

California Student Teachers association will hold its first meeting of the year at 3:30 p.m. today in room 155, announced Dick Bartels, president. Plans for the coming year will be discussed, he pointed out.

Any students planning on attending the Pepperdine game at Inglewood Saturday night are asked to drop a note to Al Raffaelli, "R" box in the Coop, so that tickets may be secured for them. Persons driving also should contact him.

SENIOR WINIFRED HELM APPOINTED TO SUCCEED LOGAN AS CHIEF JUSTICE

By MERLE BLONDIN and BOB HEISEY

Winifred Helm, former junior justice on the student court was appointed to succeed Bill Logan as chief justice of that body at a meeting of the student council yesterday afternoon in the Student Union. Logan in a letter to the student council had strongly recommended Miss Helm as his successor and Student Body President Tommy Wall expressed his desire to follow the recommendation. The vote of the council was eight to four.

Following this Logan was appointed representative-at-large to the College Life Committee at the recommendation of Joe H. West, adviser to the council, and faculty member of the committee.

The College Life Committee was formed to explore anything that concerns the student body.

ADVANTAGE

West explained the advantage of having a hold-over member to guide the new committee in its first meetings.

A letter from Dale LaMar requesting consideration for the appointment to fill the second vacancy on the committee was read to the council by Wall and discussion was tabled for the next meeting.

The next old business discussed and passed was the new rules concerning use of the datebook in Dean Dimmick's office. These will soon be published in the Spartan Daily.

Class election dates were next set by the council as follows; nomination assembly, Tuesday, October 26; first election, Friday, October 29; and run-off election, Wednesday, November 3.

COMMITTEE-OF-ONE

Bill Swasey, senior representative to the council was appointed as a committee-of-one to investigate the possibility of one of the service organizations constructing a trophy case to hold the ever-increasing awards the college is accumulating.

The plaque won at Camp Minnawana by San Jose State college representatives to the camp of American Youth Foundation for Christian Leadership was presented to the council by Bruce Craig.

The council next appropriated $119 for the printing of an additional 1000 copies of the campus Compass to be distributed to interested students.

PARKING PERMITS

Bill Swasey's recommendation that the council do something about procuring overnight parking permits for students was rejected by the council following the decision that publication of where students can get them is sufficient.

The permits may be purchased at the city hall annex for $1.00 for a six-month period.

The appointment of a junior justice to fill the vacancy left by Miss Helm's promotion to chief justice was tabled for action at the next meeting of the council to enable members to consider likely candidates.

Pat Walsh, senior representative, stated the requirements for the junior justice position are a total of 75 units and a clear scholastic standing. The term will last until February.

College Life Body Resumes Activities For Fall Quarter

Committee on College Life will resume its activities this quarter, according to Joe H. West, dean of personnel and guidance.

Established last year as a liaison between the faculty and students, it then numbered three faculty members and three students. West stated that the membership has been raised to five faculty and five student members.

Among topics slated for discussion this quarter, Mr. West listed a study of future Freshman camps, a similar study on State camp, and a discussion on campus racial discrimination practices.

"We hope to initiate a survey of discrimination practices on campus," said Mr. West. "As an outcome of that survey, we hope there will be some definite program for the lessening of any discrimination practices that exist."

Mr. West stated that a committee consisting of faculty and students representing various groups on campus will be appointed to conduct the survey.

Any other problems referred to the committee by any faculty or student source will be acted on, Mr. West stated.

First meeting of the committee is being held up until the return of Dean James DeVoss, former chairman of the committee, who is now absent from the campus because of ill health.

Wallace Denied Campus Speech

FRESNO, Calif., Oct. 4—Students of Fresno State college will be admitted without charge to hear third party presidential candidate Henry A. Wallace when he speaks here tonight.

Wallace was scheduled to speak to the students on the campus of the college this afternoon, but his appearance was cancelled by college officials when they received numerous telephone calls from townspeople objecting to the meeting.

