

Dialect Skit Jamboree Hit Number

Benefit Show Stars
Mae Zimmerman,
Lowell Jones' Band

Outstanding hit of the Community Chest Jamboree on November 7 will be the Italian dialect skit presented by Bill Abdallah, popular Spartan footballer, and Walter Mazzone.

At least this is the conclusion drawn after a rehearsal of the pair yesterday, an audition at which the small preview crowd literally rolled in the aisles at the rib-tickling comedy.

SWEET SWING

Besides this act, the Tuesday night campus benefit variety will feature the "Sweet Swing" of Lowell Jones and his Hotel St. Claire.

FORESTRY TRAINING CURBS TIMBER LOSSES: JACOBS

What California's 600 thousand acres of burned over forest lands and San Jose State college's Forestry department bear in relation to each other may not be readily discernible to the untrained observer, but to Mr. Allen W. Jacobs, head of the department, the two are not as widely at variance as they may appear.

Stressing the fact that well trained men are vitally necessary in combating fires, diseases of trees, and in enforcing preventative measures, the Forestry head was particularly insistent in stating that corps of well-trained men are infinitely preferable to a large group of semi-trained ones.

FORESTRY DIFFICULT

"Forestry courses are not easy," Mr. Jacobs said. "In recent years

MYSTERY OF 1889 CHAIR IS SOLVED HERE

Age, tradition, mystery, and comfort... what more could you want in a chair?

Not a thing, according to Dr. Elder, who counts as an important part of his office equipment a chair presented by the class of '89 (that's 1889) to Miss Ruth Royce, head librarian then.

Two members of that class who were campus visitors last week decided to track down that particular chair and eventually found it—not in the library, but in Dr. Elder's office.

How it got there is the mystery... but you try keeping track of a chair for half a century.

First Swim-A-Nic Of Fall Quarter Held Tomorrow

First quarterly Swim-a-nic open to all women students will be held tomorrow afternoon at four o'clock.

Recreation swimming is scheduled from 4 to 5:30 followed by a dinner at the Italian Hotel.

BLUES CHASER

This mid-quarter party is planned as a blue card blues chaser and Miss Tucker, club director, invites all girls, regardless of their ability, to come on out and drown their sorrows.

The price of the dinner is fifty cents including tax. All girls should sign up today either at the pool or in the Women's gym, so that reservations can be made. She further stated that girls wishing to sit together should sign their names together with brackets around them.

MEET AT MEN'S GYM

Jean Cancilla, chairman of the Swim-a-nic, requests that all girls going to the dinner meet at the Men's gym and walk down to the hotel together. After the dinner, the girls will return to the campus by seven o'clock in time for the campus meetings. She also asks swimmers to bring their own caps and an o.k. from the Health department.

Dramatists Await First Performance Of Season Opener

'Twelfth Night' Begins
Tomorrow Evening
For Three-Day Run

Shakespeare's farewell to comedy, "Twelfth Night", will be presented Wednesday, Thursday, and Saturday evenings in the Little Theater.

As the San Jose Players' first production of the year, these performances will feature new costumes, new lighting equipment, a large revolving stage, and, according to Mr. James Clancy, an exceptional array of talent.

Authentic songs and dances of the period will be seen. Music and dances are directed by Miss Alma Williams and Miss Marjorie Lucas.

Bob Gleason, who plays the part of the court fool, Feste, will sing several love songs and songs of a comical bent.

Rehearsals For Spartan Revue Start Tonight

General rehearsal of participants in the "Spartan Revue" which will be presented in Morris Dailey auditorium November 21, has been called for tonight at 7:30 in the auditorium by co-directors Jim Fahn and Bob Locks.

They announce that all singers must be present as the orchestra will be on hand to go over the vocal numbers. Also requested to be present are the following men who have been chosen to appear in the sports parade number: Todd, Sunseri, T. Vasconcellos, Bagby, Gurnea, Hill, Stan Smith, Amann, Masdeo, Bruno, Foster, Friel, Titchenal, Zimmerman, Johnson, Bronzan, Krysiak, R. Fahn.

