Group Discusses Separation Of State and Junior Colleges

Officials of the State Department of Education will meet with representatives of the San Jose Unified school district Oct. 11 to discuss further the separation of San Jose Junior college from the state college. The group met with state college administrators Friday to make preliminary plans for the two-year institution.

"The junior college is a program, not a campus," Dr. Jay Conner, chief of the State Division of Instruction, said.

The vocational curriculum already planned by the state and school district will result in problems for students now enrolled in the program, Joe West, dean of students, said.

Dr. Earle P. Crandall, superintendent of schools, told the administrators Friday that the school district is not in favor of the separation.

Deadline Extended

Deadline for senior pictures has been extended until Friday, Oct. 10, Carole Simmons, co-editor of La Torre announced today.

Complete Casting for Shakesperean Drama

By JOANNE ROSSMAN

Cherie Bringham and Gerald Charlebois will play the title roles in the college's production of William Shakespeare's "Antony and Cleopatra," Miss Elizabeth Loeffler, director, announced yesterday.

The romantic tragedy will open Dec. 5 in the Little Theater. It will be the second Shakespearean play for the two leads. Miss Bringham appeared in a "Midsummer Night's Dream," produced by the spring quarter advanced-acting class. Charlebois was cast in the title role of "Othello" fall quarter.

Stuart Schwalbe will play Caesar.

Richard Rizzo and Holt Wood, leads in "The Importance of Being Earnest," also will appear in the Shakespeare production. Rizzo will play Enobarbus and Wood will appear as Pompey.

Only four women will make their appearance in the production. Attending the Egyptian queen are Constance McLean, as Charmian and Sandra Teboe as Iras. Ruth Dougherty will play Octavia, forgotten wife of Antony.

Charles Bailey, Eros; Lloyd Walters, Canidius; Waldo Dammereil, Tarus; Clyde Allen, Scarus; John Rodriguez, Dolabella; Warren Ramsey, Thyreus; Thorne Kinsey, Euphronius; Steve Wilson, Proculeius; Alan Adler, Diomedes; Jack Byers, clown; Mark Hassall, messenger to Antony; Thomas Wilberding, soldier to Caesar, and Michael Hallinan, Selicucus.

Miss Loeffler emphasized that the casting is temporary and changes are still being made.

Having Wonderful Time--Dimmick

"A steady and very thrilling flight" was Dean of Women Helen Dimmick's description of her trip to Honolulu aboard a Mars flying boat last Wednesday.

In a letter to Mrs. Izetta Pritchard, assistant dean of women, Dean Dimmick also described the "beautiful scenery" at Makalapa, B.O.Q., where she is quartered as a U.S. Navy guest.

"They take pictures of us every time we turn around," Dean Dimmick wrote. Mrs. Pritchard said the photos were taken by the Navy's public relations office.

Exchange Rally

Spartans appearing in the variety show-exchange rally to Fresno State college were scheduled to have left for Fresno by car at 9 o'clock this morning, according to Dave Caldwell, in charge of the rally.

The 40-minute show is to include tap dance, record pantomime, harmonizing by five freshman girls, a Charleston routine, and other musical acts, plus a melodramatic skit, according to Caldwell.

Placement Head Flies to Meeting

Miss Doris Robinson, director of teacher placement, is to fly to Long Beach today to attend a meeting of the Western Institutional Teacher Placement association.

Miss Robinson also expects to attend meetings of the California School Superintendents association and the California Association of School Administrators, which will be held Oct. 8-10.

Teacher Tests

Tests will be given Oct. 15-16, from 3:30 to 5:30 p.m., to determine which teacher training candidates will be exempted from fundamental subjects study. Harrison F. Heath, college testing officer, announced today.

Teacher training candidates who haven't taken these tests — for arithmetic, history, geography, spelling, and grammar — should sign up in Room 118 before Oct. 14, Dr. Heath stated.

Ah, Cool Again

The Indian summer heat-blitz is ended, temporarily at least, in the Santa Clara valley.

For today and tomorrow the weatherman predicts fair and slightly cooler weather, with patches of early morning fog. High both days, 70 to 78 degrees.

