Slave Girls Awarded Gorgeous Gams Winner

Final plans for the Gorgeous Gams Contest were discussed at the Junior Class meeting yesterday.

The contest, to be held Oct. 17, 18, and 19, will end Friday, Oct. 19 at 4 p.m. when the winner will be announced.

Voting will take place from 9:30-3:30 o'clock with polls set up in the Inner Quad and Library Arch. Containers will be set up for each contestant. Each cent will count one vote.

The winner will receive a trophy and slave girls who will accompany him to his Monday classes.

While the votes are being counted, a combo will entertain.

Friday is the last day to submit a candidate for the contest.

ALUMNI VEEP SPEAKS

Ed Mosher, third vice-president of the SJS Alumni Assn., explained some of the basic plans and advantages to being a member of that group before a meeting of the senior class yesterday.

Accompanying Mosher was Peggy Major, executive secretary and Emerson Arends, Alumni Assn. representatives were on campus for the purpose of answering questions offered by members of the senior class.

Mosher pointed out that the SJS Alumni Assn. is the only one among California state colleges which operates as a separate entity. It is also the only one which publishes a monthly magazine.

FROSH DEADLINE SET

Freshmen who intend to run for an office must have their application to petition turned into Student Union secretary Dolores Harris by Wednesday, according to Connie Kersey, acting freshman president.

Kersey, speaking at the Frosh meeting yesterday in the Little Theater, said that if the applications were not in by Wednesday, the late applicant would not be eligible for office.

A move to add the office of corresponding secretary to the ballot was unanimously approved by the Frosh. To officially add the office, however, approval from the Student Court must be received.

SOPH HEADS TOLD

Committee heads were announced at the sophomore class meeting yesterday for the Soph-Frosh Mixer. Co-chairmen of the mixer are John Aguilar, Diane Hatton, and Geri Dorsa.

Committees were established for an after-game dance, rummage sale and contest. Plans for a truck-wash to be held in three weeks were discussed. It was suggested that the truck-wash be combined with a barbecue.

Trend Toward Titoism Spreading in Europe

By CHARLES M. McCANN
UP Staff Correspondent

Titoism seems to be spreading rapidly in Communist Parties throughout Europe.

Developments within the last few days indicate that Soviet Russia's grip on its Iron Curtain satellites is loosening materially. Correspondingly, President Tito of Yugoslavia, seems to be emerging more clearly every day as a real power in the Communist world. It is questionable whether the Russian Communists will be able to stop the trend toward Titoism.

So far, the Russians represent themselves as satisfied with the ways things are going. But there is good reason to believe that things will go too far, from their standpoint.

Titoism, as it is being defined, means that different courses on the road to Socialism—which means Communism—are possible. That means, in turn, that the Communist Parties of Europe, inside and outside the iron curtain, need not blindly follow the Kremlin policy line.

Tito started it all in 1948 when he successfully defied Soviet Dictator Josef Stalin, and declared independence. The Russians now admit that Tito was justified. They

Library Shuts Thursday; Will Open Tuesday

Plans are now being formed to open the recently constructed addition on Tuesday, Oct. 16, according to Joyce Backus, librarian.

Miss Backus explained that the present library will probably close Thursday so the move into the new wing can be made.

Inspectors were on campus Friday to check the elevator which has been the main obstacle in opening up the new addition. The elevator is needed to transport books, furniture, and office equipment to the second and third floors.

Miss Backus disclosed that Thursday would be the ideal time to start the move so it could continue over the weekend.

Home Ec Clubs To Meet Here October 26-28

Home Economics College clubs of Northern California and Nevada will convene on campus Oct. 26-28. An estimated 80 delegates representing 22 schools are expected to attend the convention.

Seniors, Margaret Mitchell, section president, and Dolores Peal, section secretary, announced that the meeting's theme will be "Increasing World Understanding." Topics will include exchange of ideas among member clubs and the relationship of the clubs with the State Association of Home Economics and the American Association of Home Economics.

Groups working together on the convention are the home economics faculty; Eta Epsilon, social homemaking club, and Phi Upsilon Omicron, honorary home economics society.

