Girdner Retained As Cheer Leader; Ambitious Rooting Program Planned

Impossible To Secure Enough Votes Say Recall Advocates

Jerry Girdner's position as yell leader of the San Jose State student body remained unchallenged last night as a short-lived recall movement which had flared up twenty-four hours earlier crumbled to ashes.

"We are going to do nothing further about the matter," leaders of the movement announced. Petitions asking Girdner's recall on grounds of alleged incapability and of asserted irregular election practices, circulated on the campus Monday, were never presented to the student council.

GIRDNER PLEASED

"Because we are convinced that it would be impossible to get the required 1500 students to vote, we are dropping the whole thing, proponents of the recall attempt explained.

"Naturally, I am glad that the matter was carried no further," Yell Leader Girdner said when notified of the abandonment of the recall. "I hope we can get support in the ambitious rooting program we have planned."

'Varsity House' Is Refurnished

Through the efforts of the San Jose State College Patrons Association the three downstairs rooms of the college "Varsity House" have been completely furnished during the last week, according to Mrs. C. C. Gilliam, president of the Association.

Mattress covers and pillow cases for the dormitory have been completed under the management of Mrs. Leo Price and Mrs. D. F. Baer, members of the housing committee.

"Public response to our request for furniture for the upstairs rooms of the "Varsity House" has been most enthusiastic," declared Mrs. Gilliam. "We of the Association feel sure we will be able to solve the student housing problem in the future."

Homecoming To Be Held This Saturday

The fourth annual fall homecoming for alumni of San Jose State will be held Saturday, October 10.

All alumni who have paid their dues in full will be admitted to the San Jose State-College of Pacific game for 32 cents.

Home-coming alumni will also be honored at the dance in the men's gymnasium Saturday night.

Course Fees Payable Starting October 12

Course fees will be payable in the information office starting Monday, October 12 until October 24. There will be a late fee of one dollar on all fees paid after October 24.

No deferred payments will be allowed on late fees.

Winifred Nellis, Delma Joseph Chosen As Girl Assistants

Two of the five members of this year's crew of yell leaders will be girls, it was revealed yesterday by head yell leader Jerry Girdner. Tryouts were held yesterday noon in the Little Theater, about six girls competing for the coveted positions.

Of these, Winifred "Bunky" Nellis, sophomore, and Delma Joseph, freshman, were chosen. Both girls are eighteen and approximately the same height. Winifred Nellis is from San Leandro, and Delma Joseph from Hayward.

Said Girdner, "I am delighted by the ability shown by these girls, and I am sure they will make a fine team. I expect to have this year the most enthusiastic rooting sections at the games that we have ever had, and I know the girls will have a lot to do with that added enthusiasm."

The two boy yell leaders who will assist Girdner are not yet chosen, but one of two tandem teams will be selected by Thursday. The teams are Harold Kibby-Elbert Garcia and Tommy Gifford-Phil Weed.

Next Saturday's game will find the yell leaders decked out in brand new uniforms and bursting with a lot of new yells, according to Girdner.

Bob Roumasset Memory Honored

In memory of Bob Roumasset who was killed in a train accident last July, the post of vice-president of Spartan Knights, which he held at the time of his death, will be kept vacant for the remainder of the quarter it was decided at a meeting of the organization yesterday.

For the rest of the quarter Joe Maynard will have charge of the weekly noon lunches held by the Knights, states "Duke" Don Walker.

Mr. Erlendson Leaves For Father's Funeral

Mr. William Erlendson, instructor in the college music department, left Monday night by airplane for Wyndmere, North Dakota, to attend the funeral of his father, W. A. Erlendson, who died suddenly at his home.

Mr. Erlendson will not return to San Jose until some time next week.

Henrietta O'Brien Elected As Ruler For Pacific Fray

Second Grid Sponsor To Be Honored At Dance Saturday

Henrietta O'Brien, freshman entered in September from Notre Dame high school, has been elected by the student-body as this week's Campus Queen to rule over the State vs. College of Pacific game Saturday.