SENIOR CLASS COMMITTEE MEETS THURSDAY

Members of the senior class committee will meet Thursday at 12:30 in Room 24, Ham Hodgson, class president, announced yesterday.

Expected to attend the meeting are all newly-elected class officers and those who ran for office. Plans for a joint junior-senior class meeting and mixer will be made.

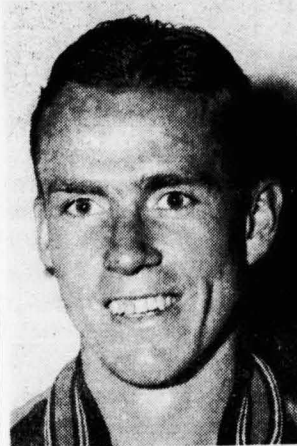

Hodgson requests any senior genuinely interested in serving on committees for the mixer to attend the meeting.

Newly-elected officers, besides Hodgson, are Harvey Rhodes, vice-president; Bob Bronzan, treasurer; Tony Nasimento, sergeant-at-arms; Myrl Roberts, Lucille Johnson, and Selma Kann will again vie for the office of secretary at the next all class meeting.

Chest Jamboree

Community Chest Jamboree talent will meet today in the Morris Dailey auditorium for rehearsals and tryouts.

HAM HODGSON

"Something will have to be done about the student body ticket situation. It can't go on as it is." So stated Council Member Ham Hodgson yesterday in regard to the local practice of loaning student body cards.

Hodgson, prominent in campus affairs, served with other council members Friday night in checking student tickets at the stadium gates. "Photographs seem to be the only solution, as we can't possibly know all of the students," he stated.

STUDENT BODY DANCE SET FOR NOV. 4

Dress like the pledges—or worse! Here is the chance students have been waiting for—to forget their pride and dress as they please for the Ragtime dance to be held in the Men's gym Saturday night, November 4.

Sheldon Taix's orchestra will play at the second evening student body event of the quarter, according to Selma Kann, social affairs chairman.

Decorations will be carried out in a back alley or tenement district fashion, according to students in charge. Emily Doane, Gay Van Perre, and Viola Owen make up the decoration committee.

Students will be admitted with the presentation of student body cards. Outsiders accompanied by students will be charge 25 cents. No stags will be allowed.

POYTRESS TELLS OF WAR EFFECTS

The effects of the war on American business will be discussed by Dr. William Poytress, head of the Social Science department, at the weekly meeting of the Behind the News class at noon.

A talk by an army man on the military aspects of the war was originally scheduled but restrictions imposed by the army prevented his making a public address, Dr. Poytress said.

TRYOUTS FOR 'CHRISTMAS CAROL' FRIDAY

Story Dramatized By Margaret Douglas;
63 Characters In Cast

Tryouts for the San Jose Players' production of "Christmas Carol" will be held from 4 to 6 p.m. Friday in the Morris Dailey auditorium, Miss Margaret Douglas of the Speech department announces.

The cast of this well-known Christmas story will number about 63 characters. It should afford all those who are interested in dramatics an opportunity to display their talents, Miss Douglas said.

Miss Douglas, who will direct the play, has dramatized the story. Copies of the story and scripts will be placed on reserve in the library sometime today.

Miss Douglas asks that all those who wish to compete in eliminations try out for one of the following characters. She will select all characters from these readings.

They are: Scrooge, Scrooge as a young man; Bob Cratchit, Fred, Marley's ghost; Mrs. Cratchit, Fred's wife; Mr. and Mrs. Fezziwig, Ghost of Christmas Past; Ghost of Christmas Present, who should be a huge, jolly fellow, Death, who should be tall with long fingers.

Wells Announces Frosh Garb Drive

A drive to get all freshmen to wear the class garb—jean-jackets—has started, according to Bill Wells, president.

The blue jackets, selling for $1.55, have an emblem of "S.J." with "43" and "State" over it. Students wishing to buy a jacket may find out the particulars from members of the committee: Kenny Oliphant, Forrest Michaelis, or see the notice on the bulletin board.

