

Important Matters Will Be Considered At Special Meeting Today For Seniors

Dr. James DeVoss, dean of upper division, and Dr. Alexander McCallum, senior adviser, have scheduled a special meeting of the senior class today at 12:30 in room 117. Matters of special significance to fourth-year students will be considered.

"Unfortunately, many seniors never get acquainted with their classmates until graduation week, and then realize what a mistake it was not to participate in senior affairs throughout the year," Dr. McCallum recently stated to the students. "We want every graduate to have his senior year to remember," continued McCallum as he urged all seniors to attend the meeting today.

Deadline for deposits on sweaters is tomorrow. Bob Coombs announces that the emblem, designed by Audrey Levic, is made of leather and felt in white and gold. Each student must be individually measured. In charge of poster displays advertising the sweaters is Bruce Duke and Dorothy Czerny.

Also to be discussed at the meeting today is the Junior-Senior Mixer scheduled for November 21. Elsie Schrieber and Barbara Keaton are co-chairmen for the affair, and promise a surprise concerning it at the meeting.

Sometime this quarter, probably in December, a get-together for the class is being planned.

KAPPA DELTA PI HOLDS MEETING TOMORROW AT 3

Kappa Delta Pi, national education honor society, will hold its first regular meeting today at 3:00 p. m. in room 155.

All members are urged to attend. Plans for the quarter will be discussed and formulated.

Officers of the group are: Audrey Backenstoe, president; Marie Toasperm, vice president; Lucille Rose, recording secretary; Margaret Rogers, corresponding secretary; Pearl Jespersen, treasurer; and La Verne Curtis, reporter.

Dr. Harry Jensen of the Education department is the new adviser of the organization.

Alumni Association Elects New Officers For Coming Year

Taking over direction of Alumni Association activities this year is Charles Hillis, of the Victor Hillis & Sons Printing company of San Jose, and member of the class of 1935.

Hillis succeeds Theron Fox, '33, also a printing firm representative.

New president of Golden Grads, colorful organization of alumni who graduated 50 or more years ago, is Mr. Leroy Armstrong of the 1894 class. He succeeds Miss Kate Smith, class of 1891.

Other Alumni Association officers are Willma James Forward (Mrs. Robert Forward), class of '34, vice president; Doris Robinson, '26, secretary-treasurer; and the following members of the board: Earl Adams, '26; Frank Covell, '34; Genevieve Zingheim, '28; Theron Fox, '33; Barbara Kurz Bell, '43; Ethel Boyd, '13; William Stevens, '35. Stevens was newly appointed by President Hillis to replace Ellis Rother, '40, now in the Navy.

Other Gold Grad officer is Mrs. Frank Haydock Fowler, class of 1894, replacing Mrs. Edna C. Ridley, '93, as secretary.

ASB Council Passes New Rulings

COUNCIL ALTERS BY-LAWS CONCERNING REVELRIES AND CAMPUS DATE BOOK

Highlighting the Student Council meeting yesterday afternoon was the passing of two revised by-laws to the school constitution.

According to one new law, Spartan Revelries will be governed by a board of four students, one faculty member, and the non-voting controller. The director will be chosen by the student council with the faculty recommendation, as will the business manager. Along with the faculty adviser, these two students will elect the stage manager and assistant director.

Also changed was section 3, clause 2, of the date book regulations. La Verne Fuller, chief justice, and Lee Ross, junior justice, revised the by-law so as to avoid further trouble with date book mix-ups. They emphasized the fact that if two events are to occur at the same time, the second group to sign the book must obtain a release from the first, unless one is an athletic event. Otherwise, a fine of $1 per day will be charged the offending organization.

Tentative plans were discussed as to the possibility of purchasing lighting equipment for the student body. On the advice of Wendell Johnson it was decided that a central lighting system would be the best bet. This would cost between $75 and $100, and would allow the light at school dances to shine down instead of up toward the beams. Also considered for the lighting system were four or five tiny spots, and a color-wheel lighting apparatus.

