Some of the pictures in which he has appeared include "Stagecoach," "Bataan," "High Noon," and "Destiny." His portrayal of Willie Loman, the stocking salesman, in "Death of a Salesman," also gained recognition for him.

Mitchell began his career as a newspaper reporter and has appeared on the stage, screen, radio and TV.

Robert I. Guy, assistant professor of drama, arranged the program with the cooperation of the Drama Department.

Mitchell is in the area as a guest of Francis Conrad, general manager of KNTV, San Jose's television channel.

Sophomores Capture Mixer Plaque As Frosh-Soph Gathering Success

The Sophomore Class won the mixer title and maintained possession of the mixer plaque at the Frosh-Soph Mixer Friday night. A crowd of 400 Sophs and Frosh attended the affair held at the Women's Gym.

The Freshman Class managed to stay ahead of the Sophs in attendance and game points, but the Sophs took the lead in the entertainment. Games, attendance and entertainment was scored on a point basis. The Frosh took 245 points to the sophomores' 155 in attendance points and 30 points to the Sophs' 20 in game points. Sophomore girls out-tugged the freshman girls in the tug-o-war, but the Frosh muscled out the Sophs in the men's tug o-war.

The Sophs swept through with a total 433 points to the Frosh's 402, after the entertainment points were tallied by judges. This was the first time the Sophs have won the fall semester mixer title, according to mixer records. Entertainment was judged for originality, performance, and closeness to the "Sands of Time" theme.

Judges for the entertainment were: Dean Helen Dimmick, dean of women; Dr. A. G. McCallum, professor of biology, and Mrs. McCallum; Dr. Jandro, Freshman Class adviser, and Mrs. Jandro; and Mrs. Izetta Pritchard, college housing supervisor. They also were chaperones for the affair. Buford Bush, assistant professor of physical education, supervised the games and activities. General opinion was that the mixer was one of the most successful to be held and that it was well-organized.

A three piece combo, headed by Bob Lasley provided dance music for the large crowd.

Arsonist's Blaze Kills Three University of Idaho Students

MOSCOW, Idaho (UP)—Three University of Idaho students were killed Friday in a dormitory fire which investigators said apparently was the work of an arsonist.

The University identified the victims as John R. Knudson, 18, Idaho Falls, Idaho, freshman in pre-veterinary medicine; William Clair Shulberg, 18, Terreton, Idaho, Freshman in business, and Paul F. Johnson, 18, Davenport, Wash., Sophomore in history.

They were suffocated and burned when the flames, which started in a second-floor lounge of Galt Hall, swept up the stairways and trapped them on the fourth floor.

"The flash nature of the fire indicates arson," Moscow Fire Chief Carl Smith said. "The way the fire shot up with such terrific heat indicates it must have had a petroleum base. Some form of petroleum, perhaps gasoline, apparently had been spread in the lounge before the fire started."

It was the fourth blaze within a week at the campus. The others also were attributed to arson.

Sometimes Critics Go To Far

Have you ever wondered what makes some students feel they are being oppressed by the college administration, the faculty and even their own ASB government?

There is a certain type of person on every campus who feels that an injustice is being committed by his college leaders — but usually to his fellow students.

This individual feels a certain urge to protect his "uninformed, mistreated brethren from terrible oppressions. Now, mind you, we don't mean to seem overly-critical of this type person, nor do we wish to appear to be stepping into his very shoes in an attempt to protect others from his viewpoint.

Indeed, we feel his breed is necessary not only to every campus, but to every organized community. It is this type of person who keeps us on our toes. Quite often he performs worthwhile deeds and brings about much-needed reforms.

We have only to look at the histories of many of our own nation's radical groups and political parties, both those still in existence and those now extinct, to see that they have played a vital role in the progress of our country.

It adds terribly to the already sizeable inferiority complexes of the SPARTAN DAILY editors, though, when one of these individuals rushes frantically into our offices to declare in frenzied tones, "Awaken poor souls and let not the administration plague you further with corrupt authoritarianism. Speak your own mind; say what you think."

Thus shamed and humiliated, our only reply is, "Well, golly, we're only trying to do what's right."

