Which of These Five Finalists Will Be Centennial Homecoming Queen?

Few Exercise Vote In First Day Test

A meager throng of approximately 900 students trooped to the polls yesterday to vote in the first day of campus-wide class elections. The number is well below the 1050 figure recorded last year at this time.

"A total of 1500 is needed to make a barely respectable showing," Chief Justice Gary Clarke announced late yesterday. He could offer no reason for the voting apathy.

Clarke said that the Freshman Class polled almost as many votes as the other three classes combined. He added that the Senior vote especially was low.

Voting will close at 3:30 p.m. today. Polls are located near the Women's Gym, Engineering Building and Inner Quad.

Clarke also announced that candidates must take down their posters by 6 p.m. today or face possible prosecution by the Student Court.

Candidates are:
Senior Class—president, Tom Bonetti and Al Behr; vice president, Joan Ereno; secretary, Liz Heath and Trish Richards; treasurer, Diane Harlow.

Junior Class—president, Chuck Rigdon; vice president, Claire Gill and Jeannie Oakleaf; secretary, Vivienne Andres and Gayle Grisham; treasurer, Kay Collins and Gail Dahlen.

Bruce Carter; vice president, Anne Beeman and Elaine Perry; secretary, Beverly Crawford, Gerri Dorsa, Carol Hopkins and Lee Houk; treasurer, Lee Sorg and Georgene Kammiller; male justice, Roger Tiffany and Ronald Tuttle; female justice, Carol Crisler.

Freshman Class—president, Roy Cureton and Paul (Connie) Kersey; vice president, Donna Gideon, Bill Rose and Dave Rowe; secretary, Barbara Baynham, Mary White, Diane Beall, Carol Young and Jean Jewell; treasurer, Jerry Brown, Mary Dutton and Jeannie Lund; full-year representative, Dave Longaker, Mari Morris and Bob Young; half-year representative, Don Flood.

Artists Offer Music Recital

The Music Department presented a student recital last night in the Concert Hall. The program featured both vocal and instrumental music.

Tau. In the bottom picture 10 of the 11 semi-finalists are shown prior to last night's judging based on interview. Candidates are left to right, Gail Dahlen, Donna Acuff, Anna Beal, Jan Pearson, Pat Parish, Karen Weiss, Ginny Biondi, Sandra Ward, Zoe Bergmann, and Pat Clabaugh. Not pictured is Gavae Allison.

16 Girls Seek Cotton Maid Laurels Today

Judging for the AWS Maid of Cotton Contest will be held today at 3:30 p.m. at the Catholic Women's Center.

Judges for the contest are Dr. John Kerr, associate professor of drama, Mrs. Izetta Pritchard, housing supervisor, and Mrs. Beulah Ramsey, assistant manager of women's clothing in a local department store.

Entrants in the contest are Nancy Bean, Shirley Ewen, Dorothy Fairburn, Anne Holabird, Judy Keck, Barbara Koepff, Jennie Lund, Dorothy McCaron, Pat O'Connell, Janet McRegien, Vera Pogojeff, Nancy Reed, Bonnie See, Jeanette Stark, Beverly Taylor, and Charlotte Whitmer.

The girls will be judged on personality, poise, appearance and speaking voice.

The winner of the contest will represent SJS in the state contest to be held Nov. 2 in Fresno. She will compete with representatives of all California colleges and universities.

The winner of the state contest will be California's representative in the national Maid of Cotton Contest. She will also receive a complete new wardrobe and a week's vacation in Hawaii.

Teaching Students To Meet Today

Teaching candidates who will complete work for credentials by September of next year should attend a meeting to be held in the Music Building Auditorium today at 1:30 p.m., according to a Placement Service bulletin.

Placement procedures will be explained at the meeting, and forms will be given out to establish placement files.

Curtain Goes Up on Drama Season Tonight With Shakespeare Comedy

"Much Ado About Nothing," first play of the 1956-57 season, will open tonight at 8:15 o'clock in the main College Theater. This Shakespearean comedy will be directed by Miss Elizabeth Loeffler, associate professor of drama. Harrison McCreath is scene designer and technical director for the production.

The cast includes Sylvia Crone and Ivan Paulsen as the lovers, Hero and Claudio, and Wayne Ward as Don Pedro, who is trying to promote the romance. These three students appeared in last year's Shakespearean production, "A Midsummer Night's Dream." Craig Thush, who was the Irishman in "The Merchant of Venice," will take the part of Don John, the villain.

Leslie Robinson, director of Shaw's "Caesar and Cleopatra" last year, and Patrick Garvey, who has acted in several Shakespearean plays in other colleges, will portray Beatrice and Benedick, famous lovers in literature, according to Miss Loeffler.

