Art Department Sponsors Russian Bazaar

Skylight Members To Entertain at Russian Bazaar This Evening

THE ART STUDENTS PROMISE MERRY MAKING, GIFTS TO COLLEGE GUESTS

"Inexpensive Christmas presents that are different!" is the war cry of the Russian Peasant Bazaar given today from three to ten in the colorful domain of the Art department. Puppet and marionette shows, a Silver Tea, fortune telling booths and beautiful co-eds turned salesgirls in brilliant smocks, are among the added attractions.

The bazaar will wind up with the cheapest depression dance ever scheduled. Under the skilled direction of the Skylight Club, Art honorary society, this dance, also in the Russian motif, will be held from 7:30 to 9:30 tonight and will cost the princely sum of one cent a dance. It is in charge of Charlotte Howard, Skylight president.

The hand-made presents, which are the real feature of the bazaar, are of most exceptional quality, and the type usually bought for large sums in exclusive gift shops. However, since they are entirely the work of State students, the presents sell for very low prices. Artistic Christmas cards are also being sold and can be ordered at the bazaar.

This is the first Christmas bazaar to be given by the Art department, and from the gifts on sale and the variety of entertainment planned, it promises to be (Continued on Page 2)

MacQuarrie Says "We Just Have to Have That Stadium Soon"

Characterizing the stadium project as "something we just have to have," Dr. MacQuarrie yesterday informed a Times reporter of the latest developments in the new $20,000 project. Michael Antonacci, engineer for the city planning commission, is to complete the plans. Dr. MacQuarrie stated that a State Teachers College corporation would have to be formed to handle the contract for the stadium. This corporation would be temporary, but would perhaps later foster other such projects.

The excavation for the stadium is to begin in January. The stadium will be of the earth embankment type, with a sunken turf playing field, and with a seating capacity of 20,000. A public address system, facilities for radio broadcasting, dressing rooms, press box, and boxes for visiting scouts will be among the modern facilities included in the project.

Pageants and civic celebrations will probably be held in the new stadium in the future.

Dr. MacQuarrie stated that, although the new stadium would attract football players to the school, it would not affect the general growth of the student body. He mentioned that football was an education in itself, and as such, should have every possible convenience for fostering its future growth.

All lower division students should get their programs for the winter quarter approved now in room 103 and avoid the rush on registration day.

Aid Needy College Students By Going To Tea Saturday

PHI KAPPA PI SPONSORS SILVER TEA FOR STATE COLLEGE NEEDY

Have you ever been hungry? Have you ever had just five cents in your pocket that had to last you the whole week?

There are actually students going here to State who are in such predicament. The student body would be astonished if they knew the number of people, both boys and girls, who go without their meals in order to have a college education. Don't you think anyone who has the ambition and courage to go ahead in a situation as drastic as that needs encouragement and backing?

The Phi Kappa Pi society is giving a Silver Tea at the Woman's Club on December 3, from two o'clock until six o'clock. The proceeds from this tea will go to the Student Loan Fund of the San Jose State College. This money, however, will not go into the regular Student Loan Fund, but will be put aside for emergency cases. In this way the society hopes to relieve the critical financial condition. ### State Debaters Tangle in Forensic's Tussle With Santa Clarans

Friday evening, in the Little Theatre debaters of San Jose State College will meet three men from the University of Santa Clara on the question: Resolved, that the United States Should Cancel Its War Debts. The Philhistorians of Santa Clara are upholding the negative of the question.

Debaters from the University of Santa Clara are: Louis Pasquini, Patrick Hannon, and Fred Burton. Meeting them from this school are: Tom Needham, Joel Carter, and Charles Pinkham.

Popular Question

The question of war debts is proving to be one of the outstanding questions in the public mind today, and the local audience will undoubtedly find considerable interest in the forthcoming discussion.

Future Debate

There is a probable debate in the near future scheduled on the same question with San Mateo Junior College, and will be upheld by the same team from State College.

College Y. W. C. A. Will Hold Initiation Thursday Evening at 7:30

The Association meetings committee in starting plans for this fall's initiation ceremony which is to take place on Thursday evening of December 1, at 7:30 p. m., in Schofield Hall of the city Y. W. C. A. This will be followed by a reception where light refreshments will be served.

New fragrant evergreen boughs and firelight will enhance the effectiveness of the Christmas idea to be carried out in the decorations.