Committee chairmen are Doris Wilkinson, luncheon and banquet decorations; Myra Levy, games; Rosemary Pastrofino, picnic supper; Mary Lou Smith and Carol Palko, meal arrangements; and Margaret Mitchell and Dolores Peal, planning committee.

Queen Group Meets Today

Queen committee-meeting for Homecoming will be today at 3:30 p.m. in the Student Union, according to Dick Yeager, publicity chairman.

Yeager will meet with his own committee tomorrow at 3:30 p.m. in the Student Union. The parade committee will meet Thursday at 3:30 in Room 119, and the downtown merchants committee will meet at 3:30 p.m. in Room 153, also on Thursday.

'Education Day' Slated Thursday CSTA President At Leader Meet

Thursday, Oct. 11, has been declared "Education Day" at San Jose State. Planned activities, sponsored by the California Student Teachers Association, include an address by Dr. Alfred H. Grommon and a barbecue luncheon.

Dr. Grommon, who will speak at 10:30 a.m. in Morris Dailey Auditorium, is an associate professor of English and education at Stanford. He is also an associate director of the Commission on the English Curriculum of the National Council of Teachers of English.

Dr. Grommon will identify and discuss seven traits of mind and indicate what teachers can do to help instill and develop these traits in their pupils.

College President John T. Wahlquist will open the program with an introductory statement emphasizing the purpose and value of an "Education Day" at San Jose State. Dr. William G. Sweeney, SJS professor of education, will then introduce the guest speaker.

Following the program in Morris Dailey, the barbecue luncheon will be served in the picnic area behind the Women's Gym.

Free to CSTA members, there will be a barbecue admission charge of 75c to other students and faculty members, according to William E. Blum, president of the local CSTA chapter, who is in charge of the program.

Deadline For Science Overnight Tuesday, Oct. 16

Registration deadline for the annual Science Division Fall Overnight has been set for Tuesday, Oct. 16 at 5 p.m. in the Physics-Chemistry office, S120, according to an announcement by Carol Radford, historian of Epsilon Delta chapter of Beta Beta Beta, honorary biology society.

The Youth Group area of San Mateo Memorial Park will be the site for the Oct. 20-21 outing.

This event is open to all San Jose State College students at a price of $2 for adults and $1 for children under 10.

Twenty-two members and wives of Beta Beta Beta attended the Western Regional Overnight at Kings Canyon National Park Oct. 6-7 where Fresno State College was host chapter.

Dr. Lloyd G. Ingles of Fresno State spoke at the Kings overnight about Barro Colorado Island, presenting color films of the Panama Canal Zone area.

Prof of Economics Rests Comfortably After Operation

Dr. William Koivisto, assistant professor of economics, is resting comfortably in Veteran's Hospital, Fort Miley, San Francisco, after an operation to remove a brain tumor.

Dr. Leonard W. Weiss, assistant professor of economics, who talked with Dr. Koivisto's wife over the weekend, said Mrs. Koivisto told him her husband has been in the best of spirits since the operation.

Dr. Koivisto's medical attendants, his wife reported, are satisfied that the operation was a success. They expressed hope that he might be able to return home soon.

Art Fraternity Maps Agenda

The year's program was mapped out at the first meeting of the Alpha Kappa chapter of Delta Phi Delta, national art honor fraternity last week.

Next event on the group's agenda is a coffee hour for lower division art majors next Wednesday. Also scheduled are a trip to San Francisco to attend "Lust for Life," a Christmas card sale, and the annual Beaux Arts Ball.

Rick Beck Meyer reported on the national convention held during June in Chicago. Recently elected officers for the year are president, Janet Nielsen; vice president, Larry Miller; recording secretary, Sarah Roper; corresponding secretary, Sally Jo Wassung; treasurer, Max McKay; historian, May Anne Lee; alumni chairman, Elviera Anderson and advisers, William Randal, assistant professor of art, and Evelyn Carson, instructor in art.

Initiates are Trubee Campbell, Dale Shelby, Jerry Taylor, Sally Jo Wassung and June Blair.

Groups May Hold Meetings in Union

Campus organizations can now schedule regular evening meetings at the Student Union on a semester basis, the Student Union board decided in a meeting Friday.

