Queen Deloris Reigns Tonight

The 1949 Homecoming festivities will be highlighted at 8 o'clock this evening when the Spartans and COP Tigers meet at Spartan stadium for their traditional football game.

Before the game, coronation ceremonies will be held to officially crown Deloris Peterson Homecoming Queen of 1949. Bill Parton, 1948 grid star, will crown Queen Deloris in the impressive ceremonies that are to begin at 7 p.m. After the coronation rituals, the gracious and beautiful Queen will ascend to her special position in the stadium where she will reign over the contest.

At the After-Game dance in the Civic auditorium tonight, Queen Deloris will reign over a celebratory throng. The Queen will have a special throne from which to witness the gaiety of her subjects.

During intermission at the dance tonight, trophies will be presented to the best decorated sorority, fraternity and independent houses entered in the House Decoration contest.

According to Barbara Belknap of the Homecoming committee, those acting as judges for the contest are: Arthur Brown, head display manager of Hale Bros. Department store; J. R. Ingram, display manager of Hart's; and Steven Sutton, assistant decorator of Blum's women's shop.

The winning groups will keep their trophies until next year, when they will be presented to the next winners. A small cup will be given to each group to keep as a permanent trophy.

Elections Close

San Jose State's primary elections close today at 3 p.m. All students who have not yet exercised their right to vote are urged to do so by the Spartan Daily. The polls are located in the Student Union.

Run-off elections will be held next week, Nov. 2 and 3.

U.P. Weather

Livermore and Santa Clara Valleys—Fair today, little temperature change.

Grads Return To Recapture Spartan Spirit

Many grads are expected to return to Sparta today to participate in and witness the 1949 Homecoming festivities.

Highlighting alumni activities will be a dance at the De Anza hotel, where alumni members and their friends will dance to the music of Sheldon Taix's orchestra.

Reunions of various classes are to be held in the hotel lounge and mezzanine, being reserved for those attending the game. The dance is to begin after the game and continue until 1 a.m.

Several fraternity and sorority houses have scheduled buffet dinners to be held before the game for their alumni members. Various independent organizations have also planned similar dinners.

The Alumni association, which is in charge of the queen coronation, has selected Bob Parton to crown Homecoming Queen Deloris Peterson in the pre-game ceremonies at Spartan stadium. The coronation ceremonies begin at 7 p.m.

Bill Casey Hurt

Bill Casey, of Theta Chi fraternity, was slightly injured when he fell from Theta Chi float before the Homecoming parade Wednesday evening.

The accident occurred while the float was preparing to leave the parade assembling area on St. James street. In the fall, Casey suffered a lacerated chin and bruised knee. An ambulance was summoned, and he was taken to the San Jose hospital for emergency treatment. Four stitches were taken in Casey's chin and he was released in time to participate in the parade festivities.

The Alumni after-game dance is being sponsored by the Alumni association, the Santa Clara county alumni chapter, and the Class of 1949. On the dance committee are Ben Muccigrossi, Velva Williams and Glenna Shav.

Mrs. Paul J. Lukes of Foothill road, Los Gatos, is vice-president of the Spartan Alumni association. Tickets to the dance will be available at the door.

U. P. Wire

President Truman has announced that he may use the Taft-Hartley provisions in handling the steel and coal strikes. He said that the country is a long way from a national emergency which would have to be proclaimed, in order to follow such an action.

In Portland a member of the textbook commission has defended Dr. Frank Magruder's civics book which was recently banned by the school board of Houston, Tex. To James Burgess the Texas school board is "dumb", and its action shows that stupidity can go no further.

A defense spokesman has stated that the Navy will lop off 56,000 officers and enlisted men by July 1. Army manpower will be reduced by 26,000, and the air force will take a cut of 4000 officers and men.

Veterans owing the government money may have it subtracted from their National Service Life Insurance refunds. The Veterans Administration says that $70,000,000 is owed to it from overpaid subsistence and pensions.

