MOVIES OF GALAPAGOS TONIGHT

Scientific Show To Be Presented At 8:15

Motion pictures depicting life and strange people found along the Americas and the Galapagos islands will be shown tonight in the Morris Dailey auditorium at 8:15 p.m. Admission will be free.

Shown through the courtesy of Captain G. Allen Hancock, noted philanthropist and scientist, the pictures deal largely with the work of scientists while on expeditions in the Galapagos archipelago, and is arranged to simulate a voyage to tropical seas and remote lands below the equator.

The pictures, of educational and scientific interest, will follow a concert by an ensemble of eight musicians in which Captain Hancock appears as cellist. The ensemble has been heard nationally over the large radio hookups.

Both still and motion pictures will be shown, including a brief historical introduction depicting the discovery and excavation of pre-historic fossil remains from tarry pools of the old Rancho La Brea, where the world's largest collection of pleistocene mammal bones was found.

Educators Design Science Program At Week-end Meet

Local Faculty Host To Statewide Confab

A feasible plan for a state-wide course of study in elementary science will be discussed by instructors and professors of the state at a confab in Room 102 of the Science building on October 14 and 15.

Working on the committee will be Mrs. Gladys Potter of the State Department of Education, Miss Esther Guthrie of the Sacramento school department, and Mr. Fred Anibal of Stanford University.

From San Jose State college will be Dr. Gayle Pickwell, Dr. Robert Rhodes, Dr. Carl Duncan, Dr. Karl Hazeltine, Dr. Victor Peterson, Mr. Wilbur Moreland, Mr. Fred Buss, Miss Emile Smith, and Miss Gertrude Witherspoon.

Mrs. Bryant To Speak At Chapel Hour

Mrs. Florence Bryant, English instructor, will give the second in a series of talks on the theme "A Vision of Life" today at the chapel quarter hour to be held from 12:30 until 12:45 in the Little Theater, it was learned yesterday from YWCA members.

Mrs. Bertha Dains will present piano selections during the program, and Jean Ewing will give a call to worship and the benediction. All students are invited to attend.

Peanuts peanuts peanuts peanuts peanuts peanuts

Did you forget your nickel today? If so, borrow one and purchase a bag of peanuts. They will be sold in the Quad from 11 a.m. until 2 p.m. by the YWCA. In charge of the booth are Doris Stover, Lois Russell, and Harriet Scott.

Co-chairmen of the peanut sale are Jean Shannonhouse and Ruth Shemer.

Lindgren To Act Raleigh Role In Debut

In a cast replete with newcomers, Carlton Lindgren, junior, will also make his debut as a member of the San Jose Players in the role of Sir Walter Raleigh in the play, "Elizabeth the Queen". Lindgren replaces Bill Van Vleck, who, for personal reasons, was forced to resign the part, announced Director James Clancy yesterday.

One of the stellar roles in the production, the Sir Walter Raleigh part was given to Lindgren as a promotion after he had shown unusual promise since the tryouts when he received the "atmosphere" part of the fifth guard, according to Mr. Clancy.

General ticket sales for "Elizabeth the Queen", which begins a two-day run in the Little Theater October 27 and 28, will start October 24.

Rooters Special Heads South Nov. 5th

By JACK BALDWIN

At 9:15 A.M. Saturday, November 5, the San Jose State Special will sound its war-cry like whistle and head out of the station toward Santa Barbara with about 300 rooters, college band players, and freshman football players determined to corral the Gauchos of Santa Barbara State and brand them with the iron of defeat that afternoon.

Jack Riordan, Rally Committee head, contacted Southern Pacific Railroad officials yesterday and a definite schedule of the plans for the excursion were drawn up and released for publication.

The Spartan varsity will not make the 337-mile journey on the same train as the rooters but will proceed to the southern bay city on an earlier train.

The Special will leave San Jose at 9:15 Saturday, November 5, and arrive in Santa Barbara at 4:15 P.M. It will leave the bay city about 12:30 A.M. Sunday, after the dance.

However, no reductions on the originally announced $6.45 fare will or can be made, according to the railroad officials.

The varsity will make the return trip on the same train as the rooters and pick up the freshman squad in San Luis Obispo and the entire delegation will then proceed directly to San Jose.