This is a change from last year, when organizations held only periodic meetings there.

Reservations for meetings may be made at the Student Union or with Miss Helen Dimmick, associate dean of students.

William Blum, president of the San Jose State chapter of the California Student Teachers Assn. will represent the college today at a leadership training conference in Berkeley.

Blum arrived for the start of the two-day conference yesterday, along with more than 100 members of the 34 chapters of CSTA.

The CSTA leaders will be comparing notes on programs, projects, and committee action. Proposition 3, which proposes more adequate financing for state college construction, will be discussed by the students. A campaign urging the passing of the measure will be drafted.

State's pep band will provide music for the rally.

Daily Under Latest ASB Budget Attack

The anonymous Spartans have lashed out again at the 1956-57 ASB budget passed Wednesday by the Student Council, only this time their complaints have been directed at the SPARTAN DAILY.

In a note found yesterday morning tacked onto the bulletin board of the newspaper office, the mysterious, dissatisfied persons again attacked the judgment of the Council in passing the budget. This time they objected to the $14,000 allotted to the student publication.

Friday, these same persons, who say they wish to remain anonymous, protested the nearly $39,000 allotted the P.E. Department on the grounds that more money should go toward cultural pursuits.

In their latest attack the anonymous Spartans justified their complaint against the paper's allotment with the argument that the DAILY was not fulfilling its responsibility as a college newspaper. They claimed that those things that would appeal to the intellect were lacking in the DAILY.

Their note did not elaborate on the "things" that appeal to the intellect.

Nixon Speaks In Inner Quad On Wednesday

Vice President Richard M. Nixon, on a state-wide tour, will speak in the Inner Quad tomorrow at 3:15 p.m. He will address the student body for 20 minutes on campaign issues.

Frank G. Clement, governor of Tennessee and keynote speaker at the Democratic convention, will speak at the same time Friday.

Arrangements for the two events were made by President John T. Wahlquist after he had received a request from State Senator Jack Thompson asking that Nixon speak on the SJS campus.

Dr. Wahlquist got in touch with Roger Kent, chairman of the Democratic State Committee, and extended an invitation for either Adlai E. Stevenson or Senator Estes Kefauver to speak before scheduling Nixon. These arrangements could not be made but Kent was able to get Governor Clement.

Classes will be excused 10 minutes early on both days.

Polish Youths Receive Sentence for Murder

POZNAN, Poland—Three young Poles were given light sentences ranging up to 4½ years in prison yesterday for murdering a security police corporal during the June 28 Poznan riots.

The sentences were comparatively mild, indicating that the court which heard the case took heed of widespread reports that there would be new demonstrations if the verdict was a harsh one.

Today's sentencing was received quietly. Two of the youthful defendants got 4½ years in jail, and the third was sentenced to four years.

Although murder is a capital crime and could have been punished with the death penalty, the prosecution did not ask for execution. It asked merely for "severe" sentences.

However, emotions were reported to have reached a new high of anger throughout Poznan as the trial of the youths was completed last week. There were widespread reports of more trouble in prospect if their punishment was harsh.

RUSS WANTS FREE PASSAGE

UNITED NATIONS — Russia proposed Monday that the United Nations set up an eight-nation negotiating committee to draft a new treaty guaranteeing freedom of passage through the Suez Canal.

Soviet Foreign Minister Dmitri Shepilov suggested informally that the committee should comprise Egypt, Britain, India, France, Russia, United States, Yugoslavia and Iran or Indonesia and Sweden.

Shepilov's suggestion came after Egyptian Foreign Minister Mahmoud Fawzi rejected the proposal of Britain and France that the U.N. Security Council endorse the London Conference proposal to internationalize the canal. Fawzi also suggested a negotiating committee.

Shepilov said the committee could be instructed to draft a

Plans Progress For Homecoming

After two weeks of preparation for the Centennial Homecoming activities in November, all phases of the different committees' work are running smoothly and according to schedule, Jerry McCarthy, Homecoming Committee chairman, said today.

Most of the committees, however, are in need of help, and last week's general meeting for prospective workers was not encouraging. Persons interested in helping with Homecoming activities can choose a committee to their liking and attend its meetings this week.