Seriously, though, our meager experience has shown us that administrative officials, faculty members and ASB leaders all share at least one goal: the desire to do good for their fellow scholars.

Thoughts of oppression couldn't be further from their minds. That is why they chose to be educators and why they chose to donate great amounts of their time to help administrate student government.

And please keep in mind, too, they don't really disdain criticism.

Dear Thrust & Parry:

San Jose State College Library is a truly modern edifice complete with diffused lighting, simon pure floors, and clean modern polished alloy metal trim. Those of us here at dear old Sparta are indeed lucky.

An innivation is that we no longer must show our student body card each time we enter the stacks. At last we are free to roam at will between the stacks and reading rooms, to roam throughout the entire library, well—almost free.

Now we must be investigated when we leave the library. All books must be shown and briefcases opened and inspected in public light. Indeed, perhaps our lunch bags also must be opened for inspection to make sure a sub-miniature volume has not been secreted away.

Perhaps this is necessary to protect our new "hall of ivy," but must the students who use the library be treated as an immature high school child? Granted, many of the students are immature, but what about those who have served time in the service, time working in their field, or already have a college degree? Are they also to be considered immature since they are still in college?

I must admit that I am prejudice since I am one of the few who carries a briefcase. (Briefcase, a word describing a leather bag in which businessmen carry their lunches so that they will not be mistaken for laborers).

Another thought that comes to mind is the question of the student who goes to the library to attend class. Being inspected in order to attend classes each day is new to me. In the words of the Romans, "Spartus Achidemicus Freedomus Departus."

Time for Debate?

Dear Thrust & Parry:

It's time for another great American debate; why doesn't Eisenhower challenge Stevenson to a big TV debate on the hydrogen bomb issue with no holds barred?

Argument does not change conviction; but issues are clarified, emotional stress is alleviated, and sometimes someone takes time out to think.

The names of Jefferson and Hamilton, Calhoun and Webster, Lincoln and Douglas are reminders of the greatness in American democracy. Never forget that from the Webster-Calhoun bouts followed by the Lincoln-Douglas debates emerged the "house divided cannot stand" address.

It is time for another great American debate. The hydrogen bomb issue is too important for mankind to be handled with timidity. The facts and issues must be clarified!

Why doesn't everyone send a telegram to our president asking him to challenge Adlai to a big TV debate? An important by-product would be the opportunity to see these two great men in action, face to face.

ROTC's Progress and Alteration Since 1948 Inauguration Recalled

By JIM SIMS

The Army ROTC unit at San Jose State College was organized in 1948 at the instigation of Dr. Thomas W. MacQuarrie, then college president, and Professor Wilford E. Schmidt, head of the San Jose State Police School. The Air Force unit, originally established as a part of the Army program, became separated from the Army in 1949 as a result of the separation of the Army and Air Force branches of the service.

At first, the course of instruction offered by the Army ROTC was designed to prepare students for reserve and regular commissions in the Military Police Corps. The majority of subjects in the program dealt with police matters, and as such, supplemented the course offered by the Police School.

In 1953, the program was altered by Department of Army policy which eliminated college curricula designed to qualify graduates for commissioning in one specific branch of the Army. Colonel John E. Rogers, with a staff of three officers and five non-commissioned officers, carried out the Army-specified curriculum changes.

PREPARES ROTC GRADUATE

The present course of instruction is designed to prepare the graduate for commissioning in any reserve or regular branch of the Army. Prior to his entry on active duty, a graduate receives specialist schooling in the branch to which he has been assigned by the Department of Army.

Not all subjects taught under the Military Science curriculum apply to military training. A cadet spends much time studying courses as American military history, principles of leadership, geopolitics, written and oral expression, and teaching methods. Subjects like these are of value to a student no matter what his chosen field is.

Under the leadership of Colonel Hea, who served as head of the Army ROTC detachment prior to Colonel Rogers, an honorary military group called the Silver Sabers Society was formed. Its objectives are to unite in closer relationship the military department at SJS and to prepare its members to take an active part in the affairs of their future communities.

PETITION FOR MEMBERSHIP

During the school year 1955-56, the society petitioned for membership in the national military society, Scabbard and Blade. In the spring of 1956 the petition was approved, and now company G, 13th Regiment of Scabbard and Blade is composed of the San Jose State Army ROTC contingent.