Overflow Crowd Looms for Game

"If you're going to the game tonight, please, please, be sure you get into the right section," stated Graduate Manager William Felse yesterday.

"Sit in the sections called for by your tickets," he remarked.

Bleacher seats and chairs were being placed on the field yesterday morning, the office reported.

Ushers will be on hand to direct ticket holders to the temporary seating arrangements.

The office reported that the stadium's 16,855 seats had all been claimed by yesterday morning.

The office will close today at 3 p.m., with no student tickets issued at that time. ASB cards will not be honored at the gate.

Spartans Mentally 'Up' For Annual Big Game; Expect Record Crowd

By WADE WILSON

This is it!!!

Tonight's the night the unbeaten COP Tigers are ably directed into Spartan stadium with the famed Eddie LeBaron at the wheel. Kick-off time is set for 8 o'clock and the San Jose State Spartans are ready to upset any plans of the Tigers to take home a victory.

The largest crowd in San Jose history—some 17,000 avid fans—will be on hand to witness this annual battle between the two titans of Stockton and San Jose.

The Spartans are "up" for this game. They have worked hard all week, harder than could be expected for a team reduced so much by injuries. They are dead serious about the job ahead. They will go into the game with a full understanding that COP can be beaten.

They have their minds set on the big job that confronts them. They aren't afraid, but instead, seem to go about their work confident they can tame the Tigers.

Line Coach Bob Bronzan capably summed up the forthcoming game by saying, "All the teaching is done, the team knows all we can and can go out and win this one for themselves."

As has been said, the San Jose eleven is mentally "up" for this traditional game. Their spirit is high, as can be attested by the fact that the injured ball players have been working out every night. By doing so they have physically punished themselves.

Bob Cheim, Junior Morgan, Jack Donaldson, and Dick Harding have been out each night working as hard as if they were physically sound.

Quarterback Gene Menges will be out to out-LeBaron LeBaron. The highly publicized COP back, and probable candidate for All-American, will have to live up to more than his press clippings if he intends to overshadow the pride of Anaheim, Menges.

Happy Victors Will Serenade Seated Losers

Only the rooting section of the winning team will be allowed on the field after tonight's game, stated Rally Committee Chairman Glenn Stewart.

"The rooters for the winning school will be allowed to parade onto the field, form a serpentine behind the band and serenade the losing side," said Stewart. "The losers must remain in the stands during the post game celebration."

The thousands of COP followers from Stockton will be directed to special parking zones exclusively for their use. Spartans will park on their side of the stadium.

Stewart stated that Spartan rooters who wear white will be given the preference of seats closest to the center section, (50-yd. line). He urges all to bring megaphones, and copies of the new Gold and White fight song.

Pom-Poms will be sold before the game by AOPi sorority. Price is 15 cents each.

Pay Your Buck

Seniors must pay their $1 deposit for the Senior Overnight by 1 p.m. today, Ann Guenther, Overnight chairman, said today. Miss Guenther added that the additional $3 may be paid early next week.

"Those who have signed but not paid the deposit will find their reservations cancelled unless the $1 is paid by the deadline today," she said.

To Show Movies

Students are reminded that two special movies will be shown today in room S112. At 11:30 p.m., according to Bob Madsen, student Community Chest campaign chairman.

Contributions to the campus Community Chest drive will be accepted as the admission charge, Madsen said.

Spartan Guards Get a Morale Booster

Two Spartan sorority girls interrupt the nocturnal vigil of three campus guardsmen to serve hot coffee. On duty to watch for possible COP raids on Washington Square, the diligent guards, recruits from college frats, failed to encounter any vandals throughout the week. Four sororities supplied the coffee. Left to right are: Ruthie Holthouse, Shirley Johnson, Harry Carlsen, Tom Irving, and Larry Davis

Spartans Defend Campus

"Administration officials and student body officers are trying to keep the traditional rivalry between COP and San Jose State college confined to the football field this year," ASB President Don Schaeffer told the Spartan Daily yesterday.

