San Jose, California, Wednesday, October 12, 1949

The appointment of Al Grass as Chief Justice and Duke Deras as Social Affairs chairman were the main matters of business conducted by the Student Council at their weekly meeting yesterday afternoon.

Rehearsals Continue For 'Faust' Opening

Four Speech and Drama majors head a cast of 53 in the production of Goethe's "Faust" which will be given in the Little Theater Nov. 10, 11, 12, 14, and 15 under the direction of Mr. John R. Kerr of the Speech and Drama department faculty.

Principal leads in the Goethe classic are James Clark, a sophomore transfer from Hartnell college, in the title role; James Jensen of Carmel, who will portray the devil, Mephistopheles; Gwenn Dam from San Francisco, who will do Gretchen, and Shirley Wilbur of Los Gatos, portrays Martha.

"Faust" is the story of a pact between a man and the devil and the struggle of the man's conscience.

The cast list, released by Mr. Kerr yesterday, includes: Russell Scimica as Wagner; Jack Byers as the old peasant; James McLaugh, a student; John McFarland, Frisch; Ron Sego, Brander; Robert Dayton, Siebel; and Joe Guzzetti, Altmayer.

Bette Rehorst will play the witch; Lorraine Davidson, Lilybeth, and Robert Collins, Valentine.

Hal Upson, Ted Hook, Conrad Smith, Dixon Oliver, David Manning, Louise Wurfer, Judith Levy, Dorothy Britten, Lorraine Davidson, Carolyn Helms, Marcia Martin, Martha Ann Mahan, LaVonne Peter, and Nancy Brokenshire will play witches.

Martha Ann Mahan, Judith Levy, Dorothy Britten, and Conrad Smith will play apes.

Three modern dance sequences are an important part of "Faust", said Director Kerr, and the following students, directed by Mrs. Virginia Jennings, will take part as dancers: Alewah Leidig, Louise Wurfer, Hal Upson, Ted Hook, Judith Levy, Dorothy Britten, Lorraine Davidson, Marcia Martin, Carolyn Helms, Dixon Oliver, Barbara Price, Martha Ann Mahan, Nancy Brokenshire, LaVonne Peter, Donna Gebhart, Barbara Billia, and Conrad Smith.

Working with Mr. Kerr on the advisory staff for "Faust" are Mr. J. Wendell Johnson, designer; Mr. James Lioi, technical director, and Miss Bernice Prisk, costume designer.

Season books for the six plays of the Drama department's 1949-50 season, including "Faust" will remain on sale in the Speech office until Friday.

COP-SJS Game To Highlight Homecoming

Committee Chooses 'Remember When' As Festivity Theme

"Remember When" will be the theme for this year's Homecoming to be held Friday, Oct. 28, Herb Patnoe, chairman of publicity for Homecoming, announced yesterday.

Homecoming will be the biggest social event of the college year. Last year's Homecoming was the first such celebration since 1934. The focal point for this year's Homecoming will be the College of Pacific versus San Jose football game.

A tentative schedule, released by publicity chairman Patnoe, for Homecoming week is as follows:

Tuesday, Oct. 25, queen contest and Homecoming Talent show.

Wednesday, Oct. 26, houses entering the house decoration contest must have decorations finished. Houses are to remain decorated from Wednesday noon until end of festivities on Friday.

Thursday, Oct. 27, big parade through downtown San Jose by student body and numerous bands including those of San Jose State.

Friday, Oct. 28, open house by college and College of Pacific fraternities and sororities for their alumni. San Jose versus College of Pacific football game at Spartan stadium. Dance for the student body from 11 p.m. till 1 a.m. at the Civic auditorium.

Tonsorial Parlor Harmony

Barber Shop Quartet Benefit Concert Here Saturday Night

A Barber Shop Quartet concert will be given in the Civic auditorium, Saturday at 8 p.m. with proceeds going to the Community Chest.

The concert is sponsored by the San Jose chapter of SPEBSQSA (Society for the Preservation and Encouragement of Barber Shop Quartet Singing in America, Inc.) "The Roundeleers" west coast champions, will be present at the concert. Other better known groups who will perform are the "Uncalled Four" from Berkeley, "Barbary Coasters" from San Francisco, and "Camelia City Four" from Sacramento.