President Howard Riddle reminded the council that plans should begin for Pearl Harbor

McGILL, EVANS TO PERFORM AT RALLY FRIDAY

Ken McGill and Jerry Evans performing in a surprise skit will be featured in Friday's San Jose versus Palo Alto water polo rally to be held at noon in the Quad, states Shirley Forbes, chairman of the Rally committee.

Members of the Rally committee will wear white shirts, and the girls will wear blue skirts. The group will meet in the Student Union Friday at 12:15 o'clock.

"We want a really big turnout at the water polo game Friday night in the college pool," states Miss Forbes, adding that those who wish to sit in the rooting section must wear white shirts.

In addition to the surprise act to be put on by McGill and Evans, songs and yells will be included on the program. The committee has promised a band for the rally, and have ordered rooters caps and emblems to distinguish the members at future school affairs.

"Make this the biggest rally so far, and get behind the team!" urges Miss Forbes.

Ex-Spartan Killed

Staff Sgt. Cecil Mattos, 23-year-old former Spartan, was killed in action over Italy on October 14, according to a telegram received yesterday by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Emil Mattos, 860 North Fifth street.

Sergeant Mattos was turret gunner and engineer on a B-24, and had been overseas for about five months.

While at State he was active in athletics and was a star soccer player.

He was graduated from the Army Air Corps gunnery school at Harlingen, Texas, in February, and was then stationed in Salt Lake City, Utah.

Zemanek, Former Spartan, Gets First Updegraf Merit

Naval Aviation Cadet Marvin Zemanek, 1943 honor graduate of San Jose State college, holds the honor of being the first cadet to receive Capt. W. N. Updegraf's merit award at the training center in Norman, Oklahoma.

Zemanek won the award for having the highest grade average ever earned by any of more than 4000 aviation cadets at Norman. He has been transferred to the navy station at Corpus Christi, Texas.

When Zemanek graduated from San Jose State college he held the highest scholarship record for any senior class until that time, with a grade point average of 2.89 (3.00 is a straight A). At the naval training center, Norman, he made an all-time high average of 3.8 (Navy perfect average is 4.0). In navigation and aerology he achieved the perfect 4.0 record.

Juniors Meet Today

President Mary Hooten reminds all juniors of the council meeting at 12:15 in room 113 today.

All class members are invited to participate with regular councillors in discussion and plans for the coming junior-senior mixer, to be held November 21.

Jackie George and Milo Badger will present a report on the mixer meeting, held last Wednesday.

FROSH WILL ELECT TODAY IN FRONT OF MORRIS DAILEY

Freshman elections will be held today outside of the Morris Dailey auditorium from 12 to 4 o'clock. Student Council members will be in charge of the polls.

All freshman groups will meet in the auditorium today at 12:30. Nominees for class officers will be introduced, and each nominee is asked to be prepared to give a one-minute speech.

Those nominated for president were Ben Pettis, Louise Lacace, Frances Bogan, Emerson Arends, Ken O'Brien. Nominees for vice president are Chuck Pettis, Jean Minnehan, Janet McIntosh, Ken McGill, and Don McCaslin.

Lois Haveter, Ruth Gaiya, Wilma Ward, Jean Lester, Penny Mercadier, Alma Simonetti, Chuck Lazer, and Jim Barlemuni have been nominated for the office of class secretary.

'Shoemaker Shop', Drive To Collect Materials For War Veterans, Progresses

"Anything goes—zippers, buttons, yarn, and hose—for the Shoemaker Shop drive," claim members of Beta Gamma Chi and Delta Sigma Gamma, sponsors of the current campus drive.

"Shoemaker Shop" is a drive to collect old buttons, silk materials and yarns for the bed-ridden patients at Shoemaker hospital. These men are war veterans brought in from the Pacific area. The above materials are used by the patients to make purses, rugs, and afghans. The activities help to occupy their minds while spending endless hours in bed.