Directories Soon To Be Available

Student Directory, handbook of names, addresses, and numbers, is now being formulated by members of Spartan Knights chapter of Blue Key, according to Chairmen Roy Bertorelli and Carl Holmberg.

The booklet is an annual project of the campus service fraternity. Last year the Knights sold 2500 copies to students and faculty members. The number to be distributed this year is indefinite as yet. Probably more are needed to meet the increase enrollment.

Enter Your Political Prognostications With Spartan Daily

Whom do YOU think will be the next president of the United States.

With campaign trains roaring coast to coast carrying candidates to every hamlet and village for the most thorough coverage of history, the present furor is touching more people than ever before.

As time sweeps on toward the November 4 deadline, arguments become more and more heated. Ideas fly thick and fast.

In an attempt to present a cross-section of political thinking on Washington Square, the Spartan Daily is throwing its columns open to student opinion.

Contributions should answer the question, "Whom do you think will be the next president of the United States?" Your ideas must not exceed 200 words. Contributions must be limited in this manner because of lack of space in the paper.

All articles must be signed by the author and include his ASB number. This must be done to prevent abuse of the privilege, use of the columns for propaganda.

The editorial staff reserves the right to edit copy to conform to news style. Ideas will not be changed. As many articles will be run as possible, in so far as there is no conflict with spot news.

Contributions will be accepted in the Spartan Daily office, B-93.

Students Report To A.S.B. Office

The following persons are requested to report to Esther Weakly, John Peterson, or Bill Logan from 10:30 to 12:30 in the ASB office any day this week:

Rally Tomorrow For Saturday Night Game

There will be a rally tomorrow at 12:30 p.m. between the library and the Student Union. The rally will be to build up spirit for the Pepperdine game to be held Saturday night in Los Angeles.

According to Al Raffaelli, chairman of the rally committee, the band will participate, as will the song girls, the yell leaders, and at least one of the football coaches.

Cal Veteran Should Estimate Supply Fees

California Veterans are requested by Mrs. May Barton to be sure to bring in their estimates on what they expect to spend during the quarter for books and supplies. Estimates should be taken to room 32 by Friday, Oct. 8.

SHAKESPEARIAN TRAGEDY TO STAR CALDERWOOD; CLANCY ALSO FEATURED

By JEAN STEVENS

Preparation for the Speech and Drama department's impending production of King Lear is now under way, with the cast of 27 chosen by Dr. James Clancy, director. The play is scheduled to run from October 28 through November 2 in the Little Theater.

John Calderwood, veteran stage performer, Edmund; bastard son to the Earl of Gloucester, Matt Pelto plays Gloucester, and Jackson Young, Edgar, Gloucester's lawful son. King Lear will be portrayed by Dr. James Clancy.

DAUGHTERS

Lear's eldest daughters, Regan and Goneril are played by Gwen Samuelson and Shirley Wilber. His third daughter Cordelia is played by Gwenn Dam.

As is often his way, Shakespeare in King Lear has given the atmosphere of a far-off barbaric age, when human passions were violent and unrestrained, and men worshipped strange gods; together with circumstances of his own day, such as the conduct of the duel, and the place of the jester in the household of his master.

TRAGEDY

The tragic consequences of Lear's decision to divide his kingdom between his two eldest daughters and to banish Cordelia for not eloquently expressing her filial devotion to him, form the main plot of the play. The subplot deals with the struggle between the two sons of the Earl of Gloucester and the fate of the Earl.

The remainder of the student cast includes Don Holladay as the Earl of Kent; Bill Furnell as the King of France; Carlton Albertson as the Duke of Burgandy; Jim Forester, Duke of Cornwall; Don Lev, Duke of Albany, Don Pearlman, Curan; Orestes, D'Anna, Lear's Fool; Oswald, Conrad Smith; Old Man, John Haydon; Charles Fausetta, Doctor; Ladie.