The initiation and reception will be the culmination of a very successful membership campaign which has brought in many new members, both student and faculty.

All women and faculty members interested in joining will be welcomed in Y room 14, between now and then to prepare for formal initiation.

Members of the Advisory Board (community and faculty women) are expected to be present; several of these are faculty members including Miss Jenks, Miss Dimmick, Miss Henzie, Dr. Kaucher, and Dr. Bertha Mason.

If the person who took the tennis racquet from the library entrance Friday morning, November 25th, around 10 o'clock will please return it to the Lost and Found no questions will be asked, otherwise more severe measures will be taken as the party is known.

Men's Mixer To Be Greatest Campus Hit at State for Dime

WOMEN TO BE EXCLUDED FROM COLLEGE AFFAIR THURSDAY EVENING

The greatest evening of entertainment that ever hit the campus for a dime will be sponsored by the Physical Education Majors Thursday night in the Men's Mixer.

The Men's Mixer is the first event of its kind to be attempted. Last year the intra-fraternity council sponsored several smokers, but the Men's Mixer is to be a campus affair given for the men students. It is the hope of the majors that this event will be successful enough to warrant its becoming an annual affair. Every man of the campus is invited and urged to attend.

The program, as arranged by Ed. Riley, Gordon Hague and Jack Mengel, has some of State's most talented students on the list. First there is that ever-popular orchestra which has so recently stepped to the spotlight of all San Jose State entertainment—Paul Cox and his band. Cox has arranged several new and clever musical numbers for the affair. Jack Fedanque, member of the band, and clever entertainer, will offer several novelty numbers.

Jerry Erwin promises that the Spartan Glee Club will be there with several new numbers. Erwin has worked hard to get the glee club in top notch condition for this program. Besides the glee club, there will be that entertaining quartet that won such great applause at the Junior Class Depression Follies two weeks ago. (Continued on Page 2)

Times Editor for Winter Quarter Will Be Appointed This Thursday

On Thursday, December 1st, the first official meeting of the quarter of the Publicity Board will be held to fill the much coveted position of Times Editor which will be left empty when James Fitzgerald finishes his present term on the 16th.

Due to the fact that the Times, as the official college publication, is one of the most powerful factors in student government on the campus, the position of Times Editor is one of the most important jobs on the Ex-Board. Consequently interest and competition run high at the end of every quarter when the next quarter's leader is appointed.

Members of the Publication

Board are: Leon Warmke, Student Body President; Frank Covello, Vice-president; Adele Melone, La Torre Editor; James Fitzgerald, present Times Editor; Edith Grier, Acting Student Secretary; Bud Applegarth, Chairman of Finance and Chairman of the Board, and Dr. Carl Holliday, Dr. Peterson and Mr. Thomas who act as faculty advisers.

Although the election is held tomorrow at noon the results will not be made public officially until tomorrow night when the annual Times banquet is held by members of the Times staff to honor the outgoing editor, greet and congratulate the incoming editor and to EAT.

T. M. Wright Speaks To Members of State Press Club

Mr. T. M. Wright, a newspaper veteran from San Jose, spoke to the members of the Press Club Thursday, November 17, in Room 1 of the Home-Making building, of his personal experiences in the field of journalism, and choosing it as a life work.

There have been many changes in journalism from the standpoints of both the writing and the mechanical. Papers used to be printed by hand-set type and then folded by little boys. Later came the machine press which also folded the papers at the time when they were printed. Still more wonders have been performed and the future holds more surprising developments. We now have the telephoto press which is a great asset to the newspaper business. The automatic typesetting machine which is now being developed. It is set up by electricity, in more than one city at the same time.

At one time, anyone with a little money could set up a paper, but the average newspaper man was not a business man. At first, money may be lost until enough circulation is gained and advertisements increased.

Journalism is very powerful. People wait for newspaper comment to decide questions. More and more people do not study things out for themselves, they wait for the newspaper to figure them out for them. There are the chain of newspapers such as that of Hearst, which may even elect a president. Do these papers do the thinking for the people?

Editorials once determined the policy of the paper. The editorial policy may follow the recommendation of the business office.

Life of a newspaper man is very diversified. They talk to the judges, policemen and many others and in this way observe many of the preny sides of life. They see physical, moral, and mental wrecks. Maybe they decide life is rotten. The front page headlines do not reflect American life. Newspaper game may lead a person to think of the false things of life.