This is the third concert given by the local "Heart's Delighters," the previous ones being successful, according to Ozzie Palos, spokesman of the foursome.

The society has 40,000 members in 600 chapters in the United States, Canada, Hawaii and Guam. There are 32 singing groups in California.

The policy of the society is to help the community.

A barber shop quartet is composed of four male voices with no accompaniment. Harmonizing becomes more difficult this way, said Palos, because it is done mostly by ear.

The San Jose chapter plans to organize a chapter on campus and invites anyone interested to see the concert.

Indian Educator Speaks Here Today

Dr. Victor Hugo Sword, educational adviser to the government of India, will speak this afternoon at 2:30 in room 25.

Dr. Sword will speak to members of Dr. Laird S. Swagert's Introduction to Politics class but any interested students are encouraged to attend.

In his new position as educational advisor to India, Dr. Sword will work directly with Prime Minister Pandit Nehru. At the present time Dr. Sword, who received his Ph. D. at Northwestern university, is in the United States inspecting colleges and universities and making arrangements for the enrollment of Indian students who would like to attend on scholarships from the government of India.

Rally Committee

The Rally committee will hold an important meeting tonight at 7:00 o'clock in the Student Union, announces Glen Stewart, committee chairman.

Stewart reminded members that attendance at the first three meetings is necessary in order to qualify for regular membership. Preparations will be made for future home games, declared the committee head.

Off The Wire Eight Months to Year in Two Days

CHICAGO, Oct. 11 (UP) — John Pearson, 25, a purse-snatcher, started a one-year prison term today because a policewoman used judo on him.

Just two days after finishing an eight-month sentence in the Cook county House of Correction, Pearson tried to rifle a purse on a streetcar.

Policewoman Caroline Zeman flipped him to the floor with an armlock and held him until a squad car arrived. Felony Judge William V. Daly sentenced him to a year in prison.

Sherlock Holmes Pays Court

LONDON, Oct. 11 (UP) — Sherlock Holmes was in court today as a defendant. He had to pay $9.90 for using a radio set without a license.

The Post Office department, which handles broadcasting matters here, sent a radio detection van touring neighborhoods to check radio sets in use against a list of persons who had paid their radio license.

Holmes was using a set and his name wasn't on the license lists. Elementary, my dear Watson.

Beer Bottle Wildness Explained

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 11 — Ever wonder why your bottle of beer gushes over when you open it?

The Master Brewers' Assn. of America, holding its 42nd annual convention here, says the reason is simple. Dr. Philip P. Gray explained yesterday:

"Laboratory studies indicate that wildness is primarily physical in character. Colloidal particles acting as nuclei are responsible for the liberation of carbon dioxide gas from the unstable, supersaturated solution of carbon dioxide existing when the container is opened."

Ever wonder why your bottle of beer gushes over when you open it?

Greatest interest, however, was generated by the now famous question of "ten cent coop coffee." Graduate Manager Bill Felse, member of the Spartan Fountain board, explained to council members that the coop lost approximately $1,000 last year, mainly by serving nickel coffee.

"Before Mrs. Eva Carver took over the management the coop lost $7,000 annually," declared Mr. Felse. "With her able management and the new coffee price scale we feel that the coop will make ends meet."

Grass was elected to the highest position on the Student Council by a two-thirds majority vote of the council. His only opponent in the balloting was James Taylor.

ASB Membership 8470 Student body cards have been purchased by approximately 84 percent of the student body, reported Bob Seal, head of ASB card sales. 7,059 cards have been sold to date with veterans receiving 2,715.

Dale La Mar was appointed to the Frosh camp committee, re-appointed to the College Life committee, and had his resignation accepted as member of the Fairness committee. Dean Dimmick was accepted as faculty advisor to the Student Activities board in another council action.

Student Body President Don Schaeffer announced that applications would be accepted from any ASB card holder for vacant positions on the Memorial Chapel board (two girls); on the Fairness committee (four to be filled); and for the offices of senior justices (one man and one girl). The appointments will be made in the near future.

