Debate Hour Will Be Broadcast As Forensic Feature

Program Inaugurated
Friday Evening,
November 9

WILBUR MANAGER

Sacramento, Fresno to Speak From Home In Debates

Adrian Wilbur, student forensics manager, announces the inauguration of a weekly intercollegiate debate hour to be broadcast over KQW, beginning November 9.

This will be a regular feature throughout the year, being held every Friday night from nine to nine-thirty, and will have as its purposes the clear presentation of both sides of questions of national, state, and local interest.

EXCHANGE PROGRAMS

The contests with Sacramento Junior college and Fresno State will be particularly interesting as these will be exchange programs: Sacramento Junior college broadcasting from Sacramento, and Fresno from Fresno. In all the contests there will be two speakers on each side with a five minute rebuttal from each team. This feature is expected to prove a very popular one.

MORE SCHEDULED

Wilbur is now scheduling teams from various colleges and universities for these radio contests, and anyone who is interested in participating in the debates is to see Mr. Eckert, debate coach, at his office in the speech arts department.

P.V. PETERSON TO BE GUEST AT AUBURN MEET

Again recognizing the San Jose State college as a leader in the field of science, officials of the Placer County Teachers Institute have invited Dr. P. Victor Peterson, chairman of the local natural science department, to speak in Auburn on Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday of this week.

Dr. Peterson's topic will be "Science in the Elementary Schools". He is leaving late this afternoon for Auburn, and plans to see the Fresno-College of Pacific game Friday night on his return trip, as the Secretary-Treasurer of the Far Western Conference.

"GRAND RALLY" WAS EXAMPLE OF SCHOOL SPIRIT SAYS MISS INNES

From all reports, Grand Rally was a success.

And this success was due not only to the spirit of the returning group, but more to the enthusiasm and cooperation of the students and faculty themselves right here on the campus.

It is this spirit and cooperation which we wish to commend. Thanks to the student body and faculty who worked so ardently in carrying out Grand Rally plans.

NINE VERSE CHOIRS ARE ORGANIZED FOR WORK UNDER MISS E. JENKS

Student Leaders Teach Fundamentals In Oral Work

With the personnel of the Speaking Choirs finally chosen, plans for the new year are being rapidly completed, according to Miss Elizabeth Jenks, speech arts department head.

There are seven choirs this quarter and three of these are composed of entirely new members.

The choirs are under the direction of Kay Epps, Dorothy Vierra, Betty Allampress, Marion Failtersack, Eleanor Yates, and Mr. William McCoard. Miss Jenks directs the Men's Choir and also supervises the other choirs.

"The purpose of Verse Choir this year is not just preparing for programs, but to help individuals learn to work and interpret poetry with others," stated Miss Jenks.

"All work done this quarter will be in preparation for more advanced work during the winter and spring quarters.

FORMER FACULTY MEMBER RETURNS FOR SHORT STAY

Miss Martha Trimble, former instructor at San Jose State who resigned in June 1933, has again been called upon to take over the duties of Miss Corinne Davis, associate professor of psychology.

Due to a slight recurrence of her illness of this summer, Miss Davis will be unable to attend her classes for a few days.

The Psychology department considers itself fortunate in being able to secure such an able substitute as Miss Trimble to replace Miss Davis.

COLLEGIATE CHAPEL TO HOLD SERVICES

The first all-college service of the year will be held in the Little Theater at noon tomorrow.

Robert Rector is in charge with Kenneth Bomberg planning the program for the first service.

The all-college chapel was organized under the auspices of the college YMCA in 1931 and has been active since its formation.

Burns' Swan Songs Go On Indefinitely

Keep it up, Howie.
After all, you have a good precedent.

Wasn't it Madame Schumann-Heinck who made farewell tours for years?

So why can't the San Jose State College yell leader appear for the "absolutely last time" every Saturday?

And did those knothole club kids yell against Chico!

We think you're going swell, Howie.

May your "farewell" appearances go on for years and years.

Official Sororities On Campus Are Listed By Dean Dimmick

By HELEN DIMMICK
(Dean of Women)

A number of town sororities have selected for their rushing season the same dates that are used by our regular college sororities. This has resulted in much confusion in the minds of a number of the freshman girls.

To clarify the situation, therefore, it seems wise to make a definite statement regarding the social sororities which are fully recognized by the college. They are: Allenian, Beta Gamma Chi, Ero Sophian, Kappa Kappa Sigma, Phi Kappa Pi, and Sappho. Kappa Phi, a Methodist group, is recognized by the college but is not listed as one of the social sororities. No other such sororities have any connection with the college nor is the college in any way responsible for them nor supporting them.