Others in the cast will be: Christopher Brown as Leonato; Richard Geer, Antonio; James Givens, Balthazar; Lee Devins, Borachio; James Dunn, Conrade; Phillip Up-ton, Friar Francis; Robert McNamara, Dogberry; Don West, Verges; Richard Tash, a sexton; Robert Whitehead, a messenger; Gail Anderson and Elizabeth Keller, waiting women; Dean Blackmore and Lou Anne Bone, musicians; Cheryl Del Biaggio and Marlene Balogh, pages; and Davey Schmitt, Robert Gordon and Thomas Prather, the watches.

TUDOR STYLE STAGING

McCreath has staged the play in late Tudor style, and Miss Ber-neice Prisk, associated professor of drama, has designed Elizabethan costumes for the production. Two Elizabethan instruments, a lute and a wooden flute, are being used.

Stage manager for the production is Sherman Blass, and RUFFLED UP—Ivan Paulsen, standing, and Christopher Brown, seated, are dressed in the ruffles which were characteristic of the Elizabethan period of "Much Ado." Ivan portrays Claudio, a young lord of Florence, in love with Hero, the daughter of the governor, Leonato, played by Christopher. Sylvia Crone takes the part of Hero, who is betrayed by Craig Thush, as Don John. Beatrice and Benedick are the other lovers in the play.

Street Fighting in Hungary Continues As Dead and Wounded Total Soars

VIENNA—Hungary's civil war, its dead already numbering in the hundreds and its wounded in the thousands, raged through its third day Thursday despite new government promises of forgiveness and a pledge to negotiate withdrawal of all Soviet troops in Hungary.

The "working people" of Budapest fought Soviet troops and government forces through the broad streets and cobble squares of that fabled city as the Hungarian Communists purged their top Stalinist leaders and made continued desperate pleas for an end to bloodshed.

A German engineer named Mueller-Ruziska, of Frankfurt, reached the Austro-Hungarian frontier from Budapest this afternoon and estimated that 2000 to 3000 persons had been killed in the fighting in the Hungarian capital. Another traveler said the Soviet troops were not joined by Hungarian troops in fighting the rioters.

The Communist leadership, meeting in emergency session, booted out Stalinist party boss Erone Geroe and named "Titoist" Janos Kadar as new first secretary. They had confirmed Keroe to that post only yesterday.

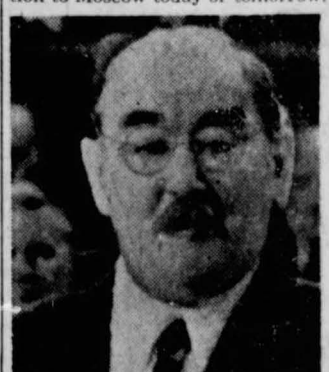

Shortly afterwards, newly restored "Titoist" Premier Imre Nagy promised in a radio broadcast to the nation that he would ask for the withdrawal of all

Soviet troops from Hungarian soil as soon as order is restored.

MISSION TO MOSCOW

WARSAW—The revamped Polish Communist Party and government moved Thursday to patch up strained relations with the Soviet Union.

A United Press dispatch from Moscow said Wladyslaw Gomulka, the new "liberal" leader of the Polish United Workers (Communist) Party, would head a delegation to Moscow today or tomorrow.

IMRE NAGY
... "Titoist" Premier

The party's central committee passed a resolution this morning calling on Poles to "consolidate Polish Socialism."

But it added that any attempts to drive a wedge between Poland and the Soviet Union were doomed to failure.

DEPLORES USSR ACTION

NEW YORK—President Eisenhower in a special statement said Thursday the United States deplores the intervention of Soviet military forces in Hungary.

Mr. Eisenhower not only deplored Soviet military action designed to put down riots in Hungary, but he pointed out that under a peace treaty to which Russia is a party, her troops should have been withdrawn from Hungary before now.

He said the activities of Soviet military forces in Hungary demonstrated that they were not there "to protect Hungary from armed aggression from without, but rather to continue an occupation of Hungary by the forces of an alien government for its own purposes."

OAKLAND AIR CRASH

OAKLAND—A Navy Fury single jet plane crashed into a hillside in a populated section of Oakland shortly before noon Thursday and exploding ammunition set fire to at least three homes.

The plane's lone occupant was killed when the plane hit with such force that one of the pilot's shoes was tossed 200 yards from impact point.

A maid and a small child, in one of the three homes set afire, were slightly injured.

EDITORIAL

Who Is Apathetic Toward Elections?

In past weeks the editors of the SPARTAN DAILY have been criticizing voter apathy in an effort to prod student voters out of their usual lethargic state of mind in order to realize a decent turnout at the polls.

But as usual we have failed in our purpose. Upon considering the matter, though, we find that it is not just the voter who is responsible for this hapless situation. Candidates themselves seem to be as bored with the whole business as are the rest of the student body.

Have you ever heard of a candidate for any position who didn't willingly seek publicity—especially free publicity?