Senior Fee Hike Decision Delayed

The controversial proposal to raise the senior fee from $13 to $15 was shunted to a committee for further study by the senior class council at its meeting yesterday afternoon.

After a futile 20-minute discussion, President Ed Jacoubowsky placed the question in the hands of a five-member committee headed by Don Binder.

The committee will meet Wednesday at 3:30 p.m. in the Student Union to reach a decision on the question.

The meeting will be open to all interested seniors, Binder said. If a senior is unable to attend the meeting he may leave his suggestion in Box B in the Student Union.

The group will report at the next meeting of the council.

The meeting yesterday was attended by more than 45 persons.

"I was very happy with the turnout and interest shown," Jacoubowsky said.

On the senior fee committee are Binder, Leonard Marks, Chuck Wing, Anne Burt and Marge Rawson.

Don Weichert, chairman of the Fresno after-game dance reported plans are going on schedule.

The dance will be held from 10 p.m. to 1 a.m. in the Women's gymnasium. Admission price has been set at 25 cents.

Library Plans Under Study

Additions to the library and natural science buildings or possible construction of a new Library and an addition to the Men's gymnasium were the subjects under study in Sacramento yesterday as six SJS executives began conferences with State Department of Education officials.

Those who arrived in Sacramento yesterday are President John T. Wahlquist, E. S. Thompson, business manager; Joe H. West, dean of students; Joyce Backus, head librarian; Dr. Carl Duncan, chairman of the Men's physical education division.

Shields Interview

Beginning this morning at 9 a.m. in the Student Union ASB office, members of the Spartan Shields will take interviews and applications for campus activities.

The interviews will continue until 3:30 p.m. today, tomorrow and Thursday.

The Spartan Shields hope that these interviews will bring more student cooperation and interest in campus affairs.

Drop Around

Commemorating National Newspaper week Oct. 1-8, the Spartan Daily will hold open house tomorrow afternoon starting at 1:30 o'clock in the Daily staff room, B-93.

A section of tomorrow's Daily will be devoted to the operations and policies of the student newspaper, according to Walt Roessing, editor.

Schedule Three Class Elections For This Month

Sophomore, junior and senior class elections will be held Oct. 24, according to Don Binder, chief justice of the Student Court. The court met yesterday afternoon.

Offices to be filled are president, vice-president, secretary and treasurer of each class and sophomore justices, one male and one female.

Applications for eligibility to run for office may be obtained from Oct. 10 to 14 in the ASB office of the Student Union.

Petitions will be available start Oct. 15 and on-campus campaigning may begin Oct. 21.

Freshman class election will be held Dec. 5.

Campus Drive Off To Rousing Start

The Campus Chest drive got off to a rousing start yesterday, when $570—more than one third of the projected goal—was collected on campus and in classes.

Last night, collectors were scheduled to visit house meetings of coed living groups. A tally of the amount collected there was not available at press time.

Bernie Rapley, chairman of the drive, announced that the money collected would be distributed as follows: Community Chest, 63 per cent; Red Cross, 15 per cent; World University Students—formerly WSSF, 12 per cent; March of Dimes, 5 per cent; Heart Fund, 2 per cent and cancer fund, 2 per cent.

Small red feathers are given in exchange for contributions to the Campus Chest, as a sign that the person wearing one has given.

The drive will end Friday night at the Fresno State football game. A booth will be located in the Library arch all week, manned by members of AWS, Blue Key and Spartan Shields.

UP ROUNDUP

Truman, Ike Battle It Out

WASHINGTON (UP) — The presidential campaign, entering its last four weeks, assumed the proportions today of a personal slugging match between President Truman and Dwight D. Eisenhower.

As the Truman campaign train turned eastward, the President's assault on the GOP nominee had turned from early satire to blunt attacks, climaxed by a charge Saturday night in Oakland, Calif., that Eisenhower was partly to blame for Korea and the Berlin blockade.

EN ROUTE WITH NIXON (UP) — Sen. Richard M. Nixon said yesterday that in one of the "most disheartening" presidential campaigns on record "no one has stooped as low as Truman has in his attack on Eisenhower."

HAMILTON BLAZE UNDER CONTROL (UP) — State forestry crews placed four major fires under control today but more than a score of fires continued to rage out of control to boost the toll of the recent outbreak to 20,000 acres.