QUAD MAY BE SCENE OF DANCE

Pass New Yell Leader Sweater Design

A possibility that the Spardi Gras dance would be given in the Quad at night was the issue discussed at yesterday's students council meeting presided over by Student Body Prexy Jack Hilton.

The details are being worked over by George Place, last year's Spardi Gras chairman. Place is attempting to get a portable dance floor that will accommodate the huge crowd that attends the dance yearly. His report will be discussed at the next meeting.

Other business during the meeting was the passing of a new design by Cheer Leader Jim Fahn for the yell leaders to wear. The new color will be blue.

All organizations will be requested for the last time to get dates of their organization meetings and social events in the date book in Dean Dimmick's office. Many organizations have not taken heed of the first warning and are urged to look into the matter as soon as possible.

Miss Twombly Advises Bed As Cure For Cold

People with colds are urged by Miss Margaret Twombly, Health department head, to stay home in bed. In this manner you can protect others and prevent the spread of colds, she explains.

According to Miss Twombly, two days in bed will break up even the more serious colds; and it is better to stay out of school altogether than to attend classes when your system is under par.

Al Davina's Band Featured In College Chest Jam Benefit

LOCAL MUSICIANS WILL PROVIDE "JITTERBUGS" WITH PLENTY OF JAM AND JIVE

Al Davina and his ten-piece band have been added to the list of orchestras scheduled to be heard from the stage of the Morris Dailey auditorium when the first all-college "Swing Concert" is held tomorrow night commencing at 7:30 P.M.

This brings the list of orchestras to five. The others are Scott Held, Roland Band, Emile Bouret, and the "Sweat-sock" Five.

OUTSTANDING MUSICIANS

Chairman of the concert, Jim Bailey, has been endeavoring to gather all the outstanding musicians of Santa Clara valley for the session. According to Bailey, the men comprising these orchestras, with but few exceptions, makes this ambition a reality.

Featured on the program will be special arrangements from the pens of local arrangers, and separating the efforts of the individual bands will be a series of novelty numbers and skits.

TICKETS

All tickets will be obtainable at the door the night of the performance. Students will be admitted for fifteen cents if they show their student body cards. Outsiders will be charged twenty-five cents.

Money from the session will go to help fill the college's quota for this year's Community Chest drive. The show will take the place of voluntary contributions, it was announced by Community Chest head Bob Work.

Citizen "Failed" IN ATTEMPT TO Resume Reading

By JACK BALDWIN

An elderly man carrying a gnarled cane stopped in front of the Student Union before mounting the steps leading to the doors. Slowly and laboriously he took each step. At the top he again paused to catch his breath and take the kink from his back.

The lights of the Union went out just as he neared the door, and from within stepped a couple of late-evening ping pong players. The old man looked about the front of the building and then rather apologetically asked the two students:

"Is this the public library?"

"Truckin' On Down"--With a Purpose

Ruby Washington and Bull Lewis practice for the coming Community Chest jam session in the Morris Dailey auditorium tomorrow night. Music is being provided by Bill Clark, Kenneth Helvey, Dan McAuliff, and Bill Paulin, with Roland Band, swing band leader, swinging a mean clarinet.

Thrust and Parry

(CONTRIBUTORS' COLUMN)

Today, we present the other side of the Riordan, McLean, Knight feud pertinent to school enthusiasm. The Spartan Daily extends to the entire student body an invitation to air its views and opinions. Articles should be typewritten and not in excess of 200 words. Messrs. McLean, Carter, Roberts, etc.:

... You know, after reading the drivel in Monday's Thrust and Parry, I have concluded that there is something to be said for McLean. He at least stated his views of the case in clear, calm terms, and didn't cheapen himself or his story with small-time sarcasms and personality burlasques. I hope that Carter is proud of himself. His ridiculing of John Knight's efforts in behalf of the band and the college are an example of mudslinging of which the rottenest political backbiter in the racket might well be proud.

As head of the Rally Committee, Riordan is attempting to build a unified rooting section, one worthy of the college, and of the activities and organizations connected with it, which form an integral part of normal college life. In this effort, he has to fight not only the normal apathy of the mass of the students, but also the vicious destructive innuendo of a minority which could lose nothing by remaining silent.