The next class meeting will be held November 7 in the Morris Dailey at which time plans for a skating party and the Frosh-Soph Mixer will be discussed.

DEVOSS SPEAKS ON WORKS OF KUNKEL TODAY

Dr. James DeVoss will speak to the Philosophy of Life Discussion Group on the life and work of Dr. Fritz Kunkel, noted German psychiatrist, at a meeting of the group today at 4:30 in Room 14.

Having attended a ten-day course under Dr. Kunkel in 1936 and being familiar with all his books, Dr. DeVoss is well qualified to introduce this well-known psychiatrist to the group, states Agnes Rider and Bill Nitschke, chairmen.

Because Dr. Kunkel is scheduled to speak on the campus next week, this introduction to his life and work should be all the more interesting to the college students. This meeting is open to everyone who wishes to attend.

This Co-op Question . . .

Throughout the country there has been the expansion of cooperative houses on many college campuses. Started only a few years ago among southern colleges, the idea has spread like wildfire until the houses have become a necessity for many students who, if not for these facilities, would be deprived of an education.

How does San Jose State college figure in these houses? We are sorry to state that the college can only boast of three. With about two-thirds of our students from out of town, this seems to be a small percentage.

Other colleges and administrations have aided potential students in receiving an education; what's to stop us from doing the same. We are situated in a district where many of the houses are favorably large. Many of these are not receiving the income that might be had from a cooperative system. A few dollars for alterations, someone to assume the responsibility, and a few dollars each month for maintenance from the students will soon form a well-established house.

Opposition to co-op houses seems to come from those who are sitting pretty from the room rent of students now living in their quarters. With housing conditions such as they are, this is a plight that can be remedied. Let's improve the conditions that confront us with something more practical that will not only aid us but the college and San Jose as well.

—Maynard.

POSSIBLE SOLUTION . . .

As a possible solution to both the problems of illegal use of student body cards and the juvenile antics of some parts of the rooting section, College President T. W. MacQuarrie suggests the formation of a regular rooters' club made up of students who would annually be elected or appointed to membership.

The club, an honorary society, would function as a well-organized rooting section of men and women with only these students allowed to sit in the center section. It would be formed around an honorary service unit such as the Spartan Knights.

As I See It

By EUGENE HARVIE

Last year there was a clamor for one of the new electric organs, plans were made for noon organ concerts to be broadcast in the inner Quad, the organ was purchased and programs were begun and then as suddenly discontinued.

There are some of us who enjoy good music and it is too bad these programs were stopped. Here at the college we have good talent and more could be brought out by these organ interludes if they were to be continued this year as first planned.

This type of entertainment is enjoyed by most people on the campus but because of unvoiced means of showing their appreciation, the students have been deprived of their noon programs.

Oh Scholars! Oh Scholars!

Oh Scholars! Oh Scholars! Our judgment day has come. The devils checked the average list and and totaled up the sum. The end is near, the cards are here, we students all complaining, While on the campus lawns the tears, Our needless tears are raining; But oh Profs! Profs! Profs! Won't you reconsider? Won't you give us one more chance, Or must our lives be bitter?

The professors do not answer us, their hearts have turned to stone, The teachers share no sympathy, we walk the deck alone, Their minds are made up once and all, their verdicts have been cast, And we must try to lift our heads and face the winter blast; Sneeze, O Profs, and shake your heads And pin us to the wall, But we'll even up with you the day St. Peter judges all.

Just Among Ourselves

By DR. T. W. MacQUARRIE

I returned from that Pacific game with more and more admiration for the sportsmanship and courtesy exhibited by their students and faculty. Their welcome was wholehearted. They supported their own team and college, of course, but their fun was good, jolly stuff.

Never before was there such a crowd at a game in Stockton. It overflowed not only the stadium, but the town and the country roundabout. Many of us were inconvenienced. You can't put 15,000 people in a place designed for 10,000. The game, however, was a grand success. We may consider ourselves fortunate in having such a good neighbor as Pacific.

For ourselves, we need a little help. Most of us know the elements of courtesy and sportsmanship and we did enter into the spirit of the program. We accepted the inconveniences with good grace.

