Nominations for Quarterly Offices Scheduled Today

FIRST ELECTION WITHOUT POLITICAL PROPAGANDA AT STATE

Nominations for the quarterly student body offices are to be called for today at a special assembly to be held at eleven o'clock.

At that time nominations will be opened for Forensic Representative, Chairman of Student Affairs, and Music Representative.

A special program presented at this meeting will consist of a one-act play featuring Sva Beryl Tree and Louis Scales, and songs by Raymond Jans. Joel Carter will lead a men's quartette.

This will be the first meeting to be held after the recent action of the Executive Board banishing all posters or political propaganda during the elections, and inaugurating short speeches by all nominees following their nominations.

Student officers elected from the nominees presented at today's assembly will be in charge of most of the activities for next quarter—a fact in itself that should assure a full house at the meeting.

Besides being the first nominations passed since the new ruling it will also be the first major school election held this year.

Leon Warmke, president of the student body, will be in charge of the meeting.

GLOBE TROTTERS MEET WEDNESDAY NOON FOR CHRISTMAS FESTIVITIES

Imagine celebrating Christmas Eve in a chapel in Bethlehem, or even hearing about as the Globe Trotters will be privileged to do Wednesday noon, December 7, in Room 1 of the Home-Making building, when they hear it described by Mrs. David Evans.

One and one-half years spent in traveling around the world makes Mrs. Evans a speaker of much general knowledge of travel and three months in the Holy Land has given her specific relationship to her subject for discussion.

No doubt, you will enjoy hearing of her expedition through these Holy Lands on foot.

After hearing "Christmas in Palestine" you won't hardly be able for the depression to expire to "see for yourself."

Shall awards for participation in sports be abolished? This is the question confronting the Women's Athletic Association. If the joy of activity enough reward, or should prizes be given to those who participate?

In the Little Theatre on Friday, December 12, at 12:30, all women interested in this question are asked to meet for a general discussion. Every one may state her opinion, after which a vote will be taken on whether or not the W. A. A. committee should revise the constitution to abolish awards.

All-College Chapel Featuring Will L. Chandler Tomorrow

IS ONE OF SERIES PUT ON DURING PAST QUARTER

Mr. Will L. Chandler, general secretary of the San Jose Y. M. C. A., will speak at the All-College Chapel service Wednesday, from 12:00 to 12:15, in the Little Theatre. Mr. Chandler has made quite a name for himself in the eight years he has been in San Jose, being prominent in civic affairs of the city.

He comes to speak with a rich, varied, and colorful background, having been prominent in Eastern and National circles of the Y. M. C. A., doing a great deal of traveling in that capacity.

Students and faculty will look forward to hearing Mr. Chandler, who knows college life and college people.

The soloist for the service will be Joel Carter, baritone, who received great acclaim in the recent student recital. Seldom has a singer taken the college group by storm as did Mr. Carter, and it will be a great pleasure and opportunity to hear this prominent vocalist.

All students and faculty are invited to avail themselves of this opportunity.

Juniors and Seniors Will Hold Joint Meeting December 8

A get-together meeting will be held by the Juniors and Seniors who meet jointly December 8th at eleven o'clock, in the Woman's Gym.

A gala luncheon, dancing, and entertainments featuring Dorothea Love in a dance solo, and Barney Pritchard in song numbers, are on the program.

The joint committee is headed by Adah Mae Rhodes (Seniors), and Harry Jennings (Juniors).

Neil Thomas promises to be on hand in the capacity of general master of ceremonies, and Santa Claus has been secured for a personal appearance.

EDUCATION NOTICE

All students intending to enroll in Ed. 141, Observation and Participation for the winter quarter should decide on their observation hours and then see Miss DeVore in Room 155, between 2:00 and 5:00 p. m. Wednesday, December 7.

SUPERVISOR A. HUBBARD PASSES AWAY AT HOME AFTER SUDDEN ILLNESS

The death of Supervisor Al Hubbard comes as a blow to the entire county and as a decided shock to San Jose State, where Mr. Hubbard's two sons are.

The College extends its utmost sympathy to and grieves with Bill and Bud Hubbard in the loss of their father.

Mr. Hubbard was not only highly thought of as a friend to innumerable San Joseans, but was recognized as one of the city's chief community leaders.

