Student Y Barbecue To Feature Miller's Cycle Act Tonight

The seventh annual Crummeys Barbecue, sponsored by the Student Y, will be held tonight from 4 to 10 o'clock, according to the Rev. Jim Martin, executive secretary. The event will take place at the John Crummeys estate, corner of Park and University avenues.

Bill Miller, past president of the Student Y, and now a student at the Pacific School of Religion in Berkeley will be featured in the evening entertainment program. Miller does a unicycle act, which he presented at the annual barbecue a year ago.

Students may swim, play ping pong, volleyball, horseshoes, shuffleboard, tennis and fold-dance at the event.

A dinner of hamburger steaks, tossed green salad, beans, coffee or milk and ice cream will be served at 6 p.m. The admission price for the barbecue is 75 cents.

Transportation will leave from the Student Y, corner of 9th and San Antonio streets beginning at 3:45 o'clock this afternoon.

Play Area To Reduce College Parking Lots

The loss of the parking lots in the area of the scheduled women's recreation field will represent an estimated 80 parking spots.

The motor car is yielding to a new age of recreational progress at SJS. Plans have been completed for a new women's playground to be constructed in the now existing lots for rushed campus-dwellers and their tired autos. The building machinery will soon begin to roll.

Drive Nets $700 For Wardrup Fund

The John Delbert Wardrup fund ended on campus yesterday with a total nearing $700 according to the Graduate Manager's Office. Reports from Spartan City show that $184 have been raised in that area.

Mrs. Ralph Frost, friend of the Wardrup family, said that the widow and her two children left for Long Beach last week, where they will live with Mrs. Wardrup's family.

"I'm sure she (Mrs. Wardrup) will be very pleased with everything," Mrs. Frost commented. Mrs. Frost, who has been very active in the fund, said thank you to all who donated.

BILL MILLER was helped onto his unicycle by Harold Lipska during his act at the annual Crummeys Barbecue, one year ago. The annual barbecue will be held tonight at the John Crummeys estate between 4 and 10 p.m. Miller will do his act again.

Council To Select ASB Posts Today

Interviews will be conducted this afternoon by the Student Council to select the successful applicants for 45 committee posts opened to appointment. The meeting will be held at 2:30 o'clock in the Student Union, according to Ray Freeman, vice-president.

"Everyone must apply in person or leave a letter in the ASB office explaining why they couldn't attend," said Freeman.

Applications will still be accepted up to noon today. Positions on nine committees have yet to be applied for and student body officials were wondering if they would have enough candidates to fill all the available spots.

AN ESTIMATED 80 parking spots will be lost (top picture) when the new women's playground is constructed in the near future. The already pressing parking problem may force students to leave their cars in any unoccupied spot on campus (bottom picture). —photos by Arreola

The date for filing petitions for ASB offices has been extended until Monday Oct. 10 at 2 p.m., the four members, attending Student Court meeting yesterday decided.

Some Movie Rate Cards Still on Sale

A total of 895 theater rate cards were sold in the Outer Quad and the remainder of the cards are now on sale in the Student Affairs Office, according to John Spivey, sales chairman.

The theater cards enable students to gain admittance to three San Jose theaters at a 20 cent reduction for each performance. The three theaters are the Studio, the California and the United Artists.

Last year's ticket sales netted a total of $1400. The Student Union Building Fund receives half of the money obtained through the sales.

Dodgers Edge Out Yankees for First World Series Win

NEW YORK, Oct. 4. (UP)—The Brooklyn Dodgers, behind the stout-hearted pitching of Johnny Podres, won their first World Series in eight tries today, when they defeated the New York Yankees 2-0 in the seventh and deciding game of the 1955 classic.

It was a great triumph for the Dodgers, but an even greater one for the 23-year-old southpaw, who turned back the mighty Yankees on eight hits before a roaring crowd of 62,465 in Yankee Stadium.

There were heroes galore for the Dodgers today, but none of them matched Podres. He was in trouble time after time, some of those times on bad breaks, but he always managed to come up with what it took when danger beckoned.

And the power to give him his well deserved triumph was supplied in the main by big first baseman Gil Hodges. And the defense it took to keep the Yankees away (Continued on Page 4)

Hades Breaks Out With Arizona Rally

All Hades is expected to break loose Thursday night in Morris Dailey Auditorium.

The rally Thursday at 8 p.m. is being held to raise spirit for the Arizona State game Saturday.