More Blood Wanted Schaeffer expressed disappointment at the lack of student response to the Red Cross blood bank held on campus Monday. Only four students donated blood to the mobile unit. Another appeal probably will be held soon, declared the student president.

The council also accepted a budget of $240.35 presented by Ed Mosher, representing the Homecoming committee. Mosher stated that $150 would be used to purchase six large perpetual trophies that will be awarded as prizes in the float contest. The best fraternity entry; sorority entry; and top independent entry will receive trophies.

Allowance Checks Come in November

Veterans should receive their first allowance checks during the first week of November, Miss Edith Graves, head of the college Veterans' Information office said yesterday.

Barring unforeseen complications at the San Francisco office the checks will be in the mail by the end of this month, Miss Graves said. The college office is working to process all claims by the end of this week.

"This work will be greatly speeded up if every veteran makes sure that he is taking the necessary number of units for his claim," Miss Graves added. "Audit courses cannot be counted as credit. For full allowance the veteran must take 12 units of regular class work."

Cal vets and all prospective Cal vets will be able to meet with Mr. J. D. Murchison of the San Francisco office Friday morning from 9:30 to 10:30 at the Veterans' Information office. Mr. Murchison will discuss problems and answer questions particularly applying to veterans who wish to change from the G.I. bill to the Cal Vet program.

Revive 'Dead Week'

Dying slowly of strangulation for the past few quarters, "Dead-week" has been polished off permanently as a result of an edict issued this week by the examination committee.

Down the drain goes another concession to students who, heretofore, enjoyed at least one week's respite before tackling final week. "Deadweek" had been put to its proper use by conscientious students who used it to get ten weeks of frantic note-taking into some semblance of order before finals.

"We had a lot of trouble in administering the old rule," said the examination committee, explaining their decision to expose students as fair game to a quiz-happy instructor.

Most of this trouble stems from the inability of these very same instructors to adjudge their audiences' abilities within the reasonable time of ten weeks. If an instructor doesn't know his students' capacities in two and one-half months of intense instruction, will he ever?

The great majority of faculty members at State have been fair enough to their students to respect the "Deadweek" rule and refrain from scheduling midterms the week before finals. It is hoped they will continue this policy.

To protect students from those few instructors who deal out examinations as enthusiastically as they hand out homework, this situation should be given a thorough airing before the Fairness committee and "Deadweek" restored as the rule of the day. A rule with a few more sharp front teeth in it, however.

Come Rain the Library Will Split Its Seams

Everything is crowded. But, cousin, wait until you try to get into the college library come the rainy season.

Conservative estimates have put the fall enrollment somewhere in the neighborhood of 8200. This is an increase of at least 1,000 students.

Last year, 1,000 students less, studiers were sitting on the steps, according to Miss Joyce Backus, college librarian. The library has seats for less than one-tenth of the students, and recommendations call for 25 to 35 per cent.

The library has less than 1,000 seats, and should have at least 2,000, according to Miss Backus.

Miss Backus states that there are about 110,000 volumes and a staff of 30 people to help students.

Crowded conditions forced the library offices to move into the College room, and the latter to be disbanded until the library is completed. The majority of the furniture in the College room had been in the office of the college president of the building destroyed by the 1906 earthquake.

No Charge At TB Unit For X-rays

Do I have to pay for the X-ray taken by the Santa Clara county Tuberculosis association unit during the physical examinations last week? No, reports Mrs. Geraldine Terrell, in charge of the unit.

These and other pertinent and equally baffling questions came from students last week, and the association would like to clear up any problems.

Following are a number of 99 questions and the answers to them as given by Mrs. Terrell and Miss Margaret M. Twombly, Health department head.

How many cases in the entire student body? Four last year, says Miss Twombly.

When will the results be known? In about six weeks, although some may take until the end of the quarter. Negatives must be developed, double-checked and returned to the health department before any notification may be given. Positive cases are detected and the person is told of the condition. Others who are not notified may presume that they are in good health.

Tuberculosis is not inheritable and may easily be cured if detected in the early stages. Sanatorium treatment follows the consultations of specialists and extensive X-rays. Payment for the campus X-rays comes from the state through the school.