"I thought I'd drop dead when I heard I'd been chosen," the seventeen-year-old native of California said when informed of her election.

FETED AT DANCE

Miss O'Brien will be given a place of honor at the playing field and will be feted at the Homecoming dance Saturday evening in the men's gymnasium.

"I'd be willing to do most anything to help the team win," she said.

The new queen is majoring in chemistry and hopes to become a professional chemist upon her graduation from college. She is a member of the Newman club.

CANDIDATES DISQUALIFIED

This election of the Gridiron Sweetheart marks the second ballot of the year for co-ed football sponsor. Two of the candidates were disqualified yesterday when their cohorts were discovered in the act of stuffing the ballot box. As the election committee will accept no vote-stuffing, friends of nominees will assist their choice by marking one ballot only.

Nominations for next week's Sweetheart must be in the Publications' office before five o'clock Monday afternoon. Sororities, fraternities, other organizations, or private individuals are urged to make their nominations early. Only those names that are on the ballots may be voted for.

Theatron Holds Initiation Meet

New members of Theatron, honorary society of San Jose Players, will be formally initiated Sunday night at the home of Mr. Hugh Gillis, college dramatics director.

Selected on a basis of points earned by participation in activities of San Jose Players during the previous year, Myra Eaton, Florence Murdock, Burton Abbott, Jim Lioi, and Bill Gordon are the new members of the group.

Limited by its charter to a total of 13 at any one time, Theatron membership is made up of persons who have rendered most service to San Jose Players. Bertha Potts is president of the group, and Mr. Gillis is adviser.

Count Caps Election To Be Held At Junior Meet Thursday

Using the noise parade Friday as a means of determining the number of rooters' caps sold during the intensive campaign, the rally committee will present a trophy cup to the organization wearing the greatest percentage of caps in the procession.

Contrary to a former statement, the caps will not go on sale until Friday. It was erroneously reported they would be sold in the quad Wednesday, but due to unforeseen complications, the caps will not arrive until Friday.

ANNUAL TROPHY

In addition to the judging of the caps, the floats entered by the active organizations on the campus will be voted upon by special judges who will review the parade at First and Santa Clara streets. The latter prize, a perpetual trophy, will be presented to the group upon the return of the procession to Fourth and San Carlos streets. The prize for the caps will be given during the dance Saturday evening, following the College of Pacific game.

START 5:30

Starting at Fourth and San Carlos streets, the parade will continue on San Carlos to Second street, then north to Santa Clara, west to First street, and south to San Carlos, where it will disband at Fourth street. The route of this year's parade is identical with that of last year's.

Election To Be Held At Junior Meet Thursday

Poo-pooing the statement of Sophomore President Benny Melzer that the sophomore class would out-spirit all other classes, Don Walker, acting president of the junior class, announced today that a meeting of all juniors would be held this Thursday at 11 a.m. in room 24 to elect officers and also to determine just what action should be taken to quell the ubiquitous sophomores.

Acting on the statement of President Melzer and Vice-President Bailey, who collectively challenged all classes to "a year of competitive activity", Walker opined that both Melzer and Bailey were a little "tetched" on the subject of sophomore superiority.

WALKER VS. MELZER

"It is a pity that a man of Benny Melzer's ability," stated Walker, "should issue such a gross exaggeration concerning the future activities and spirit of one of the lower classes."

Walker went on to say that he could sympathize with the sophomores' point of view, since he realized lower classmen had to resort to the unusual to command attention from those members of the upper classes.

President Melzer and Vice-President James Bailey, when asked to comment on the above statement, had the following to say.

"STOP DILLYING"

President Melzer: "The time has come for all sophomores to stop dilly-dallying with the upper-classes. This year we are superior in numbers, mentality, personality, (Continued on Page Four)

Dr. Poytress To Discuss U. S. President Campaign Problems

For the next two or three lectures Dr. Poytress will concern himself with the subject of "The United States and the Election." Yesterday, he discussed the economic situation as a background and as a possible issue in the campaign, and his following talks will cover the labor problem, influence of a third party, and finally a discussion of the campaign and its issues.