"As far as we know, there have not been raids on either campus this week," Schaeffer said.

This lack of activity is in direct contrast to mauling raids which occurred last year and nearly caused severance of athletic relations between the two schools.

Keep Rivalry on Field

"The Tiger-Spartan rally committees have worked shoulder to shoulder this year," the ASB prexy declared, "to make this week's 'big game' a success. Although we want to keep the competitive spirit at a peak, we are hoping to keep the rivalry between the college bands and football teams.

"With cooperation between both colleges, we are trying to build a rivalry, beginning this year, that will be noted for its lack of vandalism and misconduct," Schaeffer explained. The line between clean college fun and vandalism is a thin one, he inferred, and it is easy to cross. "Most of the students who raid campuses are out for some college fun, but get carried away," he added.

Despite negative opinions that Washington square will be raided, 10 local fraternities recruited men and threw up a campus guard as a precautionary measure. The "protective league" went into operation Monday and finished their stint last night.

Under the direction of Schaeffer, Lew Jano and Vern Baker, campus guard captains, and other fraternity leaders, a plan was worked out to defend the College were stationed on each side of the square against vandalism. Six men in the Square, one each in the ASB and journalism offices, and six more wandered through hallways and between buildings.

Campus Defense Not Pierced

The guards served two hour shifts each night while four sororities supplied coffee and refreshments. Guard Captain Jano reports that up to last night, no attempts had been made to pierce the campus defense.

"Eight or nine cars circled the campus Tuesday night," Jano said, "but they were scared away. We had stationed several men at Warm Springs to watch for COP cars and were warned in time to prevent any raids. One car appeared Wednesday evening, but San Jose police persuaded the driver to return home," Jano commented.

The appearance of COP President Monroe Hess, who was scheduled to arrive on the SJSC campus last night, was expected to thwart any planned raids.

The Spartan-Tiger rivalry, which dates back to 1899 with various interruptions, is an interesting one. The spirit of competition waxes keenest during the week of the annual football clash. The feeling of traditional rivalry

'Nameless' Waits

Winners of the three prizes in the Spartan Head naming contest will be selected next week, according to Ed Mosher of the Rally committee. The voting was postponed because of conflict with Homecoming activities Mosher said.

is at its zenith and it is during this week that the much-censured campus raids occur.

Spartans Bombarded Campus
Campus attacks in recent years have shown all the earmarks of a war-time maneuver. Dodging anti-aircraft fire from all directions, a detachment of Flying Spartans bombarded the Stockton campus in 1946-47, dropping 15,000 propaganda leaflets. Contents of the pamphlets were the following words, composed by members of the Rally committee: Drop dead COP, drop dead, Or just stop breathing instead. In case you find that hard to do, The only thing left is, turn blue. Signed: Flying Spartans

Although the air blitz of 1947 had been approved by officials of both colleges beforehand, it backfired when a Stockton judge hauled the Spartan pilots into court for allegedly "flying too low over a populated area." They were fined $50 and the affair waned.

Formal Ceremony Unites Spartans at Sacramento

St. Paul's Episcopal church, Sacramento, Calif., was the setting of a late September wedding of Miss Christine Louise Smith and Jack Granville Dewsen. The Rev. William C. Pearson officiated at the double-ring ceremony. Arthur V. Smith Sr., the bride's father, escorted his daughter to the altar.

Wearing a white satin gown with a sweetheart neckline, outlined by seed pearls and beading, the bride chose long sleeves and a train to complete her gown.

Seed pearls decorated her headband, and her veil was trimmed with a two-inch lace border.

Her bouquet combined a white orchid surrounded by white carnations and a cascade of white satin ribbons.

