SAN JOSE STATE COLLEGE

Vol. 42 SAN JOSE, CALIF., FRIDAY, OCTOBER 16, 1953 No. 18

Petition Applications Deadline 5 p.m. Today

Today at 5 p.m. is the deadline to file applications for petitions for one of the class offices or male or female justice, according to Sirouss Nownejad, newly-appointed chief justice of the Student Court.

Applications may be left in the box on top of the piano in the Student Union. After the applications have been approved, petitions may be picked up at the ASB office at 8 a.m. Monday. The petitions must be returned to the ASB office by 5 p.m. Tuesday, Oct. 20, Nownejad said.

Approved candidates will be allowed to put up posters on Thursday, Oct. 22, with elections following on Friday, Oct. 23.

A president, vice president, secretary and treasurer will be elected from each of the Sophomore, Junior and Senior classes. The Sophomore class also will elect a male and a female justice.

The entire student body will be asked to vote on the following proposed amendment to the constitution: "The officers of the Sophomore and Junior classes shall be elected semi-annually within the first five weeks of the fall quarter and the last five weeks of winter quarter. Senior class officers shall be elected in the fall quarter and serve a full year."

Queens Parade Before Crowd At Cal Rally

Homecoming Chairman Jim Bernardi introduced 34 contestants for the Homecoming Queen crown to a standing room only crowd at last night's rally held in Morris Dailey auditorium.

Master of ceremonies for the evening was Jim Houston who introduced the Dixieland Half Dozen and the Dull Skulls.

Head Cheer Leader Jim Morris led the crowd in noise-making for 20 of the 45 minute rally. Morris requested that persons attending the California game wear white and that the cards handed out for the between half stunts not be thrown away.

This was the biggest and most successful rally of the year and demonstrated that the spirit was high in spite of the recent losses of key players.

Benz Reveals Plan To Raise Greek Grades

A new system to raise fraternity scholastic averages has been devised through the Inter-Fraternity Council by Chuck Wing, Phi Sigma Kappa representative, recently appointed IFC scholarship chairman.

According to Wing, each fraternity will catalog their test files and a list of the tests will be consolidated into one file. The lists from the 14 fraternities will then become one list, available to every house, according to Wing.

The list will contain the test title and fraternity's name, where the test can be obtained. The fraternity member can then go to the house and study the test.

Wing stated that attempts are being made in the IFC to have members of all fraternities study together with respect to the course at various houses.

Meanwhile, faculty advisers are being given rosters of SJS fraternity men along with their grade point averages, according to Dr. Stanley C. Benz, dean of men.

The advisers will check the houses for students with low grade point averages to help boost their scholarship. In return they will also check those high on the scholarship list to encourage their further study, Dean Benz revealed.

He stressed that the faculty advisers plan to work more and more with fraternities on scholarships.

Get Right Seats!

Jerry Vroom, graduate athletic manager, today warned students who are going to the Cal game Saturday to select seats in the sections assigned to them.

The sections are stamped on the tickets in red in the upper left corner.

Wahlquist Schedules UCLA Prof for Faculty Speech

By ELAINE BENAS

San Jose State students will be enjoying the start of a three-day holiday Friday, Nov. 20, but the faculty will be stuck in school.

President John T. Wahlquist announced yesterday he will dismiss classes that day because Dr. B. Lamar Johnson of UCLA will be on campus to discuss higher education with the faculty and administration.

A native of Iowa, Dr. Johnson, 49, attended the University of Minnesota, the University of Michigan, and Chicago university.

He has taught at the University of Michigan, State Teachers' college at Montclair, N.J., and Minnesota college. Before taking a position at UCLA, he was dean of instruction and librarianship at Stephens college, Columbia, Mo.

He also was a visiting professor at Northwestern university, University of Chicago and University of California.

From 1950-51 he directed a California Study of General Education in Junior College.

Dr. Johnson is a member of the American Association for Adult Education, The National Society for the Study of Education, American Educational Research association, and the American Library association.

His books include "The Program of Studies" (1932), "The Secondary School Library" (1932), "Vitalizing a College Library" (1939), and "General Education in the American High School" (1943). He also writes magazine articles on general education and contributes to educational papers.

FRIDAY, NOV. 20, will be a holiday for the student body but not for the faculty. Dr. John T. Wahlquist will dismiss college classes but members of the faculty and administration will be on campus. They are scheduled to spend the day discussing higher education with Dr. B. Lamar Johnson of UCLA.

School Loaded With Lovelies

A grand turnout of candidates for Homecoming Queen were on view last night after the California game rally.

Despite the original proposal by the Homecoming committee that no freshman girls could participate, which was upheld by Student Council action, the number was larger than anticipated, Carolyn King, member of Homecoming committee, said.