WAITING LADIES

Dot Williams and Janice Cattermole play the two Ladies in Waiting. Glendon Heath, Bob Wiebee, Bob Barmettler, Charles Perez, Harold Alpson, Ted Hook, Jim Jensen, take the parts of soldiers, attendants, and gentlemen.

British and French costumes of the 13th century are to be furnished by the department's costume division.

MUSIC STUDENTS

Dr. Lyle Downey, head of the Music department, has requested that all music students meet at 3:30 this afternoon in Morris Dailey auditorium.

SPARTOONS

By Al Johns

"Eyes on your own paper, Mr. Hardwitz!"

"So this is how they ring the chimes!"

Scuse, Please . . .

If you are among the 7000 some-odd San Jose State students (and faculty) who were slightly confused over the sensibility of the two Al Johns cartoons run last week—if you are included then the Spartan Daily has run them again today for you.

No wonder you couldn't figure them out. The caption for Monday's cartoon went on Thursday's cartoon, and the caption for Thursday's cartoon—well, what's the use? The correct cartoons with the correct captions are above.

"Eskay" Productions Will Return To SJS This Sunday Evening With Top Selections

Sunday night movies will be resumed by the Spartan Knights, men's service fraternity, according to co-chairmen Ray Bishop and Al Raffaelli.

Instituted last year as a regular Sunday evening feature, the Knights plan to bring back more of the films requested by the student body.

"The Spartan Knights are bringing to the campus this year roadshow movies that top the selections presented last year," said Bishop.

The "Eskay Productions" will start the season rolling this Sunday evening at 7:30 with "State Fair." The film stars such notables as Jeanne Crain, Dick Haymes, Vivian Blaine, Dana Andrews, and Charles Winninger.

According to Raffaelli, who arranges for the showing of the films at San Jose State college, many first class movies have been scheduled for the coming year.

"The show starts at 7:30 Sunday night. We suggest that you come early," Raffaelli said.

"Eskay" movies are held in the Little Theater.

MISS M. TWOMBLY EXPLAINS HEALTH CLINIC SERVICES

By JOHN DEL SECCO

Here is information you need to know.

Miss Margaret Twombly, health office head, is aware of the questions new students would want answered concerning the college health clinic.

The medical clinic, maintained by the college for students, is located in the health office, room 31. The office is open from 8 a.m. to 5:20 p.m., Monday through Friday. A nurse is on duty during that time. Physicians are also on duty during designated hours.

Only registered students carrying six or more units are eligible for clinic service.

Physicians or nurses do not make house calls. Ambulatory cases may be cared for only at the clinic.

In case of illness or injury requiring medical care when the college physicians are not on duty or when the health office is closed, the students must expect to call a private physician. Employment of private physicians will be at the patient's own expense.

Miss Twombly urges students to consult the health office immediately after injury or upon first noticing signs of illness. "Delay until late afternoon or until the weekend may make it too late for free care," she warned.

Frosh Class To Hear Wall, Sevrens Today

Initial addresses to the freshman class by ASB President Tom Wall and Mr. Don Sevrens, freshman class advisor, will highlight the meeting of freshman orientation group today, according to Paul M. Pitman, dean of men.

Although much of the time will be given over to such mechanics as seating, steps for the organization of the freshman class will be taken, Dean Pitman said.

Hours will be planned for the meeting of various freshman groups, who will in turn supervise the class activity until such time as class officers can be elected.

"These groups will be open to all freshman students, not only to those who are in the orientation group," Dean Pitman said.

According to Dean Pitman, plans have been made to push the group to a climax with class elections this quarter. In this way, they hope to maintain all momentum the class may have gained in the course of the present quarter.

"I think this plan is a great improvement over any in the past," stated Dean Pitman.

Gamma Xi Holds First Initiation As National Frat

Gamma Xi chapter of Theta Chi, holding its first initiation since affiliating with the national organization, initiated Bern Bernardini, Raymond Cordoni, Dale Deselms, Robert Forrester, Howard Greenfield and Ditz Webster Sunday at the local Theta Chi house.

