Get On Sparta's Bandwagon

First Afternoon Dance In Men's Gym Today At 4

Spartan Rooters 'Raring' For Train Excursion Friday

"Raring to go" is the mood Spartans and co-eds are in these days with the C.O.P. excursion Friday to think about.

With the sale of train tickets, selling at $1.65 progressing rapidly, rally officials urge students to get theirs early, since there will be only a limited number sold. No tickets will be sold on the train.

A special male rooting section will be reserved for those wearing gold and white rooters caps. Behind these will be the special section of co-ed rooters carrying pom-poms, the rally chairman said. Mixed couples will sit in the upper half of this section.

Pom-poms will be sold today in the inner quad by members of the Spartan Spears, women's service organization.

The Spartan Special leaves the Southern Pacific depot at 2:15 and will arrive in Stockton about 4:30. Although tickets are good for ten days, there will be a special leaving (Continued on Page Four)

Cooperatives Will Hold Open House Tomorrow Night

The college cooperative houses announce their Open House to be held tomorrow night, from 7:00 to 9:00.

The public is invited and refreshments will be served at all houses, according to the announcement.

The Mary George House is at 146 South Tenth street, Mary Post House is at 438 South Ninth, and Eckert Hall is at 343 East Reed street.

Spears Sell C.O.P. Pom-poms Today

Pom-poms for the C.O.P. game will go on sale today in the quad, priced at fifteen cents, Ruth Burmester, of Spartan Spears, announced yesterday.

No co-ed without a pom-pom will be permitted to sit in the San Jose State rooting section at the game, by authority of the rally committee, Miss Burmester pointed out yesterday.

G. Goudron Supplies Music For Students At Pre-Rally Affair

Extending celebration for the little "Big Game" with C.O.P. Friday, today's afternoon dance will take on the aspect of a pre-rally hop, according to Don Anderson, chairman.

First afternoon dance of the quarter, the event, offering the music of Gene Goudron's special six-piece orchestra, will take place in the Men's gym from 4 to 6 o'clock.

"These hours make it easier for students to attend both the dance and the rally tonight," stated Anderson.

Special impromptu entertainment will be provided by as many harassed fraternity pledges as can be rounded up for the occasion, according to Anderson.

Admission will be 10 cents with student body cards. No outsiders will be allowed at the dance.

—ON TO STOCKTON—

Busses Run To Station Friday

Students planning to go to the State-Pacific game Friday will be able to take San Jose railroad busses to the train, announces Mr. Arthur Woods, of the company. The busses will be in front of the college at two o'clock, and will leave at 2:05 at the Fourth and San Antonio street entrance.

The busses will meet the train at 2:30 a.m. on the return trip, and will run their regular routes through the city—including Willow Glen.

Tokens cost seven cents each, or four for a 25 cents.

Accounting Society Dinner Tonight

Members of Alpha Eta Sigma, accounting society, will meet tonight at the Italian restaurant for dinner and a business meeting, Lawrence Bastianon, president of the organization, announced yesterday.

After dinner, which will be held at 6:30, an important business meeting will be held.

Francis Pearson will report on the Accounting library which he is investigating. The members will also vote on which accounting magazines the organization will subscribe to.

Other routine business matters will also be discussed.

STUDENTS AIR OPINIONS IN BAND DISPUTE

Three hundred students of San Jose State college will be contacted today by members of the journalism classes conducting the Spartan Daily poll on whether or not women should be allowed to play in the college band.

One of four questions to be asked will seek to find out whether those interviewed favor co-eds playing and marching in the band between halves of football games. Another question will try to determine the attitude of students toward inauguration of a women's band.

With members of the band recently voting to disperse with drum majorettes in future games, another question will seek to ascertain if these baton-twirlers are desired by the student body.

Still another alternative is presented with the question, "Would you be in favor of dispensing with co-eds altogether and having an all-male band?"

Future policy of the band will in no way be decided by the results of the poll, which was brought about after a two-week controversy aired in the Spartan Daily Thrust and Parry column. Any change, if needed, will be made by band officials at their own discretion.

—ON TO STOCKTON—

OPEN FORUM TOMORROW

Topic for consideration in tomorrow's "Open Forum" discussion will be the "Difficulties of Neutrality" with Dr. Victor Hunt of the Social Science department presiding over the meeting at 11:00 in the Little Theater.

Dr. Hunt will summarize briefly the neutrality status of the United States with the purpose of providing a background for any further developments which may come out of Congress this week.

There will be an opportunity for students to discuss the issue and ask questions on the implications of the present Neutrality Act and any amendments which may be made.

Miss Marie Tinkler will be in charge of the entire meeting.