A total of 35 entries were received for the contest before the deadline, according to Miss King, who said that she appreciated the cooperation shown by the sponsoring organizations.

Selection of 10 semi-finalists will be combined with the student body elections Oct. 23. These 10 will appear in campus clothes and then in formal, Oct. 29, before five judges who will select the Royal Court of five girls.

Unlike previous years, the queen's identity will remain a secret until 11 p.m. Oct. 30, at the Coronation Ball, when she will receive a rhinestone tiara in the Coronation ceremony.

SJS-FSC Game Likely Next Year

Fresno State college has offered to play San Jose State here next season. The proposal was decided upon at a board meeting here yesterday but no official announcement has been made.

If the Spartan schedulers accept the offer and it is reaffirmed by Fresno, an official contract will be drawn up immediately.

The Weather

Because of the United Press prediction of warmer weather today, Foggy McCloud has retired with patches of morning fog into his cave to brew up more rainy weather for later use.

Dean Benz Voices Favorable Opinion on All-Greek Show

Dr. Stanley C. Benz, dean of men, voiced a favorable opinion yesterday concerning the forthcoming All-Greek Show in Morris Dailey auditorium.

The date for the show has been set tentatively for Oct. 26. According to Dr. Benz, the final date has not been decided since plans for the show have not been approved by the personnel deans. He said they would be considered today.

"Theta Chi fraternity is making every effort to have a high caliber All-Greek Show this year. I have all the confidence in the world that it will be a good student show," he stated.

Deadline for entrance of skit themes by campus sororities and fraternities is Oct. 19. A meeting will be held with one representative from each Greek organization at the Theta Chi house at 7:30 p.m.

Houses are asked to refrain from theming their skits on drinking, sex, gambling or barrooms.

Poytress Rites Held in Riverside

The body of Captain Earl Poytress, son of William H. Poytress, professor of economics at the college will be taken to West Point for burial, the Spartan Daily learned yesterday. Young Poytress was killed in the crash of a jet bomber Tuesday night.

Memorial services were to be held at 10 a.m. this morning in Riverside for Poytress and the two other men who died in the crash at March Air Force base.

Prof. Poytress, his wife, and another son, Dr. Richard Poytress, a San Jose physician, will attend the services at Riverside, according to Dr. Leo P. Kibby, head of the Social Science department.

Earl Poytress, 30, was a former student at this college, and was graduated from West Point in 1946.

Amos Announces Reserved Parking

The 16 parking places between San Carlos street and the Home Economics building will be reserved Monday for delegates to the Council of State College Presidents, to be held here then, John Amos, director of buildings and grounds, announced yesterday.

Amos said each parking place will be reserved for a specific individual. A sign denoting possession will be placed at the foot of each parking place.

The director requests students not to park in the reserved area.

Rooters To Sign For Oregon Trek

Sign-ups, for those students who wish to attend the University of Oregon football game by rooters bus, will begin Monday in a booth in the Outer Quad, according to Jerry Ball, chairman of Rally committee.

The cost per person, round trip will be $17.50 and the buses will leave school on Friday, Oct. 23, at 11 p.m. There has been no decision as to when they will begin the return trip.

Send Them All!

We are opposed to sending a 39-piece marching band to represent San Jose State college at Eugene, Ore! We think the action of the Student Council was hasty and ill advised when they approved a request to send a fragment of the band and turned the matter over to the Board of Control.

Apparently, the reason for paying the expenses of 39 bandsmen and two faculty advisers is to prove that we are big time. The question is, how can a school be big time which is sending a band numbering less than that of the average high school's to a major football game? Another question is, to whom are we proving that we are big time?

If we have to send the band to prove it to ourselves it's unfortunate. A look around the campus should prove that to any observant person. San Jose State college's enrollment is larger than most state universities. That makes us big time, doesn't it? In addition to enrollment there are many other indications that San Jose State college is big time. To extoll the reputation of our Education department, our Speech and Drama department, our Industrial Relations courses and others would take up too much space. All these things are big time. If they are, why not the band?

What we are getting at is this. If we are going to be represented at Eugene, Ore. why not send a big time band? Why send just part of the band? Send them all.

SJ Professor Admits Kinship With Quints

By SAM PISANO

The ego of Edward A. Dionne, engineering instructor, was stretched far beyond the breaking point when this brave, yet naive, reporter approached him yesterday in order to verify the fact that he is related to the Dionne quintuplets.

The smile of sheer delight when one realizes that his small accomplishments are newsworthy was quickly replaced with an austere stare of disapproval. "So what, if I'm related to them? Who cares?" he said.

But then, remembering just who was the interviewer and who was being interviewed, I assumed my most sophisticated, "Greek god" tone of voice and countered with, "So then you are related to them?"