Many of us here at college like to yell when our football team makes a long gain or completes a pass. If you and your kind don't, McLean, the decent thing to do would be to shut up and let the rest of us enjoy ourselves. We have neither the wit nor the desire to fight back against your cutting quips and wordy-wise stock phrases about changing times and conditions, with more of the same. But is it too much to ask that if criticism has nothing constructive to offer, it remain silent and not make a tough job harder?

This is my plea: Let's give Jack Riordan a chance. If you don't want to participate in school activities, stay away, and let calls for cooperation and good sportsmanship glance off your thick hides. But to those of you who do want to cooperate, and don't care if you sound like an organ grinder with a cog missing the next day, may I suggest that we register our unqualified support and approval of Riordan and his committee at the games and rallies to come, and thus silence the opposition.

—Sincerely, JOHN P. HARVILLE.

Thrust and Parry:

College students have for long been accused of spreading subversive and radical propaganda, and now our college has succumbed and become the focal point for one of the most vicious plots I have ever encountered.

I refer specifically to the organization known as the Cliff Dwellers of America. This organization is fomented by our country's enemies, and menaces our own Democratic government by advocating resistance to military service; thereby weakening us internally, and making us easy prey for the first ambitious nation to engulf.

All the members of the so-called Cliff Dwellers have violated the pledge of obsequiousness, I mean allegiance, signed on registration day. They are largely composed of Nazi sympathizers and Socialists, supported with funds directly from the Communist Internationale. The leaders, Hitt, tramp Bailey, Melzer, and McLean, are reputed to be Soviet Secret Agents, plotting to overthrow the college government and establish a dictatorship.

A vigilante organization is being formed to tar and feather all members of the slacker group.

—CONRAD LACY.

Cliff Dwellers of America Incorporated

We, the prime gun-fodder of America, being of sound mind and body, and desiring to remain so, and being loyal citizens of this great democratic nation, the United States of America, do stand upon the rights for which our forefathers fought and bled, and do promise:

1. In the eventuality of invasion by a foreign army upon the shores of these United States ONLY, we will take up arms and do battle.

2. Under no conditions shall we take up arms and leave our own shores for the purpose of killing and being killed in foreign wars.

3. Should the moneyed interests, induced by their own greed and avarice, succeed in drawing these United States into the fray as they did during the World War of 1914, we shall scorn the call to arms, AND SHALL RETIRE INTO THE HILLS TO CERTAIN DESIGNATED SPOTS, AND THERE RESIDE AS CLIFF DWELLERS FOR THE DURATION OF THE WAR.

4. All propaganda, and agents of the military divisions of the United States of America shall be prohibited from entering within a radius of ten (10) miles of these mountain bulwarks of peace.

HOUSEMAIDS OF THE HILLS
(Women's auxiliary of the Cliff Dwellers of America, Inc.)

We, the wives and sweethearts of the prime gun-fodder of America, having our men of sound mind and body, and wishing to keep them that way, do agree:

1. Should the moneyed interests, induced by their own greed and avarice, succeed in drawing these United States into the fray of foreign wars, do avow that we shall RETIRE INTO THE HILLS TO CERTAIN DESIGNATED SPOTS AND THERE COOK AND KEEP HOUSE FOR THE CLIFF DWELLERS FOR THE DURATION OF THE WAR.

Migawsh, Look What Came In!

October 10, 1938.

Editor Spartan Daily
Dear Sir:

Why don't we have some really peppy yells and a variety of them? We'd like to yell if we found the right thing. May I suggest:

BEAT 'em, Spartans, BEAT 'em!—
BEAT 'em, Spartans, BEAT 'em,
Spartans, BEAT 'em!

The rhythm for this has been taken from a popular yell.

Sincerely yours,
A. COED.

S WEEPINGS

By BEN MELZER

The classic Saturday night bath that was dreaded by students some years ago has become a longing instead here at the college when it was announced that the showers being repaired at the Men's gym this past month would necessitate another few weeks' delay. The situation, calm as it seems, presents a problem which will become very serious as time bounces on.