—ON TO STOCKTON—

Y.M.-Y.W. SUPPER TICKETS ON SALE

Tickets for the Y.M.C.A.-Y.W.C.A. association supper to be held tomorrow night at 5:30 in Schofield Hall at the San Jose Y.W.C.A. are now on sale in Room 14, according to Royal Scott, Y.M. president.

"Seventy Nations in Amsterdam" will be the topic of a speech to be given following the supper by Thomas Hoshigama, San Francisco delegate to the first world conference of Christian youth.

C.O.P. Rally Tonight At 7:30 In Morris Dailey; Baskin Emcee

SONGS, YELLS, COMEDY HOLD TOP SPOT ON PROGRAM; COLLEGE BAND FURNISHES MUSIC

The first gun in the San Jose State college Friday night battle with C.O.P. will go off tonight when local rooters stage a pre-game pep session in the Morris Dailey auditorium at 7:30.

Len Baskin, known on the campus for his performance in Revellies and other programs during the year, will be on hand as master of ceremonies. Baskin promises plenty of entertainment value.

The college band will be on hand to accompany the students in singing of various school songs. Bob Swanson, Jim Fahn, and Tom Taylor, newly-elected yell leaders, will occupy the limelight, leading college songs and yells.

Windsor's Comedy Troupe, better known on the campus as the "Sweat Sock Five", including Bob Tremaine, Jack Windsor, Jim Bailey, and "Fungi" Peters will provide the audience with plenty of laughs, Baskin said. Jack Harcourt and the three "Debs", the Helen Smith trio, Manuel, and the Four Musketeers will also be there to entertain the enthusiastic audience.

Sal Talesfore, freshman from San Jose high school, noted for his singing and impersonations, along with other new freshman talent will provide novelty entertainment for Spartans.

Manuel, San Jose State Alec Templeton, and Sheldon Taix and his orchestra will also share in providing popular songs for the noisy pep-session.

—ON TO STOCKTON—

Pianist Achieves Concert Success

Playing to a crowd which packed the auditorium to overflowing, Benning Dexter, newest faculty member, received a tremendous ovation last night during his debut in Morris Dailey auditorium.

Mr. Dexter, a former concert pianist and graduate of the Juillard School of Music, was presented to San Jose music lovers under the auspices of the Music department.

Barn Dance Bids On Sale Today

Bids are on sale today for Alpha Pi Omega's fourth annual barn dance to be held in Matasci's barn on Downer avenue off Almaden road October 28.

Various square dances will share the spotlight with swing during the evening's dancing. These old-time dances are staging a successful comeback in the East, states Steve Hosa, co-chairman with Charles Faulkerson for the affair.

Prizes will be given for the clearest costumes. Cider will be served to the dancers during the evening's festivities.

Decorations will be in the Hal-lowe'en theme.

Constructive Publicity . . .

In the past, various stunts have emanated from the San Jose State college campus, but few have been as constructive as the recent one concerning German food rations.

A few have been legitimate, but most of them were perpetrated with the sole purpose of personal gain for the instigator. Some of them brought the college adverse criticism from the outside and in one case such a publicity gag was cited and a graduating student teacher was refused a position because of it.

This recent idea has not only brought the right kind of criticism to the college, but is constructive. It points out vividly the hardships of the people of a warring nation. It brings to Americans an idea of the conditions abroad.

War affects a people where they like it the least—in their stomachs.

The old maxim, "All publicity is good publicity" no longer holds true, at least not when the welfare of others is concerned. —Harvie.

From The Student's Angle . . .

There are a hundred-and-one different ideas concerning the means we should take to stay out of war.

There are debates raging in every legislature, in every fraternity house, in every home regarding the arms embargo, the neutrality act, the cash-and-carry provisions, the Monroe Doctrine, and what-not.

We Americans are split up many ways; we college students who are subjected to constant intellectual pressures on the subject of war are in a still greater fog.

But one thing we all do agree upon is this: America should stay out of war.

We college men who will have to fight the next Chateau-Thierry are not anxious to leave our class rooms for French Mud. We don't want to study the workings of a machine gun instead of the theories of John Locke. All of us, I am sure, prefer fighting for democracy here at home with the weapons our education has put at our disposal rather than going across the seas and fighting with bullets and bayonets that "undraftable" Congressmen, steel manufacturers, and rabble-rousers provide for us.

Above all, we college men must make ourselves heard. We must impress this nation—and its representatives in Washington—that we don't want to fight. Even stronger, WE WILL NOT FIGHT IN EUROPE.

This stand does not reflect our courage. Instead it is a happy reflection on our common sense; it is a tribute to our knowledge of a history which proved that wars save the world only for more wars—not for democracy or civilization or peace. —Stanley Frankel, Editorial Chairman, The Daily Northwestern.

