

First Meet By Council Set for 2:30

Student Council will hold its first meeting of the semester today at 2:30 p.m. in the Student Union with the 1956-57 budget as the major discussion item.

The $125,000 budget has received tentative approval from the Board of Control and will be presented today for final approval. The figure is approximately the same as that of last year.

Additional business will find the Council opening applications for ASB positions and discussing elimination of congestion in committee appointments.

President Ray Freeman announced a plan has been devised which will reduce time spent by students waiting for appointments to "20 minutes at the most." Freeman also announced plans have been made to streamline procedures in the Council itself.

He also stated that the Executive Council will have a larger slate of business this year than in the past.

Co-Rec Invites Participation In Activities

Various activities are being planned for tonight's Co-Rec meeting, a weekly activity presented to the students for the purpose of allowing all persons interested in Co-Rec to become acquainted.

Activities such as folk-dancing, social dancing, volleyball, badminton, table tennis, and various party games will be conducted during the evening.

Co-Rec is presented to give students a chance to enjoy themselves. Everyone is invited to participate and bring suggestions for further activities.

Co-Rec is held in the Women's Gym every Wednesday night from 7:30 to 10 p.m.

Truman Rule Factor In Peron Rise -- Dulles

WASHINGTON. — Secretary of State John Foster Dulles charged Tuesday that Truman administration interference in Argentina was a principal factor in dictator Juan Peron's rise to power.

He told his news conference Peron won his power as a result of the resentment of the Argentine people over attempts by foreigners to interfere in their internal affairs.

Dulles fired the charge in response to questions on the statement of Dr. Alberto Galiza Paz, publisher of the famed Buenos Aires newspaper La Prensa, that both the Truman and Eisenhower administrations had been unduly friendly to the Peron regime.

The whole controversy over the country's policies toward the deposed Argentine dictator was kicked off last week by Democratic presidential candidate Adlai E. Stevenson. He charged the Eisenhower administration with appeasing the Peron administration and said that Milton Eisenhower, the President's brother, had assumed a "special responsibility" for U.S. policy toward Argentina.

Dr. Koivisto Recovers From Surgery

Dr. William Koivisto, assistant professor of economics, is making an apparently satisfactory recovery from an operation to remove a brain tumor.

Owen M. Broyles, associate professor of economics, says Dr. Leonard Weiss, also of the Economics Department, visited Dr. Koivisto at Veteran's Hospital, Fort Miley, San Francisco, last Sunday.

Dr. Weiss reported that Dr. Koivisto was his usual humorous self. He said surgeons had removed a small, extraneous growth from the brain.

Full reports as to the operation's success are not in yet. Dr. Weiss said Dr. Koivisto has complained of severe headaches since the operation, but seems to be getting relief now.

Dr. Koivisto's physicians have made no predictions concerning his return to teaching.

Two Attend Convention

Miss Violet Thomas, assistant professor of music at SJS, represented the San Jose Alumnae Chapter of Mu Phi Epsilon, music sorority at the national convention in Rochester, N.Y., this summer. As piano soloist at one of their concerts, she played Ravel's Jeux d'Eau.

He also is the author of several volumes of short stories which have appeared in Atlantic, New Yorker, Mademoiselle, Holiday and Harper's magazines.

Dr. Raleigh will analyze the modern novel. He is a specialist on the works of Henry James and has contributed articles to the Sewanee Review, Modern Language Notes and the New Republic.

Dr. Williams, an authority on American poetry and a poet himself, will analyze poetry. His poems have appeared in such publications as Accent, Pacific Spectator, Poetry, and Quarterly Review of Literature.

Dean J. H. West, chairman of the Centennial committee, hopes for a good response from students and the public during SJS's Centennial celebration.

"We're hoping for a good turnout tonight. A grand program has been arranged with outstanding speakers and a full house is certainly justified," West said.

Guest speakers will be Dr. J. Burton Vasche, associate superintendent of public instruction and chief of the division of state colleges, and Coach Bob Bronzan.