Miss Ruby Ferguson, member of the arts and skills organization at Camp Shoemaker, will speak at the rally Wednesday in the Quad at 12:30. The Gamma Chi's and D.G.S.'s will be in charge of the rally. Pledges from the D.G.S.'s will entertain.

Contribution boxes may be found in the Science building, Dean Dimmick's office, outside of the Morris Dailey auditorium, in the Co-op, Women's gym, and the Home Economics building.

SOPH CLASS MEET WILL BE HELD TODAY IN STUDENT UNION

Last meeting of the sophomore class before the selection of the class council will be held today at 12:30 in the Student Union.

Council members will be chosen from among those attending this meeting and those of the last two weeks, according to June Robertson, class president.

WILD WEST AWA PARTY TOMORROW NIGHT AT 8

"Roundup rage" will be the costume for women students attending the "Corral Capers" to be held in the Women's gym tomorrow night at 8 o'clock.

"Boots, holsters, guns, sombreros, costumes of animals, and any other form or garb that is typical of the wild west will help make the Jinx a great success," declares Mary Hooten, chairman of the affair.

TICKETS

Tickets, for the price of 14 cents, including tax, are now on sale in the inner quad, and can also be obtained at the door, Jackie Popp, chairman of the ticket-committee asserted.

Novelty events for the evening will include the appearance of the "Kobra Woman and her Klan", who will perform their ceremonial rites in their native costumes; and the lovelorn advice of "Madam ???". The Madam will answer the questions placed in the heart-shaped box at the ticket booth. Women students are urged to turn in any question they may have concerning their love problems or those of their friends. Betty Jean Jurras is head of the program committee.

GAMES

Games, under the chairmanship of Jocelyn Capp, will include relays and dancing, and will be followed by refreshments of doughnuts and cider.

Other chairmen for the evening are Doris Moody, refreshments; Elizabeth Leecing, decorations; Beverly Sack and Mary Davis, publicity; and Ruth Kendall, clean-up.

Gamma Phi Sigmas Pledge Fifteen At Weekly Meeting

Fifteen pledges were formally pledged at the Gamma Phi Sigma, social fraternity, weekly meeting held last Wednesday night in the campus fraternity room.

Pledges who attended were: Everett Olson, Cliff Olsen, Daniel Simmons, Don Simmons, Ken O'Brien, John Petersen, Charley Lloyd, Terry McGovern, Lou Mathieson, Dock Lair, Larry Cowper, Bill Smith, Bob Sheppard, Dick Huntwork, and George Sheets.

Officers of the fraternity are Bruce Duke, president; Bob Barton, vice president; George Millias, treasurer; Bill Gleisberg, secretary; Jack Reiserer, pledge captain; Bill Shaw, rush captain; Lee Ross, house manager; Jerry Brown, sergeant-at-arms.

Others who attended were Roy Miehle, Hugh Johnston, Don Donovan, Dr. Fred Graham, adviser, and Dr. Raymond Mosher, adviser.

After the meeting refreshments were served.

RIDE 'EM, COWGIRL

Haul out your shootin' irons, polish up those boots, and dust off that ten-gallon hat! The wild west has come to San Jose State college. Tomorrow night is the opportunity for all secret desires along the Lone Ranger line to be exhibited.

"Corral Capers", the AWA party, is the occasion for this return to rugged days of the pioneers. This is a chance for plenty of informal fun and entertainment, and all women students should make a point of attending. Most of us have just about made up our minds that wartime life is dull and that's that. However, if we could rouse ourselves from this lethargy sufficiently to navigate to this affair, we might be surprised to find that we are having a good time. It could be.

Boredom might be sophisticated but it isn't much fun, so drag out your hick clothes and giddap to the "Corral Capers"!

—Teresi.