MORE PRODUCTION

"In the United States the economic situation may be summed up by saying that we are now producing more than in 1923 and 1925" said Dr. Poytress, with less than 90% of the labor and less than 80% of the payroll of those years. The fact that the basic industry of building has lagged behind the rate of recovery in comparison to that of other industries is a probable reason that we are not farther along in recovery than we are.

However, this year has been an increase of 131%, and yet this astounding increase leaves us 60% less building than was in progress in 1923 and 1925.

INFLATION?

Nevertheless, because of the plentiful supply of money in banks with an accompanying scarcity of demand, there is a tendency for rates of interest to remain low. And in this discrepancy between supply and demand lies the possibility for enormous inflation.

On the whole though, the bright side seems to outweigh the gloomy, and depression is at least gradually losing its affect. Even the possibility of world conflict seems to be an accelerating factor in world recovery."

Home Economics Club Meeting Held Monday

Short talks by members of the Home Economics club were the feature of the meeting held last night. Miss Nevenzel, representative of the club at the National Home Economics convention held in Washington in July, spoke on the nutritional division of the convention.

Talks were also given by Winifred Fagan and Ruth Graves who entertained the members with accounts of their respective vacations at Mt. Rainier and Vancouver.

The meeting was closed with an account by Doris Arnold of the convention highlights.

KYA To Broadcast Students' Plays In Search For Talent

Prospective radio dramatists should be interested to know that radio station KYA, in a search for young dramatists, is offering a chance for all such writers from the leading colleges and universities in the west to have their scripts broadcast.

Three act plays for a thirty minute show are wanted. That the first act last five minutes, the second act seven minutes, and the last five minutes, in concise radio style are the only rules of production.

Experience such as this should help those interested in eventually getting a chance to write along this line.

Scripts should be addressed to the Dramatic Department, Radio Station KYA, San Francisco, California.

Just Among Ourselves

By Dr. T. W. MacQuarrie

Just the same that U.S.F. team was a tough outfit. We might well have been defeated worse than we were. Peterson, of course, was superb. That man would be outstanding in any company. It wasn't a bad game by any means, just a baptism of fire, and we're all the better for it. Pacific next week.

That freshman game was interesting. I suppose the experts saw things that were wrong, but it looked like a lot of fun to me. I was glad we won, no matter by how small a margin. Sort of inspired me for the future.

It might be interesting to you to know that one of the Menlo ends was an English boy over here from Honk Kong. He had never seen an American football game until this year, and he took to it like the proverbial duck to water. He wasn't very husky, but he was the same kind of stuff that won England's wars on the playing fields of Eton.

Perhaps I'd better repeat an expression of my attitude on student affairs. I insist on the privilege of keeping out of them as much as possible. Just as long as we mind our own business, and don't get the college into trouble by interfering with others, I must say, "Use your own judgment. You're just as much interested in the welfare of San Jose State as I am." I have a whole lot of confidence in the good judgment of the majority, even of that limited number who exercise their franchise. The nation is truly in peril if college students can't be trusted to live and act in a democracy.

I believe we are making a mistake when we take student activities off the campus. Go ahead and do it, if some commercial interest can make you think the college will be the better for it, but I feel sure you're wrong. College movements should be student all the way through, and not merely a marionette show with some one off the campus pulling the strings.

You young people do attract the attention of all sorts of propagandists. You look like building material for their own structures. You are often a bit gullible, and that's not strange for most of you are honest, and you believe others to be honest. So don't be in a hurry to accept a program from any one. Look it over. Have a bull session about it with your fellows. Now's the time to develop your personality, and you'll never do that as a sucker.

Noisy Women To Ride In A.W.S. Hack Friday

Contributing a truckload of feminine noise-makers to the pregame noise parade, representatives of the Associated Women Students of San Jose State are scheduled to leave the campus at 5:30 Friday evening.

All women students wishing to ride in the A. W. S. truck are asked to be at the women's gym by 5:00 o'clock Friday evening, as space is limited. A policy of "first come first served" will be strictly observed, it is announced by Roberta Smith, chairman of the A.W.S. entry.

