Council Lists Appointive ASB Offices

In order for those students wishing to submit applications to the Student Council for appointment to student body offices, the following summation of duties of the offices is presented.

The Recording Secretary shall perform the duties customarily pertaining to his office and shall also serve as Recording Secretary of the Student Council.

The Prosecuting Attorney investigates alleged violations of campus regulations and appears before the Student Council to declare his intent to prosecute the violators.

The member appointed to the Spartan Shop board shall assist the rest of the board in supervising the efficiency and operation of the Spartan bookstore and fountain.

Two members will be appointed to the Student Union board. The board plans social and recreational activities for the building and establishes and maintains all controls pertaining to the building.

The four members who will be appointed to the Fairness committee shall review cases of fairness and examination procedure.

The Chapel Use committee, of which two members will be appointed, shall supervise the operation and use of the Chapel.

One position for the Radio and Television committee is open. The committee shall serve as a general policy board on radio and television activities pertaining to the college.

There are two openings for two-year periods for those who wish to serve on the Spartan Revelries board. The board supervises "Spartan Revelries."

Two positions also are open for the Student Activities board, and the Co-Recreation committee has openings for two new members. The committee shall plan and offer co-educational recreation to all students of the college.

The College Health board, which has an opening for one student, supervises the operation of McFadden Health cottage.

The Awards committee has an opening for one member. This committee facilitates the efficient handling and formation of policy awards for the ASB.

ASB President John Aitken stated that he hopes that enough interested persons will apply for these jobs so that the Student Council will be given a chance to choose capable persons to do the work conscientiously. Aitken pointed out that the asking for applications is in keeping with a policy set down by the Student Council when it came into office last spring quarter. Many of the offices which are open for application could be filled by arbitrary appointment if the Student Council so desired.

The Weather

If you live out of town and are not the proud possessor of a set of fog lights, run, don't walk, to your neighborhood fog light dealer, and purchase a pair of golden beauties.

This sterling advice will serve you well, for according to the United Press teletype there will be an abundance of fog both morning and night. Temperatures will stay much the same with a high of 86, low of 47.

Pair To Meet Oxford Monday

TWO SAN JOSE STATE debaters, Bill Johnson and Terry Arnold, are preparing for the monumental argument Monday night with Oxford university debaters, John Peters and Patrick Mayhew. The teams will discuss Britain's handling of the Middle East. Dean De Voss will serve as chairman. —Photo by Wadsworth

Johnson, Arnold Named To Take Debate Stand

Bill Johnson and Terry Arnold will represent San Jose State at the Oxford debate, Monday evening in the Concert hall, Dr. Lawrence Moust, forensics adviser, announced.

Johnson and Arnold are taking the affirmative side of the topic, "In the opinion of this house, the British have mishandled the Middle East." The debate starts at 8 p.m.

Frosh Groups Name Officers

Officers for Freshman council groups A, B and C were elected this week at the regular meetings.

Presidential duties for the three groups went to Don Costa, Paul Olsen and Bob Weiss.

Group A chose Lloyd Matsumoto for vice-president; Carolyn Stelling, secretary; Jeanette Furtado, treasurer; Natalie Fancher, program chairman, and Antoine Rigwiden, yell leader.

Officers of group B are Ben Zeitman, vice-president; Liz Moore, secretary; Dianna Jo Friedberger, treasurer, and Shirley Sheldon, yell leader.

Bob Sgarlato, vice-president; Cella Cross, secretary; Susan Hester, treasurer; Chris Griffiths, program chairman; and Marcia Lundy, yell leader were the choices of group C.

At the meeting last Monday of group D Orville Butts, Paul Thomson and Jim Torney were nominated.

Candidates for vice-president are Fred Tempa, Alice Alcalde, Julie Anderson and Shirley Batton. Nominees for secretary include Noreen Plummer, Maxine Warner, Claire McFaul, Donna Taylor, Joyce Norman and Mary Ann Hurne.

