Fleet Backs Run Wild In Spartan Stadium; Harry Russell Stars

By WADE WILSON

Eddie, the Great, LeBaron came to town Friday night and unleashed a cage full of revenge-minded Tigers in Spartan Stadium and outclawed a fighting band of Spartans before the largest crowd to ever witness a home game, 19,355 fans.

The Bengals piled up the highest score since 1923 in trouncing the game Spartans, 45-7. In that same year, the Pacific team held the Spartans scoreless while pouring on the steam to rack up 46 points.

The Tigers kicked off to San Jose and after holding them for three downs and six yards, the San Jose team was forced to kick. Harry Beck kicked from the 28-yard line to Don Hardey on his own 25; Hardey took the kick and drove up mid field to the San Jose 49.

On the first play from scrimmage, and with barely two minutes gone, Hardey drove over his own right tackle and scampered 41 yards to the end zone standing up. Bill McFarland came in to try for the extra point, and after the Tigers were penalized 15 yards for illegal use of the hands, missed the conversion.

The San Jose team seemed to gain life and began to fight back. For the next thirteen minutes the two teams charged back and forth the field, but couldn't quite get past the ten yard line. The quarter ended with the visiting Bengals leading by a scant 6 points.

San Jose Starts March

San Jose opened the second quarter with Quarterback Gene Menges faking a pass and then electing to run the ball instead. Menges faked and then went around his own left end to the 47 for a first down. The Spartans were on the march. Gibby Mendonsa went over his right tackle to the 50. Menges passed to Junior Morgan for a first down on the Tigers' 38. The Spartans stalled out after driving to the COP 27 and Harry Beck kicked a beautiful coffin-corner kick that went out on the 3 and the Tigers took over.

Fleet-footed Eddie Macon, after setting up the scoring play with a 49 yard sideline jaunt, went over from the two standing up to give the Tigers a two touch-down lead. College of Pacific took the second half kickoff and in five plays drove for their third touch-down. And the cat was out of the bag. LeBaron engineered his squad to the Spartan nine yard line and flipped a pass to Walt Polenske in the end zone for the fourth touch-down.

Spartan Move

McFarland kicked off to Arch Chagonjian on the eight yard line and Arch took the ball and moved straight up the center to the Pacific 36 yard line. Menges passed to Al Cementina on the two and Don Dambacher went over right guard for the lone touch-down. Woody Linn came in and kicked the extra point. The third quarter ended with the Spartans trailing 7-26. Don Brown scored again from the 11 yard line to add another tally for the Tigers. Pacific scored again with four and one-half minutes gone in the fourth quarter, and scored when Ken Johnson picked off a deflected pass and raced 25 yards for another Tiger score. LeBaron flipped a long pass to John Rhode in the end zone for the last score of the evening.

Bruising line play was the turning point of the game. San Jose fought hard but couldn't crack the forward wall of the Tigers. The COP team was waiting for the Spartans and have been pointing towards this game since a year ago when the San Jose eleven upset them with a 14-7 defeat.

Don't Park by Gym

Students who park their automobiles on San Carlos street are requested to observe restricted areas marked-off by O. E. Anderson, contractor for the new Women's gymnasium.

"On behalf of the students we are asking the minimum area needed to enter and leave the building site," Contractor Anderson said. Anderson is asking for an area of seven parking spaces. According to state building laws, he is entitled to one-third of the street area. If students do not cooperate with the request, more forceful methods will have to be taken by the contractor.

The Student Y publicity committee will have an important meeting today in the Student Y lounge, 220 S. Seventh street, at 3:30 p.m., according to publicity chairman Helen Davis.

Plans to publicize the coming general meeting, joint retreat, and Asilomar conference at Christmas time, are on the agenda for the meeting. Assignments for the forthcoming issue of the Student Y news will be made.

Those students who attended the first meeting and signed up to work on commissions of the Student Y are urged to attend the meeting to follow through with work planned for them. Other interested students are welcome, said Miss Davis.

Hordes of volunteer students will swarm over the campus Wednesday and Thursday giving specially printed tags in exchange for Community Chest contributions. It is the aim of the drive to have every man, woman and child on the campus wearing a Community Chest tag, on "Tag Days," Wednesday and Thursday.

To insure 100 per cent participation in the new drive Pres. MacQuarrie has specifically authorized any student to walk out of any classroom Wednesday and Thursday if his or her instructor is not wearing an official Community Chest tag. Those students not wearing tags must stay in the class along with the instructor, Pres. MacQuarrie ordered.