Kathryn Meisle Opens Stanford Concert Series

Rachmaninoff, Evens, Tibbett, To Follow

The 1936-37 Stanford Concert Series will present as its first artist Kathryn Meisle, the leading contralto of the Metropolitan Opera Association.

The first concert will be given Thursday night, October 29. During this season such artists as Serge Rachmaninoff, San Francisco Symphony orchestra, Wilbur Evens, American baritone, and Lawrence Tibbett will be included.

San Jose State college students will be given the opportunity of attending the series for the special student price of $2.00 for a season ticket.

Students are asked to obtain their tickets through the San Jose State college controller's office.

Dr. MacQuarrie Praises School

"The San Jose Police School has made history, simply because nothing of its kind was known before this school was originated," Dr. T. W. MacQuarrie told students at the first meeting of the police school orientation class in Room S206 yesterday afternoon.

"Experiences and experiments of this department have influenced the development of the police school movement not only throughout this country but abroad," said Dr. MacQuarrie.

In his speech he impressed the importance of "Esprit de corps" among police students. He also traced the history of the State police school from its beginning in 1930 and showed its importance.

The purpose of this orientation, revealed Mr. William A. Wiltberger, is to bring the police students in contact with subjects outside of their sphere of activity and also bring in men from the practical field to talk to them. Besides bringing in outside speakers faculty members of the different departments are expected to take part in the discussion throughout the term.

"Main topics to be discussed throughout the quarter will be police methods and experiences. Police students can not cover their entire college program and yet gain a background in the other departments of study," stated Mr. Wiltberger.

He also stated that the orientation course would be run on a two year basis and would be a compulsory course for all students in his department. Many important speakers from the outside field are expected to lecture at the meetings.

Louis Walther Elected Journalism Frat. Prexy

Louis Walther was elected president of Sigma Kappa Delta, journalism honor society, at the organization's first meeting of the quarter yesterday in the Publication's office. Other officers elected to serve for this quarter were: vice-president, Frank Brayton; secretary, Ora Lindquist and treasurer, Raymond Wallace.

Voting on prospective members will take place tomorrow at 12:30 in the Publication's office, Walther states.

Fat In The Fire

By JIM BAILEY

We may as well dig up the bones of the State-U.S.F. game and refit them in order to review certain things that took place. Insofar as the spectator's views go, all that can be said about the game itself is that our boys had on nice looking suits, but we may grow more verbose over the band. It was a remarkable performance proffered by this organization considering their short preparation. However, it might be deducted from the groans of the crowd that the "horse play" betwixt the young lady and the band leader left a bad taste in the mouth. The thrilling chase across the turf that culminated behind the bush on the north end of the field was an awful let down. Instead of turning her over his knee as he should have done our victorious band leader lamely places an arm about her shoulders.

HENRIETTA O'BRIEN is the new football queen. She is a Freshman and I knew her not until she presented herself yesterday in the Spartan Daily office. The clicking typewriters, the droning voices, and all other activity in the office ceased in order to allow the staff to gaze at her. WHAT A KNOCKOUT!

For a long time I have admired (from afar) the pulchritudinous tidbits of femininity who grace this campus, and since queen elections are the topics of the time, I offer a candidate for the all-time queen of queens. An imagined young lady brought into being by the accumulation of outstanding characteristics from some of our pretty coeds:

Hair—Mavis Crowell (Just like a liquid.)
Eyes—Marion Starr (Stars they are.)
Nose—Elna Turner (As cute as she is.)
Teeth—Doris Gardner (A rhapsody in white.)
Mouth—Lorraine Cristina (Nature's masterpiece.)
Personality—Marceile McBride (Bubbles like champagne.)
Sweetness—Elree Ferguson (Boy oh boy!)

Coach Dud DeGroot Shakes Up Spartan Gridiron Combination

San Jose Mentor Fears Pacific Line Strength; Bruce Daily Out Of Contest With Painful Injury

Sport Spotlight by DICK EDMONDS

THIS WRITER was fortunate enough to see the 1936 edition of the College of Pacific Bengal perform Saturday before last against the powerful University of California squad at Berkeley.