President Wahlquist arranged the luncheon with the cooperation of Jay McCabe, Rotary Club president.

Preparations are being made for a general faculty meeting at 3:30 p.m. on that date, at which Dr. Vasche will speak on matters pertaining to California state colleges.

Today's announcement coincided with the final rushing plans of the 14 SJS fraternities. Operating under an optional choice system for the last rusher function, the Greeks may schedule events for tonight or tomorrow.

Prospective pledges can pick up the fraternities' formal bids on Friday afternoon in the Student Union between 1:30 and 4:30 o'clock, according to Adams.

Seek To Halt Integration

A congressional subcommittee composed of four Southern segregationists launched a McCarthy-type investigation last week into the Washington, D.C., schools.

The D.C. schools started integrating two years ago, and admittedly have been having their troubles ever since. What the educators in that area need more than anything else right now is time. The group of Southern Congressmen, who not only want to slow down integration, but bring it to an abrupt halt, realize this and are using the situation to their advantage.

From the beginning of the investigation the four Southerners acted as though they were discovering a pile of dirty linen. Headed by Georgia's Representative James C. Davis, they clearly indicated they were out to make a national noise about integration.

Subcommittee Counsel William E. Gerber, acting the part of Roy Cohn, started digging for the kind of pay dirt that makes headlines. While questioning distinguished educators who were invited to testify at the hearings, he browbeat them unmercifully. The witnesses became so confused in their testimony, that in many cases they found themselves agreeing with Gerber's point of view — "Integration is moving too swiftly."

Diligently Gerber laid out the record of the results of some city-wide achievement tests, which he and his staff had broken down by race, given eighth-graders last year. The comparative scores only confirmed a known fact: that socially depressed and inadequately educated Negro youngsters are still several grades behind their white contemporaries in educational adaptation and achievement.

Throughout, the subcommittee called on no top school administrators to defend integration, asked none of the testifying teachers to suggest improvements. If the hearings demonstrated anything in their recitation of well-known facts, it was simply that Negroes have suffered educationally and culturally in comparison with whites. The gap must be closed before they can compete on equal terms in the schools.

That is why the educators need time. When the educational and cultural standards of Negro children, who have had to contend with "separate but equal" educational facilities, have risen to equal those of whites, then that school problem will have come to an end.

Apparently, this is what the Southern Congressmen fear most. Why, though, whether it is for social or economic reasons, we may never know. We hate to suggest it, but perhaps they feel the end of segregation also will end a vote-getting gimmick that always has proved successful in the South.

Bigoted?

Dear Thrust and Parry:

The Reserve Book Room has long been noted as a handy locale for hustling dates, engaging in trite pleasantries, and, in general, spending an agreeable period of recreation between classes.

It has been noted that this semester at least every other table has some gookball who is rustling book pages and giving conversationalists icy stares. Sometimes this type is seen hopping from table to table as if he didn't believe in witty dialogue.

I hope our paper will be instrumental in eliminating this unnecessary genre from our midst so that the Reserve Book Room may retain its healthy recreational atmosphere.

Real McCoy

Dear Thrust and Parry:

We students are here supposedly to obtain a liberal education. To me, a great part of a liberal education is concerning oneself with important current political issues and views.

By such concern we develop an understanding of contemporary political problems of interest to all thinking people. In gathering different views and analyzing them at firsthand, we make a step toward thinking for ourselves.

Since this is an election year, admittedly an important one, what better way is there to obtain varying political views on the great issues of the day than to have political candidates talk with us about their programs, approaches, and attitudes?

However, I believe there is some regulation prohibiting political candidates from campaigning or addressing students for vote-getting purposes. I question the reasonableness of this regulation and ask that consideration be given to amending or repealing this rule.

Many of us, I am sure, would welcome the opportunity to hear local, state, and national candidates talk to us in person about the election issues and the reasons for the positions they have taken on them.

Let us not have to depend upon fragmentary newspaper reports for the basis of making our decisions. Give us the chance to hear the "real McCoy."