We took a stroll over to the gym to watch the repair work being done. There were two WPA workers on the job, which probably can explain the procrastination. Little has been accomplished, it seems, these past few weeks. They have just completed laying out their tools!

OTHER ACCOMPLISHMENTS

One of them was perched on a shower top in the same position as Rodin's thinker and seemed to be lost in a world of mumbles and grumbles. The other was more practical, being satisfied to recline on the rust colored tile floor like a candid camera man getting a shot of the Empire State building. We liked the latter man. He stuck to the good earth and showed he was one of the common people. The other was trying to be philosophically high hat!

It seems a large delay last week was caused when one of the workers, having completed plastering a wall, suddenly discovered his partner to be missing! The whole section had to be torn down in an effort to find him, as it was supposed he might have fallen asleep standing up. After the entire wall had been demolished, it was discovered his partner had stepped out to suck on a cigarette.

WPA OR BUST

Anyway, we were interested in studying our future government job, the various movements, hour necessary to hold down WPA job and such guff. We heard many suggestions on how to train oneself for a WPA job, of them being taking a course in modelling and posing. Even must be specialized these days what with competition so that so it seemed like a good idea to enroll before graduation. Here we come!

Getting back to the situation, it has resulted in a traffic drop in the college. Bureau, women showing distaste to date men who have back to the earth. One student hails from a local mining town in Pennsylvania received a tation from a co-ed to attend shower. The lack of a bath in past few weeks had affected so much, subconsciously, that arrived with towel and soap!

THE RESULT

We can apparently see the come. Dates will be neglected many students who should be tending their social education in niceties of enjoying and knowing women's company will not learn understand women, and will evitably marry the first woman that comes along after graduation. Thus, many who thought they were embarking on the serene matrimony, will, after a few days discover they have just stepped a mud-hole!

HARTRANFT EXPERIMENTS IN SCRIMMAGE; DEFENSE GOOD

Frosh Mentor Seeking New Talent; Lineup
Will Probably Remain Unchanged

Playing no game this week, Coach "Tiny" Hartranft of the freshman gridgers is attempting to uncover talent hidden so far in the confusion of early season games and by high school reputations.

Picking on the varsity squad as a testing ground, Tiny has found that his early season picks are still holding forth with flashes of color coming forth in the nightly scrimmages.

On defense against the varsity Monday night, Bud Lewis proved that he was still one of the main cogs in the Spartlet stone wall. The wall proved it had a few passages open to the thrusts of the three running backs of the DeGroot eleven but closed like a clam against the first signs of inferior varsity blocking. "Smiles" Faria and Chuck Wilson playing guard in front of the varsity blockers spilled play after play and refused to be suckers when attempts were made to pull them out of position.

The end spots looked a little weak on outside plays, but Tiny was testing all the talent he had and ran in fresh material giving all-comers a chance to hit that first squad before the last round of games start.

The Menlo junior college game, in two weeks, might see a few changes on the frosh roster, but by the looks of this week's scrimmage the former starters will hold forth to receive the call.

Seeded Teams In Net Tournney Victories

Oswald-Eells Advance In Tennis Play

The mixed doubles tournament saw its first good day of tennis yesterday when seven pairs of racquetters faced each other to battle for supremacy.

All first round matches were played off with five second round contests following suit. The seeded team of Oswald-Eells succeeded in defeating Myers and Norton, 6-0, 6-4, and later advanced a step in the tournament by defeating Myers-Talbert, 6-0, 6-4, in second round play. Evans and Hebgren downed their first opponents, Hafftin-Scott, 6-0, 6-4, but later lost to the veterans, Engling and Hooker, 6-4, 6-2.

Matches played are as follows: Boscoci and Green overcame Grover and Fammatre, 6-0, 6-4; Hill-Gordon defeated Olson-Hendricks, 6-3, 6-3; D. Smith and Moore won on a default from Pallus and Sutherland; and Sawabe-Frees overpowered Nickle-Jones, 5-7, 8-6, 6-1.

Correction - "Seals" Battle Olympic Club Here Tomorrow Night

Contrary to the story that appeared in the Daily yesterday, the Spartan varsity and freshmen waterpolo teams will meet the San Francisco Olympic club in Spartan Plunge tomorrow night, and not in San Francisco.