THRUST and PARRY

CONTRIBUTORS' COLUMN

A Parry to Miss Betty Clark:

From the tone of your thrust I gather that you are a freshman or a transfer from Santa Clara. For your information, at the rally which was held at the Civic auditorium, 2000 song sheets were passed out to the student body. At this same rally the band played both school songs while the students sang them, also at each and every football game the band and rooters join in singing the "fight song". As for the hymn, Miss Clark, if you would deign sometime, to remain until the closing gun is fired, you would see the students stand up and sing the hymn, "Hail, Gold and White!".

You say, "Give the girls pom-poms", just like that. Have you any idea of the money involved in passing out pom-poms to each of some 2000 co-eds? Probably not; however, this year's rally committee has arranged for next year to have free pom-poms for girls as well as megaphones for the boys, these through the courtesy of Roos Brothers. This year we are forced to ask the girls to buy their own. I am told they will sell for 15 cents—will that overtax your school spirit?

That was a rather nasty dig you took at the Spartan Knights, one unworthy of a lady. May it interest you to know that the Spartan Knights do not serve to earn glory. They, like the Spartan Spears, serve in the background. When a dance or other gathering is lauded as a "grand affair", it isn't the Spears or Knights who have their names in the paper. But you can bet your shirt that one or both were in the background doing their share to put the affair over.

Spears, please note—Miss Clark has professed her willingness to work and she does have a couple of good ideas, also, she should be a sophomore next year.—Hap.

Thrust and Parry:

Fellow freshmen, everyone has been hollering about school spirit. You know that we happen to have a freshman football team. This Saturday night at eight o'clock in Spartan Stadium the team is playing one of its toughest games; St. Mary's frosh are our worthy opponents.

A little support from a rooting section would help the team a heck of a lot. Come on, all you need is a student body card and a loud voice. —A Fellow Frosh.

SHE LIKES US!

Thrust and Parry:

Dear You:

I'm a freshman. I like San Jose State. I like our band. I like the health service. I like the teachers here. I like the girls, even the sophisticated ones. They always smile if you smile first. Sometimes you don't even have to smile first. I like the boys, even the ones who sit in the Quad and make remarks when poor innocent freshman girls walk by. But you just wait. Sometime I'm going to stick out my tongue at the nasty old meanies. But even the nasty old meanies are nice when they aren't sitting in the Quad. And I don't think football players and journalists are egotistical. I like them. It's funny how much fun it is to like things! Don't you think so?

FAT IN THE FIRE

By JIM BAILEY

Friday we take Pacific down the line!

About six o'clock the San Jose State Special will roll into Stockton . . . after eleven o'clock Staggs will think it rolled into him.

Wooster Tech will be there . . . ten cases strong!

Stockton is giving odds on Pacific . . . for four-bits a guy will give you a first mortgage on his home, a half interest in his business, and throw in his wife besides!

I've seen the guy's wife . . . I'll stick to the Co-op coffee!

Hi yuh, "Pety" Hossler and Betty Enigh! There's no sense to this, but I had tuh get yuh somehow!

On the way home we'll stick together . . . until they get the fuses . . . after that it's every man for himself!

Local busses will take us to the depot at 2:05 . . . this is a courtesy so we do not have to miss one o'clock classes . . . heh, heh.

The score of the game will be 21 to 0 in favor of State. The Stockton bunch is overrated . . . they beat Cal . . . who did Cal lick?

FAMOUS FINALES: Pardon my lady, is this train taking a curve or is it me?

Gridders 'Right' For Pacific

Spartans Hit Top Shape

Zetterquist Looks Good In Practice

If things go well the rest of the week, San Jose State's Spartans will enter the College of Pacific game Friday night in the best physical shape possible.

The Spartans also look to be "right" mentally for the crucial so-called "battle of the century". During last night's workout, featuring a brush-up on fundamentals, particularly by backfield blockers, Spartan warriors had pep and vigor to spare.

Advise aplenty on how to whip Coach Amos Alonzo Stagg's Tigers was forthcoming from Advisory Coach "Pop" Warner, whose last encounter against a Stagg-coached team was back in Chicago in 1907 when he brought his Carlisle Indians into town to play Chicago University.

Howard Costello, Spartan left half, looked in good shape after last week's injury, and is ready to take his place along with Minter, and the newly uncovered stars, Staley, Clark, and Carter.

Herman Zetterquist, after a rather rusty comeback from injury in the San Diego game, looked as good as ever in the running of plays to smooth out offensive and defensive tactics which State hopes to employ successfully against Pacific.

Even the senior manager 'screwball' twins, Mazzone and Benevento, were in the swing of things "mentally" last night, coming up with their usual weekly prediction, this time 21-0 in favor of Sparta.

—ON TO STOCKTON—

Water-dogs Prep For Loop Tilts

With three water polo tilts on tap for this week, Coach Charlie Walker's frog pond performers are entering their "Crucial Week" in the Bay City Water Polo league competition.