Just as many students have stood reverently in front of the Ivy covered tower and vowed that some day they would be "Abe Lincoln" and "Yogi Berra," Mr. Dionne rose, turned a twinkling eyeball on me, and said, "I'm awfully disappointed to think that my only value to the Spartan Daily is that I am related to quintuplets."

Someday, however, when my teaching abilities are recognized throughout the continent, it will be the Dionne quintuplets who will be questioned by a reporter as to whether or not they are really related to that world-renowned educator Mr. Dionne.

I ambled carelessly out of the room, meditating his words, realizing the wisdom of them. So what, I thought, if one has a prolific relative who's able to have five at a whack. Cats do it all the time.

UC Frat Men Evict Feathered Friends

BERKELEY — Several anti-feathered-friend fraternity men attempted to burn down Chi Omega sorority's bird bath late Monday night but succeeded only in drenching one of the coeds with a wastebasket full of water.

Here's what happened, according to a spokesman at the sorority at 2421 Piedmont avenue.

"We had bedcheck at 11 o'clock and everything was fine. Several of us were sleeping on an outer porch when we heard someone scrunching around on the gravel in the backyard."

Curious, the girls peered out into the darkness and saw several members of a nearby fraternity pouring what appeared to be water into the bird bath.

The nature of the splashing liquid became evident a moment later, however, when one of the boys lighted a match to the gasoline, and ignited flames that could be seen a block away.

Meanwhile, as the girls watched the flames, another boy crept up the fire escape unnoticed and threw a wastebasket full of water over one of the sorority members.

Muskrat Invades College Campus

MINNESOTA — The fur literally flew recently near the main Engineering building of the University of Minnesota. A vicious two-pound muskrat held four men at bay and then attacked.

"They had to kill him in self defense," said engineering librarian Palmer Haugland, who discovered the "brute" in the window well. It had apparently fallen in or come up through a sewer pipe.

Two campus police and two other men tried to corner the beast. The fight ended five minutes later when the men resorted to using clubs.

Vatcher Gives Views on World Animosity to U.S.

Dr. William Vatcher, assistant professor of social science, exploded recently the theory that the United States is becoming one of the world's most disliked nations.

"Being a person of much curiosity," said Dr. Vatcher, "I didn't take anyone else's word for our status abroad. On a 38,000-mile junket around the world, I saw for myself."

According to the social science instructor, American prestige is high "from Japan, Korea and around the Iron Curtain to Europe, with a slight luke-warmness in India, Burma and Indonesia."

Dr. Vatcher said jealousy causes ill-feeling toward America in France and Britain. "England was our mother country at one time," he pointed out. "It's hard for parents in their old age to have to ask their children for money."

Our embassies employ too many persons abroad and operate on too grand a scale. Embassy employees of most nations take up only a small section of a phone book page. The list of U.S. personnel often covers two pages. With so many Americans abroad, other nations must think we're planning an invasion."

Dr. Vatcher attributed resentment in India, Burma, and Indonesia to mutual misunderstanding. "These nations, whose policies are alike, don't see why we don't sympathize with their every action. And we don't understand why India doesn't support our policies when we've just given her a few tons of wheat."

The United States, he insisted, must understand why nations behave as they do. "If nations don't act in the interests of the free world, we must find a way to help fulfill their requirements so they'll be free to cooperate with us."

Of course, Dr. Vatcher agreed,

"We should expect other countries to understand us too."

He cautioned Americans not to forget that this nation is looked to as a leader of the free world. "We in this country must accept the responsibilities of leadership with wisdom and forethought, he emphasized."

Dean De Voss Recalls Changes of 31 Years

By ELAINE BENAS

Executive Dean James C. De Voss, who will retire in fall, 1954, recently recalled the changes that have occurred since he came to San Jose State college in 1922 to head the Psychology department. The dean labels this time when the college had 600 students "a period of constructive confusion."

Recent approval to grant the A.B. degree had transformed San Jose normal school into San Jose State college. The addition of the junior college made the campus respectable for men, who flocked to what had been primarily a girls' teaching school.

These changes caused a conflict between the forward-looking new state college faculty and the staid normal school personnel. The latter were former grade-school teachers and county superintendents who not only taught young women to teach but also supervised their morals.

One prim professor periodically lectured young ladies on the sinfulness of wearing silk underwear, Dean De Voss recalled.

In fall, 1922, Dean De Voss attended a football rally in the Morris Dailey auditorium. Two dozen men stood in front of the auditorium giving the college yell, while the ladies listened respectfully. Upon inquiring, he found the game was to be with Los Gatos high school.

"We lost," the dean admitted.