ASB President Don Schaeffer pledged the support of every organization on the campus to cooperate in selling the tags and wearing them. Schaeffer issued an urgent request for every organization at San Jose State college to send one delegate to a special meeting today at 4:30 in the Student Union building.

The student body president promised campus-wide coverage on the two big days and that "every student and faculty member will be asked again and again until the complete supply of tags is exhausted and every human being on the campus is wearing a tag during "Tag Days, Wednesday and Thursday."

As a constant reminder of the gigantic two-day "Tag Days" the college bells will ring at ten minute intervals during the big push.

Parton Crowns Queen Peterson, 20,000 Fans Watch

Victory Bell Is Game Trophy

Miss Deloris Peterson, Homecoming queen of 1949, was crowned with a wreath of roses by last year's football captain Bill Parton. The coronation took place in Spartan stadium before an estimated 20,000 persons. Queen Deloris reigned over her Spartan subjects from the grandstand during the game.

A large bell, initialed "SJ" on one side and "COP" on the other, was presented to Don Schaeffer, Student Body president, by the president of the COP Student Body. The bell is to be a perpetual trophy, and is to be kept by the winner of each year's game. The bell resided on the Spartan side during the game, in view of San Jose's victory over the Tigers last year.

Miss Peterson was present at the after-game dance in the San Jose Civic auditorium following the game. She was introduced by Elwood Deras, Social Affairs committee chairman, who presented her with a bouquet of American Beauty roses.

Trophies were awarded at the dance for the best decorated houses in the Homecoming contest. Adjudged the best-decorated sorority house was the Sigma Kappa house on S. Tenth street. Kappa-Kappa-Gamma followed closely in second place, and Chi Omega in third.

The judges reported a close contest for the number one place in the fraternity race. Kappa Alpha won the trophy, but was closely followed by Sigma Gamma Omega. The third place was a tie, with Theta Chi and Delta Upsilon sharing the number three position.

In the Independent class, the Catholic Women's Center was awarded the trophy, with Presbyterian Hall in second place.

The trophies were presented by Barbara Belknap and Ed Mosher, on behalf of the Homecoming committee.

Following discussion of Y plans refreshments will be served and recreation provided.

Jim Clark Plays 'Faust' In First Fall Drama

By JIM CAPUTO

"One reason why I am so grateful for this opportunity to play 'Faust' is because the part is comprised of such varying emotions. The range for characterization is great," explained Jim Clark, sophomore speech major, who will portray the title role in the Speech and Drama department's first play.

A transfer from Hartnell college in Salinas, Clark is playing his first role in the college's Little Theatre. This is his first quarter at San Jose State.

"The part of 'Faust' is magnificent and challenging," Clark said. "In addition to dramatic characterization it requires agility in dancing and fencing sequences."

Lived in Salinas

Born in the Salinas valley, Jim is a graduate of Salinas high school. He played before the footlights there in "Jane Eyre," "Charlie's Aunt," and "A Christmas Carol."

Before service in the Army, the personable 23-year-old actor was active in USO events in the Salinas area. Later he appeared in dramatic productions on the Camp Beale radio station.

Now in full rehearsal for his Nov. 10 opening night, Jim finds little time for enjoyment of his hobbies.

Although he won a scholarship to the Shenaud Art Institute in Los Angeles, he dabs in water color painting of landscapes and portraits as a hobby. His other interests in sports are tennis, swimming and golf.

"I was told that San Jose State had the best drama department on the coast, and now I know why. They really work at it. The co-operation is wonderful. Students in the cast, and our director, Mr. Kerr, have helped me in every way to become oriented to the Speech department and to the college." These were some of Jim's reasons for coming to San Jose and explain his present enthusiasm for it.

Jim has hopes of acting in legitimate theatre productions after college. "A lot of people have the same idea," he concluded. "It's a tough business. But 'Faust' is a start."

Fairness Group Discusses Plans For Ensuing Year

The Fairness committee held its first meeting of the quarter Thursday in Dr. T. W. MacQuarrie's office.

Professor Elmo A. Robinson, committee chairman, explained the purpose of the committee to new and old members, and discussed plans for the coming year.

The purpose of the committee, as explained by Professor Robinson, is to make adjustments where a matter of unfairness is evident involving faculty members and students.