One of the most persistent questions concern the reason why the operator must stand behind a lead door and students in line remain exposed to the rays from the machine. Mrs. Terrell explained that a few exposures to the rays have no effect but prolonged daily contact is damaging to red blood cells and induces other disabilities. Students in the line suffer no danger.

Course Offered In Universal Tongue

San Francisco State college—A course in Esperanto, universal language designed to promote better understanding among peoples, will be offered through the San Francisco State college extension service, it was announced recently. The class, which opened October 4, will be given on Tuesday nights, from 7-9.

"By the use of a common language," states Miss Helen Wolff, instructor of the course, "the people of the world will be able to break down the national and social barriers to a truly one-world state." According to Miss Wolff there are between six and eight million people who know the language.

Esperanto is based on the Latin tongue. About 70 per cent of the words are in forms familiar to people all over the world, esperantists estimate. The entire vocabulary is made up of about 3200 root words. According to Miss Wolff, who is president of the Esperanto Society here, there are only 16 rules and the language can be learned in six months.

Thrust and Parry

Newby Speaks

Dear Thrust and Parry:

There are over 8000 students enrolled this year at San Jose State. Seven thousand of that number are not enrolled in classes of modern languages! That statement calls for an exclamation point. Such a situation is lamentable. Something is wrong somewhere. A few decades ago few citizens of these U.S. had valid reasons for learning to speak a foreign language. We were isolationists then. Foreign lands were far away because travel was slow. American English was sufficient for our fathers or grandfathers, but the world has changed! Berlin, Paris, Madrid, Moscow are now but two days travel away, if we want to take to the air. This last summer over half a million U. S. citizens visited Europe. The great majority of them did not enjoy their trip greatly because they were unable to understand the foreigner or converse with him. (Because they had been as short-sighted as 7000 of our students here at State.)

Many of you students who read this may say, "I had a foreign language in high school and although I learned the grammar (after a fashion), I can't speak it, so why study a foreign language in college?" Of course you didn't learn to speak it, if you just studied the grammar (which happens unfortunately in too many of our institutions of both high school and college level). To learn to speak the foreign language, you must begin speaking it the first day of your first year. The Modern Language Department at San Jose State has emphasized the spoken language for the last quarter century and during that time your humble servant has known hundreds of students who have learned to speak French, Spanish, or German with accuracy and fluency. It can be done.

It is not only travel in a foreign country that makes the speaking of a foreign language important. Many of you students will enter businesses where your ability to speak two or more languages will be a paying asset. You students in R.O.T.C. who plan to become officers at some time should be taking a basic course in spoken Russian. We offer such a course here at San Jose State. General Devers before his retirement strongly recommended that officers study Russian. The time is coming when officers with a basic knowledge of spoken Russian will be valuable. But I am afraid they will be rare birds. We shall doubtless continue to be as blind in preparing for the future as we have been in the past. We shall continue taking courses in the making of cosmetics and find out too late that cosmetics can be bought at the corner drug store, but the ability to speak a foreign language cannot.

If you want to be fair to your "future you," plan to include some language in your program whether it is a "requirement" or not.

L. C. Newby.

Ironical Paradox

Dear Thrust and Parry:

It is one of those ironical paradoxes of our times that the most important single issue of human history goes almost un-noticed in the press. That issue is world government. It is the most important issue of history because it is the only road to peace at a time when war would destroy history's greatest civilization.

Although the problem of peace is of vast dimensions, one needs no more than the following steps of reasoning to perceive the nature of its unique solution:

1. We must choose between international government and international anarchy, by definition.

2. Anarchy results in violence, world anarchy in world war.

3. There is one simple and compelling reason why we can achieve world federal government in our time, in time to save us from World War III. We must.

The road to federation is rough. Its achievement will be no panacea for a divided world. Yet it is the only BASIS for lasting peace. Wm. T. Evans, ASB 3116.

Moot Question

Dear Thrust and Parry:

Is there any truth in the rumor that a dastardly plan is afoot to seat S.J. rooters and the C.O.P. rooters on the SAME SIDE of the stadium?

Would the SPARTAN DAILY please investigate this?