Because the Arizona team is called the Sun Devils, the rally will take place in Hades, Black cats, cauldrons, furnaces, temptresses, and the last of the original Sun Devils will be on hand for the rally. John Vlahos, an exchange student from Greece, will take the part of the last Sun Devil.

The pep band, yell leaders, and song girls will be featured. The song girls have a new routine to the tune of "When the Saints Go Marching In."

SJS'S TOP TALENT

Some of the school's top talent is to be presented Thursday night. Marion Brugnone will sing "How Come You Do Me Like You Do, Do, Do." Shirley Smith, one of the new majorettes, will do a baton twirling act.

Marlene Tipton and Arlene Phillips will give a black face pantomime routine when they go "floatin' down the river to New Orleans." The Jazzberries, a new novelty trio on campus, will play and sing some old favorites. The trio is made up of a guitar, ukelele, and gut-bucket.

Senior Precedence, Claimed Abinante In Battle Over Date

Sparks flew from the direction of the Senior Class over the decision of the Student Activities Board allowing the Junior Class to hold an after-game dance following the Homecoming Game with COP.

Senior Class President Don Abinante charged into the Student Union when he discovered that "the decision was made before both sides of the question could be heard."

"My class believed that there was an established tradition and precedent that the Senior Class had precedence over any other class for the Homecoming after-game dance," Abinante appealed. "This tradition was in effect since before we came to SJS," Abinante emphasized.

Ray Freeman, chairman of SAB, stated that the Student Activities Board felt that this "tradition" had no "fairness or significance."

"I feel that the Senior Class had two strikes against it in this case. First, the Junior Class had entered its date in May and had it approved several weeks ago. The Senior Class entered its date the first of September."

Second, we (SAB) don't feel that the seniors have any more right to a date than the juniors," Freeman asserted.

Because Freeman had asked the Senior and Junior Class presidents to come to the Student Union at 4:00 p.m. and the decision in favor of the Junior Class was made at 3:30, a revote was taken.

The Board voted unanimously to give the date to the Junior Class. Another vote was taken which decided that any organization who has written a definite date in the date book has precedence over any other organization wishing to hold a function on that same date.

Tomorrow Is Last Day Of Fraternity Rushing

Tomorrow is the last day of rushing, and all prospective fraternity men will hand in their list of fraternity choices to Dean Robert Martin's office.

The rushers will hand in a list of three fraternities which they have chosen. Friday, the rusher will pick up his bid in the Student Union. The time for rushers to pick up their bids is from 1:30 to 4 p.m. The rusher will then sign a form which stipulates that he has accepted the bid, and is now obligated to the fraternity.

Senior Picture Deadline

Today is the last day for seniors to sign for graduation pictures in the La Torre office Room 19.

All seniors who are graduating in February, June, or end of summer session and wish to have their pictures in the college yearbook must sign up by today.

The men are here under the sponsorship of the United States

State Department. They have visited Chicago, Washington, D.C., Omaha, Buffalo, San Francisco, and other major cities of the United States. They were in San Jose only yesterday, according to Gael Douglass, hospitality chairman of World Affairs Council of San Jose.

Dodgers Win First Series in History

from the plate was supplied by left fielder Sandy Amoroso.

PODRES ENDS FRUSTRATION
So while all in all, it was a team victory, Podres was the man of the day. His teammates swarmed over him when he got rookie outfielder Elston Howard to ground out for the final out and end 55 years of frustration for the Dodgers.

That's how long they have been trying to win the series, and this was their eighth crack at it—six against these same Yankees.

To make the series even more memorable from Brooklyn's stand was the fact that the gross receipts were the highest in history so when the Dodgers did finally crash through they won the biggest box office series in history.

It was a tense, brilliant struggle and the Yankees did not go down without a battle.

Manager Casey Stengel, who was shooting for his sixth world series title in six tries, threw all the Yankees he could at those Dodgers, but to no avail.

MEMORABLE PERFORMANCE
The Dodgers were even out-hit, but never out-played and never was Podres out-hearted. His performance will live long in the memory of the flatbush faithful.

Given a one-run lead in the fourth inning when Roy Campanella doubled and scored on a two-out single by Hodges, he pitched like that would be the only run he needed.

It turned out it was. But just for insurance, the Dodgers added a second run in the sixth, with Hodges again driving it in with a deep fly to center field as the Dodgers had the bases loaded with one out.