What I saw does not seem to point towards a San Jose victory on Saturday unless several members of the Spartan varsity literally "get off the dime".

ALONZO STAGG, grand old maestro of Amerian football, has a much better outfit on hand this year than the one which was successful in holding DeGroot's aggregation to a scoreless tie in Stockton last year.

Although by losing to the Bears by a two touchdown margin, the Tigers threw a terrific scare into California headquarters in the opening period when they marched the ball right down to the Berkeley five-yard marker before surrendering possession of the ball when a pass was intercepted.

Nor did the Stockton eleven fold in the latter stages of the game as was expected by experts before the clash. All afternoon long, Stagg's men were a big threat and never were the Bears able to sit back and take things easy.

ESPECIALLY impressive in the Pacific team composed of 11 veterans was the fact that although Stagg made frequent substitutions, many more than is his usual custom, the Bengals were just as tough as they were with a starting lineup in the contest.

This speaks worlds for the Stockton reserve material. In the last period the genial Pacific mentor threw three "rabbit-like" backs into the fray and they looked capable of busting up almost any ordinary football game.

COACH DEWITT Portal's boxing squad makes its first start of the 1936 season in a couple of weeks.

Two more team titles for the local "pugs" are in the offing if Portal can get the man-power for the Pyramid Belt novice and senior championships to be held in Stockton.

Last year San Jose walked away with the P.A.A. junior team trophy and Coaches Portal and Phil Smith, the latter a former intercollegiate heavyweight champ, are particularly anxious to have the Spartans establish a name for themselves in still another section of California.

Approximately 15 men are tentatively listed as competitors for the Stockton titles.

Senior Casaba Stars To Enroll For Play

Willard LeCroy, manager of the senior intra-mural basketball destinies, has announced that all prospective candidates for the upper class team should sign up on the roster now reposing on the bulletin board in the men's gymnasium.

Cortez Kicks Ball Far And Wide To Star In Bear Game

As a result of a rather desultory showing in Saturday's opening clash with the Dons, Coach Dudley DeGroot has instituted a big shake-up in an effort to field a better force against the College of Pacific invasion of Spartan stadium this week.

Bruce Daily, senior tackle, has been relegated to the sidelines because of a severe back injury. It has been hinted that it may be some time before the Los Gatos lad will be able to return to the lineup.

Gene Rocchi, because of his excellent showing in the opening contest, has been temporarily assigned to the left half position. The former San Jose High ace was particularly impressive in running back punts for considerable yardage.

WINTERS MOVES UP

A man from last year's freshman eleven, Mike Winters, gigantic southern California youth, has battled his way into recognition with his aggressive guard play and was found running with the first-string in last night's practice.

Coach DeGroot appeared a bit dissatisfied with the work of Luke Argilla, right half, and has indicated that Chuck Peach and Owen Collins will be given ample opportunity to strut their stuff.

Alonzo Stagg's College of Pacific football eleven is decidedly stronger than last year's aggregation which held the Spartans to a 0-0 tie in a night clash at Stockton.

TIGERS STRONG

Fans who saw the California-Tiger tilt were convinced that the highly-touted Bears were lucky to escape with a two touchdown win. Stagg's line proved too tough a nut for the Berkeley backs to crack and both touchdowns came as the result of an aerial bombardment.

"Corky" Cortez a scintillating halfback, is quite some punter and is figured a little better than any booter DeGroot can throw into the lineup.

Phil Martinovich, 210-pound fullback, is a power on defense but the San Jose line looks smart enough to stop any sallies with the ball that he might make.

BETTER RESERVES

Better fixed for reserves than has been the case in recent years, Stagg has an unusual number of capable backs on his 1936 squad. Some of the men thrown into the California tilt in the closing moments were a bunch of light, but exceedingly speedy runners.

As the Bengals have not been successful in downing the Spartans in three years, they will come here determined to put an end to the San Jose win streak. Reports from Stockton have indicated that a large number of Pacific students will be on hand for Saturday's kickoff.