HOPEFUL PAUSE BEFORE GRIND

SAN FRANCISCO — Democratic presidential candidate Adlai Stevenson will be accompanied by five young Democratic governors and senators when he brings his campaign to California this week.

The former Illinois Governor is scheduled to arrive at the Oakland Airport Thursday from Portland, Ore., for a tour of California.

With Stevenson in his campaign for the presidency will be Govs. George Leader of Pennsylvania, Robert Meyner of New Jersey, and Frank Clement of Tennessee, and Sens. Hubert Humphrey of Minnesota and Albert Gore of Tennessee.

Stevenson will make a speech in Richmond Thursday, address the nation on television and radio that evening and appear at a rally in the Oakland Civic Auditorium Thursday night.

On Friday, he will fly to Fresno for a noon appearance and from there the Governors and Senators will fan out over California, making stops on behalf of the Democratic candidate.

NAVY IN LOS GATOS

SUNNYVALE — Six navy planes aided by two helicopters resumed search at dawn yesterday in the mountains near Los Gatos for a TV-2 single engine navy jet trainer missing on a flight from Corpus Christi, Tex.

The pilot was last heard from at 11:37 a.m. yesterday when he radioed the Moffett Naval Air Station tower that he was turning into the Los Gatos approach to the field.

The identity of the pilot was withheld.

EDITORIAL

SJS Must Set Record Straight

Yale undergraduates really showed they "have what it takes" Friday night when they greeted Democratic presidential candidate Adlai Stevenson with a mixture of jeers and flying tomatoes.

It seems that the majority of students on the Yale campus are Republicans. Nevertheless, this does not give them the right to abuse the opposition candidate. Their actions did not aid the reputation of college students throughout the nation either. This reputation has been injured, and to some extent, in the past due to panty raids and effigy hangings.

Stevenson apparently wasn't too disturbed by the antics of the juvenile Yale undergrads. In fact, by the time he left the campus he seemed to have won the respect of most of the students.

First, the Democratic candidate lectured a mob of 3000 about the necessity of differences of opinion in a democracy and said that was what makes the two-party system possible.

Then he told the students that 30 years ago he had been in Russia as a newspaper correspondent.

What impressed him most, Stevenson said, was that nothing like this, referring to the students' wildness, could have happened there. This remark seemed to please the Yales, but it doesn't please us. Maybe such actions couldn't happen in the Soviet Union, but they shouldn't happen on an American university campus.

The Yales always can return to their panty raids, but it will be up to the Spartans to demonstrate how a mature student body reacts to visiting politicians when Vice President Nixon and Gov. Frank Clement address the campus this week.

Four Auto Accidents in Five Days Shock New Prof, Native Missourian

By JERRY ROTH

"There were four accidents in five days on the corner where I live, if you can believe it!" exclaimed Mrs. Margaret Warhurst, assistant professor of home economics. A native of Missouri, Mrs. Warhurst said she "had to see it to believe it" because she is a "pretty true Missourian."

A new member of the San Jose State College home economics faculty, Mrs. Warhurst came to San Jose by way of Seattle. She was state supervisor in home economics education in Missouri. She received her A.A. degree at Christian College, Columbia, Mo., in 1923; B.S. degree with a major in vocational home economics in 1939 and M.Ed. in 1950 at the University of Missouri. She is now working on her Ph.D. at UCLA.

Mrs. Warhurst was an undergraduate member of Phi Upsilon Omicron, national home economics honor fraternity established at SJS last year.

Mrs. Warhurst chose to teach at San Jose State College because she could teach what she "liked to teach best—teacher education" and because of the climate that "just everyone" so highly recommended.

Comparisons between Missouri and California made by the native Missourian revealed that students dress the same in both states, but for some reason they seem to be more serious at SJS. In regard to the Santa Clara Valley, Mrs. Warhurst expressed shock at the rate fruit tree groves are being displaced by housing developments. She felt that at the present rate the California fruit-growing tradition might soon be lost.

Flea's Flight Followed by Bolognans; Earn $5-$10 a Day Catching Insects

BOLOGNA—(UP)—To catch a flea around these parts is quite a business; as much as $5-$10 a day can be earned by a specialist in the art.