Canterbury Club To Hold Reception

Canterbury club will extend an official welcome to new members at a reception to be held in the Wicker Room of the Trinity church parish house on Sunday, Oct. 10, from 3 to 5 p.m., according to Hal Upson, president.

The reception will be followed by a meeting and social gathering from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m.

"Papa," said the small son, "what do they mean by college bred? Is it different from any other kind of breed?"

"My son," said the father, "it is a four years' loaf!"

ANY VACANCIES? ARCHWAY TO FORCE 'DOC' McCALLUM OUT OF BELOVED SANCTUARY

By VERN BAKER

"All progress isn't for the good of everyone," stated Dr. Alexander McCallum, biology professor, dejectedly.

Gloom and all the blues that go with it have settled over Dr. McCallum with the recent news that an archway is to be built between the science building and the commerce wing.

It's not that he doesn't want new improvements on the college campus, says Dr. McCallum. The thing that bothers him is what is he going to do for an office.

OUT COLD

With plans as they now stand, the archway will leave the good Dr. out in the cold with no desk to put his feet on. According to the plans, his cubicle is scheduled and destined to become a hallway, and there seems little he can do about it.

Right now, it's just a case of move or be trampled by in-between class rush in the future.

NOT ON ROOF

"For a while when they had a scaffolding above my window, I thought they were building an office for me on the roof," said Dr. McCallum. "I was afraid the pigeons would interfere with my work," he remonstrated.

As things progressed, however, they were not building him an office and as the situation now stands, Dr. McCallum faces eviction into the cruel, cold world.

Anyone knowing of a vacant space on campus any 2 by 2 square will do as long as it has no pigeons, is asked to contact Dr. McCallum as soon as possible.

Language Dept. Opera Guild Plans Busy Fall Season

The Opera Guild of the Language department has again planned a busy schedule of opera attendance for this season.

William Hermanns announces that he has arranged with the San Francisco Opera Co. accommodations for all San Jose State students who wish to attend one or more performances.

The first opera to be attended by the Guild will be Verdi's "La Forza Del Destino" on October 6. The following night the group will see "Falstaff."

Wagner's "Die Meistersinger" will be attended on October 10 followed by his "Siegfried" October 14. "Othello," by Verdi and Bizet's "Carmen" will be seen on October 16 and 17.

"Die Meistersinger" and "Carmen" are Sunday matinees.

Dr. Hermanns requests all students interested in seeing one or more of these operas to contact him so that transportation can be arranged. He will be in his office room B61, from 10:20-11:00 and 1:20-2:00 daily.

Cars will be needed to transport the group to San Francisco. Expenses will be shared by those going, Dr. Hermanns says.

Accommodation arrangements are to be made with Dr. Hermanns.

Canterbury Club Holds First Meet

Canterbury Club, authorized campus Episcopal students organization, held its first meeting of the fall quarter Sunday night at 7:30 in the Trinity church parish house, according to Hal Upson, president.

Rita Wilkins reported on the meeting of the Canterbury Council of the Diocese of California, and the program for the year was discussed.

The group elected Sheila Stanton historian, and Pat Flynn secretary-treasurer.

Other officers who were introduced to new members were: Hal Upson, president, and Aimee Heap, vice-president.

HEAR... from THERE

By JACK GOLDEN

That age old question of whether women should do their part and help finance dates has raised its ugly head again, this time on the Moscow campus of the University of Idaho.

A symposium conducted by scribe Mary Sandell, staff member of the "Idaho Argonaut" shows that men are very much in favor of such an arrangement. The women are not so enthusiastic about the idea. In fact, they seem rather skeptical. The following revealing quotes tend to illustrate the divided opinions of the sexes.

Donald B. and Willis S. say, "It's a fine idea; we're short of cash."

Dolores H. "For a coke date or a show, all right—but"

Don A. "It's always been a wonderful idea. Damn tradition!"

Colleen M., Kappa, "I think it's just fine for a hall or house dance, but a girl should limit herself at all times. For outright payment—NO!"