A meeting of managers and representatives of various teams competing in the 1936 league has been called for today at noon. Glen Hartranft is faculty adviser for the inter-organization casaba play.

Spartan Boxers Train For Meet In Stockton Ring

More Novice Entries Would Be Welcomed By Coach Portal

With the date for entries only a week off, Coach DeWitt Portal is anxious to see a large group of prospective varsity candidates begin training for the Pyramid Belt novice and senior boxing championships which begin in Stockton on October 19.

Team titles in both divisions are at stake and the Spartan coaching staff believes that the Spartans, if enough men decide to enter, should finish near the top and perhaps add to the growing list of championships held by San Jose boxers.

Several queries have come in concerning entrance requirements for the novice division and so Coach Portal has introduced the following evidence.

The following classes will be contested:

105 pounds and under, 112 pounds and under, 118 pounds and under, 124 pounds and under, 130 pounds and under, 135 pounds and under, 140 pounds and under, 147 pounds and under, 156 pounds and under, 165 pounds and under, 175 pounds and under, and over 175 pounds.

Entries open to any athlete registered with Pacific Association of the Amateur Athletic Union who has not competed in Semi-Finals of any Senior, Junior, Novice, Inter-Collegiate, Diamond Belt, or Golden Gloves Tournament. This does not apply to anyone reaching Semi-Finals through byes instead of wins.

If not registered in P.A.A. apply to Portal for registration blank. Entries from other than Pacific Association must have traveling permits.

All contestants must appear on Monday, October 19th between the hours of 2 and 6 p.m. at Civic auditorium to be weighed and examined.

Those competing on second and third nights must weigh in again on the days they compete between the hours of 2 and 7:30 and will be allowed 3 pounds.

All entrants must have reached their 16th birthday.

Advice or coaching during rounds subjects competitor to disqualification.

Attire of competitor shall be light shoes without spikes, cleats, hard heels or hard soles and athletic trunks reaching within four inches of knees. Grease or similar substance barred.

Gloves—10 oz. in 160 pounds or over.

Gloves—8 oz. in 147 pound class and under.

If winner of bout is unable to continue in tournament, his defeated opponent will be suspended for one year.

Frosh Prep For Tiger Babe Game

Portal's Team Hit By Cold Epidemic

A slightly bruised freshmen football team resumed practice this week in preparation for the coming College of Pacific clash next Saturday. Although pleased with the showing made by his proteges against Menlo in the grid opener last week when the Frosh won 6-0, Coach DeWitt Portal states that his team still needs considerable polishing on line play and pass defense before the next game.

The Spartan yearlings are scheduled to scrimmage the varsity this afternoon, but it is doubtful just how many of the Frosh will be able to engage in the affair.

An epidemic of colds has taken its toll, and a good half dozen are at present nursing their ills. Also, Don Carmody is out with a bruised ankle, and Larry Favor, brilliant half-back, is at present suffering from an infected foot. Charlie Preston, who came out of the Menlo fray with a badly broken nose, will hope to see action in the Santa Clara game week after next.

Coach Portal faces a difficult task in shaping up these men in time to face the fast and powerful College of Pacific freshmen on the Spartan Stadium turf next Saturday.

Twenty-Five Children Are Guests At Game

Twenty-five children, accompanied by Mrs. Charles E. Luckhardt, chairman of Educational Program at the Benevolence Home, will be present as guests of San Jose State college at Saturday's College of Pacific game.

Mrs. Luckhardt was formerly a student and faculty member of San Jose State. She instructed history and according to Dr. William H. Poytress, she was one of the most popular teachers in his department.

Eat Club Elects Griffen Prexy

Presided over by the new president, Stanley Griffen, the new Y.M.C.A. Eating club is now commencing its third week of existence.

Composed of seventy-five State college boys, the club is sponsored by the Y.M.C.A. with an advisory board headed by Dean Goddard.

Renamed the Cooperative club instead of the old title of Spartan stags, the group has expanded to take in new members and accommodate more students.

All the club functions are handled by the boys. A cook has been hired, and the club members do their own shopping for food, which is sold at a strictly non-profit price. Three meals a day are served in the Y.M.C.A. auditorium.