For any further information freshman girls are advised to see me and talk over the situation.

KELLEY'S ONE ACT IS WELL RECEIVED AT VARIETY SHOW

By JIM CLANCY

The sardonic fruit of Mr. George Kelley's pen was given public approval last Friday night when the Speech department presented his one-act play, "The Flattering Word", to a group of alumni, students and faculty.

The play was only one unit of the program, and it had the good fortune to be immediately preceded by one of the most humorous acts that this author has ever had the privilege to see. This statement is made with some trepidation, for there is still some debate as to whether or not the act was meant to be humorous. But the author rests his decision on the seemingly legitimate assumption that nothing so bad could be unintentional.

SETS ATMOSPHERE

The fact remains, however, that the atmosphere was set for Mr. Kelley's comedy; that, indeed, the act which preceded it was an excellent proof of the verity of the moral which Mr. Kelley wished to point.

"The Flattering Word" that is referred to in the play is fundamentally any group of words which seems to say "You should be on the stage." The play is an exposition and a proof of the insidious qualities which these words possess. Even a servant of God, firmly opposed to the moral decay which the theater represents to him, is not proof against their ubiquitous flattery.

PLAY IS FORCEFUL

The play is a forceful, if slightly obvious satire. Mr. Kelly seems to base his opinion of the intelligence of the average American audience on the results of the Army Alpha tests. Fortunately the intellectual integrity of these tests has long been discredited.

But to Mr. Kelley an audience

SWEENEY PLEDGES AID IN FIRST APPEARANCE BEFORE JUNIOR GROUP

Class Plans Barbecue, Dance For October Joint Meeting

Plans for the Junior Barbecue and Dance were arranged and the tentative date set for Friday night, October 26, at the Junior meeting Thursday. Adrian Wilbur, active junior was elected chairman for the affair. His committee will decide the location and the entertainment to be provided.

Mr. William Sweeney, newly elected advisor and sponsor for the group addressed the class and expressed his desire to aid them in class undertakings.

"I am very much honored to be the Junior Class advisor," he said, "And I look forward to a successful year with you. In all your projects and plans for the year, I expect to be a helper as well as advisor."

President Byron Lanphear announced that at the next scheduled meeting, the juniors and sophomores would hold a joint meeting. Short periods will be allotted to each class for business, and the rest of the hour will be devoted to dancing.

STATE CO-EDS TO BOARD HAY-RICKS NEXT SATURDAY

Y.M.C.A. Membership Finds Food, Music At Saturday Get-together

Plenty of food and good music featured the overnight stay of the college Y. M. C. A. at Lion's Den last Saturday night, in the first of a series of get-togethers by the group.

All who attended the stag enjoyed spaghetti dinners, breakfasts, community singing, and music. Willard Le Croy entertained with guitar and song; Ralph Claypool and Ray Ruf sang duets.

Mr. William McCoard, a member of the Speech department, gave a talk on the European trip he took last summer. A short business meeting to discuss plans for the coming year was held, with Loren Wann presiding.

Those who attended the stag were: Bill McCoard, Jimmy Dunlap, Vernon Wallace, Waldo Brooks, Herbert Diebel, Carol Brinkhof, Ray Ruf, Ralph Claypool, Loren Wann, Robert Rector, Les Whitman, Willard Le Croy, Don Leslie, Ronald Linn, and Randolph Peterson.

Afternoon Dances Planned By State Social Committee

Plans Near Completion For State Activities During Quarter

Lanphear Wants Better Music And Newer Decorations

More afternoon dances will be but one of the innovations for the coming quarter, according to the reports of the student affairs committee, presided over by Byron Lanphear, which met Thursday morning in room 7.

Plans for the socials and entertainments of the student body for the coming year were discussed by the committee. Lanphear, the committee chairman, declared that new features are to be expected for coming dances. More music and fun and newer decorations are promised.

Final plans were made for the student body dance which was held Saturday evening as a climax to the first annual alumni rally, which featured Carmen Dragon's orchestra and its clever floor show.

OLD MEMBERS WORK

Under the direction of Lanphear and his committee largely composed of veterans of previous student affairs committees the program for the remainder of the quarter will be announced soon, and executed for the enjoyment of the student body. If possible dances will be held at least once every two weeks.

