Benton Scholarship Awarded To Les Carpenter

Honor Will Go To Captain Of Spartan Team

Scholastic Record Is Determining Rule In Final Choice

By WILBUR KORSMEIER

With unanimous recommendation of the coaching staff, the anonymous donor of the Webster Benton Memorial scholarship yesterday morning announced that the honor will go to Lester Carpenter, captain of the 1936 Spartan football team. The decision was received through the office of Dudley DeGroot, head of the State College physical education department.

GRADES DECIDED

Requirements governing the selection included that the candidate must be a Physical Education major, that he should excel in one or more sports, with the preference given to the one who was outstanding in several.

PAST RECORD

Both athletic ability and student leadership were taken into consideration, and better than average scholarship was a deciding factor in the selection.

Captain of the grid squad, Carpenter is an ace quarterback, and regular short-stop on the baseball nine. He played with the freshman grid squad and won his numeral in 1933. Starting on the Varsity in 1934, he received the gold award and he has been one of the most consistent of Coach DeGroot's men since that time.

Not alone has the prowess of (Continued on Page Four)

Verse Speaking Choir Tryouts To Be Held In Reorganization Move

Sayre, Girdner Featured At Dance

First appearance of Jerry Girdner, newly elected head yell leader, and Martha Sayre, football sweetheart, headlines the initial afternoon dance of the quarter taking place this afternoon at four o'clock in the women's gym.

A combined rally-dance, the two hour affair is intended to be a pre-game boost to victory for Spartans in the San Francisco-San Jose football encounter tomorrow. Myer Ziegler and his orchestra will furnish music for dancing which will be alternated with rooting lead by head yell leader Jerry Girdner.

All students are invited to the hop, which will be only one of several daytime dances to be sponsored before home games. Admission is ten cents with student body card, while both boys and girls are urged by Frances Cuenin, head of afternoon dances, to come stag.

Spartan Knights To Hold Business Meet

The Spartan Knights, San Jose State's honorary service society, will hold its next meeting next Tuesday in their remodeled basement clubroom.

Grid Queen Prepares As Game And Dance Times Draw Nearer

Although bothered no end by all the "fuss" her election as football sponsor of the San Francisco-San Jose game has caused, Martha Sayre yesterday declared that she will appear at all gatherings requesting her presence and will yell as loudly as she can tomorrow at the game. But she stated wryly, "That organized rooting section should put me completely out of the running."

Besides appearing at the afternoon dance today and being honored at the game, Miss Sayre will be feted Saturday night at the Sigma Phi Upsilon fraternity dance at the Los Altos Country Club. She still admits that she feels "rather silly about the whole thing", but is convinced that the idea of a football queen contest is an effective means of arousing interest in the game and creating wide publicity for the school— which, the sponsors declare, is the object of the election.

Tuesday another balloting will be held to pick a queen for the Pacific-State game.

Sale Of Rooter's Caps Is Started

As the first concentrated effort to win support for the organized rooting section got under way this morning with the sale of rooter's caps, Cal Sides, rally committee chairman, announced that a prize would be offered to the organization backing the project to the fullest extent.

Setting one day aside, Friday, on which the students will wear the caps, Sides stated that the sale would continue all next week in the quad. Following that, caps would be placed on sale in the co-op.

The caps, made of durable felt, are reversible, and may be worn on either side. They will sell for 75c and are identical with those used in other metropolitan colleges, excluding the color scheme.

The rooters' caps are a definite part of this year's intensive rally campaign. Other features on the program for an organized section are the distributing of megaphones at the major home games, and the designating of official rooters by the use of arm bands, which will be given out at every game.

The megaphones, donated by Roos Brothers' Store, also carry State colors, gold and white. These will be collected and distributed at each of the home games.

Ten Lettermen Scheduled To Start Contest

Strong San Jose Line May Slow Up Don Ground Attack

By DICK EDMONDS

What may turn out to be San Jose State's greatest gridiron eleven will roll into action tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock when the University of San Francisco football squad makes its first appearance in local territory.

Coach Dudley DeGroot's husky band of athletes, admittedly made up of the best material ever to grace the Washington Square campus, will be a slight underdog in tomorrow's fracas, probably because of the fact that the Dons have been to the post twice while the Spartans have yet to taste the fire of real conflict.

"Spud" Lewis' Dons, while they were held to a tie with St. Mary's of Texas in their opening clash, regained their stride to smash out an impressive victory over the Fresno Bulldogs on the latter's gridiron last Saturday night.

