San Jose State has done its share in previous years in fact more than its share in the last two years—to make the local campus a success. Such a gratifying result would be a rewarding goal.

We have been assigned the quota of $3,000.00. The willing support of the entire student body and faculty will make the accomplishment of this task quite simple. Our chair men are justified in requesting everyone on the campus to do his part.

TWENTY-FIVE MEN TO LEAVE FOR FIRST LONG TRIP OF GRID SEASON

Spartan Yearlings Ready For Indian Babe Battle With Stanford Tomorrow

San Jose State gridders will pull out of the S.J. depot tomorrow, intent on just one thing. Faced by one of the strongest grid teams in the state, their charges are determined to keep a somewhat tarnished slate in the season's rear.

As an all-star aggregation, this Spartan Athletic Club is, in fact, the State's one of the strongest games of the season. Boiled down by names such as Beckrich, Duncan, Ehrhorn and a number of other West stars, the club team should give the Spartans a merry evening on the down-state turf.

Buckirk had a reputation for blinding speed at Santa Clara, and he had better be watched prudently. He was the Besens's touchdown against Cal State last year at the last minute with a busy catch of Judinich's forward pass.

Dave Barre, George Embady and Johnny Hines on the list. Hines is still rather doubtful as he has been bothered with a bad ankle and DeGroot may save him for the Conference game. Barre is also able to shift to left half at short notice.

The quarter back unit will be filled by big left half "Sarge" Cordoba, with Howard Wulfing as a capable substitute. Howard has been out for some time, but should be in shape to face the club men. "Red" Delahanty is also down as a quarter back, but the "black man" is a capable man, being one of the best halfbacks of the season.

The regular left halves will be Fran ports and Dickey Bennett, although "Red" Wood may be included in the lineup. DeGroot is looking for Ports and Bennett to put the heavier Santa Barbara team in a hole with a few slashing runs.

At night half, either Ray Arjo or Vorrath, and Rice fighting it out for the two weak Santa Barbara teams.

Willis will start, both men being good, at right half. Either Ray Arjo or Vorrath, and Rice fighting it out for the two weak Santa Barbara teams.

The California Ranger last year's foe, of San Jose State.

STATE FROSH TO SHOOT THE WORKS AGAINST THE STANFORD BABES

Any hope we can get from Stanford apparently does not look promising as far as our own junior squad is concerned when they meet the Stanford teams at the Palo Alto stadium on Wednesday evening in a preliminary for the Cardinal Athletic games.

LINE POWERFUL

It appears to be that the Cardinal forwards will feature the four key points in the games and will assist the power defense in which the Montros have been last on a bad break after losing the last two minutes of action. The final score was 6-5, E. S. C. Fresh, Stanford Fresh.

Spartans came from behind to tie game in last minutes of play.

MINUTE REVIVERS

Freshmen football teams turned the tide and the freshman offense made a grand fourth quarter effort to secure the victory.

The Genius

"Nobody ever comes to see me. Not a damn soul, except a few young artists and they don't count. It makes me wild. The greatest mind in the world, and here I am, and nobody comes to see me."

—Mahatma Gandhi

Here is an artist, a former sign painter, who is an acknowledged genius. Critics say that in a few hours he has created more than adolescent chatter and mediocre paintings, yet he never produces a painting. Until Eilshemius produced more than adolescent chatter and mediocre paintings, nobody will come to see him.