Mrs. Arthur V. Smith Jr., of Santa Cruz, sister-in-law of the bride, was matron of honor. Her pink net gown was designed with cap sleeves and a plunging neckline. Her headpiece was made of four aqua carnations, and she carried a matching bouquet of flowers with aqua streamers.

Wearing a contrasting gown of aqua net, Miss Delores O'Neill of Sacramento was bridesmaid. Her attire was styled like that of the matron of honor's. Pink carnations with matching streamers and headpiece completed her costume.

The junior Smith, brother of the bride, acted as best man. Dr.

Elbert T. Rulison Jr., a cousin of Mrs. Dewsen, ushered.

A reception was held in the church parlors with Mrs. Ruth Mary Phillips of Sacramento in charge of the guest book.

For her traveling outfit the bride chose a wine suit with gray blouse, black accessories, and a white orchid corsage.

The new Mrs. Dewsen, former student at San Jose State college and Stanford university, is the daughter of Mrs. Emily Rulison Smith, and a widely known violinist of Sacramento. She was graduated from the C. K. McClatchy high school and Sacramento Junior college.

Dewsen is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Dewsen of Mountain View and is a graduate of San Jose State college's 1949 class. He majored in business administration. He is affiliated with Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity. During the war, he was a petty officer in the Sea Bees.

Anders Christian Andersen escorted his daughter to the altar down an aisle decked with white daisies tied with white satin ribbon.

Bride Wears Satin

The bride chose a white satin gown with a set-in marquisette yoke which was designed with fitted bodice and sweeping train. A cornet of orange blossoms held her finger-tip veil. Her bouquet was composed of gardenias encircled in stephanotis. A three-strand pearl necklace was her only jewelry.

Maid of honor was Miss Geraldine Andersen, the bride's sister. Miss Merelyn Goetze and Miss Mary Price were bridesmaids. All three attendants were gowned in aqua taffeta. Their bouquets were made of gardenias and carnations.

Jack Zuckswarth of Sunnyvale was best man. Ushers included Barrett Anderson, brother of the bride, and Tom Lauret of Sunnyvale.

Mrs. Barber was graduated from San Jose State college last June where she held membership in Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority. She majored in education.

Council Votes Awards For Three SJS Teams

Special awards to members of San Jose State's boxing, baseball, and track teams were approved by the student council at Tuesday's meeting.

The awards were made to the three teams in recognition of their CCAA championship victories. Student body president Don Schaffer appointed Jack Scherries to work with "Tiny" Hartman and Jerry Vroom in forming a definite award system.

The council heard a report from the Student Union board regarding card playing. The report read in part; "that no more playing cards will be bought if students persist in taking them from the building."

Steps were taken toward the

Former Teacher Writes New Novel

A copy of "Miss Lou and This Moving World," a historical novel written by Miss Lou Adna Sours, who was a member of the San Jose State college faculty from 1913 to 1929, has been received by the college library.

Written for young people, the novel analyzes the part that American youth must play in shaping the future of their nation and world. The Library has placed the novel in the collection of volumes by past and present faculty members.

Miss Sours, who was an instructor in the Education department, now is living in Oakland.

Students to Scour Beaches

Final approval has been given for Biology 20 field trips this quarter. All class sections will have at least one trip to the coast to probe amid rocks and examine marine life in its natural state, according to Dr. Robert Rhodes, professor of biology. The area south of Moss beach will be explored by biology students to collect sea life exhibits for the aquaria in the Science building.

To prevent the extinction of animals, only one or two trips will be made to individual beaches, Dr. Rhodes decided.

The schedule is as follows: Saturday, Nov. 5, four lab sections

Cast Readies 'Faust' Drama For Opening

Rehearsals for Goethe's classic "Faust," which will be presented Nov. 10, 11, 12, 14, and 15 in the Little Theater, have reached the half-way mark. The cast will have its first complete run-through Monday night, John R. Kerr, director, announced yesterday.