Donna Moore, Madeline Planchon, Mary Ellen Bush, Barbara Brown, Ray Cogo, Jean Simpson and Gwen Coster are candidates for treasurer. Vying for program chairman are Gerry Miller, Jackie Malmberg and Fred Volz.

Yell leader candidates are Pauline Deck, Nada Stepovich, Saralee Smith, Dorothy Fernandez, Pat Cammins, Erin O'Brien and Dennis Brisbane.

Buses To Start Rolling For Asilomar at 12:30

Sparta Camp will officially begin this afternoon when buses will leave the Student Union at 12:30 o'clock for Asilomar, Jerry Ball, director of the camp, announced yesterday.

Ball also stated that all persons attending should meet in front of the Union at noon today for registration. The Sparta Camp committee

Committee Meets Today To Discuss Senior Activities

A committee to discuss the general value of the senior activities program to graduating seniors will meet today, Dr. Vernon Ouellette, chairman, announced.

The Senior Week Evaluation committee has been called together to discuss generally and specifically the value of the senior week program, Dr. Ouellette said.

The committee will evaluate each of the senior week functions—Senior orientation, Senior ball, Senior banquet, Senior beach day, Senior day, Senior breakfast, Senior overnight and Senior budgetary control.

Each of these activities will be studied and decisions will be made as to whether each will be continued in its present form, eliminated, modified or expanded.

Members of the committee have been asked to confer with other faculty members and former students in order to obtain a wider view of the program.

The committee is composed of Dr. John T. Wahlquist, member ex-officio; Dean James C. DeVoss; Dean Joe H. West; Dean Stanley C. Benz; Dr. Gertrude Cavins, professor of chemistry; William Felse, graduate manager; Allen Jacobs, associate professor of botany; Milton Lanyon, associate professor of art; Dr. Alexander McCallum, professor of biology; Peggy Major, alumni secretary; Emerson Arnds, past alumni president, and Arthur Helzen, present alumni president.

Band, Marchers Perform at Game

Dr. Robert Flester, director of the San Jose State college band, announced that the marching group will form the outline of a star as a feature of half-time entertainment at the game with Arizona State Saturday night.

The Spartan band will form a red feather in accordance with the Community Chest campaign. The massed high school bands will then form the word "Give." The bands will join to play "Military Escort" and "Our Director."

Enthusiastic and Entertaining Football Rally Draws Crowd

Last night's football rally was a success!

The Morris Dailey auditorium was packed with enthusiastic Spartan rooters who gave Head Cheer Leader Jim Morris the response he was seeking to all of the San Jose State college yells. When Morris asked the crowd if they wished to cheer some more they responded with a resounding "Yes."

Highlight of the evening was the introduction of most of the varsity football players by Head Coach

Bob Bronzan. Each player was greeted with the acclaim due to the members of an undefeated team. Line Coach Bill Perry and Backfield Coach Gene Menges saluted the crowd a bit later in the festivities.

Congratulations should be given to the Rally committee for the good entertainment provided and the brevity of the rally which made it effective.

Leach To Speak In Concert Hall

Sweden's place in world affairs and magazine editing will be the topics of two lectures Henry Goddard Leach, author and educator, will give Tuesday morning.

Dr. Leach's first talk is scheduled for 9:30 a.m. in the Music building's concert hall. He will speak again at 11:30 a.m. in the Little Theater.

tee has attempted to plan a system of discussion topics so that the why, what, and how of student activities will be thoroughly and impartially covered.

Each person will enter into three of six groups. The choice of discussion groups will remain with the participant.

Topics under discussion will be, student, faculty, administration relationship, student government, social organizations, AMS, AWS, Student Activities board, Spartan Daily, and campus coordination; Sports and Rally committee; and departmental and service organizations.

Aside from the discussion groups there will be a keynote address by Dr. W. H. Cowley of Stanford university.

When the group arrives at Asilomar there will be an introduction of dignitaries and discussion leaders. A general statement of purpose and schedule for the two days will be given at this time.

A dance will be given tonight at 9 o'clock at the camp for all those attending. The trek will begin tomorrow evening in time for the students and faculty to attend the Arizona State football game.