Newspaper publicity is the most telling searchlight that can be turned on things in the world. Publicity ruins plans of many lovers of wrong. If they tell the truth of wrongs they will be do-

Ed. Riley Arranges Program for Men's Mixer on Thursday

BOXING, WRESTLING, AND SWIMMING ARE PUT ON PROGRAM

Ed. Riley has secured the cooperation of several of San Jose's best wrestlers to do several rounds for the show. The Bernardo brothers, holders of the Peninsula Athletic League championship for their weights, will be there to perform. And you should not fail to see the wrestling farce that Phiepers has worked up. It is a take-off of the London meets Lewis, or when Thornton battles the terrible Greek. And don't overlook that match between Cox and Collins.

A big surprise for the men of the college will be the appearance of Granfield Schofield in an boxing exhibition. This is the first time that Schofield has shown his ability to the college students. He has quite a reputation in the Bay region fight game for being a very promising heavy weight boxer.

Mr. Charles Walker has developed a very good program in the water sports for this evening's program. Diving, swimming, and water games are in line. This part of the program will be worth the evening's time as there are some excellent swimmers and water experts in the college.

This is the largest gathering of men students to assemble on the campus and is too good to miss.

Lynn Raymond Works on Russian Bazaar

very successful. Lynn Raymond, in charge of the whole affair, expresses the hope that it will be supported by the student body. She indicates that they will get more than their money's worth of fun, as well as an opportunity to buy marvelous Christmas presents and cards at low prices. "Do your Christmas shopping early," she says, "and come to the Russian Bazaar today."

Halley Cox is in charge of the decorations, while entertainment is under the general supervision of Eloise Leslie. Music will be furnished by Evelyn Hartman's orchestra.

ing the nation a favor. A rumor should never be published for fear of what it may lead to.

Journalism and journalists hold one of the keys of the handling of the whole problems of the nation. If done truthfully they can guide the nation through the present struggle. If they heed the political groups they will lose all force, of their work. Journalism is of much influence for the public good of our nation.

Students should not fail to know and take advantage of the many opportunities open in the field of journalism and the good of a truth journalist to the world.

Forum Discusses Fate of Tom Mooney on Last Monday Night

"Should we Free Mooney?" "Yes, and why not?" asked members of Monday evening's, November 21, student forum. The case of Tom Mooney brought to the last meeting of the forum, and proved to be one of the liveliest discussions yet presented by that group.

Students Speakers
The chair was turned over to Tom Needham and the regular chairman, Hubert Barry upheld the case of Mooney against James Strauss, who upheld the decisions of the courts and the governors of the State of California.

Both speeches were of exceptional interest, and with an abundance of material at their finger tips the speakers were able to answer quite capably the numerous questions that the group asked.

The Student Forum, sponsored by the Debate Club, is an organization open to all students of the college, and everyone is cordially invited to attend these very interesting Monday night discussion groups.

Hiking Club Goes To See John Brown's Home

Another victory was pinned up for the Hiking Club, as it stormed the John Brown hill Sunday.

It's rather a great thrill to behold those historical landmarks which have such interesting secrets in their silent make-up. Perhaps a good example of such a characteristic is the John Brown house. Standing lonely and silent among the evergreens on the top of the hill, this historical monument stares unblinkingly at the present-day civilization below. And as one stands before its portals, he can't help but reflect the chaos by which this same house was surrounded.

Everything is interesting because of one or more parts it plays in our daily life. Exercise plays a large part in our everyday life, therefore you should be interested in hiking. Those who dissipate over the week-end, pay for it, but those who participate in hiking over the week-end, pray for it.

So, remember, my darling young people, keep your eyes open for the next announcement of the "hike." You owe it to yourself to give that carcass, which you drag around on your back, some exercise. It's yours, so why not invest it for the future.

Miss Mabel Cumby of the Educational department, has written an interesting article on "Primary Reading," which is printed in the November issue of the Sierra Educational News.

Brereton Will Keep Position as Deputy in Santa Cruz Co.

IS HEAD OF POLICE DEPT. AT SAN JOSE STATE COLLEGE

In the face of much opposition and three petitions that are being circulated by the citizens of Santa Cruz County, G. H. Brereton of Cruz County, is to remain in the position of deputy to Sheriff A. T. Dresser of Santa Cruz County.

Brereton is at present conducting a class in criminology at State College and is known to many people on the campus. He has obtained a house on Walnut Avenue in Santa Cruz, and is prepared to stay there.