Quite a large number of us, however, so far forgot ourselves as either to sell or lend our student body cards to outsiders. The result was that we had in the seats reserved for students a gang of hoodlums and toughs that accepted no responsibility whatever and tended to cast discredit upon the rest of us.

A good many of the incidents were pretty crude. My impression of the evening was that a number of our students accepted the leadership or the suggestion of these outsiders and conducted themselves in a manner befitting a Bowery crowd rather than a group of college people.

One poor fellow, a former student, I understand, seemed to get a great kick out of exhibiting a flask, which he wished us to believe was filled with liquor. It looked to me like an effort at compensation. Evidently he could not attract attention by anything he could do that was worthwhile, and so he made up for his lowly position by trying to shock the rest of us.

Let's look over the noisy ones next time, and refuse to accept their leadership.

Corn Off The Cob

By Jack Duttweiler

We saw about a hundred women the other day.

And we saw about a hundred different types of women's hats. Hats! Hats! Hats! Tall hats, short hats, round hats, square hats. Ugly, eye-blinding hats.

What's more, no two hats were alike. Not a one in the hundred looked like another. Maybe that's because we didn't see any college gals with hats on.

Ah, the college woman hat. There's a hat for you. It's simple, it's cute, it's sporty, it's just the right shape. We don't know the name of the hat. We don't know what it sells for nor at what store. We just call it the "whatchamacallit" hat with the feather in it. They don't always have feathers, but most of them do. We like the feathers, just as much as we like the hats.

Most every gal who goes to college wears this type of hat. We've seen them at football games, basketball games, water polo games. We've seen them at concerts, plays, circuses. These hats aren't loud.

They always come in solid colors. We've seen tan ones, black ones, red ones, green ones, blue ones. We don't have to go home and bathe our eyes after looking at these hats.

But then every once in a while the "rat in the woodpile" puts in an appearance, and in this case it's the college girl who rebels and dives into her mother's closet to dig up something "different from what the other girls are wearing". She comes out looking like a cross between a, a—well, words fail us, but you get what we mean.

Maybe we're prejudiced. Maybe we like the "whatchamacallit" hat because it's built on the same lines as a man's hat. But that has nothing to do with it. The fact remains that we like the college woman hat alongside of all other hats, and nothing can change our mind—not even a complete revolution in the hat industry.

We're going to stop now. We've talked so much that we're going hats—er, ah—bats.

Thrust and Parry

(Ed. Note: This column expresses the writer's views. The Spartan Daily assumes no responsibility for the opinions expressed.)

Dear Thrust and Parry and Mr. Weissburg:

How enlightening your epistle or shall we say your expostulation is to the student body in general. Might I try to enlighten you to the fact that you are compelled to do nothing with the exception of dying. Therefore, my friend, you are not compelled to stand uncomfortably in the Co-op; I do not recall at this time the exact number of stools around the counter, I'm inclined to think that there are enough.

I also might add that there was a student council vote regarding the smoking question. They voted that there was to be no smoking on the second floor of the Student Union.

Regarding the thought of careful smoking, now quite seriously, have you ever seen a great number of careful smokers? I have not!

If you guaranteed to pick up all of the cigarette butts and ashes on the carpets, something might be done. As Jim fattyfire says, "Send me an envelope for further comment, I'll gladly steam off the stamp." Goodbye now.

Basketball 'Break' Not Official

POLOISTS PLAY INDIANS

THE SPORTS Pony Express

By PONY SWENSON

They say Leroy Zimmerman is all-American fullback timber, and our "Zimmy's" record bears out this contention. Let's take a look at what lean Leroy has done to date to help the Spartans win eight straight football battles.

GROUND GAINER—He's carried the ball 82 times, gained 369 yards, lost 24, and failed to gain 15 times. Average that up and you find the Spartan blonde bombshell cracking opposing forward walls for an average of 4.2 yards per play.

Zimmerman That's pretty fancy stepping in any man's league. VIA AIR—With State's running attack hitting on all six, the Spartans haven't had to call on "Zim" to unlimber his throwing arm very much so far this season. However, his slingshot has hurled out 44 passes, connecting 18 times for a total gain of 304 yards. Only one throw has been intercepted. That's 41 per cent complete and an average toss of 16.88 yards.