Surprisingly enough 32 candidates for class offices failed to take advantage of free space offered to them in the SPARTAN DAILY on Wednesday.

The space was available so that candidates might explain their platforms. Apparently those who didn't take advantage of the space made available either didn't have a platform, or didn't think the voters would be interested even if it were published. If the latter was the case, chances are they were right.

We base this last assumption on the fact that only 900 students went to the trouble of voting yesterday—a miserable turnout considering that there are nearly 11,000 eligible voters on campus. Last year 1050 students voted on the first election day, and that was certainly nothing to brag about.

But, then, as we said before, the voter must shoulder all the blame. Why should he be expected to go to the polls? All he will do when he gets there is pick up a ballot containing a selection of meaningless names.

If this situation continues, one thing will be certain. The voter will have no right to complain or criticize his student government or its leaders, nor will the candidate have any right to criticize voter apathy.

We're not going to anymore.

An interesting note came in the mail the other day. Its writer suggested that warnings or small fines were not enough punishment for parking lot violators. He further suggested that cars parked in violation of regulations be hauled off by a tow-truck and impounded for 30 days.

We won't discuss the merits of these suggestions, but we defy any tow-truck driver to enter the parking lots and haul off an illegally parked vehicle. There isn't any room to get in.

ABOUT THOSE FLICKS

By DICK O'CONNOR

Making the rounds of local "popcorn palaces" at the present time is the greatest thing that has ever happened to English 168B classes at San Jose State.

The able staff of the English Department tries, with only moderate success, to explain the many sided problems of Captain Ahab as he chases the white whale "Moby Dick."

Now John Ford, who doesn't understand the book either, makes it easier with a long flick on the subject. The plot loses something as Ford has Gregory Peck (without flannel suit) flounder through the waters of the South Seas in search of Moby.

The aforementioned Mr. Peck, looking for all the world like Abe Lincoln, surprises the audience when his first lines are not "Four score and seven years ago..."

The rest of the cast with two exceptions, are lost in the personal tug of war between Moby and Greg. True to the book, Moby wins.

The two other characters that stand out are Father Mapple played by Orson Wells and Queequeg played by Queequeg.

Orson stands out because his pulpit stands out. Queequeg stands out all over. This purple colored fellow has the best job of hem-stitching we have ever seen. If "Moby Dick" had been presented in Cinemas, raincoats would have been standard issue. The frantic splashing of Moby Dick as he eats whalers like salted peanuts don't make him the hero of the flick. Greg does not take the honor either as revenge controls his life. We vote for Queequeg.

Go out of your way to see this one and save reading 565 pages written in the dark ages. For us, it was too much Ahab.

SACRAMENTO (UP)—A statewide poll of junior statesmen groups in California showed today the future voters stand 110,846 to 108,921 in favor of the Eisenhower-Nixon ticket on the November election ballot.

The poll of the Young People's Political Study Club also recorded 74,955 ballots for incumbent Thomas Kuchel (R-Calif.), against 73,073 for his opponent, State Sen. Richard Richards (D-Los Angeles). The pre-election poll covered nearly every high school in the state, Statesmen representatives said.

The student voters were against the U.S. sending arms to Israel by 84,972 to 65,926. They favored full parity price supports for grain farmers in the final tally, 82,908 to 63,665. The youths supported voting power for 18-year-olds with 77,518 yes votes against 63,665 no ballots.

Thrust and Parry Letter Thwarts Campaign To Change SJS's Name

By DON BECKER

San Jose State might be known as California State today, save for a letter to Thrust and Parry. Ironically, the writer probably had nothing other in mind than to promote a chuckle on the campus.

But the letter was to be mainly responsible for the defeat of the Cal State proposal which had gained the support of a majority of students and the college president. There was little opposition until the letter.

On March 10, 1952, the SPARTAN DAILY ran an editorial entitled: "Why Not California State?" Earlier, Lyke, had run a story advocating the change.

DAILY'S EDITORIAL

In the DAILY's editorial, several arguments for the name switch were advanced.

"Students from all over are now attending San Jose State," they said. "We have outgrown a name confining us to a given area."

They admitted that a school makes its own name and that success can not be achieved by merely changing a title. But they asked:

"If we can be given a boost, why not?" Certainly, they felt, the national prestige of SJS would be greatly enhanced.

On the strength of the editorial, student interest was aroused, but little was done. The DAILY, firmly behind the issue, chided the students editorially. They said that they had heard many favorable comments about the switch, but because it was a difficult step, the students would not get behind the proposal.

Shortly afterward, letters in favor of the move flooded the DAILY office. The Thrust and Parry column took up the entire second page of the paper on two occasions. Most letters extolled the merits of the California State idea.