He states, "While I dislike to persist in the face of such opposition, I feel I am justified and that Sheriff Dresser is entirely right in appointing an out of town man to this position." A similar circumstance occurred when Chief of Police Vollmer of Berkeley at one time went to Los Angeles to fill a position.

At the vacancy created by the resignation of Cliff Jones, who was succeeded as undersheriff by A. W. Huddelson whose place in turn will be filled by Brereton, has been made possible by the recent appointment.

All-College Chapel Honors Historical Custom

A Thanksgiving message was delivered in the five-minute talk by the Reverend Benjamin Gould of the First Congregational Church, San Jose, at the All-College Chapel, Wednesday noon, November 23.

In the semi-darkness of the Little Theatre, Emily Swartz played "Melody" by Massenet, to a good-sized audience. Rev. Gould's address followed.

The Pilgrims, all they had to live and struggle for, the richness in experience which life holds for those who have to struggle were touched on by Rev. Gould, whose wide background includes extensive travel and an education under private tutors of England.

The Thanksgiving chapel services closed with musical selections by a special male quartet.

Reverend Shaller To Speak at College Chapel Today at Noon

Reverend A. J. Shaller, pastor of the Unitarian Church, will be the speaker of today's All-College Chapel in the Little Theater, at twelve o'clock.

The service consists of a few musical selections, followed by a five minute talk, after which a few minutes are enjoyed in which one may peacefully meditate and reflect. This Quakeresque type of worship has proven quite the necessary element in college life. The Y. M. C. A., with Philmore Gray, acting as head, are sponsoring these worthwhile services, and deserves a good deal of credit for their efforts.

No Beer Will Be Sold at Co-Op Upon Repeal

"The Co-Op will not sell beer if Prohibition is repealed or modified," was the very definite statement of Neil Thomas, State Comptroller. His words dashed the hopes of many students, especially the Times staff, who felt sure that State would uphold the will of the people. Visions of foaming steins balanced on every desk and chair by 1933 faded, and thirsty reporters drowned their disappointment in a good drink of water.

Estelle Hoisholt Is To Speak at G.E.M. Meeting Thursday

JEAN HAWLEY, DOROTHY O'BRIEN AND CLAIRE COOLIDGE WORK

Miss Estelle Hoisholt will speak to the extra-curricula group of the General Elementary Majors on Thursday, December 1st, at 7 o'clock in Room 1 of the Home-Making building. Miss Hoisholt will give her impressions of school children in foreign countries. Following this, she will lead a discussion group dealing with modern art problem in the school room. This meeting will be of special interest to all students who are to do their student teaching next quarter, as many of the problems that arise during the teaching will be discussed. Jean Hawley, Dorothy O'Brien, and Claire Coolidge, are in charge of the meeting, with Mrs. Elizabeth C. Walsh as the faculty adviser.

Santa Clara University students have "adopted" 17 Indian children of the Pima reservation near Phoenix, Ariz. The students will keep the adopted ones on the reservation and will send them money and clothing to care for them. This is being done as an experiment in education.

College Y.W.C.A. Affiliated With National and World Wide Organizations

The San Jose State Y. W. C. A. is a member of the Young Women's Associations of the United States of America and so affiliated with the World's Y. W. C. A., one of the 45 student movements affiliated with the World's Student Christian Federation and employs one of the 72 secretaries resident on college campuses.

The Student Movement of the Y. W. C. A. is a fellowship of students who are united in the desire to realize full and creative life through a growing knowledge of God and in the determination to have a part in making such life possible for all people.

The largest proportion of members is made up of undergraduates: White and negro, American Indians in government schools, and foreign students. A smaller, but highly important group are the graduate students, faculty women, and alumnae.

The Y. W. C. A. Women's Christian Movement is rapidly growing in significance as one of the most searching and powerful social and religious forces of America. It is doing pioneer work in methods of social education, and it is profoundly creative in intention and fact.

Internationally speaking, the World's Student Christian Federation, including Student Associations of the Y. W. C. A. and of the Y. M. C. A. which have been affiliated with the Volunteer Movement since 1895.

The American movements, including the Student Volunteer Movement, elected representatives to the general committee of the Federation. This general committee meets every two years and its latest session was in Zeist, Holland, where our own Y. W. C. A. Secretary, Miss Aalf, was a representative in 1932.

Membership in our Student Movement means membership in a world-wide women's movement, something which is extremely important today.