FIVE YEARS AGO TODAY

By WARREN BRADY

The high-riding Spartan football team made it eight in a row last Friday night by defeating the Santa Barbara State Gauchos, 28-7.

State did most of their damage through the air after their running play had bogged down. Lean Leroy Zimmerman, Spartan full-back, unlimbered his pass pitching arm and blasted the Gauchos with his perfect strikes. In the second quarter he hit Herm Zetterquist with a fifteen-yard pass that went for a score.

Again in the third quarter Zimmerman got his eye and threw a short but very effective ten-yard pass to end Johnny Allen who rambled another 28 yards to the one-foot line, from where Zimmerman crashed over for the score on the next play. The third tally came on a 19-yard drive in the final quarter after Don Presley had recovered a Gaucho fumble.

Besides converting after two of the touchdowns, Ken Cook made a beautiful field goal in the first quarter from 27 yards out.

The Spartan soccer team came through again Saturday with a 4-0 win over San Francisco Junior College.

Brilliant pass work by the entire team was the outstanding feature of the game with Ray and Jimmie Fahn each accounting for one goal and Dwyer chalking up two.

The lineup was composed of the Fahn brothers, Rocchi, Masdeo, and Albright in the front line, Dwyer, Horrall, and Rhodes at the halves, Anderson and Captain Hodgson at fullbacks, and Hill at goalie.

FLOTSAM

By GLORIA TERESI

Unfortunately for the future of school, students, and paper, we have been asked to write a column. Such a desperate step as this only illustrates more clearly and horribly what wartime shortages have brought about. Things are tough all over.

In sticking our neck out this way, we have been comforted by the assurances of our friends (all two of them) that we can't expect to please everyone. Some people will love it (it says right here) and some people will want to kill us for it. Well, they were half right. The shooting is at dawn. We like to be traditional in these matters.

Just what exactly is expected in this deal is a mystery to us and why it is being written is probably the same to you. In show business, it's "the show must go on!" and in journalism (and we use the word loosely in this case) it's "Anything to fill space!" as the editor (salaam) frantically cracks the whip while the poor reporters jump. (We figure it will go easier on us if we use a sympathy angle.) The editor says, "Be funny!" which is like saying, "Be president!" only much harder, but nevertheless, fools that we are, we try, and die at the tender age of 20.

If this (whatever it is) doesn't teach the boss a lesson in who should write columns and who shouldn't, nothing ever will. We request, in closing, that all complaints be addressed to her personally. Anyone wishing to contact us can do so easily by walking rapidly backwards off the tower. This is guaranteed to satisfy all gripes and any other little problems.

Social Affairs committee meeting 4 o'clock in the Student Union.

BEHIND THE SCENES

By MARGARET MOORE

Yesterday we met Johanna Barmettler, the leading lady in "Our Town". There's a lot more to this charming young girl than just pretty hair and green eyes, our first impression.

Johanna started to love dramatics after playing a fairy queen in a sixth grade playlet. She carried this love with her into Napa high school where she played more plausible roles in high school productions. Among her roles were parts in "Spring Fever", and "Romance Comes to Rupert". She'll never forget the time she stood too close and her costume went up with the curtain.

As yet, Johanna has been playing more of the ingenue leads than character parts. She would like those parts however. Her deepest interest is in heavy drama. "I like the psychological kind of a part," she says. "I'd like to do the part of Emily in 'Ladies In Retirement', you know, the crazy sister."

Like Rusty D'Anna, Johanna too would like to be a professional in the dramatic field. She doesn't want to write or have her own theater group, but she does want to act. She'd like to be in a musical some day.

Even if nothing ever comes of Johanna's hopes for a professional career, she is very happy in her Speech major. "Speech seems to have all the elements of music, art and literature that I live," she says. "I can sing and I play the piano so I thought I'd minor in music."

"I never let myself believe that maybe I won't succeed," said this intense young person. "I think that if a person wants a thing badly enough—he'll get it—somehow!"