When the Air Force gained jurisdiction over its own ROTC detachment in 1949, many changes were made in courses. Previously only two courses of instruction were offered here by the Air Force, the operations course and the supply and maintenance course.

An entering freshman cadet was required to choose one of the two courses before 1949. This has been changed, however. Now a cadet takes a general course designed to teach him the fundamental responsibilities of a commissioned officer. This program enables the fledgling officer to attend one or more of the Air Force technical or administrative schools.

NEW CURRICULUM

The new curriculum includes the airplane and the air age, elements and potentials of air power and leadership, and air power. The revisions in the courses of instruction were carried out by Colonel

R. M. Bristol, Air Force ROTC commander.

The Air Force unit has an active military fraternity, Arnold Air Society, open to upper division cadets only. Known as Staffelbach Squadron after its sponsor, Dr. Elmer H. Staffelbach of SJS, the local chapter is considered one of the outstanding units of the national organization.

ROTC officers serve as advisers to many fraternities and campus organizations. Two Army officers coach the San Jose State varsity pistol and rifle teams, while the Air Force provides liaison officers to the local Civil Air Patrol squadron and the SJS "Flying 20 Club."

STUDYING CAN BE BEAUTIFUL

Is studying bugging you? Do you have trouble remembering names, dates, facts, figures, and the location of the library? Dear friends, it need not be so. All you have to do is master the simple art of mnemonics.

Mnemonics, as we all know, was invented by the great Greek philosopher Mnemon in 526 B.C. Mnemonics, incidentally, was only one of the many inventions of this fertile Athenian. He is perhaps best known for his invention of the staircase, which, as you may imagine, was of inestimable value to mankind. Before the staircase, people who wished to go from floor to floor had to leap from springboards. This meant, of course, that aged and infirm persons were forced to live out their lives, willy-nilly, on the ground floor, and many of them grew cross as bears. Especially Demosthenes, who was elected consul of Athens three times but never served because he was unable to get up to the office of the commissioner of oaths on the third floor to be sworn in.

But after Mnemon's staircase was invented, Demosthenes got up to the third floor easy as pie and took the oath-to-Athen's sorrow, as it turned out. Demosthenes, his temper shortened by years of confinement to the ground floor, soon embroiled his countrymen in a series of senseless and costly wars with the Persians, the Visigoths, and the Ogallala Sioux. He was voted out of office in 517 B.C., and Mnemon, who had made his accession possible, was pelted to death with fruit salad in the Duomo.

Mnemon was pelted to death with fruit salad.

But I digress. We were discussing mnemonics, which are nothing more than aids to memory — catchwords or jingles that help you to remember names, dates, and places. For example, any student of American history surely knows the little jingle:

Columbus sailed the ocean blue
In fourteen hundred ninety two.

You see how simple a mnemonic is? There is no reason why you can't make up your own. Say, for instance, that you are proceeding with American history.

The Pilgrims landed on Plymouth Rock
In sixteen hundred twenty, doc.

(This jingle is especially useful to medical students.) The next important event is the Boston Tea Party. Let us compose a rough-and-ready couplet about that:

Samuel Adams flung the tea
Into the briny Zuyder Zee.

You can see how simple and useful they are — not only for history, but also for current events. For instance,

In nineteen hundred fifty six
It's the cigarette that clicks!

What, you ask, is the cigarette that clicks? Why, Philip Morris, of course! And why shouldn't it click? Could any cigarette be more pleasing to the palate? No! Could any cigarette be more tempting to the taste buds? No! A thundering, thumping, resounding no! Get some today, hey. You'll see.

©Max Shulman, 1956

You won't need mnemonics to remember the wonderful natural flavor of Philip Morris Cigarettes, whose makers are delighted to bring you this column every week.

Golden Raiders Tie San Diego

By DICK O'CONNOR
Still looking for its second victory of the 1956 football season, the San Jose State grid squad starts "preparing for a third straight away from home game, a clash with the undefeated Arizona State Sun Devils at Tempe, Ariz."

