the rows of somnolent, soporous forms, knowing all the while the fate worse than death that hangs over their innocent heads, ready to fall in one short week — MIDTERMS.

Well, maybe that is overdramatizing the thing a little, but the fact remains that there is only one short week to review (we frown on the word "cram") before those wicked-looking exes in chem, psych, physics, accounting, history, or what have you are fished out of the cauldrons, hung up to dry, and handed to the unsuspecting students by the seven little devils who are responsible for the torture known as exams.

Of course, there will be the usual crop of gripes after blue cards come out, but before you bat your gums too much, it might be a good idea to ask yourself how many times you opened that chem book, or whatever it was, and how many times you thought that new show at the Mission was "just too super" to miss.

Or even better—ask yourself that now, and start answering it with a little study. Give yourself, as well as the professor, a pleasant surprise. You know, it's not impossible to get a "B" in the physics ex, and you might find that an occasional glance at the book will pay off in that coveted "A" in history.

Isn't it worth a try?

Thrust And Parry

Thrust and Parries must not exceed 200 words and must be signed with the student's name and student body card number. Names will be withheld upon request.

Dear Editor:

We are indeed grateful that we were given the privilege of learning through the Spartan Daily that the SCA is sponsoring a series of political speeches on the issues of the present campaign. We appreciate your announcement of the scheduled meetings featuring Republican Congressman John Z. Anderson and his Democratic opponent, Arthur C. Johnson.

What you DID NOT announce, however, was that the first in this series of meetings featured Darlington Hoopes, the Socialist vice presidential candidate. You refused to print one word concerning this meeting. Why? Because, according to you political meetings, even when sponsored by an on-campus group, are not the concern of the Spartan Daily!

We are glad that you have reversed your previous decision and have decided that political issues are the concern of the students. We are sorry that the free publicity given to Republican and Democratic spokesmen was denied to a Socialist.

It may be, however, that you did not intentionally discriminate against the Socialist party. Perhaps your reverse in policy was the result of a true, sincere change of heart. Perhaps — but we still wonder!

HARRY LAWRENCE
JOHN HOPKINS

Dear Mr. Hopkins and Mr. Lawrence:

First of all, you are referring, we assume, to the speeches of Arthur L. Johnson and John Z. Anderson.

When the news of the Socialist candidate was first brought into this office, we were under the impression that there was to be just that one campaign speech made. We were not informed, nor was it intended at that time, that other parties were to be included in the series of speeches.

Because of that, and due to the fact that the Spartan Daily does not support any particular political party, it would not be fair to the major parties of the United States to print only Socialist news, and thereby destroy our impartiality.

When we were informed the Social Action committee of the SCA was to sponsor speeches representing all major political parties, we printed the news, giving each party as equal an amount of space as possible.

When the Socialist candidate was to speak, a great number of on-campus activities were in progress—War Chest, election, freshman activities, and play tryouts. It is the policy of the Spartan Daily to print college news FIRST which is of interest to the majority of the San Jose student body.

Sincerely,
THE EDITOR

PROFS PRESENT THEORY ON APT ARCHERY AIM

The legend of William Tell and the Apple looks like sissy stuff to members of the Spartan Daily staff who listened yesterday to the latest theory advanced by Professors Robert Rhodes, G. A. McCallum, and Lyman Daugherty.

Spokesman for the learned trio, Dr. Rhodes asked if we had noticed the arrow marks on the targets used by archery classes. No, we hadn't. Well, then (drawing us a lucid diagram), they look like this: Instead of conforming to a nice, normal bell curve, such as our psychologists have taught us to respect, the arrow marks form a straight line pattern. From the bull's eye, they march out to the lower left like a stream of ants.

Now get this: It is the theory of Drs. Rhodes McCallum and Daugherty that if one were to take a position to the right, upper left, over or under the bull's eye, one would be safe from the marksman's arrow. Look at the targets, they say, if you don't believe that.

What the Spartan Daily wants to know is: Would the professorial trio care to demonstrate?

P. S. Please answer no!!! Professors are kinda scare these days.

BEHIND THE SCENES

By MARGARET MOORE

Things are stirring in the Speech wing. Tuesday we told you of the awakening of the tradition-filled makeup room. Today we'd like to introduce Orestes D'Anna, who plays the stage manager in the forthcoming production of "Our Town." He and his fellow cast members are rousing the dormancy of State's speech activities.

The first time we saw Orestes, he was acting. We'd heard about him before and were curious to see new talent, so we wandered into an "Our Town" rehearsal one afternoon. After seeing him a second time, rehearsing again — this time in the makeup room, we were convinced that here was someone who was really interested in acting.

"Rusty" is interested in acting. In fact, he hopes eventually to be an actor-playwright and have his own theater group.

"Acting to me is a way of interpreting my impressions of life," he said. "I get a kick out of it and it's a satisfying sensation to be acting the lives of others."

As a student actor, Rusty has definite ideas about his art. When he prepares to portray a character he reads the play to see how the part is related to others and to understand the purpose of the character.

"I observe people," he says, "and use their natural actions and emotions. I don't try to use the technique of movie or other actors because after all, they're only trying to produce the natural actions of people."

Starting with the part of a jester in a junior high school play, Rusty has had a varied experience in many San Jose High school dramatic productions and variety shows, including a harrowing incident when during fierce duelling in "Romeo and Juliet," his tights began to give way. Among his roles were parts in "What A Life," "Dust of the Road," and the lead in his high school senior class play, "This Awful Age."