He kicks like an army mule, and his punts have traveled for an average of 40 yards, which is a nifty booting record when you consider that a lot of "Zim's" kicks have been aimed at the "coffin corner". His kickoffs frequently sail into the end zone.

HAS OOMF!—Zimmerman is football's "omf man". He's to football what the "clutch hitter" is to baseball. Give "Zim" a crack at the enemy when the going is tough and he is at his best. He was the spark that wilted COP's resistance and he gave the Spartans the "lift" to whallop the USF Dons, in San Jose's two toughest ball games. HAS EVERYTHING—When you combine our Leroy's triple threat ability with his other playing attributes that won't fit in cold, hard statistics, you have one of the best backfield men in collegiate football today. And when the all-American selections are made, Sparta's "Zimmy" will have to be reckoned with.

Waterdogs Face Stanford Here Tomorrow Night

Deprived of the Bay City Water Polo league championship for the first time in four years, San Jose's varsity water polo septet will attempt to do the impossible by defeating Stanford University tomorrow night in Spartan pool. The frosh club, also out of the loop running, will meet the Indian Papooses in the preliminary contest at 8 p.m.

Their title hopes blasted by the more experienced Olympic club team last week, the Washington Square Seals will consider the season a success if they are able to defeat Stanford tomorrow and University of California next week. Nosed out by a 6 to 4 count earlier in the season, the Spartans, with the advantage of playing in their own pool, should prove a worthy foe of the Redskins, who upset University of Southern California Friday afternoon.

The California Bears, already humbled by the State water dogs, will be out for revenge when the two teams meet next week.

The frosh septet, in their encounter with the Stanford first-year men, should emerge victorious once again, as the Papooses have been defeated by many of the foes the Spartlets have conquered.

Tau Delt, Daily Play Championship Game

It will be the brains of the school facing the journalists, when the Tau Delt's oppose the Spartan Daily in the intramural football championship encounter at noon today on the San Carlos turf.

The Tau Delt and Daily teams have won two contests and lost one. Today's game will be the final intramural grid tussle this quarter, according to Coach Tiny Hartranft.

Christian Science organization meeting tonight in Room 155.

Frosh Please Hartranft In Win; Ventura Next

"Sammy Miller was terrific and the entire team looked very well," stated Coach Tiny Hartranft yesterday concerning the freshmen's first victory of the year over Santa Maria J.C. Friday night.

"Although the Santa Maria team did not look too strong, their record for the season showed that they have defeated some good teams this year," Hartranft added. The Santa Maria eleven defeated Taft 7 to 6 earlier in the season, while Taft nosed out Ventura J.C., the Spartlets' opponents this week, by an 8 to 7 count. This will give local gridiron followers a chance for comparative scores of the Ventura Frosh game Friday night in

BRONZAN IN SHAPE FOR WILLAMETTE GAME FRIDAY

Although their was doubt yesterday that "Bronco Bob" Bronzan would be able to play in the game with Willamette Friday due to a rib injury, it was definitely learned last night that the stellar State tackle will make the trip to Salem, Oregon.

Because of his need at the ever-important tackle position, Bronzan, after responding to treatment, will be patched up to face the strong Willamette University eleven.

After Portland University's 14-12 upset of the St. Mary's Gaels last Sunday, the Spartans now have plenty of respect for the Willamette team that held the Portlanders to a 0-0 tie early this season.

Dud DeGroot showed plenty of fear for the Wildcats in yesterday's workout. He gave the locals a stiff drill on Spartan field yesterday afternoon and has a chalk talk and night drilled lined up for today.

The workout followed the same "blue Monday" routine, with the second and third stringers getting some heavy scrimmage, while the regulars worked on fundamentals and timing of plays.