He thus defines the decades: "The 1920's was a period of pre-adolescent growth. The Thirties was a decade of typical adolescence with much rah-rah spirit and many college activities."

After the hectic, abnormal war years came an influx of veterans, older students who had been out of school several years. Dean De Voss believes they added to the maturity of the student body.

He characterized the post-war Forties and the Fifties as "a painful process of going from adolescence to maturity." But, he added, "I think we're doing very well."

One thing the dean misses is the friendly atmosphere of the Thirties. "Everyone spoke to everyone else," he added wistfully. "The students even spoke to the deans!"

He applauds the "increased numbers and increased maturity, increased seriousness of purpose and more variation in aims," which he feels the college has attained.

But he hopes these qualities will not "detract from the friendly experience we should all crave."

Students Invited To Join Music Educators Group

Students interested in music education have been invited to join the Music Educators' National conference by Sandra Bailey, president of the group.

Qualifications for membership in the group are simple, Miss Bailey explained, as interest in the field of music education is the only requirement.

Teaching techniques and methods are among the topics the conference will discuss this quarter.

Newly-elected officers of the group are Miss Bailey, president; Marian Michaelian, vice president; Gladys Lange, secretary-treasurer.

Mrs. Lydia Boothby, associate professor of music, is adviser.

OCS Candidate

Virginia Frear, junior home economics major, recently was selected by the Marine Corps for Officers Candidate school, Miss Anna L. Loze, assistant professor of home economics, announced yesterday.

Miss Frear spent six weeks last summer in Quantico, Va., as part of her training.

NEW YORK, Oct. 15 (UP) — A New York youth who picked his uncle's pocket to get money to follow the legendary advice of the late Horace Greeley returned from Los Angeles under arrest today to face theft charges.

George O. De Lisle, 23, told police he had been impressed with the line often attributed to Greeley: "Go west, young man, go west."

He said he took $150 to $160 from the pocket of his uncle, George Brunelle, a building superintendent, and took off for the home of an aunt, Mrs. Margie Henderson, 628 W. 105th street, Los Angeles.

Brunelle charged his nephew actually took $530.

Lesson No. One for Struggling Society Editors — "As long as men join fraternities, they will, sooner or later, give their pins away." For example . . .

Pi Kappa Alpha Doug Morgan passed out cigars at Monday night's meeting to reveal his pinning to Bev Rasmussen of Oakland. PIKA's will serenade Bev after tomorrow night's Cal game.

Former IFC President Gene Broderick gave his ATO pin to Lorene Kimbriel . . . and ATO Jack MacDonald pinned Shirley Wilde. The girls were serenaded Monday night.

Lois Kirchner, president of Gamma Phi Beta, passed the traditional peanuts Monday night to announce her pinning to Stanley Abbott of SAE.

Kappa Alphas traveled to the DG house to serenade Pat Nye, who revealed her pinning to Rawland Grabehl.

Happy Birthday Time . . .

Yesterday marked the 68th birthday of Alpha Chi Omega — the sorority was founded at DePauw university in 1885. A party was held at the chapter house, with actives and alumnae present . . . two birthday celebrations at the Chi Omega house — a post-birthday party for Housemother Mrs. Vaughn and a party for Miss Marie Carr, faculty adviser.

Crazy for Volleyball . . .

SAE now has a volleyball court in back of the chapter house, thanks to the efforts of last quarter's pledges, now members. The court was the main project of Gil Baack, Harp Didier, Cal Milner, Bob Farrow and Phil Hayes . . .

Theta Xi pledges trounced the actives in volleyball after the pledging ceremonies Sunday—scene of the fall of the actives was George Symons' home in Atherton, where a steak bar-b-que and swimming party was held.

Wedding Bells . . .

They tolled frequently this summer for members of Theta Chi . . . Taking the marriage vows were Dick Chappell and Jean Wolford, DG; Ray Norwood and Marilyn Lind, KKG; Bob Doughty and Jody Ford; Jim Van Houten and Eleanor Johnson, KAT; Dave Dillinger and Pat Mason, DG, and Dick Giles and Pat Irick.

Down Mexico Way . . .

Noralee Williams and Marian McLaughlin have been keeping their ChiO sisters entertained with tales of their experiences south of the border . . . The two girls attended summer session at the University of Mexico.

New Officers . . .

ATO has elected three men to fill officers' posts left vacant during the summer. . . . Pete Mitchell is new keeper of annals, Glenn Cantrell is sergeant-at-arms and Bob Helm is pledgemaster.

Two members of Pi Kappa Alpha were married recently in early fall ceremonies.

Rondeau-Wilson

Maryland, Va., was the setting for the wedding of Claire Rondeau and Pi Kappa Alpha Vance Wilson. Claire is from Norwich, Conn. Vance is a junior pre-legal major. The couple honeymooned in the eastern states.

