SPARTANS HOST TO BRONCS TOMORROW IN FIRST NATURAL

Santa Clara Is Favored As Varsity Loses Three Men By Injury; Students Are Optimistic

By DICK EDMONDS

An air of persistent optimism exists on the San Jose State campus today despite the fact that the Spartans will tomorrow play host to one of the nation's strongest gridiron units, the Santa Clara Broncos. The kickoff is scheduled for 2:30 o'clock.

A week ago few ardent State supporters would have been willing to admit that they thought Coach Dudley DeGroot's valiant band would stand a ghost of a show with the powerful mission school aggregation.

Last week's convincing victory over the College of Pacific Bengals has been a stimulant to the natural drop in the student body enthusiasm following a losing first game. Now State supporters, not only a few, see an opportunity for DeGroot's gridders to catapult themselves into the eyes of the entire football world if they can battle the Broncos out of the undefeated class.

NATURAL RIVALS

Never have two schools been more natural rivals than the two Santa Clara valley institutions. This first game between the varsity elevens of the colleges should draw the largest crowd in the history of Spartan stadium through the gates tomorrow afternoon.

It will be another battle of the Warner system of attack against the Notre Dame employed by "Buck" Shaw, Santa Clara mentor. So far, in local battles, neither system has shown a definite superiority over the other.

Tomorrow's contest may find DeGroot's Spartans taking to the air in sporadic bursts in order to combat the heavy Mission line. State followers sincerely believe that a fighting State forward line will also force the Broncos into

Bids For Rally Dance Sell Fast

Crowds of rooters, celebrating a victory or forgetting their sorrows, are expected to fill Scottish Rite Temple tomorrow night as bids for the Football Fete, San Jose's after the game dance, rapidly disappear.

The hop will continue Saturday's by following a football theme. Goal posts will be placed at either end of the hall decorated in the colors of the opposing schools and a large scoreboard will mark the hours of dancing.

Star attraction of the evening is to be the appearance of the three football queens of the three home football games. They will be introduced simultaneously to the dance crowd by the master of ceremonies.

Other features of the evening's entertainment will include singing by two campus men, Joe Rapoose and Burt Watson. The Stanford Ambassadors will furnish music.

Bids for the dance may be obtained for one dollar at the door tomorrow night or in the Controller's office today. They may also be purchased from members of Sigma Gamma Omega, sponsors of the affair, or in the Quad at noon.

RALLY FIRES STUDENTS

Bronco Leaders Predict Win

Enthusiasm ran rampant last night as the Santa Clara rally got under way in the Morris Dailey Auditorium, with cowbells, alarm clocks, and serpentine adding to the pep of the affair, which was unprecedented in the annals of State College.

Lionel Rogers, vice-president of Santa Clara University and guest speaker of the evening, commended State on the splendid spirit of the assembly, saying in part, "We're out to bring home the pigskin, not the bacon, and we've been practicing, scheming, and planning to win that ball game Saturday. If you've been doing the same, it will be a swell game, but if you haven't, be careful."

Leonard Casanova, freshman coach at Santa Clara, issued a plea to the students to "realize that two schools as close as these are, there is bound to be friction, but I ask the students here as I did at Santa Clara that nothing happen before the game or after to spoil further encounters."

Combining a well planned program with guest speakers from both institutions, Bill Moore, mas-

Appointments For Annual Are Open

Appointments for individual pictures for La Torre, Spartan yearbook, may be procured next Monday in the Publications Office, according to Editor Bob Rector.

Those whose individual pictures will be published in the yearbook are members of the football squad, all members of social and honor organizations, and senior and appointment pictures.

Individual pictures will be taken for a period not extending over three weeks, starting with November 2.

Editor Rector urges all those who are participating in the above-mentioned organizations to make certain their appointments are made promptly.

Appointments may be made in the Publications Office, Room 17, from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.

MacQuarrie To Speak

Dr. T. W. MacQuarrie will be a speaker at the institute of trustees to be held in Bakersfield Saturday. His subject will be "College Days and Employment".

Pre-game Rally Hop In Gym At Four

Proving that a rally dance would go over by the success of the first affair given two weeks ago, the members of the social affairs committee will repeat the performance when the second pre-game dance is held in the women's gym this afternoon starting at 4 o'clock.

Miss Coral Kluge, grid queen for the Santa Clara game, will be the guest of honor, and will be introduced to the audience by Jerry Girdner, yell leader, who will emcee the dance.

Two door prizes from the Co-op store will be raffled some time during the afternoon and will be given to the lucky holders of the stubs to be distributed at the door.

Myer Ziegler's orchestra will play for the affair, and the usual admittance charge of ten cents will be invoked in addition to student body card entry.

Librarian Advises 'Table Duckin' In Earthquake Cases

Mr. Gitler, librarian, and a veteran of at least one earthquake here, gives the following advice to students concerning any tremblers that may occur in the future:

"If ever you are in the library, and you feel the ground begin to shake and rumble, the books falling off their shelves, and Aurora banging against the wall, that means there's an earthquake.

"The best thing you can do is to dive under the nearest table. They're sturdy, San Quentin-made products. Don't rush for the door. The last time we had an earthquake there was considerable panic and confusion at the exit. You'll be safe under the tables. They're scarred and battle-torn, but good solid shelters in the time of storm."

Queen Drawn To Game By Broncs

Drawn by a pair of subdued Broncos, Sparta's football sweetheart, Miss Coral Kluge, will enter Spartan stadium tomorrow in regal splendor.

The recently elected queen of the Santa Clara-State game will be escorted to the middle of the field by a quartet of Spartan warriors, where she will greet the opposing sides and toss the coin for the captain's preparatory to the kick-off.

AT RALLY

Miss Kluge began her round of official cheering last night when she was presented to the student body at the rally held in the Morris Dailey auditorium. Today she will be feted at the afternoon rally dance.

Although there have been rumors of a rival queen from Santa Clara, the sponsors of the San Jose queen are confident that she will be most capable of holding her own against all comers. The blonde Spartan sweetheart is undisturbed by the report, declaring that Queen or no Queen, State will capture the victory of the encounter.

SHE BET

To back her assertions, Miss Kluge has made a wager with one of Santa Clara's first string players to the effect that San Jose will defeat the Bronco.

During the game, Sparta's sweetheart will act as official cheerer of the team and will be presented to the audience over the public address system. After the encounter, she will be honored at the Football Fete, San Jose's big game dance which is to be held at the Scottish Rite Temple.

Personnel Division

Dr. Verna A. Carley, director of teacher training at Stanford University will be at San Jose State today to consult with the personnel division on the records of teacher training candidates from here, it was announced yesterday at the president's office.

