MOLIERE COMEDY—Brad Curtis as Arnolphe is intent on breaking up the romance of Agnes, played by Sylvia Cirone, and Horace, played by David Browne, in this scene from "School for Wives," which opens tonight at 8:15 o'clock in the old Little Theater. The play, directed by Dr. James Clancey, is the first production of the season of the Speech and Drama Department. Amusing lines, comic situations and colorful costumes and effects will be featured in the presentation of the 17th Century comedy.—photo by Stan Gerke.

'School for Wives' Will Open Speech Drama Season Tonight

A magnificently costumed and be-wigged cast of student players will take its place on the stage of the old Little Theater tonight as the Speech and Drama Department's first production of the year, Moliere's "School for Wives," opens at 8:15 o'clock. Dr. James H. Clancey is director.

The play, a 17th century French comedy, concerns the efforts of a choleric middle-aged lover, Arnolphe, to keep his sheltered young ward, Agnes, ignorant of the world and its pleasures, especially those of a romantic nature. Arnolphe's plans, to marry Agnes himself, are comically brought to ruin with the appearance on the scene of a handsome young suitor, Horace.

Appearing in the role of Arnolphe will be Brad Curtis. Agnes will be played by Sylvia Cirone. The part of Horace will be portrayed by David Browne, and Darwin Hageman will play the role of Chrysalde.

Other cast members are Wayne Ward, Robert Gordon, Robert Montilla, James Dunn, and Benita Camelia.

Colorful set for the production was designed by J. Wendell Johnson. Costumes and wigs were fashioned under the direction of Miss Bernice Prisk. The costumes of the male characters, with the exception of the severe Arnolphe, are resplendent with ruffles, bows and elaborate turlowes.

Lectures Continue Here in December

There will be no guest lecturers for the SJS student body until December according to Dr. Harry C. Meckel, chairman of the Lecture Series committee.

Committee members discussed admission for a night lecture at a recent meeting.

is Rollin Buckman. Louise Hays is costume manager, Kenneth Rugg is stage manager, and Patricia Branch will handle props. James Ahern will head the light crew, while Donald Barr will have charge of sound. Scene construction was under the direction of James Lioix.

Tickets for the production may be obtained from 1 to 5 p. m. in the Speech and Drama Office, Room SD-100. They sell for 50 cents for Student Body members and 75 cents for general admission.

"School for Wives" will run tonight and tomorrow night and Nov. 3-6.

Council Names 5 Appointees

Appointments to five college committees were made at Wednesday's Student Council meeting.

They were Colleen Collins, college life; Emily Lippolis, lecture; Pat Morris, Diane Martensen and Don Ryan, awards; Celia Ross, blood drive; and Jim Leavitt, centennial.

Don Douglas was approved as business manager of the 1954-55 Revelries board.

Applications may be obtained for the public relations committee in the ASB Office in the Student Union. Deadline is Tuesday.

Three-way Debate

Six members of the SJS forensic team will join with students from San Francisco State and Stockton in a triangular debate Monday night at 7 o'clock in the Speech and Drama Building.

Spartans who will be debating the question of Red China's admission to the U. N. are Robert Murphey, Harry Heffner, Edith Alcock, Jack Vierhaus, Jim Peel and Ron Sherriffs.

Seniors, Beware! Pix Sign-ups End

Seniors! Today is the last day to sign up for your senior pictures. The deadline cannot be extended further, and there will be no late page this year. Those graduating seniors who have not signed up should do so at the Senior booth in the Outer Quad or in the La Torre Office, J-9.

SAC Names Eight Patrons For Nov. 5 Ball

Eight faculty members will be the patrons for the Coronation Ball Nov. 5, in the Civic Auditorium, according to Jim Cottrell, Social Affairs committee chairman.

Patrons for the ball will be Dean Helen Dimmick, Dean Robert Martin, Dean and Mrs. Stanley Benz, Dr. and Mrs. Edward Clements, and Dr. and Mrs. H. Murray Clark.

Students will get a chance to see the Homecoming trophies and the Homecoming queen's crown in the Library showcases today, Cottrell noted. He said that the Decorations committee planned to decorate the cases with the crown, trophies, bids, pictures of Orrin Tucker and his band, the Coronation Crest and purple and white streamers today.

Bids for the semi-formal ball will be distributed starting Monday in the Outer Quad, Cottrell said.

Touch Game Fight Brings Warning

Bill Perry, faculty head of the intramural sports program, issued a warning yesterday after a referee was reportedly attacked following Sigma Pi's 7-6 protested victory over Pi Kappa Alpha Wednesday afternoon.