Martin-Malone

Ruth Martin of Daytona Beach, Fla., became the bride of John Malone on Oct. 1 in Bakersfield. She is a nurse at San Jose hospital and Vance, a member of PIKA, is a senior aeronautics major. He will be commissioned in the Air Force upon his graduation.

Announced at last week's SAE after-game party at the Chateau-Boussey was the engagement of Pat Valentine to John McBain.

Pat is a junior English major from Burlingame. John, who was graduated from State in 1951, spent two years overseas with the Army and now is enrolled in Hastings' Law school in San Francisco. The wedding is slated for June.

Science Council Offers Fellowships

The National Science Foundation has recently announced that it plans to award approximately 750 graduate and post-doctoral fellowships for study in the sciences for the 1954-55 academic year.

Application forms are available through the Dean's office or department head, also from the Fellowship office, National Research Council, 2101 Constitution avenue, N.W., Washington 25, D.C.

Bids for Coronation Ball, Oct. 30, To Go on Sale in Library Booth Oct. 21

Bids for the Coronation Ball, which will be held Oct. 30, will be distributed to the student body starting Wednesday, Oct. 21, according to Vern Perry, chairman of the Social Affairs committee.

The bids will be sold in a booth in the Library Arch, and students are requested to have their student body cards ready when they reach the booth.

The committee also is asking that only one bid per couple be given out, in order that they will not run short.

The Ball will be held in the Civic auditorium from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. According to Perry, this will be the first time that the entire auditorium will be completely decorated for a school dance.

Dr. Wright To Represent SJS At Sacramento

Dr. Mel Wright, professor of business, announced recently that he will represent San Jose State college at the fall meeting of the Professional Advisory committee on Business Education to be held in Sacramento tomorrow.

His appointment to the committee was approved a short time ago by President Wahlquist at the request of the Acting Chief of the Bureau of Business Education in the State Department of Education.

Dr. Wright explained that the purpose of the committee is to advise the bureau on unification, expansion and extension of its services.

Alumnus Attend Advanced School

Second Lieut. Russell K. Ford, San Jose State college alumnus and member of Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity, is now attending multi-engine pilot school at Reese Air Force Base, Texas, according to Air Force Office of Information.

Ford completed his primary course at Stallings Air Force Base, N.C., and will now learn to fly the North American T-28 and the Mitchell bomber.

Ford, a June 1952 graduate, and his wife live near the base with their small son, Michael Russell.

Young Hunters To Get Safety Talks

SACRAMENTO, Oct. 17 (UP) — Some 50,000 young Californians must take a course of instruction in handling of firearms and hunter safety before they get their first hunting licenses next year.

The State Department of Fish and Game, in cooperation with the National Rifle Association will require each license applicant 16 years old or under to take a four-hour course. It will include basic marksmanship, hunter safety features, hunting regulations, and general courtesy and good sportsmanship in the field.

Science Dept. Features New Rodent Star

New star performer in the Science building is a variety of ground squirrel, whose antics on the ferris wheel in his upper floor cage are top crowd-getters.

His technique includes running as fast as his tiny legs can pump to get the wheel hopped up, then whirling and cavorting in it, around and around, upside down and right side up. After a delirious ride, he hops out with the suggestion of a grin on his furry little face and a definite sparkle in his beady brown eyes.

President Forms Dedication Group

President John T. Wahlquist asked the following faculty and advisory board members to serve with him on a Committee of Arrangements for the dedication of the Music building and the Engineering building, tentatively scheduled for Dec. 3.

James H. Anderson; Dr. Lyle W. Downey; William Erlendson; Floyd Farr; Norman O. Gunderson; Erik Petersen; E. B. Scott; Dr. Ralph J. Smith, and Lowell Pratt.

Churchill Wins Nobel Prize

STOCKHOLM Sweden, Oct. 13 (UP) — The coveted Nobel Prize for Literature was awarded today to British Prime Minister Winston Churchill who is credited with "mobilizing" the English language during World War II.

It was an open secret that the 78-year-old Churchill, who has dedicated his remaining years to the cause of world peace, would have preferred the Nobel Peace Prize.

But he was genuinely moved, friends said, when informed of his selection for the world's highest literary distinction.

Churchill's choice by the Swedish Academy of Literature, over such contenders as America's Ernest Hemingway, is worth $33,840 in prize money.

The designation was made a month earlier than usual to enable Churchill to come to Stockholm in person to receive the prize from King Gustav Adolf on Dec. 10.