Hoopster Cuts Expected To Follow Scrum

A full scrimmage for the San Jose State basketball team was held Friday and today the first trimming of the squad will be made.

Coach Walt McPherson said he planned to cut "about 25 per cent" now and would gradually get the squad down to a workable group of 20. There are now 40 aspirants.

The coaching staff has been impressed by the play of several veterans and pleasantly surprised by the newcomers.

LUNDQUIST FROM FROSH
Another surprising performer has been Arnie Lundquist 6 ft. 7 in. center up from the frosh. Lundquist has been a "tiger" under the boards and is shooting well.

Another former frosh flash, Don Rye, will help fill a need for fast guards.

Of the old hands, center Marv Branstrom, forward Gil Egeland and guard Eddie Dias have looked good. Branstrom at 6 ft. 7 ins. gives the Spartans good height on the pivot spot.

Dias, a ball hawking speedster provides the Golden Raiders with a good outside threat.

Two other outstanding newcomers will join the squad at the conclusion of football season. Art Powell, high scoring forward and Hal Boutte, a fine backboard man will boost the SJS team height.

First game for the team will be a Nov. 30 meeting with the Stanford Indians at Spartan Gym. The Indians defeated the SJS squad 72-70 in the last game of the 1955 season.

At Balboa Stadium in San Diego.

Hurt by fumbles, penalties and an intercepted pass, the Golden Raiders used the "spectacular" play to take the lead on three different occasions.

Each time the rugged Aztecs were equal to the situation and roared back to tie the score. They resorted to a flashy bit of play of their own as the final touchdown came on a deflected 30 yard pass. Trailing 27-21, the Spartans scored on a pass from Bob Reinhart to Jim Riley. It was good for 15 yards and was Riley's second TD of the game.

Reinhart, forced to go all the way on offense, had a remarkable night as he completed 16 of 23 throws for 228 yards. He came through with three all important conversions but missed the even more crucial fourth.

The first Spartan score was all Riley as he returned the kickoff 28 yards. The Bakersfield flash took off around end three plays later and the next stop was the end zone. Reinhart made it 7-7.

The next SJS score was even longer. Art Powell, playing on his old high school stomping ground, went 71 yards around end for the score. Reinhart's kick put the Spartans ahead 14-7.

A fourth down 42 yard pass from Bob Moneymakers to Braxton Pinkins tied the score again with two minutes remaining in the half.

Reinhart scored the third SJS touchdown on a one yard sneak and added the 21st point. The drive went 35 yards in 7 plays after an Aztec fumble on the 25.

Not to be outdone, the San Diego boys roared back after a 26 yard punt return by Claude Lewis. From the San Jose 25, they scored in eight plays as Hal Jackson plunged the final two.

Marcel's recovery and two Reinhart passes to Powell and Riley accounted for the final SJS score.

Vroom Grooms 28 Candidates For Cage Club

Freshman basketball coach Jerry Vroom sends his yearling cage squad through its paces for the first time today as preparations start for the season opener against the Stanford frosh on Nov. 30.

Vroom* has 28 candidates on hand for the first workout with several good prospects that are varsity potential. Although the material may be better than last year, Vroom expects trouble in matching the eight and eight mark set in 1955 because of a tougher schedule.

Heading the list is Gary Ressa, a 6 ft. guard from San Lorenzo High, who was an All-Alameda County Athletic League pick and the loop's leading point maker.

Vroom called Ressa a "real good prospect who is far advanced in ball handling and shooting."

Dean Jackson, 6 ft. 1/2 in. center is from Los Banos High where he was an all-Central California choice and top scorer in his conference. Jackson will have to hustle to keep his job ahead of George Wightman, a three year all-Coast County Athletic League B-division selection while at Carmel High. Wightman, rated the outstanding prospect in his league, is 6 ft. 3 1/2 in.

Vroom has a pair of 6 ft. 3 1/2 in. forwards on hand in the person of Norm Steinbach and Harold Wubber. Steinbach, brother of former Spartan cager Bob, was an all-Coast Counties Athletic League A-division pick, while Wubber was the leading scorer on the Tracy High quintet.