Extra Voltage Plays Tricks

CLEVELAND, O. —(UP)— It was a big day along Clinton Ave. here. For the first time since a storm five days before, electric power was being restored.

In the home of the Wilfred Kileys, there was much jubilation. The television set would work again. Not all was well though.

"The bulbs were so bright they hurt your eyes," said Mrs. Kiley. "The radio set glowed green. The TV set glowed white and went out."

In the basement the wires began smoking and started a small blaze. Fires broke out in other homes along Clinton.

Then the light company reported the trouble. The homes were getting 220 volts instead of 110. The lights went out again along Clinton.

Sports Car Is No Longer Unusual Sight; New Contests Devised for Enthusiasts

By JIM HUSHAW

Like everything else that is around for a few years, sports cars are no longer an occasional sight to behold. It wasn't too long ago that a classic MG-TC, with its large wire wheels and high-rising fenders would catch many an eye. But no more.

A reasonable estimate of the number of sports cars that buzz around the San Jose campus would be more than 100.

Observers today can see a splendid array of newer MGs, sleek Austin-Healeys and Jaguars, and business-like Triumphs, all from England; aerodynamic Porsches and never-outdated Volkswagens from Germany; and even a few Corvettes and Thunderbirds from the U.S.

All these cars reflect both the snap-to maneuverability of the race course and the beauty in appearance of clean, functional styling.

OWNERS INCREASE

Sports car driving is becoming popular because of the large number of new owners each year. The trouble is, many drivers are confined to the regular city traffic and don't get a chance to "let go" while in the city. Thus the new sports car racing fad.

There is more to the art of sports car driving than the occasional zip to Santa Cruz or the Bayshore Grand-Prix on the way to San Francisco.

For those who favor the quick handling, the ducking, dodging, tire-screaming advantage of precision engineering, these are the Gymkhanas. These are organized to thoroughly abuse rubber pylons. They are held in the Bay Area at least once every six weeks by local sports car clubs and open to all entrants.

TESTS ARE ZANY

Participants of sports car Gymkhanas can expect tests of driving skill that are the zaniest that have ever been devised. Trophies and silver dashboard plaques are usually awarded to winners, and in the larger events, contestant dashboard plaques to each entrant.

FOURTH AND SAN FERNANDO

Student Confused by 22 Hours of Light

FAIRBANKS—(UP)— Alaska's 22 hours of summer daylight can be confusing at times, as a summer session student at the University of Alaska recently discovered.

The student ate dinner, then returned to his dormitory to take a nap. He slept soundly, and when he awoke, his watch said it was 7:30 a'clock.

He dressed hurriedly, shaved and rushed to the cafeteria believing he'd be just in time for breakfast.

The cafeteria had finished serving when he arrived, but the waitress said she would warm up something for the student.

"What's on the menu?" he asked.

"Turkey," she replied.

"Good grief," said the student, "I don't want turkey for breakfast."

"This sir, is not breakfast," the waitress announced. "And unless you have a twin brother, you had your dinner just three hours ago."

Cars will run in two classes with trophies and plaques for the first three places in each class.

Fix also announced that his organization would hold its second annual Spook Rallye Oct. 27. More information on the second rallye will be announced later by Fix.

It is the wish of Fix that San Jose State students who own sports cars would take part in the two rallyes and perhaps a sports car club could get started on campus.

"It would make owning a sports car a lot more fun and it would give drivers a chance to let off some of their cooped up speed," he said.

Sports car racing is safe and fast and the main expense is getting possession of a sports car, a reality we must all face. But it is still fun to watch them go whipping by the streets of San Jose, or if you're more fortunate, Pebble Beach or Palm Springs, and just wish you could own one.

Woe is me, I just remembered I parked my '49 Ford on the sidewalk this morning. Let's see, that's my fifth ticket since school started. Oh well, they're better than speeding tickets.

AWS To Sponsor Valentine's Dance

By PATI BARATINI

One of the best ways for Spartan women to "get into the swing of things" at SJS is to join the Associated Women's Students, better known as AWS.