Churchill, the first active statesman to be chosen for the award, received the prize for his war memoirs, "The Second World War," whose five volumes bear such eloquent titles as "The Gathering Storm" (Vol. I); "Their Finest Hour" (Vol. II); "The Grand Alliance" (Vol. III); "The Hinge of Fate" (Vol. IV) and "Triumph and Tragedy" (Vol. V).

Churchill's fame in statescraft tended to obscure his remarkable writing talents but he was, even before the turn of the century, the highest paid war correspondent of his time and author of several brilliant books on military campaigns.

Sir Arthur Conan Doyle, creator of Sherlock Holmes, was one of his admirers and considered Churchill's resonant prose among the most expressive of the day.

Jensen Says Trainees Must Complete Test Requirements

Teacher-training candidates preparing for general secondary interviews must complete all required tests before the final teacher-training interview is scheduled, according to Dr. Harry T. Jensen, graduate study officer.

The new policy was decided upon in a recent meeting of the Committee on Graduate Study.

The test completion requirement relates to tests in fundamentals and general culture tests which sometimes have been delayed until teacher-training interviews were finished.

"There is no change in the requirement relating to the personnel and interest tests which must be complete before any teacher-training interviews are scheduled," stated Dr. Jensen.

Private School Tells Plans of Job for Couple

There is an opening available in Auberry, Calif., for a couple to serve as dormitory supervisors for 40 boys and girls, according to Miss Doris K. Robinson, director of teacher placement.

No certification is necessary, but experience in summer camp direction, playground supervision and teaching are good qualifications.

Salary for the couple is $6000 and the position is to be filled by Nov. 1.

A private school in San Mateo has an opening for a half-time instructor in physical education. The hours are from 12:30 p.m. until 4 p.m. and the salary is $120 a month and $30 expenses. Further information on these jobs may be obtained in the Placement office, Room 100, Miss Robinson said.

II-S Students Hand in Form 242

All students who have been classified II-S should present Selective Service Form 242, received from their draft boards, to the Registrar's office immediately, according to Dean Stanley C. Benz.

Certification that these students are now enrolled in college must be sent to the local Selective Service boards by the deadline, Oct. 20.

Spartababes Seek First Win Saturday

Freshmen Face Strong West Contra Costa Team

The Spartababe football squad will view the SJS-California game tomorrow afternoon in Memorial stadium in Berkeley, then travel to Richmond where they will face West Contra Costa junior college at 8 p.m.

Fresh Coach Bob Amaral said yesterday that the yearling squad has been working hard all week in preparation for their game against the undefeated Richmond team. Scrimmages have been held every day in an effort to get the team in top shape.

East is East, and West is West, etc.

And in Contra Costa county there is East Contra Costa junior college and there is West Contra Costa junior college.

In yesterday's Spartan Daily the compass spun madly as two or more people mixed up the two schools in reference to the SJS freshman football squad game Saturday night against West Contra Costa junior college. The headline inadvertently stated that the frosh were to meet West Contra Costa JC again.

This, of course, was erroneous for the frosh opponents are limited to one chance per season. It was East Contra Costa whom the Spartababes met in their first game of the year two weeks ago in Concord. The frosh lost that affair by a 20-6 tally.

Amaral said that his team's chances for a win are much better than they were two weeks ago when they were defeated by a powerful East Contra Costa junior college outfit. Prior to that game, the Spartababes had been able to get in only eight practice sessions in preparation for the Vikings who were undefeated in two starts.

Although the frosh were defeated by the Vikings by a 20-6 score, they showed indications of becoming a well-knit organization with a little more experience. Fumbles, and penalties seriously hurt the Spartababes in that game.

Examples of the talent included in the frosh club are two All-American prepsters, George Cantaloub, Peninsula Athletic League player of the year from Burlingame, and George Walker from Tulare.

Three All-Northern California standouts in high school are: Larry Meek, guard from Modesto; Dick Gleed, tackle from Campbell; and Lou Feletto, quarterback from Sacramento.

However, Cantaloub was injured in the first game when he suffered a dislocated elbow and will miss tomorrow night's contest. Bob Riordan, a good halfback, has been absent from practice this week because of a cold and his services may be limited against West Contra Costa.

Migraine Makers Abandon Spartans

The old Spartan Daily editor, ever loyal to the Spartan cause, is the only Migraine Maker picking the Golden Raiders to win out over the Golden Bears from California tomorrow. Also, he climbed out on the end of the branch by picking Stanford over UCLA, the only pickers to do so.

Either he has lost his marbles, a good possibility, or he is a deep-seated sentimentalist.

Guest picker Elaine Benas, feature editor of the Spartan Daily, goes along with our friend Consensus in her picks of the week.

STANFORD, Calif. Oct. 15 (UP) — The Stanford Indians stressed blocking and playing strategy yesterday in a snappy workout for Saturday's "crucial" with UCLA.