STUDENT POLL

The DAILY conducted a poll of student opinion, with 71% found in favor, and only 29% against the change. Naturally, there were a few who aired their dissenting opinions. Student Jim Downs wrote:

"It's a form of campus nationalism caused by insecure students, who, because of their vanity, want to get prestige." Another said: "San Jose is much more romantic."

Dr. T. W. MacQuarrie, then the college president, favored the change.

"We are entitled to be known as California State," he declared. "The school was called the California State Normal school in 1870 and there is no reason why the name should not be adopted."

U. C. DIRECTOR AGREES

More jumped on the bandwagon. Stan McAffrey, then the executive director of the University of California Alumni Assn. said:

"Basically, no other state college could have objections since the college had the name under the original charter."

The talk brought results. The Student Council voted to include the question of the name change on the ballot for the ASB elections. They pointed out that it could not be made official until the State Legislature approved it, but at least the college would be letting its feelings be known.

STUDENT SUPPORT

Student feeling continued to run high. More arguments in favor of the switch were brought out.

"San Jose is not a teachers college, the majority are not education majors," one proclaimed.

The cry to put San Jose State on the map rang loud.

On April 11, Bob McMahon wrote this short letter to the DAILY:

"California State is a great idea, but why stop there? After all, aren't we the best college on the coast. Why not make it Pacific State College?"

NATIONAL COLLEGE

"No, even that doesn't do justice to a college as outstanding as ours. How about the American National College."

"But then, is there any college anywhere that can compare with us? Certainly not!"

"Then let's go students of International College. Write letters to the International College Daily. Head all your papers International State. We can do it."

Sincerely,
Bob McMahon

The issue was as good as dead. More letters of a similar nature followed and advocates of the plan were treated to a large ration of abuse.

Even the DAILY could no longer be serious about the Cal

12th Annual Home Ec Conclave Opens Tonight

Eta Epsilon, home economics club, will be hostess to approximately 90 representatives from 13 schools in the College Home Economics Club of Northern California and Nevada 12th Annual Workshop to be held at SJS tonight through Oct. 28.

Home economics majors Margaret Mitchell and Dolores Peal are president and corresponding secretary, respectively, for the convention. They will be assisted by committee chairmen Doris Wilkinson, decorations; Mary Lou Smith, Carol Palko, Rosemary Mastrolini, Barbara Ziebell and Joan Lowman, meals; Pat O'Carroll, hostess; Jan Power, skit; Myra Levy, entertainment.

The meeting theme will be "Increasing Our World Understanding."

The workshop begins tonight with a picnic supper in the college Cafeteria followed by a pajama party at the motel where the delegates will stay.

After breakfast Saturday, the group will be greeted by Dr. Margaret C. Jones, home economics department director, and Dr. Stanley C. Benz, dean of students, in the Engineering Auditorium. Mrs. Leonora Grass, California Home Economics Assn. state chairman of elementary, secondary and adult education will address the assembly.

Following buzz sessions, Phi Upsilon Omicron, home economics honor society, will serve refreshments at a coffee break. Saturday afternoon plans include a tour of the campus, luncheon at the De Anza Hotel with students from foreign countries speaking on "Our World and Family Life" and a visit to the Winchester Mystery House.

Mr. Gael Douglass, from the Long Advertising Agency will be guest speaker at the banquet at the De Anza Hotel Saturday night. He will tell about his visit to Russia last summer.

Sunday morning reports by the Evaluation Committee will end the workshop.

Colleges and universities that will be represented are: San Jose State College, Santa Rosa Junior College, Fresno State College, Modesto Junior College, City College of San Francisco, University of California at Davis, Humboldt State College, Stockton College, San Francisco State College, Chico State College, Sierra College, College of the Sequoias, Sacramento State College and the University of Nevada.

Grad Receives Overseas Post

Dr. Albin Anderson, a 1932 graduate of San Jose State, has left for Turkey as a member of a three-man commission appointed by the government to organize the American University there, according to Dr. Leo P. Kibby, chairman of the Division of Social Sciences.

Dr. Anderson, who is on leave of absence from his teaching position at the University of Nebraska, received a bachelor's degree in history at SJS. He went on to win his Ph.D. at the University of California in Berkeley.

Signups for Oral Reading Contest Open To Students

Signups for the Dr. Dorothy Kaucher Oral Reading Award must be completed before Dec. 1, in SD 100, according to Dr. Lawrence Mouat, professor of speech. Previously, the contest was limited to students in the oral interpretation classes, but this year all students are permitted to enter.

Tryouts for the contest will be held Dec. 18 at 3:30 p.m. in SD 114. Either prose or poetry selections may be used but selections should be limited to four minutes at the tryout and seven minutes at the final performance on Jan. 10.

There is a $50 prize for the winner of the contest. Last year's winner went to Glen Pensinger, a sophomore radio-TV major.

Dr. Courtney Brooks' Projects 192 class will give a staged reading of "The Night of the Hunter," a novel by Davis Grubb, on Nov. 9 and 10 in Studio Theater.