Tommy Byrne, the Yankee starter who had won the second game of the series, yielded both those tallies, although Bob Grim was on the mound when big Gil hit that long fly ball. In all, the Dodgers got only five hits off Byrne, Grim and bullet Bob Turley, but they were enough.

Podres had to go through a lot of anxious moments before he finally wrapped it up.

THREE YANKEE FLUKES
For three of the Yankee hits against him were flukes.

One, a gift double by Yogi Berra, leading off the Yankee fourth looked like it might upset Podres, who on Friday had celebrated his 23rd birthday by beating the Yankees, 8-3, at a time when the Dodgers were trailing in the series, two games to none. But he bore down to get the next three hitters.

Previously, Yankee third baseman Gil McDougald had gotten a gift single, but it retired the side for he hit shortstop Phil Rizzuto as he was going into third base to close out the Yankees in the third inning with two on base.

But the third gift hit looked big. It came in the eighth when Rizzuto had led off with a single.

After Billy Martin fled out, McDougald sent a ground ball toward third which looked like an easy out, but just as Don Hoak, subbing for the injured Jackie Robinson, was set to field it, it bounced over his head for a single, Rizzuto scooting around to third.

But Podres, after throwing three balls to Berra, got the Yankee backstop on a short fly to Carl

Maryland Still Tops U.P. Football Ratings

NEW YORK, Oct. 4 (UP)—Maryland's terrific Terrapins, who should find the 1955 schedule a lot easier now that they've beaten their three toughest opponents, increased their margin atop the United Press college football ratings today.

Michigan, Oklahoma and Georgia Tech were bunched closely behind Maryland, while Wisconsin was a newcomer among the top 10 teams in this week's ratings of the 35 leading coaches who comprise the United Press rating board.

Coach Jim Tatum's Terrapins, who added Baylor to their vanquished list after beating Missouri and U.C.L.A. on the previous weekends, attracted first-place votes from 18 of the 35 coaches. Michigan was the top choice of six coaches, Oklahoma had five No. 1 ballots, Georgia Tech three, seventh-ranked Texas Christian had one, and ninth-ranked Wisconsin two.

Notre Dame, Army, Texas Christian, U.C.L.A., Wisconsin and Southern California filled the last six places among the top ten in that order. Wisconsin vaulted into the select group from 14th place last week, replacing Ohio State which dropped from 10th to 17th.

Maryland, seeking to regain the national championship it won in 1953, now appears to have comparatively easy going to an undefeated season. The Terrapins play Wake Forest next Saturday, then follow with North Carolina, Syracuse, Louisiana State, Clemson and Georgia Tech. The only one of these opponents with a ranking this week was Clemson (tied for 22nd).

The Terrapins' total of 292 points was eight less than the previous week's, but their margin over runnerup Michigan increased from 38 to 50 points. Michigan had 242 points; Oklahoma 229 and Georgia Tech 226. The Sooners and Georgia Tech exchanged the spots they held last week.

Injured Indians Set for Michigan State

STANFORD, Calif., Oct. 4 (UP) Coach Chuck Taylor was confident today of having a full-strength squad Saturday when the Stanford Indians clash with Michigan State at East Lansing, Mich.

Four players, who sat out the Ohio State game with injuries, returned to the squad yesterday and Taylor said they're raring to go for another upset.

The recovered players are half-

Furillo in right and then struck out Hank Bauer.

Amoros had saved Podres in the sixth. With Martin who had walked and McDougald, who had singled, on second and first, respectively, with no one out, Berra lofted a fly ball near the left field foul line. Amoros stuck out his glove and caught it at the last minute, as Martin and McDougald were running. Martin got back to second, but Amoros rifled a throw to Reese, who relayed it on to Hodges for a brilliant double play on McDougald. That was all Podres needed for then he got Bauer on a ground ball to close it out.

So for the first time in a seven game series, a ball club had come from behind after losing the first two games, to win out.

SHY GUY SHOCKS CONSERVATIVES

Confidentially, this was back in 1860, when Chuck Darwin, a guy as shy as a frat pledge in hell week, really shook up a lot of people. He did it with a book he called "The Origin of Species." If you want to find out what all the commotion was about, drop by the Humidor. We'll sell you a hard covered copy for 65c. When you drop in, look for your favorite cigarettes and tobacco products. If we haven't got it, it isn't worth smokin' or chawin'.