SJS Sponsors High School Press Group

The first meeting of the year of the Peninsula Scholastic Press association will be held on campus tomorrow, according to Mrs. Dolores Spurgeon, journalism instructor and coordinator of the association.

The SJS Journalism department sponsors the association, which is composed of high school publication staffs in this area, and will be the host at this meeting. Dr. Dwight Bentel, Journalism department head, and Mrs. Spurgeon are in charge.

Seventeen high schools are expected to send representatives to the meeting.

A whole day's activities have been provided for, with registration to begin at 9 a.m. and adjournment to be at 4 p.m.

An estimated 235 high school students will attend the meet, in the new Music and Engineering buildings, as well as in the Journalism building.

Guest speaker for the event will be Jerry Bundgen, SJS journalism graduate, San Francisco writer, television performer, master of ceremonies, and columnist.

At 10:30 a.m. the group will divide to attend "Your Yearbook" and "Your Newspaper" clinics. Frances Rabanus and Roger Flanagan, co-editors of the La Torre, will be chairmen of the yearbook group. Dr. Bentel and Mrs. Spurgeon will be guest advisers.

Rita Patterson and Nelson Wadsworth, of the Spartan Daily, will preside over the newspaper group, while William Gould, Carl Hoffmann, and Charles Kappen, journalism faculty members, will be guest advisers.

The meeting will close with an hour's entertainment provided by a demonstration dance team from the Arthur Murray Studio in San Jose. Box lunches will be provided by the college at noon.

Freshmen Will Be Freshmen!

At Wednesday's meeting of the Student Council it was disclosed that, of the 20 persons elected to office by the class of '57, 11 had entered San Jose State college on probation. The Student Council was asked to ignore the ASB constitution and allow these 11 persons to take office. The Student Council did only what common sense dictated by refusing to do this.

What would probation mean if it were not enforced?

The person who has entered San Jose State college on probation has had scholastic difficulty in high school and the probation period is meant to allow such students to pursue their studies without outside bother. This means that the administration is giving students a chance to get a college education which might be denied them by other institutions.

With the college extending such a privilege to these students we feel that the privilege should be protected rather than abused. We congratulate the Student Council for their action in this instance.

Turning down the request of the eager would-be Freshmen officers resulted in some uncalled for abuse which the Student Council endured with patience. Specifically, the council was accused of not giving adequate information concerning elections at Freshman Camp.

The accusation was based more on emotion than on logic. John Aitken, president of the ASB, stated that persons attending Freshman Camp had been asked to read one of the many copies of the ASB constitution which were available at Asilomar. That persons on probation had neglected to read the constitution cannot be construed as the fault of the council. The blame belongs, it seems to us, squarely on the shoulders of the persons who ignored the invitation to read the constitution.

As a result, the class of '57 has nine officers holding jobs that are designed for 20. The fault lies with the Freshmen and should be rectified immediately. Out of 1800 students it is surely possible to locate 20 students on clear status who are interested in their class and in their college. How about it Frosh?

Jones To Attend Home Ec Meeting

Dr. Margaret C. Jones, head of the Home Economics department, will represent the college at a meeting in Sacramento Monday and Tuesday, she announced yesterday.

Dr. Jones, who is a member of the State Homemaking-Home Economics Curriculum committee, will report on the need for training personnel for professional fields other than teaching. These include: dietetics, institutional management, 4-H Club leadership, extension service and home demonstration agents.

Meetings

Channing Club will meet Sunday, Oct. 11 at the Unitarian church at 7:30 p.m.

Daily Ed Thanks Gentry for Help

By JOE BRYAN
Spartan Daily Editor

Illness has forced Arline Gentry to retire as recording secretary and to leave school for the remainder of the quarter.

The Spartan Daily will miss Arline, and we'd like to thank her for the many things she has done to make the job of reporting on student council affairs easier. She has provided the reporter on the council beat with an agenda of each meeting, so that he could prepare an advance story on what business was expected to be discussed.

Last spring she wrote a half page of the newspaper when the Recognition day committee failed to do its work and routed her out of bed at six o'clock in the morning to do it for them.