The committee has never taken or been given authority to make decisions for departments or department heads but only to make suggestions.

In the past the committee has tried to persuade the faculty to adopt methods which will adjust to the students and are now considering the student end of the affair.

The Bill of Obligations drawn up by the Fairness committee and passed by the Student Council concerned with student cheating during examinations, was published in the Spartan Daily recently.

Members of the committee this year include Dr. Margaret Letzter, speech; Mr. William E. Gould, journalism; Mr. Arthur L. Williams, chemistry; Dr. Leo P. Kibby, social science; and Dr. Donald H. Alden, English.

Student members to the committee are Bob Madsen, Len Frizzi and Fred Severo.

Faculty Artist Wins SF Exhibit

By PAT ROAN

Mr. Wendall N. Gates of the Art department, was awarded first place for portraiture in sculpturing at the First Annual Exhibit of the Society of Western Artists now being held in San Francisco.

The award was given for the fine artistry seen in a bust Mr. Gates completed this summer. The work had been started as a regular demonstration in a sculpturing class, Mr. Gates said, and had been finished up several months later.

Although the exhibit was open and competitive, Mr. Gates exhibited his work on the invitation of the society. He also has an oil painting in the show.

Mr. Gates, an instructor in sculpturing and life drawing, says he considers sculpturing his vocation and painting his avocation. He prefers to paint in the medium of oils.

Previous exhibits of Mr. Gates' works have been shown in the Oakland Art gallery. He received his M.A. degree at Western Reserve university, and has been on the art faculty here since 1946.

Dr. M. E. Reitzel, Art department head, also was honored by the society with an invitation to exhibit his paintings at the show. He is showing two oil paintings, "Capitola by the Sea" and "Pinky's Tavern."

Frosh Crumble Under Stanford

By TED BREEDEN

The opening whistle of the San Jose State-Stanford frosh football game still reverberated within the Stanford Stadium, Saturday, when the papooses hit "pay dirt" and continued on to massacre the hapless Spartan yearlings, 34-7.

Allan Peterson, Stanford halfback, broke over center and rolled to the Spartan two before being dragged down by Tom Sparling. On the following play Bill Helbron, one of a brace of Stanford backs that kept snapping in the faces of the Spartans throughout the game, went over the center of the line to score. Lew Draper converted and Stanford led, 7-0.

Coach Tom Cureton's squad playing an inspired first half held the Stanford team in check until the beginning of the second quarter when on a lightening thrust the papooses struck through the air. End Bob Thompson scored on a 50-yard pass and Draper converted.

Spartan halfback Ernie Jordan returned the kickoff to the Spartan 40 and then a few plays later broke over tackle and headed for the rival end zone. Jordan twisted away from the grasp of a last desperate defender and completed his 50 yard romp for a San Jose touchdown. Bob Farmer converted to place the Spartans within striking distance of tying Stanford.

Midway in the second quarter Stanford fumbled on a pitch out and the Spartans recovered on the Stanford 40 yard line. A pass from Dick Barbier to Dick Hadama carried to the 22. On a quarterback sneak Barbier squirmed through to the five. Jordan hurtled to the one. A little maulage might have seen the score tied, for on the next play State fumbled and Sanford recovered on the eight yard line. On a sustained drive Stanford drove to the Spartan three where the half ended before they could succeed in getting the ball in play.

San Jose State water polo coach Charlie Walker, shown above, and his varsity water polo crew, just got darn tired of being tied by Stanford's Indians so they whaled Cal Poly's tired Mustangs Friday night in Spartan pool. Judo Artists In Terrific Tussle For Cub Scouts

The Judo demonstrations of the San Jose State police school began with an auspicious start last Monday night at Lowell Grammar school when, in the heat of battle, groaner John Willis heaved opponent Johnnie Johnson into the footlights of the stage on which they were grappling. Johnson emerged uninjured.

The exhibition was staged for the benefit of the Lowell School Cub pack, the first organization to take advantage of the free demonstration offer by the police fraternity, Chi Pi Sigma.

Requests for Judo exhibitions will be welcomed by Chi Pi Sigma, it was announced. Arrangements may be made by contacting Miss Ruth Marsh, police school secretary.

Cal Poly Water Polo Team Slaughtered 17-6

By GEORGE McDONALD

Coach Charley Walker cleared his bench of reserves in trying every possible combination as San Jose State's water polo team defeated Cal Poly, 17-6, Friday afternoon in the San Jose pool.