The largest blaze, four miles east of Mt. Hamilton in Santa Clara county, was brought under control last night.

Parking Crackdown Called For

Some students at this college either don't know how to park an automobile or are very negligent, leaving their vehicles diagonal to the curb on San Carlos, San Fernando and S. Seventh streets.

Every morning there are five or more student vehicles which straddle the diagonal white lines, taking up space which normally should be used by two automobiles.

We think some action should be taken on this matter. We know there are parking restrictions on this campus and we think they should be rigidly enforced—as they have been in previous quarters.

A few students should not be allowed to violate rules which were passed to benefit all!

Bruntz Announces IRC's First Meet

The International Relations club will hold its first meeting today at 3:30 p.m. in Room 13, according to Dr. George G. Bruntz, the club's advisor.

All students interested in international affairs are invited to attend, Dr. Bruntz said. A recent regional conference at San Francisco will be one of the topics discussed.

H.E. Party Slated

So that new students may meet the members and staff of the home economic department, an orientation party is scheduled for tomorrow at 7:30 p.m. in the college cafeteria. It is sponsored by Eta Epsilon, club for home economics students.

Women may wear slacks or peddle pushers.

A Necessary Trip?

Dear Thrust and Parry:

Dean Dimmick is at present on a trip in Hawaii as a guest of the United States Navy at taxpayer's expense.

Is such a trip necessary? Is it in the best interests of the American taxpayer? Is it in the best interest of San Jose State college?

Yours Truly,

Papers Moved to Reserve Room

Current newspapers, both national and local, are now located in the reserve book room of the college library, according to Joyce Backus, head librarian. They previously were in Room 211 of the library.

The former newspaper room will be used for class and faculty group discussion, Miss Backus said.

X-Ray Unit Visits Campus Tomorrow For Health Check

The mobile x-ray unit will be on campus tomorrow and Thursday.

Miss Margaret Twombly, head of the health and hygiene department, asks all students who have appointments to check their schedule. New students, who must take the x-ray to complete the health examination, are requested to visit the unit at their convenience.

X-rays will be given from 9 a.m. to noon and from 1 p.m. to 3 p.m., both days.

Frosh Meet Today

Freshmen are to meet as a group for the first time this year at 3:30 p.m. today in the Morris Dailey auditorium, according to Mr. Harrison W. McCreath, class co-adviser.

Class organization will be discussed, he said.

Receptionists Now Staff ASB Office Daily To Help Students

Receptionists now are on duty daily in the ASB office at the Student Union to answer the phone calls and take messages for student body officers and representatives.

Heading a committee of approximately 20 receptionists are Co-chairmen Marty Smith and Dot Roney. The committee is being supervised by the Rally committee and Chuck Wing, Rally committee chairman.

A meeting has been scheduled for the committee tomorrow night at 7:30 o'clock in the Student Union.

Purpose of having the receptionists is to help students who come into the office to inquire about some activity, committee, or student body officer. Now they can get the information immediately from one of the girls at the desk.

SPARTAN DAILY—3

First Home Game For Locals Friday

Spartan footballers returned home Sunday after taking the measure of Arizona State at Tempe, 21-14, and will be seen for the first time this season in their home stadium Friday night against Fresno State college.

Arizona State, which had been ranked 22nd in the nation prior to Saturday's game, led for the first quarter but the Spartans tied it up shortly after, 7-7. The Spartans had possession of the ball most of the second period but couldn't score and the contest was still tied at half-time.

The Golden Raiders took the lead for the first time in the third quarter but one scrimmage play later the Sun Devils tied it up again at 14-14. The Spartans came back to score the winning points early in the fourth period and then held the powerful Sun Devils the remainder of the game.

No injuries were suffered by the locals, with the exception of Center Jack Carhart being shaken up, but he returned later in the game and played outstanding offensive and defensive ball for Coach Bob Bronzan's eleven.

Dick Stults, Spartan fullback, who was ranked third in the nation in rushing going into this tilt, picked up 111 yards to stay among the leaders in the country. He scored one of the Spartan touchdowns.