Don Cossacks To Perform Sunday

The internationally-famous Don Cossacks, Russian male chorus of 36 voices, will present its only local concert this year Sunday evening at 8:15 in the municipal auditorium.

Sponsored in San Jose by Phi Mu Alpha, men's music honor fraternity, the group is appearing here for the second time, having won wide acclamation with its first local program in October of 1934.

LIKE ORCHESTRA

Ranging in scale from A below the bass to D of the fourth line in the treble clef, these voices have been likened to a stupendous orchestra, played upon by Serge Jaroff, their magnetic conductor.

Their programs are unique, offering a wide variety of interest, including church music, folk songs, and soldier songs. Especially in their presentation of the well-known Volga Boat song, the Cossacks can create an atmosphere of beauty and an atmosphere of

Palo Alto Accident Injures Freshman

Madge Davis, 17-year-old San Jose State college freshman, was knocked down and run over by an automobile driven by R. G. Walton, at the intersection of El Camino Real and California avenue at Palo Alto, Wednesday morning at about 7:30 o'clock.

She incurred bruises, a possible kidney injury, and was removed to the Palo Alto Hospital for medical care.

Walton was arrested by police on a charge of reckless driving and lodged in jail. His bail was set at $500.

Police questioned Walton and he stated that he entered the intersection when the amber light was burning but that the light changed red before his car struck the girl.

Falling Branches Imperil Lives Of Six Students; Investigating Reporter Has Narrow Escape

The lives of six unidentified San Jose State college women and one Spartan Daily reporter were endangered late yesterday afternoon when two large branches from trees on the south side of the student Union building were hurled to the ground as the result of yesterday's high wind.

According to Bud Stewart, Co-operative store clerk, who witnessed the near tragedy, the six students were leaving the Union building when the branches came to the ground.

CLOSE CALL

"It is a miracle how the girls escaped serious injury," Stewart said. "I thought one of them would surely be hit by the falling limbs." Slight facial scratches were received by one of the girls, Stewart said, although medical attention was not necessary.

Mrs. Louis Walther, another eyewitness, said that the branches had begun to fall as the students were leaving the south door of the building but that one of them, hearing the noise, screamed, warning the others.

REPORTER BRUISED

Approximately 15 minutes after the first limb had fallen, Anello Ross, Spartan Daily reporter, who was investigating at the scene of the crash, was struck by another falling limb.

Ross sustained body bruises but did not require medical attention.

It was revealed after investigation that bases of the fallen branches were badly worm eaten.

Mrs. Turner Will Give College Harpist Plays Art Majors A Party At Musical Half Hour

A party for entering Art Major students, A.B. and Technical, will be given by Mrs. Ruth Turner at her home at 491 South Seventh street, on Monday night from 7:30 to 10.

Plans for an hilarious evening, with plenty of food, are being made.

Featuring Miss Mary Elizabeth Falch, harpist and State harp instructor, the musical half hour will be held today in the Little Theater from 12:30 to 1:00 o'clock.

Miss Falch's program will consist of seven classical numbers. She will play Arabesque No. 1 by Debussy; Girl With the Flaxen Hair by Debussy; Le Bon Petit Roi, by Grandjany; Chanson, by Perlehou; Prayer, by Delmas; Prelude, by Loukine; and At The Monastery, by Hasselmans.

Freshman Hobby Club Meets This Afternoon

The "Art-Shop", a hobby group of freshman girls which is sponsored by the college YWCA will meet today in Room 14 at 3:00 o'clock.

All freshman girls who are interested in art work, are requested to come. Evelyn Webb is the leader of the "Art-Shop" and a program is planned for future meetings.

This group will decorate for all YWCA association dinners and do all the art work connected with the "Y".

Just Among Ourselves

By Dr. T. W. MacQuarrie

Some of the less discerning ones, certainly they don't read this column, are again violating the principles of neatness and throwing their cigarette stubs around the entrances. You may have to tell them about it somehow or other. Tell them that we can stand the smell all right but we hate the sight of the things. A little bit of courtesy and consideration for others will be a help to all and a good education for the thoughtless ones.

I understand the Council had something of a discussion over a possible funny paper for the campus. I hope we never have to make an effort in that direction again. I think most of you will agree with me that there isn't enough real wit on this campus, or any other for that matter, to warrant a funny paper. Real wit, is truly scarce. What most of the readers of so-called college humor seem to want is dirt, just plain, downright filth. Suggestive, indecent, shocking features, and unfair and untruthful comment. Why is it we get a satisfaction out of indecency? "Gee, but I'll bet the old boy didn't like that!" or "That'll make their toes curl." Well, it has a name all right in psychology. You just look it up if you are interested. A truly decent witty funny paper is doomed to failure from the start. Can't sell the stuff and the venture crumples up. Why waste any more money?

I was interested in that petition that someone started around the campus a while ago to recall somebody or other. There's one good in a petition like that. It probably made some of them go to the library after they had signed it and look up the word recall. Also, some of us learned that there were provisions in our constitution for such a procedure. Referendum and recall are two important words in American politics. In a certain social science test, there's a question. "What would you do if some neighbor presented a petition for your signature?" The answer in most cases was, "I'd sign it." Reading it, or discussing it, or taking time for reflection upon it never seemed to enter their heads. One student said, "Sure, I'd do anything for a neighbor."

The American right to petition is built into the very foundation of our government. It presumes an intelligent, independent, and patriotic citizenship. I'm not sure that the Fathers would have included it if they'd been able to look into the future.

Evidently with all the good playing, our team is doing this year, we are not taking in enough money to properly pay the expenses. The question of lights has come up again, the promoters insisting that the increase in attendance will pay for it in a short time. I'd like to see a discussion in the Daily about night games. Could the commuters attend night games better than they could the regular Saturday afternoon games? Do you think it would result in an increase in student body attendance as well as an increase of general admission? Evidently we are going to receive some offers in the near future for the installation of lights, and I would like to know what you think about it. Could you stand being a little cool at a game like that? Do you think bands and stunts

Record Breaking Crowd Signs For Men's Organized Rooting Section

Publications' Office Impresses Visiting Oklahoma Professor

The Publications office impressed Dr. B. F. Williams of the Oklahoma State college at Stillwater, visiting here yesterday, as one of the interesting spots on Washington Square.

Dr. Williams, who is head of the education department in the Oklahoma college, was accompanied by Mrs. Williams. Having formerly been a teacher, Mrs. Williams was also greatly interested in the activity program here, including the Spartan Daily.