We wish Arline a speedy recovery and hope to see her next quarter. We hope that her replacement does as good a job as she has and regret that the Student Council did not see fit to give her a leave of absence.

SJS Is Busting Out All Over

By NEIL FRANK

San Jose State college is getting bigger all the time.

Its enrollment is expanding every year, and with the increase in students comes a corresponding increase in the number of buildings. This year's crop of seniors can remember that when they were freshmen, the entire campus and school buildings were enclosed by Seventh, San Fernando, San Carlos, and Fourth streets.

Now the college, almost like a growing organism feeling too cramped for its original boundaries, has stepped across these streets and stretched out to make itself a little more comfortable.

The factor which is causing this growth is the college's annually swelling enrollment. This quarter an all-time record of 7106 full-time state college students is attending the college.

Only in the fall of 1949 have more students been here. At that time 8019 full-time students were attending. Of those, however, only 6922 were state college students. Most of the remainder were junior college students. The colleges are now separated.

This quarter the college has a record enrollment of limited students, students carrying no more than six units. Last fall there were 750 limited students. In the fall of 1951 651 limited students were enrolled.

Extension students — those taking courses from the college by mail or receiving instruction from it in another city — also have increased every year. The registrar's office expects a possible record for extension students this year.

What is causing these record increases in enrollment? They are results of several factors. For one thing, the city of San Jose is rapidly expanding. It is drawing more and more people every year, and is getting bigger in area.

Another cause for the increased enrollment is the fact that more people are going to college throughout the country. The expansion is not confined to San Jose. Many schools have come to feel too small for their student bodies.

A more specific cause for the growth of the college may be its wide athletic program. An ever emphasis on all sports may be one of the reasons for San Jose State's increasing popularity.

Whatever the causes, it is certain that San Jose State will continue to grow — both in students and in buildings and equipment.

Golden Raiders Set for Arizona State

Sun Devils Rated As Powerhouse

San Jose State, undefeated in its first three games, tomorrow night gets its severest test thus far, meeting the defending Border Conference champion, Arizona (Tempe) State at 8 p.m. at Spartan stadium.

The Spartans were impressive in their opener, turning back Idaho, 34-6. However, in succeeding games they barely edged Brigham Young, 28-25, and Fresno State, 27-21.

Nothing has been wrong with the Spartan offense, statistically second best in the nation. But, against an offensive powerhouse such as Arizona State, the lax defensive play of the last two weeks would be fatal.

Led by Dick Curran, a big and speedy halfback, the Sun Devils have again shown a fine offense. Curran, who is married to the 1949 Miss All-America, Jacque Mercer, last year ranked ninth in the nation in rushing and has picked up where he left off in 1952. Danny Sievert, transfer from Loyola, is filling the other halfback spot for Clyde Smith's potent Tempe group.

The Sun Devils boast two fine quarterbacks, both veterans, Dick Mackey and Bob Hendricks. Mackey, who holds most of the Arizona State passing records, has been starting most of the games, but it was Hendricks who nearly wrecked the Spartans last year. His split-T plays kept the Spartans in hot water throughout, as the Spartans barely won, 21-14.

The big Tempe line is anchored by a sensational sophomore tackle, John Jankans, who last year made the All-Border Conference team as a freshman. The Sun Devils are defending Border Conference champions.

Matched against this crew, Bob Bronzan will send a club which in its first three games compiled an average of 310.7 yards per game rushing and a total offense of 400.7 yards per game. Both figures rank second in the nation.

Top ground gainer is Joe Ulm, sophomore fullback whose 296 yards are third best in the nation. Halfback Larry Matthews, with 253 yards, is ninth and his 9.7 average per carry is tops in the U.S. The other Spartan halfback starter, Bill Walker, has 169 yards.

Quarterback Larry Rice, one of the pleasant surprises this fall, is 16th in the nation in passing and his play-calling and leadership has consistently drawn praise from Bronzan and his aides.