The flea in question is not the kind that tries to find a home on man. It is a kind of water-flea that hops about and can be just as annoying as its animal-loving cousin.

The main district where these flea-catching specialists operate in Italy is at San Giovanni in Pereto, about five miles north of Bologna in central Italy. And the scientific name of the flea is Daphnia Pulex which aquarium owners all over the world know as the most delicious morsel for any of their fish pets.

CATCHERS DWINDLE

Flea-catchers in San Giovanni are known as "Pulciaroli." Fifty years ago there were over 2,000 of them, but each year since they have dwindled. Today there are only about 100 in the district, and the "profession" is traditionally confined to several families.

It is believed that flea-catching began at the time when

Hip Swingin' Git-Fiddler Hits Sour Note At Sparta

By PATI BARATINI and MARILYN PETERS

Elvis Presley????? The current heartthrob of millions of America's teenagers.

The baby-faced darling of American mothers.

Mississippi's answer to Valentino.

Also known as "Elvis, the Pelvis."

These are only a few of the thousands of descriptions given the "Cowboy Caruso" by friend and foe alike. They range all the way from "vulgar and passionate" to "sweet and cute."

WHY SO POPULAR?

Why is he so amazingly popular? There seems to be thousands of reasons. One faction states that his antics appeal to adolescents. And when does a person stop being an adolescent and become an adult? Or is anyone who enjoys Presley's style considered an adolescent?

Others sneer that his "baby-face" sends older women into spasms. This, in our opinion, is ridiculous. Presley's face can be called just about anything but "babyish."

One of the nicer comments was offered by a teacher in one of his classes, "Presley is a combination of the sinister and the romantic . . . sort of like love and a strip tease."

Of Presley's records, two have hit the million mark in sales. Total sales near six million. His first record "Heartbreak Hotel," was an instant hit and another big one, "I Want You, I Need You, I Love You," or as the enemies of Elvis put it, "Ah Wa-hu-unt, Yew-who, Ah ne-ee-ed Yew-who, Ah Lu-huve Yew-who, also made a mint for the guy who is supposed to be such a musical "Jack-the-ripper."

FUTURE LOOKS BLEAK

One swipe of his guitar and one note from his scorching voice send adoring fans everywhere into spasms of frenzy and ecstasy. As for the SJS campus, however, Elvis' future looks bleak. Note a few of the more unintelligent remarks.

Ron Woodbeck—"I like some of his records, but to see him singing nauseates me." (That wasn't all but . . .)

Clark Biggs—feature editor of the Daily—"He's a loser."

Mike Brown—"He needs analyzing."

Lou Anne Bone—"Ugh!!"

Vince Perrin—"Rudimentary sex, if you care for that sort of thing."

Patti Pfeffer—"I've never bothered to give the character much thought but it seems to me that he has ants in his peggers."

And on they go. We regret to say that we are at a loss for the more intelligent opinions but perhaps we have not mingled in the more academic circles.

As for the pros, the opinions are potent and varied. Take Dr. Leonard Hippchen of the Journalism Department for instance. He believes that Presley is the "perfect example of completely released tension."

After hearing the first fairly friendly comment in two days we decided to interview a few more professors. We shouldn't have.

Dr. Dean Cresap, associate professor of social science, states, "I don't know whether I like him or not. But he makes me sick to my stomach. I'm a Rudy Vallee fan myself." Econ. Prof. Dr. Andrew P. Lassen commented, "He's only a passing hysteria."

That was enough from the social science department.

Next on our agenda was the philosophy offices.

Philosophy instructor Amnon Goldworth's opinion was—"I don't think he's a singer. He does prove that almost anybody with a n background can get ahead in this country. A lot of fuss has been made over him, but I don't think he's that important."

WE LEFT THE PHILOSOPHY OFFICES.

We are astonished that tastes on this campus don't go for the earthy tang of Elvis Presley and his music. He seems to be joining the ranks of those misunderstood songsters of yesteryear, Rudy Vallee, Frank Sinatra, and Johnnie Ray.