"Everyone in there seemed so interested," she explained to Dr. T. W. MacQuarrie, president of San Jose State, who was conducting them about the campus.

Pom-pons To Be Sold By Spears

Large orange and white pom-pons will be sold by Spartan Spears, sophomore women's honorary service society, at the Spartan stadium tomorrow just before the State-Santa Clara game.

With the purpose of organizing a women's rooting section for State's football heroes, Spears will provide the co-ed rooters with pom-pons giving a torch-like effect of flaring colors which, according to Betty Bruch, president of Spartan Spears, should make a good impression on Santa Clara.

The limited number of pom-pons manufactured by members of Spartan Spears will go on sale at fifteen cents apiece, and will be good for many more football games as they are strictly for the lasting quality, according to Betty Bruch.

The proceeds of the sale will be donated to the Community Chest and to the Student loan fund.

Wiltberger Leaves For Southern Convention

Mr. William A. Wiltberger, head of the San Jose State police school, left yesterday for Santa Monica, where he will attend the annual convention of California police chiefs.

His principle purposes in attending the convention, he said before leaving, are to keep abreast of the latest trends in police work, and at the same time to keep in contact heads of the departments in which his students will work after graduation.

are as attractive at night as in the day time?

I am sorry I am going to miss that Santa Clara game, but it is probably just as well for my general health. In any case, I'll pull hard for our fellows, and hope we may crown the initiation of this relationship with a victory.

Two Blocks Reserved For Women Rooters; Take Part In Stunts

With the unprecedented sign-up of 500 students for the organized rooting section at tomorrow's game, the center section of the stadium will be packed with male students in all except two blocks, which will be filled with women rooters.

Canvassing the campus during the week Bob Free, card stunts' chairman, checked out 500 cards to the men, who will sit in assigned seats during the game. Every man entering the organized section will have to wear a white shirt, under the penalty of being excluded from the section in case he fails to do so.

GALS, TOO

All women students entering the stadium, desiring to be in the organized block will form a section of their own across the top of the stadium and on each side of the band, which is placed along the first six or seven rows.

Contrary to a rumor that women are to wear white shirts also, the rally committee, under the chairmanship of Cal Sides, announced yesterday that the more brilliant colors that the women can wear the better it will be for the section, as a definite contrast is desired by the committee.

CARD STUNTS

Colored cards, numbered in order to facilitate the handling of them during the game will be placed at each seat and the stunts will be led by Bob Free.

The women, who may feel slighted because of their exclusion in the center will have a definite part in the stunts.

"The much publicized and awaited megaphones have finally arrived, and will be distributed to the students tomorrow," said Sides. "The megaphones are school property, so they will be distributed and collected at each game. Any student carrying them off will be given the same penalty as that imposed in case of stolen school property, so you can see it is imperative that everyone be returned to the rally committee."

The megaphones, which were supposed to have had the State block on them were sent by Roos Brothers without it. As they arrived so late in the season, the committee did not return them to be done over, but accepted them in their present condition, feeling that they would serve their purpose anyway.

Tap And Clog To Be Given By S. Wilson

Miss Wilson again announces tap dancing and clogging lessons to be given in the women's gymnasium.

Last year Miss Wilson's classes were very popular with both men and women.

Those interested in tap dancing and clogging will meet at 11:00 a.m. in the women's gymnasium Tuesday October 15th. Those unable to meet at this hour will please sign up at the women's gym, stating a more suitable time. Everyone is invited to attend.

NOTICE

The Pre-Legal club will have a special meeting Monday, October 19, at 12:30 sharp in Room 11. Please bring any students whom you know that are interested in law. —Anthony Anastasi.

Babes Meet Santa Clara Frosh Tomorrow

Sport Spotlight by DICK EDMONDS

THIS COLUMN is going to attempt something new and different today; that particular failing that sports writers get regularly about this time of the year—prognosticating the outcome of the week's gridiron conflicts.

U.S.C.-W.S.C.—The old-time Trojan power should bring about a U.S.C. win after a tough battle with the Cougars of the northwest. However, don't sell W.S.C. short. Any team with Goddard working in the backfield is dangerous at all times and the Cougars are pretty generally strong in all departments.

Final score: U.S.C. 13, W.S.C. 6.

U.C.L.A.-CALIFORNIA—"Stub" Allison's men should get going for the first time this year. These Bruins from the south will be a tough nut to crack this year and one touchdown is about all the margin that the Bears get.

Final score: Bears 7, Bruins 0.

OHIO STATE-PITTSBURGH—A national championship may be decided in this tilt. I'm going to stick my neck out and give the decision to Coach Schmidt's "razzle-dazzle" boys from Columbus. Pitt has greater man power while Ohio boasts of flashier backs. Don't bet any money on this one.

Final score: O.S.U. 12, Pitt 7.

ST MARY'S-U.S.F.—I'm going out on a limb for fair this time. Most people are expecting the Gaels to mop up the city lads but somehow I can't see any offense tearing that Don defensive line to pieces. The Gaels will win out because of superior reserve strength.

Final score: St. Mary's 13, U.S.F. 0.

OREGON-IDAHO—This one looks a bit easier. Give the Web-feet about two touchdowns over the Vandals.

Final score: Oregon 14, Idaho 0.

WASHINGTON-OREGON State—That husky backfield is too much for the deflated Beavers to cope with. Haines should run wild giving the Seattle eleven a comfortable three-touchdown victory.

Final score: Washington 20, O.S.C. 6.

S. J. FROSH - S. C. FROSH—Fight alone will carry the Spartan Babes over this massive hurdle. Were the locals at full strength I would give them a great opportunity to dump the highly-touted Broncolets. However, with several mainsprings missing from Portal's lineup, fight, and fight alone, will determine the outcome.

Final score: San Jose 0, Santa Clara 7.

SAN JOSE STATE—SANTA CLARA—Two weeks ago this one would have been easy. I could just have picked the Broncos to win (and immediately have left town). Now the proposition has changed somewhat following San Jose's stirring win over the favored Bengals.

Gosh, I wish I could get out of this, but I'm being egged on. Here it is. Ah, me!

Final score: State 12, S. C. 7.

aerial combat. If this works out, the San Jose-Santa Clara tilt may be one of the most sensational conflicts to be waged on Spartan turf in many a year.

SAME WINGMAN

At the end positions DeGroot will depend upon Lloyd Wattenbarger and Joe Lantagne to repulse the sweeps by the many-star Bronco backfield.

Jess Wilson and either Jack Martin or Bob Drexel will offer opposition at the tackle berths with George Cannell and Glen "Pop" DuBose backing up pivotman Clyde Vorhees from their guard positions in the center of the State line.