The purpose of this reading will be to augment the funds for the Dr. Kaucher Award. There will be a 50 cent admission fee. Four previous award winners will appear in the reading. They are: Ronald Stokes, Grant Salzman, Joyce Osborn and Shirley Ahern.

Aero Convention To Meet at SJS

San Jose State will be host to the statewide spring conference of the California Aeronautical Education Association the first weekend in May. Thomas Leonard, Aeronautics Department Head announced today.

Basic planning for the spring gathering got underway at a meeting of the association in Bakersfield Saturday. Representatives from the SJS Aero Department at the Bakersfield convention were M. Mjlichevich, instructor in aeronautics, and Frank Williams, assistant professor of aeronautics.

Teachers from all educational levels throughout the state will gather here for the spring meeting, Leonard said. The association's statewide meeting was scheduled at SJS to help the college celebrate its Centennial.

Award Deadline Nov. 2

November 2 is the deadline to apply for Tau Delta Phi's $25 Scholastic Improvement Award. Chuck Mainard, awards chairman, warned today. Application blanks are available in the Student Activities Office, Room 114.

Spartans Seek Upset Over ASC

Devils Favored In Tempe Contest

By JIM HUSHAW

Coach Bob Bronzan sends a win-hungry San Jose State football eleven against undefeated Arizona State tomorrow night in Tempe's Goodwin Stadium. A crowd of 18,000 is expected to witness the Sun Devil Homecoming game. The contest will be broadcast on radio station KEEN, San Jose, starting at 6:45.

The Spartans, still looking for their second win of the season, will be 14 point underdogs, San Jose scored a 26-7 win over Drake in the opening game of the season and has proceeded to drop games to Washington State and Stanford, and last week tied San Diego State, 27-27.

On the other hand, Arizona State is unbeaten this season. They have wins over Wichita, North Texas State, New Mexico A&M, Idaho University and Hardin-Simmons. They topped Hardin-Simmons 26-13 last weekend for their most impressive victory.

The Sun Devils have a strong passing attack, San Jose's biggest weakness. Sun Devil quarterback Dave Graybill is ranked tenth in the nation in passing with 33 completions out of 53 attempts for 399 yards. Graybill, however, must take a back seat to San Jose's Bob Reinhart who ranks third in the nation in the same department with 48 strikes out of 88 attempts for 638 yards. Reinhart has had only one pass intercepted to Graybill's three.

Graybill's top passing targets are Charlie Mackey and John Allen. Both are 6-4 and weigh 190 pounds, giving Graybill excellent targets. Last year's top pass receiver in the ASC-SJS game was Gene Mitcham, who is another Graybill favorite.

This trio is expected to give the Spartans a busy night in the defensive backfield. Last year it was the Graybill to Mitcham combination that kept the Sun Devils in contention as SJS won 27-20.

The Sun Devil's line averages to 195 pounds and is reportedly fast. The backfield speed on offense and defense will hurt the Spartans. Only 36 points have been scored against the Sun Devils while they have run up 159 points in five games for a 32 point average per game.

San Jose will pin its hopes on the quarterbacking of Bob Reinhart, and an improved defensive backfield. Reinhart has passed for six touchdowns, second highest in the nation. A much improved field general, Reinhart is expected to use a variation of plays to utilize his passing game, which has been the Spartans biggest offensive threat this season.

The running of the Spartan backs has improved in recent contests. Jim Riley, Art Powell, Roy Hiram, Harvel Pollard and Walt Ackerman have carried the brunt of the rushing game for SJS.

Powell is Reinhart's favorite target and is currently tenth in the nation in pass receiving with 14 passes caught for 306 yards. Powell is sporting a 21.5 rushing average in six carries as well.

Marv McKean is doubtful for the game, so Reinhart will have to carry the load himself, as he did against San Diego.

The Spartan line, built around Roland Logan, Herb Boyer and Stan Keith, is expected to outweigh the Sun Devil forward wall, but must give way some speed to the lighter Arizona chargers.

Hal Boutte and Pete Galloni will open at ends for the Spartans. Regular starter Mel Powell is suffering from a badly twisted knee and may not see action. Tom Ryan and Jim Hughes will start at the tackle positions.

The Spartan traveling squad left this morning from San Francisco Airport and will return at 4 p.m. Sunday to the airport.

SJS Booters Underdog To Strong Gator Team

Still seeking their first win of the season, the San Jose State soccer team probably will continue to look for the win after this week's contest.

The Spartan booters will meet a very strong San Francisco State squad at 10 a.m. tomorrow. The game will be played at Cox Stadium in San Francisco.

The Golden Gators surprised everyone as they tied the mighty University of San Francisco Don booters, 1-1. It is the first game in several years that the Dons have not won.

On the other hand, the Spartans have absorbed two straight defeats. SJS has a young, inexperienced team and should get better as the season progresses, according to Coach Julie Menendez.