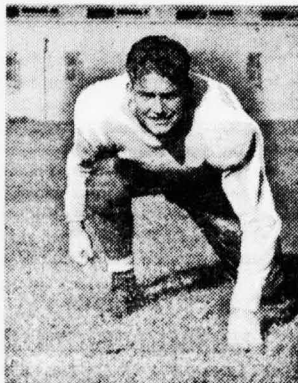

San Jose also began working on a pass defense to stop the Oregonians. The tackles were given a heavy drill in the rudiments of preventing ends from getting down under passes. Coach "Pop" Warner took the squad over at the close of practice to conduct a lengthy workout on the blocking dummies. The "Old Fox" reached down in the bag of tricks and came up with a few new plays to add to the Spartans' repertoire.

Guard Ken Cook, State's ace place kicker, showed up at practice with a badly swollen ankle, which has been bothering him since the University of San Francisco game. However, he is expected to be ready for Willamette.

Chuck John Johnson, who missed the Santa Barbara game with a banged-up hip, reported for practice last night and came through the drill in good shape.

Coach Dud DeGroot expects to take a squad of 35 men.

Spartan With Kick

Above is Ken Cook, Sparta's ace place-kicking guard who has a toe with an I-Q. The handsome San Josean has booted through three field goals and nine placements after touch-down for a neat 18-point scoring total.

P.A.A. Wrestling Tourney Here

First wrestling event of the quarter will take place Friday night at seven o'clock when San Jose State college will be host to several institutions entered in the Junior Pacific Athletic Association tournament to be held in the local gymnasium.

About 60 are expected to enter the tourney, Gene Grattan, Spartan wrestling coach, announced yesterday. Grattan's men will be entered.

Anyone who has won a first place in a tournament is not eligible. Men from lightweight to heavyweight divisions will come from Stanford, Olympic club, California, San Mateo junior college, San Jose high school, and San Jose State college.

Admission to the event is free.

P.C.C. Rules Are Asked By Santa Clara Board

By FRANK BONANNO

"Basketball relations with Santa Clara University have not been severed as far as San Jose State college is concerned, and we will fulfill our 1939-40 contract when the time comes."

NO OFFICIAL BREAK

This was the official announcement issued yesterday by Dud DeGroot, head of the men's Physical Education department. DeGroot stated that San Jose State college has not been officially notified of a break in basketball relations with the University of Santa Clara, but if any break in relations comes, it will be from Santa Clara sources.

According to your reporter, the situation at the present time looks as though the Board of Athletics at Santa Clara are looking for an excuse to drop the Spartans from their schedule. The break, if any, will be caused by the fact San Jose will use junior college transfers who are in their third year of competition.

TWO DEMANDS

The powers that be at the University of Santa Clara have made two demands. One is that San Jose State discard rules of the California Collegiate Athletic Association of which it is a member and abide by the rules of the Pacific Coast Conference of which it is not a member. Santa Clara is not a member of the P.C.C. but does abide by its rules in all games it plays.

The other is that if San Jose does not follow P.C.C. rules, they must not use junior college transfers who are playing their third year of varsity competition. DeGroot stated yesterday that San Jose State would not abide by the P.C.C. rules but would follow the same policy that it has pursued for the past four years when playing Santa Clara.

CONTRACT

The Spartans have a contract with the Mission town school that stipulates a three-game schedule for the coming season. Whether these games will be played this year depends on the board of athletics at the University of Santa Clara.

Negotiations are underway at the present between the two schools and in all probability a solution will be found and both teams will continue the cross-town basketball feud that has attracted state interest when these two teams meet.

Social Service Committee Asks For Donations

Clothing And Books Urged For Local Migratory Camps

By IRENE MELTON

Donations of clothing, shoes, books, and games are requested by the Social Service Committee, sponsored by the YWCA, according to Stella Knapp, chairman of the committee.

This request is the result of a survey made of several migratory camps in Santa Clara County and vicinity, a project in which members of the committee visited the camps and obtained first-hand reports of the existing conditions.

STUDIES REVEAL NEED

Studies made in a local camp, containing 49 families, reveal the need for clothing, particularly shoes, since many children of school age are unable to attend because they have no shoes nor books.

One of the cabins, which has been converted into a recreation room and library, is practically bare, the few shelves filled with heavy religious works or deep psychological works puzzling to childish minds.