Owen Collins, speedy right half who stole a portion of the show in the Pacific battle, has captured DeGroot's favor and probably will get the call over Chuck Peach and Luke Argilla, both veterans.

INJURIES HURT

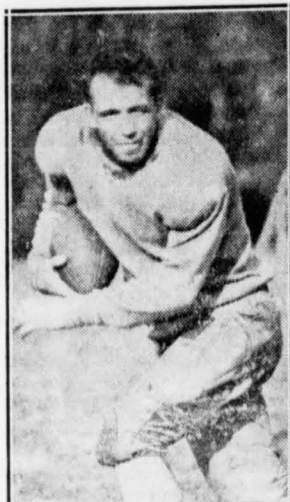

Injuries have hit the left half ranks hard. It is doubtful if either Jack Hilton or Tony Merino will be in shape for action tomorrow. That isn't all. Brilliant little Gene Rocchi, slated to start, is still hobbling a bit on a sore leg and the length of his stay in the ball game is problematical.

Mickey Slinguff, who got his big chance in the Bengal game and came through with flying colors, has been going "great guns" in this week's practice sessions and may find himself in the contest before it is well under way. The Palo Alto back was a sensation as a freshman two years ago and his return to form has done no little to relieve DeGroot's mind at this time.

Les Carpenter, steady-playing state captain, will have a big job on his hands tomorrow as to him will go a great share of the line-backing and signal-barking. Norm Sanders has shown himself to be a capable relief man and will probably see lots of service.

At fullback will be found the scourge of San Jose's opposition, Bill Lewis, the plunging Redwood City ace. Bob Stone and Walt McPherson are ready to jump in to the fray at a moments notice should the need arise.

SPARTAN WATERDOGS ENTERTAIN DOLPHINS TOMORROW EVENING

With their starting lineup in doubt due to injuries Sparta's varsity water polo team will take to the local pool tomorrow evening at eight o'clock in an effort to win their initial victory of the season. The opposition will be furnished by the San Francisco Dolphin club headed by a 1934 Olympic games team member in the person of John McManus.

McManus is a veteran player in his forward position and has been the inspiration of the club team this season. Coach Charlie Walker's men have been practicing all week with a sadly broken up team with Captain Dave Lynn, Bob Shaffer, Ronald Gordon, and Bob Locks all out with injuries.

All the men except Shaffer are expected to be in their positions when the teams enter the plunge tomorrow. If Shaffer's case of sinus has cleared up sufficiently he will be at his position in the goalie's net.

Probable starting lineup for the Spartans: Howard Withycombe, Ed Cary, Captain Lynn, forwards; Locks, Gordon, and Elmer Leslie, backs; and either Fenton Murray or Harry Regnart at goal.

Cross Country Team Set For Today's Debut

They'll enter as underdogs . . . those ten game Spartans.

Undaunted but full of determination, San Jose State's first cross country team will invade the lair of the junior collegians of San Mateo this afternoon at five o'clock on the very tough and rough San Mateo course.

DO THEIR BEST

They'll do their best for their new coach—Glen E. "Tiny" Hartman and they may surprise.

"Tiny" is saying very little. He never says much but we did catch a casual remark . . .

"This kid, Vin Rubel, may show those San Mateoans something they are not expecting."

A glance at the cross country personnel shows the presence of two freshman prospects, the already mentioned Vin Rubel and Bud Bayers, three time place winner in the California state championships.

Forfeits are becoming far too frequent in the Intra-Mural casaba tournament. Last night three games were scheduled and the results are recorded in the following paragraphs.

Three Intra-Mural basketball games were won by forfeits last night.

Tony Donadio lead his lads on the hardwood court last night expecting to play the Big Shots, but the so-called Big Shots were evidently much too big to bother with a little thing like a basketball game.

Score Donadio 1, Big Shots 0. The Watsonville Lettuce Heads waited patiently for the Los Gatos Freshmen, but the Freshmen, like so many children, apparently do not like lettuce, and ran out on the calorie boys from Watsonville.

The Spartan Daily quintet was all set to play the Five Jokers; on paper. The lads from the Daily however being wise youths, decided Five Jokers must have been drawn from a cold deck, and taking no chances, did not show up.

Portal Keys Men To Fighting Mood For Touted Broncos

A peppy and inspired Frosh football eleven will take the field tomorrow noon at Spartan stadium with a fighting chance of earning a victory over the vaunted Santa Clara Bronco Babes. The Spartan first year men, keyed to high pitch and a "never-give-up" spirit, will be gunning for their third straight win.

Although a few of the strongest men may be out of the fray with injuries, others have returned to the fold and saw a tough practice session last night.

Doan Carmody, James Budros, and Hugo DeGroot have all improved from their ills and will be called upon for plenty of work against the Broncos. Leroy Zimmerman, main cog in the San Jose offense, re-injured his ankle Wednesday afternoon, but might see action in Saturday's encounter. Don Pressley, star end, will be out of this week's contest but hopes to be shape for the remainder of the season.

The neighbors from the Santa Clara district boast a tough team that scored a win over Humboldt State college, 7-0, and an outfit that is considered one of the best Frosh elevens on the coast.

Their heavy line and powerful backfield will present a strong offense and tough defense, but however powerful, strong, or tough the Broncos are played up to be, they will be met by a rejuvenated Spartan Frosh team that will be out to pit its fight against a supposedly stronger Santa Clara outfit.

Soccer Eleven To Meet California Bears In Conference Battle

San Jose State's much-beaten soccer eleven will swing into action on the local field tomorrow morning when it will attempt to halt the University of California win streak. The tilt will get under way at 10 o'clock.

The Spartans were handed a 6 to 1 practice defeat early in the season and while improvement has been indicated, they will be decided underdogs in the Bear conflict.

Falling Branches Imperil Lives Of Six Students; Investigating Reporter Has Narrow Escape

The lives of six unidentified San Jose State college women and one Spartan Daily reporter were endangered late yesterday afternoon when two large branches from trees on the south side of the student Union building were hurled to the ground as the result of yesterday's high wind.

According to Bud Stewart, Co-operative store clerk, who witnessed the near tragedy, the six students were leaving the Union building when the branches came to the ground.

CLOSE CALL

"It is a miracle how the girls escaped serious injury," Stewart said. "I thought one of them would surely be hit by the falling limbs." Slight facial scratches were received by one of the girls, Stewart said, although medical attention was not necessary.

Mrs. Louis Walther, another eyewitness, said that the branches had begun to fall as the students were leaving the south door of the building but that one of them, hearing the noise, screamed, warning the others.