Spartan Knights in Panic as Plans Are Made for New Room

MEMBERS WILL RENOVATE QUARTERS IN COMMERCE BUILDING

According to the Spartan Knights, they're going to do it. Yes, they are going to remodel their room, make it over and re-furnish it too. This job has been allotted to Perry Stratton and Carl Palmer, while Junior Wilson with the help of Dick Sanders, will take charge of the furnishings. The Knights expect to have their room done over by the beginning of next quarter.

Ever since the Knights took charge of their present room, they have made plans to fix it up. Up to this time they have never had enough of what it takes, but conditions have taken a change for the better and the room will now be covered with panels of sackcloth, with wrought-iron electrical fixtures. A radio, rug, Chesterfield set, and two over-stuffed chairs will consist of the furnishings, to say nothing of a couple of floor lamps.

Spartan Glee Club Presents First Concert Soon

The Spartan Glee Club will make its first appearance of the quarter at the Unitarian Church at 7:30 o'clock on Sunday night, December the 11th.

Spartans Tie For Conference Honors As Percentage System Gives Break To Nevada Wolves; Prospects Bright

Future Teams May Profit
From Methods Used
By F. W. C.

Final Far Western Conference Standings

School	Won	Lost	Tied	Pct.
S. J. State	3	0	2	1.000
Nevada	2	0	1	1.000
Chico State	2	1	0	.667
Pacific	2	2	0	.500
Cal. Aggies	1	4	0	.200
Fresno State	0	3	1	.000

By Theron Fox

Now that Nevada has tied San Jose State in the race for Far Western Conference football honors, many of the Spartan fans are seeking a new rule regarding the deciding of championships.

The 1932 rule which was based on percentages, worked a hardship on San Jose without a doubt. Had the championship been figured on a point basis, the Spartans would have won the title without a struggle.

It does not seem fair, however, that a team should be handicapped because it does not meet all of the conference opponents. It does not often happen as it did this year that two of the best teams in the conference do not play. Usually it is one of the strongest teams in the conference that does not play one of the weakest.

The present percentage rule was placed in the rules when St. Mary's and the University of San Francisco were members of the Far Western Conference. At that time there were many weak sisters in the circuit who were not strong enough to meet the Gaels.

As a matter of fact the Gaels were forced out of the Far Western Conference because they were unable to book enough conference contests. After beating the College of the Pacific by a 68-0 score, not one of the teams other than Nevada were willing to take them on in a contest.

Now many San Joseans think that the rule regarding percentages and points should be changed. If such a change were to be made, San Jose might be the one to suffer in the long run.

At the present time, San Jose State looms as the strongest factor in the Far Western Conference. It is not at all impossible that San Jose may within a few years be on a par with St. Mary's, Stanford, and California.

If that is the case San Jose will have trouble scheduling games with all conference members. If such grew to be the case, San Jose stands to be the one to lose in the long run.

Hasty changes are not to be desired.

Nervous! We'll say that Jack Wool was when he was called upon to give a speech after being selected as the team's most valuable player.

"I want to thank you for electing me as the most honorable player—" Then he was greeted with the razz. According to the sentiment expressed, valuable does not mean honorable.

Marian Barnes def. Helen Bing, 4-6, 6-3, 6-1.

The semi-final matches are:

Kay Berger vs. Lillian O'Hanlon.

Dorothy Turner vs. Marian Barnes.

Out of the four interclass hockey games already played this season, the Senior Major team holds the honors at the present time with two wins and no losses. Six more games have yet to be played and almost anything can happen when one takes into consideration the keen competition and low scores that have been characteristic of the games already played.

Following is a list of the games played: Sophomore Composite def. Frosh Major, 7-0; Junior Majors def. Frosh Non-majors, 6-0; Senior Majors def. Frosh Majors, 3-2; Soph. Composite def. Frosh Non-majors, 7-0.

Games on schedule yet to be played are:

Frosh Non-Majors vs. Senior Majors, Frosh Majors.

Frosh Majors vs. Sophomore Composite, Frosh Non-Majors, Junior Majors.

Junior Majors vs. Sophomore Composite, Frosh Majors, Senior Majors.

Senior Majors vs. Frosh Non-Majors, Junior Majors.