The referee was assaulted by a Pi Kappa Alpha player following the defeat, which is being protested because only one referee was provided.

"The next time an incident like this happens the PE Department will withdraw its backing of the intramural program," Perry decreed.

Eisenhower, Adenauer Confident

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28 (UP)—President Eisenhower and German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer expressed confidence today that the new allied agreements have paved the road to a strong and united Europe.

The leaders of two nations issued a joint friendship statement after a brief conference in Mr. Eisenhower's office. They said they had reviewed the London and Paris Agreements for rearming Western Germany and giving her sovereignty.

ATOMIC STAGE SET

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y., Oct. 28 (UP)—The stage was set today for private disarmament negotiations among the world's five major atomic powers.

The United Nations Main Political Committee voted unanimously yesterday to recommend that the Disarmament Commission set up a subcommittee comprising the United States, Russia, Britain, France and Canada to discuss arms reduction and the prohibition of nuclear weapons.

Wahlquist Lauds Brown's Action

President John T. Wahlquist said yesterday that he felt the decision of Attorney General Edmund G. Brown will benefit San Jose State College and the state college system.

"People of the state are going to be confronted with a shortage of facilities in buildings and teachers. The hearings of the Senate Interim Committee next Thursday will serve to further familiarize people with our problem," the president said.

He emphasized that no one wanted to exclude students and he disliked doing it at the time. "It was the problem of pouring a gallon into a quart jar," he stressed.

President Wahlquist disclosed that the administration hoped to cut out 60 FTE students by eliminating borderline students.

Dean of Instruction Fred F. Harclerod told the Faculty Council last week to "tighten up your grading if you have ever been lax."

President Wahlquist added that raising requirements to eight recommending units has given the college a "definite scholastic lift."

"The faculty has never been so pleased with the work students are doing."

Dr. Wahlquist was in Sacramento Wednesday where he was chairman of the Pay Planning committee and conversed briefly with J. Burton Vasche, associate superintendent of public instruction, on Brown's decision.

"The ruling raises a difficult problem, involving financing, staffing and housing," Wahlquist added. "All three facets will have to be attacked before the problem can be solved."

Be-Bop Theme At COP Rally

A Be-Bop theme is planned for a huge exchange rally at the College of Pacific Conservatory Monday night, according to Jim Houston, entertainment committee chairman.

Thirty-nine SJS students will present the show which will include the song girls, yell leaders, an eight-piece octet, and the "Rope Climbers". Art Lund, ASB president, also will give a short talk.

In addition, the SJS Student Council will be the guest of the COP Student Council at a dinner exchange in Stockton, Monday.

In the other half of the exchange rally, the College of Pacific will present an exchange rally in Morris Dailey Auditorium at 7:30 p. m. Thursday, Houston said.

Leads Announced

Bob Weiss, Bob Shehtanian and Honey Putz will play the leading roles in "The Mole on Lincoln's Cheek" by Marc Connelly, which will be presented over radio station KEEN at 6 p. m. Sunday.

ingway, on learning he had won the 1954 Nobel Prize for his book "The Old Man and the Sea," said today he wrote the book "because I was broke."

"I am very pleased and very proud to receive the Nobel Prize for literature," Hemmingway told a Havana press conference.

SMOG FIGHT CONTINUES

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28 (UP) Secretary of Interior Douglas McKay today ordered three technicians from the Bureau of Mines to Los Angeles to help fight the "smog" menace there.

Gov. Goodwin J. Knight of California had asked President Eisenhower for technical assistance in the anti-smog campaign.

RELIEF IN ITALY

SALERNO, Italy, Oct. 28 (UP) American military and civilian relief agencies went into action today to speed relief to the area of Southern Italy where floods have inflicted a reported toll of 500 dead or missing.

CAL GETS CONTROLLER

BERKELEY, Calif., Oct. 28 (UP)—Raymond W. Keppler, Controller and Business Manager of Purdue University, has been appointed controller of the University of California.

Edward A. Dickenson, chairman of the California Board of Regents, announced the appointment yesterday. The 42-year-old business executive will assume his new duties Feb. 1, 1955.

Keppler was recommended by a special committee of Regents headed by Edwin W. Pauley. He will replace Olaf Lundberg who died in Jan. 1953.

MOTHER FOLLOWS ADVICE

NEW YORK, Oct. 28 (UP)—Like any mother, Britain's Queen Mother Elizabeth takes a daughter's advice when it comes to picking the place to go on a night out in Manhattan.