The activities of AWS are many and varied. Yearly activities include the Big-Little Sister Program, the purpose of which is to acquaint all new women students with AWS and SJS.

Another annual affair is Women's Week, which is climaxed by the Heart's Delight Dance, held on Valentine's Day. This is a girl-ask-boy affair at which the Jack of Hearts, man of the hour on the SJS campus, is chosen.

One of the outstanding events sponsored by AWS is March Melodies, an all-girl song fest, in which all women's living groups compete for awards. This affair, won last year by Delta Gamma, is going into its seventh successful year.

AWS climaxes the year with the annual Recognition Banquet at which the 100 most active women on campus are chosen. Members of Black Masque, a secret honorary society composed of thirteen women, are also revealed at the banquet.

PROVO, Utah—(UP)—Mrs. Serena Broadbent Vance, a grandmother, has resumed her formal education after an interruption that lasted 56 years.

Mrs. Vance was enrolled at Brigham Young University in 1897, but left in 1900 to teach and later to raise a family of 10 children.

She said that boarding students in her Provo home helped keep alive her school "spirit" during those 56 years. She finds the hike to the Brigham Young hilltop campus "invigorating" and enjoys early morning classes.

She married fellow-teacher, Hyrum D. Vance in 1903 and spent 15 years teaching at a grammar school at BYU's Normal Training School. Of her nine children still living, three are doctors, two are nurses, two are teachers and two are active in business and civic affairs.

Spartan Pair, Team Rank In U.S. Passing Statistics

The "new look" offense that Spartan football coach Bob Bronzan has installed has turned into one of the most successful attacks in intercollegiate grid circles this season.

The new offense, which stresses passing instead of the ground game that has featured Spartan teams during the first seven years of Bronzan's reign, has lifted San Jose State and two Spartan grid-ders, quarterback Bob Reinhart and halfback Art Powell, into the national spotlight.

As a team, San Jose State ranks second in the nation in passing offense. Based on the average number of yards gained by passing per game, SJS's 516 yards in two games for a 258 average is second only to Texas Christian University.

The Horned Frogs picked up 272 yards via passing in their season opener against Kansas and drew a bye last week.

Against Drake University in the opener, the two Golden Raider quarterbacks, Reinhart and Marv McKean, connected on 18 of 30 aerials for 243 yards. In a losing effort against Washington State last week, the Spartans gained 273 yards on 17 completions in 34 tries.

Reinhart, second in passing and third in total offense, leads the nation's throwers in touchdown passes with four.

A service returner, Reinhart did not start against Drake but took over for McKean mid-way through the first period and proceeded to fire 13 strikes in 17 pitches for 175 yards. Against WSC, he hit 13 of 25 for an additional 205 yards.

Reinhart's minus 21 yards rushing brought his total offense mark down to 359 yards, still good enough for third spot among the nation's undergrad grid-ders.

Powell set one school record and almost set another against WSC as he moved into second place in pass receiving. His 169 yards picked up via pass receptions smashed the SJS mark of 115 set by Bob Osborne against Fresno State in 1951.

The six receptions were one shy of the standard claimed by full-back Frank Morris against the 1951 Fresno outfit.

With the offense an obvious success, Bronzan plans to spend the next two weeks in an attempt to sharpen the defense before the Spartans take on Stanford, Oct. 13, at Palo Alto.

A heavy scrimmage with emphasis on defense is slated for this afternoon at the 10th and Alma streets practice field. Bronzan issued his invitation to the student body to witness practice sessions. Between 50 and 75 students were present Wednesday but Bronzan would like to see more girls in attendance.

An inexperienced Frosh water polo team journeys to Sunnyvale today to meet Fremont High. It is the season opener for both teams.

Only two of the Spartan starting seven have played before. Bill Augenstein and Bill Scarbrough played in high school, while other starters, Lorne Brown, Denver Davis, Bob Harriman, Bob Osborn and Mike Joyce, were introduced to the game last week.