'Schmidt Day' Proclaimed By Santa Rosa Newspaper

By HARRY BRITTON

Santa Rosa will play host to Mr. Willard Schmidt, director of the San Jose State college police school, when he fulfills a series of speaking engagements today. The Santa Rosa Press Democrat has termed the visit Willard Schmidt Day in the north bay city.

Heading the list of talks for the day is a Rotary club luncheon at noon. Mr. Schmidt will be introduced by Evert Person, assistant publisher of the Press Democrat. An interview on radio station KSJO is next on the busy agenda for the instructor.

Addresses Parent-Teachers

An address before the Fremont Parent-Teachers association is scheduled at 2:30 in the afternoon. Mrs. William A. Townes, wife of the Press Democrat general manager, will be program chairman.

Later in the afternoon the former Oakland police officer will speak to a general news staff meeting of the Press Democrat and Evening Press, Santa Rosa's two consolidated dailies.

Wind-up of the exhausting program will come in the evening with a dinner in Mr. Schmidt's honor given by the Press Democrat. The state college professor will be among his associates in the profession since the Santa Rosa chief of police and many of the Sheriff's office personnel will attend.

Schmidt Is Versatile

Mr. Schmidt is renowned for his lectures on press-police relations and for his knowledge of progressive repertoire of subjects at his command and anticipates little difficulty in completing the extensive speaking tour.

This summer he was one of the featured speakers on the convention program of the California Newspaper Publishers association at Stanford university.

Six State 'Y' Members Attend Regional Meet

San Jose State college Student Y sent six delegates to the regional conference at Camp Campbell over the weekend.

The conference brought 75 Student Y members from eight colleges in the Northern California-Nevada area. Marie Herold, co-chairman of the Pacific-Southwest region, Lenore Staats, John Jacobson, Jim Davis, Jean Justice and Leona Krouch were the local delegates.

Blood Donor Results-Poor

Discouraging results were reported by the mobile American Red Cross blood donor unit after the initial visit to the campus Monday afternoon. From a potential of more than 8200 students, only four registered for and kept appointments to give blood at the Physiotherapy department, room 37.

Co-ordination between the student committee which attempted to attract donors to the center and officials directing the unit was not too good, according to Miss Catherine Wallace, in charge of the Physiotherapy department. Miss Wallace was one of seven faculty members who gave blood.

Visits Indefinite

Campus chairman Dick Cirigliano was not available for comment yesterday afternoon following the visit of the mobile unit. Future visits of the blood collection agency to the campus are indefinite.

Each of the members of the blood collection agency to the campus are indefinite.

Each of the members of the unit has a definite job to do when equipment for taking blood is moved into a building, Miss Wallace explained. The result is efficiency and a minimum of confusion. Dr. Frederick Proescher, medical director of the center and distinguished county pathologist, directed the operations yesterday morning. Mrs. Muriel Canuel supervised the nursing staff.

Coach Donates

Freshman track coach Walt Bealey gave his 38th pint of blood during the visit to head the list of donors in this area. He is a former combat ace from World War I and has a proud record in giving life-saving blood for transfusions.

Students who donated to the blood service here are: William Cancilla, Roy Mollenhauer, Barbara Beitzel and Ken Zamzow. Last October 15 students gave blood for Claudine Swanson, SJS co-ed, when she was wounded by a gunman and thrown from an automobile in a kidnap-robbery.

Miss Photoflash Given Advice By Photogs

Camermen over the country have become chaperons of Claire Dennis of Hancock, Mich., who recently was chosen "Miss Photoflash." She reportedly gets letters of fatherly advice from press photographers all over the country warning about the "Wicked Old City." She is now in Hollywood with a movie contract.

Fresno State college, led by Norman McRae, who along with Miss Herold is co-chairman of the Pacific-Southwest region, acted as hosts for the three day event in the Santa Cruz mountains.

The principal speaker was Dr. Robert Fitch, who spoke of "What Are You Called on To Be and To Do as a Christian Students in America Today?" Dr. Fitch represented the Pacific School of Religion in Berkeley.

Skits were given by the host, and folk dancing was planned for recreation and entertainment.

There are three conferences held yearly. The next will be held at Asilomar, Dec. 27-Jan. 1.