Because daughter Margaret told her mother she must see "Pajama Game," a few thousand New Yorkers and a handful of tourists today are impressing their friends with stories of the Queen Mother at the theater.

CHALLENGE HARRIMAN!

NEW YORK, Oct. 28 (UP) Gov. Thomas E. Dewey was reported meeting with the State Attorney General today to plan a court challenge of Democratic Candidate Averell Harriman's eligibility to be governor.

HOME, SWEET HOMECOMING

A great number of people have been asking me lately, "What is Homecoming?" Yesterday, for example, as I walked from my house to the establishment of Mr. Sigafos, the local lepidopterist where I had left a half dozen luna moths to be mounted—a distance of no more than three blocks—I'll wager that well over a thousand people stopped me and said, "What is Homecoming?"

Well, what with company coming for dinner and the cook down with a recurrence of backbone fever, I could not tarry to answer their questions. "Read my column next week," I cried to them. "I'll tell all about Homecoming." With that I brushed past and raced home to baste the mallard and apply poultices to the cook, who, despite my unending ministrations, expired quietly during the night, a woman in her prime, scarcely 108 years old. Though her passing grieved me, it was some satisfaction to be able to grant her last wish—to be buried at sea—which is no small task when you live in Pierre, South Dakota.

With the dinner guests fed and the cook laid to her watery rest, I put out the cat and turned to the problem of Homecoming.

First of all, let us define Homecoming. Homecoming is a weekend when old graduates return to their alma maters to see a football game, ingest great quantities of food and drink, and inspect each other's bald spots.

This occasion is marked by the singing of old songs, the slapping of old backs, and the frequent utterance of such outcries as "Harry, you old polecat!" or "Harry, you old rooster!" or "Harry, you old wombat!" or "Harry, you old mandrill!" All old grads are named Harry.

During Homecoming the members of the faculty behave with unaccustomed animation. They laugh and smile and pound backs and keep shouting, "Harry, you old retriever!" These unscholarly actions are performed in the hope that the old grads, in a transport of bonhomie, will endow a new geology building.

The old grads, however, are seldom seduced. By game time on Saturday, their backs are so sore, their eyes so bleary, and their livers so sluggish that it is impossible to get a kind word out of them, much less a new geology building. "Hmphh!" they snort as the home team completes a 101 yard march to a touchdown. "Call that football? Why, back in my day they'd have been over on the first down. By George, football was football back in those days—not this namby pamby girls game that passes for football today. Why, look at that bench. Fifty substitutes sitting there! Why, in my day, there were eleven men on a team and that was it. When you broke a leg, you got taped up and went right back in. Why, I remember the big game against State. Harry Wallaby, our star quarterback, was killed in the third quarter. I mean he was pronounced dead. But did that stop old Harry? Not on your tintype! Back in he went and kicked the winning drop-kick in the last four seconds of play, dead as he was. Back in my day, they played football, by George!"

Everything, say the old grads, was better back in their day—everything except one. Even the most unreconstructed of the old grads has to admit that back in his day they never had a smoke like today's vintage Philip Morris—never anything so mild and pleasing, day in day out, at study or at play, in sunshine or in shower, on grassy bank or musty taproom, afoot or ahorse, at home or abroad, any time, any weather, anywhere.

I take up next another important aspect of Homecoming—the decorations in front of the fraternity house. Well do I remember one Homecoming of my undergraduate days. The game was against Princeton. The Homecoming slogan was "Hold That Tiger!" Each fraternity house built a decoration to reflect that slogan, and on the morning of the game a group of dignitaries toured Fraternity Row to inspect the decorations and award a prize for the best.

The decoration chairman at our house was an enterprising young man named Rex Sigafos, nephew of the famous lepidopterist. Rex surveyed Fraternity Row, came back to our house and said, "All the other houses are building cardboard cages with cardboard tigers inside of them. We need to do something different—and I've got it. We're going to have a real cage with a real tiger inside of it—a snarling, clawing, slashing, real live tiger!"

"Crikey!" we breathed. "But where will you get him?"

"I'll borrow him from the zoo," said Rex, and sure enough, he did. Well sir, you can imagine what a sensation it was on Homecoming morning. The judges drove along nodding politely at cardboard tigers in cardboard cages and suddenly they came to our house. No sham beast in a sham cage here! No sir! A real tiger in a real cage—a great striped jungle killer who slashed and roared and snarled and dashed himself against the bars of his cage with manic fury.