A "it's a small world" situation will come up when Spartan Coach Charley Walker meets Fremont's mentor, Gene Wilt. Both are from Springfield, Mass.

Mural Grid To Feature Three Leagues

Drawings for the two fraternity leagues were held Monday at a meeting of all fraternity and independent intramural football managers.

The loop includes the American and National Leagues for fraternities and the Coast League for independents. Intramural play will start Monday.

Making up the American League are Kappa Alpha, Alpha Tau Omega, Delta Sigma Phi, Lambda Chi Alpha and Sigma Chi. The National League includes Sigma Alpha Epsilon, Theta Chi, Sigma Nu, Delta Upsilon, Kappa Tau and Theta Xi.

The Coast League includes Pi Kappa Alpha, Phi Sigma Kappa, the Hawks and the Sparvets.

The games will be played Monday through Thursdays. A starting time of 5 p.m. was announced for each game, but Bill Perry, head of intramurals, is attempting to move the games up to 4 p.m.

Three fields will be used: Edwin Markham Junior High, Willow Street Park and the Rosegardens. There is no fee for teams entering the intramural program.

Maglie, winning 13 games for the Dodgers in one of the year's greatest comebacks, drew the first game starting job after convincing Manager Walt Alston that his arm is in shape. Maglie pitched a six-hitter to beat the Pittsburgh Pirates last Saturday. The 39-year-old right hander often needs more than three days of rest between starts.

"I talked to Maglie alone after we had a clubhouse meeting to go over the Yankee hitters and he said he feels all right," Alston said. "Therefore, it will be Sal."

Ford, the cocky 27-year-old lefty who compiled a 19-6 record this season, beat the Dodgers twice in the 1955 Series.

"He's a big league pitcher no matter what kind of ballpark he's pitching in," said Stengel. "I've got to pitch him right away. I can't wait around till the third day to pitch my best guy."

Both of Ford's 1955 victories over the Dodgers were in spacious Yankee Stadium. It is agreed that he is much more effective there than in Ebbets Field, where short-fences offer an inviting target.

Here's How to Play

TANGLE SCHOOLS

OLD GOLD'S GREAT NEW GAME

A total of 24 puzzles will appear before the Christmas holiday. Get started now in Old Gold's exciting new game for college students only.

Here are the Official Tangle Schools Rules! SAVE THEM!