The Seals have been strengthened by the return of Al Wempe to the lineup. Wempe has been out since the start of the season with a cut eye. The game tomorrow night will start at eight o'clock.

Spartan Grid Eleven Nears First Mile Of Yardage After Four Wins; Passes Connect

By PONY SWENSON

San Jose's high-scoring machine is only 308 yards short of traveling a mile over the Spartan Stadium greensward after facing four opponents to roll up 157 points, the nation's top total.

The Spartans' offensive attack has been effective both by land and air, with 847 yards from rushing and 607 yards from passes, giving the DeGrootmen a 1,452 yardage total.

McPherson, Zimmerman, Peregoy, and Company, San Jose's strike-throwing passers, have attempted 91 tosses and have made contact with their receivers 42 times, netting them 46 per cent efficiency.

SOCCER ELEVEN FACES STIFF TASK IN STOPPING BEARS

Faced with a tough assignment, that of upsetting California's perennial soccer champions, Coach Hovey McDonald's Spartan kickers continued practice yesterday afternoon for Saturday's engagement with the Bears on Edwards Field in Berkeley.

Undeclared but tied in three conference games, the Spartans will enter Saturday's contest with an even chance of winning. San Jose battled the Bears to a 2-2 tie in a practice game before the conference opened, and since then has shown improved team-work. Victories over San Mateo and Menlo junior colleges and a scoreless tie with the University of San Francisco give the Spartans their best record in conference play since the sport was inaugurated on Washington Square.

San Jose's first team lineup is expected to remain much the same for the opening whistle of Saturday's game at Berkeley. Jack Marsh, who has given the Spartans a scoring punch at the wing position, will open opposite Freddie Albright, with Martella, Masdeo, and Fiebig filling other positions in the front line.

Backfield spots will be the same with Hodgson and Crotser, Spartan fullbacks receiving the task of stopping California's all-conference center-forward, Les Musante.

Coaches McDonald and Olivarri will spend the rest of this week conditioning the Spartan squad for the California game and smoothing the offensive attack. The local eleven has shown a tendency to tire in the games played with the result that special attention will be given this phase of the game during practice this week.

SPARTANS WORK ON DEFENSE FOR PACIFIC UNIVERSITY

San Jose Eleven Faces Tough Assignment
In Approaching Four Weeks

While football fans and followers of the Spartan varsity look forward to the approaching College of Pacific game here one week from Friday, Coach Dud DeGroot is not overlooking this week's engagement with Pacific University from Forest Grove, Oregon.

San Jose's Spartans were at it again in Spartan Stadium last night, polishing their offense and smoothing the rough spots from the defensive formations. With a total of 157 points in four games and an undefeated record, it would seem as though the Spartans were already a smooth working eleven. But in facing College of Pacific, San Diego State, and Santa Barbara State on successive week-ends in the next month, DeGroot expects trouble.

Scrimmaging against the freshman squad Monday night the first eleven failed to make consistent gains through the yearling line. Downfield blocking was at a minimum, a fact which displeased the Spartan headman some extent.

New faces may appear in the first team lineup this week. Manogian has shown well in practice and has been alternating with Zetterquist at the right halfback position. Price, veteran end who has been out with a broken finger, alternated with Berry at right end, but will have a tough job breaking into the starting lineup after Berry's exhibition in the Humboldt game Friday night.

A brilliant all-letterman backfield is the feature of the Pacific squad which beat Linfield college 13-0 Saturday. Coach Folgate has an abundance of backfield material with the starting quartet backed by experienced players in every position. Len Gillman, sensational all-conference triple-threat half-back leads the Badger offense, with Captain Jimmy Wiles as one of the outstanding players of the forward wall. Wiles was all-conference guard last season, but has shifted to end to fill a weak spot on the line.

No Experience Necessary For Drama Tryouts

Stressing the fact that experience is entirely unnecessary, Drama department heads are sending out a call for students to try out tomorrow at 4 o'clock in the Little Theater for the comedy, "Storm in a Teacup", second play of the current season.

To be given in November, the production is under the direction of Miss Margaret Douglas, of the Speech department.