Team Panty Raid Rates No Score

OAKLAND, Calif. — (UP)—A half dozen members of the Aca-lanes High School football team were thrown for a loss last night in an attempted "panty raid" at Mills College.

One of the gridders climbed a wall to a bedroom window balcony of the exclusive girls' college, stuck his head through an open window and called, "Hey, how about a pair of your panties?"

This touched off a gale of giggles and squeals from within, heard by Housemother Agnes Casey. She called police, and Officers James McPartland and Robert Wagenhoffer rounded up six of the boys in the shrubbery. They were cited for violation of the curfew law and turned over to their parents. Several others escaped capture.

New Vessel Joins Fleet in Pacific

SAN DIEGO—(UP)—The frigate USS Wilkinson has become the first of its class of warships to join the Pacific Fleet.

The Wilkinson is flagship of Destroyer Squadron 17, whose home port is San Diego. She is 493 long, with a 50-foot beam.

The frigates have automatic loading, rapid-firing guns and their anti-submarine weapons are more modern than those of specialized anti-submarine destroyers. Their radar and combat information installations are considered superior to that of most cruisers.

The electric plant on the Wilkinson could supply a city of 50,000 population.

Spooky Squirrels Settle in Sawdust

SAWDUST, Fla.—(UP)—Small white bundles of fur that flit from limb to limb in the moonlight at the home of Ray Black near here are a spine-tingling sight, but they are not spooks. They are squirrels.

And the rare nutcrackers are not albinos. Most persons attribute the white fur to a mutation of genes, a sudden hereditary change. They first appeared about 20 years ago, their number ranging from 25-50 each year. All lack pink eyes, the tell-tale albino characteristic.

At Black's request, neighbors have refrained from hunting the squirrels which feed freely about his home.

Olympic Meet Saturday On Berkeley Oval

Bay Area track and field fans get a chance to see the entire United States Olympic track and field team in action on the cinders of Edwards Stadium in Berkeley Saturday at 2 p.m.

The meet also will feature several outstanding track and field performers who took part in last season's record-breaking meets. These will be the men left behind, many of which have broken the present Olympic records, but were unable to make Uncle Sam's strongest track and field squad of all time.

The meet is the first of three such "Olympic Preview" meets scheduled for the Bay-Area. The other meets will be held in Southern California.

The Olympics are being held for the first time in the Southern Hemisphere, thus the Olympics are being held during the summer months in Australia, or the fall months of the United States and other Northern Hemisphere countries.

Sounding Off

By DICK O'CONNOR

The International Olympic Committee, guilty of some of the most backward decisions ever recorded in the field of athletics, uncovered some hidden common sense and did a neat double reverse to keep the Olympic Games as we know them.

At the IOC meeting in Lausanne, Switzerland, the group voted to strike a phrase from the Olympic pledge and thereby forbid a Games competitor from turning professional—ever.

The phrase, which states in part: "... and intend to remain amateur", would have sounded the death knell for the United States team. Not only would an athlete competing in the Games and signing the oath be forbidden to sign a contract with a professional team or endorse commercial products, but he could never take money for coaching.

Consider Bill Russell, two-time All-America basketball center from the University of San Francisco. Several teams in the National Basketball Assn. have shown interest in the towering Russell and the Harlem Globetrotters have mentioned five figures when his name comes up for discussion.

Removal of the pledge was championed by Kenneth L. (Tug) Wilson, president of the United States Olympic Committee and head of the Western Conference. In sponsoring the move, Wilson was bucking one of his fellow countrymen, Avery Brundage, the same man who fought the move to give Jim Thorpe all the medals he earned in the 1912 Olympics.

Brundage (sometimes pronounced Blunderage, with the accent on the first seven letters) is the well-meaning millionaire president of the IOC. When people in the United States backed Thorpe in an attempt to have his medals returned, it was that "conscientious" Mr. Brundage who said that the great Indian athlete could not have them. He had been a bad boy and made some spending money by playing baseball during the summer.

Thorpe died a broken man without the medals and Brundage patted himself on the back for a job well done.

Was Thorpe different from the football players throughout the country or the countless number of collegiate basketball players who spend summers working in hotels in the New York Catskill Mountains and playing in a league that would make the PCC seem like a weak sister?