Practice ended at 6:20 p.m., with the lights on for 40 minutes. Coach Chuck Taylor said he wanted to familiarize his players with UCLA plays.

Former Coach Writes Expose On Football

NEW YORK, Oct. 15 (UP) — Jeff Cravath, former University of Southern California coach, charges that college football reduces young athletes to "perjurers, scalpers and football gigolos" in an article appearing today in "Collier's" magazine.

In a scathing attack on the "hypocrisy" of college football, Cravath writes: "I have broken college football's anti-proselyting rules with the best of them, but never without feeling that the methods by which all of us obtained and maintained players were rotten and corrupt."

Cravath, who coached Southern California from 1942 to 1950, maintains that nearly all colleges playing big-time schedules "have been forced into the open market to obtain their raw material."

"They must bid for the best players—and make concessions to them," the article says. "The fact that the system reduces the boys to perjurers, scalpers and football gigolos is ignored."

Cravath, now a cattle rancher in California's Imperial Valley, writes the biggest proselyting deal in which he ever was involved was an unsuccessful bid in 1949 for Johnny Olszewski, who became a standout halfback at the University of California and now plays professionally for the Chicago Cardinals.

The former Southern California coach discloses that an alumnus of the University offered Olszewski a new car, $150 a month during his four-year college career, expenses through law school and a junior partnership in the alumnus' firm after graduation.

Olszewski turned down the offer, according to Cravath.

Varsity Splashers Lose; Frosh Tie

SJS's varsity water polo team lost a 10-9 decision to the Olympic club varsity. Dick Miller, Chet Keil and Taylor Hathaway scored two points each for the Spartans.

Freshman Art Lambert garnered four points to lead his team to a 10-10 tie with the Olympic Club Reserves.

Cal Coaches Deny Paying Johnny 'O'

BERKELEY, Oct. 15 (UP) — Athletic Director Brutus Hamilton and football Coach Lynn (Pappy) Waldorf today both denied that Johnny Olszewski, former Golden Bear fullback star, received "anything extra" for playing for University of California.

Jeff Cravath, former University of Southern California head coach, charged in a magazine article that Olszewski, now playing for the Chicago Cardinals, had received "extra money" from a California alumnus.

Waldorf and Hamilton said that Olszewski received nothing more than the average football player. He worked as a ticket taker, parking lot attendant and did odd jobs and was never paid more than the standard Pacific Coast Conference rate of $75 per month.

UC's Johnny O Denies Charge Of Any 'Deal'

CHICAGO, Oct. 15 (UP) — Johnny Olszewski said today that the University of Southern California, which bid unsuccessfully for his football talents in 1949, offered him only "the $75 a month permitted by the Pacific Coast Conference."

Olszewski, now a Chicago Cardinal backfield star, said he "never heard" of an offer disclosed by Jeff Cravath, former Southern California coach, in an article in Collier's magazine.

Olszewski said the alleged offer of a new car, $150 a month and other considerations "sounds good, anyway."

Golden Raiders Ready for Bears

Ulm's Loss Hurts Chances for Win

By BART WILLIAMS

Coach Lynn Waldorf of the University of California has been setting his defenses during the week with special emphasis on stopping San Jose Fullback Joe Ulm and End Clarence Wessman.

Before word about the two grid-ers' ineligibility had reached the Bears' head mentor, Waldorf commented after Wednesday's practice, "It looks like Ulm is going to hurt us because Rambler Sebastian Bordonaro got off some nice gains running Spartan plays in his place. Rambler pertains to a California team composed of reserves who have not as yet had enough experience to play varsity ball.

The Pacific Coast Conference ruling that rendered Ulm and Wessman ineligible for the season will have far reaching effects on Spartan athletics in the future.

COACH BOB BRONZAN
San Jose State

San Jose depends heavily on junior college transfers each year to bolster their various athletic teams.

Therefore promising young athletes in JC's will shy away from a school like State where a transfer would mean waiting out a full year in order to retain their eligibility.

The rule is: "A player must have two full semesters or three quarters completed before he is eligible to play varsity ball."

"Shoeless Joe" when informed of the ruling said, "It seems so un-

TOM YAGI, Spartan center and a graduate of Livingston high school, where Coach Bob Bronzan held his first coaching job, will see little, if any, action against California tomorrow. He suffered an injured knee in the Brigham Young game and has been sidelined since.

fair. If I had transferred to California or any other semester school, I would be able to play." Quite a blow to a fellow who smashed his way into national prominence his first year in the big time by leading the nation in scoring as well as ranking with the best in ground-gaining.