Guest speaker will be Dr. Victor Hugo Sword, new educational adviser to the government of India.

Statistics Don't Lie; Gene Great

Gene Menges, the 160 pound pass master from Fullerton, continues to pass Spartan opposition dizzy, as witness his 7 for 8, 167 yard effort against Pepperdine, and is rapidly gaining a reputation as one of the top forward passers on the Coast.

Statistics released yesterday from State Athletic Publicity Director Danny Hill reveal the cotton

SF Olympic Club Poloists Plunge Against Spartans

Varsity water poloists get their first real test of the season tomorrow night at 9 p.m. when the Olympic Club of San Francisco comes to Spartan pool.

The San Jose State team is pointing for this one, wanting a win over these tough "old men." The clubbers are always loaded with experienced material. Juniors and seniors might remember Ed Rudloff, quite a swimmer and water poloist during his days under the big Gold and White top. Rudloff may be seen tomorrow night playing for the Olympic Club.

The Spartan varsity racked up win number one last week when they beat Cal Aggies, 13-4. They are led by George Haines and Norm Keeler.

Brown Is Irked by Loss, May 'Rack Up' Squad

CLEVELAND, Oct. 11 (UP)—Irked by the Cleveland Browns' humiliating 56 to 28 defeat by the San Francisco 49ers last Sunday, Coach Paul Brown threatened today to "break up the team if they don't bounce back" in their next game.

"Either we bounce back against Los Angeles next Friday or I'm going to rack up this ball club," Brown said.

The defeat was the Browns' first in 30 games of All America Conference competition. It also was the worst beating suffered by a Brown-coached team during his 18-year coaching career.

"It gries me that we gave the Forty-Niners all those touchdowns," he added. "The players who made us look bad are on the spot from now on. They either deliver—or else."

During their long unbeaten string, the Browns were tied twice—by the New York Yankees in 1947 and by the Buffalo Bills earlier this season. The three-time A.A.C. champions' last previous defeat was by Los Angeles on October 12, 1947.

topped Menges has tossed 56 times, and 36 efforts have been snared by Spartan receivers. The San Jose quarterback passed for 4 scores against the Waves Friday to bring his teedee total to 8.

Menges aeriels have gained 565 yards, and his completion average is a neat .643. No less amazing is his sleight of hand work with the pigskin.

Veteran Jack Donaldson, the 197 pound fullback, has boomed for a net yardage of 250 and an average of 8.9 to lead all Spartan backs in that department. Marv Johnson, the Los Gatos speedster, has rolled for 151 yards and a 6.9 average, and his running mate, Harry Russell, has carried for 133 yards and a 6.1 average.

Wading In

WITH Wade Wilson

NOSING FOR NEWS DEPARTMENT: Congratulations to the JERRY VROOMS—he, the Manager of Athletics—on a charming 7 pound 1 ounce baby girl. The VROOMS promptly tagged the little one Cynthia. JERRY came through in fine fettle and tossed out cigars in wild abandon to the P.E. personnel. As prepared as any good boy scout, JERRY passed out candy to the female force of the Men's gymnasium.

WAYNE FONTES, the Portola Punter that gained fame for himself and the Spartans by being crowned the 155-pound National Collegiate Champion, is doing his graduate work at nearby Stanford university. Line Coach BOB BRONZAN scouted the USC-Ohio State game last Saturday for Notre Dame and the San Francisco 49ers and came back with the statement that "he was glad the Spartans didn't have to play either team." According to BOB they really played rock 'em, sock 'em football and Ohio State should have won by a couple of TD's. BRONZAN also assumed that if Ohio continued to play the same type of ball they did Saturday, they should be in the Rose Bowl come January 2, 1950. 'Tis also my humble pick, only I have added that they will meet the Golden Bears from Berkeley in that saucer at Pasadena. And speaking of California, I must give a hearty well-done to little CHARLIE SARVER, the boy who saw his last season of collegiate football go up in smoke when he was badly injured in the Wisconsin game last week. What a tough break for a minute of a man that has scored 36 points in three games, averaged 11 yards per try, passed once (and that for a TD), punted once for 45 yards, and in general causing untold miseries to opposing coaches and players. Again, nice going CHARLIE, and a speedy recovery. DEE PORTAL continues to amaze me. He's tutoring some 350 boxing enthusiasts in his classes this fall and still finds time to coach the varsity. Little man you have a busy day.