Norm Keeler, Spartan swimmer who had saved the day against the Indians with his last-second shot only about 17 hours previously.

Following their half-time powwow the Stanford Frosh came roaring back, looking more like the team that has rolled over the Stanford Jayvees, Santa Clara Frosh, U.C.L.A. Frosh and U.S.C. Frosh. Halfbacks Dick Garguilo and Helbron took care of the ground work, while Thompson and Dick Sawyer were scoring on 50 and 40 yard pass completions. Loren Hinkleman drove over from the Spartan six and coupled with Draper's two successful conversion attempts the papooses had the game all wrapped up.

End Don Shishido, guard Eddie Salvadelena, end Terry Sweet and guard Herb Hardin looked good in their play for the trounced Spartans.

Bealey's Boys Tame Tigers

Friday afternoon co-captain Dore Purdy and College of Pacific's ace, Jack Kirkpatrick, continued their duel of last season and Purdy led the Spartan harriers to a decisive 19-36 victory over the visiting Tigers.

In winning their second meet in as many starts Coach Walt Bealey's strong team came through for nine of the first ten places. Purdy covered the 3 1/2 mile course in the winning time of 19 minutes, 5.5 seconds. Following Purdy to the finish line were Kirkpatrick, C.O.P.; Jim Lund, S.J.S.; Jim Simpson, S.J.S.; co-captain Marion Day, S.J.S.; Bob Weber, S.J.S.; Al Weber, S.J.S.; Bob Nicolai, S.J.S.; Norman Bottelo, S.J.S.; and Doug Prestage, S.J.S. in that order.

98 Aspirants Are Doing Student Teaching Now

By the end of the present quarter, 98 more future teachers will have had a sample of what life is like in their chosen profession.

Figures released from the Education department show almost 100 teaching credential-seekers are taking advantage of the student teacher requirement during the fall quarter.

Although the largest proportion of trainees are teaching in San Jose, they are not limited to this city or even to the county. A few have found positions beyond these limits.

All the apprentice teachers are not undergraduates, although the large majority are. Some have degrees and have returned to obtain teaching credentials.

Special secondary students lead the field with 66 members teaching. General elementary and kindergarten primaries division have 25 getting practical experience. Six are teaching in preparation for the general secondary and one student is after a general junior high credential.

Chaplin Fields, Louis Featured in Movie

San Jose Players will sponsor a series of movies in the Little Theater beginning Nov. 2 at 4:30 p.m., according to Nick Lickwar, publicity chairman for the group.

First in the series of one-day shows is a movie called "Hits of the Past," and includes two shorts of Charlie Chaplin's first films, a short starring W. C. Fields, and highlights in Joe Louis' boxing career.

The show lasts about an hour and a half, according to Lickwar, and admission price is 30 cents.

Sophs Set Tentative Date for Frosh Mixer

The Frosh-Soph mixer will be held sometime in the third week of November, according to Lud Spolyer, sophomore class president.

Plans for the affair are now under way.

The mixer is a quarterly event, with the class that wins two out of three quarters being awarded a trophy and a plaque. The scoring for the mixer is judged on the basis of six games, and attendance at the dance that ends the day's agenda. The games are to be decided later by the game committee, Leta Howard and Bill Watts.

The present elections will decide the chairman of the affair, as the vice-president of the sophomore class will be in charge.

Dance committee chairmen are B. J. Smith and Dick Vaum. The dance will be held from 8 to 11 p.m., the evening of the mixer. The site of the dance will be announced later.

Nine Departments Enlarge Staffs

Nine departments have added 13 new instructors to the SJSC faculty since the opening of the fall quarter, Dr. T. W. MacQuarrie, college president, announced recently.

The heavy and late enrollment which exceeded estimates, made the additions necessary.

The faculty now numbers more than 400, of whom 60 are new to the campus this year. About half of the new instructors are replacing those who resigned or retired at the end of the 1948-49 academic year.

The new faculty additions and their departments are:

Miss Estelle Kaiser, art; William A. Wolff, Everett M. Montague and Richard Andrews, engineering; Mrs. Erma Conley, English; Miss Florence Boyd, health and hygiene; Earl F. Ryan, mathematics; Nikola L. Ovanin, music; Mrs. Alice Castro and Mrs. Jeanne R. Fabaro, psychology; Dr. Vincent P. Carosso and H. Paul Ecker, social science; and Elliott J. Castro, natural science.