Bronzan said yesterday that he could not reveal the schools that brought the infraction of the rule to the attention of the Spartan athletic department but was quick to point out that it was neither Stanford or California. However, he added that one POC school was involved along with an independent.

The Golden Bears have won two games and lost two so far this season. They stumbled and fell before a strong Baylor team in the season opener. The next week they took on a hapless Oregon State team and rolled over the Beaver for an easy win.

The next week the Bears and Buckeyes from Ohio State college were on a national TV hookup and the Blue and Gold kept the viewers stuck to their seats for a couple of quarters. However, the final stanza saw the Berkeley bunch run out of gas and bow down to their second loss of the young season.

Last week the big Bear could do no wrong as it manhandled Pennsylvania and won by the large margin of 40-0.

Cal's record is not as impressive as the Spartans' on paper but in light of the opponents the two teams have faced this year, Cal is definitely the stronger team.

Whether or not they will be stronger at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon is another question. Bronzan and his players, despite the loss of two of their best men, feel that they have an even chance of winning tomorrow. Waldorf can only use 11 men on the field at a time so the obstacle isn't quite as big as it at first might seem.

Starting End

MERVIN LOPES, a transfer from Compton Junior College and a native of Hawaii, has been shifted by Head Coach Bob Bronzan to right end on the Golden Raider squad to fill the shoes of Clarence Wessman, who was declared ineligible Wednesday. Bronzan said yesterday that he has confidence in Lopes' ability to fill the spot left vacant by Wessman. Lopes will be at a disadvantage in one respect for his weight is 172 pounds compared to Wessman's 218. He was slated yesterday to start in the right end position against the California Golden Bears tomorrow.

California Bears Stressing Defense

BERKELEY, Calif., Oct. 15 (UP) — California Coach Lynn Waldorf ran his Bears through a two and one-half hour workout yesterday, emphasizing defense and fundamentals in preparations for Saturday's game with San Jose State.

Speedy Spartan

BILL WALSH, converted from quarterback to end last year, will start at the left end spot against the Golden Bears tomorrow. Walsh is rated as being fast and an adept pass receiver and good blocker.

Bronzan Says Dawson, Taylor Are Capable

An aura of gloom settled over the Golden Raider squad and coaches following the news release of the ineligibility of four players.

However, Spartan Coach Bob Bronzan dispelled much of the gloom when he said that he has two good men to take over the fullback spot left vacant by Joe Ulm and a good man in Mervin Lopes to fill in for Clarence Wessman.

Bronzan said that his probable starting line-up against the Golden Bears will be Lopes and Hardy at the end positions; Galas and Kaahihue, a converted center, at the guard spots; Dick Fleeger at center for the injured Tom Yagi; Herman or Walker at right halfback; Matthews at left halfback, and Rice at quarterback.

The Spartan mentor said that he has the "utmost confidence in Dawson and Taylor" and that they are capable of playing a "brilliant and inspired game." He described Taylor as the faster of the two and Dawson as the heavier hitting.

Bronzan said that his squad has one of two alternatives in reaction to the loss of Ulm, Wessman, Tom Powers and Dick Thomas. That is, "they can roll over and give up, or play harder and with more determination to win than before." He believes they will do the latter.

The tax bill on life insurance is expected to reach the $400,000,000 mark this year.

1. George Sevelle, at 26, had been a waiter, window-dresser, candy-maker and race driver's mechanic. In spare moments, he dabbled in home chemistry. Through this hobby he developed a paint cleaner and preserver. In 1939, he brought his product to Union Oil.

2. Sevelle demonstrated how it could be used to "launder" our service stations with better results and for less money than we had been spending. Naturally we were interested in improving station appearance at less cost. So Sevelle took on the job of cleaning several Union Oil stations on a regular schedule. He was in business for himself.

3. The sole drawback was that Sevelle had no truck to haul his equipment from station to station. His capital consisted of a single dollar. So Union Oil agreed to lease him one truck. He did such a good job that his contract was soon expanded to cover 150 stations.

4. Today Sevelle is almost an institution. He contracts for the cleaning of 4,000 Union Oil stations in 7 western states. He employs 35 men, operates 12 big trucks and 6 house trailers where his crews live in comfort. On top of running a $100,000 a year business, he's a Southern California community leader, an active member of five local organizations.

5. This story is important, we think, for several reasons. First, it's a real rebuttal to the defeatists who say there's no opportunity left in the U.S.A. for a go-getter who'd like to be his own boss. We say (and Sevelle seconds us) that there's ample room for the ambitious to spread their wings.

6. Sevelle's success also points up something many people don't realize—the relationship between big and small business in every field of industry is healthy and helpful. Each is dependent on the other. So as Union Oil grows, it helps other enterprises grow too. After all, any company keeps on growing only as long as it pleases people.