SJS freshmen can be thankful that they aren't treated like the frosh at UC. On the Berkeley campus, the first year men are given ten commandments to obey and they must continually be on the lookout for the Sophomore "Vigilantes."

The commandments, which are effective 'til after the sophomore brawl, October 9, include:

1. Thou shalt adorn thy skull only with thy dink.
2. Thou shalt not affront thy betters by draping thy legs with jeans or cords.
3. Thou shalt not know tobacco save for thy corncob pipe.
4. Thou shalt not defile the sophomore lawn with thy presence.
5. Thou shalt eschew the lowly Stanford red.
6. Thou shalt not betray thy classmates by thy cowardly absence from the Frosh-Soph Brawl.

Any male who intends to inhabit Washington Square for the next few months needn't feel too sorry for himself when he thinks about the woman power situation. It really isn't too bad when you take other campuses into consideration.

There's Stanford for instance. According to a late issue of the Stanford Daily, the ratio between eds and coeds is 3.3-1, which indicates that there will not be too many girls' tag dances.

Out of a total registration of 8042 students, only 1,846 will be seen in the accepted "new look." That means that there will be approximately 4350 lonely Indians on the loose looking for other fields to conquer. Leave us hope that those fields will not include those belonging to San Jose State.

Addition Of Three Professors Results In "Unlucky 13"

When Dr. Ralph J. Smith, head of the Engineering department at San Jose State college, added three new members to his department faculty this year, bringing the total up to 13, he didn't realize that he was starting a chain reaction involving the number "13."

Inquiring at the college administration office, Dr. Smith discovered that his department is listed as No. 13A and this happens to be the same number as his office. When he checked the new number on his telephone extension he was a bit startled to find that it is 313.

Keep thy pen from lenders' books, and defy the foul fiend.

—King Lear.

'The Flag Is Down--' SJSC Riflemen Get Ready For Season

San Jose State has the nucleus of a crack rifle team, and should do well in the Northern California Intercollegiate Rifle conference, believes M/Sgt. Alvin Ousey, coach of the team and member of the ROTC cadre on campus.

The team, unorganized as yet, will commence practice soon. Holdovers from last year's good squad will form the core of a championship contending team. The rifle conference is composed of six teams. They are: Cal Aggies, USF, Stanford, Santa Clara, California and San Jose State.

The Spartan schedule of round-robin meets for the school year 1948-49 is complete and begins Nov. 18 with a shooting match against Santa Clara, there.

A trophy will be awarded to the winning team next April and 21 individual medals will be awarded to high scorers.

The schedule as released by Sergeant Ousey is:

Dec. 2—San Jose at USF.
Dec. 9—Cal at SJSC.
Dec. 16—San Jose at Cal Aggies.
Jan. 13—Stanford at SJSC.
Mar. 3—San Jose at Cal.
Mar. 10—Santa Clara at SJSC.
Mar. 17—USF at SJSC.
Apr. 14—Cal Aggies at SJSC.
Apr. 21—San Jose at Stanford.

CONTEST WINNER

Seward Chapman was winner of the grid contest sponsored by the Spartan Daily's advertising staff. Chapman, along with two other students, correctly guessed the score of the Spartans vs. College of Puget Sound game. By virtue of having his entry in first, Chapman was declared winner. Promptness pays again.

Dave Parnay, Daily Sports Writer, Wins SJ City Tennis Title

Dave Parnay, Spartan tennis player and Spartan Daily sports writer, defeated Frank Pisale, county champion, 2-6, 6-2, and 6-2, to win the San Jose City championships which were held Sunday at Backesto Park.

Other Spartan stars who played in the tournament were Ed Terry, Jim Cruze, Chet Bulwa, and Bob Phelps.

SJSC GRID TEAM FACES WAVES IN LOS ANGELES TILT

With the first win of the season tucked safely under their belts, the San Jose football team travels skyward to Los Angeles this week where they will lock horns with George Pepperdine college Saturday night.