FOR YOUNGSTERS

Since the library is primarily for the use of the youngsters, there is great need for children's books, colorful picture booklets and simple stories especially written for juveniles.

A box of oddly assorted games, including a few jacks, marbles, and broken crayons, reveals the necessity for contributions of games. Members of the Social Service Committee visit the camps weekly to supervise recreational activities.

Contributions should be turned in to the 'Y' room, requests Miss Brown, who also announces the need for a woman student to help supervise games at the local Mexican settlement, transportation to be provided for anyone who volunteers for the position.

According to Miss Knapp, there will be a meeting of the Social Committee Thursday at 12:30 in the 'Y' room.

FRENCH SOCIETY HOLDS PARTY

Members of Iota Delta Phi, French honorary society, had a Halloween party at the home of Barney Murphy last night, who is one of the two male members of the group of twenty.

A ghost alleged to have haunted the home on similar parties before and about which some anticipation and apprehension was being felt by the group, did not make an appearance.

This gathering will be in conjunction with an initiation to be staged by the Rainbow Girls, it was announced.

With the program of activities to begin at about 2:30, the neophytes will put on a cow-riding exhibition. Refreshments will be served, it was pointed out.

Following a few games, dinner will be served at about 6 o'clock for 25 cents a person. Dancing is scheduled to begin at 7:00 and conclude the day's activities.

DEBATERS SPEAK TO WOMEN'S CLUB ON HAM 'N EGGS

Speaking to a business women's group in Schofield Hall of the city Y.W.C.A. last night four debaters from San Jose State college discussed the Ham and Egg question.

Woodrow Semerau told how warrants would be issued and their value, if the plan passes; Al Aiton spoke on the administration under the act; Wesley Young explained the banking set-up; and David Atkinson told of the taxation if Proposition No. 1 should pass.

Lyle Derby and Ellis Rother, also Spartan debaters, gave a non-decision debate against University of California at Berkeley last night. Topic of the debate was, "Resolved That All Relief Should Be On A Production Basis".

Methods Class Now Showing Art Exhibit

Featuring a collection of Chinese art objects, the exhibit on display in the Home Economics building this week is a project of the Education 342 Methods class.

Brush paintings of Manchu ancestors, dating back to 1700, a bronze flatiron, a libation cup, brass bookends, a teapot made of pewter inlaid with brass, and many other pieces of rare beauty comprise the display which was planned by Miss Hazel Cobb, a student of Dr. Jones' class.

WOMEN ARE INVITED TO ORCHESIS MEET

All women interested in dance are invited to attend meetings of Junior Orchesis held every Thursday evening at five o'clock in the dance studio, Miss Marjorie Lucas, instructor, announced yesterday.

There are no requirements for admission to the group and regular attendance is not compulsory.

One quarter's participation in the group's activities is a requirement for tryouts for membership in Orchesis, women's honorary dance society. Members of the honorary group present special techniques at each meeting.

Both organizations are sponsored by W.A.A. and represented on its board.

Presley Awarded 'Pen Of Week'

Don Presley, giant Spartan guard, is the winner of this week's Ace Bagby "Pen of the Week" award, according to the judges.

Another flip of the coin was necessary to determine whether this week's fountain pen should go to Presley or to Bob Bronzan, another giant in the Spartan stand against Santa Barbara State, it was announced.

Bagby announces that one more pen of the week award will be made following the Drake game.

Partridge Etchings In Art Exhibit

Twenty-five etchings by Mr. Rol Partridge, well-known American etcher, are now on exhibit in the main hall of the Art building and will remain there throughout the week.

Mr. Partridge, who is head of the Art department at Mills College in Oakland, is considered to be a master of etching in America. The works on exhibit are studies in trees and landscapes.

All persons interested in etchings have been invited to witness the exhibit, according to Art department officials.

Deputy Sheriff Talks To Student Officers

Police students will hear another guest speaker prominent in law enforcement work this morning when Thomas Graham, deputy sheriff, speaks before the class in Introduction to Police Organization and Administration.