Senior Noise Rally Set For Tomorrow

Seniors will join the ranks of the Knothole club tomorrow during Orientation when they figuratively raise the roof in a noise rally for the College of Pacific game Saturday.

Coach Dud DeGroot will speak and Jerry Girdner, newly elected yell leader, will be presented to the class.

The Musketeers, men's quartet, will sing two numbers, one of them being their own arrangement of the "Tiger Rag". Song sheets will be passed out among the seniors for group singing.

A request has been made for noisemakers.

Wallace Solaced; Wins Hard Fought Campaign For New Library Clock

By RAYMOND WALLACE

A clock! Time, the very essence of life itself, is about to be measured again—a minute for you and a minute for me, one for you—

At least, the editor tells me that Frances Cuenin told him that an unnamed person had his ear to the keyhole when a new clock was ordered for the library. After a heart-rending, almost solitary campaign, wading in sweat and blood to my waist to blaze the trail, my efforts are to be rewarded.

Left stranded alone in the library yesterday morning with a ringing alarm clock—when I had been promised the support of at least six other clocks—I feared that the cause was lost. But the genial librarians have at last realized that one cannot tell time by the decorations, and a new clock is on the way.

No information is available as to its size, shape, color, or motive power—we are simply told to come and see it—but that, at least, is a promise that there will shortly be one to see, which is all we wanted anyway.

Kappa Phi To Initiate Eleven Neophytes At Candle Rites Tonight

Receiving the "Degree of The Light" at a formal initiation, eleven new members of Omega chapter of Kappa Phi will be ushered into the organization tonight in the lobby of the Home Economics building at 9:00 o'clock.

Choosing an entirely unique mode of initiation in comparison to that of previous Kappa Phi initiations, the procedure of the candle-light ceremony is to remain a secret until nine tonight, according to Miss Berta Gray, sponsor of the club.

The new initiates are to be Miriam Carr, Leila Merritt, Doris Gordon, Anne Webb, Carmella Carmon, Pat Tandrow, Evelyn Moetter, Frances Young, Barbara Titcomb, Jeanne Eling, and Virginia Farrell.

The eleven pledges will be initiated by President Helen Dally, while general preparation will be in charge of Bessie Matthews, chairman of the affair.

YWCA Jitney Lunch In Quad Today At 11

A Jitney lunch, sponsored by the finance committee of the YWCA, will be held tomorrow in the quad starting at 11.

Featured on the menu is home-made pineapple sherbet.

Working for the success of the sale are chairman Lorette Marce, Imogene Poling, Gladys Zobel, and Louise Henry.

PLANE TO BE REBUILT BY AVIATION STUDENT COMMITTEE AT COST

Petersen To Direct Practical Lab. Work

Rebuilding an American Eagle plane belonging to P. G. Robinson of San Jose, is the first step of a new program featuring practical work in the State Aviation school, directed by Mr. Frank Petersen.

Work on the Eagle plane is being done by a committee of students, headed by Bob McEuen and supervised by Mr. Petersen, faculty instructor, who stated that all such work is done at cost of materials. Mr. Petersen hopes to insure all his Aero-laboratory students experience by allowing them to do practical work on actual flying ships.

Several projects are being undertaken by different appointed committees which are headed by Sumner Dodge, aviation student.

Headed by Don Ono, a lab group is completely remodeling and rebuilding a Travelair Speedwing By-plane. Another project being instigated is the dismantling of a Curtiss Hell-diver. The parts from the Hell-diver are to be used for demonstration and for parts in different repair jobs.

Wallace Lurks As ALARM CLANGS IN Removal Protest

Agitation for the return of the library clocks took a more audible form yesterday morning, when exactly at ten o'clock, the harsh clanging of an alarm clock rang through the solemn solitudes of the college library.

Waves of laughter from the crowded tables followed the sudden disturbance, which brought consternation among the grave librarians.

Raymond Wallace, bespectacled Daily columnist and head of the growing "Back to the Old Days with the Clock on the Wall Movement", who was found lurking in a dark recess of the library soon after the disturbance, stated, "We haven't begun to fight yet," pointing significantly to the barren walls.