- PRIZES (a) P. Lorillard Company, the makers of OLD GOLD CIGARETTES, will award a total of $6 prizes, valued at more than $15,000—to college students in the United States in accordance with the following Official Rules. (See complete list of prizes.) (b) This game will consist of twenty-four (24) monogrammed puzzle drawings to be published in this and other college newspapers; three puzzles each week for eight weeks, and a series of tie-breaking puzzles, if needed, as outlined in rule 2. (c) Contestants must arrange the scrambled letters from each of the 24 monogrammed drawings so that they correctly spell the name of a certain American college or university. In the scrambled drawings there are no superfluous letters, no distortion of letters, and no letters are left out to confuse or mislead entrants. A clue will be furnished with each drawing to help identify the correct answer to the puzzle.
- (a) The person complying with all the rules of the game and solving the highest number of puzzles correctly will be declared the winner of the first prize, a 40-day tour of the world for two persons—the winner and another person of his choosing or, at the option of the winner, the first prize shall consist of $5,000 to be paid to the winner. The person complying with all the rules of the game and solving the second highest number of puzzles correctly will be declared the winner of the second prize. In like manner, the winners of the remaining 84 prizes will be determined. (b) In case more than one person solves correctly the same number of puzzles, the prize tied for, and as many subsequent prizes as there are persons tied, will be reserved and those so tying will be required to solve a set of tie-breaking puzzles, to determine the order in which the reserved prizes will be awarded. Each of the tie-breaking puzzles will be comprised of scrambled letters forming the names of either one, two or three American colleges or universities. Clues with each puzzle drawing will indicate whether the puzzle contains one, two or three schools to be identified. If, after solutions have been submitted to this second set of puzzles, a tie or ties still remain, those tied will be required to solve another tie-breaking puzzle. Accompanying this tie-breaker will be an official list of American colleges and universities. From these, contestants will make up a list of schools and colleges in accordance with instructions to be given at that time. The contestant earning the highest score in so doing will be awarded the highest of the prizes tied for. The next highest prize will be awarded the contestant earning the second highest score and so on down through the reserved prizes that have been tied for. These tie-breaking puzzles, if necessary, will be mailed to each contestant.
- (a) P. Lorillard Company reserves the right (only in the event of further tie or ties) to require contestants to solve as many tie-breaking puzzles under supervision, and without assistance, as are necessary to determine a single winner for each prize.
- NOTE (a) When entrants have completed solutions to the complete set of 24 initial puzzles, which are to be published three per week in this paper, the solutions are to be printed or typewritten by the entrant in the answer space provided on the puzzle (or a reasonable facsimile). The complete set of 24 puzzles must be answered, neatly trimmed and enclosed in an envelope, flat and not rolled and addressed to—Tangle Schools, P. O. Box 364, Mount Vernon 10, N. Y., and mailed bearing a postmark not later than December 19, 1956. Decorated, pasted or embellished puzzles are not permitted. Each set of 24 puzzles must be accompanied by a wrapper from any type OLD GOLD CIGARETTE package—(REGULAR, KING-SIZE OR FILTER KINGS) or a reasonable facsimile thereof. (b) More detailed instructions on the mailing of completed sets of puzzles will be published later. No solutions are to be sent in separately. Save the puzzles and your solutions so that they may be submitted as a complete set at the end of the game. Entrants are not limited as to the number of complete sets of solutions. However, each set must be submitted individually, and only one prize will be awarded to any one entrant. (c) After the deadline for mailing solutions, the correct answers to all 24 puzzles will be published in a single issue of this paper. Each contestant must keep an accurate record of all solutions and check his answers with the published correct answers.
- WHO MAY ENTER: (a) This game is open to all bona fide college students in the United States; that is, persons who, at the time of entering, are duly registered in an accredited college or university within the continental boundaries of the United States, except that the game is not open to students whose immediate families are employed by P. Lorillard Company or its advertising agencies. Contest is subject to all State and Federal regulations. (b) Contestants may, if they prefer, make copies of the puzzles by hand. Copies of the puzzles and of OLD GOLD cigarette wrappers reproduced by a multiple process such as carbon paper or mimeograph are not acceptable. Entrants who want back puzzles and copy of Official Rules may obtain them by addressing their request to Tangle Schools Back Puzzles, P. O. Box 9, Grand Central Annex, New York 17, N. Y., enclosing $4 in payment for each puzzle desired and/or rules, together with a STAMPED SELF-ADDRESSED envelope. (c) Prior to receiving a prize each winner may be required to sign an affidavit certifying that he or she is eligible to compete in accordance with rule 4-a; that he or she has not bought, sold or exchanged the puzzle solutions and is not acting for, either by proxy or in collaboration with, any person who is not qualified to participate under the rules.

5. METHOD OF JUDGING: Decision of the judges is final and contestants to agree upon entering the game. Solutions to the puzzles will be judged on correctness, including the spelling of the names. All entries become the property of P. Lorillard Company. None will be returned. P. Lorillard Company cannot be responsible for any solutions unduly delayed or lost in the mail; this also applies to mail from the P. Lorillard Company to any contestant. On entering the game, each contestant accepts the foregoing rules as binding. P. Lorillard Company reserves the right to disqualify any entrants not conforming. Evidence indicating collusion by or inability of contestants will automatically disqualify such contestants. P. Lorillard Company reserves the right to correct any typographical errors or other errors which may appear in any published matter in connection with this game. P. Lorillard Co., insofar as publication of puzzles is concerned, is responsible only for submitting material for publication to newspapers involved.