REPORTER BRUISED

Approximately 15 minutes after the first limb had fallen, Anello Ross, Spartan Daily reporter, who was investigating at the scene of the crash, was struck by another falling limb.

Ross sustained body bruises but did not require medical attention. It was revealed after investigation that bases of the fallen branches were badly worm eaten.

Mrs. Turner Will Give College Harpist Plays Art Majors A Party At Musical Half Hour

A party for entering Art Major students, A.B. and Technical, will be given by Mrs. Ruth Turner at her home at 491 South Seventh street, on Monday night from 7:30 to 10.

Plans for an hilarious evening, with plenty of food, are being made.

Featuring Miss Mary Elizabeth Falch, harpist and State harp instructor, the musical half hour will be held today in the Little Theater from 12:30 to 1:00 o'clock.

Miss Falch's program will consist of seven classical numbers. She will play Arabesque No. 1 by Debussy; Girl With the Flaxen Hair by Debussy; Le Bon Petit Roi, by Grandjany; Chanson, by Perlehou; Prayer, by Delmas; Prelude, by Loukine; and At The Monastery, by Hassilemans.

Freshman Hobby Club Meets This Afternoon

The "Art-Shop", a hobby group of freshman girls which is sponsored by the college YWCA will meet today in Room 14 at 3:00 o'clock.

All freshman girls who are interested in art work, are requested to come. Evelyn Webb is the leader of the "Art-Shop" and a program is planned for future meetings.

This group will decorate for all YWCA association dinners and do all the art work connected with the "Y".

Just Among Ourselves

By Dr. T. W. MacQuarrie

Some of the less discerning ones, certainly they don't read this column, are again violating the principles of neatness and throwing their cigarette stubs around the entrances. You may have to tell them about it somehow or other. Tell them that we can stand the smell all right but we hate the sight of the things. A little bit of courtesy and consideration for others will be a help to all and a good education for the thoughtless ones.

I understand the Council had something of a discussion over a possible funny paper for the campus. I hope we never have to make an effort in that direction again. I think most of you will agree with me that there isn't enough real wit on this campus, or any other for that matter, to warrant a funny paper. Real wit, is truly scarce. What most of the readers of so-called college humor seem to want is dirt, just plain, downright filth. Suggestive, indecent, shocking features, and unfair and untruthful comment. Why is it we get a satisfaction out of indecency? "Gee, but I'll bet the old boy didn't like that!" or "That'll make their toes curl." Well, it has a name all right in psychology. You just look it up if you are interested. A truly decent witty funny paper is doomed to failure from the start. Can't sell the stuff and the venture crumples up. Why waste any more money?

I was interested in that petition that someone started around the campus a while ago to recall somebody or other. There's one good in a petition like that. It probably made some of them go to the library after they had signed it and look up the word recall. Also, some of us learned that there were provisions in our constitution for such a procedure. Referendum and recall are two important words in American politics. In a certain social science test, there's a question. "What would you do if some neighbor presented a petition for your signature?" The answer in most cases was, "I'd sign it." Reading it, or discussing it, or taking time for reflection upon it never seemed to enter their heads. One student said, "Sure, I'd do anything for a neighbor."

The American right to petition is built into the very foundation of our government. It presumes an intelligent, independent, and patriotic citizenship. I'm not sure that the Fathers would have included it if they'd been able to look into the future.

Evidently with all the good playing, our team is doing this year, we are not taking in enough money to properly pay the expenses. The question of lights has come up again, the promoters insisting that the increase in attendance will pay for it in a short time. I'd like to see a discussion in the Daily about night games. Could the commuters attend night games better than they could the regular Saturday afternoon games? Do you think it would result in an increase in student body attendance as well as an increase of general admission? Evidently we are going to receive some offers in the near future for the installation of lights, and I would like to know what you think about it. Could you stand being a little cool at a game like that? Do you think bands and stunts

Publications' Office Impresses Visiting Oklahoma Professor

The Publications office impressed Dr. B. F. Williams of the Oklahoma State college at Stillwater, visiting here yesterday, as one of the interesting spots on Washington Square.

Dr. Williams, who is head of the education department in the Oklahoma college, was accompanied by Mrs. Williams. Having formerly been a teacher, Mrs. Williams was also greatly interested in the activity program here, including the Spartan Daily.

"Everyone in there seemed so interested," she explained to Dr. T. W. MacQuarrie, president of San Jose State, who was conducting them about the campus.

Pom-poms To Be Sold By Spears

Large orange and white pom-poms will be sold by Spartan Spears, sophomore women's honorary service society, at the Spartan stadium tomorrow just before the State-Santa Clara game.

With the purpose of organizing a women's rooting section for State's football heroes, Spears will provide the co-ed rooters with pom-poms giving a torch-like effect of flaring colors which, according to Betty Bruch, president of Spartan Spears, should make a good impression on Santa Clara.

The limited number of pom-poms manufactured by members of Spartan Spears will go on sale at fifteen cents apiece, and will be good for many more football games as they are strictly for the lasting quality, according to Betty Bruch.

The proceeds of the sale will be donated to the Community Chest and to the Student loan fund.

Wiltberger Leaves For Southern Convention

Mr. William A. Wiltberger, head of the San Jose State police school, left yesterday for Santa Monica, where he will attend the annual convention of California police chiefs.

His principle purposes in attending the convention, he said before leaving, are to keep abreast of the latest trends in police work, and at the same time to keep in contact heads of the departments in which his students will work after graduation.

Notices

Will all students who wish to tryout for Orchestras on Thursday, October 22, give their names to Miss Jewell today or Monday.

Lost: Between San Carlos turf and 101 Highway two Plum Bobs for surveying rig. Finder please return to Lost and Found.

Will all students who plan to do their student teaching in physical education during the winter quarter please see Mr. Blesh just as soon as possible. —T.E. Blesh.

I am sorry I am going to miss that Santa Clara game, but it is probably just as well for my general health. In any case, I'll pull hard for our fellows, and hope we may crown the initiation of this relationship with a victory.

Two Blocks Reserved For Women Rooters; Take Part In Stunts

With the unprecedented sign-up of 500 students for the organized rooting section at tomorrow's game, the center section of the stadium will be packed with male students in all except two blocks, which will be filled with women rooters.

Canvassing the campus during the week Bob Free, card stunts' chairman, checked out 500 cards to the men, who will sit in assigned seats during the game. Every man entering the organized section will have to wear a white shirt, under the penalty of being excluded from the section in case he fails to do so.

GALS, TOO

All women students entering the stadium, desiring to be in the organized block will form a section of their own across the top of the stadium and on each side of the band, which is placed along the first six or seven rows.