Looking forward to the time when he will be producing his own plays, Rusty has already written skits and plays, including a three-act musical which he hopes to present sometime.

"Call me 'Rusty,'" he said hopefully, "I like it better than Orestes."

So we did, it seems to fit him better. And besides, it matches his hair.

KAPPA PHI'S PLEDGE WOMEN FOR FALL GROUP

Kappa Phi, national Methodist women's society, pledged 32 women Tuesday evening at its annual fall pledging service.

A speech entitled "Echoes from Council" was given by Estelle Rowe, who was the official delegate to Kappa Phi national council held at Baker University in Baldwin, Kansas.

A short business meeting followed, after which the following girls were pledged:

Barbara Ballentyne, Marie Julian, Constance Jones, Wilma Krull, Florence Frye, Kathryn Stone, Mary Poore, Mariam McClurg, Roberta Flacy, Ruth Forsyth, Dorothy Kimball, Mrs. Roberta Fletcher.

Barbara Fedder, Rae Zimmer, Claire Oubrige, Zora Money, Virginia Hinrich, Nice Go, Delle Armstrong, Betty Gish, Ann Toaspen, Bobby Curry, Wilma Ward, Gwendolyn Bozarth.

Social Service Group Holds Tea

An informal "get-acquainted" tea for social service majors, new and old, will be held Monday afternoon at 3:30 p. m. in room 26.

Social service majors will have an opportunity to meet their fellow students and members of the social service faculty informally.

Dr. Elmo Robinson Heads Panel Group

Yesterday Dr. Elmo Robinson, associate professor of philosophy, led a panel discussion at a meeting of the California School Supervisors Association here in San Jose.

Six group discussions were carried on in conjunction with the California Association of Supervisors of Child Welfare and Attendance.

The school supervisors closed this week's convention proceedings Tuesday.

PRE-MED CLUB TO REORGANIZE AS ACTIVE UNIT

Reorganization of the Pre-Medical club, because of increased enrollment in the various preparatory fields for medicine, will be planned Monday at 12:30 in room 107, announces Dr. Jay C. Elder, dean of the lower division and adviser to the club.

In November, 1943, the club became inactive because most of its members had been called into service. Restoration of projects and activities beneficial to pre-medical students will come with reorganization of the club Monday.

All pre-medical students are invited to attend the meeting Monday noon to discuss the reorganization and plan a program.

RARE COLLECTION SHOWN THIS WEEK IN SJS LIBRARY

A 1480 Spanish promissory note for two hundred gold florines, American equivalent $41,172,200,000,000, is part of a medieval manuscript collection loaned to the state college on display this week in the Library.

Included in the exhibit are manuscripts from the collection of Marcan Rossi, 134 Curtis Ave., San Jose, and some loaned by Miss Dora Smith, reference librarian at State college. These documents are on display in the halls and on the landing of the Library.

PRIVILEGE

A Privilege in Spanish assigned to Don Pedro Alfonso Giron, 1727, by Don Philip of Castilla and illuminated with the emblem of the king, and a Privilege to the Iturbi family, 1614, for fishing pearls discovered in California, assigned by Don Philip IV, King of Spain, are two of the manuscripts loaned by Mr. Rossi.

On display also are several rare books and pages from rare books from the San Jose State college collection including Raleigh's "History of the World," printed by Walter Burre, 1614. This is a first edition and one of the six known copies in the world.

MANUSCRIPTS

Several illuminated Latin manuscripts from the twelfth and thirteenth centuries and illuminated diplomas from the University of Bologna are included in the exhibition. A few pages from the fifteenth century Italian Antiphonal, the music books used in the services of the early church, are also in the selection.

In the Arts reading room original etchings, lithographs, and block prints are on display.

U.S.O. TO HOLD SPECIAL HALLOWE'EN FROLIC ON SUNDAY NIGHT AT 6:30

USO Open House will hold a Hallowe'en Frolic Sunday night in the Student Union from 6:30 p. m. until 10 o'clock.

The committee has arranged for several special features, including Mr. Joseph S. Garafalo, magician from Roos Brothers; a fortune teller, a "handwriting expert," an artist to sketch portraits, special games, refreshments, and other surprises.

SJS Red Cross Unit Releases Last Year's Production Report

SJS College Unit of San Jose Chapter of the American Red Cross has completed its production report for the year from October 1943 to August 1944.

The unit plans to exceed the production schedule this year, because of the greater enrollment. Closer cooperation and greater interest on the part of the women themselves are being worked toward, according to Miss Bernice Tompkins, faculty chairman of the SJS campus unit.

The report is as follows: Knitting—Army 7, Navy 8; hospital beanies 3; watch caps 33. Sweaters—Army V-neck 21, Navy turtle-neck 36; civilian 1. Navy scarfs 8; Army mufflers 41. Gloves—Army 11, Navy 38. Rifle mitts 17. Donations—Afghans, 18-square 54; 96-square 1.

Sewing — Pajamas 112 pairs; nightshirts 110; hospital slippers 66 pairs; quilts 1. Donations — bedside bags 354; socks 6 pair; pneumonia jackets 10; hot water bottle covers 3; shoe cloths 310; covers 142.

The New Deal Depression

"Who was President during the depression that lasted from 1933 until some time in 1940 when war orders from all over the world began to bring us full employment again? The New Deal kept this country in a continuous state of depression for seven straight years. It made a three-year depression last eleven years — over twice as long as any other depression in a whole century."