Mr. Hubbard was a county supervisor, a Knights Templar, a Shriner, a Modern Woodman, and a member of Odd Fellows, Native Sons, Elks, Lions and Commercial Clubs.

The death of Mr. Hubbard will be particularly felt in the charity field as he has been instrumental in many "Unemployment Relief" projects.

Musical Half-Hour, which featured Arthur Lack, violinist, and Dean Keesler, accompanist, was enjoyed by members of the faculty, students and friends of the college. Y. W. C. A. is to be thanked a great deal for arranging these delightful programs.

Leon Warmke Will Head Committees for Spring Activity

ORGANIZATIONS ARE TO BE IN CHARGE OF ALL CONCESSIONS

A mammoth carnival has been scheduled for San Jose State some time during the spring quarter by the unanimous vote of the College executive board last Thursday afternoon.

As planned, the carnival will consist of thirty-six concessions, and will contain all of the glamor and color that is connected with carnivals throughout the country.

Warmke Leads

Leon Warmke, president of the student body, who inaugurated the was in charge of a similar affair while he was president of the student body at San Jose High School, and at that time, the carnival cleared over a thousand dollars and probably will raise a comparable amount for the student fund at San Jose State.

Organizations Participate

All concessions are to be in charge of college organizations that will run them at the gala affair.

This is the first time in the history of the school that such an affair has been scheduled, and from advanced enthusiasm it is expected that it will be the leading activity of the college during the present year.

"Smilin' Through" Will Be Presented on Evenings of December 15 and 16

The annual Christmas presentation by San Jose State College in the matter of dramatic art on the evenings of December 15th and 16th, will this year embody the "spirit of love that comes Smilin' Through the years." The play, entitled "Smilin' Through", exemplifies on emotion that is responsible for all the goodness in the world, and since the spirit of Christmas is borne astride an abundance of this emotion, the play should strike a chord of tenderness in the hearts of those who look upon Christmas as an instrument of the holy words, "Peace on earth, good will toward men."

Under the direction of Hugh Gillis, the cast is responding wonderfully to the story's whimsical and powerful appeal. Outstanding thus far in the characterizations are the two old men, Dr. Harding and John Carteret, played respectively by Wallace Murray and Maurice Travis. Their many scenes together carry a weight of power indicative of their life-long friendship, and a plentiful display of humor prompted by their eccentricities as old men in rather a period of "second childhood." Murray and Travis seemed to have caught the spirit of this friendly antagonism and characterize it in a subtle and whimsical manner.

The cast is as follows: Dr. Harding, played by Wallace Murray; John Carteret, played by Maurice Travis; Kenneth Wayne by Sherman McFedrias; Ellen by Virginia Maddox; Willie by George Paulus; Kathleen-Mooneyen has been double cast and will be played one night by Dorothy Viera and the other by Mary Liles.

Symphony Appears in First Concert of Year Tonight in Auditorium

This evening at 8:15, the San Jose State College Symphony orchestra will make its first public appearance for the current school year in the Morris Dailey auditorium.

The orchestra for the second year is under the direction of Adolf Otterstein, head of the music department, and for this concert Jan Kalas, member of the departmental faculty, will wield the baton during "Tales from the Vienna Woods."

In accordance with the plans started last year for the appearance of one student soloist at each concert, Miss Doris Kinne, talented violinist, will play "Symphonie Espagnole" by Edouard Lalo.

The concert, as in the past, will be free of charge.

Fresno State, Nevada Break Grid Relations

Four S. J. Gridders Given Positions on Conference Team

LOCALS WIN THREE PLACES ON SECOND TEAM; HUBBARD NAMED

In an All-Conference team picked by "Buddy" Leitch of the San Jose News, with the advise of Coaches Dud DeGroot and Bill Hubbard, which appeared in Saturday evening's paper, San Jose placed four men, as did Nevada, with whom the Spartans share the championship. The local team also placed three men on the second team and five on the third, with one getting honorable mention.

First Team

Spartan Spasms

By Murdock and Bishop

An' was HIS face red?? Mr. Stan Borleske, the recently deposed mentor of Fresno State College, has committed a very unique faux pas. He picked a man on his 1932 All-Conference team who graduated last June and who hasn't so much as had a football suit on since the fall of 1931. The gentleman in question is Charlie Segestrom, Pacific's great center of a few years ago. Apparently laboring under the delusion that Mr. Segerstrom was still participating in the gridiron frays, Borleske honored him with a position on his all-star team which is a practical demonstration of just how much an "All" team means. Segestrom was reported to be resting easily after the shock which resulted when he received the news in his home in Sonora.