Contrary to a rumor that women are to wear white shirts also, the rally committee, under the chairmanship of Cal Sides, announced yesterday that the more brilliant colors that the women can wear the better it will be for the section, as a definite contrast is desired by the committee.

CARD STUNTS

Colored cards, numbered in order to facilitate the handling of them during the game will be placed at each seat and the stunts will be led by Bob Free.

The women, who may feel slighted because of their exclusion in the center will have a definite part in the stunts.

"The much publicized and awaited megaphones have finally arrived, and will be distributed to the students tomorrow," said Sides. "The megaphones are school property, so they will be distributed and collected at each game. Any student carrying them off will be given the same penalty as that imposed in case of stolen school property, so you can see it is imperative that everyone be returned to the rally committee."

The megaphones, which were supposed to have had the State block on them were sent by Roos Brothers without it. As they arrived so late in the season, the committee did not return them to be done over, but accepted them in their present condition, feeling that they would serve their purpose anyway.

Tap And Clog To Be Given By S. Wilson

Miss Wilson again announces tap dancing and clogging lessons to be given in the women's gymnasium.

Last year Miss Wilson's classes were very popular with both men and women.

Those interested in tap dancing and clogging will meet at 11:00 a.m. in the women's gymnasium Tuesday October 15th. Those unable to meet at this hour will please sign up at the women's gym, stating a more suitable time. Everyone is invited to attend.

NOTICE

The Pre-Legal club will have a special meeting Monday, October 19, at 12:30 sharp in Room 11. Please bring any students whom you know that are interested in law.

Babes Meet Santa Clara Frosh Tomorrow

Sport Spotlight by

DICK EDMONDS

THIS COLUMN is going to attempt something new and different today; that particular failing that sports writers get regularly about this time of the year—prognosticating the outcome of the week's gridiron conflicts.

U.S.C.-W.S.C.—The old-time Trojan power should bring about a U.S.C. win after a tough battle with the Cougars of the northwest. However, don't sell W.S.C. short.

Any team with Goddard working in the backfield is dangerous at all times and the Cougars are pretty generally strong in all departments.

Final score: U.S.C. 13, W.S.C. 6.

U.C.L.A.-CALIFORNIA—"Stub" Allison's men should get going for the first time this year. These Bruins from the south will be a tough nut to crack this year and one touchdown is about all the margin that the Bears get.

Final score: Bears 7, Bruins 0.

OHIO STATE-PITTSBURGH—A national championship may be decided in this tilt. I'm going to stick my neck out and give the decision to Coach Schmidt's "razzle-dazzle" boys from Columbus. Pitt has greater man power, while Ohio boasts of flashier backs. Don't bet any money on this one.

Final score: O.S.U. 12, Pitt 7.

ST MARY'S-U.S.F.—I'm going out on a limb for fair this time. Most people are expecting the Gaels to mop up the city lads but somehow I can't see any offense tearing that Don defensive line to pieces. The Gaels will win out because of superior reserve strength.

Final score: St. Mary's 13, U.S.F. 0.

OREGON-IDAHO—This one looks a bit easier. Give the Web-feet about two touchdowns over the Vandals.

Final score: Oregon 14, Idaho 0.

WASHINGTON-OREGON State—That husky backfield is too much for the deflated Beavers to cope with. Haines should run wild giving the Seattle eleven a comfortable three-touchdown victory.

Final score: Washington 20, O.S.C. 6.

S. J. FROSH - S. C. FROSH—Fight alone will carry the Spartan Babes over this massive hurdle. Were the locals at full strength I would give them a great opportunity to dump the highly-touted Broncolets. However, with several mainsprings missing from Portal's lineup, fight, and fight alone, will determine the outcome.

Final score: San Jose 0, Santa Clara 7.

SAN JOSE STATE - SANTA CLARA—Two weeks ago this one would have been easy. I could just have picked the Broncos to win (and immediately have left town). Now the proposition has changed somewhat following San Jose's stirring win over the favored Bengals.

Gosh, I wish I could get out of this, but I'm being egged on. Here it is. Ah, me!

Final score: State 12, S. C. 7.

aerial combat. If this works out, the San Jose-Santa Clara tilt may be one of the most sensational conflicts to be waged on Spartan turf in many a year.

SAME WINGMAN

At the end positions DeGroot will depend upon Lloyd Wattenbarger and Joe Lantagne to repulse the sweeps by the many-star Bronco backfield.

Jess Wilson and either Jack Martin or Bob Drexel will offer opposition at the tackle berths with George Cannell and Glen "Pop" DuBose backing up pivotman Clyde Vorhees from their guard positions in the center of the State line.

Owen Collins, speedy right half who stole a portion of the show in the Pacific battle, has captured DeGroot's favor and probably will get the call over Chuck Peach and Luke Argilla, both veterans.

INJURIES HURT

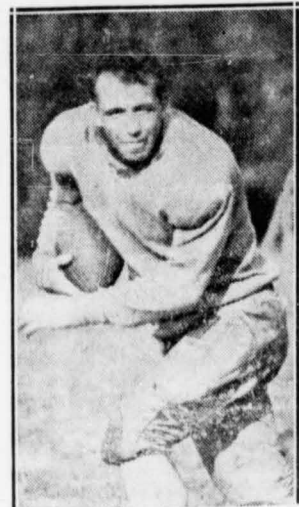

Injuries have hit the left half ranks hard. It is doubtful if either Jack Hilton or Tony Merino will be in shape for action tomorrow. That isn't all. Brilliant little Gene Rocchi, slated to start, is still hobbling a bit on a sore leg and the length of his stay in the ball game is problematical.

Mickey Slingluff, who got his big chance in the Bengal game and came through with flying colors, has been going "great guns" in this week's practice sessions and may find himself in the contest before it is well under way. The Palo Alto back was a sensation as a freshman two years ago and his return to form has done no little to relieve DeGroot's mind at this time.

Les Carpenter, steady-playing State captain, will have a big job on his hands tomorrow as to him will go a great share of the line-backing and signal-barking. Norm Sanders has shown himself to be a capable relief man and will probably see lots of service.

At fullback will be found the scourge of San Jose's opposition, Bill Lewis, the plunging Redwood City ace. Bob Stone and Walt McPherson are ready to jump in to the fray at a moments notice should the need arise.

SPARTAN WATERDOGS ENTERTAIN DOLPHINS TOMORROW EVENING

With their starting lineup in doubt due to injuries Sparta's varsity water polo team will take to the local pool tomorrow evening at eight o'clock in an effort to win their initial victory of the season. The opposition will be furnished by the San Francisco Dolphin club headed by a 1934 Olympic games team member in the person of John McManus.