Lynn Aplanalp, quarterbacking for the Golden Raiders, tossed 19 passes and completed 11 for 227 yards. This performance should raise him higher among the nation's leaders. He was rated 22nd in last week's poll.

Stults' big gains were through the middle of the line, where Dale Sumers and Clarence Orr at guards and George Porter and Sal Cardinali at tackles were opening the holes.

Stan Wacholz and Bob Amaral, ends, both succeeded in getting behind the Sun Devils' safety man, John Henry Johnson, for long gains on passes. Wacholz scored the Spartans' first touchdowns in this fashion.

Larry Matthews, speedy halfback, was also a big gainer for the Spartans on offense.

Bruce Halladay and Russ Phillips, defensive linebackers, were successful time after time in stopping the Sun Devil runners.

Freshmen Prepare For COP Meet; Hiram May Play

The freshman footballers, preparing to meet COP here Oct 17, are spending this week on fundamentals and contact work, according to Tom Cuffe, freshman football coach.

Pat Hiram, who has been absent from practices because of a pulled leg/muscle, is expected to be back in time for the COP game. In doubt about his condition is Dave Langhoff, also out of commission due to a leg injury.

Yanks Unsure Of Hurler for Last Game

BROOKLYN, Oct. 6 (UP)—Manager Charlie Dressen named Rookie Joe Black to pitch for the Brooklyn Dodgers in the final game of the World Series but Manager Casey Stengel said he had "no idea" who will start for the New York Yankees.

However, Allie Reynolds, who won the fourth game for the Yankees and saved today's game in relief, is expected to pitch. Stengel said before yesterday's game Reynolds would pitch today but after the game he said, "I doubt very much if I will start Reynolds."

If Reynolds does not pitch, left-hander Ed Lopat, who lost the third game of the series, is expected to be named despite the heavy righthanded hitting batting lineup of the Dodgers.

Black, the 220-pound relief specialist during the regular season, will be the third rookie in history to draw three starting assignments in one series. Black beat the Yankees in the opener and lost to Reynolds in the fourth game.

The Yankees evened the series at three games each yesterday when they defeated the Flatbush boys, 3-2, on the home-runs of Yogi Berra and Mickey Mantle and two lucky breaks.

The breaks came in the seventh inning just after Berra had hit a homerun to tie the score at 1-1, offsetting the first of two four-pully wallops hit by the Dodgers' Duke Snider. Both winning pitcher Vic Raschi and loser Billy Loe figured in the "break."

Gene Woodling singled after Berra's drive and went to second on a balk which Loe committed while pitching to Noren. The ball accidentally dropped out of Loe's hand when he toed the rubber.

Loe went on to strike out Noren and get Billy Martin on a pop fly. But then Raschi on a pop fly. But when Raschi hit a ground ball which struck Loe on the left leg and caromed out into right field just out of the reach of first baseman Gil Hodges, Woodling raced home with the tie-breaking run.

Had the ball not hit Loe Raschi would have been an easy out for it was driven directly at second baseman Jackie Robinson. That run proved to be the big one as things eventually turned out.

Mickey Mantle hit a homerun in the eighth to make the Yank's margin 3-1. Snider made it 3-2 with a blast deep into the right centerfield stands.

Snider's homer was the 14th of the series, a new high for World Series play. The previous high was 12 set in the 1925 series between Pittsburgh and Washington.

Basketballers Prepare for League Action

Basketball season will arrive this year at Sparta with three returning lettermen and a new basketball league established.

Former lettermen will be Lee Jensen, forward; Don Edwards, forward and center; and Stan Wacholz, center now playing football as a first string end for the Spartans.

Returning to vie for honors on the varsity this year will be Bill Abbott, Dick Brady, Bud Hjelm, Carroll Williams, Slim Hodgson, Howard Rawpp, and Sal Burriesci.

Herman Wyatt, ace high jumper, will be a candidate for center. Wyatt, it will be remembered,

WALT McPHERSON

made a spectacular 6'8" jump last year and was a contender in the Olympic tryouts.