Rehearsals have been held in groups and have been comparatively smooth for such a difficult production, commented Mr. Kerr. "The students have a difficult job before them, for in such a tremendous and forceful play as 'Faust,' the integration of stage movements with the sets, lights, and music presents a challenge to each person involved in the production, on and off the stage," Mr. Kerr concluded.

Tickets for "Faust" are now on sale in the Speech office, room 57, according to Speech and Drama department head Dr. Hugh Gillis.

Student admission is 60 cents. General admission is 90 cents.

Students who want a sneak preview of the elaborate and artistic settings planned by Mr. J. Wendel Johnson are invited by the Speech department to see the two window displays in the main library. Each setting is shown in full color.

Hazeltine Library Receives Many Books, Money Gifts

Acknowledgement of gifts for the Hazeltine memorial library was made during the governing committee meeting Tuesday afternoon.

The committee is headed by Dr. James P. Heath and composed of representatives of the Science clubs and club advisers.

Selection of the bookplate designed by Mrs. Charles Hansen, a former student, has been made and approved by the committee. A leather-bound book inscribed with the names of contributors has been started.

Contributors to the library include Gov. Earl Warren and campus organizations. The Spartan Spears donated $200 Dr. Heath told the committee.

At present the books are in room S-100 and are not catalogued for general circulation to natural science students. The committee reported that work on the library is progressing and it will be made available to students in the near future.

Donation of books or financial contributions are welcomed at any time, the committee announced.

Keeler's Flip Gives Spartans 9-9 Stand-off with Indians

By GEORGE McDONALD

Norm Keeler, long-armed water poloist for San Jose State, flashed his right paw in the last 2/10 second of the overtime period last night in Spartan pool to score from 30 feet and give the Spartans a 9-9 tie with the Stanford Indians.

Both teams blew what should have been decisive leads in the hard-fought game. San Jose jumped to a 2-goal lead, but the Indians quickly tied it.

The Spartans led at one time in the second half, 6-3, but the Big Red pored in 4 scores in a row. Norm Keeler had to score in the last minute to send the game into overtime.

George Haines was almost the goat for San Jose, when he battled the ball against the net while attempting to pass to Goalie Jack Hibner. There were just 15 seconds left. But Keeler's long and hard throw skimmed the water and rapped past Stanford's goalie.

Keeler and Indian Forward Bob Frojen each scored five times to lead the scoring. Spartans Haines (2), Hanssen (1) and Douglas (1) also hit the back of the net.

Sports Briefs

Having received a rough blow last weekend, the rudely awakened San Jose frosh football team enters tomorrow's football game with an idea of reeking vengeance on the Stanford papooses at the Indians' own "happy hunting grounds" Stanford Stadium. Game time, 11 a.m.

Coaches Tom Cureton, Billy Parton, and Joe Juliano have been instilling into the disheartened team of last week the ideas of a fighting spirit, which the team seems to have been lacking. Blocking and tackling has dominated this week's workouts and the yearlings are ready to hit the comeback trail via the lifting of the papoose's scalp.

Cross Country

This afternoon at 4 p.m. at the Spartan Stadium San Jose's co-captain Dore Purdy will renew a rivalry with College of Pacific's Jack Kirkpatrick.

In their meeting last year Kirkpatrick barely edged out Purdy and C.O.P. went on to win the meet. A reversal of last year's condition is the intention of Purdy and the Spartan harriers.

Cal Poly Invades

Cal Poly brings its water polo team to the local pool today for a 4 o'clock meeting with the San Jose State varsity. Coach Charley Walker has allowed Poly's request so that the latter school may have an open date on Nov. 11. There will be no preliminary game today.

Tennis Sign-up

Tennis Coach Ted Mumby has announced the addition of an afternoon elementary tennis class. This class is open to any one desiring to learn how to play tennis and will meet one afternoon a week.