SIXTEEN DO PLANNING

Of the 16 members of the committee, the following were present at the meeting: Byron Lanphear, chairman; Ed Wetterstrom, Alice Wilson, Bill Roberts, Ralph Meyers, Louella Fancel, Mary Kashenko, Jim Welsh, Barbara Carr, and Bill Jennings.

NEW WEBSTER'S IS PURCHASED FOR COLLEGE LIBRARY

Two copies of Webster's new international Dictionary have been purchased by the library and will be placed in the main room for student use, Miss Joyce Backus, head librarian, announced today.

These books include 600,000 entries, with 12,000 terms illustrated in plates of color and half tone, and according to Miss Backus, not the old one with a few new pages added.

"There is a group of scholars kept working on the dictionary", Miss Backus said, "and they usually add a few new pages in front, but this time they started at the beginning and improved the whole book."

The tower, which faces the quad, is 322 feet high. It has a room up at the top of which can only be reached by climbing a ladder along the wall.

Educated Fools?

"Thoughtful persons are beginning to wonder what is wrong with the present educational system which is producing an increasing number of scholarly but dangerous simpletons."

"Police and court records show many of the worst crimes are committed by men and women holding university degrees who think themselves 'above the law'."

All college students will undoubtedly rebel at the implications contained in the above quotations, which appeared recently in the magazine section of a leading coast newspaper. Experiments, questionnaires, tests and numerous discoveries of distinguished American educators tend to prove, according to the story, that the world is filling up with educated "fools", presenting an entirely new problem in the history of civilization and probably one of the most dangerous.

Fifty years ago nobody thought that a fool could be educated and remain a fool—that is why our ancestors founded the American school and college system, because they believed that if everyone could be educated everyone would vote and live wisely and most of the world's troubles would disappear.

Newspapers are full of stories of the criminal practices of supposedly brilliant people, university-trained and possessing degrees requiring the most difficult type of study and research. Often we hear of brilliant students who graduate from college with several degrees and all kinds of honors, only to wind up as third-class timekeepers in factories, or to prove unable to run a household and train a family, and gradually become known as the community's prize "nuts".

In fact, says the magazine story, such instances are so common that "ordinary people are beginning to question the value of an education." The hopeful sign is that educators themselves are beginning to agree that "there is something wrong" with schools and colleges which turn out such numbers of educated fools, at the same time, of course, that they turn out many men and women who are not fools at all but are highly competent; and there are signs that something is going to be done about it.

Just Among Ourselves

By Dr. T. W. MacQUARRIE

Note: This column is personal between the president and the college. Outsiders are requested not to make use of the material.

It's a dangerous time for me to be saying anything in print. So many good citizens are excited, anxious, and suspicious. Still, I'd better say it in print than have it a subject for irresponsible gossip. It did my heart good to have a group of our young men and women resent the slurs cast upon us all in a recent political meeting downtown. It pleased me mightily to note the sensible, courageous, and independent manner in which our students acted. I doubt if I, myself, could have been so temperate in that situation. The attack was veiled enough to protect the accuser from an action of slander, but it was vicious nevertheless and set off a whole pack of irresponsible rumor mongers. Some one even went so far as to initiate an investigation by a special committee of citizens. I was asked to attend. At first I was inclined not to go, believing that it was political and as such would be partisan. I decided, however, that it is better to face such people than permit them to talk unchallenged. I happened to know a number of the members of the committee and believed them to be high minded citizens and heartily interested in the welfare of youth.

I am afraid it would have inflated the egos of some of you to have seen our modest little Spartan Daily, all underlined and starred and circled, passed around that solemn group. Those brain children which you dashed off so lightly last week, and which your editor saw fit to print, came in for a most searching examination. Finally some one laughed. There had been such an evident attempt to make something out of nothing, such a frantic effort to turn an honest opinion into a veiled attack upon our national institutions, that it was truly funny.

I had a visit with a prominent citizen last Wednesday in which he said, "Man, those kids are all right. I've read those articles, and I'll say that I, myself wrote lots worse stuff than that when I was in college. It's just a part of one's education. We all laugh at it later."

And in that committee I found a majority in favor of the basic principles of the United States constitution. They discussed sensibly the meaning of the word "communism" and read into it no confusion with a wholesome growth of American institutions. Two or three of the speeches were delightful, clear, scholarly, and courageous. There was no bombast, nothing but the finest citizenship, clear statements of the principles of our democracy. They would tolerate no injustice nor domination by any group of special interests, communist or fascist. When the vote was taken, good citizenship won out easily and the men who initiated the attack lost before a jury of fair minded citizens.