The clocks were removed from the library walls last summer by carpenters renovating the library, and since then the clocks have not been replaced.

Informal Tea Will Be Given By Women Wed.

Honoring all transfer women of San Jose State, an informal Transfer Tea will be given by the Associated Women Students tomorrow in the A.W.S. club room from 3:00 to 5:00 o'clock.

As students who are transfers are often omitted from regular freshman functions where they should have the chance of becoming acquainted, A.W.S. President

High Priests Rage; Send Hatchet Men To Prevent Dance

A vicious attempt was made on the lives of Gaile and Garrety, star performers for the B and D thespian troupe, as they rested in their rooms after a strenuous rehearsal preparatory to their pre-season performance on this campus the night of the State-Pacific football game.

It is feared that word has reached the ears of high-priests of the sacred temples of Ambuboo-bo in India that Gaile and Garrety are to demonstrate the religious dance of Banji-bungo before an infidel audience, and that they have sent out their hatchet-men to destroy the blasphemers of their gods.

A magnificently ornamented axe of oriental design was hurled through an open window as Gaile and Garrety reposed in their hotel room and imbedded itself in the wall a scant two inches above Garrety's head. The unknown assailant escaped in the night.

Members of the San Jose police school, headed by super-sleuth Shelby Ryan, have been assigned the task of guarding the dancers until the evening of October 10, at which time the performance is to be given.

"I have full confidence in my stalwart followers," declared Ryan, "and Gaile and Garrety will dance before State students even if it means the laying down of our lives."

Meanwhile, Gaile and Garrety have only been strengthened by the murderous attack, and are all the more determined to perform the mysterious dance despite all obstacles.

Girdner Remains Head Yell Leader

The fact that 1000 votes is the highest number ever polled in a San Jose State election was cited by previous advocates of the recall as an explanation of the sudden decision to proceed no further. A majority of the 3000 San Jose State students must vote in an election to recall.

Supporters of Girdner, when approached last night, expressed themselves as satisfied with the outcome of what they were inclined to term a "tempest in a teapot".

At the same time, most of the students interviewed expressed the opinion that Girdner would have easily been vindicated at the polls, had the matter continued that far.

Barbara Harkey urges all transfer women to take advantage of the informal tea.

Frances Churin is general chairman of the tea, and Vivian Sheaffer is in charge of refreshments.

Band To Present Grid Contest During Rest Period

Continuing its policy of "doing something" for each game, the rally committee has planned novel entertainment for the College of Pacific game to be held this Saturday in Spartan stadium.

Refusing to disclose all the details, the band has again promised to entertain between halves. This week's program will be a humorous football game, all the details of which are unknown.

During the Santa Clara game, October 17, the students will participate in the half entertainment, by doing card stunts. This is the second season of card stunts for the college.

At this week's game, the official arm bands will again be distributed to the students sitting in the rooting section, and rooters' caps will be sold at the game for all those who did not purchase theirs in the Quad.

Annual Noise Parade To Boom Out Friday

set for 5:30 o'clock with the lineup at five. It is believed that the procession will disband at 6:30 o'clock.

To warn the townspeople of the approach of the noise parade, a huge banner will be carried down the street, with the words, "Noise Parade" on it. Then following will be the judges' car, which will drop out at First street, and the band, followed by the coffin of the spirit of College of Pacific.

The floats will be judged on originality, noise, and percentage of people in attendance. With this method, there will be ample opportunity for the smallest group on the campus to compete with the largest.

Election Of Officers To Be Held Thursday

social qualities, and organization. We can't see much good left for the others, especially the juniors. Already we have had one triumph, that of the election of Martha Sayre, a true sophomore and a talented girl, as queen of the last football game.

That is only the start of a series of similar triumphs; victories that will lead the sophomores on to a bigger and better year."

Vice-President Bailey: "Tell this guy Walker that we sophs will match our social and even private lives, step by step, against those of the Juniors any day. And not only that, if I were president, . . ."