Transfers giving Coach Walt McPherson hope are Fred Nieman, all-conference center last year at San Francisco City college; Gordon Ouse, Stockton J.C.; Barney Parsons, Frank Phillips, Jim Coulter and Evans Crod, all coming from East Contra Costa J.C.; Bill Lamson, Glendale J.C.; Dick Schwendinger, Chaffey; Don Bloom, Sacramento J.C., and Bob Steinback, Hartnell J.C.

The new league, calling itself the California Intercollegiate Basketball association, will include St Mary's, College of Pacific, Santa Clara and San Jose. Loyola and San Francisco State may enter the league later. The conference will follow the present PCC basketball rulings. Favored in the new league are Santa Clara and University of San Francisco.

This same league was disbanded in 1938 after a two year trial. It provides for a home-and-home series with each school in the league.

The starting game of the season will be with Sacramento State, December 2. It will be played at Sacramento.

Following this opener the team will meet Fresno State, San Francisco State and the San Diego Naval Training Center in that order.

Coach McPherson said two games at Utah State and one at Cal Poly probably will account for the only traveling the team will do.

Football Signup

Teams planning to enter the intramural touch football league should place their names in Box A in the Student Union before 5 p.m. today, according to Tom Berrey, AMS president.

Fraternity and independent team captains are also requested to meet in the Student Union at 2:30 p.m. Thursday.

... Press Box Chatter ...

By BILL TUNNELL

Glenn (Tiny) Hartranft, Spartan athletic director, made a statement earlier this season concerning the lack of fans at the Golden Raider football games that perhaps could be answered.

He said, "I don't know why the Spartans don't draw crowds at their home stadium. There just doesn't seem to be a logical explanation."

Well, perhaps there is. There might even be several, but one seems to stand out above all others, and that one is LACK OF PUBLICITY for the local club.

The first question asked by the Spartan footballers upon arriving at the San Francisco Airport after beating Arizona State 21-14, a team which, by the way, was ranked 22nd in the nation prior to the game, was, "What kind of write-ups did we get on the game?"

Well the majority of the papers conceded the fact that the Golden Raiders had won the game but very little more could be found even upon extensive search.

Plenty of space and words could be found on the University of California and Stanford university, BUT they're not colleges in San Jose. Even conceding the fact that Cal has a better football team, there is still no excuse for cutting down on the hometown club: And anyone who has seen the Golden Raiders play this season won't even concede that much concerning the Stanford ball club.

True, the local ball club hasn't played at home this year but even when they do come to town, which will be Friday night, few people in this town will be interested enough to come out and watch them play, because they don't know anything about them.

Perhaps these people don't feel that the local club is deserving of space because the people aren't interested. Well, then it is the responsibility of these same people to get them interested. That's just good journalism.

Seven Local Athletes To Be Honored Tonight

Seven San Jose State athletes of the last few years will be honored tonight at a dinner at the Phi Sigma Kappa fraternity.

The athletes to be honored are Chuck Adkins, Olympic light-welterweight boxing champion who is now a junior at the college; Jack Scheberies AAU heavyweight boxing champion who graduated last year; Mac Martinez, AAU featherweight champion who won the NCAA 125-pound title for the Spartans a few years back; and Bill Priddy, Paul Jennings and Herm Wyatt, stars of last year's track team who will return this year.

Cups inscribed "Olympic Trials—1952" will be presented to all of the athletes mentioned with the exception of Adkins. He will be awarded a cup worded "Olympic Team—1952."

Other featured guests, accompanied by their wives, will be Dr. Stanley Benz, dean of men; Tiny Hartranft, director of athletics; Bud Winter, varsity track coach; and Dee Portal, varsity boxing coach.

Master of ceremonies for the program will be Danny Hill, department of athletics publicity director. Dr. Benz will deliver the featured talk.

President Elten Bessinger and Bob Bowles of the respective organizations said the dinner was organized to give recognition to the athletes for the fine job they did in representing the college in athletics.

Campus Chest Service Includes Day Nurseries

By DAVE ELAM

Spartans are being asked to give to the Campus Chest this week. Many of us connect the Campus or Community Chest with the American Cancer foundation, the Red Cross and other nationwide organizations of this sort.

We realize the importance of the work done by these groups, but for most of us they represent intangibles, far removed from our daily lives. What many do not realize is that the Community Chest also aids institutions such as the day nurseries utilized by many Spartan couples.