"DUD" HOPEFUL

While knowing his team would be the underdog when the opening whistle blows tomorrow, Coach DeGroot has maintained an optimistic attitude throughout the pregame predictions which have established the U.S.F. eleven as one of the toughest on the coast.

San Jose State will present a lineup made up of 10 lettermen and one sophomore. Especially proud are the Spartan coaches of their all-veteran line which they feel will withstand all charges of the favored Don forward line.

At ends DeGroot has indicated that he will start Lloyd Wattenberger and Joe Lantagne, tried-and-true lettermen. Don Baldwin, San Jose wingman, will be held in reserve, capable of filling in at either position should the necessity arise.

President MacQuarrie Speaks Before Frosh

"As the oldest collegiate institution on the Pacific Coast, we should be setting the example for other schools, not following them," Dr. T. W. MacQuarrie told freshmen in their weekly orientation yesterday morning.

Commenting on the friendly attitude of students and faculty of the college, Dr. MacQuarrie urged students to consult both him and the personnel committee more frequently.

A chorus from the Music Department entertained with two of the college songs.

Hikers Plan Trek To 'Castle Rock'

Castle rock, above Saratoga, will be visited by the Hiking club Sunday on its first trip of the year. Meeting at 8:30 Sunday morning at Seventh and San Antonio streets, the hikers will drive to "Smilin' Thru" resort three miles above Saratoga where the hike will begin.

New students and Freshmen are invited to join the group. A charge of 15 cents will be made for transportation, while those who bring cars will be furnished expense money.

Hiking apparel or old clothes should be worn by each hiker, and lunch should be taken. The hike will be about eight miles in length along an old lumbering road.

A good view of the Santa Clara valley is to be seen if it is a clear day, according to Earl Roberts, leader of the hike.

Miss Mabel Crumby of the education department will accompany the hikers as guest faculty member.

Oh My, This Is Terrible! Eight Out Of Ten Have "Drape Lip"

By VICTOR CARLOCK

"Don't keep a stiff upper lip!" Such is the advice given by Mr. William McCoard, of the Speech department, to eight out of ten students who take the speech diagnosis at the beginning of each quarter.

Mr. McCoard explains that he is not encouraging defeatism, but has observed in hundreds of cases that the chief speech fault of most persons is "inactive articulation". In plain language this means that the muscles of the jaws and lips are not used to advantage in the speech of such persons.

"DRAPE LIP"

"Two forms of inactive articulation are known as the 'stiff lip' and the 'drape lip' effects," he declares. In the former the muscles of the lips are seldom relaxed, thus detracting from the clearness of speech. Examples of this type are usually of prim and sedate temperament.

IN BETWEEN

On the other hand, persons with a drape lip fault relax their lip muscles as much as possible, and are unwilling to use them although their speech is muffled and inarticulate, Mr. McCoard explains. Such speech is usually associated with lazy "shif'less" individuals.

The ideal type of lip movement is obviously in between these two extremes, although if carried too far may result in a "rubber mouth" which is artificial over use of lip muscles in articulation.

"Good speech requires a readiness for movement in the lips," says Mr. McCoard. "The lips should not be held stiff nor allowed to drape so that natural speech is handicapped. Use of the jaw will add to the resonance and quality of the voice, but straining for effect is to be avoided."

Instructor Is Given Bachelor's Degree

Mr. Norman Pratt, who has been installed as a part-time instructor in the commercial department here, has just received his Bachelor of Arts degree at Stanford University. He has also completed work for a special secondary credential in accounting at San Jose State, where he is assisting in the accounting department.

Mr. Pratt has had several years experience with Price and Waterhouse, public accountants practicing in San Francisco. He has qualified to take his certified public accountants examinations the latter part of this year.

Inaugurates New P. E. Honor System

Upon inauguration of a new Athletic Honor system at San Jose State college, the presentation of life-time athletic passes, highest award obtainable in athletics, was made Wednesday morning to President T. W. MacQuarrie and vice-president H. L. Minsson by Dudley DeGroot, head of the Physical Education department. The State college authorities were given the first and second passes respectively.

These passes, unique in the fact that they are presented in a leather, gold stamped pocket case, are being sent to former Spartan athletes who are qualified to receive them. The life-time tickets are probably the first of this type of pass in existence among the larger colleges, and the presentation marks another distinct step forward in athletics and the recognition of star athletes and their service to the school.

Jim Welch was chosen president of the senior class in a run-over election yesterday during orientation by polling 140 votes, while Carl Drexel received 98. This election was held to decide a majority undeterminable in last Thursday's close voting.

Willard LeCroy was appointed intra-mural athletic representative to take charge of class basketball activities.