When it comes to learning a part, Johanna has her own special method. "I usually read the play over and over and over. Then I try to feel like the person and put myself in his place. Not living the part—but feeling it."

Johanna doesn't want to be a sticky exotic type of actress. We asked what kind of an actress she'd like to be. She immediately answered "the Ingrid Bergman type." And personally we're glad she has ideas like that. There is a lovely youthfulness about Johanna that we hope she keeps.

"She has a nice fresh quality suitable to the role of Emily," William Melton, her director in "Our Town" feels, "and she has an exceptionally expressive voice."

We liked Johanna Barmettler after our first real meeting, and we feel sure that when you see her sincere performance in "Our Town", you'll like her too.

SPARTANS IN THE SERVICE

By ED MARION

Two San Jose State men were recently assigned to the Naval Academic Refresher Unit (V-7) for 16 weeks of training before entering a midshipman's school for deck officer training. They were Y2/c George Tousseau of Sunnyvale, and Y2/c Douglas Fellom of San Francisco. All men in this unit were assigned directly from the fleet after showing of-ficer aptitude.

Second Lieutenants Joseph Burton Jr. of Los Gatos, and Elmer S. Anderson of San Jose, graduated as B-24 bomber pilots at Fort Worth Army Air Field, according to news releases received here. By now they have either been sent to AAF tactical schools for pre-combat training or have received assignments as flight instructors on the giant aircraft.

Corporal John A. Dahl, former student and part-time athletic instructor at SJS, has been coaching sports at Pyote Army Air Field since June, 1943. During that time he has participated in almost every sport on the field, with emphasis on basketball. Last season he played on the field's basketball team, running up an enviable record.

Sergeant Frank Valenti of Los Gatos graduated last week from the Information and Education course at the School for Special and Morale Services, Lexington, Va. He will pursue this program at Camp Cooke, Calif.

PROMOTIONS—OVERSEAS

Norman R. Roberts has been promoted from first lieutenant to captain in the air corps, according to word received from his station somewhere in the middle east. Overseas more than a year, Captain Roberts is a transport pilot. He was formerly with the ferry command.

In a letter received today, Lieut. Gerald Moore writes:

"... Childress is a bombardier training school at which I fly cadets in circles nearly 24 hours daily. I've been ready to leave this dust laden hole since my arrival..."

His address is
Lt. Gerald P. Moore

"Dear Editor:
"I haven't seen the Spartan Daily since last year and am hoping very much you still send them to camp."

"I'm especially fortunate being stationed so near to home. Have been here since last November. Spent the latter part of last summer taking the administrative course at the Colorado State college in Greeley.

"I was to go directly overseas from here but the overseas physical and I didn't agree.

"Won't take up any more of your time—thanks in advance."

"Hi, gang:
"Victorville to Georgia, Georgia to the east coast, then from the east coast to someplace in England. No wonder I haven't seen a Spartan-Daily for such a long while..."

"It is lovely over here in England. Much of the countryside resembles our own, for there are oaks, clover, and buttercups all around.

"I haven't seen any 'State' people yet, but I know that I will. Probably a lot of the boys that won their bomber wings at V.A.-H.F. are over here now. Pete Sorensen and others. Seems impossible that I've forgotten so many of them.

"Well, my job calls, so I must go. Best of luck to you all.

Sincerely,
Cpl. Mickey Rikey.

ON CAMPUS

Davona Williams, a member of the women's reserve, USN, visited Washington Square before leaving for her new assignment in Louisiana.

Ens. Niels Nielsen, journalism major and 1944 grad, visited here after several months sea duty with the Merchant Marine in the Pacific.

Apprentice Seaman Norm Crowell, who was active in basketball and baseball while a freshman here last year, was in the Co-op last week visiting members of his old frat, Theta Mu Sigma.

LETTERS—

NOT TO THE EDITOR

We are indebted to Dean Pittman and Mrs. Maxwell for these excerpts from letters addressed to the dean.