So I want to say this to you young people. These are anxious days for many good citizens. Politics in all its forms, many of them truly vicious, in the air. We must recognize that in our own public relations. We must have that sympathy for the viewpoint of others which we would desire for our own. Fair enough to "call'em for it" when they attack us without warrant, but we must ever keep it in mind that we are citizens of the United States of America, and must work together in the finest spirit of good citizenship, truly to promote the general welfare, and defend our democratic American institutions.

SOCCER SQUAD DROPS GAME TO SAN MATEO

THE SPORT SPOTLIGHT

By Dick Edmonds

The State freshman team, although on the short end of an overwhelming score against the Stanford Papooses, are entering practice with good spirit for the Marin Jaysee game scheduled for Friday night on the home field of the Mariners.

The frosh were without the services of several good players in Saturday's game and one of these, John Costa, known as "Sing Sing" Costa, will be in shape to play against Marin. Costa, a valuable halfback, has been out nursing a bad knee injury.

The State frosh line was the standout in the freshman battle at Palo Alto. During the first half the forwards consistently out-charged the heavier Stanford men. Herb Hudson, the acting captain, played a fine brand of ball at his guard position as did Harold Buffa and Willis Swartzell at the other guard slot. Westall, the aggressive tackle, was constantly in the Indian backfield, either spilling the interference or downing the ball carrier before he really got under way. Westall now weighs 183 pounds and is still "a growing boy." Voorhees, the center, played a good roaming defensive game.

Regardless of the number of touchdowns the Indians scored, the line was not directly responsible for any of them. These scores were the result of completed passes, intercepted passes, blocked punts, end runs, or the runback of kicks.

The ends came in for a bit of criticism over their showing Saturday, but this should be easy to iron out. The Stanford backs were often boxing the end in towards the center and then running right around them for huge gains. Also on punts the safety man of the Stanford eleven was finding it easy to get on the outside of the rushing Spartan ends. All the end play was not bad, for several times Rianda and Owen Collins, one of the steadiest performers, crashed in and nailed the ball carriers for large losses. Some nice pass catching was done by the wingmen; the one by Walt Rianda on the touchdown play was a peach.

The play of the backfield was very good. "Bull" Lewis, negro flash played exceptionally well and received an ovation from the crowd which would have pleased Bob Grayson, the mighty Stanford varsity fullback. On the last four plays of the game, Lewis accounted for 49 yards gain. He is proving to be a very accurate passer as the statistics of the game will show. The Spartans completed eight out of a possible thirteen and most of them were as the result of real accuracy on the passing end. Edwin Fink, halfback, also throws passes neatly. Sliguff played a good offensive game, especially in the run back of punts. Mickey is by far the trickiest and fastest backfield man on the squad, but is a little light.

COACH CHARLIE WALKER HEADS BIG INTRAMURAL NOON FOOTBALL TILTS

Intramural sports will get under way this noon when the Seniors meet the Juniors at 12:10 in the first touch tackle football game of the year. At 12:35 the Frosh will play the Sophmores in the second of the round robin of games to be held.

The teams are to play a double round-robin which has been only partially arranged according to Byron Lanphear and Louis Moche, co-directors of Intramural sports.

The program that has been arranged is as follows: Tuesday, October 16, 12:10, seniors vs. juniors; 12:35, Sophs vs. Frosh. Thursday, October 18, 12:10, Juniors vs. Sophs; 12:35, Seniors vs. Frosh. Tuesday, October 23, 12:10, Seniors vs. Sophs; 12:35, Frosh vs. Juniors.

Lanphear stated that the following rules will be in effect at all contests: two twelve-minute halves will constitute a game and all other regular touch-tackle rules will be in effect. Lanphear also stated that absolutely no varsity or freshmen football players will be permitted to play on any contesting team.

Coach Charles Walker announced that all refereeing would be done by P. E. Majors and that their decisions would be final. Coach Walker went on to state that he hoped a lively interest would be shown in intramural activities as he considers it an important educational feature.

ILSA HIRSCH IS ELECTED PRESIDENT OF K-P CLUB

Ilsa Hirsch was chosen president, and Ilse Hauk was chosen secretary of the E-K kindergarten primary group at a meeting held at the 12th street home of their faculty sponsor, Miss Emily DeVore.

The E-K group, composed of kindergarten-primary education majors whose names begin with the letters from E through K, was organized to promote friendliness among its members.

ming and soccer coach, is again in charge of intramural sports which begin today with two touch-football games scheduled for the opening day.

