

COMPARATIVE PHILOSOPHY

An International Journal of Constructive Engagement of Distinct Approaches toward World Philosophy

Volume 12 No. 1 (January 2021)

EDITOR's Words 1

ARTICLES

- ABSPOEL, Peter / Echoes from the Great Divide:
On the Faltering Philosophical Dialogue between Africa and the West 3
- BLATTBERG, Charles / Gaps: When Not Even Nothing Is There 30
- CHIM, Wung Cheong / George Berkeley and Motoori Norinaga on
Other Minds and There Being "Nothing to Be Done" 55
- HIDALGO, Javier / Empty or Emergent Persons?
A Critique of Buddhist Personalism 76
- KLOTZ, Jerome / The Concept of Non-Duality in Śaṅkara and Cusanus 98
- SINGH, Danesh K. / Reflection and Emotional Well-Being in Nietzsche and Zhuang Zi 111

SPECIAL THEME:

COMPARATIVE PHILOSOPHY IN THE BALKANS

KAHTERAN, Nevad / Doing Philosophy Comparatively in the Balkans 125

CONSTRUCTIVE-ENGAGEMENT DIALOGUE
THE PHILOSOPHY OF MIND

AUTHOR MEETS CRITICS:

SIDERITS, Mark / Born believer?	147
SMITH, Sean / Buddhist Modernism, Scientific Explanation, and the Self	157
VAIDYA, Anand J. / Is the Self Really that Kind of Illusion?	170
STRUHL, Karsten J. / The Illusion of Self Revisited: Replies to Critics	184

RECENT WORK

WISEMAN, MARY / Book Review on New Essays in Japanese Aesthetics (edited by A. Minh Nguyen)	209
HUNT, IAN / Book Review on Marxism, China and Globalization (by XU Changfu)	215
In Memoriam: Adam Morton (1945-2020)	222