McManus is a veteran player in his forward position and has been the inspiration of the club team this season. Coach Charlie Walker's men have been practicing all week with a sadly broken up team with Captain Dave Lynn, Bob Shaffer, Ronald Gordon, and Bob Locks all out with injuries.

All the men except Shaffer are expected to be in their positions when the teams enter the plunge tomorrow. If Shaffer's case of sinus has cleared up sufficiently he will be at his position in the goalie's net.

Probable starting lineup for the Spartans: Howard Withycombe, Ed Cary, Captain Lynn, forwards: Locks, Gordon, and Elmer Leslie, backs; and either Fenton Murray or Harry Regnart at goal.

Cross Country Team Set For Today's Debut

They'll enter as underdogs . . . those ten game Spartans.

Undaunted but full of determination, San Jose State's first cross country team will invade the lair of the junior collegians of San Mateo this afternoon at five o'clock on the very tough and rough San Mateo course.

DO THEIR BEST

They'll do their best for their new coach—Glen E. "Tiny" Hartman and they may surprise.

"Tiny" is saying very little. He never says much but we did catch a casual remark . . .

"This kid, Vin Rubel, may show those San Mateoans something they are not expecting."

A glance at the cross country personnel shows the presence of two freshman prospects, the already mentioned Vin Rubel and Bud Bayers, three time place winner in the California state championships.

INTRA-MURAL SPORTS

By WALTER HECOX

Forfeits are becoming far too frequent in the Intra-Mural casaba tournament. Last night three games were scheduled and the results are recorded in the following paragraphs.

Three Intra-Mural basketball games were won by forfeits last night.

Tony Donadio lead his lads on the hardwood court last night expecting to play the Big Shots, but the so-called Big Shots were evidently much too big to bother with a little thing like a basketball game.

Score Donadio 1, Big Shots 0. The Watsonville Lettuce Heads waited patiently for the Los Gatos Freshmen, but the Freshmen, like so many children, apparently do not like lettuce, and ran out on the calorie boys from Watsonville.

The Spartan Daily quintet was all set to play the Five Jokers; on paper. The lads from the Daily however being wise youths, decided Five Jokers must have been drawn from a cold deck, and taking no chances, did not show up.

Women's Sports

By PEGGY LUCIER

Mixed volleyball games and an archery match scheduled for this noon, will wind up the first week of sports events sponsored by the Women's Athletic Association.

Under the leadership of Miss Doris Dean, physical education instructor, men and women will participate in volleyball games from 12:15 to 1 o'clock in the women's gym. All students are invited to attend and take part in the games.

Members of the archery club will meet this noon at the regular time, contrary to the statement in yesterday's paper. The club is still open to new members who have had some experience in shooting.

One of the most important events in the W.A.A.'s two-weeks program will be a sports tea to be given in the women's gym Wednesday from 5 to 6.

Invading Santa Clara Squad To Face Yearlings

Portal Keys Men To Fighting Mood For Touted Broncos

A peppy and inspired Frosh football eleven will take the field tomorrow noon at Spartan stadium with a fighting chance of earning a victory over the vaunted Santa Clara Bronco Babes. The Spartan first year men, keyed to high pitch and a "never-give-up" spirit, will be gunning for their third straight win.

Although a few of the strongest men may be out of the fray with injuries, others have returned to the fold and saw a tough practice session last night.

Doan Carmody, James Budros, and Hugo DeGroot have all improved from their ills and will be called upon for plenty of work against the Broncos. Leroy Zimmerman, main cog in the San Jose offense, re-injured his ankle Wednesday afternoon, but might see action in Saturday's encounter. Don Pressley, star end, will be out of this week's contest but hopes to be shape for the remainder of the season.

The neighbors from the Santa Clara district boast a tough team that scored a win over Humboldt State college, 7-0, and an outfit that is considered one of the best Frosh elevens on the coast.

Their heavy line and powerful backfield will present a strong offense and tough defense, but however powerful, strong, or tough the Broncos are played up to be, they will be met by a rejuvenated Spartan Frosh team that will be out to pit its fight against a supposedly stronger Santa Clara outfit.

Soccer Eleven To Meet California Bears In Conference Battle

San Jose State's much-beaten soccer eleven will swing into action on the local field tomorrow morning when it will attempt to halt the University of California win streak. The tilt will get under way at 10 o'clock.

The Spartans were handed a 6 to 1 practice defeat early in the season and while improvement has been indicated, they will be decided underdogs in the Bear conflict.

Anyone wanting to sell their book, Marketing by Converse, may do so by telephoning Bal 4.944-J. who will run the trails this afternoon include: Vin Rubel, Bud Bayers, Bob Harris, Lloyd Gates, Sherman Sawtelle, Bud Everett, Jack Taylor, Ross, Chandler and Mahon.

bitter despair.

The members of the chorus come from that part of southwestern Russia called the Steppes and from that particular province through which the Don river flows slowly toward the Sea of Azov.

Today, the Don Cossacks are refugees, with small hope of seeing their native land. Since 1921, when General Wrangel's White army was defeated by the Reds, these giant ex-officers of the Imperial army have been banished from Russia. Cossacks have been the theme of song and story for centuries, their adventures inspiring many of the great Russian writers—Tolstoi, Gogol, and others.

SEVENTH TOUR

Organized during their imprisonment in Turkey, the Don Cossack chorus has given concerts in all the capitals of Europe; is now on its seventh tour of America, and is planning to invade the Orient on completion of the concerts in the United States. Before singing here Sunday evening, the uniformed chorus will have given over 3000 programs since its origin.

Tickets for this unique entertainment may be secured at the controller's office, at Sherman Clay, or at the auditorium. Reservations may also be made by phone. Prices range from 50c to $1.50.

QUEEN SPEAKS

Miss Coral Kluge, grid queen for the Santa Clara game, was presented to the students, and lauded them for the "enthusiasm that has prevailed during the week."

In a new and novel way the team made its appearance on the stage. Darkening the setting, a series of indirect lights were played upon the team members, and when presented were given a huge ovation by the audience, which rose of its own accord to greet them.

Lu DeGroot, varsity coach, before coming on the stage had asked the fellows what they wanted him to say. In reply he stated, "Tell them we're going out to knock the tar out of Santa Clara."

Adding to DeGroot's statement, Les Carpenter, captain, said, "I think this is the greatest opportunity we have ever had and don't think we're not going to take advantage of it."