Walker does not receive near the credit that he deserves. Too many of us overlook the work that he has to do in our interest in the larger sports. More students will turn out for intramural sports than will turn out for all the major sports in the year. It is hoped that San Jose students will continue their support of these sports and today at noon is a fine chance to come out and cheer for your class representatives.

"Remember you said that if a fella needed any help that you'd do what-ya-could for 'em? Does that still go?"

Advances In Radio Art To Be Discussion Topic For Club Meet Monday

Adopting a new conference policy, the San Jose State college radio club will throw its regular meeting, Monday, open to discussion by club members of new apparatus and current advances in the field of radio art.

Robert Buss will be the chief speaker for the coming meeting. He will discuss a new type of receiver which he is building.

Regular club business will be handled by a committee whose recommendations will be subject to the approval of the membership.

Plans for a trip to the new 50 kilowatt station of KPO are being contemplated by Mr. Harry Engwicht, club adviser, who states that a fifty watt transmitter for the club is nearing completion. Access to it may be enjoyed by any licensed amateur operator on the campus.

San Jose State is the fifth largest college in the state, being outstripped in registration by only University of California, University of Southern California, University of California at Los Angeles, and Stanford University.

VARSITY LOSES BY 5-0 SCORE; RESERVES WIN FROM JAYSEE PLAYERS

Spartan's soccer team dropped its first conference game of the season Saturday morning at Spartan field when the San Mateo Jaysee eleven walked off with a 5-0 victory over the Welkerites.

The brilliant heading game and short passing attack was simply too much for the locals, whose offense refused to click against the defense set up by the up-peninsular aggregation.

San Mateo drove down the field on the opening kick-off and cleverly maneuvered around the Spartan defense for a point. A few minutes later, another San Mateo shot dented the netting. A drive into the goal in the second quarter scored another for San Mateo and the half time score said 3-0.

A determined defense held the invaders in the third quarter, but the San Mateo team chalked up another pair in the fourth period to find the final score 5-0.

A State drive in the fourth quarter was stopped in front of the goal by some fine J. C. defensive work.

Outstanding for the Staters were Mel Hickman, who continued his fine play of the season thus far, and Carl Ribinson, State's diminutive track captain.

The preliminary between the reserves of the two schools ended in a 1-1 deadlock. In a driving foray by the entire front line in the third quarter, Green scored for the locals.

State kept the lead until the last few minutes when the San Mateo team tied it up.

Carl Biddle, Troutner and Green all turned in fine performances for the reserves, who show signs of pushing some of the regulars.

Joyce Backus, Dora Smith Work On State Committee

School Library Manual To Be Published As Bulletin

Three local members of the statewide committee on library problems in the elementary schools, Mr. A. H. Horral, associate professor of education here and assistant superintendent of San Jose schools, Miss Joyce Backus, head librarian, and Miss Dora Smith of the library staff, attended a meeting at the Sir Francis Drake hotel in San Francisco Saturday to work on the library manual for elementary schools.

TO PUBLISH MANUAL

This manual will be published as a bulletin by the state department, according to Miss Backus, who explained that the committee of which she is a member was organized by Miss Helen Heffernan, chief of the elementary education division of the state department, and consists of fifteen persons. Five are appointed by state officers, five by the California library association, and the other five by the school library association.

HORRAL IS CHAIRMAN

Mr. Horral, who was appointed to the committee by state officers, was chosen chairman of a sub-committee at the meeting Saturday.

Musical Organization Open To Performances At Other Institutions

In the future, all State college musical organizations will be free to avail themselves of the privilege of performing for other schools in this vicinity, according to Dr. Adolph Otterstein, music department head.

This is a radical departure, for in the past, only a few select groups have been able to give concerts away from the college. The music department feels that this is unfair to many deserving organizations, says Doctor Otterstein, and that it has given the public a one-sided opinion of the activities of the music department.

The purpose of the free performances is two fold. Dr. Otterstein feels that this will not only provide members of these various musical organizations with concert experience, but that it will give desirable publicity to the college, as it will acquaint prospective students with the kind of work being accomplished in the music department.

day. Miss Backus gained her membership through the California Library Association, and Miss Smith, the School Association.

is composed of a group of non-to-bright twelve year olds. His emphasis and reiteration of his idea is forceful the first three or four times, but when he has the Actor repeat it in a summary of "the play within the play" we settle back in our seats, knowing that we are no longer seeing a play but are being lectured.

KELLER IS PROMISING

Elizabeth Allampress, as the character lady, gave a strong, but not consistent, impression. Betty Jean Keller, as the young "brat", showed promise in clear-cut characterization.