Top scorers for the Golden Raiders are expected to be Berend Bos, a first year man. Tony Critelli, an all-league selection last year, John Rodriguez, a two-year veteran and Bob Bergman.

The Spartan defense will be built around two-year letterman goalie Lou Stowell.

KA Beats SX; Takes 'Mural Football Lead

GEORGE (BOOMER) COBBS may at last get a chance to boom when the San Jose State Spartans take on Arizona State tomorrow night. Cobbs, a 5-11, 200-pound powerhouse from McClymonds High School in Oakland, was injured early in pre-season practice and is just starting to run hard again. An aggressive runner Cobbs could be the answer to the SJS up the middle power-problem.

Kappa Alpha spotted Sigma Chi six quick points, then came roaring back to score a 13-6 victory to take over the American Intramural Football League lead yesterday at the Willow Street Park. Delta Upsilon topped Theta Xi 7-0 at the same location.

Sigma Chi scored on the first play of the game when a Jim Daneri pass was deflected by a KA defensive man and fell into the hands of Jeb Haigh who dashed 60 yards for the score.

Kappa Alpha took the kickoff and stayed to the ground to grind out 60 quick yards with Jim Biednell running the final 18 yards on an end sweep.

Kappa Alpha's final touchdown came on the ground as halfback Jim Hushaw took a reverse from Biednell and went 50 yards to score with the aid of perfect blocking from his teammates. A Toby Walker to Bud Green pass gave the KA's a 13-6 halftime lead, and their final point.

Delta Upsilon scored its second win of the season with a 7-0 win over the winless Theta Xi squad. Frank Patoni passed 60 yards to Gil Egeland to give the DU's their score. A Patoni pass to Buzz Atkinson gave the winners their conversion. Sparkling line play for both teams highlighted the game as did John Wagner and Patoni's defensive play.

Eight Lettermen To Pace Grapplers

With eight lettermen returning, the San Jose State wrestling team will open its season against the University of California at Spartan Gym Dec. 5.

Coach Hugh Mumby will pin hopes for a successful season on Russ Camilleri, Joe Isasi, George Uchida, Dick Weger and Lynn Brooks. All except Camilleri are two year letter winners.

WAA Bowling League Starts

WAA bowling will start Nov. 1. The women will bowl every Thursday at Bridgeman's Recreation Center on W. Santa Clara street. Transportation and shoes will be provided.

A sign-up sheet will be posted in the Women's Gym until Oct. 31. The instruction will be provided by women's gym from 7-9 p.m.

Miss Shirley Gorrell, faculty advisor, according to Barb Fisher, WAA bowling manager. The Rifle Club will meet Thursday, Nov. 1, in the National Guard Armory on W. Santa Rosa street. The WAA volleyball tournament is Tuesday night in the women's gym from 7-9 p.m.

Dates Set for Boxing Tourney

The 20th annual Novice Boxing Tournament, one of San Jose's finest athletic spectacles, is to be held on Dec. 13, 14, and 15, according to Julie Menendez, varsity boxing coach, in charge of the tourney.

The affair, to be held in Spartan Gym, has always been a source of thrills for fans and boxers alike, along with serving as a proving ground for varsity boxers.

Menendez admitted that much of his talent comes out of the tournament. Were it not for the tourney, many former varsity boxers might never be discovered.

Most of the participants, however, do not keep on boxing, but rather, the novice battles constitute their one fling in the ring. All it takes is a little heart, conditioning and the ability to keep up a flurry of blows.

Organizations sponsoring teams have been asked by Menendez not verbally to tie-up more than one boxer in any one weight division.

There will be 11 weight divisions starting at 120 lbs., running through the over 190 lb. unlimited class. Every candidate must

There will be a meeting of all students interested in competing in varsity and freshman boxing in Room 201 of the Men's Gym at 7:30 p.m. on Oct. 30. Coach Julie Menendez urges all boxers to attend.

weigh-in at the limit or less. There will be no weight allowances.

Weigh-ins will be held on Wed., Dec. 13, between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m. Drawings for bouts will be held the same day at 5:30 p.m. All team captains must be present.

Gold and silver medals will be awarded to the two finalists in each division. Trophies will be awarded to the outstanding boxer, winning coach, winning organization, and best rooting section.

To participate, each boxer must have a manager, and each manager should have a sponsoring organization. Every competitor must have a physical examination. The date for physicals has not been set.

P.E. Fraternity Pledges 18 Men

Phi Epsilon Kappa, men's physical education fraternity, pledged 18 new members at ceremonies Wednesday night in the Men's Gym, according to Bob Kitagawa, fraternity publicity chairman.