Brundage was beaten this time but he will be back. It may take him a little while to think up another maneuver but we have faith in him—he'll manage.

Look Who's Talking

Whenever we're in the mood for a good laugh, we tune in a local sportscaster to hear the priceless bits of information he may have to pass on to an eager listening audience.

During the summer when the local professional baseball team was on the brink of doing an el fold, Earl Russell blasted the local newspapers for not giving the Sox enough publicity. They were getting only from 12 to 15 inches of copy per day, more than any similar activity in the area. In comparison, a semi-pro league operating in Santa Clara with all local talent, got four to six inches of copy per day.

Now he has turned his attention from the local press to Herman Hickman, football expert for Sports Illustrated magazine. It seems that Hickman, a former coach, doesn't know the name of the game, to believe our factual reporting friend.

Hickman made a pre-season ranking of teams throughout the nation and received a verbal raking over the coals for his efforts, via local radio. A week ago, Hickman predicted the winners in 25 major collegiate football games across the nation and scored on 24 picks. He got his wires crossed and didn't predict the COP-Kansas tie.

That same weekend, our local know-it-all attempted to tab the winners and guessed right on 55 per cent.

Gosh, even the Spartan Daily sports staff is doing better than that.

SPLINTERS — Football coach Bob Bronzan sent a note to Tom Newell following the Spartans' season opening game with Drake. Newell, regular starting fullback for the Bulldogs, moved into the quarterback role when the Drake regular Roger LaBrasca, was injured. Not only did Newell's passing constitute the entire Drake offense, but he did a standout job on defense and won the praise of Bronzan.

Future Spartan Foes Impressive

San Jose State's future grid opponents have chalked up the following records:

Stanford University won their opener against Washington State 40-26 and has not won since. The Indians have been defeated by Michigan State 21-7 and Ohio State by a 32-20 count.

Traditional opponent, College of the Pacific, has won two and played one tie. The Bengals from Stockton defeated Colorado A and M then played a 27-27 tie with Kansas.

They returned to their winning ways last week with a 21-15 win over a tough Cincinnati Bearcat team.

Arizona State College has won three straight games and could prove a tough opponent for the Spartans. The game will be played at Tempe, Ariz.

The Sun Devils have defeated Wichita 37-9, North Texas State 27-7 and last weekend won over New Mexico A and M 28-7.

Fresno State, an upset winner over SJS in 1955 has taken three straight this year. The Bulldogs defeated Brigham Young University, Willamette, and the San Diego Marines. The latter victory was a 2-0 squeaker.

Denver, homecoming opponent for the Spartans, lost three straight before whipping Montana, 22-13, last Saturday. The Pioneers had previously lost to Iowa State, Utah State, and Wyoming.

San Diego State has played twice and come home with two victories. The Aztecs defeated Pepperdine and last weekend blanked San Francisco State, 26-0, in the Bay City.

California Poly is showing more power than usual this season. The Mustangs have racked up three straight wins defeating San Francisco State 25-7, Pepperdine 48-0 and New Mexico A and M 32-7.

University of Hawaii is having a rough season, losing their only start to little Humboldt State 33-6.

Last year UCLA defeated the Cougars, 55-0, but Saturday's game is expected to be much closer.

Yankees Seek to Clinch Series With Win Today

The World Series returns to Brooklyn's Ebbetts Field today, with the New York Yankees needing but a single victory to bring the world championship of baseball back across the East River to the Bronx.

Don Larsen gave the Yanks a 3-2 advantage in the best of seven games and carved himself a permanent place in the Hall of Fame yesterday by pitching the first no-hit, no-run game in World Series history.

Righthander Johnny Kucks is the scheduled pitcher for New York with either Don Newcombe, who was knocked out of the box in the second game, or Clem Labine going for the Brooks.

Not only did Larsen stop the Dodgers without a hit, but he failed to allow a Brooklyn runner to reach first base—the first time a major league pitcher has performed the feat since 1923.

After the game, a dumbfounded Larsen muttered "I still can't believe it happened to me."

"I was so damn nervous in the ninth inning," he babbled, "I almost fell down out there... my legs were rubbery... my fingers didn't feel like they were on my hand... I said to myself, 'Please help me out somebody.'"