George Kiehn, a 6 ft. guard from Linden; Frank Escobar, a 5 ft. 10 in. guard from Mountain View; and Ron Smith, a 6 ft. 2 in. forward from Drake; are other leading candidates for the yearling squad.

Two College Boxers On Olympie Team

The college boxers ran into tough opposition and breaks in the Olympic finals at San Francisco's Cow Palace last Friday night.

Only two collegians made the team. Choken Maekawa, a 119 pounder from Wisconsin, and Roger Rouse, 165, from Idaho State won berths. Of the two, Rouse was the most impressive as he racked up a first round TKO.

In 1952, the college men dominated the Olympic team with six members, including San Jose's Chuck Adkins.

Mel Ratkovich, a former Spartan, was decisioned by Idaho State's Harold Epsy in the semifinals. Epsy, who fights with the speed of a middleweight, was too elusive for the slower Ratkovich.

Orville Pitts and Vince Ferguson, a pair of highly regarded inter-collegian champs, were also beaten.

Ferguson was kayoed by Ed-

Plank Walkers Greet Rushees With Smoker

Tau Delta Phi, honorary scholastic fraternity, will hold its first fall smoker on Wednesday, Oct. 24, at 7:30 p.m. in the Hotel De Anza, 233 W. Santa Clara St., according to Jim McCammon, smoker chairman.

Any male student who has completed 30 units or more at SJS with a grade point average of 3.0 or higher is eligible to attend the function, McCammon said.

Transfer students who have completed 15 units here and who meet the grade point requirements for the 30 unit standard also may attend, he said.

Invitations were mailed to over 250 eligible males on Wednesday by the Tower fraternity.

McCammon states that the following known eligibles especially are invited in addition to those who have received invitations:

Clayton Bruntz, Donald LuBeck, George M. Wildberger, William Fowler, Yoshiaki Kitagawa, Robert E. Taylor, Harold E. Tryk, James L. Haggen, Richard Angelo, Donald C. Straight, and Richard G. Rose.

Tau Delta Phi, established in 1916, is the oldest fraternity on campus.

Annual Sing Being Planned By SJS Girls

Plans are being made for the annual AWS March Melodies, all girl song-fest, to be held this year during Women's Week, the second week in March.

Song medleys to be presented can be submitted now to Mrs. Izetta Pritchard in Room 118. Each presentation must not exceed 10 minutes. In case of duplication, the earliest entry will be accepted.

All women's living groups are eligible to participate in March Melodies. Applications for the chairman must be turned in to Mrs. Pritchard's office by 3 p.m. Tuesday.

At the Wednesday's AWS meeting, Donna Schieber was appointed AWS representative to the Student Union Board. Also appointment was Carol Hanson as AWS representative to the San Jose Red Cross Chapter.

WATCH OUT—If Shirley Marhefka should drop that bucket, Ed Holmes might wish he were not below her on the ladder. Working on a set for a drama production certainly has its ups and downs. Members of the play production class spend their lab time working on the set for "Much Ado About Nothing," which will run Oct. 26, 27, and Nov. 1-3, under the direction of Miss Elizabeth Loeffler, associate professor of drama. Harrison McCreath is scene designer and technical director.

Backstage Preparation Vital Part of 'Much Ado'

"Much Ado About Nothing" requires a great deal of backstage preparation, according to Harrison W. McCreath, assistant professor of speech, who is scene designer and technical director. The play, which opens Oct. 26, is under the direction of Miss Elizabeth Loeffler, associate professor of drama.

Stage manager for the production is Sherman Blass, and Jan Pearson is his assistant. The stage crew includes Keith Glutsch, Clifford Cummins, Ed Holmes, Mary Lou Cuthbertson and James Dobbs.

Glen Pensinger is light manager, assisted by Larry Peterson. The lighting crew consists of Melvyn Swope, Sandra Campbell, Jean Marsh and David Valentine.

Margaret Stanton and Michele Simonet are property manager and assistant, with Esther Christman and James Patterson as crew.

The committee intends to publish the Sparta Key, sponsor campus clean-up campaigns, send publicity releases to home town newspapers, and organize off-campus publicity for the Centennial Year, Carter explained.

"All interested students are invited to attend the meetings, which are held every Tuesday," Carter said.