Those initiated were Bob Eustis, Hank Wong, Dick Matlock, Bob Gates, Bob Gadsby, Warren Hayashi, Darrell Kirkland, Chuck Benjamin, Lee Boyd, Stu Rubine, Marshall Stone, Bob Tafoya, Dale Gones, George Gadsberry, Bill Ludwick, Bert Bonanno and Ken Spagnola.

Hal Boutte, San Jose State end, was All-Northern California football selection at Hartnell under tutelage of former Spartan Ken Blue.

Spartan Water Polo Squad Faces Hornets

San Jose State engages Fullerton J. C. in a non-league water polo tilt in the Spartan pool today at 4 p.m.

The Spartans have not been beaten in out-of-league play this season and Coach Charley Walker's men figure to keep this streak alive in today's game.

The Freshman team is slated to go against Fremont High of Sunnyvale in the preliminary starting at 3 p.m.

AGAINST ALMA MATER

Three former Fullerton players, Dave Towle, Stan McConnell and Roger McCandless, are expected to play against their alma mater for the Spartans.

Walker seemed pleased yesterday with the performance of the Spartans in the first-half against California, earlier this week. Holding the Bears to a 2-1 half time lead was no mean effort.

The Bears, along with competing in the Northern California Water Polo league, are also entered in the Pacific Coast Conference play. They play home series with USC and UCLA. It will be interesting to see how the Bears will do in competition with the perennial powers from the south.

LAMBERT HAS EDGE

Art Lambert holds a two goal edge over Dale Anderson for Spartan scoring honors in all games played to date with 22 goals.

ART POWELL

BOB REINHART

SAN JOSE STATE offensive hopes—Carrying Spartan offensive hopes for an upset victory over the Arizona State Sun Devils tomorrow night will be halfback Art Powell and quarterback Bob Reinhart. Reinhart, third in the nation in forward passing and Powell, seventh in the nation in pass receiving, have combined for three TD passes. Powell, a sophomore from San Diego and Reinhart is a junior from Glendale.

New Look JayVee Team Meets Navy

Using a coaching innovation only a trifle less sensational than the recently banned "helmet headsets", the San Jose State JV's will take on the tough Alameda Naval Air Station Hellicats football team at Spartan Stadium tomorrow afternoon. Game time will be 2 o'clock.

JV Coach Bill Walsh will direct his team from the press box aided on the sidelines by assistant coach Stan Wacholtz and the secret weapon.

Walsh would not divulge the exact nature of the system but stated that the Spartans would go with a variation of the Michigan state multiple offense, the San Jose State T and an eight man rushing defense.

The eight man rush defense is something that Walsh borrowed from the University of Oklahoma. It will be used in addition to more normal defenses when the situation demands.

Walsh was the picture of enthusiasm as he predicted, "If we don't win this one, we won't win any of them."

The starting lineup for the game that may revolutionize college football will be:

Claude Brock and Dale Jones at ends, Jim Nystrom and Bob Emert at tackles, Bob Rose and Tom Michell at guards and Don DeTata at center.

The backfield will be composed of ex-San Jose Junior College ace Joe Bondi at quarterback, Al Conley, fastest man on the squad, and Dick Fredericks at halfbacks, and Dick (Ahi) Gerakos at fullback.

Little John Webb, smallest of the JV gridders, has been injured but is expected to see some action at halfback.

The Alameda Navy team defeated the Treasure Island Navy team 19-18 and Treasure Island defeated SJS 13-0.

Comparative scores would give the edge to Alameda but the "new" Spartans will not let that stand in their way, according to Walsh.

SJS Harriers Meet Fresno State

The San Jose State cross country squad will seek its first win of the season when they meet the Fresno State squad on the Bulldog harrier course tomorrow at 12 noon.

Last week Mike Ryan's distance runners were held to a 28-28 tie with Stanford. It was the opening meet of the year for SJS. The Bulldogs aren't expected to offer as much of a problem. Ryan said, but they will not be easy.

Wes Bond, winner against Stanford last week, is suffering from a cold, and may not be at his best tomorrow, Ryan said. Ryan is taking a team of 10 men to the meet.

The squad includes, Bond, Fred Green, L. D. Bennett, Ron Gross, John Nelson, Bob Rush, Carlos Saldivar, Larry Swenson, Bob Tafoya and Mike Yeager.

The course will cover four miles. Last week Bond covered the Stanford course in 22:46 as he won. Bob Tafoya, the tenth finisher in the meet against the Indians, was clocked in 24:05 showing how close the runners are to each other this early in the season.

Last year the Spartans possessed one of the most powerful cross country teams on the coast, although the team was not as well balanced as this year's team, Ryan said. "We could have one of the strongest teams in Spartan history with just a little more work from the runners," Ryan concluded. Ryan is filling in for track and field coach Bud Winter, who is preparing to leave for the Olympic Games in Melbourne next month.

"Much Ado," which was originally scheduled to run five days, has had two extra days added to the run. It will continue tomorrow night and will run from Tuesday, Oct. 30, to Sat., Nov. 3.