Larsen was mobbed by his teammates after he fanned pinchhitter Dale Mitchell for the final out.

Freshmen Wanted For Water Polo

What young people are doing at General Electric

Young mathematician helps pace engineering advances

Recently General Electric developed a compact, new motor for industrial use. But before the motor could be put into automatic production, one difficulty remained: to design a protective end shield that would confine any possible explosion to the motor itself.

The man who solved the tough mathematical problems involved is R. A. "Pete" Powell — a mathematical analyst whose job is to assist other engineers in math problems which arise in any number of different projects.

Powell's Work Is Varied and Important

Because he is not tied down to any one project, Powell seldom has two similar assignments. Taking established engineering and mathematical principles, some of them extremely complicated, Powell applies them to advanced engineering problems. In doing this, Pete is able to make such calculations as the distortion of a small part of a jet engine caused by vibrations, the deflection occurring in a turbine part when it runs at operational speeds, or the forces exerted upon a rotating shaft by lubricants.

27,000 College Graduates at General Electric

When "Pete" Powell came to General Electric in 1953, he already knew the kind of work he wanted to do. Like each of our 27,000 college-graduate employees, he is being given the chance to grow and realize his full potential. For General Electric has long believed this: Whenever fresh young minds are given freedom to make progress, everybody benefits — the individual, the Company, and the country.

'Variable' SJS Jayvee Eleven Face Treasure Island Friday

Bill Walsh, Spartan jayvee football coach, said he was well pleased with the progress of his squad and expected it to be in good shape for the game against Treasure Island Friday.

The former Spartan end, in his first year of coaching, said the shape of his club was a variable thing, however, since they knocked heads with the superior forces of the varsity at least twice a week.

The jayvees are short about six players according to Walsh. There are 28 players on the roster and the coach expressed a hope that if anyone was interested in trying out for the team, he would contact him in the Men's gym.

No starting lineup has yet been decided on. Play in this week's scrimmages against the varsity will determine the starters for the game Friday.

Walsh thought the work of the inner line impressive. He cited Tom Michell, Ron DeTata, Earl Adams, Dick Olive and Bob Emert as boys who could move up to the varsity at any time. The quarterback situation is as healthy as the varsity with Jay Long and Joe Bondi in close competition for the starting assignment.

The new time will be from 8:30 to 9 p.m. on Thursdays, McCann said. The new time should give the SJS productions a much larger audience, as this is the peak listening hour, he believes.

The series will include dramas, documentaries, and programs of special interest, concerning such things as elections, homecoming and the college centennial celebration.

Thursday's program will present "The Bottle Imp", directed by McCann. This is an adaptation of a short story written by Robert Louis Stevenson.

BUSH LEAGUE, OKLA. Sept. 10.—Top teams in both major leagues are angling for the services of young Hobbs, the sensational right-and-left-hand pitcher who finished a 12-0 season for his college team and struck out 26 batters in his last game for the Purple Sox, a local semipro outfit. Scouts are amazed at Hobbs' ability to get his slider over the plate occasionally with either hand. Post-game post-mortem shows Mickey wearing his new T&K collared pull-over.

FREUD FRAUD?

Jim was so conceited that he had cold lips from kissing mirrors. Until one day he asked himself, "Am I truly superior? Do not girls turn me down daily? Twice on holidays? Am I not, in actuality, profoundly inferior?"

So he decided to consult the famous psychiatrist, Dr. Hy Pertensive. "My boy," said Pertensive, "your Rohrschach test shows you are going batty from collar wrinklosis. It is incurable. In fact, you are incurable. Nothing I can do for you. $10, please."

Then Jim read an ad for a Van Heusen Century Shirt. He read how its soft collar won't wrinkle ever... how you can maltreat it like a maniac and it still won't wrinkle... how without a bit of starch it's impossible to wrinkle it. "Gee whiz, I am saved," said Jim, and he ran to his haberdasher to buy one. "$3.95 please," said the clerk.

Today Jim is as popular as money. And he still has his Van Heusen Century shirt because it lasts twice as long as ordinary shirts.