COBB SHOWS CHARM

Otis Cobb, as the Actor, showed a certain charm that unfortunately was not projected "over the footlights" enough. Irving Allen and Mae Wilburn were capable in all but respect. Their fault lay in trying to adopt an English accent. Disregarding the fact that their accent was not consistent, it had no place in their characters.

They were intended to represent small-town American people. Such people do not pronounce "been" as if it were an article of

Italian Club Will Pledge Tonight At Home Meet

Neophytes will be initiated into the newly organized Italian Club tonight at 7:15 p.m. at a meeting in the home of John Leo, 496 N. 17th Street.

Following the initiation, members of the club will hold a dinner dance at the Costa Hotel on North Market Street. Tickets for the dinner-dance may be secured from Vincent Giordano, John Leo, John De Mattei, Miss Margie Bothwell, or from Margaret Cianfoni, it has been announced by president Giordano.

The new members of the club will meet in front of the women's gym on the college campus. Automobiles will be furnished to transport them to the initiation ceremonies.

food, nor is "year" recognized as "yah". The impression of being "different" that the Actor should give would have been much more forceful if these characters had used what we recognize as Mid-Western or Western speech.

FRESHMEN HUNT FOR ARTICLES AS LOST AND FOUND SHELVES BULGE

The Lost and Found cupboard is fairly overflowing with articles which have been turned in and not called for according to Miss Caroline Leland, Y.W.C.A. secretary.

"Perhaps new students do not know that all lost and found articles may be returned and claimed in the 'Y' room, room 14 of the main building," she stated.

A great variety of articles are now waiting for their owners to claim them, including text books, fountain pens, pencils, glasses, and an assortment of jewelry, binders, sweaters, hats, shoes, raincoats, and purses.

The lost and found service is given free by the hostess committee of the college Y.W.C.A., who hold office hours daily from 9 to 12 a.m. and from 1 to 3 p.m.

MEXICO TODAY IS SUBJECT OF TALK

Miss Clara Hinze, social science instructor, spoke on "Mexico Today" at the October meeting of the Zeta chapter of Delta Phi Upsilon.

Miss Hinze has just returned from Mexico where she spent part of her summer with a seminar group. Interesting articles and pictures accompanied the talk.

"Even the greatest writers are supposed to find writing a hard task, and if you ever have to do any writing you know just how hard a time the rest of us, who don't aspire to genius, have in expressing ourselves," says Douglas E. Jones, '36. "Majoring in English, I put as much energy into writing as a man would use up in heavy physical labor. When I feel played out I smoke a Camel. Camels give me a real snapback in energy. They are so mild that I can smoke all I want without upsetting my nerves."

You, too, will like Camel's matchless blend of costlier tobaccos. Mild—but never flat or "sweetish"—never tiresome in taste. You'll feel like smoking more... and you need not hesitate about it! For with Camels, you will find that steady smoking does not jangle the nerves.

BOOKS

A TROS OF SAMOTHRACE, by Talbot Mundy (Appleton-Century, $3.00). The first thing about this book that impresses the reader is its "Anthony Adverse" size . . . 949 pages. Ye reviewer opened the tome with visions of an increased electric light bill more than anything else. Twenty pages (draw a deep breath), forty (light a pipe), sixty (settle down). Who cares about electric light bills? Tros, of the Greek Island of Samothrace, a physical and mental superman, dares to challenge Caesar, the greatest Roman of them all! The battle between the two men, as far apart as the poles in ideals and temperament, and the battle between the Britons and Romans, even farther apart than the distance between the two countries, makes Tros of Samothrace a book to be read. Take a week, a month or a year—and enjoy yourself!

A THE FOLKS. by Ruth Suckow (Farrar & Rhinehart, $3.00). Not "the great American novel" the publishers blurb it to be, but a grand one nevertheless. Midwestern setting. Family life and what becomes of the children. Probably will be enjoyed most by older people, but sales will go oop and oop!

MOVIES

A THE COUNT OF MONTE CRISTO — You know the story. Has been done before, will be again. Robert Donat not particularly convincing until he begins to grow long hair and a beard. Then . . . myomy! (Elissa Landi)

B BRITISH AGENT — Hollywood's idea that all moom pitchurs must have a happy ending spoiled one that might have been grand if everything had gone BOOM! at the psychological moment. As is, British Agent, although too slowly paced to suit some tastes, is a thrilling picturization of Russia at the time England was attempting to keep her from making a separate peace with Germany.