This afternoon the Spartan frosh play hosts to the San Francisco Jewish Center septet in their second league contest of the season. Saturday night in the Spartan pool both Washington Square squads encounter the strong Athens Athletic club of Oakland in another loop tilt.

The Sparta varsity, having tied its initial league game with the Olympic club, will attempt to hang up its first victory. The Athens club, although beaten by the California Bears who in turn were upset by San Jose, will present a strong team which will be gunning for a win.

In the freshman competition, San Jose's yearlings, smarting under the sting of three consecutive defeats will attempt to regain lost prestige at the hands of the

SPARTA'S ACE BALL PACKER

SPARTANS TRAVEL

Grid Machine Nears Mile Mark

After six games, the San Jose Spartan football machine is only 75 yards short of traveling a mile by land and air. The bulk of yardage has been made by the DeGrootmen's running attack, with Spartan ball-carriers ripping enemy forward walls for a net of 1237 yards. The San Jose passing attack has been good for 448 yards. By combining their running and passing attacks, San Jose's six opponents have amassed but 373 yards.

Bill Dwyer, Ray Fahn Ready For Action In Conference Contest This Afternoon

Although his team is not quite at top strength, Coach Hovey McDonald expects his soccerites to give a good account of themselves when they face Menlo Junior college at Menlo Park this afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Bill Dwyer is back at his center half position after a week's illness, but he is not in best form, according to McDonald. Ray Fahn's knee has not completely healed but he will be in the game.

FROSH DRILL ON DEFENSE IN PRACTICE

Looking better with each practice session, Coach Tiny Hartranft's freshman football eleven will bear down tomorrow afternoon and ease off Thursday, in preparation for Saturday night's important game with the Saint Mary's frosh.

Last night's session was devoted to defensive tactics as it was in this department that the yearlings looked woefully weak against San Mateo. In the scrimmage session both the first and second teams showed great improvement over Monday night's practice.

Fundamentals will be stressed in today's practice as the team looked not too strong in blocking and tackling in its last appearance. Signal drills and light scrimmage ended up the afternoon's work.

Although the Saint Mary's contest is to be played at night, Coach Hartranft stated that there will be no practice drills under the arc lights this week.

The Physical Education department stated yesterday that general admission price has been set at forty cents. A large student turnout is expected as their will be no conflicting grid dates Saturday night.

A. W. S. Cabinet Meets In Union Today At Four

The regular business meeting of the AWS cabinet will be held this afternoon at 4 o'clock in the Student Union.

The meeting will be a short one because of the dance which is being held, but all organizations and class representatives of the AWS are urged to be present.

Representatives of some groups have already been absent from two meetings, and these organizations are warned that unless their representatives are present this time, the group will automatically lose its vote in all AWS affairs for this quarter.

Fight on for old San Jose State
Fight on to victory
We are with you in every way
No matter what the price may be
Onward for Sparta, noble and true
Fight hard in everything you do
And we'll fight! Rah! Win! Rah!
Go onward down the field
And we'll win the day

POLICE ENTER FULL TEAM IN PISTOL SHOOT

San Jose State college's nationally-known Police School will enter a full team in the Northern California Pistol Matches at Sunnyvale Sunday.

Recently organized under the directorship of Frank Kallam, police student and member of the San Jose Pistol club, the Police School pistol team is composed of five regular members and five alternates. Members of the first team are Voris Newstetter, who recently took a third place in the Tri-State Pistol Matches at Fort Funston; Jack Fancher, William Davenport, Leo Singer, and Robert Mogens.

Arthur Besemer, Livingstone Hay, John Sergi, Phillip Jacob, and Robert Nagel make up the alternate team. Sunday's meet is sponsored by the San Jose Pistol club under whose colors Coach Frank Kallam is shooting.

By VANCE PERRY

"Hitler believed that signing the Russo-German pact would enable him to get what he wanted in Poland without war," Dr. Victor M. Hunt, assistant professor of history, stated yesterday before the Behind the News class.

Since the situation did not work out as Hitler planned, he "found himself in a war he did not want", Dr. Hunt maintained.

TOOK ADVANTAGE

Russia has merely taken advantage of the treaty and German weakness and will follow along with Germany only as far as it is to her own advantage, he believes.

In explaining the puzzle of the alliance between the two countries, previously bitter enemies, Dr. Hunt brought out the breakdown of negotiations between England and Russia.

REFUSED GUARANTEE

England refused to guarantee the safety of the Baltic states (Latvia, Estonia, and Lithuania), thereby making Russia suspicious that England was leaving a way open in case England went to war with the Soviet, in the opinion of Dr. Hunt.

The speaker qualified his remarks with the statement that no one could predict the forthcoming events in Europe with accuracy; he could only outline possibilities and take his choice.