"... We've been here quite a while now and have been in the line all the while. I jumped with the pathfinders a bit before the main outfit. It was quite a thrill floating down in the dark and seeing lights in the road—knowing they were Jerry trucks and motorcycles and not our own. Even the fact they had their lights on shows how much we surprised them. I'm a lucky guy—I landed not many yards from some German barracks and can still talk about it. Wish these guys would holler Uncle! Study hard."

(Signed) Sgt. David Hines
And from Cpl. Bob Riddle—

"Dear Dean:
"I received your most welcome letter today. I'm certainly proud that you feel the way you do about my brother. From all that I can gather he was a pretty good Marine, too.

"Do you remember Russ Hoffendahl? He and I were in the same scout party for quite a while in the last operations.

"As you can see by my address, I'm all healed up. I was one lucky boy. I guess I'll go back to my old outfit. I've been hit twice and have over two years overseas so I should get a rest home any year now.

"I certainly do enjoy hearing from anyone from State. ... Say hello to any of my old acquaintances you may chance to meet for me."

(Signed) As ever,
Bob

THE LOW DOWN

By JIM BEACOCK

I wonder how long it will be before the University of California ties the can to Stub Allison as their head football coach? Every football season, "Stub" manages to field one of the dullest and most inept teams, as far as offense goes, that can be found in the U. S. The signal calling of his quarterbacks is stereotyped.

His favorite play is a line plunge from a short punt formation. With regular monotony this play is called; now and then a punt or a poor pass is added to the repertoire to "confuse" the opposing team. This season he decided to use the T formation as well as his beloved short punt formation. The result of Stub's version of the T was to confuse only the football team from the University of California.

I'm not trying to pick Mr. Allison to pieces; as a spectator, who has watched his teams perform for the past eight years, I believe I'm entitled to my opinion. I firmly believe that "Stub" is one of the foremost line coaches in the business, and that his teams are almost defensively perfect, but I cannot see him as head coach at such a large university as U. C.

In big-time college football you either have to produce results or else move on. Only once in eight (or is it nine) years has "Stub" produced results and that was with the "Thunder Team" of 1937. Since then Cal's teams have crawled back in their shells, and displayed their usual dull variety of football.

U. C. could have had some cracker-jack coaches had they kept their eyes opened. Most prominent of these, in my opinion, were Jimmy Phelan, Dud DeGroot, and Slip Madigan. Perhaps Cal had its reasons for not approaching any of the above named coaches. The issue I'm raising is that Mr. Allison has neither produced nor moved on. Why? Could it be a case of politics?

Lady Luck is sweet to those she favors. The latest case of her favoritism was in the Notre Dame-Illinois football game last Saturday. Notre Dame, a heavy pre-game favorite, was kissed by Lady Luck and came off the field with a 13-7 victory after trailing Illinois 7-6 in the last quarter. The final score, however, does not tell the true story. "Buddy" Young, the 100 yd. dash champion from Illinois, scored the first touchdown of the game on a brilliant 74-yard run.

Notre Dame flashed back to make the score 7-6 in Illinois' favor. Illinois continued to outplay Notre Dame and scored two more touchdowns which were called back because of penalties. One of these was another brilliant run (of 54 yds.) by "Buddy" Young.

In the second quarter, Young was kicked on the head and was out for the remainder of the game. Without Young, Illinois still put up a terrific battle and lost the game only after Notre Dame made her successful touchdown

SJS GRAD HONORED

Miss Bernice Hanson of Morgan Hill who recently was graduated from San Jose State college, has been given an additional honor. She has received the Philip W. Pillsbury Shelf of Home Economics books.

This award, given upon recommendations of the faculty for Miss Hanson's outstanding work as a student in home economics, consists of thirteen books carefully selected as "those a home economist may most desire for reference in her chosen profession."

The award was established by Mr. Pillsbury, a Minneapolis flour milling executive, as part of the 75th anniversary celebration of the flour milling company established in Minneapolis by his family in 1869.