We thought that the Spartans had cornered some kind of a record when they played against TWO one-armed men in one season, but Ball High School of Galveston, Texas, has gone them one better. They have TWO one-armed guards on the SAME team, and both regulars too. Furthermore, they are both named William, they were both born in 1915, and they both came into the world minus an arm. One has his left arm missing and the other his right. One wears number 6 and the other number 9.

We see that the student body of the University of Nevada is no more leashed with the way the Conference ended than are State students. Similarly, as the Spartans base their claims of superiority in the number of games played, the Reno lads point to the edge on statistics which they had in the San Jose game. Ah, but they still pay off on points, you Wolves!

Spartans who have made good—Ralph Smalling, brother of "Chuck" Smalling, who was a member of the San Jose State football squad in 1928, is a substitute half-back on Coach Jimmy Phelan's Washington Huskies and made the trip to U. C. L. A.

We see by the papers (Ah, what would we do without the papers), that Fresno has severed football relations with Nevada. Tsk! Tsk! The Wolves will have to find another Conference team to fill out their quota of THREE next year. How disconcerting!

Simoni-ese Twins

Dario "Si" Simoni, outstanding Spartan tackle of the 1932 season who was chosen on the San Jose News All-Far Western Conference team.

Spartan Coach May Be Given Chance as Assistant Mentor

MANY CANDIDATES WILL BID FOR JOB TO REPLACE WARNER

With the announcement of the resignation of Glenn Scobey "Pop" Warner, a local paper coupled the name of Dud DeGroot, San Jose State mentor, with the Stanford job, as an assistant coach.

Following a discussion of the possible successors the paper stated, "In the event that any one of these is moved up to head coach, strong possibility looms that Dud DeGroot, Stanford captain before Warner's day, who has enjoyed great success coaching at San Jose State this year, may move back to the farm as an assistant coach."

Dario Simoni has refused to make a statement either way concerning his supposed engagement. The Times hopes to be able to make a statement next week.

CAPTAIN HUBBARD IS NAMED AS BEST END

Captain Bud Hubbard, unanimously recognized as the leading end of the Far-Western Conference, received an additional honor when he was selected as a member of Fresno State College's All-Opponent team which was chosen by Coach Stan Borleske. Bud shared with three Nevada men the distinction of being the only Far-Western Conference players to make the team. Washburn College of Kansas, contributed four men, the West Coast Army two, and La Verne one. The team follows:

Ends—Crank, Washburn; Hubbard, San Jose State.
Tackles—Price, Army; Thies, Nevada.
Guards—Besseyfi, La Verne; Haynes, Nevada.
Center—Grout, Washburn.
Quarterback—Green, Army.
Halfbacks—J. Hill, Nevada; Edwinton, Washburn.
Fullback—Malang, Washburn.

Fresno-Nevada Break Athletic Relations

Citing the treatment alleged received by the Fresno team a year ago as the basis for the break, Fresno State College has refused to schedule the University of Nevada as football opponent for 1933. The signing of such a contest would have necessitated a trip to Reno inasmuch as the Wolfpack journeyed to Fresno this season.

"Nevada men—students and ex-students—insulted our players on the bench and in the dressing room when we played in Reno," said Emory Ratcliffe, faculty member and chairman of the board of directors, in commenting on the break to the press.

Frosh Defeats Seniors In Speedball Game

The intra-mural between the Frosh and the Senior class soccer teams was held last Wednesday about five o'clock. Regardless of how much you might have enjoyed the last circus you saw, you missed a real show when you failed to see that game.

Harry Krytzer showed his true ancestors to have been mud heels. Morrie Williams, as goal keeper, didn't get so dirty, but had a hard time dodging an exceedingly well ball as the Frosh made seven fast goals. Young Biddle covered himself with much glory and much more mud; the young Covello showed a taste for dirty water that his brother never seems to have developed. The game of water soccer ended in an eight to nothing victory for the Freshmen, and a good show for all.

We notice that there is a large supply of cinders out at Spartan Field. An obvious deduction is that a cinder track is in the offing. With the establishment of such an improvement all that would be needed to make the plant perfect would be a 220 straightaway.