Anyone interested, contact Ted Mumby, today, in the men's gymnasium and sign up. Today is the last day that any change can be made in your schedule, so be sure to sign up with Mumby or either of the gym's secretaries.

San Jose State students may enter a golf tournament at Hillview golf course this Sunday morning at 10:30. Open to both sexes, the tourney is being run by Manny Goulart.

Entrants, who must enter in pairs, will be divided into four classes, according to experience. There is a green fee of $1.

The instruction will be held in the small gym, Tuesday and Thursday nights, starting November 1. Boys between the ages of 5-10 will meet at 7 o'clock and boys between the ages of 11-15 will meet at 8.

The boxing enthusiasts are required to bring their own towels, trunks, shoes, and other boxing gear. Gloves will be furnished by the school.

All parents interested in having their boy receive boxing lessons and instructions should contact Miss Doris Barbarez, secretary in the men's gym, as soon as possible.

The number to call is CY 46414, Extension 205.

Cops Treat for Trick

By HARMON NICHOLS
United Press Staff Correspondent
WASHINGTON, OCT. 27. — (UP)—The Hallowe'en "Haunting Season" is upon us.

It doesn't mean much any more, thanks to the cops. To save the trouble of chasing down the small, ornery ones, police now provide a treat for a trick. The festivities, usually held in the Town Hall, keep down the mischief.

In our day, we put on the spookiest get-up we could find in the attic, and went galloping across the countryside. Our object was destruction. We upset small buildings, carted off the neighbor's plow and wheel-barrow, and maybe even managed to put his cow into the school house.

Now, some towns around the country, in cooperation with the police and city councils, sponsor contests for the best soap-decorated store window. One bold city in Maryland this year even announced a window-smashing contest but called it off at the last minute on advice of counsel.

Washington, according to records in the Library of Congress, once was a city of things spooky. The legends are many.

One was that in the old Supreme Court chamber, where the senate met last session while the capitol roof was being repaired, the marble busts of chief justices nodded slyly when anybody entered on Hallowe'en, or any other nightfall.

According to the oldest watchman, this is not so.

The record shows that Hallowe'en dates back centuries before the Christian era.

Hya, all:

Say, gals, are any of you about to make plans and preparations to enter nuptial bliss? You know, are any of you going to become engaged soon? Well gather around and listen to some very important news for you. I have just left the jewelry dept. at Gloria's and Miss Marvel told me that she has some lovely diamond engagement rings that are going on sale, at cost and below cost prices. Reason being, that she is going to discontinue selling authentic jewelry and devote all her efforts and time into selecting the finest and latest accessory pieces. In view of this fact tell your future fiancée that they should really be able to pick up some excellent values but they sure had better hurry. Those sparklers really caught my eye and the prices, man o man, even I could afford them, on my salary, which is very nominal in times like these when prices are so high. That's why I scout around trying to find exceptional values. Like those I found at the sale at Gloria's. I was just in again and they have a few more formal gowns that are Tr' lush, and what I mean, lush, is really mild for their description. I know that they are just the kind of formal gowns you and I dream about. The gowns are in a variety of new fabrics, along with the still very popular satins and taffetas. The next, I feel like giving three hoops and a hollar about. The prices on these aren't going to upset your budget. Incidentally next time you are browsing around Gloria's, why don't you ask about our convenient Carrier Girl account so you can plan to purchase some of these for your fall and winter wardrobe and in a manner so as not to deflate the moral of you budget minded gals.

Oh, golly, I almost slipped up on something. I owe some of you an apology for not being able to call you back to answer your many inquiries, so I think I'll take the opportunity to do so now.

To Peggy—Yes, there still is a variety of pink formal in your size—12 wasn't it? There are a few at $10.00 and some at $15.00 in the sale at Gloria's, 36 South Second Street.