Miss Hanson majored in home economics and chose education and natural science as her minor fields of study, graduating with distinction. She was elected to Kappa Delta Pi and Delta Nu Theta, both honor societies, and to Eta Epsilon.

Before matriculating at San Jose State college, Miss Hanson had served for seven years as secretary to Charles Kellogg, naturalist and ornithologist, of Morgan Hill.

Miss Hanson has been engaged to teach at Sequoia High school at Redwood City this fall. She is the daughter of Mrs. Jennie Hanson of Morgan Hill.

Without Lady Luck's aid, Notre Dame would have been beaten in the biggest upset of the week.

FIRST FACULTY CONCERT OF YEAR SCHEDULED FOR SATURDAY, NOV. 11; HARPISST AND CONTRALTO FEATURED

First music faculty concert of the year will be given Saturday evening, November 11, in the college Little Theater by Maurine Thompson, contralto, assisted by Lydia Boothby, harpist, and Jean Long, accompanist.

The program will begin at 8:15 and will be open to the public free of charge.

Miss Thompson has been the recipient of the Presser and Juilliard scholarships and has done extensive studying in this country along with travel and study abroad.

She received her master's degree in music from Columbia university and has been connected with San Jose music for a number of years, making frequent appearances in oratorio, civic and church concerts.

Mrs. Boothby has been on the staff here for the past four years, coming here from Salt Lake City, where she had long been associated with music in school and professional circles.

Since 1940 she has been in charge of student music teachers at the college, and has made frequent appearances with the college orchestra and with community groups.

Red Cross Issues Instructions For SJS Knitters

Instructions for knitting Army sleeveless sweaters will be available for experienced knitters, if they will see Miss Bernice Tompkins, chairman of the campus unit of the Red Cross.

Those who can crochet will have a project of crocheting wash cloths. Supplies and instructions may be obtained in the Red Cross work room here.

June Storni and Joanne O'Brien, co-chairmen of the campus unit, request that all the women who have yarn and knitted garments out from last quarter to return them as soon as possible.

Home Ec Department Honors New Members

New members of the Home Economics department were guests at a tea in their honor last week.

They were introduced to the faculty and administrative officers of San Jose State college, and also to Home Economics teachers from the schools of San Jose.

Miss Fern Geyer is replacing Miss Sarah Dowdle in Institutional Management, and Miss Joyce Bolton is replacing Miss Winifred Reynolds in the Nursery school.

Motif of the decorations was autumn colors, carried out by gold and white chrysanthemums on the formal tea table.

Nurses' Aids Needed Now

Nurses' Aids met yesterday at 12:00 noon in the Red Cross work room to arrange for women students to sign applications for training, and to decide on the time the course will be offered.

Mrs. S. Kittredge, chairman of the special volunteer services of the San Jose chapter of the American Red Cross, and Mrs. W. R. Frost were present at the meeting and accepted the applications of the following women: Marie Sheurer, Maybelle Mackenzie, Dorothy Moody, Dorothy Sumner, Elinor Ironmonger, Marie Cervantes, Barbara Warfield, Margaret Cunha, Ann Sundby, Aloha Stokes, Jean Semasx.

Others are to come in later, according to Miss Tompkins, who urges women to sign up for the course. They may get application blanks and full information from her.

Classes will be given at the O'Connor Sanitarium, and not at the San Jose hospital as formerly planned.

The next meeting will be held in the campus Red Cross work room at 12:00 noon Friday.

Have a "Coke" = Eat, drink and enjoy yourself

... or adding refreshment to a backyard barbecue

Plenty of ice-cold Coca-Cola helps make any barbecue a success. Have plenty of "Coke" ice-cold and ready to drink. When you shop, remember to ask for Coca-Cola. Everywhere, Coca-Cola stands for the pause that refreshes,—has become a high-sign of hospitality in the American home.