The Waves have dropped their two opening games and are in somewhat the same position San Jose was after losing to Stanford and Nevada. Potentially they have a better than average squad, but have not been able to get rolling as yet.

BRONZAN PRAISES ARIZONA

Brigham Young (a future Spartan opponent) dumped them in the opening game, and last Saturday Arizona State took Coach Warren Gear's eleven apart, 34-7. San Jose Line Coach Bob Bronzan, who scouted the contest, was quick to point out, however, that Arizona is the second best college team he has seen play on the Pacific Coast this fall. Nevada deserves the No. 1 spot in Bronzan's estimation.

The Spartans came out of last Friday's victory over Puget Sound with only two minor injuries. Starting Right Guard Dick Harding suffered a gash on his temple and will see no contact work during practice sessions this week. Vico Bondietti, another right guard, received a rib bruise, but will not miss any practice sessions.

JULIANO STILL OUT

Starting Left Guard Joe Juliano is the only member of the squad, at the present time, who will not play Saturday. He has yet to recover from a badly injured shoulder suffered in the game against Nevada.

As a result of the definitely weakened right guard spot, Al Weimer has been shifted over from left guard to this position, and may see action against the Waves.

SPORT SHORTS

The Aztecs of San Diego State college have only defeated the Spartan gridgers twice in nine meetings.

Willie Steele, broad jumper from San Diego State college, once held the 100-yard dash record in a football uniform which he set while at San Jose State college.

Bariteau Cops State Golf Tournament In Tough Up-Hill Battle

Eli Bariteau, one of the mainstays of San Jose State's intercollegiate championship golf team, fought an up-hill battle to win the State Amateur Golf tourney Saturday.

The stylish shotmaker, four down going into the 32nd hole, rallied brilliantly to tie the match at the end of the regulation 36th hole. He canned three birdies and a par to force the match into extra holes.

His opponent, Stanford's Bob Rosburg, was in command of the situation until Bariteau found himself to give the galleryites a tremendous show in the form of comebacks.

Three Newcomers Lead Spartan Daily In Grid-Pick Contest

Three new sports writers of the Spartan Daily led the sports staff in their annual contest for grid picking honors. Wade Wilson, Pat Roan (a female, no less), and Cliff Daniels were the experts of the week. They picked nine out of ten games for a batting average of .900.

Right behind the peerless three were Sports Editor Bob Blackmon and Arnold Wechter with a potent .800 average.

SPARTAN GRID MACHINE WENT INTO HIGH GEAR FRIDAY; PASSING "PUNK"

By ARNOLD WECHTER

The Spartan grid machine which sputtered in the opening game against Stanford and refused to move at all against Nevada, finally got into high gear in the second half of the Puget Sound game.

Hughes, Menges, and Denevi, Spartan trio of quarterbacks, still haven't realized the potentialities of their passing game. They completed the unimpressive total of three passes out of fifteen attempts in their last outing. Observers in the press box all agreed that Hughes had improved his faking from the "T" formation tremendously. Don't sell the State passing attack short; one of these nights it will hit its stride, and then watch out.

RUNNING ATTACK

Coach Bill Hubbard said yesterday that his charges had followed his instructions to the letter by keeping to their running attack in the latter stages of the Puget Sound game. That Hubbard's instructions were correct is found in the score, all of which was made in the second half, and on the ground.

Hamp Pool, backfield coach, singled out Fred Silva and Al Cementina of the backfield for praise.

That the Gold and White were charging and fighting in the Puget Sound game was conclusively proven by their pushing an eight-man line around.

Fred Mangini and Bill Parton furnished the spark needed by the Spartans to move the eight-man line put up by the Loggers to stop our running game.

A FEW SURPRISES

Followers of State who have been disappointed in the performance of their team shouldn't jump off the bandwagon as Coach Hubbard and the boys have a few surprises for their future opponents. Number one on the list is Pepperdine college of Los Angeles Saturday night at Inglewood.