$25 Prize Offered By College Alumni In Poster Contest

Any regular student registered in the San Jose State college is eligible to enter the poster contest being sponsored by the College Alumni Council, according to Dr. Raymond Mosher, head of the Council. The winning contribution will be used to advertise the three day celebration of the seventy-fifth anniversary of the founding of San Jose State college to be held May 20, 21, 22.

Each contestant will be required to submit three contributions, a full sized poster, a letter head spread, and a windshield sticker, in order to compete for the twenty-five dollar prize being offered by the Council. The same theme must dominate all three designs.

Rules and judges for the contest will be announced later.

Al Lane Leads Hikers On Trek Into Mountains

Visiting Zayante canyon in the Santa Cruz mountains for the first time, the Hiking club will leave on its second trek of the quarter at 8:30 Sunday morning from Seventh and San Antonio streets.

Anyone who enjoys hiking is cordially invited to join the group which will journey in cars to a point on the Montezuma road near Los Gatos where the nine mile hike will begin.

Shady Zayante creek and an old road will be followed by the group, led by Al Lane who scouted the trip recently. An elevation of 2,500 feet will be reached during the jaunt.

All those who can bring cars are asked to do so. Expenses will be paid by other hikers at the rate of 20 cents each.

Mr. William McCoard of the Speech department will accompany the hikers as guest faculty member.

Hikers should bring a lunch, and should wear hiking clothes or slacks if possible.

Before closing his speech, DeGroot asked the students to take it upon themselves to see that at least one townsman was in the stadium, for if the gate receipts continued as they had during the past two weeks, the season would be a financial failure.

Determination was the keynote of the speech delivered by DeWitt Portal, freshman coach, when he said, "I realize we're up against a real team and the one thing that has carried us

Socialist Favor In Spain Told By Woodruff In Meet

Conservative Faction Cause Of Trouble Says Speaker

"Undoubtedly, the majority of the people in Spain are in favor of the present Socialistic government, and it is only because of the complete disregard of international law by such countries as Germany and Italy that the rebels are winning in their effort to destroy the Socialistic administration."

So said James H. Woodruff yesterday to the Open Forum club in room three of the Home Economics building. His topic was "The Spanish Situation."

Among the points brought out in Woodruff's speech was the fact that, where formerly it has always been the radicals, the leftists, who were the instigators of violence, now in Spain it is the conservative faction that is making use of violence.

"It seems that whatever power is not in control, whether radical or conservative, favors violence as the most efficient way to gain control," said the speaker.

Another point made by Mr. Woodruff was that though many people are opposed to the Socialist rule in Spain because such a government is averse to the church. The speaker averred that the rebels have signified that if victorious they will not tolerate the church any more than the Socialist government has.

Both sides agree in their condemnation of the church as an economic power, not as a strictly religious institution.

Mr. Woodruff also said that if it were not for the pro-Fascist attitude of Portugal, allowing the rebels to pass through freely into Spain, the situation of the loyalists would be less serious.

Orchesis Members To Hold 'Open House' In Connection With WAA

Orchesis members completed arrangements at their regular meeting Wednesday, for an open house meeting to be held next Wednesday from 7 to 8 o'clock in the Dance Studio of the women's gym. The meeting will be part of the W.A.A. Open House activities and will be open to any woman student who is interested in dancing.

An original technical problem will be presented for group activity by each Orchesis member during the evening and four of the problems will be chosen for use in Orchesis tryouts the following day.

Orchesis members will also attend the W.A.A. tea at the women's gym Wednesday afternoon and will join with members of other physical education groups in helping new students and transfers become acquainted.

Tryouts For Verse Speaking Choir To Be Held This Noon

Tryouts for the Verse Speaking choir, postponed from last week, will be held at noon today in Room 165. Anyone interested in group recitation of poetry is asked to try out at this time.

Directed by Miss Elizabeth Jenks, Speech department head, the choir has attracted an inviable name among organizations of its type. Invitations to appear in several central California cities have already been received by Miss Jenks.

No previous experience or advance preparation is necessary for the tryouts which are held each year at this time.

S. C. Officials Talk To Seniors In Orientation

In recognition of the big game tomorrow, two Santa Clara officials spoke before the seniors in orientation today.

John Filippini, president of the neighboring student body, emphasized the necessity of friendly relations between State and Santa Clara, while John Cost, S. C. rally chairman, told of the need of making tomorrow's football meet an annual classic.

Dr. T. W. MacQuarrie, who also spoke to the group, emphasized the fact that football, while an educating activity, is not indicative of the success of an institution. Rather, he stated, a college's success is shown by the achievement of the people it has trained.

Instigating a new idea, a get-acquainted senior sprawl will be held November 5 at Alum Rock. Bill Moore has been named as tentative chairman in charge of arrangements.

'Catcalls---Jeers' Were Heard At Men's Meet

Catcalls, artificial laughs, whistling and jeers from the general audience allowed only those who were occupying the front rows to get even a faint idea of what was happening on the stage during the men's assembly yesterday morning.

Striving to be heard above the din Don Walker introduced representatives of the various men's organizations about the campus, who in turn told of the purposes and activities of their organizations.

Dr. H. Staffelbach, Sweeney Talk To Freshman Co-eds

Pre-Teacher Training Group Formed To Correct Errors

"Tie your teaching field with a special interest," Dr. Staffelbach, director of teacher training, urged yesterday before the Freshman Women's orientation group.

"If you have a talent, develop it. Principals invariably want to know what activities you have engaged in while attending college," he declared.

"Though the teaching field is crowded, we have no trouble in placing good teachers," he stated. Contrasting the old time teacher with the modern he pointed out that present day teachers make friends with their pupils.

PERSONALITY COUNTS

Admittance to teacher training is not on a scholarship basis, he said. Personality, speech, and a friendly attitude are important factors, he explained.

Stressing the importance of taking the right courses, Dr. Staffelbach urged students to interview the heads of the departments in their particular field early.

HIGHER SALARIES

Mr. William Sweeney, speaking before the group, reminded the prospective teachers that the new rigid requirements were a benefit to them for they tend to make less competition and higher salaries. Repeating the importance of personality, Mr. Sweeney declared:

"The education department is not interested in the student who carries a brief case."

A pre-teacher training group which will include men will meet two or three times during the year, the purpose of which will be to prevent students from making needless mistakes, he added.

Art Majors Prepare For Meeting Tuesday

Miss Velma Hamilton of the Home Economics department will speak before the Art Major women Tuesday at 11, providing no other important meeting intervenes.

With girls modeling, she will show becoming colors for the blonde, redhead, brownette and brunette. She will also demonstrate the psychology of line and the character of textures, in relation to modern clothes.