To Margery, who asked about the wool jersey dresses in size 10.—Yes about six left at the time this went to press, and in the colors you asked about. And by the way Helen, the suits are very lovely and the reductions are great. I'd hurry over as soon as I possibly could, if I were you. And this ends our visit for today, be sure and look for this column in the next few weeks 'cause I have a surprise in store for you, and I believe it'll be news you'll enjoy hearing. So see you next week, chums.

Love,

Your sugar pie.

P.S.—If any of you want any info regarding clothes, fashions, charm, etc., please drop me a card and I'll try to answer as many of your questions as I possibly can. Just write to Sugar Pie c/o Gloria's 36 South Second Street, San Jose.

Among the Celts, an ancient people who lived in Britain, there was an important religious order known as Druids. It counted among its card-carriers physicians, wonder workers, and priests. To celebrate the end of summer, they offered up sacrifices to the Pagan gods in celebration of what was known as "Samhain," which meant the end of another season.

The word "Hallowe'en" is supposed to date back many hundreds of years and is shortened from "All Hallow's Eve," or the eve of "All Saints' Day."

In England there was a custom of kindling bonfires on hilltops on the last night of October—"To ward off the evil spirits."

Down across the years, Hallowe'en traditionally became the spookiest night of the year when witches, hobgoblins, ghosts, and every kind of gnome, spirit or mischievous imp was on prowl.

A British publishing house late in the 1800's came up with a printed form letter of invitation to Hallowe'en parties. It said, in part:

"Dear Spook:"

"You are hereby notified a Ghost convention on the 31st of October. Come at 8 o'clock and park your troubles at the door. The password is 'fun.' Full ghostly regalia of sheet and pillow case will be given each ghost on arrival."

Group in Search For SJS Talent

Stan Sadler and Dick Paginelli, chairmen of the newly organized Talent Placement bureau, are asking students to help in their "drive for talent" on campus.

According to Sadler, the job of the TPB is to organize local talent in one master filing system, so anyone needing talent may call the bureau for assistance.

"We want talent for well-rounded shows," Sadler stated. "In the future we plan to have exchange shows with other schools," he added.

Sadler remarked that in the very near future auditions will take place for the TPB. An announcement will appear in the Spartan Daily with the scheduled auditioning time.

Major Ed Wall, Harvard, '40 -Flying Executive, U.S. Air Force!

Born in Newark, N. J., he moved to Boston at an early age, graduated from the public Latin high school in 1936, entered Harvard the same year, where he majored in economics and government.

"Active on the campus" — he played football, earned his letter on the boxing team. He worked part-time in a variety of jobs from bouncer to baby sitter, received his AB degree in 1940.

He enrolled in Harvard Law School, left at the beginning of the war to become an Aviation Cadet. In December, 1942, he won his pilot's wings, received a Reserve commission as Second Lieutenant.

Assigned to anti-sub patrol duty, he flew B-25's and B-17's before going overseas in 1944, where he flew 30 missions as a B-24 pilot. Shot down over Germany, he was a prisoner of war for 3 months.

Back in the States with his English wife, he earned his Regular commission. Then he returned to Harvard under the Air Force college training program, receiving his LLB degree in 1949.

Now, he is confident about his future and security. As a pilot and legal officer of Bolling Air Force Base, D. C., Major Ed Wall is a typical U. S. Air Force flying executive... with a challenging career.

If you are single, between the ages of 20 and 26½, with at least two years of college, consider a flying career as an officer in the U. S. Air Force. You may be able to meet the high physical and moral requirements and be selected for training as an Aviation Cadet. If you do not complete Aviation Cadet training, you may return to civilian life or have opportunity to train at Officer Candidate School for an important officer assignment in non-flying fields.

Air Force officer procurement teams are visiting many colleges and universities to explain these career opportunities. Watch for their arrival—or get full details at your nearest Air Force Base, local recruiting station, or by writing to the Chief of Staff, U. S. Air Force, Attention: Aviation Cadet Branch, Washington 25, D. C.