The program, as arranged by Bill Thurlow, newly elected vice-president of the class, included Frank Bettencourt, pianist; Bob Becket, trombonist; Bill Tyler, violinist; with John Andrew, accom-

Soccer Eleven Meets Dons In League Opener

Walker Hopes For Win In Tomorrow's Tilt On Local Field

With a strong University of San Francisco eleven affording the competition, the State soccer team will open its 1936 conference season tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock on the local turf.

Up to date the San Jose aggregation has won one and lost five to the Dons in the past three years of conference play.

GOOD DEFENSE

Coach Charley Walker believes that he has built a good defense against San Francisco's peculiar style of offense and then, too, Coach Malloy, coach of the Dons, has lost his whole forward wall and two backs by graduation. Walker has lost five men but still has the makings of a strong squad.

The starting lineup should be as follows:

'WATER-DOGS' MEET WITH DOLPHINIANS IS NOW DELAYED

First Scheduled Meet With Athens Club Monday Night

Dolphin Club officials last night indefinitely postponed the scheduled meet with the San Jose State Junior and Varsity water polo squads, which was to have been held this evening at 8 p.m. in the Spartan pool.

Postponement of the scheduled game with the Dolphin Club sets next Monday's encounter with the Athens Club of San Francisco as the first tussle on the Spartan schedule. Varsity and Junior squads tangle with the Varsity and second-string Varsity men of the Athens Club Monday, October 5 at the Spartan pool.

Delay of the meet with the Dolphins makes the freshmen paddlers idle until October 9, when they engage in a triple meet along with the Varsity and Juniors against the Olympic Club, here, at that time.

FROSH STRONG

Freshmen squad activities have been decidedly encouraging to Coach Charlie Walker. Wednesday evening the belligerent Frosh, heretofore an unorganized unit due to their use of the zone defense instead of man-to-man in their respective high schools, surprised the Varsity by running up three quick goals at the beginning of a background and will undoubtedly get the starting call at one of the tackle berths. Jack Martin, Modesto ace lineman, will probably be Wilson's running mate on the opening kick-off.

If San Jose kicks off to start the 1936 grid campaign Joe Ferreira, sophomore will probably get the call so that he may boost the ball far into enemy territory. Otherwise it will likely be Herb Hudson who will start the clash. George Cannell, until the past week considered the logical starting man, has gathered the wrath of Coach DeGroot because of rather lackadaisical work in practice and is scheduled to grace the bench in the Don clash.

Another change is expected at center where Clyde Vorhees, junior, has been making rapid strides and apparently is capable of slightly better work than Barney Swartzell, hitherto a sure starter.

Captain Les Carpenter, ace of the Spartan blockers, has a big edge at the signal-calling position and will be in his old berth when the game time rolls around.

Luke Argilla, leading man in DeGroot's reverses, while being steadily pushed by Chuck Peach and a surprisingly proficient Owen practice session.

Starters for the Varsity, headed by Captain Dave Lynn, are as follows:

Freshman Line Gives Portal Plenty Of Grief; Backs Appear Strong

Junior College Looks Good In Opening 1936 Season

The Menlo Junior College football squad, already toughened and experienced from early season games, storms into the Spartan Stadium tomorrow noon to do battle with Coach DeWitt Portal's untried San Jose State yearlings in the first tussle of the year for the local first-year men.

Although not much is known concerning the Menlo gridsters or their style of attack, they will enter the fray fresh from holding Chico State College varsity to a 13-0 score.

LINEUP UNCERTAIN

Portal's men went through a scrimmage yesterday afternoon, and the Babes will go through a light workout today, but the Freshman coach is still very much undecided concerning his starting lineup, and with the exception of his backfield and a few line positions, starting names for the other spots will not be announced until game time.

A strong starting backfield will consist of Larry Favor of Balboa at left-back, and either Mayberry of Vacaville or Stewart of Fresno holding down the right half berth. The "up" position or quarter-back spot will be taken care of by Bud Lewis, younger brother of big Bill Lewis, varsity full-back, and Leroy Zimmerman of Monrovia has received the call at the back berth for the opening contest. Zimmerman has been showing up exceptionally well in practice sessions with his accurate passing he will probably be called upon to do much flipping with his experienced throwing arm.

The line finds three men sure of their names on the starting list. Don Presley, powerful and husky end from Monrovia, will begin the contest at left end, playing next to Doan Carmody, ex-San Jose High star tackle. Bill Noble of San Jose will probably get the bid at center, although he is being hard pressed by a newcomer, Charlie Lavaninno of Hollister.