There can be no doubt that we would have easily taken first prize had not the tiger knocked out the bars of the cage and leaped into the official car and devoured Mr. August Schlemmer, the governor of the state. Mr. Wilson Ardsley Devereaux, president of the university, Dr. O. P. Gramsire, author of A Treasury of the World's Great Southpaws: An Anthology of Left Hand Literature, Mr. Harrison J. Teed, commissioner of weights and measures, Mrs. Amy Dorr Nesbitt, inventor of the clarinet, Mr. Jarrett Thrum, world's 135 pound lacrosse champion, Mr. Peter Bennett Hough, editor of the literary quarterly Spasm, and Mrs. Ora Wells Anthony, first woman to tunnel under the North Platte River.

Spartans Face Eagles In Texas Grid Battle

San Jose State gridders will meet what Coach Bob Bronzan terms "the biggest and roughest" team on their schedule when they engage the North Texas State Eagles tomorrow night at Denton.

The Eagles will field a line averaging 214 pounds and a backfield at 190 pounds for the 8 p.m. (Central Standard time) kick-off tomorrow. The broadcast will be beamed here by KEEN at 6 p.m.

The Eagles have had their wings clipped on three occasions while coming out topside twice. Included in their three losses is a one-point defeat by Chattanooga, a six marker setback by Texas Western in driving rains, and a respectable loss to Mississippi Southern, conqueror of Alabama for two straight seasons.

The North Texas club places an emphasis on speed and passing. Quarterback Don Baker has hurled six TD aerials with End Charles McGinty on the receiving end of four tosses.

"They have more players in pro football than any other college of their size," contended Coach Bronzan in referring to North Texas State and its 6000 student enrollment.

Coach Bronzan and his 37 man squad will leave San Francisco airport this morning, possibly without End Mervin Lopes as a passenger. The 165 pound wingman reinforced his knee in the Oregon contest last weekend.

Two changes in the starting Golden Raider backfield were noted. The head mentor indicated that Fred Delgadillo and Tony Teresa would open at the halfback positions.

Delgadillo, injured in the Cal skirmish, returned to the grid wars last week while Teresa, alternating between quarterback and half, has been impressive to such an extent that he has earned a starting berth.

The Washington Square pigskinners deadlocked the Texans, 13-13, with a last quarter spurt last season in the first meeting of the two foes.

Frosh Squad Plays Fresno

Coach Larry Matthews sends his Spartababe football players against Fresno State freshmen in their season opener tonight at 8 o'clock in Spartan Stadium.

The yearlings will be out to avenge a 13-7 defeat pasted on them by the Bulldogs last year.

Halfback Rich Spierkerman, Lodi prep star, and Bill Montero top the Spartababe offensive, which relies primarily on running.

RECEIVES INJURIES

YOKOHAMA, Japan (UP) Eugene V. Gavin, of San Francisco, suffered slight head injuries when he jumped from a speeding express train in a vain attempt to escape deportation.

The 44-year-old American was arrested on charges of illegal entry when he arrived here in March.

SJS Frogmen Sink Stanford

Spartan amphibians sank the Stanford Indians yesterday afternoon in a fast moving 4-3 game in the SJS pool.

Probably the hardest fought meet of this season, the win more than made up for the Spartans' 8-1 defeat in the two teams' first encounter earlier this year.

State made the first tally, but Stanford scored, making a tie score at the first quarter marker. The Indians went ahead to lead 3-1 at the half.

The Spartans pulled up and made it 3-3 in the fourth period. Tom Haine made the fourth marker to end the game's scoring.

Spartan scorers, with one point each, were Dick Miller, Haine, Nort Thornton and Art Lambert. Stanford's Johnson made all three Indian tallies.

... priced according to the diamond

One of her biggest moments—receiving her ring! Make it a good one! For the diamond ring worn by the bride-to-be will be worn forever.

Proctor's recommends the design shown here. It is today's version of the classic Tiffany setting. An elegantly simple 14K gold mounting, glorifying a single diamond—in unquestionably good taste.

Dollar-wise, this design has many advantages. Because the all-important center diamond is the only diamond, it is larger and finer than if part of the cost went into surrounding diamonds.

Since the price of such a ring depends for the most part upon the diamond itself, Proctor's can offer this design at from $100 to $500. It's the size of the fine diamond which determines price. So this design may be had according to the amount you wish to invest.

Proctor's invites you to see it, and also the matching wedding rings for bride and groom. Avail yourself of convenient terms. Prices are exactly the same, cash or credit. Pay no money down, no interest, no extras, no carrying charges!