Mr. Graham will base his talk on federal officers and police work. The speaker held a law enforcement position with the United States government for eight years.

Law Secretary Speaks Before Pre-Legal Club

A member of the local chapter of the California Federation of Legal Secretaries, Miss Emily Dahlberg addressed the San Jose State college Pre-Legal club yesterday.

Miss Dahlberg pointed out that a year as secretary under supervision of a lawyer is basis of membership in the club.

The point was also made that the teachings of a textbook are put into direct use by the law secretary.

BOB FISHER NEW COMMERCE CLUB PRESIDENT

Bob Fisher was elected Commerce club president for the year at their election meeting last week.

Other officers elected were Juanita Hadfield, secretary-treasurer; Emily Currier, social affairs; Victor Christiansen, publicity. Outgoing President Jerry Fitzgerald presided.

Also discussed at the meeting was the Commerce club Cut-up, the group's annual party, which is set for November 17. Door prizes, games, and dancing will be on the program for the affair.

Neutrality Laws May Intensify Nazi Campaign

Revision of existing neutrality laws may mean the intensification of the war campaign by Germany, said Dr. William Poytress, head of the Social Science department, yesterday.

Releasing unlimited arms supplies to the Allies will mean that Germany must attempt to complete her victories soon, he intimated.

WINTER INTERFERES

Many authorities consider an effective campaign on the western front impossible with the early onset of winter, Dr. Poytress points out.

The Social Science department head discounts the idea of thrusts by Germany through Switzerland or Belgium. Such an attack would be virtually impossible through Switzerland during the winter months and Belgium is better prepared now than in 1914, he maintained.

"If Germany wants to bring the U.S. into the war, she should invade Belgium or Switzerland," he said. "And going through Belgium wouldn't be the walkaway it was in the first World War."

FRENCH LINE TO SEA

He also pointed out that the French Maginot Line followed the French-Belgian border clear to the sea.

FOREST FIRES

"Fires are classified into three groups: A, B, and C. Foresters classify a fire as an "A" if it burns up to a quarter of an acre; a "B" from one quarter to ten acres; and a "C" from ten and over. Most human-set fires are class "C," he concluded.

San Jose State college's Forestry department was started in 1932 when Mr. Jacobs began his teaching here. Though small, it is efficient and transfers to universities are rated favorably, it was learned.

NOTICES

Haworth Speaks At A.E.S. Meeting Tomorrow Night

Alpha Eta Sigma members meet tomorrow evening at 7:30 at the home of Mr. Weaver Meadows in Campbell.

Special speaker for the evening will be Mr. Ed Haworth, college appointment secretary. His subject will be "Employment Aspects of Accountants". He will also show his films on the New York World Fair.

Any member who needs transportation should meet in front of the Student Union at 7:00, Mr. Anthony Morelli.

At the last meeting of the organization Mr. Arthur Kelley and Mr. Weaver Meadows, faculty advisers for the local chapter, presented their Alpha Eta Sigma keys.

AIRMEN MEETING TOMORROW

Twenty Flying club and State College Flyers will hold joint meeting tomorrow noon in Room 111, Bob Work, head of the latter club, announces.

The flying program for the rest of the quarter will be discussed and any problems that arise concerning flight schedules will be handled.

Several members of the State College Flyers, a newly-organized club, will be ready to solo in a few days, Work added. Eight hours of dual instruction are necessary before soloing, according to government requisites.

TRYOUTS

Master of ceremonies for the first half of the program will be the inimitable Len Baskin, well known for his fine work in the Revelries last year and several other campus shows in which he displayed his ability as a comedian. Jim Bailey will direct the last half of the show, to be based on the theme of a minstrel show.

HAM 'N EGGS

Also on the program will be "Ham and Eggs" novelty skit by Happy LaBee and assistants and those campus cut-ups, the "Sock Five".

All organizations who have yet turned in their quotas to the Community Chest are asked to do so as soon as possible by Bob Work, chairman of the college campaign.

"Although the college Chest campaign does not end until November 14, campus organizations must turn in their contributions to the controller's office before the downtown campaign closes November 10. Work stated.