Miss Loeffler said, "This play is one that appeals to young people as well as to older ones. It is full of good humor and wit, intrigue and complications." She added that it contains elements of buffoonery and has a wide audience appeal.

The play is somewhat difficult to portray because of the exchange of high-level wit between Beatrice and Benedick. This is more difficult for young actors than the modern realism with which they are familiar, according to the director. The flexible, instinctive comedy of these lovers serves to complement the stiff tragic atmosphere of Claudio and Hero, she adds.

Religious Council Probes S.J. Area

The College Religious Council discussed plans for a social project for 1956-57 at a recent meeting. Doug Gary headed the breakfast meeting served by Calvin Club, Presbyterian youth group on campus.

An investigation of racial and religious discrimination evident in the San Jose area and the progress being made to improve the situation is included in the social project.

It was suggested that the council sponsor several foreign students who would like to visit San Jose during summer months to become acquainted with American home life.

A report was heard from Claude Allen, chairman of Religion-in-Life Week, to be held Dec. 2-7. A general meeting for all Religion-in-Life Week committee chairman will be held Thursday at 4:30 p.m. at the Student Y.

The College Religious Council will meet again Sunday, Nov. 11, at 8 a.m. in the Student Y. Breakfast will be prepared by the Christian Science Organization.

The College Religious Council is comprised of representatives from the campus religious groups. Its purpose is to integrate various college religious groups for mutual understanding through social and cultural activities.

All religious groups are urged to send two representatives to the breakfast meetings to be held the second Sunday of each month at the Student Y.

Prof To Name National Fund Candidates

The Danforth Foundation, an educational trust fund maintained in St. Louis, is accepting applications for the 1957 group of Danforth Graduate Fellows.

To apply for the fellowships, one must be a male college senior or a recent graduate preparing for a career of college teaching and planning to enter graduate school in September, 1957 for the first year of graduate study.

Dr. Theodore J. Sielaff, assistant professor of business, has been appointed by President John T. Wahlquist to nominate candidates for the fellowships.

The appointments are fundamentally "a relationship of encouragement" which offers financial aid throughout graduate study. The maximum annual grants are between $1800 and $2400.

All applications, including recommendations, must be turned in Jan. 31, 1957. Students wishing further information should contact Dr. Sielaff.

Prof Recruits For Fellowship

Dr. Raymond W. Barry, chairman of the language and literature division, now serves on the regional committee of the National Woodrow Wilson Fellowship Program, a campaign to recruit young men and women for college and university teaching.

The program seeks the most promising college graduates throughout the nation and offers them a year of graduate training in any of the humanities or social sciences.

Psi Chi To Witness 'Lie' Demonstration

A psychogalvanometer demonstration will be given to members of Psi Chi, honorary psychology society, at 8 o'clock Friday night in the home of Dr. Thomas E. Parker, assistant professor of psychology, according to Donald Staigt, president.

Better known as a "lie detector," the machine will be operated by Dave Pollock, police major and member of Psi Chi. Club officers will be elected at this meeting, and dues will be collected, Staigt said.

Dr. Parker's residence is located at 14542 Fleming Ave. in eastern

16 Awards To Be Given To Students by Mexico; Nov. 1 Entry Deadline

Sixteen awards are being offered by the Mexican government to graduate and undergraduate students who wish to study in Mexico during 1957.

Nov. 1 is the last day on which applications will be accepted for the awards, which are for the school year beginning March 1, 1957.

Awards are open to both men and women. Applicants must be citizens of the United States.

Prof Speaks In Arizona

Dr. Gertrude Cavins, professor of chemistry, is in Phoenix, Ariz., today where she will address the Arizona Science Teachers Association meeting. Dr. Cavins will speak on "Cosmetics or Functional Chemistry for High School Students."

The meeting is a regional conference of the National Science Teachers Assn. Dr. Cavins is National secretary.

Other eligibility requirements are a good knowledge of Spanish, good academic record, good moral character, personality and adaptability, and good health.

Only juniors and seniors will be accepted for the undergraduate awards.

Recommended graduate fields of study are architecture, Indian and physical anthropology, ethnology and archaeology, museography, art (painting—open to advanced students only), cardiology and tropical medicine (for candidates with M.D. degrees), biological sciences, and Mexican history. Other fields are not excluded.

For undergraduates the fields of philosophy, language and literature are recommended. Specially qualified students may study Mexican history, ethnology, archaeology, and physical anthropology.

The grants are designed to cover full maintenance and include tuition. Applicants should be prepared to pay for travel costs and incidental expenses.

Candidates for the grants, which are being offered through the Mexico-United States Commission of Cultural Cooperation, should apply to the United States Student Department of the Institute of International Education, the agency which administers the Mexican government awards.

The Institute's address is 1 E. 67th St., New York 21, N.Y.