Veteran tackles Sal Cardinali and John Hamber bulwark the Spartan line which includes no other starting letterman. Ends Charles Hardy and Clarence Wessman, Guards Stan Galas and Charley Kaalhue and Center Dick Flegler are all junior college transfers playing their first season in Spartan uniforms.

This is the fifth game in the San Jose-Tempe series and Arizona State will be looking for its first victory.

Three high school bands in the Santa Clara valley, Gilroy, Campbell and Fremont of Sunnyvale, will be honored at the game and will join with the Spartan band in presenting halftime formations. The Associated broadcast, by Lee Giroux and Doug Pledger, will be heard over Radio KEEN, San Jose, and KROW, Oakland.

Justices Call Meet

A meeting of the Student Court has been called for 3:30 p.m. Tuesday, Oct. 13, Bill Bewley, junior justice, and Jim Choate, senior justice-elect, announced yesterday.

Plans for the coming election and recommendation of appointees for chief justice, sophomore justice, and bailiff will be discussed. The meeting will be held in the Student Union.

Frosh Watermen Defeat Palo Alto

San Jose State's freshman water polo team defeated the Palo Alto high school team in the Paly home pool yesterday, 7-4.

Touch Football Season Opens Slate Tuesday

Intramural touch football will get under way Tuesday afternoon with two Fraternity league games scheduled, Wade Wilson, intramural football manager said yesterday.

Teams scheduled for the opening games are all from the American division of the Fraternity league, Wilson said. They will be Sigma Alpha Epsilon vs. Kappa Alpha Phi and Delta Sigma Phi vs. Sigma Chi. Site for the games has not been announced as yet and is expected to be released today or Monday.

Wilson also said that a change in plans had been made regarding the distribution of copies of league rules and regulations. He said that all managers, both of Fraternity and independent teams, are to pick up their copies along with the rules and regulations of touch football, in the Men's gym office.

Because of the extension of sign-up deadline for independent teams until Wednesday, Wilson said that the Independent league opening game has not yet been determined.

Migraine Makers Have Easy Pick

"Monday Morning Migraine Makers" came up with a relatively easy group of picks this week, that is, if everything goes according to schedule.

In fact, with the exception of Bart Williams, who traitorously picked Arizona over the Spartans, and the recently returned Sallee Lotz, who picked Wisconsin over UCLA, the "Migraine Makers" were in accord. All except guest prognosticator Joe Bryan, who couldn't decide between Cal and Penn and who settled for a tie.

Bryan is a mere substitute and is replacing Don Johnson who has been out of school for a week. Since Bryan is the editor of the Spartan Daily we must respect his opinion, but we think he lost his nerve when he decided on that tie.

COP To Close Three Game Home Stand

STOCKTON, Oct. 9 — Closing out a three game home stand, the College of the Pacific Tigers tangle with the University of Hawaii Rainbows in Pacific Memorial stadium Saturday night at 8 o'clock.

Victims of an upset defeat at the hands of University of Tulsa, 22-13, last weekend, Coach Jack Myers is pointing his Tigers at the Hawaiians with hopes of bringing Pacific's record even at 2-2 before hitting the road.

Pacific doesn't play in Stockton again after Saturday until the Bengals entertain Fresno State on Nov. 21. Texas Tech in Lubbock, Marquette in Milwaukee, an open date, San Jose State in San Jose and Idaho in Moscow is the schedule for that five week period.

Going against the Rainbows for the sixth time in the history of competition between the two schools, COP will be without the services of ace passer Roy Ottoson. The tall senior, seeing limited action against Tulsa because of an injured shoulder, reinjured it and Myers says he won't play again until the Texas Tech game, if he can play then.

Art Department Offers Variety Of Skills for Artists, Teachers

By BEA DeBENEDETTI

Students who have chosen art as their major are trained in the fields of teaching, commercial art, interior decorating, painting and illustration, ceramics, sculpture, crafts, and art history, according to Dr. Marques E. Reitzel, department head.

For students planning to become artists or who wish it for personal enrichment, courses in painting and illustration offer ample opportunities, he said. The use of water color, oil and other media is taught in this class.