The remaining positions are a toss-up as to who will face the Menlo squad in the opening minutes, but Coach Portal hopes that the game will be of such a nature that all of his men will see action.

The Frosh mentor is especially pleased and enthused over

Sophs Name Melzer President, Bailey Vice-president, At Meet

New Prexy Promises "Finest Year Yet"

In the first meeting of the year, yesterday, the Sophomore class showed their confidence in Ben Melzer, president of last year's Freshman class, by again placing him in that office by an overwhelming majority. Jim Bailey was elected vice-president and Bruce Fischer as secretary. After the election Stan Griffen was chosen sergeant-at-arms by president Melzer.

"Naturally I am delighted by the backing shown me by the sophomore students, and pleased to lead a class which had demonstrated its exceptional spirit in the past. I feel we are going to have the most active and spirited class in the school this year," were the words expressed by Melzer when asked how he felt to be president again. Jim Bailey, new vice-president, made it known that activity was to start immediately toward making this the best Sophomore year in the history of the school.

Other business at the meeting consisted of a plea for basketball teams for the intramural basketball competition which commences October 12, and the selection of a committee, headed by Jim Bailey, for the purpose of preparing a class float in the noise parade.

A more than usual attendance was in evidence at the meeting, and the students expressed themselves as well pleased with the election results.

Five Grads Obtain Teaching Positions Since School Opens

Five graduates of the class of June 1936 have secured teaching positions since the schools opened this fall, according to Miss Lydia Innes, head of the appointment office.

Evelyn Lopes is teaching at Merced, California, while Glory Russell is a teacher at the Elementary school in Sierraville, California. Audrey Waddington has secured a position at Eureka Junior high school. Clarence Moniz is in Yuma, Arizona teaching at an Indian school, and Esther Leisy is teaching at Glendora, California, in a school for boys.

The Spartan yearlings are in a fighting mood and will take the field tomorrow at noon to show that they really have something in the way of football prowess, and they plan on using Menlo Jaycee as the first in a series of tough exhibitions.

New Police School Students To Attend Morning Classes Here, Patrol Regular Evening Beats

Heads School

Whole Department To Attend State Says Chief Huntsman

To improve their methods of criminal investigation, six regular policemen of the Santa Cruz Police Department have registered in the San Jose State college Police school, directed by Mr. William A. Wiltberger.

The six policemen enrolled in the police college include Alfred W. Crouse, Ben W. Krupp, Thomas H. Leonard, Donald F. Eynn, James K. Mann, and Herman V. Nanna. These men attend morning classes on their own time and in the afternoon drive back to Santa Cruz to cover their regular evening beats.

To raise their standards of efficiency to a higher level they intend to remain enrolled in the police school until they have completed the required course.

In a recent letter to Mr. Wiltberger, Al Huntsman, Chief of the Santa Cruz Police Department said, "I am sorry that more of the men can not attend at this time. In due time I intend to have all the officers attend your classes at different intervals."

Chief Al Huntsman, being a very progressive person, fully realizes the necessity to train his men to use their limited amount of faculties to the greatest possible efficiency."

Choose Barry's 'Joyous Season' As Xmas Dramatic Presentation

To Hold Tryouts This Month; Open To All State Students

"Joyous Season" by Philip Barry will be the annual Christmas play this year and will be given on the nights of December 3rd and 4th in the Morris Dailey auditorium, it was announced yesterday by Mr. Hugh Gillis, speech department instructor and school dramatics head.

Each Christmas season the college dramatics department presents for the general public a play to which no admission is charged but a silver offering is collected for charity following performances of the play.

Packed with the delightful, humorous dialogue of which Philip Barry is a master, "Joyous Season" is a play of a New England family, disintegrating and losing morale through over-dependence on one another.

Christina, a younger sister who has become a nun 15 years before, returns for a visit on Christmas day. Sensing the cheapness running through the family, she forces, in a very quiet but exceedingly dramatic manner, the family into a position where independence of character is demanded.

Tryouts for the play will be open to all students and will be held the last week of October.

Copies of "Joyous Season" will be placed on reserve in the library for students planning to tryout.

Frosh Pre-Legals Are Invited To Club

There will be a meeting of the Pre-Legal club Monday at noon for the purpose of electing officers and taking freshmen students into the organization according to Anthony Anastasi, last year's winter quarter president of the club.

Owen M. Broyles, club adviser, will present the views of the club to freshman students. He will also discuss a tentative speaking program for the fall quarter.

"Freshman students who intend to take up the study of law should attend the meeting that they may more clearly understand the objectives of the pre-legal student and become acquainted with fellow students," Broyles said.