The San Jose day nursery and the St. Elizabeth's day home are two nurseries in San Jose whose facilities are utilized by many Spartans. Both nurseries receive part of their funds from Community Chest contributions.

These nurseries both are open from seven o'clock in the morning through six in the evening, Monday through Friday. Children between the ages of two and eight years are admitted to both, and receive meals, naps and recreation each day.

Part of these nurseries are brought within the means of students through such agencies as the Community Chest. Approximately one-third of the nurseries yearly operating expenses are contributed by the Community Chest.

Services Release One Spartan Grad, Take Another

A former Spartan—Cpl. J. Tripoli—is returning to San Jose from Korea this month under the Army rotation program, it was learned yesterday.

Cpl. Tripoli is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John B. Tripoli of San Jose. He was stationed with the 32nd Infantry regiment as a chaplain's assistant.

Graduate Don Logie, son of Mrs. Elvire J. Logie of San Jose, received notice from the Marine Corps recently that he has been accepted as a candidate for officer training.

Naval Reservists Speak Here Today

U. S. Navy Reserve personnel will be in the Little Theater at 1:30 a.m. today to explain their Navy's reserve officer candidate program.

Freshman students are specifically urged to attend the meeting according to Navy reserve headquarters in San Jose. Age limit for reserve enlistment is 17-18½ years. Cmdr. E. J. Wilson, from office of the commandant, Twelfth Naval district, will be the principal speaker.

Crayon, Gouache Works on Display

Compositions in crayon and gouache will be on display in the Reserve Book room until Oct. 21, according to Dr. Marques E. Reitzel, head of the art department. The 24 works representing the non-objective, abstract-expressionist fields of art, are from the Bertha Schaefer gallery, New York.

Ben-Zion, Cameron Booth, Peter Busa, Norman Daly, Worden Day, William Halsey, Ary Stillman and A. H. Maurer are represented in the display.

Two Films Slated For Today's Show

"Telephone Courtesy" and "Public Relations," motion pictures will be shown in the Morris Dailey auditorium today at 10:30 and 11:30 a.m. Dr. Richard B. Lewis, coordinator of audio-visual services, announced.

"This free showing continues a policy, set by the president's council last year, of showing new films of general interest to the Student Body," Dr. Lewis said.

Fulbright Award Data in Room 114

Students desiring information on the Fulbright grants should go to the personnel office, Room 114.

Competition for the 1953-54 scholarships, by which a year of study in foreign countries is awarded selected students, is to close Oct. 31, 1952, excepting those for Australia and New Zealand, which end Oct. 15 of this year.

The applicant's personal qualifications, academic record, value of the proposed study of research, and suitability for placement in an institution of higher learning abroad, are factors upon which selection is made.

Award of a U.S. government grant, such as the Fulbright, carries with it no assurance of military service deferment. Also, applicants may apply for one country only.

AWS Sponsors Big Little Sister Party

Little sisters will meet their big sisters Wednesday at party to be held from 3:30 to 5 p.m. in the inner quad.

"Those who haven't received word yet from their big sisters are invited just the same," said Sallee Lotz, AWS second vice-president.

Entertainment will include piano selections by Ingrid Andresson, and singing, led by Joyce Malone.

Committees for the party are Joan Nichols and Charlotte Muriel, refreshments; Enid Harte and Colleen Collins, entertainment; Mary Alice Grimes, name tags; and Dorothea Bettencourt and Joan Harlan, publicity.

Twelve New Teachers Join Faculty Here

Three full-time and nine part-time instructors have been added to the faculty because of a rise in enrollment in certain departments, President John T. Wahlquist announced yesterday.

New full-time faculty members are Thomas J. Miranda, natural science; Mrs. Margaret Douglas Chamberlin, speech; and Patrick C. Meierotto, music.

Part-time instructors added to the faculty are Richard G. Rymier, engineering; Mrs. Marian L. Wolfe, occupational therapy; Mrs. Helen E. Doerr, women's physical education; Louis Melo and Harold Plummer, industrial arts; Mrs. Marion Hall, mathematics; Mrs. Marion Nichols, art, and Frederic S. Simon and Jack Marsh, psychology.