Especially emphasized is life drawing, portrait and figure painting. Also, the problems of illustration and mural painting are studied and then applied to practical objects. More important, however, students are helped to develop their particular creative abilities.

The teacher training course will lead to an A.B. degree in art and teacher's credential. This course develops expert knowledge and teaching of art. The credential qualifies the graduate to teach art in elementary, junior and senior high schools. However, a minor in another field is required, and industrial arts is recommended. The department has shown an excellent record of student placement and boasts a fine record made by its graduates.

Graduates from the commercial art classes now hold positions as designers of booklets, posters, direct mail, theater announcements, newspaper and magazine ads.

Some of the former students of the Art department are art directors of department stores, production managers of printing establishments and fashion illustrators.

As a public service, the art department selects exhibitions and displays them in the college library or in the Art building.

Plans for Expanded Science Building Reach Bidding, Construction Stage

Preparation for construction of the new Science building addition is now out of the budgeting period and in the stage for bidding and construction, Dr. Carl Duncan, head of the department, disclosed yesterday after attending a recent high-level planning conference in Sacramento.

"We know now where we stand and what remains to be settled before the project can be announced for bids," he said. "If things progress satisfactorily, construction will begin approximately a year from now."

The department won a victory at the conference when it was agreed to construct all labs in the new building 28 feet wide. Some were originally scheduled for size reduction, apparently caused by a lack of funds, he said.

Architects assigned to the final planning stage also were authorized to estimate the cost of exca-

Daily Issues Extra

The Thirty club, composed of Journalism majors, will publish a special "send home" edition of the Spartan Daily Tuesday, Oct. 13.

The paper, to be printed on special smooth paper, will contain information about the college and student activities.

The papers will be on sale at a booth in the library arch. Price of the papers will be 10 cents, and the student may take the paper with him or leave an address at the booth. Papers will be mailed anywhere and no postage is to be charged.

vating a full-sized basement for the building. Dr. Duncan explained that the basement would provide much extra classroom space, which is difficult to obtain on an already crowded campus.

As now planned, the new addition will contain three large lecture rooms, which will be available for general use by other departments when not occupied by science classes. The first will seat 300 students, the second 150, and the third is designed to accommodate 100.

Parking Tickets

Beginning Monday, cars parked between San Fernando street and the old high school will receive citations from city policemen, according to John Amos, building and grounds director.

Amos said that workmen would begin Monday removing the foundations of the school.

Four Instructors To Attend Home Economics Meet at UC

Four Home Economics instructors will attend a meeting Saturday of the California Home Economics Association, Bay section, to be held at the University of California at Davis. Mrs. Mary Morgan, instructor in Home Economics, announced yesterday.

Those attending from the department staff are Mrs. Ouida Mallett, Mrs. Mary F. Morgan, Miss Maude Ashe and Dr. Clara Ruth Darby.

Speaker for the event, to begin at 10 a.m., will be Dr. Gladys J. Ebersson, chairman of the division of Home Economics at Davis. She will speak on "Home Economics at Davis — Present and Future."

Mrs. Marguerite Fenner, director of Home Economics, PG & E Co., and Mrs. Adele Charlson, home economics instructor at Campbell Union high school will report on the National convention of the American Home Economics Association held in Kansas City last summer.

Also there will be a report given by Mrs. Barbara Reid Robeson, supervisor of Berkeley school cafeteria, on the Eighth International Congress of Home Economics meeting held in Edinburgh, Scotland last summer.

A luncheon will follow the meeting.

At 1:30 p.m. Mrs. Morgan will attend the joint University-Junior College Conference on the Teaching of Consumer Problems and Home Management in the auditorium of the Home Economics building at Davis.

Present at the meeting will be Dr. Jessie V. Colles, nationally-known home economist.

Offices Receive New Linoleum Job

Admission office personnel moved back into their regular headquarters yesterday, having been transferred to other rooms earlier in the week because the floor of their office was being laid with new linoleum.

Workmen now are busy in the Registrar's office, and its personnel has moved into the Admissions office and Room 106 until the job is completed.