Big Jim Speaks!

The gent with the mellow voice that calls the play by play of Spartan football games over the public address system is none other than big Jim Caputo, the perennial San Jose State newspaper, advertising, and radio man.

This is the second season of "callin' 'em" for Jim.

RENO, Oct. 12—According to Nevada coach Joe Sheeketski, COP quarterback Eddie Le Baron did everything but take tickets during the Tiger's 47-6 slaughter of the Wolfpack last weekend. "But I bet he did before he came on the field," the sad coach commented.

Ollie Not Only Threat, Passer Jim Ryan Sharp, Leads in Total Gain

Big Ollie Matson isn't the only threat in that USF backfield! There's a fellow at quarterback by the name of Jim Ryan who isn't half bad at spotting a receiver and letting him have the pigskin right between the eyes.

In fact, Mr. Ryan has outdone Mr. Matson in the little matter of total offense—all of which adds up to bad news for the San Jose State Spartans when they meet the Hilltoppers this Friday night in Spartan stadium.

Ryan has passed 46 times and completed 21 for a net yardage of 383, which is pretty fair country tossing. Matson, the large fullback, has carried 51 times for a total gain of 343 and an average of 6.7.

Galloping along with Matson in the Don backfield are Ray Barni, a gent who is averaging 4.8 per crack, and John Finney, an explosive runner who excels on punt and kickoff returns.

Finney is the top Don pass receiver, having gathered in 9 heaves for 123 yards and 4 touchdowns. He also leads the team in scoring with 5 trips to the end zone and 30 points.

The Dons have definitely been on the up grade after dropping their opening game of the season to the powerful College of Pacific Tigers by a 7-6 score. In succeeding games USF thumped St. Bonaventure college 34-21, practically drove Loyola out of the stadium with a 27-12 win, and then slipped the shiv to the favored Detroit university Titans, 38-14.

Coaches Backs

Lloyd C. (Bud) Winters, backfield coach for this year's Spartans, who replaced big Hampton Poole, is doing a mountainous job of molding San Jose State's many top backfield men into a well coordinated gridiron machine.

J. Paul Sheedy* Switched to Wildroot Cream-Oil Because He Flunked The Finger-Nail Test

LOOK AT Sheedy all puffed up with pride. And to think that only last week he almost croaked when he found he couldn't pass the Finger-Nail Test. Then a friend put him wise to Wildroot Cream-Oil hair tonic. Now he's the big noise on the campus. Non-alcoholic Wildroot contains Lanolin, keeps hair neat and well-groomed all day long. Relieves annoying dryness, removes loose, ugly dandruff. So if you haven't switched to Wildroot, better hop to it right away. Get Wildroot Cream-Oil in bottles or tubes at your nearest drug or toilet goods counter. And don't forget to ask your barber for professional applications! (One at a time, of course!)

Boots' Band Beats: '75-1 Unfair,' Profs

Early this week the Daily reported Bandmaster Frederic W. Boots as stating the marching band now has 75 members but could use another 75.

However the feeling is beginning to prevail that Mr. Boots' request is slightly exaggerated. In fact, some of his fellow instructors feel that what the marching band really needs is about 75 fewer members.

This feeling is especially noticeable in instructors teaching 12:30 classes on Monday, Wednesday, and Friday. They have discovered 75 musicians do not equal one set of vocal cords.

Students have noticed this inequality also, after hearing their instructors' "And up in Canada the French took a peculiar like in getting the Indians to . . ." finished by "Fight on for our dear San Jose State. . . ."

Teacher Shortage Still Big Problem

"There appears to be no end to the present teacher shortage," Miss Doris K. Robinson, director of placement, said Monday following her return from a conference of California school superintendents at Santa Cruz.

Teacher candidates with credentials in social science and the general secondary fields are the most available. Specialization in these two fields have resulted in a scarcity of candidates for teaching in the elementary and kindergarten departments.