According to Miss Hardenburg, who is in charge of inter-class hockey, the Senior and Junior teams look strongest and probably have the best chance to win the series. However, they have been given good battles by the lower class teams and might be upset yet. The Frosh Non-Majors, though they have lost both of their games, are fighters and may, with a little more experience, develop into a real menace to the upper class teams.

Vivienne Barrachi "Winnows" took first place honors in the women's intra-mural volleyball series by defeating Lois Lloyd's "Seats" in two out of three of the final games played last Tuesday at 12:00 o'clock. The Seats took the first game, 15-13, but with a good rally the Winnows came back and took the next two games, 15-13, and 15-11.

As winners of this intra-mural series, the Winnows have chal-

W. A. A. President Writes on Abolishment of Athletic Awards

This is the second of a series of letters on the subject of the abolishment of Women's Athletic Awards. Any girl having any ideas on these questions should write to the Times.

Should individual awards for participation in sports be abolished? This is the question before the members of the Women's Athletic Association. But before you answer, let me ask of you—What is the purpose of athletics? Why do we participate in sports? It is not our goal to play for the sake of playing—to run, to jump, to leap, to reach, for the pure joy of running, jumping, leaping, reaching? We love activity—it is the very essence of living! Why, then, should we defeat our purpose; or even mar its beauty by offering awards for this activity?

Last year the Women's Athletic Association took a step forward in abolishing the point system. Up until that time an award was given after a girl had competed in a certain number of sports. We, the members of W. A. A., realized that this evaluation was narrow and tried to amend by discarding numbers and awarding block sweaters by an honorary system. But, what person or what committee can say that this girl should have a block sweater and this girl should not? Character, sportsmanship, personality, leadership are such subjective measurements—how can we humans judge one another?

We have taken one step, let us take another. Let us lead, so that others may follow. Let us uphold the high ideal of sport that justly becomes it. Let us abolish all artificial incentives, motives and awards. Let us play for the pure joy of playing!

All the way from Carolina a boy is coming to enroll in San Jose State's school of police administration, reports Chief Black who has had a letter from the boy's father, J. E. Smith, who is Chief of Police of Greenville, South Carolina.

Mr. Smith is sending his son to San Jose State to perfect him in police work and this certainly indicated that the police school is gaining national recognition.

Spartan Spasms

By Murdock and Bishop

As the curtain comes down on the 1932 football campaign, we find the prospects for 1933 to be exceedingly bright. With every member of the present squad, except Moore and Wool, eligible for further competition and some splendid material coming up from the frosh, the horizon looks anything but dim. DeGroot's only problem appears to be to find another Wool, and players like Jack don't come along every day in the week. That Dud will hit upon another triple threat artist who can do everything so well does not seem likely. George Embury comes the nearest to filling the bill among the present backs, and we may see this slim-legged, 140 pound backfield ace as the spark-plug of the Spartan attack next season.

To elaborate a bit on that item about Francis Pura being the most improved player on the squad. Up to the start of the present season, Francis had never played any football. Starting from scratch, as it were, he came along rapidly toward the end of the season, seeing action against Marin, Cal. Aggies, and Weber. All of which is pretty good for a man who never played football before.

Major Frank Cavanaugh, the famous "Iron Major" who has built Fordham up from a "little school" to a "somebody" in the football world, is slowly going blind. Wartime wounds have gradually taken their toll, and the present season is his last in the profession of coaching. Two great intersectional victories over St. Mary's and Oregon State have served to make the Major's final season one of his greatest.

Ballyhoo seems to class Alabama's great "Hurricane" Cain with the Nevess, Thorpes, and Granges, but we're from Missouri.

Basketball season is just around the corner. Why not drop into the gym some afternoon and get a line on "Mac's" 1932-33 cagers.

That "Wool to Hubbard" passing combination has clicked for three years. It ought to rank up there somewhere with the now famous "Sobrero to Slavich" affair.

Advanced to the third round of the intra-mural tennis tournament 13 men remain undefeated with the Freshmen and Sophomores battling for first place with five men each still participating.

The third round ends Thursday noon and there are several matches that are yet to be played before that time.

Matches scheduled for this week are: McGregor-Russell; Lindener-Slavich; Erwin-Sanders; Rapport-Simerely; Foster-Barney.

Interclass volleyball try-outs will be held Wednesday noon at 12 o'clock on the field. All girls who have been in classes or who have played at least one week are eligible for class teams. A first and second team will be chosen to represent each class. Girls who wish to try out must wear gym shoes, but do not have to wear suits.
